MASTERING THE ART

When it comes to the domestic Classics, Aidan O'Brien is in a league of his own, and it is significant that he is the only Irish trainer to have won the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas during the past two decades. Since Desert King (Ire) (Danehill) broke the foreign domination in 1997, Ballydoyle have been responsible for four further winners including Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill) and Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo). Leaving nothing to chance, he fields a quartet headed this time by the G1 2000 Guineas fifth Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Unbeaten at this venue, the chestnut has also been through heavy ground when conquering the G1 National S. over seven furlongs in September. That followed an impressive win over six on a quick surface in the G1 Phoenix S. a month earlier, so Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's charge has proved adaptable. "Obviously it is not ideal ground for any horse, but Mastercraftsman won Group 1s on firm and heavy ground, so he's very versatile," O'Brien said. "It's not ideal, but we're hoping he'll be okay on it. Cont. p2

O'BRIEN DOMINATES DERBY ENTRIES

Aidan O'Brien is set to saddle a clutch of contenders in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby after he was responsible for a team of nine following yesterday's scratchings deadline. Of the 20 total entries remaining in the mile-and-a-half Classic, Ballydoyle can call upon G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), G3 Lingfield Derby Trial scorer Age of Aquarius (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the G2 Dante S. first and second Black Bear Island (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Freemantle (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), the G3 Chester Vase first and second Golden Sword (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and Masterofthehorse (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), as well as the G1 2000 Guineas fourth Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). MGISW MUSIC NOTE TO RETURN IN PHIPPS

MGISW Music Note (A.P. Indy) will make her 2009 debut in the GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont June 13, reports Daily Racing Form. In 2008, the Godolphin-owned filly won the GI Mother Goose S., GI CCA Oaks and GI Gazelle S. before finishing third behind Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) and dual Grade I winner Cocoa Beach (Chi) (Doneraile Court) in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic. Returned to training in April, the filly worked a half mile in :48.47 over Belmont's main track

Music Note Adam Coglianese

Tuesday. According trainer Saeed bin Suroor's assistant Rick Metee, Cocoa Beach is likely to return at Saratoga this summer, while GI Apple Blossom H. winner Seventh Street (Street Cry {Ire}) is likely to make her next start in the GII Fleur de Lis at Churchill June 13.

COMMENTATOR TO MISS MET MILE

Commentator (Distorted Humor), two-time winner of the GI Whitney H., will bypass Monday's GI Met Mile and wait for an easier spot to prepare for a tilt at the Aug. 8 Whitney, according to DRF. In his only prior start this term, the eight-year-old ran fourth in the Apr. 18 Charles Town Classic.

Backing up the Ballydoyle challenge is last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud runner-up Drumbeat, who reverts to a mile following a second in the Apr. 15 Listed Feilden S. at Newmarket and a third in the May 8 G3 Dee S. at Chester. Another dropping back in trip is Hail Caesar, who was four places behind Drumbeat in the Criterium de Saint-Cloud last term, and fourth behind Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in both the Apr. 19 G3 Ballysax S. and May 10 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial S. over 10 furlongs at Leopardstown. Completing the foursome is the maiden Viceroy of India, runner-up over this trip at Gowran Park last time May 3. "I think the word is Delegator should handle the ground, but our horses are well and we've been happy with Mastercraftsman since Newmarket," O'Brien continued. "Hail Caesar is a horse we always liked last year and he ran well in a Group 1. He's ran in a few trials this year...is in good form and we're hoping he'll run well. They have been improving from their first run through the year, so we're hoping it's the same with Mastercraftsman." The ground is still officially heavy, which ruled out a host of potential challengers including Jim Bolger's G1 Dewhurst S. winner Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway) and Godolphin's Ashram (Ire) (Indian Haven {GB}).

"The horses ran well in their trials, and the ones that ran early improved from their first run to their second, and the ones that didn't win ran well in their trials," said O'Brien yesterday. "So far, so good, and we're looking at the Derby, so we'll see what happens in the next few days. We will discuss it and they are all very eligible Epsom horses at the moment. They have to go through their work, but if they come through their trials, it is hard to bypass this race. There are other races to consider at that time, like Ascot, but we are privileged to have these horses."

John Oxx and Jim Bolger are likely to offer the strongest opposition to the Ballydoyle clan with Christopher Tsui's 2000 Guineas first and third Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Gan Amhras (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), respectively. Bolger also has tomorrow's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas runner Fergus McIver (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), while Godolphin have left in the Dante fifth Kite Wood (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). British representation could be down to a handful of outsiders, but Paul Reddam's G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest) remains in the race while trainer Brian Meehan monitors his progress following a dirty scope after his Dante flop last week. Among the notable withdrawals was Wednesday's Listed Cockeyed Hat S. scorer Alwaary (Dynaformer), Highclere's Chester maiden winner Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Sir Robert Ogden's Dante third Sans Frontieres (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Sariska Heads Oaks List...

Lady Bamford's G3 Musidora S. winner Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) headed a remaining entry of 25 for the June 5 G1 Epsom Oaks following the scratchings deadline yesterday. Impressive when winning that May 13 York trial by 3 3/4 lengths, the Michael Bell-trained filly may face Jackie Bolger and Harry Dobson's G1 1000 Guineas second Cuis Ghaire (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is one of a trio from the Jim Bolger stable, as well as George Strawbridge's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Rainbow View (Dynaformer) from the John Gosden barn; Neil Jones's G3 Blue Wind S. victress Beauty o'Gwaun (Ire) (Rainbow Quest) from John Oxx; and Khalid Abdullah's Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial winner Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who is set to represent the Henry Cecil yard. Sariska received praise from jockey Jamie Spencer yesterday. "She's a lovely filly and won well at York," Spencer commented. "The opposition is probably a little bit lighter than previous years, and there is no stand-out. Cuis Ghaire ran a good Oaks trial in the Guineas, and John Oxx and Henry Cecil's fillies would worry you. Sariska is due to do some work on Wednesday, so we'll see how she has progressed from York." Among the significant withdrawals are the Queen's Enticement (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), George Strawbridge's Fantasia (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway).

YOU KNOW ALL ABOUT THESE RECENT GROUP/STAKES WINNERS:

- GOLDEN SWORDChester Vase-Gr.3 on May 7.
- MAGADANPrix d'Hedouville-Gr.3 on May 4.
- ABOVE AVERAGESandown Classic Trial-Gr.3 on April 24.
- REDWOODFeilden Stakes-L.R. on April 15.

BUT HOW ABOUT THESE SPEEDSTERS?

JOANNA won a 5f. maiden for 2YO Fillies by 6 lengths on debut at Milan on May 17.
 "The newcomer Joanna won very well, recording the fastest time (58.7) for juveniles this season at San Siro." EBN, 19.05.09

INTERNATIONAL DEBUT made it 6 wins in a 5f. (0-100) Handicap at York on May 14.
 "Had no trouble chasing the decent gallop and, with the rail to help in the closing stages, stayed on strongly to get up close home." RACING POST, 15.05.09

RACING ROUND-UP

PURE CLAN KICKS OFF '09 IN MINT JULEP

Pure Clan (Pure Prize), who is slated to make her seasonal debut in Churchill Downs' GIII Early Times Mint Julep S. June 6, worked six furlongs in 1:14.60 Thursday morning. Trained by Bob Holthus, the four-year-old was accompanied by exercise rider Steve Schmelzel. "It was a pretty good work around the dogs," said Holthus. "This will probably be her only turf work." Winner of the GIII Pocahontas S. and GII Golden Rod S. on the dirt at two, the chestnut finished a respectable third in the GI Kentucky Oaks before adding scores in the GIII Regret S. and GI American Oaks when returning to the sod last summer. Only a half length behind winner Backseat Rhythm (El Corredor) over a yielding turf course in the GI Garden City S. at Belmont Sept. 6, she closed out the year with a 10th in the GI Breeder's Cup Filly and Mare Turf at Santa Anita Oct. 24.

THORN SONG TO SHIP FOR SHOEMAKER

In a last minute decision, Thorn Song (Unbridled's Song) will be supplemented to Monday's GI Shoemaker Mile for $5,000 and be ridden by Mike Smith. Campaigned by Zayat Stables, the winner of last fall's GI Shadwell Turf Mile is scheduled to depart Friday and will be accompanied on the flight by Roman's assistant Tom Morgan. "It just kind of came up," said Romans from Churchill Downs Thursday. "[Owner] [Ahmed] Zayat was looking over all the races he might run in, and saw this as an opportunity for another Grade I. It looks like a tough group, but a small field." Regarding the last minute change in plans, Romans added, "There is nothing here until the Fourth of July, and a plane was going. We thought we'd take a shot." Most recently, the grey finished fifth behind Einstein (Spend a Buck) in the GI Turf Classic at Keeneland May 2. "That wasn't a bad race," said Romans. "Einstein may be the best horse in the country if not in the world right now. And a mile and an eighth may be stretching Thorn Song a little." In the mile, Thorn Song is expected to face Hyperbaric (Sky Classic), Whatsthescript (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), U S Ranger (Danzig), Dixie Chatter (Dixie Union), Tiz West (Gone West) and Ventura (Chester House).

Triple Threats

ZITO PAIR PREPARE FOR BELMONT

In preparation for the June 6 GI Belmont S., Robert LaPenta's Brave Victory (Lion Heart) and Miner's Escape (Mineshaft) breezed a half mile in company on the main track at Belmont yesterday. Brave Victory, third behind Charitable Man (Lemon Drop Kid) in the GII Peter Pan S. May 9, covered four furlongs in :48.55, while Frederico Tesio S. winner Miner's Escape--partnered by Jose Lezcano--negotiated the same distance in :48.56. The works were the fourth and fifth-fastest of 23 at the distance Thursday. "Brave Victory is a better work horse than the other horse," said trainer Nick Zito, who indicated that Rajiv Maragh will ride the bay in the 1 1/2-mile Classic. "Brave Victory has always been an exceptional work horse. Miner's Escape has never been a good work horse, ever, but that's okay." Zito, who recorded his first Belmont win in 2004 with Birdstone, added another victory last year with LaPenta's Da' Tara (Tiznow).

Unraced as a juvenile, Flamingo Fantasy closed a four-start sophomore campaign with a sixth in G3 Deutsches St Leger at Dortmund Oct. 5, and came back this term to bag a first stakes win in the May 1 Listed Silbernes Band der Ruhr at Mulheim. The chestnut was reserved at the back for most of this marathon, made smooth headway into a challenging position off the home turn and was driven out late to best Ruten in a duel for a career high. "We knew he had improved greatly," said trainer Waldemar Hickst. "He is entered for the [June 30] Listed Langer Hamburger at Hamburg, and also for the G1 Deutschland-Preis [at Dusseldorf July 19] as we want to give 12 furlongs a try." ELUSIVE HEAT

(f, 3, Elusive Quality--Xtra Heat, by Dixieland Heat)

O-Martin S. Schwartz;

B-West Hills Farms, LLC (Ky);

T-Kiaran McLaughlin

Last Start: Jan. 29, Gulfstream Alw

Elusive Heat, off since posting a dominating 13 1/4-length tally in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 29 (video), is being pointed toward the July 4 GI Prioress S. at Belmont Park, a race won in 2001 by her brilliant dam, champion Xtra Heat. Tabbed as a TDN Rising Star following a sharp debut victory over Big Sandy in October, Elusive Heat resurfaced with a game second-place finish in the GIII Old Hat S. Jan. 4. The Martin Schwartz colorbearer was being aimed at the Mar. 14 GIII Cicada S. at Aqueduct before receiving some time on the sidelines.

"She just wasn't quite right," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin explained of the recent layoff. "She x-rayed fine, and we didn't find anything really wrong. We gave her a couple of weeks at home, then they went over her in Lexington, and all systems were good. We've actually had her back now for almost a month."

The $750,000 FTFFEB juvenile purchase is likely to return to the worktab in the near future, according to McLaughlin.

"She's back in training and due to work soon," McLaughlin continued. "She'll work in the next week or so--maybe in the next couple of days. We're not sure if we're going to work her this weekend or the next one. We'll get her on a weekend schedule and point her toward the Prioress."

MAJORMOTIONPICTURE

(c, 3, Action This Day--Boa, by Rahy)
 O-Bongo Racing Stable & Kagele Brothers;
 B-Le Retro Bloodstock &
 12 Gates Racing Stable (Ky);
 T-Michael Machowsky
 Last Start: Aug. 24, Del Mar Msw (1st)

Majormotionpicture was named a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ after an eye-catching debut win at Del Mar last August, but hasn't seen action since. Sent off the 9-5 choice in his lone effort, the chestnut son of young sire Action This Day was off a step slowly from the rail draw and raced behind horses before pulling his way to the front going into the turn. He stayed on his wrong lead for most of the stretch, but was never in any danger of being tracked down and won by 3/4 of a length. The final time for the six furlongs was 1:10 1/5 (video).

Initial plans to jump the colt up to stakes company were shelved in favor of a more patient approach and, after registering a number of very sharp works in the fall, the decision was made to give him a few months off.

He vacationed at Gary Broad's Oakmont Ranch in Murrieta, California, not far from Del Mar, but has since returned to trainer Mike Machowsky's barn at Santa Anita.

"He's back in training now. He's galloping everyday at Santa Anita and, I'd say, is probably a couple weeks from a breeze," said co-owner Bob Feld, who heads up Bongo Racing. "He's doing well. He filled out, grew some and put on some weight. We're really happy with the way he looks. He just had a couple of baby issues. He was just going through a growth spurt, and we gave him some time."

Asked if they were eyeing a specific race for Majormotionpicture's return, Feld laughed, "Mike doesn't like talking about stuff like that. When he likes a horse, everything is a jinx. When I first saw Majormotionpicture breeze at Santa Anita, I said, 'Oh my God.' And Mike said, 'Don't get too excited! Don't get your partners excited!' And this went on. Then the day the horse was entered to run for the first time, I open up the Form, and Mike's saying, 'When we break our maiden in this one, we're probably going to go right on to the [GI] Norfolk S.' Are you kidding me? All the crap he gave me? But he just laughed. It's okay when he says it."

A $55,000 Keeneland September yearling, Majormotionpicture is a half-brother to the Grade I-placed Liquidity (Tiznow). He hails from the first crop of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Action This Day (by Kris S.).

ABBY'S ANGEL

(f, 4, Touch Gold--Miss Kilroy, by A.P. Indy)
 O-Darley; B-Stonerside Stable;
 T-Michael Stidham
 Last Start: Jan. 11, 2008, Fair Grounds Msw (1st)

Abby's Angel, now part of Darley after her breeder Stonerside Stable sold nearly all its assets to Sheikh Mohammed, was made a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following her second start, a 14 3/4-length victory in a Fair Grounds maiden in January 2008. Coming off a fast-closing third in her debut, she battled for the early lead and opened up in the stretch to win under a hand-ride (video).

She may have showed tremendous potential that day, but the filly has much to do before she can join the ranks of some of the other horses acquired in that transaction, which included eventual GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero and champion two-year-old Midshipman (Unbridled's Song).

A tibia fracture sidetracked Abby's Angel following her maiden victory, and she didn't return to the worktab until early November--after the sale had taken place. An abscess in her left front foot has further delayed her return, according to trainer Michael Stidham.

The filly was based at the Fair Grounds over the winter and, following a one-month gap between workouts, breezed at Keeneland Apr. 11.

"She's at Arlington and she just worked her second half since coming back off a layoff," Stidham said Tuesday, speaking from the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale in Timonium, Maryland.

She shows three drills at Arlington Park in the interim, including a :59 bullet over five furlongs May 15 and another bullet work of 1:00 flat yesterday.

While Stidham did not provide a timetable, he said Abby's Angel will return soon in a race at Arlington, "hopefully" in an allowance.

Horse Euthanized After Belmont Paddock Incident:

Prior to the running of the fifth race at Belmont Wednesday, City On Line, a four-year-old chestnut colt trained by H. Allen Jerkens and owned by Rhapsody Farm and Harry Landry, broke away from his lead pony during the post parade, unseated jockey Jose Lezcano and ran loose down the tunnel leading to the paddock. Soon after entering the enclosure, he ran into a statue of Triple Crown winner Secretariat and toppled the bronze structure, cracking the concrete pedestal in the process. Dr. Anthony Verderosa, Chief Examining Veterinarian for The New York Racing Association, sedated the horse and treated him for trauma in the paddock. Upon further examination, Dr. Verderosa determined that the colt had irreparably fractured his left femur in the hind leg, and the injury required that City On Line be immediately euthanized. Jose Lezcano was not injured during the incident and no other injuries were reported.

CHRB Board To Review Wagering Incident:

The June 5 meeting of the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) will include a review of an apparent communications failure Saturday, May 16, that led to the cancellation of all wagers placed on the ninth race at Hollywood Park from 33 out-of-state locations. In a release, the CHRB said it was advised Saturday by Scientific Games, the totalizator company that processed the wagers, that a command to stop betting at the start of the ninth race at Hollywood Park was not transmitted to 33 locations. Therefore, bettors at those 33 locations could have continued wagering after the start of the race. The decision was made to "close and clear" those 33 locations, meaning that all wagers from those sites were ejected from the pools. The release said the decision was made to protect the integrity of the pari-mutual wagering pools at Hollywood Park. Close-and-clear is a safeguard in place at all racetracks to protect against such incidents. CHRB Executive Director Kirk Breed said that, although Scientific Games and Hollywood Park have assured the board there was no past-posting because all wagers from those 33 locations were cleared from the host pools, the CHRB has a responsibility to protect all bettors, including those who made legal wagers from those 33 locations only to have their bets thrown out along with those made after the start. He said representatives of Scientific Games have been asked whether steps are being taken to accommodate customers who would have won their bets if their wagers had been accepted into the host pools. Breed also wants Scientific Games to explain why there was a problem transmitting the stop-betting command to those locations and what is being done to prevent future disruptions.

DONATIVUM BACK AT NEWMARKET Trainer Saeed bin Suroor is looking forward to saddling Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) in tomorrow's Listed King Charles II S. at Newmarket. Not seen since his success in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (video) at Santa Anita in October, the grey gelding will carry a four-pound penalty in the seven-furlong contest. "Donativum spent the winter in Dubai, and he has been working nicely recently," bin Suroor said yesterday. "I have been happy with his preparation, and we will start him off in a listed contest before deciding where to go with him. Running over seven furlongs is a good distance to begin his season and he will step up to a mile afterwards. I think he will be fine on the good-to-firm ground, but he hasn't raced since October, so he will come on for his first start of the year. I am looking forward to seeing him in action and I am hopeful that he will run well on Saturday."

CITYSCAPE ON THE SHELF Trainer Roger Charlton yesterday revealed that Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) sustained a fracture in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3. Khalid Abdullah's G2 Royal Lodge S. runner-up was sent off at 16-1 for the mile Classic, but could only beat one home. "He wasn't traveling and wasn't comfortable in the race and lurched, so when he came home we found he was wrong in front and behind," Charlton explained. "He is still box-resting. We have no plans and, although he'll be back, it will be the autumn and we'll work our way back."

LOOK HERE PLEASES IN GALLOP Last year's G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Look Here (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) delighted connections in a racecourse gallop at Salisbury ahead of her return in the June 5 G1 Coronation Cup. Julian Richmond-Watson's homebred has not been seen since finishing third in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September, but conditioner Ralph Beckett confirmed that a return to the track and trip of the Oaks is on the cards after she worked with Without a Prayer (Ire) (Intikhab). "Without a Prayer is no slouch and the filly was on top at the end, which was just what we needed," Beckett told Racing Post. "[Rider] Seb [Sanders] has come back and said he was very happy with her, as she gave him a good feel and that should have put her spot on for the Coronation at Epsom in a couple of weeks' time."

ACTION SWITCHES TO BADEN-BADEN

With the European Breeze-Ups almost wrapped up, Baden-Baden stages one of the finales at its Iffezheim complex today as part of the BBAG Spring Sale that accompanies the local racing festival. Despite the number of 118 lots being pared down from the 150 of last year, there is the usual mix of juveniles, horses in training and a 14-strong supplementary catalogue. Among the notable two-year-olds are Gestut Ammerland's hip 51, a Java Gold half-brother to yesterday's Listed Grosser Preis der Sparkasse Dortmund hero Daring Tiger (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}), who is closely related to GISW Light Jig (GB) (Danehill); Gestut Rottgen's hip 86, a son of Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) out of the 1999 G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine and stakes producer Nagoya (Ger) (Goofalik); and Nastasja Volz's hip 112, a daughter of Antonius Pius out of a half-sister to the group winners Topsy Creek (Dayjur) and Abunawwas (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}). Among the horses in training is Gebruder Wiegandt's hip 74, Lautenspielerin (Ger) (Areion {Ger}). Fourth in the G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at the local venue in October, the three-year-old filly has won a valuable conditions race this season and is a half-sister to three stakes performers including the smart Lutkje Lage (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}). Breezing gets underway at 9 a.m., with selling beginning at 2 p.m. Catalogue and updates are available at www.bbagg-sales.de.

RED RANSOM MARE TOPS GREAT SOUTHERN FINALE Advance to Go (Aus)

(Red Ransom--Miss Minden {Aus}, by Bellotto), selling as lot 708, brought a bid of A$150,000 from Optimum Thoroughbreds to top yesterday's session of the Inglis Great Southern Sale in Melbourne. The four-year-old, a half to G1SW Miss Danehill (Aus) (Danehill) and MGSW Pentastic (Aus) (Pentire {GB}), was offered by Fulmen Park as agent for Oamaru Stud. A total of 183 head changed hands Thursday for a total of A$1,106,300, bringing the 2009 aggregate to A$4.923 million. Inglis officials made favorable comparisons to last year, when a substantially larger catalogue--350 more horses--grossed A$5.9 million. "The clearance rate has been consistently high right throughout the sale, said Inglis Director Peter Heagney. "We had a good spread of buyers from right around Australia and there was strong competition on the better lots. In light of the fact we had considerably fewer horses catalogued this year, the market has held up extremely well." Complete results are available on www.inglis.com.au.
