SIRE OF 25 GRADE 1 WINNERS

MID-SUMMER BIRD

The Jayaramans' homebred Summer Bird (Birdstone) will attempt to become the 30th three-year-old in history to add a victory in the G1 Shadwell Travers S.--a.k.a. the Midsummer Derby--to his trophy in the G1 Belmont S. The last horse to complete the double? That would be his sire, who accomplished the feat in 2004. "To follow Birdstone and win the Belmont and come back and win the Travers would be a great accomplishment," said Tim Ice. "I am really happy with the way he's coming into the race." The chestnut was freshened up after capturing the Belmont June 6 and, in his only start since, was a stalwart second to superfilly Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) in the G1 Haskell Invitational over a sloppy Monmouth strip Aug. 2. Cont. p3-4

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SPA

Saratoga will offer a stellar undercard to today's marquee event, led by a pair of Grade I races at seven furlongs. A trio of top-class fillies, Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), Informed Decision (Monarchos) and Music Note (A.P. Indy) will lock horns in the G1 Ballerina S. in the 10th race, while Munnings (Speightstown) is the headline act in the G1 NetJets King's Bishop S. for three-year-olds. Turf distaffers will face off in the G1 Ballston Spa H., and sophomore fillies will dash six furlongs in the G11 Victory Ride S. Cont. p4-7

LAST LAUGH IN BERNARD BARUCH

Justenuffhumor (Distorted Humor) had trainer Kieran McLaughlin worried when he was far behind in the early stages of the G11 Bernard Baruch H. yesterday at Saratoga, but the Darley colorbearer launched his now-familiar rally in the stretch to deny Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway) in the final strides. "I was concerned when [announcer] Tom Durkin said, "And 12 lengths back is [Justenuffhumor]!" McLaughlin admitted. "The second horse ran great. I hate to beat Todd [Pletcher]. We're good friends, but that's what the game is all about. We were pointing towards this race, and we have to talk about where we go from here." Justenuffhumor, now perfect in six turf outings, appears to be a top contender for the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita Nov. 7. As for the runner-up, Pletcher said. "He ran super--tough beat. We'll either go to Keeneland for the [G1] Shadwell Turf Mile [Oct. 10] or California for one of the prep races out there. We'll see." Cont. p2

After a hiccup in his career debut on Keeneland's Polytrack in October, Justenuffhumor has rattled off six straight wins on turf in 2009.

The well-bred colt handled a class test in winning the GII Fourstardave over the local lawn Aug. 2, and was part of the favored entry here alongside Godolphin flagbearer Colony (Statue of Liberty). He made jockey Alan Garcia work for his paycheck during the loading process, but came away cleanly before dropping back as Cowboy Cal and Seaspeak (Mizzen Mast) dashed through a :46.94 opening half. Justenuffhumor began to pick it up heading into the far turn, and Garcia opted to take the overland route. The four-year-old kicked into another gear up the center of the course in the final furlong, and maintained his path as the valiant Cowboy Cal began to drift out a bit.

"Where do we start? It's a special horse that can make that move," said trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "I haven't been around too many that if you can get them in the gate, they'll just find a way to get to the wire first, and this is just one of those horses. He's a little tricky in the gate sometimes, but I feel so confident getting him in the gate, if it's a mile, or a mile and an eighth, or a mile and a sixteenth, he'll find the wire first, and that's a great feeling." Garcia added, "That's a nice horse--they did an excellent job with this one. I wasn't worried today. I was very confident throughout the race. I knew he'd wait until the quarter pole to give the best he had, and he showed he was the best horse."

Justenuffhumor is out of the tough racemare Justenuffheart, who is a half-sister to turf champion Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) and multiple Grade I winner Precious Kitten (Catienus). The 14-year-old mare has already dropped champion Dreaming of Anna and MGSW Lewis Michael--both by Rahy--and her Storm Cat colt is catalogued as hip 362 next month at Keeneland. Justenuffheart failed to get in foal to the now-pensioned Rahy earlier this year, but was pronounced pregnant by Distorted Humor following a Mar. 31 cover date.

BEAUTY AND THE BOTTOM LINE.

Choice is a beautiful thing. One could choose to breed to a strong-looking, middle-distance Grade I millionaire like STORM CAT's GOOD REWARD, a full brother to an already proven sire. Or, one could choose a Grade I millionaire like FLOWER ALLEY, whose good-looking yearlings sold at auction for the likes of $200,000, $150,000, and $100,000. Either way, for a breeding selection that combines passion with profit, the right choice is a call to Three Chimneys.

Road to Riches...

Quality Road (Elusive Quality), forced to skip the Classics with quarter crack issues, returned from a four-month hiatus to set a track record in the GII Amsterdam S.

Aug. 3, covering Saratoga's 6 1/2 furlongs that day in 1:13 3/5. After being saddled by Jimmy Jerkens to score in the GI Florida Derby and GII Fountain of Youth S., he sported Todd Pletcher's white bridle in the Amsterdam, and may just be good enough to handle the jump to 10 furlongs today. A Travers trophy would go a long way in the voting for the Eclipse Awards. "I think it's still an open division, but the winner of this race obviously takes a big step in that direction," Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "If the winner happens to be Quality Road, then his resume looks awfully good."

Who's Got the Edge?

Our Edge (The Cliff's Edge) heads into the Travers with three consecutive trips to the winner's circle.

Having graduated by a decisive 8 3/4 lengths at Delaware off a two-month break, the bay colt prevailed in the Coronado's Quest S. in the slop at Monmouth June 20, and most recently aired by seven lengths in the GIII Barbaro S. at Delaware July 19. "The horse is working great and he's coming off three big wins in a row," said trainer Nick Zito. "Don't get me wrong, I told [owner] Bob LaPenta, we're really taking an enormous shot. But we always take a shot, that's been our deal. We either make it, or we don't. It's a blessing to be in it. His father, running second to Birdstone [in the 2004 Travers], we'll see what happens."

Munnings and Vineyard Haven met twice at two, with the chestnut settling for third and second behind his rival in the GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. and GI Champagne S., respectively. But things have gone very differently for the two in 2009. Munnings rebounded from a solid second to Warrior's Reward (Medaglia d'Oro) in his May 1 seasonal bow at Churchill to scorch the earth in a pair of seven-furlong races at Belmont, the GII Woody Stephens S. June 6 against his peers and the GII Tom Fool H. versus older horses July 5. He was a respectable third going nine panels in the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 2, and will be tough to handle in this return to his best distance. "Obviously, you don't have to do a whole lot," trainer Todd Pletcher noted. "It's a matter of keeping him happy and sharpening him up. He ran well [in the Haskell]; the filly was outstanding. He dug in and fought hard, and I was pleased with the effort." Vineyard Haven, acquired by Godolphin for a reported eight figures following his Champagne success, has made just one appearance in the blue colors. A desultory fourth to stablemate Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}) in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas at Nad al Sheba Feb. 12, the grey was given some time to regroup, and has several good drills in the past few weeks. "I'm happy with the way he's coming into the race," said Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "In a perfect world, he would have run in the [GII] Amsterdam [S. at Saratoga Aug. 3], and we would have had a race into him, but he wasn't quite ready yet. He's fit, and he's going to run on a track that he likes." The Amsterdam was won in a track-record-setting performance by Quality Road (Elusive Quality), who will instead go for glory in the GI Shadwell Travers S. However, the connections of Amsterdam runner-up Capt. Candyman Can are pleased with the absence of that colt. "He's done nothing wrong," reported trainer Ian Wilkes. "He ran very well the other day...but didn't win. He ran into a buzz saw."

Rare is the horse to sport a perfect record at this intermediate sprint distance, but such is the case with Informed Decision. Third in the GIII Victory Ride S. on this program exactly one year ago, the Augustin colorbearer has rattled off five consecutive wins since, all at seven panels. After closing out 2008 by taking the GII Raven Run S. at Keeneland, the grey returned to post Grade I scores in the Apr. 9 Madison S. in Lexington and overcame a fair amount of trouble to add the Humana Distaff in the Churchill slop May 2. She uncharacteristically led from start to finish to thump the competition in the GIII Chicago H. July 4, but should revert to off-pace tactics this afternoon. Indian Blessing is out to redeem herself off a dismal fourth against much weaker in the June 14 Desert Stormer H. at Hollywood. Granted, that event was on a synthetic track, and she is clearly a different proposition on conventional dirt. The Earnhardt homebred is two-for-two at the Spa, including a seven-length win in last year's GI Test S. Music Note was a three-time Grade I winner against her peers last year, but flattened out to finish fifth in the GI Ogden Phipps H. in her four-year-old debut June 13. She looks up against it at the trip, but should be coming late.

Rutherienne took nine of her first 11 trips to the post, but has run into some tough luck since, with just one win, one runner-up effort and seven third-place finishes to her credit. Second to Forever Together (Belong to Me) in Keeneland's GII Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 11, the Payson homebred shipped north of the border and outclassed her rivals to take the GII Nassau S. by three easy lengths May 30. She squared off with the reigning Eclipse Award-winning turf female in the GI Diana S. Aug. 1, but was steadied and void of room in the stretch, ultimately going down by three-parts of a length in third. With significant rain in the forecast, Closeout could be poised for a big effort. Winner of the 2008 GII Pucker Up S. over a soft Arlington turf, the Glen Hill runner stormed home to take the GIII Locust Grove H. on yielding going at Churchill Downs July 5. Cocoa Beach has the look of a vulnerable favorite. Despite her win in the GI Matriarch S. last November and her last-out score in the De La Rose S. at this track Aug. 5, her speed figures aren't that imposing and she might be a touch better on the dirt.

Monterey Jazz figures to show the way beneath David Flores and should be able to take this field gate to wire. One of the top milers on the left coast at his best, the dark bay defeated GISW Becrux by 3 3/4 lengths in a one-mile Hollywood allowance May 24, then flaunted his speed to post a front-running success in the GII American H. going nine panels July 4. Sent off at even-money to add the GI Eddie Read H. last time out July 25, Monterey Jazz was steadied behind the bolting Thorn Song (Unbridled's Song), got over-aggressive down the backside and weakened to fifth.

Subsequently third in the GI Woodbine Mile, the dark bay was shelved off a seventh in the GIII Kennedy Road S. on the Poly in November, returning to be last of 11 in the GIII Vigil S. May 18. He is perfect in two turf tries since, including a victory over the classy Sterwins (Cozzene) in the restricted Ontario Jockey Club S. July 18. Jungle Wave, claimed for $62,500 out of a win May 10, has won two of his three outings for his new connections, including an impressive 4 1/2-length romp in an Aug. 8 allowance prep for this affair.

The last horse to finish ahead of Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), Sara Louise makes her first start in nine months and first in the blue silks of Godolphin. Previously owned by Eldon Farm and trained by Dale Romans, the bay filly graduated second time out, then came wide and drew off to take the GIII Pocahontas S. by 3 3/4 lengths Nov. 1. She proved no match for Rachel when they met again in the GII Golden Rod S., finishing 4 3/4 lengths adrift in second. She looks fit and classy enough to take this despite extended absence. Sky Haven was an against-bias third in Monmouth allowance company June 26, but atoned for that effort with a 4 1/2-length tally in the restricted Caught in the Rain S. at Philly Park July 18. The bay could crash the exacta at a nice price.

All carry 127 pounds bar Delegator & Zacinto, 121.

Godolphin unleash their new acquisition Delegator in the race they won with Mark of Esteem (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) in 1996, Cape Cross (Ire) (Green Desert) in 1999 and Caradak (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) three years ago. Successful in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 16, the former Brian Meehan trainee ran into Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 2 before dropping to eighth in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh three weeks later. Rebounding back on a faster surface when a neck second to Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot last time June 16, he has pleased his new connections in the build-up to this comeback. "We have been patient with Delegator since he joined us and he has been working well in preparation for this race," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He shows plenty of pace in his work and he is ready to race."

He's a horse that I like a lot and I am happy with him," bin Suroor added. Like Delegator, Zacinto earned TDN Rising Star status at two but has been lightly raced subsequently when second in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September and successful on his return in the Listed Thoroughbred S. over this track and trip Aug. 1. Connections have supplemented for this test. "He has pleased with his work since that run and the plan afterwards was to go for the Celebration Mile," owner Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Lord Grimthorpe commented. "Ryan [Moore] was happy that he would be kept at a mile at the moment, but I think that we might be looking at a mile and a quarter at some stage." Also supplemented on Monday was Mac Love, who beat the subsequent Listed winner Confront (GB) (Nayef) in both the G3 Diomed S. at Epsom June 5 and G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 13 on either side of a no-show in Royal Ascot's G1 Queen Anne S. June 16. "While we don't know if he is up to the likes of Delegator, it was a good, quick time at Salisbury and it was a solid run under a penalty," trainer Stef Liddiard said. "He is in good order--he went into the Salisbury race bouncing and came out of it bouncing--and he has proven form around Goodwood. I think that he is capable of a big run."

Arc Still on Radar for Sariska...

Connections of Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) are keen on keeping to their plan of targeting the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe despite her reversal at York last week. Second to Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) when 4-11 in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks last Thursday, Lady Bamford's G1 English and Irish Oaks heroine would be tackling colts for the first time in the Oct. 4 Longchamp feature.

"We are very much targeting Arc weekend, but will keep our options until after the trials," trainer Michael Bell said. "We'll see how the Arc is shaping up, but it is very much still in our thoughts."

Leger Monitored...

Lawrie Inman's Monitor Closely (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) looks likely to take his chance in the G1 St Leger, connections announced yesterday. Successful by 4 1/2 lengths in last Tuesday's G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York, the colt will need to be supplemented for the Sept. 12 Doncaster Classic. "He worked nicely on Friday morning and we are leaning towards supplementing him for the St Leger, but much will depend on the ground remaining fast," trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam commented.

TAPIT TO COVER MARES ON SH TIME

Gainesway stallion Tapit (Pulpit--Tap Your Heels, by Unbridled) will cover mares at the Lexington, Kentucky, nursery on Southern Hemisphere time beginning Sept. 1. His fee has been set at $20,000, due when the mare is exported from the U.S. The eight-year-old stallion, who led the freshman sire list in 2008, has been represented by three Grade I winners, including champion Stardom Bound. He has 10 black-type winners to date.

IRISH CLASSICS SUFFER PURSE CUTS Horse Racing Ireland have announced that prize-money will be down for next year's domestic Classics as a result of a general cutback across the board. The Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby will decrease from €1.5 million to €1.25 million, with €75,000 taken off the Darley Irish Oaks and both the Boylesports 1000 and 2000 Guineas. "Whilst the reduced values for the Classics in 2010 are very regrettable, as are any prize-money cuts, the HRI Board has always sought to achieve the necessary savings across all areas of expenditure, and that applies to all the race categories as well, from top to bottom," HRI Chief Executive Brian Kavanagh said.

according to his twin brother and fellow rider Matthew Straight. "The doctors said it could not have gone any better," Matthew said in a statement. Michael, 23, a graduate of the North American Racing Academy, suffered spinal injuries in the incident and, according to the Daily Racing Form, fear persists that he may remain paralyzed from the waist down. "He's off the majority of sedation and we're waiting for him to come out of it on his own.

We know it's going to be a long road back and we're not going anywhere. Everybody has been so supportive with phone calls, e-mails and even Facebook messages. It hasn't gone unnoticed. Our family appreciates the support and the love. It's times like this that bring everyone together. Please keep Mike in your prayers. OAKLAWN ANNOUNCES 2010 SCHEDULE

Oaklawn's 2010 stakes schedule will be worth $4.775 million, with 10 of the 30 black-type races getting purse bumps. "We had a great live racing season, both on-track and off-track, and our Instant Racing division has performed better than ever," said David Longinotti, assistant general manager of racing. "We opened the first phase of our expanding gaming facility in May, and are on schedule to complete the second phase before opening day of the 2010 live season." Oaklawn will open its doors Jan. 15 and will run through Apr. 10. The meet's marquee event is the $1-million GII Arkansas Derby, which will anchor the Racing Festival of the South on closing day. Other major events at the Hot Springs oval are the $250,000 GIII Southwest S. Feb. 15, $300,000 GII Rebel S. Mar. 13, $300,000 GII Fantasy S. Apr. 2, $500,000 GII Oaklawn H. Future Prospect put on a fine display for Saratoga's faithful to notch an initial black-type badge. The gelding ripped off four straight in state-bred allowance and starter allowance company this spring and summer and was runner-up in his last two vs. Empire-breds, the June 27 Fratello Ed S. at Belmont and the High Rock Spring S. in the slop at Saratoga July 31. Here, the veteran hounded R Clear Victory through fast fractions of :22 4/5, :46 and 1:10 2/5. The Gold Mark colorbearer was a bit of an unknown making her dirt debut and the $150,000 KEESEP yearling was an overlooked 17-1 outsider by post time. Belying those odds from the break, she jumped out and set :22 and :45 fractions and, after hitting the 3/16ths pole up by two lengths, kept on finding more to beat East Breaks (Flatter) by 1 1/4 lengths. Tried in the restricted Vandal S. on the main track Aug. 9, he could do no better than fifth and was returning to the sod. Facing a salty group that included the Vandal winner Ghost Fleet (Arch), the 10-1 shot raced between rivals into the turn, drew off in tandem with Essence Hit Man (Speightstown), put that foe away in midstretch and edged away to win by 2 1/2 lengths. Ruhtro (Werblin) rallied for second. Ghost Fleet, making his turf debut at 3-5, tired to finish sixth, just ahead of Essence Hit Man. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $92,064.

SHOW ME THE RING (f, 2, Where's the Ring--Loupe de Grace, by Explosive Red), a C$5,700 ONTDEC weanling, was by far the longest shot on the board at 21-1 coming off a victory over $25,000 maiden claimers on the main track Aug. 26. Moving to the sod for the first time, the bay was off a step slowly and trailed the six-horse field, advanced along the inside, switched wide for the stretch run and was up to defeat Peplow (Tomahawk) by a neck. The Sam-Son homebred, off at 4-1, cabooseed the field in 11th some 10 lengths off the early leaders. Taking closer order while hugging the rail into the stretch, the colt patiently awaited room, sliced through traffic in the final furlong and got up in the shadow of the wire to deny Southern Legend (Mr. Greeley) by a neck. The homebred allowed favored Loveyouallthetime (Not For Love) to rush out and set uncontested :22 4/5 and :46 4/5 splits. Moving to challenge in upper stretch, Hollinger showed plenty of spirit to catch the pacesetter and edge away to a 1 1/4-length decision. ★ INDUSTRY INFO ★

Record Crowd at Kentucky's Horse Industry Day:

More than 11,000 people attended the Horse Industry Day held Aug. 25 at the Kentucky Horse Park. Among the events were $50,000 Rood and Riddle Grand Prix show jumping competition and World Equestrian Games demonstrations. "This is the only free day at the Horse Park all year, and it's an incredible opportunity for Kentuckians to experience everything that the Park offers," said Dr. Thomas Riddle, of Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital. "Children who would not otherwise have this chance were able to ride a pony, plus ask veterinarians questions about their profession and horse care." The event's sponsors included Shadwell Farm, Alltech, Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital, the Kentucky Thoroughbred Assoc. and KEEP.

'On-Call Stewards' Available For Upcoming Telecasts:

Racing officials will be available during upcoming horse racing telecasts to explain the rules of racing if an unusual event occurs in a race, the Racing Officials Accreditation Program announced Friday. The On Call Stewards Program will debut at the 2009 Bank of America Challenge, a Quarter Horse event, and will also be available at the 2009 Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships at Oak Tree Nov. 6-7. "The on-call steward will be non-judgmental, meaning he or she is not there to make a determination one way or another on any incident," said ROAP Chairman Stan Bowker. "Instead, the on-call steward will explain in layman's terms the nature of the incident, the applicable rules of racing and the process by which stewards determine a call as it pertains to the incident in question." The initial group of on call stewards consists of stewards Eddie Arroyo, Stan Bowker, Hugh Gallagher, Frank Lamb, Denny Oelschlager and Kim Sawyer. The program is modeled after the American Association of Equine Practitioners' On Call Veterinarian Program.

LEMAIRE TO RIDE FOR AGA KHAN Christophe Patrice Lemaire was yesterday unveiled as the new first jockey for His Highness The Aga Khan's Studs from 2010. The rider, who has risen to prominence as the number one for the Jean-Claude Rouget stable, had recently signed a one-year contract with the Niarchos Family which he will continue to honor. In a statement on the Aga Khan Studs website, the operation underlined the new agreement. "He recently signed a one-year contract with the Niarchos Family and they will have priority on his services in 2010," it read. "When the jockey is not riding for them, he will ride the Aga Khan Studs French-trained horses. Christophe Lemaire has proved himself at the highest level of his profession over recent years, following his Group 1 winning associations with Divine Proportions, Pride, Natagora and most recently, Elusive Wave, Le Havre and Stacelita. The Aga Khan Studs are looking forward to starting an association with Christophe Lemaire next year and believe this arrangement will work for them and the Niarchos Family."

SOU MILLON SPEAKS Christophe Soumillon was quick to pay respects to His Highness the Aga Khan after the news that he had lost his retainer as first jockey to the renowned owner-breeder. Tuesday's statement on the Aga Khan Studs website revealed that the decision had been made not to continue the partnership with the Belgian-born rider because of "difficult human relations." Soumillon told his own site, "Obviously, it is a hard blow which I did not expect, but I don't hold any resentments against the prince. On the contrary, he is someone who has played a significant part in building my career. He is a true sportsman, honest and has given a lot to me both on a sporting and intellectual level. Thanks to him, I have had the luck to be associated with two outstanding horses, Dalakhani and Zarkava, who have enabled me to reach the top. We have had eight brilliant years, a fruitful partnership with many victories at the highest level."

NATIVE SIDELINED Cheveley Park Stud's Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) has suffered a setback and looks likely to miss the remainder of the 2009 season. Successful on his penultimate start in the G3 King George S. at Goodwood July 30, the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Golden Jubilee S. winner was injured when sixth as favorite in last Friday's renewal of the Nunthorpe at York. "He's had a little of swelling in his fetlock again, which is under examination," the Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "It's probably too early to say, but we should know more next week. We may finish him for the season and bring him back next year. I don't think it's too serious, just wear and tear."

Urban Poet could earn a supplement for the G1 St Leger if he impresses on his first start in the Godolphin silks here. Originally with the Dubai-based operation, the $2.9 million KEESEP graduate showed during a spell with Mark Johnston that he has the potential to make his mark in decent company and was third in the G3 Gordon S. here last time July 28. Mourilyan will prove a useful yardstick, as he was second to Godolphin's Schiaparelli (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in the July 30 G2 Goodwood Cup and fourth behind their Kite Wood (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury on his latest outing Aug. 15.

Shaking off that rival after receiving a couple of cracks of Alan Munro's whip, the $125,000 KEESEP yearling and 260,000gns TATAPR juvenile drew away to record an impressive five-length success.  + AMEER (IRE) (c, 2, Monsun {Ger}--Ailette {GB}, by Second Set {Ire}) drifted up to 9-1 in the face of heavy support for 4-5 favorite Awesome Act (Awesome Again), who had chased home TDN Rising Star Al Zir (Medaglia d'Oro) here earlier in the month. Breaking well, the 205,000gns TATDEC weanling and 240,000gns TATOCT yearling raced prominently throughout the early stages and was the sole challenger to the free-running crowd's choice as that rival went to the front passing halfway. Sticking to his guns up the rail as Awesome Act ran greenly in the center of the track, Ameer ground his way to a head success in the shade of the post. "He'll stay well next year but won't want the ground too quick," Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford told Sporting Life. "Al Zir is doing well--he goes for the [G2] Champagne S. at Doncaster [Sept. 12]." Sheikh Hamdan's newcomer Mushreq (Distorted Humor), the son of the Oaks heroine Casual Look (Red Ransom), started as the 4-1 second favorite and, after traveling strongly towards the fore for a long way, faded late to finish fourth. In the forefront of the action alongside Suited and Booted (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) from the outset, the homebred quickened down the centre of the track and stayed straight all the way to the line after gaining the edge inside the final furlong. Ridden out with mainly hands and heels, he had 1 3/4 lengths to spare over that rival at the line. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute told Sporting Life, "He was a little impetuous before his first run but that did him a lot of good and he has relaxed a lot. He has a long way to go physically so we won't be too ambitious for the moment. I think he'll have one more run this year." Pekan Star (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Ahmad Sultan Shah's half-brother to the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club hero Blue Canari (Fr) (Acatenango {Ger}), traveled strongly widest of all before staying on at the one pace late on to belie his odds of 16-1 and finish fourth. SCONE BROODMARE SALE ENJOYS HIGH CLEARANCE RATE

A total of 132 mares grossed A$1,011,450 at Friday's Inglis Scone Broodmare Sale, good for an 89 percent clearance rate. The highest priced lot of the day was catalogued as hip 8, the seven-year-old Peintre Celebre mare L'Artiste (Aus), who was offered in foal to Testa Rossa (Aus). The daughter of Glittering Girl (NZ) (Marscay {Aus}) sold for A$90,000 to Michael Wallace Bloodstock of New Zealand. "The Scone Broodmare Sale has well and truly cemented its place as a permanent fixture on the annual sales calendar," Inglis Bloodstock Director Jonathan D'Arcy said. "With the excellent support from vendors, we were able to sell some lovely mares today and we had strong competition right throughout the sale, as evidenced by the high clearance rate."
