TDN Feature Presentation GRADE 1 SHADWELL TRAVERS STAKES

SARATOGA SATURDAY:

MUSIC NOTE (A. P. INDY) - G1 BALLERINA S.
CAPT. CANDYMAN CAN (CANDY RIDE) - G1 KING'S BISHOP S.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Summer Bird (Birdstone) followed in the footsteps of his sire, following up a victory in the GI Belmont S. with another in the centerpiece of the Saratoga meeting, the GI Shadwell Travers S.

Summer Bird S Serio/Eclipse Sportswire

Given another textbook ride by Kent Desormeaux, the chestnut colt was handy throughout, struck the front at the quarter pole and held sway late as Hold Me Back (Giant's Causeway) rallied into second from the back-field. Cont. p2

THE CAPT. IS KING

Two years ago to the day, Ian Wilkes found himself front and center at Saratoga, helping to prepare Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) for his score in the GI Travers S. Wilkes got a taste of Grade I success of his very own yesterday, when Joseph Rauch and David Zell's Capt. Candyman Can (Candy Ride {Arg}) was awarded the victory in the NetJets King's Bishop S. "I'll take it any way I can get it," Wilkes said. "I'm going to enjoy today. Life is good right now." With the win, Capt. Candyman Can took his record to four wins from as many starts at the difficult distance of seven furlongs. ### HITTING THE RIGHT NOTE

Godolphin's Music Note (A.P. Indy) was the recipient of a thinking-man's ride from jockey Rajiv Maragh and outstayed Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) for a relatively easy victory in the GI Ballerina S. yesterday at Saratoga. GRADE 1 SHADWELL TRAVERS S.

Summer Lovin'...

Fourth in his six-furlong bow at Oaklawn Mar. 1, Summer Bird stretched to two turns to graduate by 2 1/4 lengths Mar. 19. After rallying to be third to Papa Clem (Smart Strike) and Old Fashioned (Unbridled's Song) in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 11, the chestnut colt was an even sixth in the May 2 GI Kentucky Derby and followed in his daddy's hoofprints by coming from ninth to post an 11-1 upset with blinkers and Kent Desormeaux added in the GI Belmont S. June 6. The colt made a brief re-appearance at trainer Tim Ice's base at Louisiana Downs before shipping early to Monmouth Park to prepare for the GI Haskell Invitational S. Aug. 2. Ridden more forwardly by Kent Desormeaux, a tactic borne mostly out of necessity, Summer Bird gave an excellent account of himself, finishing closest to Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro). The absence of Derby hero Mine That Bird (Birdstone) and the superfilly deprived the Midsummer Derby of some of its luster, but the presence of favored Quality Road (Elusive Quality) and GII Jim Dandy S. hero Kensei (Mr. Greeley) made the Travers an interesting affair all the same.

'Meaux Magic...

As expected, longshot Our Edge (The Cliff's Edge) showed the most early speed in advance of Quality Road, but, again, Summer Bird was handier than is his custom while racing three deep. When the overmatched pacesetter spit the bit approaching the far turn, it was Kensei who inherited the lead, but he was forced to deal immediately with Summer Bird. The Belmont hero swept boldly to the front as the field reached the quarter pole, and he pinched a two-length break at the eighth pole before edging further clear. Hold Me Back, a bit slow into stride, rallied nicely for second, while Quality Road held for third in a commendable performance. What has made the difference in the colt's development? "I think the rider change helped a bunch, and the blinkers helped," Ice commented. "The more races he runs, I think he's going to get better. For this race...it was just a matter of getting the right trip and the way he handled the track. Winning this race means as much as winning the Belmont. I can't say that I feel better about either one. For my colt to win the Belmont and come back and win the Travers, like his sire, Birdstone, and be the 30th horse to come out of the Belmont and win the Travers means a lot." Capt. Candyman Can, winner of the GII Hutcheson S. at his pet distance Jan. 30, ran fourth in the GII Fountain of Youth S. at a flat mile and was removed from the Kentucky Derby trail. Returned to seven-eighths of a mile, he added scores in the GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 4 and the May 16 Matt Winn S. at Churchill. He was runner-up to Quality Road (Elusive Quality) in that one's record-setting GII Amsterdam S. win Aug. 3, but offered excellent value here. Ridden along as Vineyard Haven showed the way up front, Capt. Candyman Can swung into action in upper stretch and looked poised to go by the Godolphin runner. Vineyard Haven drifted out several paths off the fence and bumped with the eventual runner-up, who was justifiably awarded the win upon stewards' review. Without the bump, he would definitely have pulled away to win," winning rider Javier Castellano offered. "It was very obvious. You can see my horse was going to go by the other horse."

Also Ran: P. S. U. Grad, Tar Heel Mom. Scr: Modification.

Music Note went on a four-race tear last year, including wins in the GI Mother Goose S. and an 11-length romp in the GI CCA Oaks, then was outgamed by Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) by a head in this track's GI Alabama S. Much the best in the GI Gazelle S. Sept. 13, she closed the year with a third to Zenyatta in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic. She flattened out to be fifth in the GI Ogden Phipps H. in her 2009 debut June 13 and was lightly regarded in this shorter test. Third early as Informed Decision surprisingly alternated with Indian Blessing, Music Note seized upon an opening at the fence to lead right at the half-mile pole. She dueled heads apart into the stretch with the Baffert runner, then called upon her superior stamina to draw off late. "It was very fortunate that she took me there," Maragh said of the move entering the far turn. "She got me there on her own will. I think that was to our advantage at that point where we weren't eight or nine lengths out of it. When I saw Indian Blessing come alongside of us at the top of the stretch, my filly just started sprinting away."

Unglaublich! That's unbelievable auf Deutsch and that's what the vast majority of the crowd had to say following the Ballston Spa. A maiden winner at first asking, Salve Germania had been shut out in her last seven outings, with a single minor placing to her credit in German Group 3 company last October. She was most recently fourth in a July 4 listed event at Hamburg, and this seemed a bit too tall of a task. A handful in the paddock and pre-start, Salve Germania raced towards the back of the field behind a slow pace. She still had plenty to do in the lane, but was switched around the heels of My Princess Jess and finished fast to hand Rutherienne a tough-luck loss.

Jungle Wave, beaten just a half-length in the Ocean-side S. at Del Mar last summer, was risked for a $62,500 tag in his seasonal debut at Woodbine May 10 and was duly claimed by Tucci Stables out of a race he won by a half-length. He came back to make it two straight in an C$80,000 optional claimer June 26 and was second in the C$150,000 Bold Venture S. on the main track July 19, then romped by 4 1/2 lengths in a lucrative allowance race Aug. 8. Favored in his return to stakes competition, the bay dueled with Cross Every Bridge (Giant's Causeway) through a half in :45.80, put away that foe in upper stretch and held sway as Field Commission gave game chase. "When you claim a horse for $62,500, you hope he's going to win for $80,000," offered trainer Sid Attard. "It's a bonus to get this good." Next up for the gelding could be the $1-million GI Woodbine Mile

Sept. 20. "I said to Sid, 'I don't want to get too high on this horse, but you might have a Mile horse here,'" said winning jockey Todd Kabel. He was acquired by Godolphin after bouncing back to claim the runner-up spot in the June 16 G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, and justified the transfer out of Brian Meehan's stable with this emphatic victory. Positioned third along the rail for the most part, he eased outside for his bid with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and exhibited a telling burst of acceleration 100 yards from the line to settle the contest in an instant. "They went slow and then I was boxed in, but he showed a tremendous turn of foot and won like we thought he would," said winning rider Frankie Dettori. "He's a proper horse and I was quite taken by the way he picked up. It was nice for him to get some confidence back today, and it's all systems go for the [G1] Queen Elizabeth II S. [at Ascot Sept. 26] now." According to Daily Racing Form, the GI Breeders' Cup Mile is the main objective for Delegator, who will remain in training next year.

Making her first appearance in Godolphin blue, Sara Louise asserted inside the final half-furlong to outclass this field in her sophomore debut. Previously owned by Eldon Farm and trained by Dale Romans, the expensive juvenile purchase broke her maiden at second asking at Belmont Sept. 21, then earned the distinction of being the last horse to defeat Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), taking the Gill Pocahontas S. by 3 3/4 lengths Nov. 1. The second favorite--with Rachel the third betting choice--in the Gill Golden Rod S. four weeks later, the bay failed to reel in the subsequent four-time Grade I winner and settled for second. Acquired privately by Sheikh Mohammed's operation, Sara Louise was narrowly favored here and rewarded her backers with a professional score. Content to race in midpack early as Bold Union and Juliet's Spirit locked horns up front, Sara Louise raced three deep on the turn, drew alongside the dueling front-runners approaching midstretch and edged away late. "I was waiting and waiting and at the top of the stretch, when I finally let her loose she had a nice kick in her," said winning jockey Edgar Prado. "It was a good pace. I was biding my time and waiting to cut her loose. I knew even with that fast pace, she could kick it in and finish strong." As for the prospects of a rematch with Rachel Alexandra, trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "We'll have to wait on [the possibility of another meeting with Rachel Alexandra]. She's in a different class now. Our filly beat her before. We'll have to wait until the right time." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Campanologist, one of a clutch of performers at the ready to win group races for Godolphin, produced another solid display to register a second such success. Last in the winner's spot when beating Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot 2008, the bay was runner-up in the G2 Hardwicke S. at that meeting June 20. Disappointing when beating only one home in Newmarket's G2 Princess of Wales's S. July 9, he rebounded with a latest second to Jukebox Jury (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G3 Rose of Lancaster S. at Haydock Aug. 8. He settled in fifth off the furious early fractions, but was in front as the pace collapsed passing the furlong pole and stayed on gamely to hold the closing effort of Bankable, providing Godolphin with a sixth success in this race in the process. "He's very solid and has been knocking on the door, so this was a good opportunity for him to get a bit of confidence," winning rider Frankie Dettori commented. "I had the race covered from a furlong out and I always had something in hand if I needed it." Click for the Racing Post chart or the TVG.com PPs. Video courtesy attheraces.

Wiesenpfad, successful in this contest in 2007 and third last year, rebounded from a latest fifth in the G3 Badener Meile here May 17 to roll back the years. Held up in mid-division throughout the early stages, the chestnut made his move on the turn and after taking over inside the final furlong stretched away from Walzertraum on the run to the line. Trainer Waldemar Hickst said, "He just loves Baden Baden. He had an infection, but has come through and had worked very well last time. There are not many horses good enough to still win group races at six years of age, and today he really showed his class." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Sent From Heaven recorded a smooth debut success on Kempton's Polytrack July 15 before finishing third behind today's G1 Moyglare Stud S. contender Long Lashes (Rock Hard Ten) in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket last time Aug. 8. Benefitting from positive tactics here, the bay was keen after being sent to the lead early, but had enough in reserve to kick decisively inside the final three furlongs and hold on as Mudaarah lunged late. "Michael Hills, who rode her at Newmarket last time, felt he should have made more use of her and she is bred to get the trip, so the plan was to jump out and make the running," jockey Robert Winston explained. "She is very weak, long and leggy, but is a beautiful filly in the making for next season. She had to go and do it the hard way, and possibly the track didn't suit as she started wandering around a bit, and I had to work to keep her balanced. If she had been behind and got a bump it would have spoilt her chance, so being in front suited her here." The winner's connections are looking at the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot Sept. 26 or G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket Oct. 17. Click for the Racing Post chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Lonhro won eight from 10 outings en route to the first of a dozen Group 1 victories, and Denman is emulating his sire, recording his fifth consecutive win from six starts and opening his Group 1 account with a decisive score here. Trainer Peter Snowden enjoyed a close association with Lonhro as he was long-time stable foreman for the Woodlands empire, and he is confident the homebred has talent to continue his upward spiral. Denman--named after the Upper Hunter Valley township nearest to the farm now owned by Darley--was beaten on debut Dec. 13 when an unlucky third, but the elegant dark bay resumed to win a modest country maiden event June 13 before repeating the dose at Flemington a fortnight later, and again at Sandown July 11. Sent north and freshened, the colt quickened smartly to win the G3 Run to the Roses at this track Aug. 15 before again coming from midfield to win by 1 3/4 lengths here. "I was frighteningly confident," Snowden revealed. "I've been waking up at 2 a.m. all week just waiting for the alarm to go off. There's still more to come from him--he's a seriously talented horse. It's just great to have this one on the board, for the whole team and for Lonhro. They are a lot alike physically, although Denman still has a long way to go to equal his father." 8 With Flying Colors	A.P. Indy	Prado	Pletcher	20-1

Until she took an off-the-turf renewal of the GIII New York S. at Belmont Park June 20, Icon Project had never visited the main track in the afternoon. Blessed of a pedigree to handle any surface, she took to the mud with aplomb, strolling home 13 1/4 lengths ahead of Criticism (GB) (Machiavellian). That effort earned her a spot in the $1-million GII Delaware H. July 19, and she ran with credit to finish a clear second behind the pace-setting Swift Temper. The consistent Miss Isella defeated the latter in their two most recent head-to-head battles, taking the May 1 GII Louisville Distaff S., where Swift Temper was third, prior to scoring by 3/4 of a length over her rival in the GII Fleur de Lis H. beneath the Twin Spires June 13. Third in this event last year, Unbridled Belle defended her title in the June 20 GIII Obeah H. at Delaware by some 11 lengths before checking in third in the Del 'Cap.

6	1	Termagant (Ire)	Powerscourt (GB)	K Prndrgst	McDonogh
7	4	Wrong Answer (GB)	Verglas (Ire)	K Prndrgst	Hayes

All carry 124 pounds.

Lillie Langtry is out to extend the record of Aidan O'Brien, who has sent out four winners of this since the turn of the century. Off the mark in the G3 Coolmore Stud Fillies' Sprint S. at Naas June 1, she was runner-up to Habaayib (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot 18 days later and returned from a break to record a smooth success in the G2 Debutante S. at Leopardstown last time Aug. 6. Heading the opposition is ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Long Lashes, whose presence ensures an old-fashioned Ballydoyle-Godolphin stand-off. Purchased after her debut success in the Listed Ballygallon Stud S. over a furlong shorter here June 26, she doubled her tally in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket last time Aug. 8 and connections are confident she can handle this company. "Long Lashes won her last race in good style and she came out of the race very well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "She has been pleasing me with her work, and deserves to take the step up in class. It looks like it will be a tough race, but she has won at the course before and goes into the race in good order. I am hopeful that she can run well." Termagant also achieved ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status when beating the subsequent G3 Silver Flash S. winner Cabaret (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on debut at Leopardstown June 11 and, along with the Listed Marble Hill S. heroine Wrong Answer, provides a two-pronged attack by Kevin Prendergast. "The going is very testing, and I think Wrong Answer will have the better chance in the ground," Prendergast told PA Sport. "The other one is a good-ground filly, but we are going to let her take her chance. If she handles the conditions, she will go very well." Gile Na Greine should not be ignored from the Jim Bolger stable after registering a success on her first outing over course and distance a fortnight ago.

Runner-up to Serious Attitude (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) in the G3 Summer S. at York July 10, she put in another high-class effort when third behind King's Apostle (Ire) (King's Best) in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville last time Aug. 9. Group 1-winning sprinter War Artist has been plagued by injury since being transferred to James Eustace's barn in Newmarket, but was second in last year's G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot and third in the following month's G1 July Cup at Newmarket. Only out twice subsequently, the six-year-old was fourth in the July 18 G3 Hackwood S. at Newbury before filling the same place in a Doncaster conditions event last time Aug. 1. Smooth Operator may be the best of the home team, having recorded his finest efforts in France when taking the G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly in October, G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte the following month and G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot at Longchamp June 22.

percent of their purse earnings from the race to establish a fund for 23-year-old apprentice jockey Michael Straight, who suffered severe spinal injuries in a fall at Arlington Park Wednesday. The fund will be set up through the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, whose mission is to assist injured and disabled riders. "This was an easy decision," said John Velazquez, chairman of the Jockeys' Guild and rider of third-place finisher Quality Road (Elusive Quality). "What happened to Michael is a tragedy and we want to do whatever we can to help support him and his family during this difficult time." In addition to Desormeaux and Velazquez, the other riders in the Travers were: Julien Lejaroux, on runner-up Hold Me Back (Giant's Causeway), Ramon Dominguez, Calvin Borel, Alan Garcia, and Edgar Prado. "Our family is overwhelmed by the outpouring of support from the industry," said Matthew Straight, Michael's twin brother, also a jockey. "We are so grateful and appreciative. We need to all stay positive and keep praying." Michael Straight underwent spinal surgery at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge, Illinois Thursday, when doctors inserted a flexible rod to stabilize the spine. The Jockeys' Guild is making plans to put together a national effort to support Michael and his family at next Saturday's races across the country. Details will be released as soon as plans are finalized. Donations to the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockeys Fund, earmarked for Michael Straight should be sent to P.O. Box 18470/Encino, CA 91416. Off as the 2-1 favorite, the bay broke a step slowly before she rushed up to press the pace in third. Angled three wide at the quarter pole to launch her stretch bid, she quickly took authority before drawing clear under urging to score by 4 3/4 lengths. Katy Now (Tiznow), sixth early, closed late to nab second. Cast Call (A.P. Indy) was scratched. The winner was a $110,000 KEESEP yearling who RNA'd for $400,000 at this year's FTFFEB sale. Fager S. Aug. 8. Heavily favored in this five-horse field, the liver chestnut was on the rail early, but eased back to make his move on the outside turning for home. Though he needed to work hard to put away pacesetter Mr. Green, the result was never really in doubt as he secured his third straight black-type trophy. "He'll give you a cardiac attack sometimes the way he makes that big move up to the leader, but then just inches away like he knows where the finish line is," admitted winning trainer Stanley Gold. "You always have to be concerned when a horse gets loose on the lead. In today's race, we were concerned about Mr. Green in front, but you just have to rely on your rider to decide where to be." Jackson Bend is now in a position to become the seventh horse to sweep all three elements of the Florida Stallion Stakes Series at Calder. Gold added, "The first two legs of the series [Dr. Fager and Affirmed] are a little close together, so we'll probably just train him up to the final [In Reality S. Oct. 17]."

Wave Me By, third and then fourth in $40,000 maiden claimers June 21 and July 10, respectively, entered this off a win against $32,000 maidens Aug. 9. The gelding, making his two-turn and stakes bow, was back in the early going as 30-1 shot Abdel's Ghost (Black Mambo) and 1-2 Hear Ye Hear Ye (Hear No Evil) sped out to a sizeable lead. The field began to close in on the far turn, and by the time the straightened for home, Wave Me By had hit the front en route to a driving open-lengths tally. The chalk faded to fourth. Winning trainer Kathleen O'Connell said, "He's eligible for the [Florida] Stallion S., but we wanted to try him two turns today. Ultimately, he may be better on turf; he's out of a Theatrical mare. He acts like he can run all day. But he's still babyish; you could see that today coming down the lane. Miss Delite broke her maiden at first asking sprinting 4 1/2 panels at Calder May 28 and quickly added an allowance score June 19. Well-beaten when second to Dashing Debby (Medaglia d'Oro) in the J.J.'s Dream S. July 11, she was a 3-1 chance here to take down a first black-type win while switching to the lawn. Hugging the hedge in mid-pack, she switched wide turning for home and gamely chased down the free-wheelin' Winey Taylor before drawing clear. Winning breeder Jorge Tabraue said, "I missed a Stallion Stakes payment, so she wasn't eligible for the Susan's Girl. She's a nice filly. The only horse to beat her [Dashing Debby], they sold for $2 million. I might take a lot less for this one. We'll point her for the mile and 70 [yards] race [$75,000 Brave Raj S. on Sept. 18]. If she does good there, maybe we'll think about the Breeders' Cup. She's eligible for that." Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Kid Kate rallied from ninth to break her maiden in an off the turfer at Saratoga July 31, and was favored to win her black-type debut here. Settled in fifth for most of the way, Kid Kate launched her bid entering the far turn, struck the front at the top of the straight and drew off to take it comfortably. "I was happy to just sit with her early on and let her settle," jockey Elvis Trujillo said. "At the three-eighths pole, I urged her a little and then turning for home, I asked her and she took off."
