CITY ZIP - LEADING 2009 JUVENILE SIRE
SIRE OF CANADIAN BALLET WHO WON A STAKES
AT SARATOGA ON WED. NOW 6 WINS, $359,202.

CAN ANYONE STOP THE REIGN?

Win the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Mother Goose S. by a combined 39 1/2 lengths? Check. Beat sophomore males in a Classic off 15 days' rest? Been there, done that. Go for an encore in the GI Haskell Invitational and earn a career-best speed figure in the process? Yup. OK, so, what else is Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) capable of? The racing public will find out whether she is up to the task of besting older males when she takes on a solid, if not spectacular, bunch in today's GI Woodward S. at Saratoga. Nonetheless, she can only beat what lines up alongside her, and trainer Steve Asmussen is ready for more history. "I think this falls in line with everything she's accomplished," he told Daily Racing Form. "Let's hope it's another significant accomplishment on a very impressive resume." Those unwilling to accept her short odds will point to her penchant for being on or near the pace in all her starts in 2009. True though that is, she has shown the ability to rate in several of her outings, including the Mother Goose, where Calvin Borel wisely eased her back and made a run at his two rivals approaching the stretch. Perhaps the only thing that can stand in the way of an eighth straight victory this season is the Saratoga surface itself, and there are a few horses for this course. Macho Again (Macho Uno) won the Gil Jim Dandy S. at the Spa last summer and prepped with a runner-up effort behind the upstart Bullsbay (Tiznow) in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 8. Past the Point (Indian Charlie) posted a career-best when runner-up to Curlin (Smart Strike) in this race 12 months ago, but will need at least that kind of effort to factor here.

WILL WE SEA THE STARS?

Last year's G1 Tattersalls Millions Irish Champion S. was in the lap of the gods up to the last hours due to the inclement weather, and 12 months on, the seemingly endless rain has played a large part again in leaving the participation of Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) hanging in the balance. While there are no fears of postponement of Leopardstown's card, the weather needs to be kind for European racing's biggest draw to line up for the first time in his native country since winning the G2 Beresford S. at The Curragh last September. Since that day, the exploits of Christopher Tsui's homebred have left onlookers wondering if anything is beyond his capabilities. Ground softer than good may be his Achilles' heel, as he had conditions in his favor when conquering the mile of the May 2 G1 2000 Guineas, 1 1/2-miles of the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby and 10 furlongs of both the July 4 G1 Eclipse S. and Aug. 18 G1 Juddmonte International S. Jockey Mick Kinane, who has ridden six winners of this contest, was in a bullish mood yesterday when telling PA Sport, "Obviously, we want to run him, so we're leaving it as late as we can before making a decision to give it every chance. We had a dry night and have had a dry day, so we have to hope the track continues to dry and the showers stay away." Horse Racing Ireland issued a bulletin late yesterday afternoon, saying that Oxx had walked the course and calls Sea the Stars a "likely runner" this afternoon. Cont. p2

Ballydoyle have garnered five editions of this since 2000 and are represented by two live chances at toppling Sea the Stars in Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). With two Classics and five Group 1 wins between them, the duo form a formidable arsenal along with their trio of stable companions, which include the May 24 G3 Gallinule S. hero Grand Ducal (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

Mastercraftsman Horsephotos

Johnny Murtagh has pinned his colors to the mast of Fame and Glory, who was 1 3/4 lengths second in Epsom's Blue Riband before taking apart his opponents in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh June 28. He has winning experience of this course and distance after capturing the Apr. 19 G3 Ballysax S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial S. and will have every assistance from this year's May 23 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and June 16 G1 St James's Palace S. hero Mastercraftsman, who was a half-length behind Sea the Stars in York's International last time. "Fame and Glory had a good break since the Curragh, and we've been happy with him since," Aidan O'Brien said. "We never thought a mile and a quarter would be a problem, and we felt that Epsom was a bit inconclusive because of the muddling pace. He has plenty of speed, is a great traveler and is tactically quick early. Sea the Stars is a top horse on fast ground, and we would love ground at Leopardstown that is a level playing field for all. Mastercraftsman was a little bit on the heavy side at York, and Johnny [Murtagh] felt he got a little bit tired in the last 50 yards and it will be interesting to see how much he progresses. He has a big cruising speed and is very solid." Moyglare Stud's Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) will make sure this is not a straight John Oxx-Aidan O'Brien fight, as he brings top-level form to the table having won the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup by 5 1/2 lengths over 1 5/16 miles at The Curragh May 24. He enjoyed a smooth warm-up for this when taking the G2 Royal Whip S. back at that track last time Aug. 16, and the Stud's Manager Stan Cosgrove told PA Sport, "It's obviously difficult giving weight away to the three-year-olds, but I think the ground will be fine for him. We'll take them on and see how it goes, but our horse deserves another crack at a Group 1. It's great to be involved in a race like this."

Kodiak Kowboy makes his third start off a little freshening as he tries to take this second of the New York circuit's three Grade I sprint tests. Runner-up in the Duncan F. Kenner S. in his seasonal debut at the Fair Grounds Mar. 14, the bay, victorious in this track's GII Amsterdam S. in 2008, got up to best Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike) by a head in the GI Carter H. Apr. 4. Seventh in a sloppy renewal of the GII Churchill Downs S. May 2, he steamrolled the field in the Donald LeVine Memorial H. at Philly Park June 27 and most recently split the field when third in the GII A. G. Vanderbilt H. at this venue Aug. 9. He gets his preferred seven-eighths of a mile today. The last time Ready's Echo tried a sprint distance, he was a visually impressive winner of a seven-furlong Keeneland allowance Apr. 18. Seventh in the GI Met Mile May 25 and fifth in the GII Suburban H. over 10 panels July 4, he exits a runner-up effort in the 8 1/2 furlong GIII Seagram Cup S. at Woodbine Aug. 3. Trainer Todd Pletcher adds blinkers and reaches out for jockey Calvin Borel. That is due to the fact that the stable's main rider, John Velazquez, partners Pyro this afternoon. A three-time graded stakes winner at three, the dark bay was sixth in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Oct. 25. Off nine months, he made a favorable impression in his Godolphin debut, finishing a half-length second to Gold Trippi in the James Marvin overnight stakes July 29.

When you spend $1.7 million for a weanling filly, this is what you hope for. Connections of Mi Sueno went to that lofty figure to buy out their partners and assume full ownership of the daughter of GISW Madcap Escapade (Hennessy) at the 2007 Keeneland November sale and she'll be the one they're all gunning for this afternoon. Runner-up on debut to Necessary Evil at Hollywood Park May 31, the strapping bay was beaten into second at odds-on in a July 9 affair at the Inglewood oval. Mi Sueno was dismissed at 8-1 for the Aug. 7 GIII Sorrento S. at this track, but swooped into the stretch and overwhelmed the field, besting Necessary

Evil by 6 1/2 lengths. The effervescent trainer Eric Guillot is not short on confidence heading into this Grade I test. "Mi Sueno breathes different air than the other fillies," he told Daily Racing Form. "If a Grade I win didn't give her so much value, I'd run her against the boys." The participation of speedster stablemate Champagne d'Oro is still uncertain, pending the results of a split-sample drug test from her maiden win Aug. 9. As a safety net, she has been supplemented for $10,000 to Monday's GI Del Mar Futurity. Those shopping for a live alternative could do worse than Blind Luck, supplemented to this for $10,000 and who is liable to drift up from her morning-line odds. An impressive 13 1/4-length winner against $40,000 maidens at Calder June 21, the chestnut caught the eye of trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, who purchased the $11,000 yearling for a six-figure pricetag. Connections took advantage of an early-meet starter allowance July 29 and, despite missing the break by several lengths, was ridden out to score by 3 1/4 lengths with something left in the tank. On the negative side, she was ridden that afternoon by leading rider Joel Rosario, who has decided to stick with Necessary Evil. Rafael Bejarano seems a more-than-capable stand-

Fleeting Spirit had Main Aim and J J the Jet Plane

1 1/4 lengths and a half-length back in second and third when annexing the G1 July Cup at Newmarket on her latest outing and will renew rivalry as long as the Merseyside venue evades any further rain. The form of that July 10 highlight was made to look even better after the fourth Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) was second in the G1 Sussex S. and fifth King's Apostle (Ire) (King's Best) took the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest. "She will run if the ground is good or faster," trainer Jeremy Nosedata said. "We would not run if the ground was to come up soft. Ideally, I could have done with another two weeks preparation for this, as she has suffered a couple of setbacks since her win in the July Cup. However, I have been delighted with her work and feel with a bit of luck, she can run well." Main Aim, who took the G3 John of Gaunt S. over seven furlongs here May 30, would appreciate any give in the ground, but needs to put a disappointing latest eighth in Goodwood's G2 Lennox S. behind him. That also applies to J J the Jet Plane, who was seventh in that seven-furlong July 28 contest. "J J worked exceptionally well on Tuesday morning and he seems in really good form," his new trainer Richard Hannon commented. "His July Cup run puts him right there and, though his best form has been on decent ground, the straight course at Haydock is supposedly not nearly as soft as the rest of the track." Kieren Fallon looks for a dream comeback Group 1 win on High Standing, who followed a fluent success in the June 20 Wokingham H. at Royal Ascot with an even more impressive score in the G3 Hackwood S. at Newbury last time July 18. Trainer William Haggas said, "The horse is going the right way and, with the possible exception of Fleeting Spirit, the race is wide-open. He's a quirky devil, but he has a turn of foot which is a real asset in these type of races."

8	2	Totally Devoted	Seeking the Gold	A O'Brien	O'Donoghue	124

Heaven Sent seeks an elusive first Group 1 win here, having knocked on the door at this level handful of times. Only a half-length from upsetting the top-notch Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) when second to the French raider in Newmarket's G1 Falmouth S. July 8, the homebred found the ground too soft when only seventh in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 1.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Rainbow View has yet to add to her tally of juvenile successes this term, but was a respectable latest 2 1/4-lengths second to Middy (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the aforementioned Nassau. "Her run at Goodwood was probably her best run of the year. The winner, Middy, is obviously a very smart filly, as she was only just beaten in an Oaks," rider Jimmy Fortune told PA Sport. "My filly has been very consistent all year, without getting her head in front, and the drop back to a mile shouldn't be a problem--as long as the ground doesn't quicken up too much. We're putting the cheekpieces on her and they are just to help her concentrate, as she's maybe lacking a little in that department. Her work at home is fantastic and is certainly as good as it was when she was a two-year-old, but she has been a little bit disappointing." Again returns to the track after her disappointing seventh in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. June 19, and the May 24 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner may have had excuses there. "Like most of my horses, she was not right in the middle of the summer, but they are coming back to themselves now," trainer David Wachman told PA Sport. "She has won on all sorts of going, so I don't see the ground being a problem." Mad About You is another bidding to rebound off a below-par effort when only seventh in the Aug. 8 GI Beverly D S. at Arlington. Moyglare Stud's Stan Cosgrove told PA Sport, "She had a bit of a bad trip to America, but she seems in good form again now. Cut in the ground suits her well, so we have to take them on and see what happens."

The well-travelled Western Smoke visits his fifth racetrack in his sixth career start. The grey broke his maiden at Keeneland Apr. 16 and was fourth in the GIII Kentucky Juvenile S. at Churchill two weeks later. Second by a neck in an allowance under the Twin Spires June 11, he then shipped to Iowa to take the July 18 Prairie Gold Juvenile S. by 6 3/4 lengths and added a 12 1/2-length romp in the Aug. 15 Charles Town Juvenile S. last time out. Not Macho Any More came from just off the pace to earn his maiden win at first asking at Belmont July 16. He has been working sharply at Saratoga for his second outing. El Rocco, a debut winner at Philly Park July 7, ran second by a half-length in the Tyro S. at Monmouth Park July 26. His trainer, Bruce Levine, is firing at a 34-percent win rate at the Monmouth meet.

Dixie Band broke his maiden at first asking June 21 going 4 1/2 furlongs at Arlington, and came back to post a rallying 1 1/2-length tally over U Appeal to Me in the Aug. 8 Spectacular Bid S. at seven panels. The bay should have no trouble handling the added eighth here.

Oak Motte was runner-up in his July 5 bow at Arlington; the winner that afternoon, Prince Rooney (Tale of the Cat), followed up with a 15-length score in the Aug. 1 Mountaineer Juvenile S. and is the morning-line favorite for Monday's GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at Saratoga. Oak Motte graduated going three-quarters next time out Aug. 8, and should prove capable of handling the step up in class and trip.

Tiz Miz Sue was beaten on the bob in her career opener at Arlington July 18, but galloped away to a 7 3/4-length graduation going six furlongs at the Illinois oval Aug. 9. The mile of this test should be well within her scope. She Be Wild was offered up for a $40,000 tag in her debut over this track May 30, but she went home with her original connections after posting a 7 1/4-length tally. The dark bay punched her ticket to the black-type ranks with the effort, and handled the rise in class, taking the Aug. 8 Top Flight S. by 5 1/4 lengths. She will be the heavy chalk here. Attempt to Name bled when third over the local all-weather July 4. Adding Lasix Aug. 9, the chestnut turned it around to win by two lengths.

Winner of her first four career starts at Turf Paradise by a combined 50 3/4 lengths, Carlsbad sought out some bigger fish to fry and was successful in her first California venture, the Mar. 29 GIII Santa Paula S. at

Carlsbad Charles Pravata

Santa Anita. Runner-up in the GIII Railbird S. at Hollywood Park May 10, she stretched out to two turns for the second time in her career to post a half-length score in the GII Hollywood Oaks June 7. With few options at hand, the homebred tried the turf in the GII San Clemente H.

Aug. 1, but the filly turned in the first subpar effort of her life, weakening to finish fifth. Back to her best game for this, Carlsbad stalked Moon de French (Malibu Moon) through an easy opening quarter-mile in :22.99, then turned up the heat on that rival on the turn. She eased by that one approaching the lane and turned on the afterburners in a convincing performance. A Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" event, Carlsbad is not nominated to the series and would have to be supplemented.

Stabled since late spring up at Saratoga, Interactif was sent back down to Monmouth Park for his five-furlong debut over the main track July 5 and validated that decision, hanging on by a head after leading throughout. That effort earned the homebred a spot in the gate for the Gil Sanford S. July 30, but he was overmatched by the likes of Backtalk (Smarty Jones) and beat just one horse home in eighth. Stretching out and switching to the infield off a solid breeze over the turf training track Aug. 28, the colt was dismissed at over two times his morning line of 6-1. Settled in the latter third of the field as they raced into the clubhouse turn, Interactif was asked for a burst of speed up the backstretch, which saw him draw from 11 lengths out of it to within two lengths of the lead entering the final bend. Three wide into the stretch, Interactif punched in impressively leaving the eighth pole and drew clear. "He gave me a serious ride," said winning jockey Kent Desormeaux. "When I asked him to run, he exploded. He was just floating along the course. His ears were up and he was focused. He was watching where he was going and paying attention to what was in front of him." The Wertheimer brothers acquired Broad Pennant for $675,000 at the 2000 Keeneland November sale carrying a foal by Wild Again. They offered the mare with this colt in utero at KEENOV in 2006, but bought her back on a bid of $375,000. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Fifth in the June 16 Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot in his black-type bow, Hearts of Fire ran second in the July 17 Listed Rose Bowl S. at Newbury, and registered a personal best with a victory in the Listed Prix Francois Boutin at Deauville last time Aug. 16. Positioned in a stalking fourth along the rail from the break, he was shaken up off the home turn approaching the final eighth and easily asserted under negligible encouragement to provide trainer Pat Eddery with a first group-race success. "It's my first Group winner [as a trainer] and I'm very happy to have achieved it in Germany," Eddery said. "It's great for the horse, the jockey and the owners. Hearts of Fire is amazing as he's been on the go since Doncaster in March. He's a very relaxed horse and takes his racing very well." Click for the Racing Post chart.

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

DESERT PRINCE FILLY TOPS FIRST SESSION In the absence of any major fireworks, it was a daughter of Desert Prince (Ire) who provided the main focus when selling for €61,000 during the opening session of BBAG's Yearling Sale. Hip 60, already named Montenegro (Ger), is out of a half to the listed-winning Mosella (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}), whose progeny include the great sire Monsun (Ger). Gestut Isarland consigned the April-foaled filly, whose page also features the likes of Moonlady (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) and Mystic Lips (Ger) (Generous {Ire}). She was knocked down to Jurgen Albrecht, who was acting on behalf of R & B International. Eleven lots later, Stall le Vite secured the evening's top-priced colt, paying €58,000 for Gestut Brummerhof's full-brother to the 2006 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden victor Prince Flori (Ger), while Stall Reckendorf paid €55,000 for Hip 79, a son of Tiger Hill (Ire). Hailing from the draft of Gestut Wittekindshof, he is a son of the dual group scorer Saldenschwinge (Ger) (In the Wings {GB}), and his sire has also been responsible for the fellow group winner Saldentigerin (Ger). That price was matched by BBA Germany for Gestut Elsetal's Hip 43, a daughter of Big Shuffle who is a full-sister to the Group winners Konig Shuffle (Ger) (Big Shuffle) and Konig Turf (Ger) (Big Shuffle). BBAG's Managing Director Carola Ortlieb said, "In spite of our hopes not being too high, we were still somewhat disappointed, especially as the interest seemed great. We now hope for tomorrow and also for more realistic pricing ideas from the vendors." Selling continues today at 10 a.m. Full results can be viewed at www.bbag-sales.de.

MAGNA PULLS SANTA ANITA, LONE STAR FROM TUESDAY AUCTION

According to documents filed in U.S. Bankruptcy Court and as reported by Daily Racing Form, officials at the bankrupt Magna Entertainment Corp. have decided to withdraw Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, California, and Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie, Texas, as well as a handful of other assets, from an auction which was scheduled for this coming Tuesday. That decision leaves just two Magna properties in the auction: Remington Park, in Oklahoma City; and Thistledown near Cleveland, Ohio. Magna has reportedly received an offer in the amount of $82.25 million for Remington from the Chickasaw Nation, a Native American tribe with other gambling interests in the state. The company hopes to attract offers for Thistledown now that the track has been authorized for the addition of slot machines. Magna, which owes a reported $371 million to its parent company, sought to auction off its properties in an attempt to pay down its debt. The withdrawal of Santa Anita and Lone Star is affirmation that no significant offer was received for either property. Magna paid a combined $225 million for the two tracks. Thursday evening it was announced that the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) had formed a non-profit California public benefit corporation called the Thoroughbred Racing Association of California (TRAC), established with the sole purpose of acquiring and operating the assets of Santa Anita Park and Golden Gate Fields to ensure that Thoroughbred racing in the state is preserved in "perpetuity." Commented Arnold Zetcher, the chairperson of TRAC's acquisition committee, "We are trying to do what's right, both for Thoroughbred racing in southern California and for the employees of Santa Anita Park. We believe that acquiring Santa Anita Park is a unique opportunity to preserve the vibrancy and character of Thoroughbred racing in the State of California."

JOCKEYS RALLY AROUND INJURED STRAIGHT

Jockeys across the nation have been asked to donate one mount fee Saturday to the Don MacBeth Memorial Fund in support of critically injured apprentice Michael Straight. Riders will also be sporting two patches on their boots, one in honor of Straight and the other for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund. "We appreciate the generosity of the jockeys, racetracks and fans throughout the country," said John Velazquez, chairman of the board of directors of the Jockeys' Guild. "We think it is important that those who love the sport of racing show support for Michael at this critical time. We are in his corner." It was also announced yesterday that the Jockeys' Guild had made a donation to the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance. "These charities are critical to the industry and the Jockeys' Guild is donating $7,000 to the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance to help make the sport safer for all involved, both human and equine," said Terry Meyocks, national manager of the Jockeys' Guild. "The industry will never be strong if we can't provide for those in the industry that need help as a result of life-changing events. Racing seems to be facing this problem now more than ever before and we need to continue on that path." Trainer Wayne Catalano also said Friday that he would donate the purse money from his entrant in today's fifth race at Arlington Park to Straight and Rene Douglas. Contributions to the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockeys Fund earmarked for Michael Straight should be sent to P.O. Box 18470, Encino, Ca, 91416.

Leamington was successful in a pair of handicap tries on Britain's all-weather tracks at the start of 2008, but was many lengths last when switched to the turf at Chester that May. The bay improved to be third when back on synthetic at Lingfield in July of that year, then shipped across the Atlantic. She has raced on nothing but grass since arriving stateside. Making her U.S. bow in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 5, the four-year-old set the pace before weakening late to be second in her first appearance in more than nine months. The runner-up again in an allowance on the Churchill lawn May 21, she held on gamely to take her latest on that course June 7. The front-running Leamington stuck to the script while making her stakes bow here, cutting out moderate splits and leaving enough in the tank to hold off Belle Allure to the wire. Indescribable (Pleasant Tap) never factored, running eighth. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

1st-SAR, $59,800, Alw, NW2L, 3/up, f/m, 7f, 1:22, ft. ACRONYM (f, 3, Empire Maker--Averti, by Known Fact) started her career on the Santa Anita spinach Dec. 27, but showed little in a fifth-place effort. Switched to the all-weather Jan. 23, the Juddmonte homebred closed from just off the pace to break her maiden, but she had not been out since. The 4-1 shot needed to overcome a rough start to win on her return. Bumped at the break, she was near the back of the pack through an opening half in :44.93 and was fanned widest of all into the stretch, but accelerated past the field to take over at the eighth pole. Acronym widened the gap in the final furlong to hit the line 6 1/4 lengths in front of favored Life At Ten (Malibu Moon). Mother Ruth (Speightstown) tired late to be third. The winner is a 1/2 to Averted View (Distant View), SW-GB; and a full to Turn Away, MGSP, $144,832. Lovely Lil was let go at 5-1 in her debut, but looked like a 1-5 shot at the wire. Quickly into stride, the May foal pressed the pace from second. She was in hand as she went to the front on the far turn and, responding to a vigorous Alan Garcia hand ride, powered away to an eye-catching seven-length success. Lynch Surrenders License in Pennsylvania:

In a short release, officials at the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Committee have announced that troubled jockey Fergal Lynch has voluntarily agreed to surrender his jockey's license, effective immediately. The Horse Racing Committee said that the rider has agreed not to reapply for his credentials until such time as he is cleared to ride by the British Horseracing Authority. Lynch, who was the leading rider at Philadelphia Park until recently, was suspended this past July for reasons relating to a 2004 incident in England, where he admitted to preventing a horse from winning a race. Under a recent plea agreement, Lynch agreed to not seek a riding license in England for one year and paid a fine of $80,000.

Increased Safety Measures for Fairplex Meet:

The upcoming meeting at the Los Angeles County Fair at the Fairplex will feature enhanced safety and emergency care efforts. In addition to employing paramedics to work both during training hours and live racing programs, the lighting poles inside the inner rails will be padded. The light poles are far enough from the inner rail that we do not have to pad them according to the ARCI Model Rules, but we elected to pad them for enhanced safety," said Kim Lloyd, Fairplex Park equine manager. "We have paramedics on duty now during training hours and they will also be in place during the races run at the meet. Our mission is to provide top-class racing in an environment that is as safe as possible for both people and horses." Additionally, jockeys will be required to use equine-friendly riding crops, 20 of which have been purchased by the Fairplex for use by the riders. "The changes Fairplex is making are important to all involved," said Terry Meyocks, national manager of the Jockeys' Guild. "This doesn't just benefit the jockeys. The paramedics will also benefit exercise riders as well anyone else who might get injured on the track in the morning. Fairplex deserves a lot of credit for stepping up and implementing these initiatives. Safety has become a major issue for both humans and horses as evidenced by the work of the NTRA Safety Alliance. Fairplex and Del Mar have been in the forefront of tracks responding to this need for improved safety."

TRA Board Adopts Time Sync Protocol:

The Board of Directors for the Thoroughbred Racing Associations (TRA) has adopted a protocol which will establish industry-wide standards pertaining to the display of accurate off times for the start of a race. According to the protocol, all video and tote times will be synchronized to an atomic clock on a start-of-day basis; the time on the source video signal will be refreshed a minimum of once every 60 minutes and the time of day will be displayed at the start of the race in the HR:MIN:SEC format. In the rare instances where unforeseen reasons prevent the acknowledgement of the stop-betting signal (once in roughly 10,000 races), the video will be used to confirm the off time in order to rule out any betting abnormalities. Verification of off time and close of betting for all races has become increasingly important because the unrelated issue of late odds shifts has led to some public misperception of past posting. The TRA strongly recommends the Time Sync Protocol be used in conjunction with the immediate video display of the quick odds update available 10 seconds after the start of the race, which will usually encompass more than 95 percent of the final win pool.

FALLON BLANK ON RETURN

Following his more-than-three-year exile, Kieren Fallon returned to race-riding in Britain yesterday without a win from seven mounts at Lingfield and Kempton. Denied a British licence from July 2006 as a result of the high-profile Old Bailey trial into alleged race-fixing and the 18-month worldwide suspension imposed by the French authorities, Fallon admitted to a touch of ring-rustiness early in the day. After finishing runner-up on his first mount, Rare Malt (Ire) (Intikhab) in the opening maiden at Lingfield, the six-time champion said, "I haven't stopped riding out for the last couple of years, so I was relatively fit, but this was a little bit different," he said. "This is the only thing I know and the only thing I want to do. Things are going great at the moment and I just want to ride as many winners as I can and hopefully have a crack at the championship next year. I'm just trying to get the job done--I just hope I can get a winner and if I do, I can relax into the game. If I don't, there are going to be a little bit of nerves." Later at Kempton, he added, "Not riding a winner puts a bit of a dampener on the day, but I've got some good rides [Saturday], so hopefully I can do something. It will be a bonus to have today under my belt and there is nothing like race-riding to get you back."

1st Dam: Darashandeh (Ire) (GSP-Fr), by Darshaan (GB)

In the aftermath of stablemate Rosanara (Fr) (Sinndar {Ire}) earning ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ status at Longchamp Tuesday, Alain de Royer-Dupre commented he may have a better filly back at his Chantilly base, namely Darma. The trainer's judgment was not misplaced and, allied to crowd confidence, the bay homebred announced her arrival on the scene with a polished display in this newcomers' event. However, the 1-2 favorite was dismounted after pulling up lame on her near foreleg. Racing under cover at the back of midfield for most of the contest, she made smooth headway from the quarter-mile marker and quickened smartly inside the final 100 meters to comfortably account for Flying Grace (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) by 3/4 of a length. "She won in the style of a very promising filly, but two strides after the post she took a bad step and pulled up lame," explained jockey Christophe Lemaire. Elaborating further, racing manager Georges Rimaud added, "It looks like she may have a fracture. She has been vanned to the local veterinary clinic, but she was standing on all four legs, so it looks like something can be done to help her. We'll know more in the coming hours." The winner is a half to Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent), G1SW-Fr, $1,205,252; and Darsha (Fr) (Sakhee), MGSP-Fr, $116,812.
