THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

DYNAFORMER's Gozzip Girl Runs
Close Second in $400K Ashland S. (G1)

KEENELAND APRIL BEGINS TODAY

The Keeneland April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale begins its two-day run today, with bidding getting underway at 7 p.m. A total of 216 juveniles were catalogued for the auction, but that number was whittled down to 147, with 34 outs from this evening's session and an additional 35 scratches tomorrow. Keeneland officials are hoping to counteract a weak market with a strong catalogue and a deep buying bench.

"We've all seen how the sales have been this year," admitted Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "We're always looking for and hoping that there will be more depth to the market. We have traveled far and wide trying to find more people to come in, and that's what we're hoping for. We'd like to see more depth to the market and that will be good." Russell was encouraged by a good turnout for last Thursday's under-tack preview. "This year's catalogue is a very solid catalogue from start to finish," he said. "The horses performed very well [at the preview]--they lived up to the quality of their pedigrees."

Consignors remain guarded in the face of a two-year-old market that has been down about 30 percent from a year ago. "You always want to remain positive," said Niall Brennan. "But realistically, we probably can't expect too much of anything other than more of the same, which is just a polarized market. When you look at the industry, there are still people buying horses--

either at the racetrack or at the sales. It's just that it's polarized. And it's probably more so this year. I think that's the reality of things right now. It doesn't mean that there isn't a market out there for what is perceived to be the better stock at this stage of their careers. At the two-year-old sales, the ones that appear to be the ones on everyone's list are selling well." Brennan added that the large number of outs could act to further polarize the market at Keeneland, but he was still looking on the bright side. "Keeneland does read a good catalogue and I know we have a strong consignment, but you still have to go out there and perform, and then just play it by ear from there."

'RACHEL' UNTOUCHABLE IN FANTASY

On paper, Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) appeared unbeatable heading into yesterday's GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn Park. In yet another tour-de-force performance, the strapping filly turned on all pistons rounding the final bend and galloped home an unchallenged 8 3/4-length winner, thus punching her ticket to next month's GI Kentucky Oaks. Sent to the front from the onset, the bay assumed a comfortable lead through early splits of :23.45, :47.42, 1:12.57. Ready to rock and roll turning for home, Rachel Alexandra widened her advantage with minimal encouragement from her rider Calvin Borel, and loped under the wire the easiest of winners. GIII Honeybee S. runner-up Afleet Deceit (Northern Afleet), sent off at 19-1 here, was good enough for second, while 6-1 chance Just Jenda (Menifee) closed mildly to take third. Runner up in the six-furlong GIII Debutante S. at Churchill Downs last June, the L and M Partners'-owned filly score on Keeneland Polytrack against allowance foes in October before adding another second-place finish at the Louisville oval in the GIII Pocahontas S. Nov. 1. The filly closed out 2008 with an easy score in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 29 before resuming this term with a pair of victories, the Martha Washington S. Feb. 15 followed by the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 14. cont. p2

The slimmer catalogue could be an advantage, according to consignor Dave Scanlon. "If you're able to get yourself in a smaller pool of horses, a catalogue that's a little smaller, it seems you have a better chance of selling," Scanlon explained. "It seems like there are a lot of people that aren't participating and the buy-back rate is up. The larger the catalogue, the higher the percentage of horses you're going to be buying back. If you can get yourself in a smaller, more select market, you can do a little better. With a smaller, select group, the buyers aren't spread out over so much and there aren't as many RNAs, so I think you have a better chance." Buyers were active at the barns over the weekend, according to consignor Gabriel Dixon. "The action has been good," Dixon said. "The day after the breeze show was a cold day and it wasn't a particularly good day for showing and there weren't very many people around, but I was very encouraged [Saturday] with the number of people around the barns. There were probably more people out shopping than at the earlier sales. So, we just have to wait and see what happens." The April catalogue has given would-be buyers something to look at. "I think it's a good catalogue--there's some pedigree in there," admitted bloodstock agent Buzz Chace. "It's about what I expect at Keeneland. They have some good individuals, and it looked like the horses worked well--the ones that stayed in." The April sale concludes with a second session Tuesday evening, also beginning at 7 p.m.

KEENELAND APRIL
2-Year-Olds in Training Sale
April 6-7, 2009

Already a Classic...

Eddie Woods proved you could buy yourself a Triple Crown horse at Keeneland April with champion Big Brown two years ago. In addition to Vallenzeri (A.P. Indy), Woods has a couple more juveniles with Classic potential in Lexington this year. The veteran consignor believes this is a trend that is overdue.

“People are slow learners--it took about 20 years for the light to go on,” Woods said. “If you want yourself a fast two-year-old, a horse that's going to win first time out--a good sharp sprinter kind of horse--two-year-old sales are a great place to find one. But you can now find Classic horses at the two-year-old sales.”

Eddie Woods EquiSport

Keeneland April could be a particularly good spot for finding your next Triple Crown candidate. Because it is later in the sales season, consignors are apt to save their late-developing juveniles for the venue.

“We're inclined to lean that way,” Woods said. “That's how we ended up with Big Brown here--we're just trying to buy the bigger, rawer horses a bit more time, rather than trying to wind them up and get them ready for a February sale. That extra two months with these big, big horses is crucial.”

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Keeneland April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale.

As it happens, 24 percent of the KEEAPR catalogue was foaled in May--there are even a couple of June foals. But that is not the only factor in determining what horses will show up here.

“It's the whole package--it's your individual, foaling date, pedigree and style of horse that you have,” Woods offered. “If you look up some of the earlier sales, there were some May foals in there, but they're a different kind of individual with a different kind of pedigree.”

“I think, historically, if you look through the Keeneland catalogue or even the Keeneland physical inspection, you're inclined to get a bigger, scopier kind of horse. It's probably one of the reasons this sale has thrown out so many good horses.”

Woods is hoping he can add to his Triple-Crown selling resume with hip 41, a colt by Vindication out of $1.3 million FTSAUG yearling Dossier (Storm Cat); and hip 76, a son of Speightstown out of Makin a Statement (Stage Door Johnny).

Hip 41 was bred by John Perrotta and Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings; his second dam is Sacahuista, who was named champion three-year-old filly in 1987. The dark bay zipped a quarter in :21 1/5 at the preview (video).

“He went spectacularly well,” Woods said.

Hip 76 may be by a champion sprinter, but he is also a half to On a Soapbox (Mi Cielo), heroine of the 1999 GI Coaching Club American Oaks and herself the dam of Soapy Danger (Danzig), winner of the G2 Princess of Wales's at 1 1/2 miles and the G3 Queen's Vase at just over two miles. The bay, an Apr. 26 foal, also went a quarter in :21 1/5 at the under-tack show (video). Bred by B.G.M. Patterson and James Glenn, he RNA'd at $75,000 as a KEENOV weanling.

Hamm Does It All...

Tim Hamm is a busy man. In addition to owning Hamm Construction, Inc., maintaining a breeding operation, training a public stable of some 70 horses and serving on the Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund Advisory Council, the Ohio native has hit all the juvenile auctions, selling under his Blazing Meadows Farm banner.

Tim Hamm

“We do stay busy,” Hamm admitted. “We do everything from A to Z in the Thoroughbred business.”

Hamm, whose father Ed trained horses at Mountaineer Park, founded his own construction company in 1992. He began buying horses in 1994 and founded Blazing Meadows in 1995.

Under the name of his Destiny Farm, Hamm bred graded stakes winner Too Much Bling (Rubiano) out of a mare he bought for $20,000 as a two-year-old.

Blazing Meadows has consigned 10 two-year-olds to the April sale, and two of the youngsters have received timely updates from older siblings.

Hip 31, purchased for $50,000 out of last year’s Keeneland September sale, is a colt from the first crop of Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus) out of multiple graded stakes winner Chip (Norquestor).

The dark bay’s three-year-old brother Just Ben (Speightstown) turned heads with a seven-length maiden win in his second start at Gulfstream on the Florida Derby undercard Mar. 28 (video).

“Just Ben broke sluggish and circled the field on a speed favoring track and drew off by seven in 1:09 and change,” Hamm remarked. “And the two-year-old is a big, gorgeous, very nice horse. We’re excited about him.”

The colt worked a quarter mile at Thursday’s preview in :21.2 (video).

Hamm purchased a daughter of Street Cry (Ire) for $50,000 at last year’s Keeneland September Sale. Out of 22-year-old Pay Bird (Storm Bird), the filly’s three-year-old full sister Valid Sum powered home to an impressive maiden victory at Aqueduct Mar. 12 (video). The two-year-old, consigned to the April sale as hip 200, went two furlongs in

:22.0 Thursday (video).

Asked what he liked about the yearling, Hamm said, “She was a correct filly, she had a lot of scope and was a nice mover. It was just a typical, why you like a yearling type thing.” cont. p5

Hamm was also impressed with the youngster's pedigree.

"We like Street Cry, of course," he said. "He's put down a number of good runners. And the family is very good--I like the mare's side. Pay Bird is a little bit of an older mare who looks like she's caught at the right time."

The filly has grown up since she was purchased last year, according to Hamm.

"We try to look for a horse--I guess all pinhookers do--where you try to envision what they're going to look like six months from now, not what they are at the time," Hamm explained. "She's grown up a lot and she's added a lot of weight. She's added some bone and she's a good-sized, nice, scopey filly. And I think [Valid Sum's win] obviously should help. She drew off and won by six or seven. You think the Street Crys are a little bit late-maturing; I think that was just the second start for the horse and she drew off impressively, and looks headed for stakes races before long, based on that."

Both two-year-olds were bred by Liberation Farm and Brandywine Farm and Hamm has had plenty of success dealing with that team.

"I met Pam and Jim Robinson of Brandywine probably 10 years ago at a broodmare sale," Hamm recalled. "I don't consign many broodmares, but we happened to be selling one that day. Maybe it was meant to be, because I met Pam and Jim there and we've had a good relationship. So I look for their horses. I think Liberation and Brandywine in partnership breed a really nice horse. [Liberation's] Mr. [Rob] Whiteley has proven to be able to breed a good horse. So I tend to look through their stuff and, if we can do something, we do. But we are just looking for the best horse out there."

Even though Hamm is active training race horses, his focus is squarely on selling.

"Any yearlings that I buy are generally bought with the idea to re-sell," Hamm confirmed. "We took four down to the Fasig sale in Miami and I sold three in the ring and one privately right after. These horses are definitely in our program for sale; I sure wouldn't be happy to take six of these back and race them. Our goal here is to get them sold. We're very realistic in this market and we've sold five out of six that we've offered this year. So that's our plan."

Hamm admitted the vagaries in the market can make for some nervous going, but he is happy to rely on his own street sense.

"Any business you're in right now is scary," he said. "The good part about it is you have some control, as opposed to investments where other people are controlling it. So it's scary, but I'd rather have control over what happens with my money than have it in some portfolio manager's hands. I'd rather have a little bit in touch."

KEENELAND APRIL - MONDAY

11, f, Unbridled's Song--Thiscatsforcaryl, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Jerry Bailey, Agent I

Bred by Gulf Coast Farms, the grey filly, who is out of a full sister to SW Cat Affair, is a full to SW Be Like Mike and GSP Sacred Journey, and a 1/2 to SP Rapid Redux (Pleasantly Perfect). She went an eighth in :10 2/5 at the preview (video). "She has been a treat to train," Jerry Bailey said. "She's a beautiful mover. She looks the part."

Hip 15, f, Purge--Twining Star, by Twining
Consigned by Wavertree Stables, Inc. (C Dunne), Agent X
Video

Ciaran Dunne described this Apr. 2 foal as a "big two-turn filly with a fabulous way of going," before adding, "I think she is going to raise a lot of eyebrows." The dark bay, out of Gill Tempted S. third-place finisher, Twining Star, is from the first crop of Purge, winner of the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile. From the extended family of MGSW Clocks Secret and GISW

EquiSport

Nostalgia's Star, the filly worked two furlongs Thursday in :21.2.

18, c, Offlee Wild--A Loose Kisser, by Kissin Kris
Consigned by All In One Sales, agent

The dark bay colt, a late April foal, looked sharp on the track at Thursday's preview, getting a quarter in :21 1/5 (video). By freshman sire Offlee Wild, the colt was purchased by M & B Bloodstock for $140,000 at the FTKOCT sale, well above his first-season sire's yearling average of $30,500.

Hip 23, c, Songandaprayer--Beach Bunny, by Storm Bird
Consigned by Wavertree Stables, Inc. (C Dunne), Agent I
Video

This colt turned heads with a blazing furlong drill in :09 4/5 Thursday. "We think he's an exceptional colt," admitted Ciaran Dunne. "He looks like he will be a very good horse at the end of the day." Beach Bunny sold with this foal in utero for $65,000 at the 2006 Keeneland November sale. The colt, who sold for $110,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale, is from the family of Canadian Three-year-old Tilt My Halo and Canadian Horse of the Year Ruling Angel.

Hip 32, c, Malibu Moon--Chipeta Springs, by Alydar
Consigned by Gabriel Dixon, agent
Video

This bay colt, a half to recent GI Frank Kilroe Mile winner Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat), is a full brother to GIII Honeybee S. third-place finisher Bon Jovi Girl. He's a May 18 foal, but has promise, according to Gabriel Dixon. "He is still showing his immaturity," Dixon admitted of the colt who worked a furlong last week in :10 2/5. "I was impressed with what he did up here because I'd only breezed him once at the farm before I brought him here, just to see if he had the gears. He showed that he did, and so we decided we'd take him here and take a shot. He's done all this on his own. The mare obviously hasn't done anything wrong--she's thrown three very good horses now, and this horse will most likely be a stakes horse also." In addition to Gio Ponti and Bon Jovi Girl, Chipeta Springs is also the dam of MGSP Fisher Pond (A.P. Indy).

37, f, Forestry--Country Melody, by Gone West
Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent XL

One of the highest-priced pinhooks left in the sale, the dark bay filly was purchased by McMahon Bloodstock for $225,000 as a FTSAUG yearling. A half to SP Bequia Beauty (Maria's Mon), from the family of GISW Bob and John (Seeking the Gold), she dashed off an eighth in :10 1/5 at the preview (video). "She is a beautiful filly with a pedigree; big, elegant, just everything you'd want in a good filly," Eddie Woods remarked.

The dark bay was picked up for $100,000 by Jim Perrone, agent, at the 2008 KEEJAN sale. "She's just a big, strong, well-balanced, very nice filly," Kirkwood's Kip Elser said. "And she's a Canadian-bred, eligible for all kinds of good money in Canada--that's a wonderful program up there."

This gray colt, who turned in a two-furlong work of :21.2 Thursday, was purchased by Mike Ryan for

EquiSport

$160,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Ryan bought the two-year-old's older brother, subsequent graded stakes winner Noonmark for $275,000 at the 2004 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July sale. Noonmark RNA'd for $1.15 million at this sale in 2005. "He's a hell of a nice colt," Brennan said of the two-year-old.

"And he's by a top sire."

This bay colt, out of a full sister to MGSW Isitingood, worked a quarter mile in :21.4

last week. He was purchased for $100,000 at last year's Saratoga sale. "He's by a sire that's hot right now," said Dave Scanlon. "And he's a New York-bred. It's kind of unusual to have a New York-bred Street Cry. He has a great way of moving, he covers the ground very easy and gets over it very nice. Overall, he's got a sharp look to him."

He is a half to GISP Haka (Dynaformer), out of a half to MGSW and MGISP American Chance (Cure the Blues). Bred by Claiborne Farm, the colt was an $80,000 RNA at KEESEP last fall. "He's fast," said Kiper Elser. "He's a very solid horse and had the fastest quarter of the day, and he goes back to a top notch family. His sister Haka was second to Stardom Bound in the GI Las Virgenes--she's got a bit of a stone bruise right now, but other than Stardom Bound, she looks like she's as good a three-year-old filly as there is this year. The horse is exciting on the race-track, and the page has plenty of action on it, too, and that's most of the hoops that you've got to jump through."

TRAVEL TIPS FROM CONSIGNORS

From Ocala to California, back to Ocala and on to Kentucky, consignors have maintained a hectic schedule from winter into spring. Here are some travel trips from consignors.

"I have a good bottle of wine every night"
-Niall Brennan

"I've gotten very good at sleeping on planes. I've noticed the more we keep selling, the more tired I get and the better I've gotten at it."
-Dave Scanlon

"I sleep good anywhere--I've woken up a lot worse places than an airplane. But the key is to have the right people in the right spots when I'm in between sales."
-Kip Elser

"I have Angela here, who is my assistant and fiancée, she is fabulous--she goes to all the places ahead of us. The thing to do is to support yourself with a very good dominant crew, both on the road and at home. Then it gets easier, and we just use up our frequent flyer miles --we do have one or two."
-Eddie Woods

"We have a heck of a crew--it's a huge team effort, and our system works really well for us. We make it work together. Our crew has done extremely well with all that's gone on the last few weeks--it's been business as usual."

INGLIS EASTER
Yearling Sale
April 5-7, 2009

LIGHTS OUT AT INGLIS

With numbers down across the board, there were many somber faces among vendors in the early going of the first session of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale Sunday in Newmarket, Sydney. However, the challenges continued for Inglis when the session ended abruptly because of a power failure that occurred as Hip 152 was escorted into the ring. Prior to that premature finale, the session still offered fireworks as the much anticipated first foal of Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) strutted into the ring. Bidding for the spirited Galileo (Ire) colt began at A$700,000, and when all was said and done, Hip 90 was knocked down to trainer Danny O'Brien for a cool A$1.5 million. O'Brien confirmed that the colt's vendor, Tony Santic of Makybe Stud, would retain a share in the youngster. "Makybe Diva was probably the best racemare ever to race in Australia, and this is her first colt to be offered for sale--there might not be another one, you never know in this industry," O'Brien said. "We have got a group of people in the horse; it is not completely done and we still will be looking for other investors. Tony is very interested to race the horse in some share and naturally, we will offer him a chance to come back in. There is obviously a lot of sentimental value, being the first foal of his champion racemare. I don't think we'll have to push him too hard." O'Brien's appreciation of the colt is understandable given his close ties to the yearling. "I have known the colt since he was a foal--we get up to Makybe stud a little bit as I have got a stallion standing there, Purrealist [Tale of the Cat], and I have seen him two or three times, he has grown and furnished into a magnificent, strong horse." In regard to the general health of the Thoroughbred market, O'Brien offered, "Certainly he would have made more at this sale last year. The market is off, last year he may have made A$2.5 to A$3 million. It is such a volatile market at the moment, no one knows where it is heading. All I know is that there may never be another colt out of Makybe Diva offered for sale, and we now have one."

When the dust had settled, was O'Brien happy with the price? "We probably didn't have a whole lot left, and at the moment, it is a good price for me because we have got the horse," O'Brien said, adding that the most he had given for a yearling previously was A$700,000 for Purrealist. According to O'Brien, the bay was unlikely to race until the spring 2010. "He will be a horse that won't be pushed," he confirmed. "He is very much a three-year-old staying sort of horse and he will have a pretty quiet next 12 months, barrier trialling this time next year and looking to the spring three-year-old Classics."

Santic, retired to his "Makybe cafe" marquee, indicated that he was pleased with the result. "You go with market, and the market is down at the moment and I think we have done enormous, he has gone to a lovely home," said Santic. As for the choice of stallion for his star mare, Santic added, "I still think Galileo was the right choice, he is one of the best, if not the best, stallion in the world. It was a great mix, and hopefully, 'Rock Star' will get to a Cox Plate."

Follow the Leaders...

Buoyed by a Group 1 double at Rosehill Saturday, Darley Australia emerged as leading buyer with seven lots secured for A$3,185,000, including Hip 109, a Redoute's Choice--Miss Pennymoney (Aus) colt knocked down for A$1 million. The colt from the dual Group 1-winning sprinter is from the immediate family of G1 Golden Slipper winner Merlene (Aus) (Danehill). Darley also secured a Redoute's Choice--Oceanfast (Aus) half-brother to champion filly Alinghi (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) for A$750,000.

With five offered and five sold the boutique Scone farm Cressfield was leading vendor, also supplying the session's top-priced filly. The first foal from MG1SW Our Egyptian Raine (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) was knocked down to Adrian Nicoll of BBA Ireland for A$700,000.

A Gypsy for Waterhouse...

Trainer Gai Waterhouse was thrilled to secure a Redoute's Choice 3/4-brother to juvenile champion and MG1SW Dance Hero (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) for A$850,000. The son of Gypsy Dancer (NZ) was offered by Coolmore as Hip 17. "I just thought he was an outstanding type. I wasn't that fussed on last year's colt [sold for A$2.2 million at Magic Millions last year], but this colt reminded me a lot of Dance Hero," explained Waterhouse. "He has a lovely fluid action and he was very light on his feet--and we are buying him for half price, in all fairness, he is a A$2-million colt."

Coolmore Stud's Peter O'Brien said the disparity in the price between last year's $2.2 million topper and this year's offering reflected changed market conditions. "They are very similar types, although this fellow is probably a little more precocious," O'Brien said. "It's indicative of the market. If this fellow went through last year he probably would have made A$1.5 million." Coolmore paid A$1.5 million for Gypsy Dancer at the 2007 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale and A$1.15 million for the colt as a weanling that subsequently sold for A$2.2 million last year. Gypsy Dancer missed to Encosta de Lago in 2007, but returned to the same stallion last year.

Cummings and Goings...

Another trainer who was more than happy was Anthony Cummings, who signed for Hip 74, an Encosta de Lago half-brother to G1SW Private Steer (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and G1SW All Silent (Aus) (Belong to Me). The bay colt, offered by Reavill Farm, is from the Semipalatinsk mare Lisheenowen (Aus). "There aren't many mothers who can produce horses of the ilk of Private Steer and All Silent, but those that do tend to be able to do it again, as long as you have the type to support that--and certainly this fellow does," Cummings reasoned. "He is at least as good a type as either one of those two. He has everything you look for in a stallion prospect." All Silent is the ante post favorite for the G1 Doncaster H. at Randwick Apr. 18, a race won by Private Steer in 2004.

Crunching Numbers...

The average of A$226,978 is down 33 percent from last year's electrifying first session average of A$343,670 and 39 percent down on the 2008 overall average, while the clearance rate plummeted to 68 percent with 91 sold and 42 passed in. About 10 minutes after the sale ring was plunged into darkness, Inglis announced it would recommence selling Monday with the final 28 from Sunday's session. Local trainers and agents were active along with John Ferguson on behalf of Darley, but there were some notable absentees from the sales ring, with Nathan Tinkler's Patinack farm purchasing just one horse, a General Nediym (Aus) filly offered by Widden Stud as Hip 120, for A$330,000. Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster confirmed the downturn had been anticipated. "Having said that, there are many other sales companies who would love to average A$226,000; it's still a fair result in the current climate," Webster reflected. "The absence of some significant players in the top end of the market saw a reduction in the number of seven figure yearlings and as has been the case with other sales this year.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

"It is tough. We all expected that it was up to vendors to decide at what level they are going to meet the market, so tomorrow will be very interesting."
-Tony Bott, Evergreen Stud

"I think the market is very affordable and colts are unbelievably good value. These are the horses that can make stallions and bring big money. I have come to buy next year's Golden Slipper, Doncaster H. or Derby winner that can hopefully turn into a stallion."
-Gai Waterhouse

"It is a reality check. This particular sale is suffering because high nomination fees are exaggerating the pass-in rate and the decline in average. There may be some unrealistic reserves, but there may also be quite a few that are single vendors that have worked out that they have paid a certain price for the 'nom' and they at least expect to get their money back, but perhaps the individual isn't quite what the market wants. A lot of the colts with very nice pedigrees are not quite the athlete that the trainer wants, and I think trainers are being very selective."

"The sale overall is tough. From a vendor's point of view certainly you can notice the difference from last year and going into the ring, the level of confidence isn't there compared with last year."

-Ryan McEvoy, Widden Stud

"Interest has been good, but it hasn't translated into a positive clearance rate at this stage. I think vendors and buyers are sitting back and things might balance out a little more tomorrow."

-Peter Orton, Vinery Stud

"It is the buyers' turn now; it's our turn. It is a bit tough for the vendors."

-Vin Cox, agent

"I didn't really expect that I was going to get [Lot 90]. It all hits home when the hammer falls,"

-Danny O'Brien, who signed for the session-topping A$1.5 million Galileo (Ire)- Makybe Diva (GB) colt

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

INGLIS EASTER YEARLING SALE – MONDAY

Hip 177, f, Oratorio (Ire)--Rainscene (Aus), by Scenic (Ire)
Consigned by Coolmore, agent

First-season sire Oratorio (Danehill) has just a handful of yearlings to represent him here, but Coolmore's Peter O'Brien is particularly enthusiastic about this filly from a half-sister to blue hen mare Procrastinate (Aus), herself the dam of stakes winners Laissezfaire (Aus) (Danehill), Foreplay (Aus) (Danehill) and recent G1 Australia S. placegetter Time Thief (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}). "She is a beautiful, quality filly, one of the best-moving horses you will ever see, a real athlete," O'Brien said of the filly conceived off an advertised fee of A$33,000. This filly was knocked down as a weanling to Anton Koolman for A$300,000. She is a half-sibling to GSP Chinamora (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

Hip 235, c, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Slice of Paradise (Aus), by Encosta de Lago (Aus)

Consigned by Arrowfield Stud, agent

This second foal from a full sister to champion three-year-old-filly Alinghi (Aus) is expected to be among the top sellers for her sire. Stakes-placed Slice of Paradise, herself a A$375,000 purchase for agent Grant Pritchard-Gordon at the Inglis Easter Broodmare sale in 2004, had a full sibling to this colt knocked down for A$500,000 at this sale in 2007.

Hip 239, c, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--Snowdrift (Fr), by Polish Precedent

Consigned by Tyreel Thoroughbreds

Outstanding producer Snowdrift, imported by the Marheine family of Stratheden Stud and ultimately purchased by Paul Fleming of Tyreel Stud at the Inglis Easter Broodmare sale in 2005 for A$1.5 million, is the dam of five winners. They include G1 Galaxy winner Snowland (Aus) (Snippets {Aus}) and G1 Golden Slipper placed Portillo (Aus) (Red Ransom), as well as GSP Snippetson (Aus) (Snippets {Aus}) and a further two stakes performers. Last year, her Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt fetched A$2.5 million when secured by Darley, which owns Portillo (Aus), herself initially an A$850,000 Easter buy for the Ingham family.

Hip 245, f, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--Sorrento (NZ), by Just a Dancer (Aus)

Consigned by Widden Stud

This filly out of a Group 2 winner made her sale-ring debut at the select weanling sale here last year when offered by Coolmore and knocked down to Chatswood Stud for A$200,000, and she has benefitted from pedigree updates since with two siblings both earning further prizemoney; Sorren Tessa (Aus) (Red Ransom), a A$260,000 Magic Millions '07 filly, is one of them.

Hip 287, f, Exceed and Excel (Aus)--Trick Taker, by Capote
Consigned by Amarina Farm, agent

This filly has plenty of international appeal as her fourth dam is Dahlia (*Vaguely Noble), and she has a half-sister to Group 1 winner Mission Critical (Aus) (Fantastic Light), himself a A$32,000 yearling, and his full brother Brilliant Light (Aus), a A$75,000 yearling buy and provincial winner. This filly was offered at the Magic Millions weanling sale last year by Oaklands Stud and was knocked down for A$200,000 to Magic Millions as agent.

Hip 345, f, Exceed and Excel (Aus)--Alpine Spirit (Aus), by Kenmare (Fr)

Consigned by Reavill Farm

This filly, initially sold as a weanling as part of the Swettenham dispersal for A$310,000, has a significant pedigree update as she is closely related to G1 Blue Diamond S. placegetter Maka Ena (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) via her second dam, the highly regarded Rossignol (Aus) (Bluebird). Alpine Spirit (Aus), a half sister to Abonnement--the dam of SW Gonski (Aus) and Recast (Aus), is already the dam of Group 2-placed Pinezero (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) and the stakes-placed Hong Kong gelding Wealthy (Aus). Alpine Spirit had a Danzero filly knocked down to Inglis as agent for A$340,000 at this sale last year.

Hip 378, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Blue Music (Aus), by Bluebird
Consigned by Reavill Farm

John and Sheenah Rippon's Reavill Farm has a great Easter record as the vendor of G1SW Dealer Principal (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}) and homebred Golden Slipper runner Melito (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), among others. This colt, a A$285,000 purchase by agent Michael Wallace, has plenty going for him as he is closely related to the David Hayes-trained Von Costa de Hero (Aus) (Encosta de Lago), who placed in the G1 Cadbury Guineas Mar. 7. His dam Blue Music is a half sister to Von Costa de Hero's dam Piavonic (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}), herself a Group 1 winner. Reavill was second leading vendor at Easter last year, selling four yearlings at an average of A$790,000.

INGLIS EASTER YEARLING SALE – TUESDAY

Hip 409, c, Encosta de Lago (Aus)--Charmview (Aus),
 by Royal Academy

Consigned by Yarraman Park Stud

The highest-priced weanling to sell at public auction and subsequently appear in this catalogue, this colt was sold by Coolmore to Blue Sky Thoroughbreds at the Inglis Select Weanling Sale for A$500,000. The first foal from a Group 3-winning daughter of Royal Academy, she is among an astonishing 70 yearlings catalogued here by Encosta de Lago. Coolmore's flagship Australian sire had 45 sell here last year at an average of A$588,222. "He is a very nice horse that has done particularly well since he came to us, and does appeal as a two year-old type," said Yarraman's Harry Mitchell.

Hip 428, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Crazy Fling (Aus),
 by Alysheba

Consigned by Yarraman Park Stud, agent

Sold off an advertised service fee of A$50,000, this good-looking colt fetched A$225,000 as a weanling purchase last June. He is bred on the same Danehill--Alysheba cross as George Washington (Ire), Air Eminem (Ire) and High Rock (Ire). "The dam has had six to race, all winners, but nothing of any real note, and yet this colt has been one of the most popular at inspections," reported Yarraman's Harry Mitchell. "We have a lot of faith in Fastnet Rock (Aus) as a sire and you can't help but think he's going to make it on what he's done so far, given they should be far better three year olds, and so many have that sensible temperament that makes them easy to train."

MG1W AFTER MARKET - ON HIS FIRST FOALS
"Our colt is a well balanced foal with a lot of leg under him. He is a very refined colt that I expect to make into an exceptional yearling." - Bob West, Waterford Farm

CHARITABLE MAN WORKS FOR BLUEGRASS

Undefeated Charitable Man (Lemon Drop Kid) completed his final major work in advance of Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. Accompanied by exercise rider Pat Correa, the sophomore completed five furlongs in :59.60. Campaigned by Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Jr. and trained by Kieran McLaughlin, the bay negotiated the final furlong in :23.60, galloping out in 1:13.40. "He did it nice and easy and was very relaxed when he came up on the other horse," said assistant Neal McLaughlin. "We are very happy with the work." Diagnosed with a saucer fracture following a victory in the GII Futurity S. at Belmont last September, Charitable Man will be accompanied by Alan Garcia, who was aboard for both of the colt's previous victories.

Hold Me Back Gears Up...

WinStar Farm's Hold Me Back (Giant's Causeway),, received his final preparatory move in advance of this weekend's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Working in company with stablemate Emma's Posse, the winner of Turfway's GII Lane's End S. covered five panels in 1:00.40. Jockey Kent Desormeaux was aboard for the move. "It was a good, a nice, easy move," said trainer Bill Mott. "He went in a minute and change and did it very easily." In attendance for the work was WinStar President and CEO Doug Cauthen and Elliott Walden, the farm's vice president and racing manager. "We've always wanted to win [the Blue Grass], and we felt like we had a very good chance," said Walden. Mott previously won the Blue Grass in 1984 with Taylor's Special.

The Pamplemousse Sidelined

A leg injury has knocked GIII Sham S. winner The Pamplemousse (Kafwain) out of consideration for Triple Crown a day after he was scratched from the GI Santa Anita Derby because of concern over the condition of a tendon. Trained by Julio Canani and campaigned by Bienstock, Winner Stables, Alex Solis II, Strauss et al, the grey, who will remain under the care of his trainer for the time being, is expected to be sidelined for at least the next six months. "He has a small lesion [on the tendon in his left front leg] and we'll do the best thing by the horse," Solis II continued. "We're grateful that Julio scratched [Saturday]. The Pamplemousse will run again. His time off will be indefinite, but it will be longer than six months." The Pamplemousse also accounted for the GIII San Rafael S. Jan. 17. Wagering on the colt in Pool 3 of Churchill Downs' Kentucky Derby Future Wager was suspended Sunday afternoon. "He's comfortable, he's fine," added Solis. "He's going to run again. He's not finished, but he will not run in the Kentucky Derby."

Gato Go Scratched from Bay Shore By Stewards

Gato Go Win (City Place), entered to contest last Saturday's GII Bay Shore S., was scratched by track officials prior to the race after security indicated that they observed trainer Jeff Mullins administer a substance to the three-year-old. "Our stewards are investigating an incident inside NYRA's detention barn on Saturday afternoon," New York State Racing and Wagering Board spokesman Joe Mahoney told Thoroughbred Times. "NYRA security personnel advised the stewards that Mr. Mullins was observed attempting to administer an over-the-counter product called Air Power to [Gato Go Win] in the security barn. He had also apparently taken a syringe into the security barn. As a result, the stewards directed that Gato Go Win be scratched, and they will be conferring on this later in the coming week...most likely Wednesday." Mullins, who trains Gato to Win for Dean De Renzo, Randy Hartley, Joey Platts and William Sims, also conditions GI Wood Memorial S. winner I Want Revenge (Stephen Got Even). "There was no incident involving I Want Revenge, who was under surveillance in the security barn prior to racing," Mahoney told TTimes.

Fifth on debut at Salon-de-Provence last November, Grandcamp stepped up to take a Jan. 12 Cagnes-sur-Mer maiden on the Polytrack before returning to the south coast venue to secure a conditions event last time Feb. 5. Breaking best to set the tempo in this prestigious Classic prep, he was shaken up with 350 meters remaining and kept on strongly under a drive in the closing stages to hold the late rattle of Guest Ville. The win doubled trainer Jean-Claude Rouget's tally in the contest following the 2005 success of Ruwi (GB). "It is a great moment and a privilege to have a Group 2 winner at Longchamp with a Classic prospect," enthused winning owner Daniel-Yves Treves. "Our other horse, Never On Sunday (Fr), was out of luck in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt, but this win makes up for that although I lost my voice by yelling so much from the stand. Of course we can now consider running him in the [June 7 G1] Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly, but will leave the decision to Jean-Claude Rouget to see if he wants to run him again beforehand."

Trincot was unable to build on success in last May's G3 Prix de Guiche at Chantilly and finished off the board in the June 1 G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) back at Chantilly and G1 Prix Jean Prat at the same track 12 days later. He fared better when third in the Sept. 20 G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at this course and posted a personal best with a score in the Oct. 4 G2 Prix Dollar back here before dropping to 10th in the Dec. 14 G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin. Coming back from an eighth in the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 14, he was allowed off at generous odds for this race against his French Derby conqueror Vision d'Etat. Settled in rear until angled off the rail in early stretch, the bay homebred swooped for control passing the eighth pole and lengthened clear of toiling rivals in the closing stages for an impressive win. "He needed the run in the Exbury, but he has developed a tendency to be a little lazy so that is why we applied the sheepskin cheekpieces and I think it made a big difference," explained trainer Philippe Demercastel. "I think there is more improvement to come so we'll try to do the same again in the [Apr. 26] G1 Prix Ganay back here next time." That 2100-meter contest is also on the agenda for Eric Libaud's stable star Vision d'Etat. "We only wanted to use today's race as a build up to the Prix Ganay, which is his first main target for the year," said Libaud. "Despite running too fresh and too keen, he ran on well and the jockey was not too hard on him so it was an almost perfect reintroduction." Third in last season's GIII La Habra S. over Santa Anita's turf course, Sweet August Moon managed to score on the main track against allowance foes before finishing a well-beaten seventh in the GIII Santa Paula S. last March. Off for the next 10 months, the filly returned with a fifth sprinting over the turf here Jan. 15 before getting back to the winner's circle when switched back to the main track against $62,500 optional claiming company Feb. 14. Adding the Honest Lady S. Mar. 7, the dark bay was sent off the second choice behind favored High Resolve to make it three straight here. Content to stalk the early pace in third, Sweet August Moon ran to the fore past the eighth pole and drew clear to score over closing Foxy Danseur. "She's always been such a big filly, and it looks like now that her ability is catching up to her size," said winning rider Aaron Gryder. Trainer Brian Koriner added, "She's matured and is really good right now," noted Koriner. "She was very sharp today, and a little closer than I thought she would be. [Aaron Gryder] got her on the outside and made a big run."

Also Ran: Lovelace (GB), Summit Surge (Ire), Jumbajukiba (GB), Express Wish (GB), Georgebernardshaw (Ire), Tian Shan (Ire). Scratched: Duff (Ire).

Admirably consistent in top company at two and three, Mad About You placed four times at the highest level behind some of the sport's stellar performers in Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar), Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and Promising Lead (GB) (Danehill). After failing to see out the mile and a half of the G1 Irish Oaks when eighth here in July, the homebred made the most of a welcome drop in class to annexe the Listed Garnet S. at Naas on her final three-year-old start in October. Third when 3-10 for the G3 Park Express S. over a mile of this circuit last time Mar. 22, she rebounded in style over this furlong shorter trip, tracking the furious pace set by last year's winner Jumbajukiba (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) before taking command approaching the final quarter and drawing clear. Connections are looking at a return to this track for the May 23 G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Runner-up to Kamsin (Ger) in last year's G1 Deutsches Derby, Ostland failed to make an impact in two subsequent starts and again trailed the Hamburg Classic hero when fourth in the G2 Grosser Preis von Baden in early September. Fifth in this track's G1 Preis von Europa later that month, the bay was set an easier task on this seasonal bow but made favorite backers wait until the final stride to land the odds. Settled in fourth early, he was temporarily tapped for speed at the top of the stretch but kept responding to Andrasch Starke's urgings to split Ambassador and the heavily penalised Zaungast in the shade of the post. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Multiple Argentine champion Latency, sixth in last season's G1 Carlos Pellegrini, rebounded with a top effort here to rack up his eighth Group 1 victory. Patiently ridden by regular pilot Julio Cesar Mendez, the veteran made use of his patented closing kick to get up in the closing strides. Group 1 winners Inter Optimist (Arg) (Incurable Optimist) and Reraise (Brz) (Know Heights) placed sixth and seventh, respectively, in the nine-horse field. Latency will attempt to increase his Group 1 tally when he makes his next start in the G1 Gran Premio Republica Argentina at Palermo in May.

Cayaya went to the shelf last year after finishing second in July's G1 Gran Premio Mil Guineas and missed last season's classics. She was second when she made her return in May, but disappointed in her last start when seventh over the San Isidro turf course Feb. 28. Dismissed in the wagering here, the gray relished the off track and carried her speed gate to wire for a breakthrough victory.

Claimed for $35,000 out of a second in a sprint on the Belmont lawn Oct. 24, Furthest Land closed out 2008 with an allowance tally at Churchill Nov. 27. He kicked off this year with a pair of allowance scores on the grass at Gulfstream Jan. 3 and Jan. 29, respectively, but faltered as the chalk in the Tampa Bay S. Feb. 21 and wound up seventh. Sent off at 9-2 in his first synthetic start, the dark bay raced in third while three wide. He kicked into gear nearing the stretch and put away Wicked Style--hero of the 2007 GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity over track and trip--to post his third win of the year. Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo), the 5-2 second choice, rallied five wide into the stretch before flattening out to finish fourth. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Vocalised made his racecourse bow at Leopardstown when fourth behind the ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ and subsequent G2 Beresford S. winner Sea the Stars (Ire) in August before returning to that venue to open his account the following month. Having missed last Sunday's G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial due to being off his feed, the bay was firing on all cylinders here and dominated this contest after being taken straight to the front by an enterprising Kevin Manning. Trainer Jim Bolger is looking at one of the mile Classics for the winner, either at Newmarket, Longchamp or back here. "He was a nice two-year-old and was in a hot maiden on his first start, where he has his head in front before getting tired," jockey Kevin Manning explained. "He did it well at Leopardstown against a smart field on ground that didn't suit ideally and he was running into a headwind doing it the hard way today. He will improve from today and there is no question mark about him getting a mile whatsoever--he will definitely be a better horse on better ground." Video, courtesy of attheraces.

Confined mainly to handicap company over the past two seasons, Baron de'L captured two course-and-distance handicaps on his final flat outings before tackling hurdles over the winter. Reverting to the level following four unsuccessful starts over timber, the chestnut showed a new aptitude and after moving up to Estrela Brage passing the eighth pole soon had matters in hand. CHANNON EYES CLASSIC TRIALS

Trainer Mick Channon is targeting this month's 1000 Guineas trials at Newbury and Newmarket with a trio of fillies, he revealed yesterday. Ann Black's G2 Cherry Hinton S. scorer Please Sing (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) and Al-Qatami and Al-Mudhaf's G2 Rockfel S. scorer Lahaleeb (Ire) (Redback {GB}) will take in the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 18, while Jaber Abdullah's recent Kempton maiden winner Dunes Queen (Elusive Quality) will run in Newmarket's G3 Nell Gwyn S. three days earlier. "I do think Dunes Queen is a smart filly," he told sportinglife.com. "Obviously, the fact that she's out of Queen's Logic (Ire) makes her extra special to me. My one concern is that she badly needs more experience. Please Sing is an impressive filly at home and looks to have wintered well, while Lahaleeb would never over-exert herself at home. She showed vast improvement at the backend when winning her Group 2."

The Curragh 14.15 Eireannach (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) graduates in his second start.

The Curragh 14.45 Vocalised (Vindication) wins his first Listed event.

The Curragh 16.15 Baron de'L (In the Wings {GB}) wins in his return to the flats.

The Curragh 16.45 Fergus McIver (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) races greenly, but gets the job done.

She then ran 10th in the Oct. 5 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at this track and was a last-out fifth in the Nov. 4 G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte. Racing on the front end from the break in this seasonal return, she came under pressure at the two pole and was driven out to hold on for a first black-type badge. "She's a lovely filly with talent and has been working well at home," revealed trainer Criquette Head-Maarek. "She doesn't look a picture at the moment and has yet to come in her coat, but she put up a good performance, and will hopefully improve.
