Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) made giant strides forward in the heavy ground at The Curragh to surge to an impressive 4 1/2-length success in yesterday's G1 boylesports.com Irish 2000 Guineas. It was the ninth consecutive Irish Classic success for trainer Aidan O'Brien. "All the horses had been coming on from their first run and we were very happy with him at home since Newmarket," O'Brien said. "He's a great cruiser and traveler and can quicken as well." Cont. p2

TEN-YATTA

She's baaaaaack. Champion Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) showed all of her usual condescension in sweeping by her rivals to take the GII Milady H. at Hollywood yesterday. Stablemate Life is Sweet (Storm Cat) was an honest second after refusing to give up the rail on the backstretch. "Garrett [Gomez] and I were playing some serious jockey games out there," said winning rider Mike Smith. "It was all clean and fair. She's so handy that when I eased up on the pedal she backed up for me, came around and it was over." Cont. p5

GHAIRING UP

Since 1990, 12 winners of today's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas had taken in the Newmarket equivalent with varying degrees of success and, of the host of the Guineas vanquished this time, Cuis Ghaire (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) comes out on top on form. Jackie Bolger and Harry Dobson's filly was 1 1/2 lengths behind Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway) in that May 3 Classic. The G3 Albany S. heroine was racing for the first time since flopping in the mud in the G2 Debutante S. here in August, and jockey Kevin Manning said afterwards, "My filly gave a bit in the 'dip' fitness-wise, but she will improve plenty. I'm very happy that she will improve again." Irish 1000 Guineas cont. p3-4

Mastercraftsman, heavily supported at 6-4, followed his stable rabbit Viceroy of Indian (Galileo {Ire}) until let loose by Johnny Murtagh with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. The chestnut powered away before being eased near the line, and added to his previous Group 1 successes in the Phoenix S. and National S. here last term.

Always comfortable on this testing ground, he raced with Soul City (Ire) (Elusive City) at the forefront of the main field who ignored Viceroy of India. He was perfectly placed near the stands rail as the pacemaker folded before the quarter pole. Quickening to settle the result soon after, Mastercraftsman pulled away as Mick Kinane worked his way into second on Rayeni (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) at a safe distance. "The performance he put up here in the Phoenix on fast ground last year was unbelievable and with that kind of courage and speed behind them, the sky is the limit," Aidan O'Brien added. "Pat [Smullen] was very happy with him at Newmarket and said he really started to get going in the last furlong and a half and the rest, as they say, is history. Johnny said he won very easy today, so we'd love to go to Royal Ascot for the [June 16] G1 St James's Palace S. with him, but everything will be talked about before then." Owner Derrick Smith, who was witnessing his silks being carried to success for the first time in a Classic, added, "Whether or not it was the ground that made the difference to us from Newmarket or a combination of that and the fact that was our first run of the season, I don't know, but we're looking forward to Ascot now."

While his staying-on, but non-threatening effort in the Newmarket Guineas represented his second defeat away from home, Mastercraftsman had previously proved unstoppable in Kildare, come rain or shine. Though he lit no fireworks when recording a narrow win on debut and adding to the stable's enviable tally in the G2 Railway S. over six furlongs here in May and June, his emphatic 4 1/2-length defeat of the G2 Coventry S. winner Art Connoisseur (Ire) (Lucky Story) back over that trip in the Phoenix the following month set him aside as a rare commodity. The chestnut encountered wildly contrasting conditions when tackling an extra panel in the National S. in September, and overcame adversity in the mud to deny Shaweel (GB) (Dansili {GB}) by a short head. His progress was halted when only fourth as the odds-on favorite for the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp on Arc day and he shaped as if he needed the re-introduction in the Newmarket Classic under Pat Smullen.

Praise for Rayeni...

His Highness the Aga Khan was on hand to witness the game effort of Rayeni, who was racing for the first time since winning the G3 Killavullan S. at Leopardstown in October and suffering a well-documented setback. "He ran very well and we are very pleased with the outcome," the Aga Khan commented. "We'll tend to keep him on softish going, so we'll have to look at where we can find the races we need. I think we'll wait for the autumn, when we will have a much bigger choice." The Goffs Million hero Soul City's attempt at the €1-million bonus went awry, but connections were satisfied with his effort in third. "He's run a super race, considering it was his first run back, and he's liked the ground," trainer Richard Hannon's assistant and son Richard junior told PA Sport. "We've always thought he would end up a mile-and-a-quarter horse, and that is what Richard [Hughes] said coming back in. It's hard to say what the plan will be, but he will probably go a mile and a quarter. The French Derby [G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 7] is an option, but that is another step up, and I think I'd prefer to build his campaign up through the season." Connections of the 2000 Guineas runner-up Delegator (GB) (Dansili {GB}) reported that he did not handle the ground.

IRISH 1000 GUINEAS

Detecting the Winner...

Lucinda Freedman's Super Sleuth (Ire) (Selkirk) finished a further 1 1/4 lengths back in third at Newmarket and bids to provide trainer Brian Meehan with a first renewal. She had previously shown a liking for give in the ground when a head second to Lahaleeb (Ire) (Redback {GB}) in the Apr. 18 G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury, and her conditioner was on record saying that the fast surface at Newmarket was against her.

"She ran a fabulous race on ground that we feared may be plenty sharp enough for her at Newmarket and we feel she may try her luck at the Curragh," Meehan said. "She has taken her Newmarket exertions very well and she will appreciate the easier ground.

We think she will ultimately stay further, so she should also appreciate the stiff mile." Five of the last 11 winners of this had finished out of the money in the Guineas, a statistic that should buoy Mick Channon as he sends Lahaleeb across the water in a bid to improve on her disappointing 10th at Newmarket. That run was a departure from her otherwise consistent record, and she is best judged on her success in the G2 Rockfel S. at that track in October and comeback win in the Fred Darling. "Lahaleeb seems well in herself and I think it's fair to draw a line through her performance in the English Guineas, as the ground was much too quick and she couldn't let herself down on it," Channon told Racing Post.

Respect for Weld's Trio...

Dermot Weld saddled Prince's Polly (Ire) (English Prince {Ire}) to annex this prize back in 1992 and followed with Trusted Partner (Affirmed) and Nightime (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in 1988 and 2006. He is represented by a trio here, with Pat Smullen choosing to ride Moyglare Stud's Dance Pass (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Fourth in the seven-furlong Mar. 29 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S., the homebred benefitted from a step up to this trip when opening her account in a Naas maiden 11 days ago. Moyglare's Stud Manager Stan Cosgrove told PA Sport, "She's doing well, but Dermot has three in it and she should be the outsider of the trio. She is improving--she won last week at Naas and she likes the soft ground." Dr Ronan Lambe's Luminous Eyes (Ire) (Bachelor Duke) beat Chintz (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G3 Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown last July before finishing fourth on her latest start in the Goffs Fillies Million over seven furlongs here in September. She is partnered by Mick Kinane, who was on the stable's Trusted Partner and has since added two more editions courtesy of Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in 2003 and 2005, respectively. "Luminous Eyes has some decent form on soft ground from last year," Kinane told PA Sport. "I sat on her the other morning and she seems in good shape, so she has an each-way chance."

Churchill Downs fans may have been cheated out of a chance to see Zenyatta make her 2009 bow when she was scratched out of the GII Louisville Distaff S. May 1, but these things happen. The towering mare returned to Hollywood Park, and was led over yesterday to kick off her five-year-old campaign with a Milady title defense. After sauntering out of the gate as usual, the GI Ladies Classic heroine caboosed the field far behind pacesetter Gambler's Justice (Lit de Justice), with stablemate Life is Sweet directly in front of her. It looked as though jockey Mike Smith might attempt to sneak Zenyatta through on the fence approaching the far turn, but Garrett Gomez shut that thought down. It didn't really matter, though. Guided to the outside, the dark bay circled the field in a matter of gigantic strides and turned for home in a position to challenge for the lead. Her ears came up in midstretch, but she did not decelerate as she moved by a game Allicansayis Wow en route to her 10th straight win. Meanwhile, Gomez weaved Life is Sweet through traffic on the turn before angling her to the rail. The full sister to champ Sweet Catomine put in an honest run to claim second. "I couldn't have imagined it working out any better for Zenyatta to come back against a tough horse like Life Is Sweet," said winning trainer John Shirreffs. Euphony just keeps on winning. She began her career with three straight victories at Oaklawn Park last term, before finishing a well-beaten third in Lone Star's Cinemine S. May 26 and second in Louisiana's Little Treasure S. on grass June 21. She shrugged off those two defeats with three straight stakes tallies, including the Prairie Meadows Oaks Sept. 20 and the Remington Park Oaks S. Oct. 18. Given the rest of the term off, Euphony picked up right where she left off, beginning her four-year-old campaign with a tally in Oaklawn's Bayakoa S. Apr. 8. Making her graded stakes bow here, she led through an opening quarter of :25.19 before conceding the lead to Boudoir (Mutakddim). With Clifton Berry aboard, she re-structed the front in the stretch and held Kiss With a Twist safe to record her first graded stakes victory. The race was marred by a spill at the top of the stretch, when Born to Be (A.P. Indy) clipped heels with Sky Mom (Maria's Mon). Born to Be fell, unseating jockey Rene Douglas, who was taken to Northwest Community Hospital after complaining of back pain and soreness in his neck. Sky Mom was disqualified from fifth for the infraction and placed last. Daily Racing Form reported that Born to Be "appeared to be injured," and was vanned off for further examination. Criticism, the odds-on favorite, led every step to secure her fourth graded-stakes success since arriving on these shores. Produced by Innuendo--who concluded her career for Gerald Leigh with a close third in the 2000 GI E.P. Taylor S. at

Woodbine--the bay began her career for Henri Alex-Pantall in France and notched a third in the G3 Prix Andre Baboin in 2007. She missed most of 2008, but arrived in New York to finish second in the GIII Athenia H. Oct. 11. After winning the GIII Long Island H. at Aqueduct Nov. 1, the Darley flagbearer wired the field in the GIII The Very One H. Feb. 22 at Gulfstream, but couldn't hang on after setting a hot pace in the

GIII Orchid H. a month later over the same course and wound up third. She rebounded with another all-the-way win in the GII La Prevoyante H. at Calder Apr. 25 and loomed tough once again here. Allowed to bowl along through soft splits of :50.52 and 1:15.01 under Javier Castellano, Criticism had more than enough left in the tank to turn back a bid from Mushka, and forged clear in the final strides. "That's kind of the way we thought the race would unfold," said winning trainer Tom Albertrani. "There wasn't a whole lot of speed in there. She doesn't have to be on the lead, but if it happens that way, she's happy to be there. We'll look next at the race here about a month from now [GII New York H. June 27]." J.D. ACOSTA

Accomplishment: Earned first graded-stakes win last Saturday with No Advantage (Posse) in the GIII William Donald Schaefer H. at Pimlico.

Birthdate: Oct. 3, 1981.

Birthplace: Dominican Republic.

Current Residence: Charles Town, West Virginia.

How did you get started with racehorses? I went to the jockey school in Puerto Rico for two years.

First win on the racetrack? Feb. 6, 2002 at El Commandante [in Puerto Rico]. It's called Camarero now.

At what tracks do you dream of riding? I'd love to get the chance to ride in California or New York.

What was your biggest previous win? I won a Maryland Million race with Sweet Goodbye last year. [one of five straight wins with that filly]

Where do you like to vacation? I don't really get a chance to go on too many vacations, but I try to get back to the Dominican Republic whenever I can. I have a lot of family there, and I always find a new place to visit.

What's on your iPod right now? I like all kinds of music, like merengue, salsa and hip hop. But when I'm driving a lot, I like to listen to satellite radio, especially blue-collar comedy. I like Greg Giraldo and Jim Gaffigan.

Karaoke: Yes or No? I try to sing only in my car when I'm driving by myself--I'm not that good. But if I had to, I'd sing that song by Sheryl Crow, "Picture." Or maybe "Lips of an Angel" [by Hinder].

Favorite Move? Gladiator, with Russell Crowe! I love that movie. I do like Denzel Washington--he's a great actor, and any movie he's in seems like one I want to see.

Vacation broke through at the NW1X level in an off-the-turf allowance on Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 3, and came back to be a neck short when third in his next condition attempt over the same surface two weeks later. Never too far back, the regally bred colt raced five wide in the early stages. The bay ranged up to challenge turning for home, hit the front and stretched clear to make it a double for New York invaders trainer Shug McGaughey and jockey John Velazquez. Vacation has now hit the board in all four synthetic starts. Dominican, the 2007 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. hero, came flying late to get second. The winner's dam is a full sister to 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Pleasant Home, as well as to the dam of ill-fated MGSW Pine Island (Arch). Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Brass Hat, hero of the 2006 GI Donn H., hadn't had his picture taken since winning the MassCap in 2007. Sidelined following a fifth to Horse of the Year Curlin in the GI Stephen Foster H. last June, the venerable gelding ran a rusty eighth in his return, Turfway's Dust Commander S. Feb. 14. He finished strongly to be fifth, beaten just 1 1/4 lengths, in the GII Mervin Muniz Jr. Memorial H. on the turf at Fair Grounds Mar. 14, and came into this contest off a third to Spice Route in the GIII Elkhorn S. on Keeneland's sod Apr. 24. Unhurried in the early stages as Thabazimbi did his best to run off on the front end, the bay was taken wide into the lane by jockey-of-the-moment Calvin Borel and came motoring for a popular score. It was Borel's fifth win on the card. "He's all class," said the reinsman. As for Brass Hat's next start, trainer Buff Bradley remarked, "Right now, we've got to drink some Coronas and think about it. [The GI United Nations at Monmouth July 4] is a thought...The timing would be pretty good on that one. Of course, we'd love to stay at Churchill, our home track, but the [GI Stephen] Foster [June 13] is in three weeks and it'd be awfully tough; we'd have to run against Einstein."

Breaking through to secure last June's Land O'Burns Fillies' S. at Ayr, Look Busy also garnered wins in the Aug. 23 Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint and the Aug. 31 G3 Flying Five S. at The Curragh. She closed her sophomore year with a second in the Sept. 13 Listed Henry Gee Fillies' S. at Chester and a fourth in the Sept. 20 G3 World Trophy at Newbury. Returning this term to bag the Apr. 28 Listed Lansdown Fillies' S. at Bath, the bay was a last-out third in the May 9 Listed Kilvington Fillies' S. at Nottingham and usurped all prior form to snatch a career high in the mud here. Outpaced in rear early, Look Busy was coaxed into contention approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a drive to claim victory in the dying strides. "She's as game as a pebble and is a real credit to the stable," commented trainer Alan Berry. "It's our local track so it's good for all the staff in the yard and it's good for [jockey] Slade [O'Hara], too. She doesn't really like rock-hard ground, so her defeat at Nottingham last time was my fault for dragging her there. She's made up for it today and, unlike me, she seems to like work. She sticks her neck out and really tries, so I was hopeful she was going to get there." Winning jockey Slade O'Hara, who registered his biggest win to date, added, "I missed the break and was a bit worried I wouldn't catch them, but she got there easily in the end."

Emily Blake threatened to enter this sphere last term, but a second to Prima Luce (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was the best she could muster in the G3 Athasi S. here in May. Benefitting from enterprising tactics to make all in the latest renewal of that contest last time May 4, the bay was allowed to force the pace again here and refused to relent late despite the stern challenge of Beach Bunny. "She improved very well after the last run and pulled out a bit better today," commented John Hayden, after whose granddaughter she is named. "She's just a bit special and handled that ground well."

Fresh from a career-best success in the G2 Duke of York S. 10 days previously, Utmost Respect put up an admirable performance to defy a five-pound penalty in the deep ground here. Although he prefers the testing conditions he encountered when winning the G3 Chipchase S. at Newcastle in June and G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise at Maisons-Laffitte in November, the bay's latest win had come on good-to-firm. Settled behind the habitual front-runner Jumbajukiba by Declan McDonogh, he was edged over to the rail when gaining the advantage before the furlong pole and gradually extended in the run to the line. "Richard [Fahey] didn't think he could get beat and he went to the line good," McDonogh commented. "I was happy to follow Jumbajukiba until he was cooked and then I let mine go to the fence and he won well." Last year's G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. winner Bushranger (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) was not disgraced on his return in fourth and may meet the winner in the June 20 G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot.

Arlington Million Winner to Get Japan Cup Invite...

The winner of this year's G1 Arlington Million XXVII Aug. 8 will automatically be invited to the G1 Japan Cup, which will be contested at Tokyo Racecourse Nov. 29. The Million joins other international fixtures such as the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, G1 Irish Champion S. and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden whose winners get automatic berths to the Japanese Racing Association's marquee race. The only Arlington Million hero to later add the Japan Cup trophy is Golden Pheasant (Caro {Ire}), who won in Chicago in 1990 before emerging victorious in Tokyo the following autumn.

The flashy chestnut failed to fire on the Gulfstream dirt in her sophomore bow, finishing fourth to War Kill (War Chant) in a 5 1/2-furlong allowance Mar. 1, and most recently finished a length behind that rival when third in the GII Beaumont S. on Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 8. Equipped with blinkers this time, the Phipps homebred was floated a bit wide on the first turn, but tugged her way up to stalk pacesetter Afternoon Stroll. Dermot Weld holds a strong hand here, with last year's Derby placegetters Casual Conquest and Famous Name bidding for a first win at the highest level. The former was third in the Epsom Classic in June after capturing the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown the previous month. Casual Conquest only raced once more at three when runner-up in the Irish equivalent here later that month. He suffered a shock reversal at the hands of Bronze Cannon (Lemon Drop Kid) in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket last time May 2, but should be more at home on these much easier conditions. "He's in good order," Stan Cosgrove, Moyglare's stud manager, told PA Sport. "The ground could be too soft for him though, but it's only a mile and a quarter. We will just to have to play it ear." Famous Name was runner-up in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly in June before finishing second in the G3 Kilternan S. at Leopardstown in September.

Third in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp in early October, Famous Name signed off with an easy in in the Listed Trigo S. back at Leopardstown later that month and was given a lot to do when runner-up on his seasonal bow in the G3 Mooresbridge S. over this track and trip last time May 4. "He certainly acts on soft ground, but whether he acts on bottomless is another thing," owner/breeder Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "He's fine; Dermot says he's pleased with him. I just hope it won't be too tactical, but it's likely to be fairly tactical with only five runners." Aidan O'Brien has won this with Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) since 2003 and relies on Thewayouare, who has to improve on his latest fourth in the Apr. 26 G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp.

My Sweet Baby bids to complete a unique Classic double, having captured the G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) at the Capannelle last time May 1. Louise Aron, third in that race, will test her stamina to the limit. Of the trial winners, Laguna Salada warrants respect off her victory here in the Apr. 26 Listed Premio Alberto Zanoletti di Rozzano over Queen Sensazione, whom she defeated by a neck despite giving that opponent five pounds. Queen Sensazione returned to score in the Listed Premio Baggio May 10. Peter Schiergen's challengers are always to be respected as he has annexed two renewals with Guadalupe (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) seven years ago and Goose Bay (Ger) (Groom Dancer) 12 months ago. His representative Galana captured the 1 5/16-mile Listed Henkel Trial at Dusseldorf last time May 3 and has stamina in abundance.

After dashing past the ill-fated Indyanne (Indian Charlie) and subsequent Grade I winner Informed Decision (Monarchos) in the GIII Victory Ride S. at Saratoga, the chestnut bounced to finish a distant third to champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the GII Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont Sept. 20, and concluded 2008 with a Polytrack win in Woodbine's Ontario Fashion S. Nov. 2. She's been geared up with a top-level campaign this year. "The ultimate goal is to go to the Breeders' Cup [at Santa Anita], so we wanted to a fresh filly," said trainer David Duggan. "There were no plans to start her before now--she went back into training on the first of January, so she's been on the go for a long time. We're looking at the [GII] First Flight [June 28] at Belmont and then the [GI] Ballerina [Aug. 29] at Saratoga, if we're good enough. And I think she's good enough."

He goes for his first graded win here while returning to the main track. Zensational, meanwhile, rolled to an eye-catching 3 3/4-length maiden win at Santa Anita Feb. 21. He was 1-5 when stretched to a mile in a NW1X Mar. 27, but after bounding out to lead by as many as 10 lengths through a wicked half in :44 4/5, he tired badly and had to settle for second to the running-on Quindici Man. Trio Breeze at Belmont...

Charitable Man (Lemon Drop Kid), Dunkirk (Unbridled's Song) and Summer Bird (Birdstone) breezed at Belmont yesterday in preparation for the GI Belmont S. June 6. Trained by Kieran McLaughlin, Charitable Man went :47.88 for his half-mile drill; it was the second-fastest of 39 works over the main track. "He went very smoothly," said McLaughlin, who saddled Jazil (Seeking the Gold) to victory in the 2006 Belmont. "He went off a little quick, but that's a good sign." The dark bay, owned by Mr. and Mrs. William K. Warren, captured the GII Futurity S. last fall. He bounced back from his first career defeat in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 11 to land the nine-furlong GII Peter Pan S. May 9. "It's great to think he's by Lemon Drop Kid, who won [the 1999 Belmont] here," said McLaughlin. "We'll keep our fingers crossed for the next two weeks. We've always had a lot of confidence in this colt; it's a shame we weren't ready for the first Saturday in May, but he'll be ready for the first Saturday in June." The conditioner continued, "It was great to see the Derby winner, Mine That Bird, come back and run so well against Rachel Alexandra in the Preakness. Hopefully, they come here and run well and finish second and third behind Charitable Man."

Dunkirk, 11th in the GI Kentucky Derby, covered five-eighths in 1:00.77 under Angel Cordero Jr. while going in company with stablemate Munnings (Speightstown). "He went very well," trainer Todd Pletcher remarked. "He's a solid work horse. He's enthusiastic, but not overly aggressive. Angel said he went very well and handled the surface well." Pletcher opted to get a breeze into the grey colt before possible wet weather arrived in the New York area. "The forecast calls for a chance of rain...and I didn't want to get into a situation where I was backed up," said Pletcher. "This was his most important breeze leading up the Belmont."

Sixth at 43-1 in the Kentucky Derby, Summer Bird worked seven panels in 1:26.47 with jockey Edgar Prado in the irons. "I was happy with it," trainer Tim Ice said. "It looked like he wasn't handling it 100 percent, but that's why we're here early, to let him get a feel for it. It looked like he was spinning his wheels a little bit through the lane, but he came back in great shape." The Kalarikkal and Vilasini Jayaraman homebred was previously third in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 11.

Papa Clem, 'Pioneer' Possible for Swaps...

Papa Clem (Smart Strike) and Pioneerof the Nile (Empire Maker)--sixth and 11th, respectively, in the GI Preakness S. May 16--will bypass the June 6 GI Belmont S. and could start in the July 18 GII Swaps S. instead, Daily Racing Form has reported. "[Papa Clem] couldn't have gotten a better trip [in the Preakness], but he came up empty down the lane," trainer Gary Stute told DRF. "I don't know if he didn't get a hold of the track or because it was his third race in five weeks." The GII Jim Dandy S. and the GI Haskell S., both scheduled for the first weekend of August, are also possibilities for the GII Arkansas Derby winner. Baffert, trainer of Pioneerof the Nile, said he will "freshen-up" the GI CashCall Futurity and the GI Santa Anita Derby hero before he makes a possible tilt at the Swaps. The conditioner also said he "couldn't believe" the colt "ran so poorly" in the Preakness. "[Jockey] Garrett [Gomez] said he wanted to fall out if it," Baffert continued. "I thought he'd drag him up there. I think I have to take a lot of the blame for that."

An Explanation of Black Type and Stakes Terms

Black Type

Advertisers using "black type" in their ads in theTDN are referring to stakes races which will appear in all major sales catalogues, and which:

- *Have a minimum purse value of $50,000 distributed on the day of the race.
- *Close at least 72 hours prior to its running, and have a nomination fee paid by the owner of the entrant.
- *Have all entries be eligible for the purse monies used to determine the minimum purse value.

Non Black-Type Stakes

The word "stakes" refers to non-black-type stakes, which do not appear in the catalogue page. They are:

- *Races in which the prize money offered is made up at least in part of money put up by the owners of the horses entered but which offers a purse of less than $50,000; or excludes horses from black-type money levels due to eligibility requirements;
- *In an advertisement, this could also refer to a mix of black-type and non-black-type stakes (as in Sire X has 73 lifetime stakes winners).

Graded/Group Stakes

There are 16 countries in the world where the racing is of a quality such that that country is allowed to determine its own Graded or Group stakes races, and they are accepted automatically as such in the catalogue.

They are: Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, France, Germany, Great Britain, Ireland, Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Peru, South Africa, the United Arab Emirates, and the United States of America.

Other countries' `Group' or `Graded' stakes either count as a black type race, or just a win, depending upon the country, but they do not have a Grade attached to them in the catalogue. The only exceptions to this rule are 14 races annually in Hong Kong, Scandinavia, Singapore and Turkey of international quality. In short, though, know that if it has a Grade on it in the TDN, it's a real Grade.

Indygo Mountain Back in Training...

Clarence Scharbauer's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Indygo Mountain (A.P. Indy), sixth in the GIII Lecomte S. Jan. 10 and seventh in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 7, is back in training after a knee chip forced him to the sidelines in February. "He just came back in training last week," said Dennis "Peaches" Geier, assistant to trainer Bret Calhoun. "We are going to take our time with him, and it will be awhile [before he works]."

Classic Corner

Murtagh Leaning Towards Rip...

Johnny Murtagh yesterday suggested that he will ride Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby. Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 2000 Guineas fourth-place finisher has received upbeat bulletins from Aidan O'Brien, and Coolmore's retained rider told Racing Post, "I do have a soft spot for Rip Van Winkle. He has had class since day one and I think he has the potential to be a great horse. We've two weeks to the Derby and a lot could happen. I'm not rushing into a decision and making one is over a week away. You look at what Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) has done and at the way the other horses Aidan ran in the different trials performed and there is a lot to weigh up and plenty of thinking to do. I go down to Ballydoyle three or four days a week and will keep on top of everything that is going on in the lead-up to the Derby."

Dettori Commits to Kite...

Frankie Dettori will ride Kite Wood (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby. Fifth in the G2 Dante S. at York May 14, last year's G3 Autumn S. winner may be joined by Godolphin's G2 Derby Italiano scorer Mastery (GB) (Sulamani {Ire}) if that colt is supplemented. "We got beaten by two lengths in the Dante and our three-year-olds have needed a run, so I'm expecting a little bit of improvement," Dettori said. "Obviously, we have got a few pounds to find on form but he's not a bad horse and has a place chance."

Settled in centerfield as entymate En Fuego (El Prado {Ire}) walked the dog up front, it took some time for him to pick up, and when he did so at the quarter pole, it appeared he had left himself too much to do. En Fuego began to tire noticeably inside the final furlong, and favored Seeking the Sluice (Seeking the Gold) launched an apparent winning bid at the fence, only to have Armstrong Mill nip him at the wire. Indian Way got the better of a race-long duel with Sunday Geisha to take the My Juliet in track-record time. A maiden winner in a pair of starts for Eoin Harty, the bay was third to Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the GI Prioress S. before going to the shelf. She returned to dominate an Aqueduct inner-track allowance by five lengths as the 1-5 chalk Mar. 22 and earned a return to stakes company with an 8 3/4-length thrashing of an Apr. 16 Big A allowance. Favored here in the absence of Game Face (Menifee), who runs today in the GII Vagrancy H., Indian Way set off in front, getting her opening quarter mile in :22.53, hounded all the while by Sunday Geisha. Still narrowly in command after a taxing middle quarter in :21.90, she dug in very gamely and was edging away late. Jet Away Jane, third in last year's renewal, was further back to complete the triple yet again. The final time was one-fifth of a second better than the previous track record set by Iron Punch back in 2000. Going into this race, fully 80 percent of Joey P.'s lifetime scores had come at the Jersey Shore, and the veteran was only too happy to get reacquainted with his favorite oval. Winner of the 2008 Charles Town Dash S. June 21, he was stymied in three subsequent local stakes tries, finishing runner-up in the July 5 Mr. Prospector S., the Teddy Drone S. Aug. 3 and the Sept. 1 Icecapade S. The attractive dark bay was an even sixth in the GIII Toboggan S. at Aqueduct Mar. 7, but was the heavy favorite here against state-breds. Runner-up to Santana Six (Hold That Tiger) in a Mar. 28 Gulfstream allowance, the bay was most recently a distant third against older foes in an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 26. Looking to remain perfect going two turns on the dirt, Endymion stalked the pace from third, came after the leaders in upper stretch and outfinished Jersey Town (Speightstown) for a 3/4-length victory as the 17-10 second favorite. The winner was a $210,000 KEENOV weanling, that made $15,000 as a FTKOCT yearling. He failed to meet his reserve and was led out unsold on a bid of $195,000 at last year's KEEAPR sale. After drawing in off the also eligible list, Together Indy was hammered down to 3-10 here on the drop into New Jersey-bred company. The bay was put up to the win in a one-mile entry-level allowance at Santa Anita Feb. 23, 2008, then was third in his first try at the next level Mar. 22. Runner-up in a May 10 test over this turf course, the bay was sent to Golden Gate in search of some class relief June 14, but it did not pan out, as he could do no better than fourth. Trying a grass sprint off the layoff, the $290,000 KEEAPR two-year-old purchase came out on the turn and into the lane and rallied past Topper Shopper (Old Topper) for a two-length score. Alyarf showed enough when winning his maiden by eight lengths over six furlongs at Haydock in September to prompt connections to ponder his Classic potential. While the bare form of his fourth behind Delegator (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the Apr. 16 G3 Craven S. at Newmarket did not warrant a tilt at the G1 2000 Guineas, the homebred signposted his obvious potential with a smooth success here. Freewheeling alone early as the main field was led by Courageous in the centre of the track, the bay had overall command by the quarter pole and stretched away up the rising ground for a convincing success. Godolphin's Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), making his first start since his success in the Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf, raced keenly in the hands of Frankie Dettori early and stayed on without threatening to be fourth. Won in recent times by David Junior (Pleasant Tap), Red Rocks (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Lucarno (Dynaformer), this race featured an Epsom Derby aspirant in Father Time, but he failed to book his spot when going down to Palavicini. Beaten a head by Your Old Pal (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in the May 2 Listed Newmarket S. last time, the bay met that rival on five-pound better terms and always looked likely to reverse that form here. Traveling strongly close to the early pace set by Big Bound, the homebred was committed before the furlong pole and dug in to repel the late threat of Father Time. AUSTRALASIA

MYBOYCHARLIE TO VINERY AUSTRALIA

Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}--Dulceata {Ire}, by Rousillon), France's highweighted juvenile colt of 2007, will enter stud at Vinery Australia. His stud fee will be A$14,300, including GST. After winning the G3 Anglesey S. for trainer Tommy Stack, the bay was acquired privately by Sue Magnier and added a win in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville. He closed out 2007 with a third to New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 National S. at The Curragh. Fifth in his first two starts at three, he was sold to U.S. interests and captured one of three outings in the Midwest. He finished up his career with a record of 9-4-0-1 and earnings of $428,053. "Myboycharlie was clearly a two-year-old of the very highest calibre and boasts that dynamic combination of natural pace and acceleration," said Peter Orton, Vinery's general manager. "The Prix Morny is the Golden Slipper equivalent in France and has been won by some outstanding sires like Blushing Groom, Irish River, Machiavellian and Zafonic." Orton added, "He is a good sized, robust type of horse in the Danehill mould and has a very good action."
