GENERAL QUARTERS SURPRISES AT TAMPA

Second in his last two tries at Tampa Bay Downs, General Quarters (Sky Mesa) turned the tables on his rivals to post an unequivocal success in the GIII Sam F. Davis S. yesterday afternoon. The grey began his career in Kentucky, and was claimed for $20,000 by Tom McCarthy from Ken and Sarah Ramsey out of a winning debut at Churchill last May. McCarthy saddled the colt for his next five starts, including a third to Silver City (Unbridled's Song) in a Nov. 29 allowance at Churchill. Turned over to Tampa-based Mark Miller, he settled for the runner-up spot in both the Inaugural S. Dec. 27 and Pasco S. Jan. 17, but the blinkers were taken off today. General Quarters broke alertly from post two and raced along eagerly in second as A.P. Cardinal (A.P. Indy) showed the way while drifting out. The 13-1 shot came through on the rail to take the lead turning for home and, despite displaying a high knee action, opened up on his rivals. Cont. p2

SANTA TERESITA SCORES IN SANTA MARIA

Santa Teresita (Lemon Drop Kid), acquired privately last summer by Southern Equine Stable, picked up her first win in those colors with a rousing score yesterday in the GI Santa Maria H. at Santa Anita. Marzeline (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and Model (Giant's Causeway) dead-heated for second. MGISW Country Star (Empire Maker) reared in the gate and was a late scratch; it was the second such withdrawal for the Bobby Frankel trainee, who had flipped in the gate prior to the GI Gazelle S. last September at Belmont. Cont. p3

LIFE IS LIKE A BOX OF CHOCOLATES...

You never know what you're gonna get. Sent off at 1-2 in the GIII El Camino Real Derby on Valentine's Day at Golden Gate, Chocolate Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) had a wide trip, but dug in gamely to deny Massone (Menifee) by a half-length. Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer said Chocolate Candy might go in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 14, or Matt Schriock/Vassar Photography could skip ahead to the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 4. Cont. p5

"[General Quarters] proved a lot today," said winning trainer Mark Miller. "I'm looking at the [GIII] Tampa Bay Derby [Mar. 14], as long as everything's OK. That's the next step." As for how he wound up training General Quarters, Miller explained. "Mr. McCarthy got him in Kentucky; I was stabled next to him in Kentucky, and that's how we met. He sent the horse down here to me, and he just loves it here. He loves the track; this is the best place to be in the winter time. The track surface, the people, the atmosphere...the horse just loves it. And that's all we're trying to do: keep him happy. He seems to be on the improve." McCarthy added, "I'm the groom--I'm out here every day, and we work as a team. I sent General Quarters down to Mark, and we correspond. When I got down here, I just started rubbing him." McCarthy confirmed that the Tampa Bay Derby would be next, followed by a return to Kentucky for the GI Blue Grass S. Apr. 11 at Keeneland.

Sumo (Fusaichi Pegasus), dismissed at 33-1 despite a local allowance success Jan. 30, outfinished previously unbeaten Musket Man (Yonaguska) to complete the $893.80 exacta. The 9-5 chalk Free Country (Big Country) looked to be sitting in a good spot on the far turn, but came up empty in the lane and sustained his first career defeat while crossing the line fourth.

Santa Teresita ran second to champion Zenyatta in the GII Milady H. last May at Hollywood for trainer David Hofmans. That effort caught the attention of Southern Equine Stable, which purchased her privately and sent her to the GII Delaware H. in July. A desultory seventh that day, the bay returned home to finish third in Zenyatta's GI Lady's Secret S. Sept. 27 at Oak Tree, but she could only manage seventh behind the champ in the GI Ladies Classic (nee Distaff) at the Breeders' Cup Oct. 24. A switch to grass didn't perk her up, either, and she faded to 10th in the Gill Tuzla H. Jan. 25 at Santa Anita. Santa Teresita was a threatening presence from the start in second as Briecat (Adcat) showed the way, and ranged up to take command on the far turn. Joe Talamo kept the five-year-old busy down the stretch on her way to her first Grade I success. Ballymore Lady's maiden voyage over the Tampa turf resulted in a second-place finish in a Dec. 20 allowance, but she was put up to first that day. Sent to Gulfstream for a deep renewal of the Marshua's River S. Jan. 11, the bay finished fourth, beaten two lengths. The six-year-old settled in eighth, angled out for running room in the lane and finished up strongly to notch her first graded success. "She likes the track here and ran really well here last time," said Brendan Walsh, assistant to winning trainer Eddie Kenneally. "She ran a very good race at Gulfstream last time out. We thought she had a good shot for this one. We'll see how she comes out of this and go on from there."

Dismissed at boxcar odds, How's Your Halo kept tabs pacesetter Ikigai from the start and edged past him to post a career-best success. Owner/trainer Brian Prichard claimed the Florida-bred for $40,000 during the winter of his three-year-old campaign, and went on to land Calder's Eillo S. with him later that summer. He notched several more black-type placings over the course of his next two seasons, including a second to Benny the Bull in the GII Smile Sprint H. last July, but a decision to send him out of Florida proved less than fruitful. Turned over to Wesley Ward for a pair of starts, the bay finished 11th in the GII Pat O'Brien H. on Del Mar's Polytrack Aug. 24 and eighth in the Kentucky Cup Turf Dash at Kentucky Downs Sept. 13. Back at Calder, How's Your Halo bounced back from two additional losses to capture the Radar Love H. Nov. 22, only to finish fourth in the GIII Kenny Noe Jr. H. Dec. 13, and came into this contest off a distant sixth in Ikigai's GIII Mr. Prospector tour de force at Gulfstream Jan. 17. Away alertly under Juan Leyva, the six-year-old sat in second as Ikigai flew through splits of :22.37 and :44.74, with even-money Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) well back. Ikigai turned for home with the lead, but How's Your Halo loomed up and drew even inside the final furlong before forging ahead late. "He had a little bleeding issue in his last race for the first time in his career, which we were able to take care of since then," said Prichard. "This is my first win ever at Gulfstream. I claimed him here three years ago for $40,000. He's run big races before, like finishing second to Benny the Bull in the Smile last summer at Calder." Prichard continued, "I told Juan to put him into the race. I thought we were the only horse in there that could put any pressure on Ikigai. I haven't thought about what's next. He might need a little break." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The complexion of this race may have changed the second the gates opened, when odds-on Seventh Street went straight up into the air, but take nothing away from Royale Michele, who recorded her fourth straight comprehensive success. Sam Pollock's homebred began her career at Arlington for Todd Pletcher, graduating on the Polytrack in her third try Sept. 6, but was immediately entered for a $50,000 tag at

J McCue/Maryland Jockey Club

Keeneland Oct. 15 and wound up eighth. Turned over to Mountaineer-based Matt Kintz, the bay romped by 15 1/2 lengths in a $30,000 tagger at the West Virginia oval Nov. 3, then added an optional claimer at that track Nov. 25. She maintained her winning ways in the New Year's Eve H. Dec. 30 at Mountaineer, but even though her speed figures matched up with her other rivals, was let go at 10-1. Royale Michele secured a good spot from her rail post as Seventh Street, drawn in the three hole, reared up at the start and seemingly lost all chance. Second-choice By the Light (Malibu Moon), pressed by local hope Access Fee (Menifee), put up fractions of :23.45 and :46.33 as Royale Michele sat several lengths off that pace. She shifted out for running room in the lane, struck the front in deep stretch and had enough to stave off the unfortunate favorite for her first graded stakes victory. "I was really happy with her work over here with the track," said Kintz, who shipped his charge over 10 days ago. "She settled in nice. Geovany [Garcia] rode her race as we discussed it. I thought the race might unfold that way, and she ran a phenomenal race." As for Seventh Street, rider Rajiv Maragh lost an iron at the start, and the chestnut trailed the field down the backside. Maragh kept her in the clear to circle the field five wide on the turn, and the $1-million FTFEB juvenile gave an admirable effort in the final furlong. "It was a nightmare break," reflected Maragh. "She was ready, but just as the latch was beginning to be sprung, she went up in the air on all four legs and it felt like we were 10 feet in the air. It was so remarkable for her to come in the race and do what she did. In my eyes we were 10 lengths the best. You have to be a special horse to even get back in the race. It would have been special to finish fifth in this race, but to almost win it is unbelievable."

After needing four starts to break his maiden, Chocolate Candy made a determined run to win the Real Quiet S. at Hollywood in his first start against winners Nov. 8. Taken far off the pace in the GI CashCall Futurity over the same course and distance Dec. 20, the bay rallied four wide to finish third, defeated 1 1/2 lengths by Pioneerof the Nile and I Want Revenge. He was then sent North by Jerry Hollendorfer to join his string at Golden Gate, where he made a quick move at the top of the stretch to take the California Derby by 1 3/4 lengths over fellow El Camino rival Axel Foley (Officer) Jan. 17. Heavily backed here, the bay was floated wide entering the clubhouse turn as Aquicksting (Score Quick) set a moderate pace as the longshot tugged at his rider. Russell Baze nudged Chocolate Candy up the backstretch, and the colt moved in tandem with second choice Axel Foley to overhaul the early leader. Turning for home, the favorite faced a challenge to the outside from his stablemate Rendezvous, but rebuffed that bid. Though Southern California invader Massone commenced a rally along the inside and was steadily gaining late, the winner held him at bay. "My horse was a little fresh today and he ran a little harder than I wanted early," said winning jockey Russell Baze. Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer had been worried about the pace scenario, but was pleased with his colt's effort.

Matt Schriock/Vassar Photography

Also Ran: Orange County (NZ), Weekend Hussler (Aus), Tesbury Jack (Aus), Mind Your Head (Aus).

Apache Cat became the first back-to-back winner of this event since Manikato (Aus) took five straight runnings (1979-1983), and snapped a four-race losing streak in the process. Last year's victory was the second of five consecutive Group 1 scores, but he'd hit the skids since, finishing a good third as the favorite in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint Dec. 14 prior to a dull ninth in the G1 Lightning S. at Flemington Jan. 31. Yesterday, Apache Cat was more forwardly placed in third beneath Damien Oliver as Time Thief showed the way early on. Odds-on Weekend Hussler (Aus) (Hussonet) was a bit further back in fifth and rolled up into contention cornering from home, but Apache Cat was travelling much the better of the duo, kicked clear and won comfortably. "He's copped a lot of flak over the last fortnight, the poor horse, but the best way to silence the critics is to win," trainer Greg Eurell told AAP. The winner could ultimately venture overseas for top sprinting events in Singapore, England and/or Japan.

I Cannot Tell A Lie...

Named for George Washington, the GII General George H. had its inaugural edition in 1973, when it was a 1 1/16-mile test for three-year-olds run at Bowie Race Course. The race was moved to Laurel in 1985, shortened to seven furlongs and opened to older horses in 1989 and first graded in 1991.

Senor Speedy set the stakes record of 1:21.96 while carrying 126 pounds in 1992, the highest impost in 32 runnings of the General George. But that was when the event was held under stakes conditions. In 1995, it became a handicap and, until this year, the highest weight that any horse was assigned was Royal Haven (Hail Emperor), who carried 122 pounds to victory in 1998.

Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike) will have to raise the bar considerably if he is to succeed under his 127-pound burden tomorrow. Trainer Todd Beattie is confident the six-year-old is up to the task.

"He's a big strong horse," Beattie said. "He has an outstanding way of going, as far as the way he travels, big long stride, real smooth, and he's got a heart of gold. He can run fast, and he's not afraid to give it to you every time like that."

The gelding, 12-for-19 lifetime, has made a habit of leading his fields from gate to wire, but showed a bit of versatility in his latest. Rated in second in the Dec. 27 GIII Gravesend H. at Aqueduct, the dark bay took over in the stretch and edged away to a 1 3/4-length score under 126 pounds. He could use similar tactics at Laurel.

"It looks like quite a bit of speed down inside of him, which is a nice spot to be," Beattie remarked. "We won't feel pressured to use his speed. And we'll be a little more patient going seven furlongs. If we're in front, we're in front but if not, we can settle back."

Fabulous Strike gave runner-up True Quality (Elusive Quality) 11 pounds in the Gravesend, but actually gets a one-pound swing in his favor in the General George. True Quality is in at 117, and Fabulous Strike will give from 11 to 14 pounds to his other four rivals in the race. He is still the 4-5 chalk on the morning line. That's not a bad spot to be in here. Favorites have won the last two editions of this race, and five of the last 10.

The General George has, in fact, been a very formful race. In three of the first five years after it was shortened to a sprint, the winner went off at double-digit odds, but in the 13 runnings since, no winner has been higher than 5-1.

Speedy Sophomores Seek Fountain of Youth Success...

Sprint stakes winners Notonthesamepage (Catenius), This Ones for Phil (Untutttable), Taqarub (Aldebaran) and Capt. Candyman Can (Candy Ride {Arg}) all worked in the past two days in preparation for the Feb. 28

GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S., which has been shortened from 1 1/8 miles to eight furlongs around one turn.

Notonthesamepage, an 8 1/4-length winner of the Spectacular Bid S. at six furlongs Jan. 3, covered five furlongs over the Gulfstream main track in 1:00 Saturday, according to his trainer Wesley Ward. "He's had two trips to Ocala [for hyperbaric treatments] with a fast workout in between," Ward said. The trainer added that he expects the Fountain of Youth to be a "very tough race" and is unsure about how the colt will handle longer distances. "After we took the blinkers off him, he seemed to relax and he has raced behind horses, so we're hoping he can adapt," he said. "But great milers, when you tell them to go, they go flat out through every jump of that mile." Ward believes the colt, who does his best running on the front end, "is going to be an unbelievable miler when all the dust settles." This Ones for Phil, who posted an 11-1 upset in the restricted Sunshine Millions Dash at six furlongs Jan. 24, was happy and playful following his 1:00 2/5 five-furlong breeze at Gulfstream Friday, according his conditioner Rick Dutrow. "He looks like he's fine and he's doing good," the horseman said. "I still would have to agree with that today. He was having some problems leading up to his last race, but since that race everything has been good."

Dutrow believes the pace scenario of the Fountain of Youth will suit the gelding, who stalked the pace in fourth after stumbling at the break of the Dash, but doesn't know how the chestnut "measure up in a solid field." Meanwhile, Taqarub, the undefeated 8 1/4-length winner of the six-furlong Jimmy Winkfield S. at Aqueduct Jan. 19, worked five furlongs in 1:00 4/5 at Palm Meadows Saturday for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. The Ian Wilkes trainee Capt. Candyman Can, who captured the GII Hutcheson S. at seven furlongs Jan. 30, drilled five furlongs in 1:02 at Palm Meadows the previous day. Also pointing towards the Fountain of Youth are Salo Jak (Graeme Hall) and Break Water Edison (Lemon Drop Kid), fourth and sixth, respectively, in the Hutcheson; Theregoesjojo (Brahms), a 2 3/4-length allowance victor at Gulfstream Jan. 10; and Jack Spratt (Candy Ride {Arg}), the late-closing upset winner of the Dania Beach S. on turf Jan. 17.

Flying Pegasus & Papa Clem to LA Derby...

Flying Pegasus (Fusaichi Pegasus), who kicked off his sophomore campaign with a solid second-place finish in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 7, will be pointed toward the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 16, according to Daily Racing Form. "The Louisiana Derby is first preference," trainer Ralph Nicks told DRF. "It depends on the competition and how he is training up to it. He came out of the race in good shape. He's trained well at the Fair Grounds, and he ran well over it." Flying Pegasus won his first two starts last season, before closing out the year with a runner-up effort behind Charitable Man (Lemon Drop Kid) in the GII Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 13. Southern Californian-based Papa Clem (Smart Strike) will make the trip to the Bayou for the Louisiana Derby. The game GII Robert B. Lewis runner-up worked five furlongs in 1:00.60 at Santa Anita Saturday.

Hamazing Destiny Joins Lukas Barn...

Hamazing Destiny (Salt Lake), who broke his maiden by an impressive 10 lengths in a six-furlong event at Oaklawn Park Feb. 7 (video), has been sold privately and will join the stable of Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "They offered us a deal we couldn't refuse," said McLean Robertson, who trained the $70,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase for West Rock Stable and Barry and Joni Butzow. "Anytime you lose a horse like that it hurts a little, but we had fun when we had him, and look forward to seeing what he does on down the road." The purchase price was not disclosed. Lukas confirmed that the sale occurred Friday and added that he did not have any immediate plans for the colt. Hamazing Destiny, a son of Ms. Proud Destiny (Artax), was bred in Kentucky by Edward Gamble's Destinaire Farm.

two bullet works for trainer John Shirreffs. "The second race will be a little tougher, but I don't think she will regress, because in the morning she hasn't regressed at all," Shirreffs told Daily Racing Form. Shirreffs added that her works are "better than they look." Life Is Sweet, a homebred for Pam and Marty Wygod, began her career for Bill

Mott on the East Coast. Bsharpsonata, heroine of the GII Forward Gal S. and GII Davona Dale S. and runner-up in the GI Ashland S., concluded her stint for trainer Tim Salzman with an eighth in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. last May. The bay resurfaced Nov. 27 at Hollywood to win the six-furlong Playa del Rey H. in her first outing for Todd Pletcher, and followed that with an honorable third in the seven-furlong GI La Brea S. Dec. 27.

"The way she's trained, I don't think that [the nine-furlong distance] is going to be a problem," assistant trainer Mike McCarthy told DRF about Bsharpsonata. "I think she'll lay up close, a little closer to the front than last time. She doesn't have real quick acceleration; she just grinds it out."

TODAY'S INSIGHTS

Johnny Eves Injured...

Benoit photo

Grade I winner Johnny Eves (Skimming) has been sidelined by a pulled suspensory. The five-year-old, who is expected to be out for at least four months, has been turned out at Bonnie Acres Ranch in Hemet, California. Hero of the GI Malibu S. in his sophomore finale of 2007, the Calbred gelding didn't visit the winner's circle again until he closed out 2008 with a victory in the GIII Vernon O. Underwood H. at Hollywood Nov. 22. In his most recent start, the bay captured the GII Palos Verdes H. Jan. 25 at Santa Anita for trainer Jay Robbins.

He's Trippin'...

Trainer Ron Ellis has many irons in the fire for his unbeaten charge Rail Trip (Jump Start). Tabbed as a "TDN Rising Star" following his belated bow Nov. 7, the bay added an allowance score Dec. 20 and most recently stretched out with a 5 1/2-length score going a mile and a sixteenth at Santa Anita Jan. 30. Ellis spoke of pointing the gelding for the 10-furlong GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 7, then added that either the G1 Dubai World Cup or the G2 Godolphin Mile--both Mar. 28--were under consideration. As of yesterday, the conditioner was mulling the seven-furlong GII San Carlos H. Feb. 21 instead. "It's a possibility," reflected Ellis. "I looked at the race, and it's not a very strong field other than Georgie Boy, so it's a possibility." He continued, "Seven-eighths might be a good distance for him. I've got to talk to them [owners Mace and Samantha Siegel] this week and see what we're going to do. If I shorten back up, it would rule out the Big 'Cap."

Florida Vacation for Harlem Rocker...

Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno) has been sent to Frank Stronach's Adena Springs Farm in Ocala, Florida, and will be pointed toward a summer campaign, according to Daily Racing Form.

The gray missed the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream due to an illness. "He got very sick on us, lost a lot of weight, and just didn't come back as quick as he needed," trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF. "So we felt the best thing to do was to give him time, pick back up on our way to New York in March or April, and point for a summer campaign." In his most recent start, Harlem Rocker crossed the wire first in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H. Nov. 29, but was disqualified and placed second. Pletcher also revealed to DRF that Obligingly (Officer) will be aimed at Aqueduct's Mar. 7 GIII Gotham S. "The Sam Davis was coming up very competitive, and by going to the Gotham it gives up a little extra time," Pletcher offered. The WinStar colorbearer followed an 11 1/2-length Calder maiden victory Dec. 7 with a third-place finish behind Theregoesjojo (Brahms) and Quality Road (Elusive Quality) in a salty Gulfstream allowance Jan. 10.

Classic Crop 2009 CHEF (SMARTY JONES)

Five years ago, Smarty Jones had yet to make his three-year-old debut. But he had already served notice to the Thoroughbred racing world after an undefeated juvenile campaign, and a sophomore season that opened with five-length triumph in the Count Fleet S. at Aqueduct. Now the representatives of the first crop by the eventual GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner are three-year-olds themselves.

The young sire had one of the most impressive maiden winners of his brief stud career yesterday with Chef's 4 1/4-length debut score at Gulfstream yesterday.

"He never acted like a sprinter, so that's why we had him going seven-eighths," said winning trainer Alan Goldberg of the chestnut colt.

Goldberg said the decision to have Chef set the pace was made before the race.

"I thought he could run a little, and so did his rider [jockey Carlos Marquez], who had breezed him a bunch of times," Goldberg explained. "We had worked him behind horses and he showed he didn't like getting dirt in his face, so we sent him to the lead."

Because Chef did not debut until yesterday, the colt will have to buck history if he is to follow the legacy of his sire and win the Kentucky Derby. Goldberg said he is not going to rush him into Classic contention, but stretching Chef out should not be a problem. The colt is out of Take the Cake (Fly So Free), who captured the seven-furlong Gil Forward Gal S. in 2002. While she never won beyond that distance, the mare had enough stamina to finish second in the GI Ashland S. at 1 1/16 miles, and her son's future will be routing.

"We'll probably run him in an [NW1X allowance] around two turns next," the conditioner said, "but those are tough down here [at Gulfstream] because they're all 1 1/8 miles." -J.F.

ZIEGFELD (c, 3, Elusive Quality--Colonial Minstrel {MGSW & GISP, $556,587}, by Pleasant Colony) lost all chance when steadying sharply at the top of the lane in his career bow at Gulfstream Jan. 24, finishing 10th. The Gulfstream faithful missed the trouble line, however, and overlooked the grey at the windows. A 16-1 outsider, the Virginia-bred broke sharply and was on the heels of Mas Macho (Macho Uno) through an opening half in :48.28. He moved to challenge after six panels and battled on bravely to the wire to prevail by a half-length. A $95,000 KEESEP yearling and a $200,000 FTFEB juvenile, the winner is a 1/2 to Storm Minstrel (Storm Cat), MSW, $299,339; and Grand Minstrel (Grand Slam), SW, $103,700. Dream Play kicked off her career with a gate-to-wire maiden win at Belmont Park May 15, then was sidelined by a minor ankle injury. The dark bay returned to be fourth after a troubled trip in an optional claimer over this track and trip Jan. 11. That proved to be the perfect prep, as she aired in her stakes debut here. Quickly into stride, Dream Play was in hand as she raced head-and-head for the early lead. Jockey Eddie Castro turned her loose at the top of the lane, and the filly opened up to win as much the best. "We got her at the two-year-old sale and she looked like a nice sprinting prospect," said Larkin Armstrong, son of winning owner Stewart Armstrong. "After her first start, she had kind of an ankle issue, and we wound up resting her. [Trainer] Kiaran [McLaughlin] was really pleased with her last race...he told my father that he thought she would be really tough." UNDERSTATEMENT (c, 4, Distorted Humor--Emotional Outburst, by Capote), rated a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ after a debut maiden score at Gulfstream a year ago, appears to be getting back on track after a disappointing stretch of races. The $1.05-million KEESEP yearling ran third in a two-turn allowance in Hallandale in his second try, but was off the board in his next three attempts, all sprints. A rallying third in a Churchill allowance going seven panels Nov. 9, the bay was once again sent a route of ground in an optional claimer at Aqueduct on New Year's Day and led every step before hanging on by a half-length. He was 7-2 to repeat. Up to press the pace from second, Understatement grabbed the lead after six furlongs and held off the late charge of Temporary Saint (Awesome Again) to score by a half-length. Rock Candy showed little in her first two starts, but made it three straight Tampa victories here. Sixth at Saratoga in her debut Aug. 28, she made her second start after a two-month respite, running 11th in a two-turn test at Churchill Nov. 6. Shipped to the Florida track after that outing, she was the 17-10 chalk in a maiden sprint Dec. 27 and ran to her odds to win by four. The chestnut added a 2 1/4-length triumph in the Jan. 17 Gasparilla S. at seven furlongs, and was the second choice as she stretched out to a route again yesterday. Jockey Carlos Montalvo rated the filly just off the leaders through moderate splits, tipped her out three deep at the top of the lane and drove her past Ameribelle in the final strides. Rachel Alexandra makes her highly anticipated sophomore debut here. Second in last term's GIII Debutante S. and the GIII Pocahontas S., the bay ended her two-year-old campaign with an exclamation point, defeating Sara Louise (Malibu Moon) by 4 3/4 lengths in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 29. "What impressed me, of course, was the way she ran [in the Golden Rod]," trainer Hal Wiggins told Daily Racing Form. "And then I saw two races later they ran the [GII] [Kentucky] Jockey Club, and she ran a second faster than they did --and that was three colts fighting it out for at least an eighth of a mile. Considering everything, I thought it was just really a bang-up race." Rachel Alexandra returned to the worktab at Oaklawn in late December. She most recently posted a four-furlong move in :49 4/5 Feb. 11. "I think she's about as ready as we can get her, really," Wiggins remarked. Click for the brisnet.com PPs.

Bet down to 7-5 while trying his luck in the slop for the first time, he floated wide on the first turn, but was clear of the kickback while racing off the pace down the backstretch. GODOLPHIN SET FOR APRIL RETURN

Godolphin will arrive in Britain earlier than usual this year due to the work being carried out on the new Meydan racecourse. The operation traditionally touched down just before the Newmarket Guineas meeting, but has been forced to change plans. Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained, "Normally we send our horses back just before the Guineas meeting at Newmarket, which usually takes place the first weekend in May, but this year we will send some horses back early as we will not have access to the turf track at Nad Al Sheba for our trials. We will send back our early runners at the beginning of April and the others will remain in Dubai and follow on at the end of April, when they would normally return." Alongside the purchase of the German three-year-old filly Baila Me (Ger) (Samum {Ger}), Godolphin have also snapped up the former Robert Collet-trained Chock a Block (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), a son of the top-class Choc Ice (Ire) (Kahyasi{Ire}) who beat the smart Rendezvous (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) by four lengths on his sole start in a Longchamp conditions event in October.

HISTORY BOY (c, 3, Grand Slam--Rare Blend {MGSW, $657,633}, by Bates Motel), runner-up on his first start here Jan. 14, started as the even-money crowd's choice and raced close to the early pace. Shaken up to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the homebred drew clear in impressive fashion to record a facile nine-length success. The winner is a half-sister to Rare Gift (Unbridled's Song), GSW, $292,077. Rare Blend has a two-year-old of this season named Palm Beach Story (Fusaichi Pegasus), and a yearling from the first crop of Joe Allen's Grade II-winning sprinter War Front (Danzig). Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €14,000.

AUSTRALASIA

ROMNEYA LANDS FIRST GROUP WIN

Sheikh Mohammed's Romneya (Aus) (Red Ransom), a daughter of GSW and dual Group 1-placed Mannington (Aus) (Danehill), came from near the tail of the field and held on late for a half-length victory as the 5-2 favorite in the G2 Moonee Valley Fillies Classic S. Saturday afternoon. "There was a lot of speed on and, fortunately, [jockey] Kerrin [McEvoy] had her back and away from the speed and produced her at the right time," trainer Lee Freedman told Australian Associated Press. The winner could make her next appearance in the 1600-meter G1 Coolmore Classic at Rosehill Mar. 21.

Romneya is a half-sister to the Freedman-trained Benicio (Aus) (More Than Ready), the first produce of Mannington and winner of the G1 Victoria Derby in 2005. The mare was subsequently purchased by Sheikh Mohammed for A$2.05 million out of the 2005 Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale carrying Romneya in utero. Mannington was exported to the U.S. in December 2005 and produced fillies by Kingmambo in 2007 and 2008. A half-sister to Bollinger (Aus) (Dehere), the dam of top U.S. three-year-old Friesan Fire (A.P. Indy), Mannington is due to foal a full sibling to Benicio this winter.

TDN Progeny PP Counts

Our newest informational tool, TDN Progeny PP Counts are designed to let you identify at a glance the stallions with the greatest number of significant progeny. Select a category, time frame and sort criteria, and the list indicates how many times a sire's progeny have appeared in TDN Progeny PPs for that period.

SAMANTHA MISS RESUMES IMPRESSIVELY

Three-time Group 1 winner Samantha Miss (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) looked hopelessly beaten turning for home in yesterday's G2 Light Fingers S. over 1200 meters at Randwick, but she kicked it in late and flew home to be beaten a short head into second. It was her first start since taking the G1 Crown Oaks over 2500 meters Nov. 6. "[Jockey] Hugh [Bowman] said he didn't think she would be able to even run a place, so to go within a half-head, well I'm happy," trainer Kris Lees told AAP. "The 1200 metres was always going to be a worry, so even though she didn't win, I can't complain." Winner of the G1 Champagne S. at two, Samantha Miss made a sensational start to her three-year-old season, capping a four-race winning streak with a two-length success in the G1 Flight S. Oct. 4. That effort propelled her into favoritism for the G1 Cox Plate Oct. 25, and finished a length behind Maldivian (NZ) in third after finding some interference inside the final furlong. She bounced back in style in the Crown Oaks, easing by her rivals for a three-length victory. Samantha Miss's ultimate goal is the G1 AJC Australian Oaks at Randwick Apr. 18.
