Six Fillies for G2 Debutante

WEEKEND STAKES TAKE SHAPE

Three-year-olds and three-peats is what racing will be all about this Saturday. On the West Coast, Zayat Stables' sophomore speedster Zensational (Unbridled's

'Tator looks for 3 S Andrew

Song) will once again tackle older horses, this time in the six-furlong GI Bing Crosby H. at Del Mar (see p4 for field). The Bob Baffert-trained colt is coming off a victory against his elders in the GI Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood July 5.

At Saratoga, three-year-old sprint fillies will be on display. Edward Evans scored a big victory on Monday with homebred Quality Road, and will hope to double up with another homebred in Cat Moves (Tale of the Cat) in the seven-furlong GI Test S. (see p2 for field).

But much of the racing world will be focusing on the GI Whitney H., also at the Spa. That's where the venerable veteran Commentator (Distorted Humor) will be shooting for his third straight renewal of the nine-furlong Whitney, a feat achieved only by Discovery in 1934-'36. The great Kelso is the only other to win three Whitneys; he captured the race in '61, '63 and '65. "The way he's been coming up to the race, he's going to try to give it to us," said his Hall of Fame trainer Nick Zito. Commentator kicked off his eight-year-old campaign with a disappointing fourth in the Charles Town Classic Apr. 18, but rebounded with a facile victory in the restricted Kashatreya S. at Belmont June 12.

ADJUSTED AMSTERDAM TIME STILL A RECORD

After two NYRA clockers independently re-timed Monday's GI Amsterdam S. yesterday, the final time of the 6 1/2-furlong race, won by Quality Road (Elusive Quality), was changed to 1:13.74. The altered time still represented a new course record at Saratoga. NYRA initially reported the time for the Amsterdam as 1:13.45, which eclipsed the 30-year-old mark of 1:14 2/5 set by Topsider on Aug. 1, 1979. Wednesday's re-timing established fractional times for the Amsterdam of :22.45, :44.55, and 1:07.22. In addition to the final time, the half-mile fraction was changed (it was originally :44.95). Quality Road was making his first start since beating Dunkirk (Unbridled's Song) in the Mar. 28 GI Florida Derby, also in track-record time. The Ned Evans homebred could go next in the 10-furlong GI Travers S. at the Spa Aug. 29.

KIP DEVILLE TO THE SIDELINES

IEAH Stables, Cohen and Pegasus Holdings' Kip Deville (Kipling) has been temporarily taken out of training by trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. after an eighth-place finish in the GI Fourstardave H. at Saratoga. The four-time Grade I winner, hero of the 2007 GI Breeders' Cup Mile, will be taken to the IEAH Equine Hospital at Belmont Park for a nuclear scan to determine if there is a problem. Since winning the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. in February, Kip Deville has missed the board in three straight races, including a lackluster finish in the G1 Dubai Duty Free in March. "We should know soon enough," Dutrow said. "We don't know, but I think something's there."

MUTAKDDIM ON THE MOVE...BIG TIME!

On the heels of his win in the Grade 3 Maryland Sprint Handicap, RAVALO posts the 9th Stakes victory of his career with a win in the $100,000 Harvey Arneault Memorial S. on August 1st, boosting his career earnings over $650,000. Two days later, Multiple Stakes winner INUIT FISHER won the Sun Sprint Championship H.

Trainer Anthony Dutrow put 22 years between GI Prioress S. victories, winning the race with Fiery Challenge in 1987 and with Cat Moves this term. Patience is not a problem with the veteran trainer, and that virtue has suited him well for the latter of those fillies.

Cat Moves, owned and bred by Edward P. Evans, was a late developer who did not make her first start until late April at Aqueduct. She dominated the race by 8 1/4 lengths, shipped to Delaware and won easily there, then beat out entymate Light Green (Pleasantly Perfect) by 3/4 lengths in her first black-type try in the Prioress July 4. "Once we saw she was promising, we did not run her as a two-year-old," said Dutrow. "Her ankles were a little immature. Had she been of average ability, we would have run her. We knew she was more than average, so we decided to give her some time and let her mature. It's an investment that has paid off very well." He added, "She's so calm and professional. Her first race, she acted as if she had done this a million times. Winning a Grade I was our goal, and having done that, I feel so fortunate to be able to participate in the Test S., because the racing world holds it in such high esteem." TATSOCT CATALOGUE ONLINE The catalogue for Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling sale is now available online. Held between Oct. 6-8, the 676-strong catalogue will feature siblings to 58 Classic/Group 1 winners, including 2009 English and Irish Oaks winner Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Elusive Wave (Elusive City). All lots are eligible for the new look Tattersalls Millions, which features eight races worth a total of £1,750,000. "Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale is Europe's premier yearling sale and we are delighted to put together a top class catalogue with a particularly high number of siblings to 2009 Classic/Group 1 winners," Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said. "Vendors have been very supportive of the changes we have made to the Tattersalls Millions, which with entry costs of only £4,000 to be eligible to run in any of the eight races worth a total of £1,750,000, already looks to have caught the imagination of buyers at all levels of the market." Ireland's only Group 2 contest for juvenile fillies has attracted a select cast, with Aidan O'Brien saddling half the field with a trio of Danehill Dancer offspring. Lillie Langtry will go postward as the likely favorite to give the Ballydoyle conditioner a first success since the 2005 victory of subsequent G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) (Danehill). Drawn widest in six, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's bay was a comfortable winner of the June 1 G3 Coolmore Stud Fillies' Sprint at Naas and lines up off a fine second in the June 19 G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot. Stable companion Devoted to You is the likeliest danger coming off an impressive nine-length maiden score at Galway July 28. The Co. Tipperary team is completed by Famous, who was an easy winner of a course-and-distance maiden July 9 last time, but she must reverse the form of a fourth in the Listed Ballygallon Stud S. to feature. Elusive Galaxy ran second in that June 26 contest at The Curragh with Gold Bubbles 3/4 lengths behind in third. The line-up is completed by Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Alshahbaa, who rates a serious threat based on a last-out second in the July 16 G3 Silver Flash S. over course and distance.

RACING Round-Up

FINALLYMADEIT EUTHANIZED The five-year-old millionaire Finallymadeit (Concerto--Gold for My Gal, by Gold Alert), who was being pointed toward Saturday's GI Whitney H., was euthanized Tuesday at Saratoga after fracturing his left fore cannon bone while training. The gelding had been a model of soundness and consistency over the last three seasons, winning 16 of 47 races, including 12 black-type races. He was enjoying a career year in 2009, having won the GIII Skip Away S. and GIII Memorial Day H., and run second in the GI Donn H. Owned by Rolbea Thoroughbred Racing, Finallymadeit banked $1,026,640. In his most recent start, he was third in the James Marvin S. on opening day at Saratoga.

MINE THAT BIRD ENJOYS SPA TIME GI Kentucky Derby winner Mine That Bird (Birdstone) is getting settled in at his new home at Saratoga, where he'll prepare for the GI Travers S. Aug. 29. The gelding was a disappointing third in Saturday's GII West Virginia Derby, but trainer Chip Woolley says his charge seems to have exited the race well and is enjoying his new environs. "He's so much more settled here," Woolley said as he watched exercise rider George Smith graze Mine That Bird behind the stakes barn Wednesday morning. "Just his whole demeanor, he's so comfortable. He never did settle in West Virginia like I wanted him to, or even the second time at Churchill. Look at him--he's right at home, and he's been that way from the time we unloaded him. I think a lot of it is the square barn inside--all they see is other horses, they're not looking at what's going on outside. They're herd animals, you know, so I think that's good for them."

Monmouth Stakes Lose Graded Status; Lake George to Grade III

Wet weather along the East Coast forced Saratoga to moved last Friday's Lake George S., carded as a Grade II event, to the main track, while Monmouth made the surface switch for Sunday's Oceanport S. and Matchmaker S., both carded as Grade III events. The American Graded Stakes Committee has a policy to downgrade stakes one level in case of a surface change. Thus, the Lake George became a Grade III race and the Oceanport and Matchmaker became ungraded black-type events. Yesterday, it was announced that the three stakes would NOT be reinstated to their original status. Be Fair (Exchange Rate) will be recognized as a Grade III winner for taking the Lake George; Get Serious (City Zip), who won the Oceanport, and Captain's Lover (SAf) (Captain AI {SAf}), who won the Matchmaker, will be awarded listed-stakes victories for their efforts on the Haskell undercard.

– Robert Knolhoff, The Irish Field

“If racing fans in America were looking for a horse to defend their homeland against what promises to be a formidable European invasion in the Breeders’ Cup Turf (G1), they have found him in Gio Ponti..”

– Steve Haskin, Bloodhorse Magazine

“The Man o’ War at 1³/₈ miles was the most decisive victory of the trio for Gio Ponti, a 4-year-old colt who has emerged as the nation’s leading grass runner.”

– Mike Farrell, DRF

“You know what, it’s nice when they’re that good. This is his third Grade 1 in a row, it just confirms that at the moment, I’m afraid, he’s got to be the leader of the turf division here. He’s just a very nice (horse).”

– Christophe Clement

“For the Man o’ War Stakes.. there were still some non-believers, perhaps because of the extended trip and the supposedly unfavourable wide draw. It took a little over two minutes 12 seconds for them to become converts.”

CHURCHILL BEGINS REPAIRS Personnel at Churchill Downs began to clean up Wednesday, one day after a slow-moving storm packing torrential rains flooded the track and left several vehicles either partially or completely submerged in parking lots and on streets around the track. Horses evacuated from the track because of rising water remained at a nearby training center on Wednesday, and might not return to their stalls for another day or two. But repair work on the track's one-mile dirt course went well and veteran Track Superintendent Butch Lehr said regular training over the track would resume on Thursday. Lehr estimated that 25 dump-truck loads of track materials were dumped on the track's soggy racing surface during Wednesday's repair work. Members of the track maintenance crew worked throughout the day to repair the track and restore more seriously damaged sections of the racing surface. "It was washed-out in places where the water came across the track," Lehr said. "We had to use shovels to dig out all that [dirt and mud] from around the drains and pull it out where we could get it with the grader. I've been grading it all day and probably will keep grading until early tonight." No injuries were reported to either horses or humans during Tuesday's flood.

Incentive Program Boosts Field Size, Handle at Spa:

According to NYRA, the purse-incentive program created to increase field size enriched 24 of the 60 races run (40 percent) during Week One of the 2009 Saratoga meet, and helped contribute to a 9.2-percent increase in betting interests and a five-percent gain in on-track handle. Purse increases from incentives totaled $173,770, a 16.4 percent advance over the original purse values. Announced by NYRA last month, the program employs several methods to increase purses based on the number of horses starting in a race. For example, dirt races with more than eight betting interests leaving the paddock receive 10 or 15 percent purse hikes, based on the conditions of the race.

Cocoa Beach upset Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) to win last September's GI Beldame S. Sept. 27 and was a highly creditable second to Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic Oct. 24 before closing the year with a win in the GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood Park Nov. 30. Slow to make the races this season, the dark bay showed signs of rust when no better than fourth at 15 cents on the dollar in the June 21 Floral Park S. at Belmont Park. Cocoa Beach was entered for this past Sunday's GI Go For Wand H.--ultimately won by barnmate Seventh Street (Street Cry {Ire})--but was scratched in favor of this easier spot. Content to sit in fourth here as Lucky Copy (Unbridled's Song) raced too freely in front, the Godolphin runner was wide into the lane and drifted in, impeding Grand Annee (Gone West). Straightened after that, she dug in and overhauled My Baby Baby in the shadow of the post, then survived an inquiry before being allowed to retain the victory. "I was a little bit worried because she did shift in," said Rick Mettee, North American racing manager for Godolphin and assistant to winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "[Jockey] Ramon [Dominguez] said it looked worse than it really was. She started laying in a little bit turning for home. She did the same thing in the mud the other day. Once she straightened out on the right lead, she went pretty straight. I think it was a pretty good race." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

CASH FOR CLUNKERS PROGRAM POISED FOR CONTINUATION

Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) said additional funding would be provided for the "Cash for Clunkers" program before the Senate begins its summer recess at the close of business Friday, August 7. President Obama this week urged Democratic senators to follow the lead of the U.S. House of Representatives and provide $2 billion in supplemental economic stimulus funding to the program.

Cash for Clunkers 2009, or the Car Allowance Rebate System \(CARS\), was signed into law by the president on June 24, 2009. The program was enacted to encourage consumers to trade in older, less fuel-efficient cars for new vehicles that get better fuel economy by providing a credit of up to $4,500. Originally scheduled to apply to qualifying transactions that occurred between July 1 and November 1, 2009, Cash for Clunkers ran out of funding in its first week.

The House began its summer recess on Friday, July 30. Both chambers reconvene on Tuesday, September 8, the day after Labor Day.

The wheels came off in a sixth-place effort in an Aug. 30 allowance, and the dark bay only just returned to action, tiring to third in a 5 1/2-furlong event at Philly Park July 4. A 5-1 chance trying turf for the first time, the $160,000 KEENOV weanling and $240,000 KEESEP yearling threw down fractions of :21.13 for the quarter and :43.84 for the half and stayed on to defeat Fateh Field (Distorted Humor) by 2 1/2 lengths. DEAN'S KITTEN (c, 2, Kitten's Joy--Summer Theatre, by Ide) was off slowly, but finished willingly to be a clear third in a Headley Course maiden at Keeneland Apr. 9. Switched to the turf and equipped with blinkers for his second career appearance, the homebred was never far from the front, but was checked near the line and was beaten two lengths into third going six panels at Belmont July 11. Stretching out to two turns for the first time, the chestnut set a pressured pace while racing closest to the fence, kicked clear and opened a four-length bulge at the eighth pole, then was all out to hold Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}) by a half-length. PARACAIDAS (f, 4, War Chant--Jade Aspen, by Jade Hunter) made her lone previous trip to the post some 349 days prior, a solid runner-up effort in an 8 1/2-furlong grass maiden at this track Aug. 24. The bay registered a bullet five-eighths of a mile over the Oklahoma training track in 1:01 2/5 July 20 and was a 5-1 chance in his main-track debut. Sent up the fence by John Velazquez, Paracaidas dueled inside of odds-on Film Charm (Langfuhr), battled headlong into the stretch and survived by a neck. Rested off that effort, the homebred filly resurfaced in a one-mile turf test over this surface and could not muster the necessary late kick, finishing sixth by three lengths. Despite winning the Cal Cup Mile at Golden Gate last December in his previous start, Unusual Suspect was a huge 53-1 outsider in the $500,000 Sunshine Millions Turf at Santa Anita Jan. 24, yet belied those odds to be a very good third. After a respite, he missed the board in two graded tries, in the GII Mervyn Leroy H. at Hollywood May 9 and the GIII Berkeley H. at Golden Gate May 25. He could do no better than fifth in a grassy Hollywood allowance June 27--a race won by Awesome Gem (Awesome Again)--but was an improved fourth in the restricted California Dreamin' H. here at Del Mar July 26. Back here off 10 days' rest while at big odds again, Unusual Suspect rated near the back of a strung-out field as Ghetto (GB) (Auction House) ensured a lively pace for the distance. By the time they hit the far turn for the second time, the closers were kicking into gear, and, from the eighth pole, it wound up a two-horse battle, with Unusual Suspect just getting the nod over Richard's Kid. The Cougar II is a Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' event for the Breeders' Cup Marathon. "He's a really nice horse," said winning trainer Barry Abrams. "I thought this was a weak field and I believed my horse is good enough to win if he could go a mile and a half. He did it. Alonso [Quinonez] rode him perfectly. We'll be looking at the GII Del Mar H. [1 3/8 miles on the turf Aug. 30]. This horse has won on grass, dirt and synthetic and sprinting and now going a mile and a half." Four from San Diego Could Head to Pacific Classic:

Informed (Tiznow), who posted the mild upset in Sunday's GII San Diego H., as well as nose runner-up Mast Track (Mizzen Mast), third-place finisher Song of Navarone (Sultry Song) and the disappointing Well Armed (Tiznow), who finished last as the odds-on favorite, could all continue on to the $1-million GI Pacific Classic Sept. 6. WinStar Farm, who bred and owns Well Armed, is also considering Colonel John (Tiznow) for the race after the four-year-old dazzled in the grassy Wickerr H. at Del Mar last Friday. Of Well Armed, Eoin Harty assistant Oliver Costello said, "It just proves that these are horses not machines. We'll regroup and decide how we want to play it. We're not discounting him in the Pacific Classic."

Rail Trip On Track for Classic:

Another expected for the GI Pacific Classic is the GI Hollywood Gold Cup hero Rail Trip (Jump Start), who got his first taste of Del Mar's Polytrack Monday. The gelding breezed a half-mile in :48 flat, to the satisfaction of trainer Ron Ellis. "He probably went a little fast for me," Ellis said yesterday, "but I think the track was playing a little fast that morning. He came out of the work well, and now it's full steam ahead to the Pacific Classic."

Papa Clem to Grass?

Del Mar notes yesterday said that trainer Gary Stute expects Sunday's GI Haskell Invitational S. fourth Papa Clem (Smart Strike) to return to California next Monday, where he will be prepared for the GII Del Mar Derby at 1 1/8 miles on the turf Sunday, Sept. 6. Papa Clem has never race on turf.

Castagnola to Launch Kempton Bloodstock:

Steve Castagnola, director of client development for Taylor Made Sales Agency in Kentucky, is leaving his position to begin his own bloodstock agency. Castagnola's agency will be called Kempton Bloodstock and will purchase horses at public auction, offer private sales representation, and work with clients on portfolio management and partnership opportunities. "Taylor Made took a chance on me almost 13 years ago when I applied to be a member of their intern program in January 1997," Castagnola said. "I am deeply grateful for every opportunity they afforded me from that day forward. I will miss the team and the incredible support I have received over the years. In saying that, I am also very excited about what the future will bring and look forward to continuing to work with Taylor Made in a new capacity." Said Mark Taylor, vice president of public sales for Taylor Made, "Steve has been a visible and key team member for many years and will be missed, however we look forward to working closely with Steve to create many more successful endeavors in the future. On behalf of myself along with my brothers, Ben, Duncan, and Frank, we wish Steve all the best with Kempton Bloodstock and are confident he will be successful with his new venture."

SEA THE STARS AMONG 65 IN CHAMPION

Christopher Tsui's dual Classic winner Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) heads a cast of 65 entries for the Oct. 17 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket, it was revealed yesterday. The G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Derby winner, who lowered the colors of subsequent G1 Sussex S. hero Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for a third time in the July G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown, is one of 16 Irish-trained possibles for the £350,000 contest. Aidan O'Brien, who has yet to win the 10-furlong heat, has a bulk entry of 10 which includes Rip Van Winkle, Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), winner of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S.; and G1 Irish Derby hero Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). The home defence is led by the Classic-winning fillies Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway), winner of the G1 1000 Guineas and the G1 Coronation S., and the dual Oaks winner Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}).

BEETHOVEN (IRE) (Oratorio {Ire}), who was beaten by four lengths in fifth in last week's G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh, has found an ideal opportunity to shed maiden status at the sixth attempt. He faces 11 rivals in this lesser spot. Opposition to the Aidan O'Brien trainee includes the Michael Grassick-trained Del Mar (Ire) (Shamardal), who is a grandson of the 1980 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Detroit (Fr) (Riverman); Bewitched (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), a daughter of the 1998 G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Abbatiatale (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}) from the Charles O'Brien stable; and Rockie Bright (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), the pick of two Jim Bolger entries, who hails from the family of Aussie Rules (Danehill), Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Allegretto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Albanova (GB) (Alzao), Alborada (GB) (Alzao), et al.

France's seven-strong challenge is headed by a quartet of entries from the Alain de Royer-Dupre stable, which was successful with Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) in the 2006 renewal. It includes His Highness The Aga Khan's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club fourth Beheshtam (Fr) (Peintre Celebre). The Chantilly-based conditioner is also represented by Gris de Gris (Ire) (Slickly {Fr}), The Bogberry (Hawk Wing) and Alpine Rose (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}). "There is plenty of time between now and October, but all of the horses that I have entered would prefer some give in the ground, so I would be hopeful that one or more could run if the going was not too quick at Newmarket," commented de Royer-Dupre. "Beheshtam was a bit immature in the Prix du Jockey-Club and the [G1] Grand Prix de Paris and I don't think that it was a question of him not getting a mile and a half at Longchamp [when sixth last time July 14]. He was just not mature enough for those races at the time. He has only had four starts, but he is working better at the moment. He could run in the [Aug. 30] G2 Grand Prix de Deauville at the end of the month providing the ground is good. We have given him the choice of races in the autumn and both the Champion S. and the [Oct. 4 G1] Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe are both possible targets, so we will take it step by step with him. I was pleased with Gris de Gris when he was second in the [May 17 G1] Prix d'Ispahan and he is a real specialist for very deep ground. We have just been waiting for the right going with him. He is a good horse, as he showed and can be very competitive in Group 1 company over 10 furlongs if there is soft ground. The Bogberry has made some very good progress since he was fifth in the G1 Prix Ganay in April and he might take his chance in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville [Aug. 15] if the ground is good. Alpine Rose is the best of my entries in the Champion S., she is by Linamix and, while she goes in all conditions, I am sure that she will be a better filly on softer ground. She is a great filly and I think that the ground was too firm for her at Saint-Cloud [when second] in her latest start. She still ran very well in that [June 28 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud] race and she has progressed since. I am sure that she will improve throughout the season and that we will see the best of her in the autumn. We have given her the option of going to Newmarket and she has several end of season targets open to her at the moment, including the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and the [Oct. 4 G1] Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp. She is a real Group 1 filly, and we will decide where to go with her nearer the time."

PRINCE SULTAN SWOOPS NEW SOUTH AMERICAN RECRUITS Chilean champion Mensajera de la Luz (Chi) (Election Day {Ire}--Cuenta Conmigo {Chi}, by Gallantsky), and Argentine Group 1-placed El Amarillista (Arg) (Mutakddim--Potra Amazona {Arg}, by Potrillon {Arg}), have been purchased on behalf of Saudi Arabian Prince Sultan bin Mohammed bin Saud al Kabeer to be aimed at the Dubai International Racing Carnival. Emmanuel de Seroux, of California-based Narvick International, brokered the deal for both promising South American three-year-olds, which have now arrived in Saudi Arabia and joined the Nofa Training Center stables of Prince Sultan's private trainer Jerry Barton. Elected as Chile's champion two-year-old female on the dirt for the 2008-09 season, Mensajera de la Luz cemented her status as Hipodromo Chile's best two-year-old filly on dirt with a 1 1/2-length victory in the G1 Tanteo de Potrancas June 20 to keep her unblemished record intact in four career starts. Three-year-old El Amarillista, who posted a four-length maiden victory at Palermo in his second outing, was runner-up in the G1 Gran Premio Montevideo on May 1.

BRAZILIAN CHAMPIONS NAMED Haras Doce Vale's Flymetothemoon (Roi Normand), winner of Brazil's prestigious G1 Grande Premio Sao Paulo this past May and 2008 G1 Grande Premio Linneo de Paula Machado in Rio de Janeiro, was recognized as Brazil's Horse of the Year and champion three-year-old male for the 2008-09 Southern Hemisphere season during the Trofeu Mossoro Awards presentations in Rio de Janeiro July 31. Trained in Brazil by Venancio Nahid, Flymetothemoon captured four of nine starts during his championship sophomore season. Owned and bred by Alfredo Grumser and Patricia Bozano's Haras Doce Vale, Flymetothemoon is out of Brazilian Group 1 winner Onefortheroad (Brz) (Ghadeer {Fr}), who was honored as Broodmare of the Year. Flymetothemoon is a full-brother to 2007 G1 Grande Premio Diana heroine Eissoai (Brz) and to Brazilian Group 1 and Grade III winner in the U.S. Ay Caramba (Brz). Other elected champions were: Gallian (Brz) (Dodge), two-year-old male; Talenta (Brz) (Wild Event), two-year-old female; three-time Group 1 winner Smile Jenny (Brz) (Wild Event), three-year-old female; Kappo Di Tutti (Brz) (Redattore {Brz}), miler; Girua (Brz) (Bonapartiste {Fr}), best dirt horse; Agasias (Brz) (Fahim {GB}), best stayer; Top Hat (Brz) (Royal Academy), older horse. Prominent South American sire Wild Event, who will stand the upcoming Southern Hemisphere season in Argentina, was proclaimed champion sire. Group/Grade 1 winner Redattore (Brz), sire of three Group 1 winners from his first crop in Brazil, was named best national sire.

Julio Bozano's Haras Santa Maria de Araras, who has stood Wild Event in Brazil and bred champion sprinter and older female Requebra (Brz) (Put It Back), was recognized as outstanding breeder. Dalva and Stefan Friberg, who campaign GI Arlington Million contender Gloria de Campeao (Brz) (Impression), were honored as outstanding owners. Other human honorees include Marcos Mazini, jockey; and Dulcino Guignoni, trainer.
