TDN Feature Presentation G1 KING GEORGE VI & QUEEN ELIZABETH S.

brought to you by
LANE'S END

INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCE

Daughters of KINGMAMBO have produced six Grade 1 winners in North America, Europe, and Australia, incl. Gozzip Girl & Weiner Walzer on the same day!

RYAN'S CHOICE

Despite obvious form credentials, the fact that Ryan Moore chose to ride G1 Breeders' Cup Turf hero Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) from a strong trio of Sir Michael Stoute runners in today's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. may be the main pointer to his chances in the Ascot clash. Freemason Lodge's retained jockey opted out of the chance to partner Ballymacoll Stud's homebred to success in Doncaster's G1 St Leger in September, but was back on board for the tour de force at Santa Anita the following month. The four-year-old, who has done little wrong this term when a nose second to Cima di Triomphe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) under a heavy penalty in the May 28 G3 Brigadier Gerard S. and third in the July 4 G1 Coral-

Conduit Sarah K Andrew

Eclipse S. at Sandown, proved impossible to pass over, despite the presence of Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and Ask (GB) (Sadler's Wells). "Conduit had a small problem early on, and he has been brought along gradually," Moore said. "The King George was always his mid-summer aim, and I hope he can carry on improving as he did last year from the summer to reach his peak in the autumn. They are three very good horses, all are fit, healthy and looking very well. They should all run big races." Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Alwaary (Dynaformer) is another interesting contender from connections not prone to making errors of judgment, but needs to progress markedly off his latest, a third, promoted to second, in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 9. "It's a big ask, but he's in good form, he stays and he's got a good turn of foot, so we'll see if he's up to it," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Angus Gold explained. Cont. p2

ON "TAP" IN CCA OAKS

With just one blip on her otherwise stellar record, it's hard to look past Hightap (Tapit) in Saturday's G1 Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park. A modest $72,000 FTKOCT yearling, the grey filly was second in her career opener at Fair Grounds Dec. 18, and came back to break her maiden by 9 1/4 lengths going a mile Jan. 17. The sophomore added an allowance win as the 1-5 chalk at the New Orleans oval Feb. 21, and headed to Oaklawn to make her stakes debut in the Mar. 15 Gill Honeybee S. The trip was less than successful, however, as Hightap was never a factor and finished last. According to Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen, there was an excuse for that subpar performance. "Other than the race at Hot Springs, where she bruised her foot, her last four starts have been perfect," Blasi said. Given a break to recover from her foot problem, she returned to take the May 30 Gill Dogwood S. at Churchill, and made it two in a row in the June 26 Gill Iowa Oaks last time out. "She's training beautifully and moving in the right direction," Blasi added. Casanova Move (Langfuhr) has been a model of consistency, hitting the board in four straight graded events. Third in the June 6 GI Acorn S. at Belmont in her latest, she bids for her first win since a 9 1/4-length graduation at the Spa last August. Funny Moon (Malibu Moon) showed little when beating just one home in the Acorn, but rebounded with an 8 1/4-length optional-claiming win in the mud July 3. Field, p3

King George cont.

Aidan O'Brien and Johnny Murtagh are on a mission to garner a third consecutive King George with Golden Sword (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}). Although Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's sophomore lacks the credentials of a Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) or Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), he warrants respect. Fifth in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby and runner-up to stable companion Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh last time June 28, he is not far off the best of his generation. "I'm looking forward to it, and it will be interesting to see how he runs against the older horses for the first time," Murtagh told PA Sport. "He's been running well in all the top races, and is a horse who is improving all the time. I rode him work last week and he is definitely going the right way. He seems to be progressing with every run, he likes fast ground and stays a mile and a half really well, so it will be interesting." Joining Golden Sword from Ballydoyle is Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}), who has struggled since capturing last year's Irish Derby at 16-1. On that occasion, Michael Tabor's four-year-old had Tartan Bearer back in fourth before that Ballymacoll representative was promoted to third. His subsequent efforts have failed to spark any excitement, and he needs to put a disappointing effort behind him when fifth in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 5. That race was won by Patrick Fahey's Ask, who had Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and Julian Richmond-Watson's Look Here (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) two noses back in second and third. The latter has yet to revisit the winner's spot since her success in last year's G1 Epsom Oaks, but needed further than the 10 furlongs of the G1 Pretty Polly S. when third in that June 27 Curragh contest. "She's in good form, we are where we are with her and that's where we want to be," conditioner Ralph Beckett told PA Sport.

INDIAN CHARLIE

In Excess (Ire) - Soviet Sojourn, by Leo Castelli

"Indian Charlie was a real physical specimen...As a yearling, he always stood out...Indian Charlie had good bone, and his neck and shoulder, that top line, was that of a perfect horse."

BOB BAFFERT

"He would be one of the top five stallions in my book."

EIN HARTY

"I think he (Indian Charlie) is throwing the whole package. They are very talented horses and have the heart and desire to go along with it."

BRET CALHOUN

"I would take all the Indian Charlies you can give me."

"It's hard to know if she's reaching her peak for the season, but certainly when she ran in the Coronation Cup, our horses weren't in form, and in Ireland things just didn't go our way," Beckett added. The horses are in form now, so I think it's safe to assume she'll run her race. Whether that is enough is another thing entirely." Click here for TVG.com PPs.

BREED LIKE YOU MEAN IT

In 2009, Three Chimneys stallions have already sired 83 stakes horses and earners of well over $17,000,000, led by perennial leading sires like DYNAFORMER and YES IT'S TRUE, as well as top juvenile sires who continue to be successful – namely SKY MESA and EXCHANGE RATE. Rounding out the roster are exciting young prospects like FLOWER ALLEY, a well-priced stallion who has rewarded breeders with several six-figure yearlings in the sales ring. If you're serious about breeding a winner or buying one at sale, give serious consideration to the stallions and offspring represented by Three Chimneys.

last season, the bay was a late-closing third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile in October. He capped off the season with a sixth in the Nov. 28 GI Citation H. at Hollywood. The five-year-old resurfaced in the May 25 GI Shoemaker Mile S. and came on late to be fourth, beaten just a half-length for everything. He enters this following a third behind Monterey Jazz and Artiste Royal in his title defense of the American H. July 4. Trainer John Sadler is hoping that his charge will be at an advantage as he tries to turn the tables today. "You've got to give kudos to the winner Monterey Jazz, who is just a monster at Hollywood this summer," Sadler said. "I don't know if anybody would have beat him. [But] if you watched the Hollywood turf this summer, speed was better than ever. [Monterey Jazz] was just kind of gifted on the lead [in the American] and he was gone." He added, "My horse has shown himself to be very good on this course. I'm hoping he will like this course a little bit better than he did Hollywood this summer."

Kirklees registered a four-length success on his European return in Sandown's Listed Gala S. last time July 3 and trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "He is racing back in Group 2 company now, but he showed that he has a lot of class in Dubai earlier this season and he has been pleasing me with his work recently. I think that the extended 10-furlong trip will suit him well and I am looking to see a big run from him." Tazeez captured the G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket Apr. 16 and was far from disgraced when fifth in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Ascot last time June 17, while Monitor Closely represents the Classic generation and comes here off the back of a third in the June 18 Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot. "I wound him up a little bit at home before Royal Ascot, I possibly made him a little bit too keen and it showed in the race," trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam commented. "The aim is to get him settled and in a nice rhythm at York. He wants 10 furlongs at the moment, so this race is ideal and we'll see whether he wants further as the season progresses."

Question

of the month

www.lanesend.com

A major study recently proved Lasix to be effective. It also suggested that, due to improved testing techniques, it is unlikely to mask the presence of other drugs. Does this change the way you feel about the medication, and, as it is currently only in use in the Americas, how will it affect its usage in racing countries worldwide?

JOHN NERUD:

I read all the responses to this month's Question of the Month on Lasix and they all missed one big point:

when you give Lasix to horses, they urinate and it takes eight to 12 pounds off them on raceday. That is a big edge. As far as Lasix being a masking agent, I don't know. But I know one thing: with the arrival of Lasix came a lot of positives. We didn't have those before Lasix. Bleeding is caused by stress. I had two bleeders during my reign at Tartan. One of them was Gana Facil, who was the dam of Unbridled, so it is not an inherited factor. I trained very light--I ran them instead of training them. That is one thing that they don't do today. I believe 90 percent of today's horses are overtrained. Today, if you're racing, you must use Lasix to get an even playing field. Lasix has cost owners a lot of money. And we need to think about owners if we're going to continue racing during this very fragile time for the sport.

John Nerud Horsephotos

BARRY IRWIN:

According to my associate Robin Bruss in South Africa, seven horses collapsed on the race course as a result of dehydration following administration of Salix during the two separate trials. He also said that, with the exception of one filly that improved with Salix, the results were unremarkable as to any improvement, as the horses ran very similarly whether treated with the drug or a placebo.

RACING Round-Up

Pyro Returns on Saratoga Opener...

Multiple graded winner Pyro (Pulpit) will make his first start in the Godolphin blue in the $80,500 James Marvin S. Wednesday, Saratoga's opening day. Hero of the GII Louisiana Derby, GIII Northern Dancer S. and GII Risen Star S. in 2008 for trainer Steve Asmussen, the dark bay has not faced the starter since finishing sixth in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile on Santa Anita's Pro-Ride Oct. 25. John Velazquez has the mount aboard the four-year-old, who will break from post four in the seven-furlong contest. Among his opposition are Bold Start (Jump Start), winner of the GIII Aristides S. May 30 at Churchill; Riley Tucker (Harlan's Holiday), runner-up last out in the GII Tom Fool H.; Finallymadeit, who won the GIII Memorial Day H. May 25; and Honour Devil (Arg) (Honour and Glory), the 2008 G2 UAE Derby victor.

were by Coolmore sires (nearly 90%) including-

- 2000 MONTJEU (one of the best sires in Europe)

- 2001 GALILEO (one of the best sires in Europe)

- 2006 HURRICANE RUN (world champion)

- 2007 DYLAN THOMAS (6-time Gr.1 winner)

- 2008 DUKE OF MARMALADE (5-time Gr.1 winner)

Hurricane Run, like his sire Montjeu, adds the 'King George' to his many Gr.1 victories.

Duke of Marmalade, by Danehill, shows he is full of courage as well as class to succeed last year.

Danehill's outstanding son Dylan Thomas sprints 4 lengths clear of Youmzain to win in great style.

CHURCHILL ANNOUNCES $1.775-MILLION SCHEDULE Churchill Downs officials have revealed a stakes schedule worth $1,775,000 for their fall meet, which will be held Nov. 1-28. All 12 of the races have graded status, highlighted by the Nov. 27 $400,000 GII Clark H., Presented by Northern Healthcare. Churchill will feature two "Stars of Tomorrow" cards Nov. 1 and Nov. 28, respectively. "Our 2009 Fall Stakes schedule includes a very strong roster of graded stakes races that are either rich in tradition or growing in stature, and the quality of the overall stakes schedule is a tribute to both our horsemen and our racing office," said Kevin Flanery, president of Churchill Downs. "Despite intensifying competition from tracks in nearby states with purses fueled by casino revenues and the nation's difficult economic landscape, our purses for stakes races in the 2009 Fall Meet remain level with those offered during last year's meet. We are pleased that our 2009 Fall Meet stakes purses remain stable despite those challenges, and we thank our owners and trainers for their continued support for racing and stakes events at Churchill Downs."

Off at 13-1 as part of a coupled entry, the chesnut showed improved speed to track Gantry (Pulpit) through the opening quarter-mile before he began to turn up the pressure around the turn. The chestnut poked his head in front approaching the quarter pole and was subsequently challenged on the outside by Exhi (Maria's Mon). The tandem traded punches down the lane before Insightful asserted superiority under a stiff drive to prevail by a length. Gantry was an additional 2 3/4 lengths behind in third. The winner sold for $35,000 at KEENOV as a weanling, RNA'd for $8,500 as a KEESEP yearling and fetched $115,000 as a KEEAPR juvenile. Click for the brisnet.com chart. KID CANUCK (c, 2, Kitten's Joy--Draxhall Jump, by Tale of the Cat) pressed the pace and faded slightly in the stretch to report home third in a $62,500 claimer at Woodbine July 3 in his lone previous effort. The chesnut, off as the 5-2 second choice in this off-the-turf affair, saved ground as he stalked the pace in fourth. The $5,700 FTKOCT yearling was shut off in the stretch behind pacesetter Kirkland Lake (Pioneering) until the leader shifted in nearing the sixteenth pole. Repo opened her account with a four-length maiden score over state-bred maidens at Hollywood May 10, then jumped right into open back-type company and ran second behind Well Deserved (Cactus Ridge) in the June 11 Cinderella S. Looking to get her revenge in the July 12 Landaluce S., the bay cut out a pressured pace and held on gamely to beat the Cinderella winner by 3/4 of a length. She was 3-5 to repeat against fellow Cal-breds here. Out of the gate on top, she was content to let Unbridled Meeting go on and set the pace. Repo was put to a drive on the turn, collared the leader as they straightened for home and, after being straightened out at midstretch, drew clear. Click for the [brisnet.com chart. Runner-up on debut at Windsor Apr. 20, Strawberrydaiquiri broke through back there May 18 and registered a first black-type score in the July 4 Listed Distaff S. at Sandown last time. Positioned in a stalking second from the outset here, she took control approaching the final furlong and was driven out to hold the late bid of Balaagha. "She was given a very positive ride by [jockey] Ryan [Moore] and found a bit more when the runner-up came to her," racing manager Gary Coffey told PA Sport. "A Group 3 would be the logical next step, so we'll see what Sir Michael says. It's his decision where she goes next. She's a very progressive filly and is in terrific hands." MORNY CONFIRMED FOR CANFORD

The Heffer Syndicate's G2 Coventry S. winner Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) is set to contest the G1 Prix Morny, connections announced yesterday. Following his six-length success in the June 16 Royal Ascot contest, the unbeaten colt had been touted as a possible runner in tomorrow's G2 Prix Robert Papin but will wait for the Aug. 23 six-furlong juvenile feature of the Deauville festival. "We toyed with the idea of running in the Prix Robert-Papin at Maisons-Laffitte on Sunday, but we have decided to stay at six furlongs, and the Morny looks the ideal race," trainer Richard Hannon explained. "My inclination after Deauville would be to run once more this season, in the [Oct. 2] G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket. He is also entered in the £300,000 DBS St Leger Yearling Sales race, which is run at York's Ebor meeting and the owners will have to decide whether to go for the prestige or the money. Canford Cliffs has proved himself a proper horse and I'd be in favour of sticking to the Group 1 route and waiting for Newmarket."

HOUSE PLANS ON HOLD

Last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest) is on a break following his latest sixth placing in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby. The sophomore, who is part-owned by J. Paul Reddam, has an autumn campaign planned, according to trainer Brian Meehan, who said, "We're just hanging back a little bit with him, as he had the Derby as his big target early on. It's going to be later on the season for him now, so we'll maybe aim him at the G1 Champion S. [at Newmarket Oct. 17] and the Breeders' Cup was always on the agenda. We'll go that way with him and then give him an early campaign as a four-year-old."

DIFFICULT SIX MONTHS FOR IRISH RACING

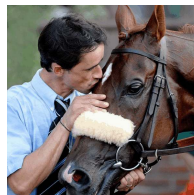

Horse Racing Ireland has released first-half statistics for 2009, which reveal further contraction in key performance indicators for Irish racing. With the number of racing dates and races down by four and five percent, respectively, average attendance has declined by 14 percent. There has been a similar decline in betting turnover, with the Tote off by 17 percent and on-course bookmakers down by 22 percent. Purse money fell by €3.9 million, or 14 percent, while commercial sponsorship dropped by 25 percent. "The first six months have not surprisingly proved to be very challenging, with Irish racing not immune from the effects of the economic slowdown," said HRI Chief Executive Brian Kavanagh. "All our figures are down, but we must see them in context. Racing is coming from a very high bar, having achieved record figures in recent times, and 2008 saw a contraction in the Irish horse racing industry for the first time in more than 15 years. With rising unemployment and continuing weak consumer confidence in so many markets, it is understandable that attendances at events, including race meetings are going to be affected. Racing will have to rise to the challenge and offer better value for our customers, with competitive pricing, increased offers and more incentives to reward our loyal racegoers."

★ SOUTH AFRICA ★

DE KOCK BUYS OUR GIANT

Trainer Mike de Kock has added to his already formidable stable with the purchase of recent G1 Mercury Sprint hero Our Giant (Aus) (Giant's Causeway). The son of Macrosta (NZ) (McGinty {NZ}), a half-brother to the outstanding Singaporean sprinter Rocket Man (Aus) (Viscount {Aus}), was bought "with a view to an overseas campaign," which likely means the six-year-old is headed for a 2010 campaign at the Dubai International Racing Carnival. Previously conditioned by Charles Laird, Our Giant won the G1 Horse Chestnut S. over 1600 meters and was runner-up to South African Horse of the Year Pocket Power (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}) in the 2008 G1 J & B Met.

ADMIRAL'S CRUISE TO PERU Admiral's Cruise (A.P. Indy--Ladies Cruise, by Fappiano), a Group 3 winner in Great Britain, has been sold to Jaime Rizo Patron's Haras Rancho Fatima, in Cañete, Peru, where the Virginia-bred six-year-old will commence stud duties during the upcoming Southern Hemisphere season. Winner of the 2006 G3 Geoffrey Freer S. and second in the G2 Jockey Club S. in 2007 for former trainer Brian Meehan, Admiral's Cruise was returned to the United States and finished third in this year's Harrison E. Johnson Memorial H. at Laurel Park. He culminated his four-year racing career with an unplaced effort in the GII Fifth Third Elkhorn S. at Keeneland Apr. 24. Bred by Lazy Lane Farm, Admiral's Cruise has the same cross as Grade I winner A.P. Adventure and Aratama Indy, victorious at the Group 3 level in Japan. Admiral's Cruise is at Jaime Rizo Patron's Pinecrest Stables in Ocala and will relocate next month to Pinecrest's Peruvian affiliate Haras Rancho Fatima, among the leading breeders in Peru. Admiral's Cruise is a half brother to multiple GI-placed Transcendental (Mt. Livermore).

 $50
 $75
 $100

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate $25, $50, $75, $100 or an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club, through profits earned from its subsidiaries, will provide $200,000 in funding to these charities to supplement the monies raised through the checkoff program in 2009.
