DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH

Careless Jewel (Tapit) overcame bad behavior in the post parade and trouble on the first turn to romp home an easy 11-length winner in the GI Alabama S. at

Adam Coglianesse

Saratoga Saturday. "You don't want to see horses [acting unruly before a race], because they do take something out of themselves, but she showed up and did her job when it counted, and I'm really proud of her," said jockey Robert Landry, who had an unscheduled dismount from the fractious filly on the way to the gate. "She acts up a little bit--I think the crowd had something to do with it."

But Landry is hoping that the experience will stand the grey in good stead down the road. "She's not used to this many people, but it's great, because I'm sure the Breeders' Cup will have a bunch of people, and hopefully she can end up there," he said. With her win in the Alabama, Careless Jewel ran her record to four-for-five, and became the third Grade I winner from the first crop by sophomore sire Tapit (Pulpit). Cont. p2

"FLAWLESS" PERFORMANCE IN DMR OAKS

Grade I wins, very often, do not come cheaply. Charles Fipke purchased the mare Tapatina (Seeking the Gold), in foal to Giant's Causeway, for $1,050,000 at Keeneland November in 2005. It wasn't her race record that accounted for the seven-figure price tag--it was her family. Unplaced on the track, Tapatina was a daughter of blue hen Korveya (Riverman), dam of champions Bosra Sham (Woodman) and Hector Protector (Woodman) and Classic winner Shanghai (Procida). But the investment has paid off--the foal that Tapatina was carrying was the cleverly named Internallyflawless, and she lived up to that moniker with a game 3/4-length victory in the GI Del Mar Oaks Saturday. "Chuck Fipke has been very patient with this filly," trainer Bob Baffert said. "He let me bring her along the way I thought she should be trained, and she rewarded us with a Grade I win. The program is to win a Grade I, and we did it here." Baffert added that the three-year-old would be aimed at the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf at Santa Anita Nov. 6. Cont. p3

Alabama cont.

Careless Jewel was a little hard to handle even in her career opener. Breaking from the rail at Keeneland Apr. 4, she was a bit rank when in traffic on the backstretch, then weakened after getting into the clear at the quarter pole and finished third. It was the last time she would be challenged. The Donver Stable colorbearer came back to break her maiden handily on the Woodbine Poly May 9, and added a 7 1/4-length score when trying two turns for the first time in an allowance test in Toronto June 21. Her connections opted to go on the road for her next start, and the move proved wise. Careless Jewel was let go at 10-1 in the July 18 GII Delaware Oaks, but she handled that field with ease, duplicating her winning margin in the allowance test in an eye-catching performance. She was even more impressive despite her antics yesterday.

Reunited and It Feels So Good...

Reunited with jockey Robert Landry after playing the bronc on the way to the gate, Careless Jewel broke sharply, but had her head cocked around to the right as her rider tried to harness her speed early. Be Fair (Exchange Rate) went up to take the lead; Careless Jewel was on her heels and on the bit, and Landry had to check sharply as they raced into the first turn, guiding his mount to the outside. Things went more smoothly after that. Careless Jewel tracked Be Fair through fractions of :23.33, :47.35 and 1:12.14. Edging closer on the far turn, she was in command when they hit the lane and opened up with every stride to hit the line a much-the-best winner. "There was a lot of jostling in there and I got really concerned--I thought she was going to get dropped into that first turn, and I think Robert did a great job with her," trainer Josie Carroll said. "He got her outside and got her settled. I think knowing the horse was a huge advantage today. He got her to settle beautifully." Windfall for Windfields...

The result of the Alabama was a timely catalogue update for Windfields Farm, which acquired the dam of Careless Jewel at Keeneland November in 2006, and announced Friday that they would disperse their bloodstock at that venue this year. Careless Jewel was the last foal out of unraced Sweet and Careless (Hennessy) to be bred by Gainesway (in partnership with Bill Andrade). Gainesway bought the then 10-year-old, in foal to Orientate, for $140,000 at KEENOV in 2003. Sweet and Careless had an Orientate colt in 2004, produced a dead foal in 2005, and had Careless Jewel in 2006. The mare went back through the ring at KEENOV later that year, and, again in foal to Orientate, was purchased by Windfields for $210,000. Windfields sold her 2007 Orientate colt for $85,000 as a KEESEP yearling in 2008. Barren in 2008, Sweet and Careless had an Elusive Quality colt this year, and was bred back to Tapit.

Internallyflawless never factored in her debut on the all-weather at Del Mar 363 days ago, then switched to the turf at Oak Tree in September and graduated by a length. She came back to be second in the Nov. 28 GIII Miesque S. at Hollywood, but showed little in the Blue Norther S. one month later and was sent to the bench. The chestnut came back after a seven-month layoff in the Aug. 1 GII San Clemente S. at Del Mar, rallying to be fourth, and that tightener had her ready to rock here. Sent up to track the pace from second through six furlongs in a modest 1:14.64 on the firm turf, she came from between horses to take the lead at the top of the lane. Nan came at her from the rail in the stretch, but Internallyflawless held on gamely. "I could tell the way the race was unfolding that it was just right," jockey Garrett Gomez said. "I had to come out with her maybe a little earlier than I wanted to, but it worked out OK. I got a jump, and she did the rest." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Defending an unbeaten record, Cape Blanco added to the record of his sire, who produced two of the race's finest winners in Teofilo (Ire) and New Approach (Ire), and who is now honored by the race name. Like his predecessors, Cape Blanco took Leopardstown's July 23 G3 Tyros S., and started at prohibitive odds, but it was not all plain sailing for his backers. After dictating the fractions, he saw off Marfach (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) at the top of the straight before having to deal with Mister Tee and King Ledley. Always doing enough under urging from Johnny Murtagh, he had ears pricked as he crossed the line to register a seventh success in this event for Aidan O'Brien. "He hated the ground," Murtagh told PA Sport. "He hit a soft patch off the last bend and I was trying to get him organised. He definitely wants quick ground. He has a chance of being a very good horse." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, courtesy of attheraces.

He could've been claimed for $50,000 this winter, but Chirac climbed his way into the graded ranks over the next five months. The bay bested $50,000 claimers on the grass at Tampa Mar. 5 before running third in an optional claimer over that course Apr. 4. Switched to the dirt for an optional test at Monmouth May 16, he romped home a six-length winner. Chirac made it two in a row in the June 13 Skip Away S., and continued his love affair with the Monmouth strip when taking an optional claimer July 11. The 3-2 chalk in the Aug. 2 Majestic Light S. in the slop, the gelding ran an even fourth, but he was back on top of his game yesterday. Sent right to the front by Elvis Trujillo, the longshot cut out fractions of :22.98, :46.76 and 1:10.83. He set sail for home at the top of the lane and was never threatened, winning handily. Odds-on Coal Play (Mineshaft) faded to fourth. "He just wasn't himself," his jockey, Joe Bravo, said. "He's usually very energetic in the paddock, but today he was pretty quiet. I'm thinking the heat took a toll on him." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Hastings-based Tommy Danziger closed out 2008 with a win in the Oct. 26 Ascot Graduation S. at his home track. The bay came back after a six-month vacation to be second in a pair of black-type events at Hastings in May and June. Third as the even-money chalk July 1, he made amends for that loss with a two-length score in a restricted stakes Aug. 3. He had some support as he ventured away from his 'hood for the first time here. Into stride right from the gate, Tommy Danziger grabbed the lead after a half in a pedestrian :49.80. He coasted along through a mile in 1:42.40 and had plenty in the tank to hold Scorewithcater at bay through the final three-eighths, earning his first graded score. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

Shakespearean bagged a May 29 Haydock maiden on debut and ran fifth in the June 20 Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot before garnering black type with a third in the July 10 G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket. Assuming control from the outset here, he was pushed along approaching the final quarter mile and kept on resolutely under a final-furlong drive to safely hold the vain bid of Buzzword.

"We set a nice pace, I picked it up when we turned into the straight, and he quickened all the way to the line," explained rider Richard Hills. "He went to post a little bit croaky, but he came back good. [Trainer] Mark [Johnston] told me he stays well, and he's a really decent horse." Johnston, who trained sire Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) during an unbeaten juvenile campaign that included the G1 Dewhurst S., added, "He's a big, heavy horse, but he's very laid back. He's going to take a bit more time to mature, but he's going to be a beautiful horse next year. I think it's the first group winner for Shamardal, and let's hope it's the first of many." Having made a winning start at Milan May 17, Joanna ran second in the Listed Premio Alessandro Perrone at Rome June 2 and was the cozy winner of the Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi back at the San Siro last time June 14. Settled five lengths off the pace in sixth after the opening stages of this, she made eye-catching headway from the three-furlong marker to lead with 300 meters remaining and was ridden out from there to comfortably best Virginia Hall for a career high. "We're very very pleased with the result and she showed plenty of courage," commented assistant trainer Enrico Mombelli. "We have some guides at home--our two-year-old colts--so we felt it was worth taking our chance. It is important to see how she comes out of the race, but we will certainly keep the [G1] Prix Marcel Boussac [at Longchamp Oct. 4] in mind." Click for the Racing Post chart.

All carry 126 pounds bar Special Duty & Dolled Up, 122.

Canford Cliffs bids to emulate his sire Tagula (Ire) (Taufan), who won the prestigious prize in 1995, and enjoys pole position following an emphatic six-length success in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. when last seen June 16. The runner-up Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) boosted the form when taking the G2 Vintage S. and Canford Cliffs only needs a repeat of that performance to open his account at this level.

"Everything has gone well with Canford Cliffs since Royal Ascot and [jockey Richard] Hughes was delighted with the colt when he gave him a blow-out last Monday," trainer Richard Hannon said. "He pulled so hard that he made most of the running in the Coventry, but ideally he will get a lead in France and Hughesie thinks he will settle that much better when he has a target to aim at. The opposition looks like being much stronger than it was at Ascot and I doubt if there will be any shortage of pace. Our fellow also goes on any ground, so we have no worries there. We could not be happier with Canford Cliffs, who is the best we have had at Herridge, and we just hope that we are still living that Classic dream come Sunday night." Arcano offers stern opposition. His debut defeat of Showcasing (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was given much substance when that colt recorded an impressive success in this week's G2 Gimcrack S. Purchased by Sheikh Hamdan following his win in the G2 July S. at Newmarket July 9, he hails from the Brian Meehan camp. "We have been very pleased with his work since the July S., and Richard Hills was very happy with him when he came down to ride him at Manton on Monday morning," Meehan said. Special Duty caused a stir when upsetting Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte July 26 and holds the third-placed Dolled Up on that form, while Zanzibari took the G3 Prix de Cabourg over this track and trip on his latest start Aug. 2 and adds further weight to a select renewal.

Lady Marian bids to get back on track following a winless start to her four-year-old campaign for new connections. Second in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Dusseldorf last August, she went on to capture the G3 Prix de la Nonette over this course and distance later that month before besting Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp in October. Down the field on her come-back in the Mar. 28 G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba, she was only seventh behind Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the G1 Prix Rothschild over a mile here last time Aug. 2. "The Prix Rothschild was Lady Marian's first appearance since she ran in Dubai and she needed the race," Saeed bin Suroor commented. "She came out of the race in good order and has been doing some good work recently. She is ready to go and I am hopeful that she can run well on her return to 10 furlongs."

Alpine Rose took the May 28 G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud before returning to that circuit to split Spanish Moon (El Prado {Ire}) and Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) when runner-up in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud a month later. Synergy takes a major hike in class after a latest win in the Listed Prix de la Pepiniere at Maisons-Laffitte July 26 and would need the leading duo to underperform to score.

Rahy's Attorney and Marchfield renew rivalry after finishing 1-2 in the July 26 GII Nijinsky S. going 10 panels over this course. Five-year-old gelding Rahy's Attorney ran his record on the Woodbine turf to eight-for-12 with that effort, but the speedy bay stretches out here. He goes for his third straight victory, having previously annexed the June 27 GII King Edward H. going nine furlongs in Toronto. Marchfield switched back to the grass for the Nijinsky after a win in the July 1 GIII Dominion Day H. on the Woodbine Poly. The Melnyk homebred gets an added eighth to work with today. Marlang was the winner of the third leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, the Breeders' S., as well as the GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga last season. The colt was put away after fading to last in the Oct. 4 GI Canadian International S. Returning with a third in an optional claimer on the turf at Woodbine June 28, he set the pace in the Aug. 3 GIII Seagram Cup on the all-weather before tiring to be fourth. Jockey Jono Jones was in the irons for that race, but regular rider Richard Dos Ramos in back in the irons this afternoon.

Schiaparelli stamped his authority on the G2 Goodwood Cup on his first try at a marathon trip July 30 and faces a depleted field here.

Previously second, before being demoted to third, in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 9, the chestnut has demonstrated all the ability that had previously taken him to glory in four Group One wins. "Schiaparelli ran a big race at Goodwood and I was really happy with the way he finished his race," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He has been working well since then and I think that we have found a nice race for him. The key for him will be the going and he needs easy ground to be at his best." Mojave Moon, who carries the beige colours of Godolphin France, steps up in trip after a fifth in the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp May 26 and subsequent success in a 12-furlong conditions event at Vichy last time July 19.

Summer Bird Breezes at the Spa...

GI Belmont S. winner Summer Bird (Birdstone) worked five-eighths in 1:00.91 over a muddy Saratoga main track Saturday. Third in the Aug. 2 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park, the chestnut makes his next appearance in the Aug. 29 GI Shadwell Travers S. The colt, with jockey Kent Desormeaux aboard, was out at the track as soon as it opened yesterday. "I wanted to catch a good track," trainer Tim Ice explained. "Even after the renovation, I figured it wouldn't be as good as it would be at 5:30." Ice added, "He worked very well today. Kent said that he was trying to pull him up after the work and, as the other horses would go by, he'd jump back into the bridle." The conditioner is confident his charge will perform even better in his second start since his Classic victory. "He's progressing well, and his energy level keeps going up," Ice said. "I think the work he had today was better than any he had going into any race, even the Belmont."

HAPPY BULL (c, 3, Yonaguska--Readout, by Quack) showed improvement in each start before earning his diploma in his third try, a Philly Park maiden Feb. 8. Second in an allowance at that track Mar. 8, the bay colt was freshened up, then prevailed with the shades on in an optional claimer at Delaware June 9, and came into this contest off a third in the four-horse GIII Jersey Shore S. at Monmouth July 5. Sent off as the 4-1 third choice while facing tough older runners, he was content to settle in fifth as Saratoga Russell (Trippi) and Formidable (Sky Mesa) zipped through splits of :21.81 and :44.63. He angled to the outside in the lane, hit the front approaching the eighth pole and, despite drifting out, opened up for a 5 1/4-length triumph. Formidable stayed on for second, but 3-5 Saratoga Russell faded badly to finish seventh. Sales history: $35,000 yrl '07 FTKFEB; $32,000 RNA yrl '07 FTKJUL; $33,000 yrl '07 FTMOCT. GRASSY (c, 3, El Prado {Ire}--High Savannah {GB}, by Rousillon), who closed strongly on debut to finish third on turf at Belmont May 30, tracked the early leader before pulling away to a 2 3/4-length victory at the Elmont oval July 10. Hammered down to 2-1 as the crowd's top selection, the gray was last away after stumbling at the start. Content to lag the field in ninth for the opening half-mile, the favorite circled the field on the final bend and continued his rally to the grandstand side of the homestretch. Grassy, part of a thrilling five-horse blanket finish, got his nose down in time to nip Cherokee Speed (Cherokee Run) at the wire. Blind Date, who began her career by winning two of three starts on dirt, earned her first black-type badge in a turf sprint for Maryland-breds when she closed from far back to take the Hookedonthefeelin S. at Pimlico Apr. 18. Successful against open company when stretched out in the Hilltop S. over the same course May 15, the bay disappointed as the 2-1 favorite when seventh in the June 27 Gill Boiling Springs S. at Monmouth Park. The homebred made amends in her most recent start as she employed a stout rally to get up by a head in the Gill Virginia Oaks at Colonial Downs July 18. Heavily favored in this off-the-turf affair, Blind Date tracked Ravenous in second up the backstretch. The chalk was put to a drive nearing the eighth pole, and she edged clear to add another black-type tally. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A daughter of solid turfer Mary Kies, the chestnut came up a nose short that day, and was even-money to go one better this time. The Florida-bred stalked the pace while three wide, joined the battle in front of the stands and stayed on determinedly to prevail by a neck in a photo finish. Fourth in a hillside allowance at Santa Anita Jan. 8, the homebred was given some time off, but tired badly to finish ninth in a six-furlong test on the Hollywood sod. She improved to finish third over that course and distance July 10, and was the 5-2 second choice while stretching out for the first time here. The bay did not appreciate jockey David Flores's attempts to rate behind the leaders, but settled down on the backstretch. Sidney's Candy missed by a head in his career opener at Del Mar July 25, but was all alone at the finish in his second appearance. Bet down to 9-10, the Craig homebred tracked the pace in second down the backstretch. He closed ground as they came around the bend, collared Oceanographer (Stormy Atlantic) at the top of the lane and pulled away to graduate by four lengths. "He's such a classy horse," jockey Joe Talamo said. "Even last time, he ran a winning race--he showed so much. What I really like about him is the way he finishes. Tattersalls Ireland Sale S. cont.

Dick Turpin brought top-class form to the table here, and duly rammed his superiority home to add another valuable sales race to the impressive resume of trainer Richard Hannon. Successful by a total of 10 1/2 lengths in his first two starts at Windsor June 8 and Salisbury July 11, the bay took the step up in class in stride when besting Buzzword (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by three lengths in the G2 Richmond S. at the Glorious Goodwood meeting last time July 31. Just two hours after that runner-up had underlined the merit of that form by filling the same spot in the G3 Solario S. at Sandown, Dick Turpin was turning this heat into a procession. Settled close to the early pace by a confident Richard Hughes, he was only asked to come off the bridle passing the furlong marker with In Some Respect toiling in front. Sweeping by that rival in a matter of strides, he was being eased near the line, which he passed under a tight hold with ears pricked. "I think that's our sixth winner of this race, but none were better than him--he'd be the best by a long way," the trainer's son and assistant Richard Hannon Jr told PA Sport. "He's won a Group 2, so the next step would have to be a Group 1, whether that is this year or next. We'll look at the G1 Racing Post Trophy [at Doncaster Oct. 24] and G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 17]--I would personally love to see him run in the Dewhurst. He has a lot of scope and could be a Guineas horse next year. Hughesie said he loved the ground, and he is adaptable on all sorts." Click for the Racing Post chart or Video, courtesy of attheraces.

 Successful in the Listed Vintage Crop S. in which Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) was a notable flop at Navan Apr. 26, Alandi was runner-up in both the Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown May 28 and June 27 G3 Curragh Cup. Only fifth in the Listed Challenge S. back at Leopardstown last time July 16, the homebred rebounded with a facile win in this contest. Settled behind the leading quartet early, the bay was wound up on the final turn and rolled by his stable companion Aliyfa at the quarter pole before drawing clear and allowing his jockey to ease down a long way from the line. Strawberrydaiquiri has enjoyed a fruitful summer, taking the Listed Distaff over this track and trip July 4 and the Listed Valiant S. at Ascot July 24 in her last two outings. Racing in the second rank until asked for her effort 2 1/2 furlongs down here, she took over a furlong later and was ridden clear to notch a listed treble in comfortable fashion. "She travelled very well and, when she changed her legs and quickened up, she was away from them," said winning rider Ryan Moore. "I thought she might take a while to wear them down, but she quickened up really well, and I didn't plan to be in front that early. This is her fifth run and she's won four of them. She's a very straightforward filly." Video, courtesy of Racing UK.

Munsef made a winning start for new connections in a June 27 Chester claimer and ran second in the July 4 Old Newton Cup H. at Haydock before confirming his well-being with victory in an Ascot handicap last time July 26. Held up in mid-division until making smooth headway to stalk the leaders on the home turn in this, the veteran was pushed into the lead at the top of the lane and was driven home to win his first black-type event since the Listed Godolphin S. in September 2005. "The step up in trip was going to either help him or beat him, but it seems to have helped and he has found a bit of improvement," trainer Ian Williams told PA Sport.

"His owner is keen to run in the [Nov. 3 G1] Melbourne Cup and I am keen to go, too. I don't know if he would be good enough, but we will chat about going, and there is also the [Sept. 13 G3] Stockholm Cup [at Taby] next month to consider." Video, courtesy of Racing UK.

BORDER HAS HONG KONG IN SIGHTS

James Edgar and William Donaldson's Borderlescott (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) is being targeted at the G1 Hong Kong Sprint. Following the seven-year-old's neck win to land consecutive renewals of the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Friday, connections are hoping for an invite to the Dec. 13 contest. "Everything panned out for him [Friday]--he got a lead and it was a fast pace," trainer Robin Bastiman commented. "It's basically mapped out for him now. I think he'll go for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 4] next and, hopefully, he might get an invite to Hong Kong."

FALLON LATEST FOR YOUMZAIN

Kieren Fallon has been offered the ride on Jaber Abdullah's Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) in the Sept. 6 G1 Grosser Preis Von Baden upon his return at the start of next month. Having partnered the Mick Channon-trained dual Arc runner-up to success in the G1 Preis Von Europa three years ago, he will regain the ride after connections decided to drop Richard Hills, who had previously replaced Richard Hughes. "We are hoping that Kieren can ride Youmzain in Germany on Sept. 6," the owner's racing manager Bruce Raymond told Racing Post. "Jaber Abdullah is very keen to have him for that and the Arc. The horse is in very good form at home."

TDN Progeny PP Counts
 Our newest informational tool, TDN Progeny PP Counts are designed to let you identify at a glance the stallions with the greatest number of significant progeny. Select a category, time frame and sort criteria, and the list indicates how many times a sire's progeny have appeared in TDN Progeny PPs for that period. Progeny PP Counts reflect Northern Hemisphere racing only.

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate $25, $50, $75, $100 or an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club, through profits earned from its subsidiaries, will provide $200,000 in funding to these charities to supplement the monies raised through the checkoff program in 2009.
