OPENING DATE SET FOR MEYDAN

The Dubai Racing Club will officially open Meydan Racecourse for its first day of racing next Jan. 28. The first meeting is also the opening day of the 2010 Dubai International Racing Carnival, and will feature the first round of the G3 Al Maktoum Challenge.

Meydan Racecourse

The racing facilities are expected to be completed by Oct. 31. "By having it ready on Oct. 31, all horsemen, whether they are Dubai-based or visitors from abroad, will have time to familiarize themselves with the facility to ensure they are prepared to compete to the highest standard when racing begins in January," explained Saeed Humaid Al Tayer, chairman of Meydan. The Meydan facility will include a 1750-meter all-weather surface inside a 2400-meter turf course, a grandstand to accommodate 60,000 people, a five-star hotel, marina, IMAX cinema, six haute cuisine restaurants and a museum. "The opening of Meydan will be a defining moment in the sport's global history," Al Tayer continued.

Meydan Grandstand

"Unparalleled levels of luxury, customer comfort and racing technology will be combined to create the ultimate horseracing experience. We wanted to develop a world-class facility, and I cannot think of any other racecourse in the world that will rival it." Dubai's signature race, the G1 Dubai World Cup, will make its Meydan debut Mar. 27 with an increased purse. "As we are setting the benchmark in terms of world-class facilities, we want to complement that with increased prize-money of $10 million, to continue to entice the best horses in the world for the 2010 Dubai World Cup," Al Tayer added. Meydan replaces the Nad Al Sheba track, which had hosted races from 1992 through the 2009 World Cup.

INDIAN BLESSING ENTERED SUNDAY

Two-time Eclipse winner Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), off since her runner-up finish in the Mar. 28 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad Al Sheba, has been entered in Sunday's $70,000 Desert Stormer S. going six furlongs at Hollywood Park. The four-year-old, champion two-year-old filly of 2007 and champion distaff sprinter of 2008, was slated to run in the GI Humana Distaff S. at Churchill Downs May 2, but trainer Bob Baffert opted to skip that start after his charge put in a lackluster breeze under the Twin Spires. She has been working sharply since shipping home to California, posting a bullet six panels in 1:11 3/5 out of the starting gate at Santa Anita May 24, and going a best-of-20 half in :46 4/5 June 9. The 124-pound highweight in the Desert Stormer, Indian Blessing will break from post seven in the eight-horse field. Victor Espinoza picks up the mount. If she succeeds, it would be the highest impost ever carried by a Desert Stormer winner. A.P. Assay (A.P. Indy), who scored in the race in 1999, and Go Go (Falstaff), the victress in 2001, carried 122. The Hal and Patti Earnhardt homebred has been first or second in all 13 career starts, with earnings of $2,837,200.

SMOOTH SAILING AHEAD

Obscured by the shadows of Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) and Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), Seattle Smooth (Quiet American--Our Seattle Star, by Seattle Song) has the chance to step into the spotlight in Saturday's GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont Park.

The four-year-old is owned by Ernest Moody and Mercedes Vila of Mercedes Stables LLC, best-known for racing MGISW Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) in partnership with his breeder, Madeline Pickens. Moody, who lives in Las Vegas, is owner and president of the video poker game development company Action Gaming Inc.

Mercedes Stables, based at Moody Creek Farm in Bonsall, California, hopes to continue a hot streak in Saturday's race. They completed a bicoastal black-type double May 23 when Indian Way (Indian Charlie) set a track record in the My Juliet S. at Philadelphia Park and Run It (Cherkoe Run) upset the Alcatraz S. at Golden Gate Fields.

While "primarily a breeding operation," according to its racing manager Dennis Yokum, Mercedes Stables also looks to yearling sales to find racing prospects. Seattle Smooth was acquired for $340,000 at the 2006 FTKJUL sale, with Yokum signing the ticket after receiving a recommendation from his friend and colleague Andy Havens.

"We were at Fasig-Tipton and Andy Havens came to me and said, 'I found her,' Yokum explained. "That was all he had to say. And this filly was everything you looked for. Her sire is an excellent broodmare sire, but she had the physicals you hope to see. She had scope, an athletic walk, a bright eye, she was correct and she had a presence about her."

Based on her appearance and early training, Mercedes Stables had high expectations for Seattle Smooth, but success didn't come immediately. The bay broke her maiden by a nose at Hollywood Park in December of 2007 in her third start, then was edged by a half-length when second as the favorite in the California Oaks two months later.

Following a fifth in the GI Santa Anita Oaks, her trainer Julio Canani recommended shipping her north to now-defunct Bay Meadows, which was the only commercial track in California at the time that offered dirt racing, as the other major venues in the state had been mandated to install synthetic tracks. The move paid off --Seattle Smooth dominated the Bay Meadows Oaks by six lengths.

"[After that victory], Julio said, 'She's 15 lengths better on dirt than on the synthetic,'" Yokum recalled.

She hasn't raced over an all-weather surface since that effort. The filly finished third in a sloppy renewal of the GII Black Eyed Susan S. before Mercedes Stables decided to try her over turf in the GII San Clemente H., but she beat only one horse to finish ninth. With the disappointing grass effort and no graded stakes on dirt in California, they opted to place her in the hands of trainer Tony Dutrow on the other side of the country.

"We've had several horses injured or who performed poorly on synthetics, so we have positioned ourselves to have an East Coast division as well," Yokum said.

After taking the Aug. 30 Go for Wand S. at Delaware Park by 7 1/4 lengths in her first start for Dutrow, her connections opted to take a shot at Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) in the GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion S. at Philadelphia Park Sept. 20. Solidly backed as the 3-1 second choice, Seattle Smooth kicked clear to defeat the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Alabama S. winner by 2 1/2 lengths.

“Tony Dutrow does an excellent job--he’s a consummate horseman--and he had Seattle Smooth ready to run a big race [in the Cotillion],” said Yokum, who credits Canani for developing the bay. “Proud Spell was a very good filly--and I expected to beat her.”

With the GI Breeders’ Cup Ladies’ Classic scheduled to be contested over Santa Anita’s ProRide surface, Mercedes Stables decided to shut down Seattle Smooth for the rest of 2008.

Seattle Smooth Adam Coglianesse

“We talked it over and decided that the best course of action was to rest her during the winter and have her ready for a strong spring and summer campaign,” Yokum said. “Our goal was to get a

Grade I [victory] with her in 2009.”

After dispatching three opponents by 5 3/4 lengths in her four-year-old debut, the GI Bed o’Roses H. Apr. 18, Seattle Smooth went off as the heavy favorite in the GI Shuvee S. May 16. She broke from post one and was trapped behind a wall of horses until the eighth pole, but found room by angling to the outside and rallied to score by three-parts of a length over fellow Phipps hopeful Color Me Up (Aptitude).

Based on the merits of her four-race winning streak, Seattle Smooth was made the second highweight in the Phipps at 121 pounds, one less than MGISW Music Note (A.P. Indy). Music Note is one of three entrants for Godolphin/Darley Stable, who, coincidentally, bred Seattle Smooth in partnership with Dr. Oscar Benavides.

Yokum admits Seattle Smooth is unlikely to compete in this year’s Breeders’ Cup Ladies’ Classic, which is once again slated to be contested over Santa Anita’s synthetic surface. But that doesn’t mean Mercedes Stables doesn’t have lofty ambitions for their leading colorbearer.

“[Seattle Smooth’s] goal for 2009 remains winning a Grade I, and I’m hoping the Grade I [comes] Saturday in the Phipps,” Yokum said. “But we’ll race her when she’s ready to run, and we’ll pick the best races we can find for her.” -J.F.

TARTAN BEARER HEADS PRINCE OF WALES'S

Ballymacoll homebred Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), runner-up in last term's G1 Epsom Derby, heads a maximum cast of nine possibles for the G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 17 following yesterday's latest forfeit stage. Successful in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown on seasonal return last time Apr. 25, he faces the dual French challenge of G1 Prix d'Ispahan victor Never On Sunday (Fr) (Sunday Break {Jpn}) and last year's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club hero Vision d'Etat (Fr) (Chichicastenango {Fr}), who has already garnered this season's G1 Prix Ganay. The latter will be partnered by Olivier Peslier instead of Ioritz Mendizabal, who has been replaced by owner Jacques Detre after an injudicious ride aboard Feels All Right (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in last Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. "This whole affair is most disagreeable and regrettable, but you must respect the decision of [Detre]," trainer Eric Libaud told Racing Post. Other notable entries include Cheveley Park Stud's G1 Lockinge S. hero Virtual (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), Godolphin's G2 Prix d'Harcourt winner Trincot (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) and last year's G1 Premio Roma winner Estejo (Ger) (Johan Cruyff {GB}).

Fortune Bags Delegator Ride...

Poilin Good's G1 2000 Guineas runner-up Delegator (GB) (Dansili {GB}) will be reunited with jockey Jimmy Fortune, who replaces Jamie Spencer, for Tuesday's G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, it was revealed yesterday. Fortune was aboard the Brian Meehan trainee in his first two juvenile starts, but the bay homebred has been ridden by Spencer in each of his last four starts, including when eighth of nine in the May 23 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas. "Delegator has been working very well and is in great form," Meehan revealed. "We are very keen to run and, if the ground is right for him, he has a great chance. If conditions remain something like they are at Ascot now, he will definitely take his chance." Outlining the reason for the change of jockey, owner-breeder Poilin Good told PA Sport, "We just fancied a change and that's all it is. The horse worked very well [Thursday], and it is now up to Brian whether he runs next week. Obviously, the conditions were atrocious when he ran in Ireland, but he doesn't seem to have suffered any ill effects from that race and we'll just have to see what happens. You never know what can happen on the day, as unfortunately we don't have a crystal ball, but the horse is in good form. If it's firm ground, like it was at Newmarket, he might not run."

Ghanaati on Target for Coronation...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G1 1000 Guineas heroine Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway) will bid to double her top-level tally in the June 19 G1 Coronation S. at next week's Royal Ascot meet. Connections are confident the bay homebred can reproduce her Classic form in Friday's one-mile contest. "She's a big filly in terms of her physique, so she is only going to improve as she gets older," said Sheikh Hamdan's racing manager Angus Gold. "She certainly looks a stronger filly and she's done almost too well since the Guineas, as she's really developed. Everyone is happy with her at home, and the Coronation is a fascinating race, as you get the various Guineas winners like Again (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City), who looks a very high-class filly indeed. It won't be easy and our filly will have to be at the top of her game, but she will improve physically as the year goes on. If we can get her there in as good a form as she was at Newmarket, they will have to go pretty quick to beat her."

Cup at Epsom. The rider will miss the last two days of next week's Royal Ascot festival, which includes the June 19 G1 Coronation S. and the June 20 G1 Golden Jubilee S. "I thought five days was harsh, as I told the panel, and now I am going to miss two Group 1s and some exciting rides,"

Murtagh told Racing Post. "Royal Ascot is one of the biggest meetings of the year and one of my favourites. I am not going to blame [Frozen Fire], but he is a tricky ride. If [the Coronation Cup] was at Ascot or York, then we would not have been here [appealing] today."

Cole Hopeful Hubris Can Shine...

Trainer Paul Cole is hopeful ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ No Hubris (Proud Citizen) can make a successful transition to pattern company when tackling the June 16 G2 Coventry S. on the opening day of next week's Royal Ascot meeting. Fitri Hay's bay juvenile made a hugely impressive debut at York May 14, and will go postward as one of the favorites for the six-furlong contest. "He's on target for the Coventry and I think he'll put up a good performance," Cole told PA Sport. "He had been going well at home before his debut, but you still have to go the racecourse and do it, so that was good to see [his win]. I think he has improved again since then, and I think the fast ground should suit him well. These races are always hard to assess as there are five or six in there that could be really good two-year-olds. We will just have to see. The horse is in good form and I'm hopeful he will run a good race."

Fillies race against colts on a regular basis in Europe, but when it happens in the U.S., it creates some controversy. How do you feel about fillies competing against colts?

Shug McGaughey, Hall of Fame trainer:

I don't have a problem with it. I think you have to pick your time and place. I did it with Personal Ensign--we ran her in the [GI] Whitney [H. at Saratoga]. We were going to run her before that in the [GI] Suburban [H. at Belmont], but I ended up having another horse I could run in there. We wound up running her in the [GII] Molly Pitcher [H. at Monmouth] instead. I think this whole controversy has come up because of the Rachel Alexandra thing, and I think they did the right thing.

(McGaughey also trained Personal Ensign's daughter My Flag, who finished third in the 1996 GI Belmont S.)

Well, we figured she was a natural distance horse. So we took a shot, and she ran third--she didn't run bad. She came out of it good and won the [GI] Coaching Club [American Oaks] a month, maybe six weeks later, so I don't think it hurt her any.

Jeff Tufts:

Fillies and mares in the United States race so infrequently against male horses because there are so many lucrative opportunities for them in races against members of their own sex. And those opportunities generally offer weaker competition. Do not forget one important fact about races for fillies and/or mares: they are RESTRICTED RACES.

In European racing--especially in those races for older runners--there are fewer opportunities for female horses to compete exclusively against other females. So there is a long tradition of inter-sex competition that does not currently exist in the United States.

Some people in racing may suggest that females are more successful against males in Europe because the style of racing is different--less emphasis on early speed and more on a steady running style and strong finish. If this is true, why have female horses been so successful in competition against males in Breeders' Cup events?

Think of the brilliant performances of such distaff runners from Europe as Pebbles, Miesque, Royal Heroine and, just last year, Goldikova. All were females who beat males, and all did so in "American-style" races.

And if the generally more sedate pace of European races suits female runners better, how can you explain the remarkable success of fillies and mares in the Breeders' Cup Sprint? Very Subtle, Pine Tree Lane, Safely Kept, Meafara, Soviet Problem, Desert Stormer, Honest Lady and Xtra Heat were either first or second (both in the instance of Safely Kept) in fast-paced races against males.

I can't help but look back at the record of Gamely. She tried male horses 11 times and, although she only won two of them (and one was an allowance), her second-place finishes behind Dr. Fager in the 1968 Californian and Nodouble in the Santa Anita H. the following year seem to me to be greater accomplishments than any of her victories over female horses.

Gamely is just one example of members of the "not really weaker" sex of the second half of the 20th century who took on the challenge of racing against males on a regular basis. It's sad that it's such an uncommon occurrence in the current era.

Fillies or mares who compile extraordinary records in races restricted to their own sex should be saluted with honors and awards, but it should also be recognized that if they do not compete with distinction in races open to both sexes, then they have not accepted the really important challenges that the sport of horse racing offers.

What did you think about fillies competing against colts?

HAPPY TICKET DIES Grade I winner Happy Ticket (Anet--Love and Happiness, by Septieme Ciel) died May 3 from foaling-related complications, according to published reports. The eight-year-old mare delivered an Empire Maker filly Apr. 24, but was found dead just over a week later in her paddock at Glencrest Farm. "It's not anything that happens every day, and it's a long explanation by the doctors, and it's complicated," owner Stewart Madison explained to Daily Racing Form about a necropsy report he received. "It happened overnight. At nine o'clock at night everything was fine, and at four in the morning it wasn't." Bred in Louisiana, the blaze-faced bay compiled an excellent 20-12-6-0 record over three seasons, capped by a score in the 2005 GI Ballerina S. She also won both the GII Fleur de Lis H. and GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H., and was put up to second in her career finale, the 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. Happy Ticket earned $1,688,838 while trained by Andrew Leggio Jr. Madison added, "She never did anything wrong. Never a bad performance, never a bad horse to deal with, and ran every time. She never disappointed." Her first foal, a Distorted Humor colt, is now a yearling.

The eight-year-old was last seen finishing a disappointing fourth as the 6-5 favorite in the Charles Town Classic Apr. 18. "We got side-tracked at Charles Town," trainer Nick Zito said. "This race [today] is perfect for him. A race is a race, but hopefully, it will be a race he can get something out of without it being too taxing. He's older now, and like the rest of us, he needs to work out to stay in shape. He looks terrific and he has been training great, so we'll see. Hopefully, this puts us on track for the Whitney." Nassau OTB Sues Over NYRA Signal:

The Nassau Regional Off-Track Betting Corporation went to Nassau County Supreme Court Thursday in an effort to get the Belmont Park simulcast signal restored to its in-home distribution network. The New York Racing Association pulled the Belmont signal from the in-home network June 4 after learning that, from Jan. 29 through Apr. 15, Nassau OTB offered unauthorized live streaming of the NYRA races on its website. The signal is still available at Nassau's OTB outlets. "NYRA's actions have hurt tens of thousands of loyal racing fans in Nassau County," said Nassau OTB President Dino Amoroso in a release. The company is also asking for $15 million in damages. Responding to the suit, NYRA President and CEO Charles Hayward send in a statement, "Nassau OTB, which lost the privilege of showing the NYRA signal in the homes of Nassau County residents because it illegally pirated the NYRA signal over the internet and has continuously failed to fully acknowledge its wrongdoing, tried today to get a state supreme court judge to order NYRA to restore the signal into Nassau County homes. The judge has refused Nassau OTB's request. Now, rather than make simple amends to NYRA, which would immediately restore the NYRA picture in the home of its customers, Nassau OTB is going to try and file a frivolous lawsuit against NYRA--which it will lose. Nassau OTB's irresponsible actions are further vindication of NYRA's decision to no longer trust Nassau OTB with its signal. The unfortunate consequence of Nassau OTB's continued bad behavior is the deprivation of the NYRA signal to Nassau County residents in the home. Perhaps if enough Nassau County residents demand that Nassau OTB clean up its act, the signal can be restored prior to NYRA's Saratoga meet."

KEEP To Hold Rally in Frankfort:

The Kentucky Equine Education Project is organizing a rally at the Capitol Rotunda in Frankfort, Kentucky on Wednesday, June 17, at 10 a.m. to show support for Gov. Steve Beshear's legislation to legalize video lottery terminals at the state's racetracks. The bill was introduced Tuesday, June 9. According to a KEEP press release issued yesterday, horses are a $4 billion industry in Kentucky, responsible for 100,000 jobs, and revenue from VLTs will be used to benefit all breeds, boosting purses and breeders' incentive funds. In an effort to get as many people as possible involved, Ellis Park will offer a free charter bus trip to the rally, and is encouraging racing fans and media to participate as well. "I cannot stress how important it is for people who care about the Kentucky horse industry and Ellis Park to attend this rally," said Ellis Park owner Ron Geary. "We will show Frankfort how strong this industry really is and why it is important to save it." The Ellis Park charter will leave promptly at 6 a.m. and is scheduled to return between 4 and 5 p.m. To reserve a seat, call (812) 435-8906 by noon on Monday, June 15. For more information on KEEP, or to sign the petition in favor of alternative gaming in Kentucky, go to www.horseswork.com.

Routed along off the home turn, the €28,000 GOFNOV foal and €20,000 GOFMIL yearling challenged at the distance and was driven out to prevail by a short head from Montecchio (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). Perfect Symmetry is the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by Efisio {GB}). Marfach (Leroidesanimuax {Brz}), the half to Gourmet Girl (Cee's Tizzy) and Northern Mischief (Yankee Victor), raced alongside the eventual winner initially, but could not land a telling blow in the straight and was eased to finish ninth. ★ NEW "TDN Rising Star" ★

Leopardstown, 18.05, Mdn, €17,500, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:27.40, gd.

+ TERMAGANT (IRE), f, 2, by Powerscourt (GB)

1st Dam: Rock Salt (GB), by Selkirk

2nd Dam: Kamkova, by Northern Dancer

3rd Dam: Populi, by Star Envoy

Termagant, a €34,000 GOFSP yearling, was allowed off at 14-1 in this hot maiden and belied those odds with an impressive first display. Settled last of the five runners until making eye-catching headway under pressure rounding the home turn, she quickened in smart fashion to lead passing the furlong marker and required minimal encouragement from there to score by a comfortable two lengths from Cabaret (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "I wasn't surprised at all as I've always thought she was quite useful," commented trainer Kevin Prendergast. "She has a nice pedigree, there is a champion grass horse in America [Vanlandingham] on her page and she'll definitely get a mile and a quarter or a mile and a half eventually. She was originally bought for some clients, who then pulled out. We gave €34,000 for her and, despite the recession, she is worth a bit more now." Termagant becomes the first winner, from just three runners, for her freshman sire (by Sadler's Wells). Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's Lovingonyourmind (Storm Cat), a daughter of Farda Amiga (Broad Brush), was scratched due to running a high temperature. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €12,093. Video, courtesy attheraces.com. Click for brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the Racing Post chart.

MM NATIONAL SALE CONCLUDES The Magic Millions National Sale concluded yesterday on the Gold Coast with a session of general yearlings and racehorses. A filly by Canadian Silver was the top-priced yearling, attracting a final bid of A$32,000 (US$26,189. A$1 = US$0.818). Max Lang, buying under Silvertaire Lodge, signed for lot 2040, offered by Lyndhurst Stud Farm. The yearling is out of Northern Friends (Aus) (Distinctly North), a half to multiple black-type winner Damigos (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). An unraced juvenile by Zabeel (NZ) (lot 2187) topped the National Racehorse Sale when selling to Victorian trainer Peter Morgan for A$50,000. The colt is out of the unraced Thunder Hood (Aus) (Thunder Gulch), a full sister to Group 1 winner Shot of Thunder (Aus). "It's been a big couple of weeks selling," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "Taking all things into account, I am happy with how the sale went and importantly the clearance rates remained extremely strong. To have set an all-time Magic Millions record with the sale of Princess Coup (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) for A$3 million in the current climate is a great result. Quality horses at the sale were the subject of strong interest from buyers across all sections of the sale."

MATE. CHECK.

$25 $50 $75 $100

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to the THOROUGHBRED RETIREMENT FOUNDATION and the THOROUGHBRED CHARITIES OF AMERICA, two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club will match funds for these charities up to $200,000 in 2009.
