GORGEOUS GEORGIE

Georgie Boy (Tribal Rule) was the odds-on chalk in yesterday's GII San Carlos H. at Santa Anita, and he lived up to his odds with a handy 2 3/4-length win. The dark bay gelding was taken in hand early as Yankee Bravo (Yankee Gentleman) dragged jockey Alex Solis out to a daylight lead through fractions of :23.25 and :45.25. The field closed in on the frontrunner as they raced around the turn, with Halo Najib (Halo's Image) at the rail, Past the Point (Indian Charlie) between horses and Georgie Boy on the outside, but the few yards lost by the favorite made little difference. Cont. p2

BACKSEAT RHYTHM RETURNS TODAY

GI Garden City S. heroine Backseat Rhythm makes her four-year-old bow in today's GIII The Very One H. at Gulfstream Park. The Paul Pompa Jr. colorbearer, four-for-seven on the grass, was third behind subsequent MGSW Life Is Sweet (Storm Cat) in an allowance test over this course exactly one year ago. She went on to capture the GII Lake Placid S. and the Garden City before running second in the Oct. 11 GI QE II Challenge Cup at Keeneland last time out. Trainer Pat Reynolds is concerned about bringing the filly back in the 11-furlong The Very One. "Going a mile and three-eighths, fitness is always an issue," Reynolds told Daily Racing Form, but added, "She's a very good filly--she didn't win a Grade I by accident--and our main goal is to get her in top shape and then look around for some Grade Is later in the year." Field, p6

ning jockey Garrett Gomez said. "When we made the lead, I got into him a little bit just to keep him focused, to keep him from pulling himself up."

Sidelined after his success in the GI Del Mar Futurity in September of his juvenile season, Georgie Boy looked strong when taking the GII San Vicente S. in his sophomore debut last February. The gelding tried two turns for the first time in the Mar. 15 GII San Felipe S. and made it three in a row with a 3/4-length score, but suffered a pulled muscle in his hind end after the victory and disappeared once again. Fourth in Oak Tree's Oct. 25 Damascus S. in his return, he was third in the Dec. 26 GI Malibu S., then stepped it up another notch to capture the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions Sprint S. George Schwary's homebred stable star made it two in a row going short yesterday, but is likely to try his hand at another route next time out. "We'll think about it," trainer Kathy Walsh said. "I think he'll stretch out, especially with Garrett riding him. He gets him to settle right away." Blue Diamond S. cont.

A much-anticipated match race between Rostova (Testa Rossa {Aus}) and Real Saga failed to materialize as Reward For Effort scored a decisive 1 1/4-length win in Victoria's premier juvenile event. Sent forward from the outside to sit just off the leaders, Reward For Effort enjoyed a cozy run just ahead of Rostova, while Real Saga raced inside among the tail-enders. As the leaders wilted, jockey Luke Nolen sent Reward For Effort forward from the 300-meter marker, and the colt accelerated impressively to give Darley sire Exceed and Excel

www.thethoroughbred.com.au

(Aus) his first Group 1 winner. Real Saga made ground down the outside, but the winner had sprinted to an unassailable lead and he had to settle for second. Trainer Peter Moody thought his protege Reward For Effort--second in the Blue Diamond Prelude Feb. 8--would finish in the minor placings, believing the emphatic Prelude winner Real Saga would be difficult to beat. "We peaked right on the day, and that's what it's about in these two year old races," Moody said. Reward for Effort was a A$190,000 Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale yearling. Swiss Ace entered top form during last year's Queensland winter carnival, capturing the G2 Sir Byrne Hart S. before placing third in the G1 BTC Cup over the same trip as the Oakleigh Plate. He resumed Jan. 31 to finish seventh, defeated 2 1/2 lengths by Scenic Blast (Scenic {Ire}) in the G1 Lightning S. Jumping straight to the lead in a capacity field, the bay came out swinging and fought back when headed in the straight by Lucky Secret to give his recently deceased sire Secret Savings a third Group 1 winner. "From barrier 18, it was a great ride by Ken to get him across," said owner Daryl Rogers. "He rested the horse, and then took him off again." Prepared by Gold Coast conditioner Mick Mair, Swiss Ace was an A$8,500 weanling purchase for Gainsborough Lodge when offered by Emirates Park at the 2005 Magic Millions June sale. The colt will be pointed towards the G1 Newmarket H. Mar. 7 at Caulfield. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Presious Passion has a habit of trying to steal his races, and he made out like a bandit here. The gelding got caught in the 2008 edition of this race and finished 11th, but used his catch-me-if-you-can tactics to full advantage in the GIII Pan American H. in April and in the GI United Nations S. in July. Off the board in his next four, he rebounded to take the Dec. 13 GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder. The chestnut was rated just off the lead in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions Turf S. at Santa Anita and showed he could gut it out at the finish to just miss, running second by a half. Quickly into stride from his outside post yesterday, he sailed to the front and opened up by seven lengths through six furlongs in 1:11.23 and a mile in 1:36.28. The gap closed dramatically on the far turn, and it looked like Quasicobra had the race at his mercy, but Presious Passion had something in reserve, and held on while dashing off the final furlong in an impressive :11.46.

James Scatuatorchio's Attempted Humor, four-for-six lifetime and two-for-three on the lawn, tries graded company for the first time. The $500,000 KEESEP yearling capped off 2008 with an Oct. 23 allowance win going this distance on the turf at Keeneland. He added a nose victory in an optional claimer going nine panels on the Santa Anita grass Jan. 18. Garrett Gomez, who had been aboard Attempted Humor in two of his last three outings, instead rides Juddmonte homebred Zambezi Sun. The winner of the G1 Grand Prix de Paris in 2007 and the G2 Prix Foy in 2008, the five-year-old was last seen running 15th in the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. He was scheduled to make his U.S. and synthetic bow in the Mar. 7 GI Santa Anita H., and trainer Bobby Frankel could be using this as a prep. "I might have missed a little training, so this way it will be like a workout for him," Frankel said. "It shouldn't take too much out of him, on the grass." When asked if the bay was still possible for the Big 'Cap, he responded, "Of course." Frankel also saddles Juddmonte's Champs Elysees. The six-year-old started off 2008 with a score in the GII San Marcos H. going 10 furlongs over this course, and went on to take the GI Northern Dancer S. and the GI Hollywood Turf Cup, both at 1 1/2 miles. In his '09 opener, he ran seventh in the Feb. 8 GII San Antonio H. on the Pro-Ride.

“Fountain” Hopefuls Tune Up at Gulfstream...

A trio of candidates for the Feb. 28 GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S. were strutting their stuff at

Adam Coglianesse

Gulfstream Park Saturday morning. Topping the work tab at five furlongs was Notonthesamepage (Catienus), who went the distance in :59 2/5 under jockey Elvis Trujillo. The chestnut faltered when trying two turns in his 2008 finale, finishing last in the Oct. 4 GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland, but he looked sharp in his sophomore debut. Off at 9-2 in the Jan. 3 Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream, he romped by 8 1/4 lengths while getting the six furlongs in 1:08 4/5. Trainer Wesley Ward expects the colt to show his speed once again in Saturday's one-turn mile test. "Usually he shoots right to the front," said Ward. "Obviously, if they go something crazy, we might not be up there. We've been breezing him hoping he can learn to adapt, but he's been trained his whole life to run on the lead. I would expect that's probably what will happen again." Cont. p7 in 1:11 2/5. Exercise rider Mario Madrid was on board. "Mario said it went good," said trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. "We wanted to try and stick with what worked going into his last race, and Mario said he's working now even better than he did then. I'm very happy with 'Phil' right now." This Ones for Phil was purchased privately by Paul Pompa Jr. after a juvenile campaign that saw him win the Seacliff S. and run second in the Foolish Pleasure BC S. and third in the Arthur I. Appleton Juvenile Turf S. at Calder. He joined Dutrow's barn in November, and made his first start under new management in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions Dash at Gulfstream, winning by 2 1/4 lengths. "We breezed a week out last time, and then gave him a blowout the morning of the race," Dutrow said. "We will see this week, but I think I'll stick with the same set-up. It seemed to work pretty well last time."

Theregoesjojo (Brahms), looking to run his record to three-for-four Saturday, went five-eighths yesterday in 1:01 2/5. Jockey Kent Desormeaux was at the reins. Fourth in the July 5 GIII Bashford Manor S. in an abbreviated juvenile season, he returned after a six-month layoff to take a Gulfstream allowance test Jan. 10.

Tampa Bay Downs, will get another chance to punch his ticket to the Triple Crown in the Mar. 14 GII Louisiana Derby, trainer Ken McPeck said yesterday. The dark bay won his first two starts, including a neck score in a Gulfstream allowance test going nine furlongs Jan. 8, but came up empty and was 8 1/4 lengths behind winner General Quarters (Sky Mesa) in the Davis. "He seemed to have a hard time with that surface," McPeck said. "He came back and drank a lot of water, which is surprising for him. We're going to try again and put it behind us. It still is February, and there's still time to recover."

Another Louisiana Derby candidate, Papa Clem (Smart Strike), worked at Santa Anita yesterday. Coming off a solid runner-up finish in the Feb. 7 GII Robert B. Lewis S., the colt went seven furlongs in a bullet 1:26 4/5. "It was just nice and easy," trainer Gary Stute said.

Tom McCarthy

Stephanie Van Minos/Tom Cooley

Accomplishment: General Quarters (Sky Mesa), claimed by McCarthy for $20,000 out of a victorious career debut at Churchill Downs last spring, stamped himself a legitimate Kentucky Derby contender with a win in the GIII Sam F. Davis S. at Tampa Bay Downs. McCarthy was the colt's trainer of record before turning him over to Mark Miller this winter at Tampa. McCarthy, a retired high school principal, expects General Quarters to race in his name for the GIII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 21.

Birthdate: Refused (laugh)....75 years old.

Birthplace: New London, CT

Current Residence: Louisville, KY.

Education: Graduated from Union College, Upperville, Kentucky.

The win in the Sam F. Davis must rank as one of the highlights of your career. It was pretty big, very exciting. But I wasn't surprised, because the colt was doing excellent. I was hoping when I put him around two turns that he would show what he could do, and I guess he convinced some people he could run a little bit.

Did you have an idol from your early days in the business? Doc Harthill was quite an inspiration to me. When I first started he gave me a lot of advice. But more than that, he did a lot of veterinary work for me and never charged me a dime at first. He was very beneficial to young trainers. He was very knowledgeable and one of the finest men I ever knew. He was quite a guy.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be and why? At one time, I really would have enjoyed meeting Abraham Lincoln and, as you know, he came from Kentucky. I read some of his books, and one of the things that surprised me was what he did with words--he understood words and put them together to make great meaning. Here's a man with a basic education, and I really think he was one of the greatest thinkers we've ever had as president.

Favorite time of the year? In Kentucky in the spring and the fall. I think it's the most delightful place in the world, especially around the horses.

Where would you like to visit that you haven't already? Ireland. My grandparents were born there, my brother has been there and my daughter has been there. My grandfather's house is still in existence, the farm where he was raised. I do plan to go there--hopefully soon! (laughs)

What would it mean to you to take part on the first Saturday in May, much less win? Oh my gosh. It would be magnificent. It's a thrill just to watch the Derby horses go. To me, it's one of the greatest thrills on earth, and to think that I could be part of it would be fantastic. It's just a magnificent time and I would be honored to be there.

On the board in seven previous outings, Onebadkitty picked up her first stakes victory here, but she had to share the spoils with Bel Air Sizzle. The dark bay followed a maiden win in her debut at Hollywood in November of 2007 with a pair of seconds, then went missing for 10 1/2 months. Runner-up again in an optional claimer against state-breds at Hollywood Nov. 14, she returned to the winner's circle after a similar test Dec. 6. The Cal-bred miss tried her luck in open company for the first time in an optional claimer Jan. 3, running third, and was coming off a second in a NW1X Jan. 21. Bel Air Sizzle, runner-up in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 16, was sent to the shelf after a 10th in the Sept. 6 Gill Pucker Up S. at Arlington. She showed little after breaking slowly in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf S., running seventh, but improved in her second start back. Off to a tardy start, Onebadkitty trailed early as Bel Air Sizzle settled in midpack. It was Onebadkitty who got first run, enjoying a clean trip to take over in deep stretch. Bel Air Sizzle found herself caught in traffic, but found room to roam late and drove up on even terms in the final stride.

1st Dam: Joke (MSW, $121,674), by Phone Trick

2nd Dam: Tour, by Forty Niner

3rd Dam: Fun Flight, by Full Pocket

Zensational was favored at 2-1 in his Saratoga debut for trainer Bill Mott Aug. 6, but faded to finish a well-beaten fourth after setting quick fractions of :21 4/5 and :45 1/5. Transferred to Bob Baffert in Southern California, the $20,000 KEESEP yearling and $700,000 FTFEB juvenile was working up a storm at Santa Anita, firing a trio of bullets, including a best-of-85 five furlongs in :59 Feb. 15. Backed accordingly at 3-5 here, he dueled his way through :21.85 and :44.56 splits and drew off impressively in the stretch to win by 3 3/4 lengths. Off the Wall (Candy Ride {Arg}) was second. Iron Fortitude (Medaglia d'Oro) completed the trifecta. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $30,100. Classic Crop 2009
ZENSATIONAL (Unbridled's Song)

Zayat Stables already campaigns leading GI Kentucky Derby contender GISW Pioneerof the Nile (Empire Maker), and may have an ace in the hole with Zensational (Unbridled's Song).

"He's the real deal," said Sobhy Sonbol, racing manager for Zayat Stables. "He had a testicle that was up high that was bugging him, and ever since they took it out [following the yearling sale], he's been flawless. He was always an impressive horse. He has a good mind on him and he's freaky fast."

Following the son of Joke (Phone Trick)'s disappointing Saratoga debut, it was decided to back off the colt.

"He came back a little bit jammed up after his debut," Sonbol continued. "We sent him to [Dr. Larry] Bramlage, and he didn't see anything wrong with him, other than him needing a little time to mature. He said it may be beneficial to give him 60 days off to let his bones grow and get stronger. So that's what we did, and we sent him out to California to Bob."

According to Sonbol, the benefit of racing on synthetic surfaces led to the decision to send Zensational to Southern California.

"It seems that the Unbridled's Songs have been doing better out there on the synthetic surfaces," Sonbol said. "They are fragile animals, and you have to be very careful with them."

As for Zensational's next start, Sonbol added, "I don't know. We have to see how he comes out, how he trains and see if we should pursue the dream with him or think of a different kind of campaign. One thing is for sure, we're sitting on a pretty nice horse."

TOC Unveils 2008 Awards:

The Thoroughbred Owners of California have named Jerry and Ann Moss the Owners of the Year, and their champion mare Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) has been honored as the TOC Horse of the Year, for 2008. The Northern California-based duo of Jerry Hollendorfer and George Todaro captured the awards for "Most California Purse Money Won" and "Most California Races Won," while the Mosses and the Estate of Harry Aleo tied for "Most Stakes Races Won." Rookie of the Year went to Ken Kinakin, and Madeline Auerbach was recognized with the Ed Friendly Industry Service Award. Auerbach was instrumental in the success of the California Retirement Management Account, an organization established last year that aids Thoroughbred rehabilitation and retirement facilities. The finalists for the TOC awards were nominated by a media selection committee, with the winners determined by a combined vote of the committee and members of the TOC Board of Directors.
