ZENSATIONAL TO HILL 'N' DALE

Multiple Grade I winner and TDN Rising Star Zensational (Unbridled's Song--Joke, by Phone Trick) will take up stud duties at Hill 'n' Dale Farm at the conclusion of his racing career.

Racing for Zayat Stables, the three-year-old has reeled off three straight wins versus older horses in the July 5 GI Triple Bend H., Aug. 8 GI Bing Crosby H. and GI Pat O'Brien H. On the board in six of seven starts to date, the gray colt has won five races and earned $609,300. "Zensational is the type of horse I hoped to own when I got into this business," said Ahmed Zayat, who purchased the colt for $700,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Calder juvenile. "Zayat Stables will retain 100 percent ownership until Zensational arrives at Hill 'n' Dale in Kentucky. "We could have stood this horse anywhere, but elected to do a deal with Hill 'n' Dale because of their extraordinary track record of making such horses as Stormy Atlantic, Medaglia d'Oro and Candy Ride (Arg)." Hill 'n' Dale President John Sikura added, "Zensational is a horse that got my full attention when breaking his maiden in spectacular fashion in a hand ride. He has accomplished as a three-year-old what no horse ever has. He is a rare and special racehorse with the kind of brilliance that defines great sires."

CALIFORNIA FLAG REPEATS IN MORVICH

California Flag (Avenue of Flags) was well supported at 8-5 to repeat in Oak Tree's opening day feature--the GIII Morvich H.--and the grey did not disappoint as a came home a one-length winner over Get Funky (Straight Man). "He's by far the fastest horse I've ever ridden," said winning rider Joe Talamo. "[Trainer] Brian [Koriner] has done a great job with him. He's so much more relaxed this year..you could ride him with a loose rein. I love the way he comes up to the Breeders' Cup [Turf Sprint Nov. 7]." Cont. p6

GOFFS ORBY SALE

Sept. 29-Oct. 1

PIVOTAL COLT STARS AT KILDARE

Pivotal (GB) played a major role during the second session of the Goffs Orby Sale yesterday in Kildare and provided the day's central focus when his Moyglare Stud-consigned colt sold to John Ferguson for €320,000 (approximately $468,369). Consigned by Walter Haefner's world-renowned establishment, hip 282 is out of In Anticipation (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and is a half-brother to the high-class Irresistible Jewel (Ire) (Danahill), winner of the 2002 G2 Ribblesdale S. and G3 Blandford S. and runner-up in that year's G1 Prix de l'Opera. Irresistible Jewel has already started to make her own mark at stud, with her daughter Mad About You (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) almost registering a Classic success last term when a promoted second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas before returning in 2009 to win the G3 Gladness S. Yesterday's offering is also a half to Diamond Trim (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}), whose runner Profound Beauty (Ire) (Danahill) enjoys lofty status in this country as a result of her successes in this year's G3 Curragh Cup and G3 Ballyroan S. "Obviously, the Pivotal is from an excellent family," commented Joe Osborne, who was bidding on behalf of Ferguson. "He was a very good colt and we've been lucky with Moyglare before. We're very fond of the sire, who gets a lot of very good winners over a variety of distances." cont. p2

John Ferguson also was the name on the docket after Osborne bid successfully at €220,000 for Middlelane Farm's hip 215, a daughter of Dalakhani (Ire) whose half-brother Khor Dubai (Ire) (Kheleyf) is a useful performer for the Godolphin stable. Her dam Dievotchkina (Ire) (Bluebird) is a half to the group-winning trio of Russian Hope (Ire) (Rock Hopper {GB}), Russian Cross (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Archange d'Or (Ire) (Danehill). "The Dalakhani was a lovely filly from a very good home which has produced a number of high-class horses already," Osborne added.

A True Jewel...

Denis and Joan Brosnan's Croom House Stud consigned a Medicean (GB) colt that sold for €240,000 during Tuesday's opening session and they were in the limelight again yesterday after their daughter of Jewel In the Sand (Ire) (Bluebird) was the top-priced filly. Hip 292 is by Galileo (Ire) and her dam was the winner of the 2004 G2 Cherry Hinton S. She was knocked down to Adrian Nicoll of BBA Ireland for €310,000. "I've bought her on behalf of a partnership being put together by Ben Sangster, which is going to buy several top fillies," Nicoll said. "This filly was a really good sort out of a very good race mare and by a top-class stallion. I thought that she was actually quite reasonably priced. I've bought Ben two Galileo fillies in the past-- Dress Rehearsal (Ire) and Paris Winds (Ire)--and both of them have gone on to be stakes winners."

Late in the session, another daughter of Galileo set off fireworks when selling to Goffs auctioneer Clive Gardiner, who was bidding on behalf of an undisclosed buyer over the phone for €280,000. From the draft of Paul Shanahan's Ashtown House Stud, hip 399's page features the 1990 G1 Middle Park S. scorer and Classic-placed sire Lycius (Mr. Prospector), the 1994 G3 Prix de Cabourg winner and G1 Prix Morny and G1 Moyglare Stud S. placegetter Tereshkova (Mr. Prospector) and Akabir (Riverman), who was successful in the 1987 GII Dixie H. and GII Bougainvillea H. Three other fillies by Galileo to sell for six figures were Ballylinch Stud's hip 234, a three-parts sister to the triple listed winner and group-placed Ezima (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) bought by that filly's trainer Jim Bolger for €150,000; Airlie Stud's hip 310, whose dam is a three-parts sister to the Classic-winning sire Bachelor Duke also bought for €150,000 by Demi O'Byrne; and another from Croom House consigned as hip 336, a Cheveley Park Stud purchase at €140,000 whose dam is a half to the triple Group 3 winner and 2006 G1 Eclipse S. and G1 Juddmonte International placegetter Blue Monday (GB) (Darshaan {GB}).

The Dream Continues...

Oasis Dream (GB) is one of the hottest properties around at present, courtesy of a stellar 2009 season, and Badgers Bloodstock made certain of securing his colt consigned as hip 280 by Paddy Twomey's Hawthorn Villa Stud. Grant Pritchard-Gordon's agency came out on top at €220,000. Bred from the late Gerald Leigh's family of Markofdistinction (GB), the dam is the smart Horatia (Ire) (Machiavellian), who took the GIII Vinery Matchmaker and was third in the 1999 GII Long Island H. She has a smart two-year-old filly running for her in the current season in the Sandown conditions scorer Fontley (GB) (Sadler's Wells).

Later, Sylvain Vidal stepped in to secure a Danehill Dancer (Ire) half-brother to Cat Junior (Storm Cat), who was runner-up in last year's G2 Challenge S. and this year's G2 Park S. From Mark Dwyer's Oaks Farm Stables, hip 338 is from the immediate family of the champion sire Linamix (Fr) and sold for €210,000.

Evening Delights...

Deep into the session, a duo of choicely bred fillies sparked some spirited bidding. It began with the sale of another of the Pivotal offerings. From Cahermorris Stables, hip 415 is a sister to 2005 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), whose filly by Giant's Causeway remains the sale topper after fetching €475,000 on Tuesday. Earle Mack's Citywest Inc. Ltd. prevailed on the filly with a bid of €210,000 yesterday. "It was worth the trip over to Ireland to land such a quality filly by Pivotal," said Mack, former U.S. Ambassador to Finland and Chairman of the New York Racing Commission. "I plan to bring her back to America to train and race next year. I hope she will prove as precocious as her sister Saoire." Less than 10 minutes later, Airlie Stud's half-sister to the recent G1 National S. hero and Godolphin acquisition Kingsfort (War Chant) sold to John Ferguson for €220,000. From the first crop of Good Reward (Storm Cat), hip 418 is also a half to the 2005 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. scorer Prince Arch (Arch).

Holy Smoke...

Blandford Bloodstock, which missed out on the opening day's top-selling colt by Montjeu (Ire), gained some compensation yesterday when purchasing a well-connected colt from the first crop of Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) for €170,000. Consigned by Ashtown House Stud, hip 306 is a three-parts brother to the listed-scoring Georgebernardshaw (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and half to the 2003 G3 Phoenix Sprint S. winner Bonus (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), as well as the fellow listed winner Third Set (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), who was third in last year's G2 Celebration Mile. "He's an absolutely belting yearling," said Blandford's Tom Goff. "He's a fabulous walker with a tremendous attitude and looks a cracking prospect for next year. He'll be staying in Ireland."

Holy Roman Emperor was also responsible for three yearlings to sell for €140,000 apiece. Glenvale Stud's hip 256, a March-foaled colt who shares his champion second dam Palacegate Episode (Ire) (Drumalis {Ire}) with the 2006 G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. hero and sire Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}), was snapped up by BBA Ireland; Triermore Stud's hip 358, a daughter of the 2000 G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Miletrian (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) whose three-year-old Changingoftheguard (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was sixth in the G1 St Leger earlier this month, was bought by Demi O'Byrne; and Ashtown House's hip 393, a half-sister to the listed-placed Hallhoo (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) from the family of Danehill Dancer (Ire), was secured by David Wachman.

Riding On a Wave...

Tracey Collins has enjoyed a profitable season thanks largely to her unbeaten colt Arctic (Ire) (Shamardal), and her star continues in the ascendant after learning that she will train a daughter of Mr. Greeley who sold for €160,000 yesterday. From the draft of Oaks Farm Stables, hip 323 is out of the dual listed winner Lahinch (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), whose progeny include the 2007 G3 Ballyogan S. winner Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and last year's G3 Kilternan S. scorer and G1 Hong Kong Vase fourth The Bogberry (Hawk Wing). David Redvers Bloodstock paid €160,000 for the February-foaled chestnut and commented, " She's going to be staying in Ireland to go into training with Tracey Collins. I thought she was a miller of a yearling and she is a very exciting one to look forward to. She came from a good farm, too." Overall, the Orby appears to be holding up against the preceding Million, with the average of €67,951 only falling by seven percent on last year and the median of €50,000 up by a respectable 11 percent. Selling concludes today with a session beginning at 10 a.m. Full results are available at www.goffs.com.

Goffs Orby - Thursday

461, c, Titus Livius (Fr)--Sombreffe (GB), by Polish Precedent
Consigned by Rathasker Stud

This is a fascinating offering from Maurice Burns's operation, being a half-brother to the 2003 G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis winner and sire Ransom o'War (Red Ransom) and listed-placed Madame Cerito (Diesis {GB}). Two of his other half-siblings have already proven themselves at stud, with Uliana (Darshaan {GB}) producing this year's G3 Blue Wind S. runner-up and G3 Dance Design S. third Festival Princess (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and Somoushe (Ire) (Black Minnaloushe) responsible for the recent G3 Molecomb S. third Archers Road (Ire), also by Titus Livius.

563, f, Oratorio (Ire)--Dress Code (Ire), by Barathea (Ire)
Consigned by Ballybin Stud

This is one of the picks of day three, being a half-sister to Sunday's Goffs Million Sprint winner Lucky General (Ire) (Hawk Wing) and the listed-placed Dress to Impress (Ire) (Fasliyev) out of a sister to the 2002

578, f, Oratorio (Ire)--Finity, by Diesis (GB)
 Consigned by Grove Stud

Another by Coolmore's current first-season sire, this is an April-foaled daughter of a group-placed three-parts sister to Cavalryman (GB) (Halling). Since the publication of the catalogue, that colt has won added the G2 Prix Niel to his G1 Grand Prix de Paris success and is due to take part in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

641, f, Verglas (Ire)--Night Fairy (Ire), by Danehill
 Consigned by Irish National Stud

Verglas continues to excel at stud and this January-foaled filly is out of a sister to the listed winner Fairy of the Night (Ire) and half to this year's GIII Orchid S. winner Dress Rehearsal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Further back are the 2006 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club hero Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent) and dual champion Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar).

MAXIMUM FIELD LIKELY FOR ARC

Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe is looking certain to attract a swollen field of 20 despite the presence of Christopher Tsui's Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) after only five were withdrawn yesterday. Most notable of the scratches yesterday was Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's four-time G1 Gold Cup winner Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who is bound for the same day's G1 Prix du Cadran, while Khalid Abdullah's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and G2 Prix Foy victor Spanish Moon (El Prado {Ire}) will wait for later international targets after Sir Michael Stoute took out the five-year-old as expected. There will be no ambitious Arc raid for the triple Grade 1 winner Grand Couturier (GB) (Grand Lodge) or Ecurie Wildenstein's G3 Prix de Psyche winner and G1 Prix Vermeille third Board Meeting (Ire) (Anabaa), while Aidan O'Brien cut his team to four after withdrawing Hail Caesar (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) alongside Yeats. That still leaves 19 entered for the highlight, but at least two supplementary entries are expected today as connections of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary, G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) and G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G2 Prix Niel winner Cavalryman (GB) (Halling) prepare to pay the €100,000 fee. That would bring the ballot into play, but trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre yesterday told the Racing Post that Lady O'Reilly, the Moussac Family and Lucien Urano's G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Alpine Rose (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) was likely to opt for the G1 Prix de l'Opera instead. "My feeling is to run her in the Opera, as I don't want to harm her over one and a half miles in the Arc," the conditioner told the trade daily. That would free Gerald Mosse for His Highness The Aga Khan's Prix Niel runner-up Beheshtam (Fr) (Peintre Celebre). One who will not be supplemented is Lady Bamford's G1 English and Irish Oaks winner Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), after connections opted to steer the homebred to the Oct. 17 G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket. Trainer Michael Bell told the Racing Post, "Sariska is not going to be supplemented for the Arc. It has got to start raining some time and the Champion S. is very much on the agenda. It is very disappointing, the owner was really looking forward to running, but looking at the weather forecast today is very much in the favor of horses who want fast ground."

History of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe

Attended by British ambassador the Count of Derby, a committee made up of French Racing authorities met on January 24, 1920 and decided to create a highly prestigious international race, complementary to the Grand Prix de Paris.

In search of a title to pay tribute to the French soldiers that served in the first World War, the committee came down to two possible contenders, the 'Prix de la Victoire' and the eventual choice, the 'Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.'

Inaugurated at Longchamp racecourse, the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe was first contested on Sunday, October 3, 1920.

The winner of the inaugural edition, Comrade, collected FF150,000 for the win.

Longchamp

The Arc is traditionally run on the first Sunday in October, with the exception of 1939 and 1940.

California Flag, winner of this event last year, tired in the late stages of the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint over this course and trip and had to settle for 10th, beaten 9 1/2 lengths by winner Desert Code. Back on track for his seasonal finale, the grey rolled home an easy winner in the GIII Hollywood Turf Express H. Nov. 29. Getting a late start in 2009, the gelding eked out a neck victory in his only prior start this term in the five-panel Green Flash H. at Del Mar Aug. 19. Well supported this time, California Flag took a narrow lead early, maintained the advantage at every call and remained clear late to get the repeat victory. "He was really nice and relaxed today," said winning trainer Brian Koriner. "Hopefully, the Breeders' Cup [Turf Sprint Nov. 7] will be a little slower than it was last year. I think he's doing way better this year. He's really fresher. Last year he campaigned all the way here." ICON PROJECT TO BYPASS BELDAME Icon Project (Empire Maker) will sidestep Saturday's GI Beldame S. at Belmont and make her next start in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland Oct. 11, trainer Marty Wolfson told Daily Racing Form yesterday. Wolfson, who spoke to owner Andrew Rosen Tuesday, indicated that decision was made in an attempt to familiarize the four-year-old filly with a synthetic surface before sending her west to contest the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic, which will be run over Santa Anita's Pro-Ride. In her dirt debut, the $775,000 KESEEP yearling aired by 13 1/4 lengths when the nine-furlong New York S. was pulled off the turf June 20. Runner up behind Swift Temper (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Delaware H. over 10 panels July 19, the filly was a 13 1/2-length winner in her most recent start in the GI Personal Ensign S. Aug. 30.

suffered a fracture to a hind pastern in a work at the Toronto-area oval Tuesday and may be forced into retirement. The five-year-old Eugene Melnyk homebred has undergone surgery and his life is not in danger. Winner of the third leg of Canada's Triple Crown in 2007, Marchfield was first or second in five of seven last year, with his wins including the GII Autumn S. at Woodbine. He earned a Sovereign Award for his efforts, and was enjoying another good season in 2009, having won the GII Sky Classic S. on turf and GIII Dominion Day H. on the main track. Marchfield was produced by the Red Ransom mare Pico Teneriffe. Trained throughout his career by Mark Casse, Marchfield has won seven of 23 starts for earnings of $1,040,161.

TDN OPEN FORUM

The following was written by Gene A. Clabes, interim executive director of the Kentucky Equine Education Project (KEEP), as part of an ongoing debate between proponents of expanding gambling at Kentucky tracks and those who oppose Video Lottery Terminals (VLTs), including Kentucky Republican state senator David Williams, president of the Kentucky Senate.

KEEP RESPONDS TO SEN. WILLIAMS

In a recent response to an editorial by Bill Farish entitled, "Gambling, Not a Partisan Issue," Sen. David Williams continued to attack Kentucky's horse industry in a misguided attempt to divide and conquer horsemen.

What Sen. Williams doesn't understand is that his attacks only further cement the unity among our industry to seek alternative gaming at racetracks. The horse industry is more united today than at any time in our history, because we understand the enormity of the threat posed to our competitiveness. We live it every day as we watch our racing dates eliminated, our purse money decline and owners and trainers ship horses to states where purses and breeder incentives are enriched by gaming revenue.

Sen. Williams began his editorial by saying expanded gaming is "bad economic policy for the state and for the horse industry." I firmly disagree. Isn't it bad economic policy for the state to stand by while its signature horse industry declines because we lack the competitive tools other states are using to capture what Kentucky already has? Kentucky has a horse industry that is world-renowned for its product. It generates a $4 billion economic impact. It supports 100,000 jobs statewide. But in the end, Kentucky's bond with the horse cannot be measured by mere economics. It is that intangible that makes Kentucky unique. Let's take Sen. Williams' points one by one.

Sen. Williams says, "expanded gambling will flood Kentucky with funds that will skew our body politic." In his response, Sen. Williams calls into question the Farish family's affiliations and makes mention of political corruption in other states where gaming is allowed. This personal attack on the Farish family is an all-time low point in the gaming debate and will not go unanswered.

The Farish family has a long history of public service and staunch support of the Republican Party. William S. Farish served as United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James under President George W. Bush. His son, Bill, served as a personal aide to President George H.W. Bush. Both father and son are lifelong horsemen who are actively involved in all aspects of Thoroughbred racing and breeding. From their development of Lane's End Farm into one of the world's premier breeding operations, to their service with the American Horse Council, the Breeders' Cup, The Jockey Club, the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders, their commitment to the horse industry cannot be questioned.

Sen. Williams says that once slots arrive, horse owners and trainers will get the short end of the stick. If alternative gaming is not growing purse money at racetracks in those states where it is allowed, then why are Kentucky horsemen shipping to Pennsylvania, Indiana, West Virginia and Louisiana, among others?

Total purses in Kentucky have been stagnant or have declined since 2001. In contrast, Thoroughbred and Standardbred purses in Pennsylvania jumped nearly 40 percent from 2007 to 2008, the first full year of gaming operations. Indiana's Hoosier Park just announced its second purse increase of the current meet. Louisiana racetracks such as Evangeline Downs and Fair Grounds are enjoying resurgence. Gaming revenues are up 5.5 percent at Florida's Gulfstream Park compared to 2008; while Calder Race Course will open its gaming operation in 2010.

The horse industry's plan to authorize video lottery terminals (VLTs) at Kentucky racetracks was the most comprehensive show of support for the entire horse industry--both racing and non-racing breeds--ever to be introduced in the United States. Though purse supplements for Standardbreds, Quarter Horses and Thoroughbreds are the most visible allocation, revenue would be broadly distributed to enhance many Kentucky equine breeds and related programs.

Gaming funds would expand the Kentucky Breeders' Incentive Program (KBIF), which offers economic incentives to encourage ownership of all Kentucky-bred horses, even non-racing breeds. As an example, since its inception in 2005 the KBIF has fueled dramatic growth in Kentucky's Quarter Horse industry, attracting 600 new Quarter Horse stallions, more than 2,000 mares and an influx of new Quarter Horse farms.

Our proposal also dedicates revenue to promote the health and welfare of horses by funding new equine facilities and riding trails; it will enable improvements to the backside and stable areas at racetracks; properly fund the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission and repeal a sales tax on feed and equipment for horses—an exemption already bestowed on other Kentucky livestock.

Though he would like to convince you otherwise, Sen. Williams' plan is not a "horse industry" proposal. Under it, he addresses only purse money; contributing nothing to the KBIF or non-racing breeds. His proposal would redirect to the horse industry $19 million in existing tax revenues that currently go to the General Fund, which is already suffering a shortfall. He would place a 10-cent tax on lottery tickets, so your $1 lottery ticket would cost $1.10. The Kentucky Lottery Commission estimates this tax would result in significant lost lottery sales, which would adversely affect our children since all the funds go to funding the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES) program.

Sen. Williams says slots will not "save" Kentucky's budget.

Kentucky's horse industry has never made the claim that expanded gaming would be the silver bullet to Kentucky's budget shortfall. However, what our proposal would do is generate at least $700 million in new revenue, including more than $200 million in new tax dollars for the state, and be a source of new jobs and new capital construction.

Sen. Williams says the horse industry is beset with problems endemic to the industry itself.

The horse industry competes with an explosion of casino gaming nationwide. Today, 36 states in the continental United States permit commercial, Indian and/or racetrack casinos.

Kentucky racing is battered by casino gaming forces on two fronts. First, we directly compete with six Indiana riverboats on our border, where $1.44 billion was wagered in 2008. Casinos also line Kentucky's border with Illinois, Missouri and soon Ohio. These casinos, which include the nation's largest riverboat, the Hollywood Casino near Lawrenceburg, are situated to take advantage of Kentucky's major population centers.

Even more damaging to our competitiveness, each of the 12 racing states nearest to Kentucky—Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia, Louisiana, Florida, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Ohio—are using expanded gaming to strengthen their horse industries.

We don't view alternative gaming as a long-term fix for Kentucky's horse industry. Instead it will provide us with a short-term infusion of revenue we can use to spark economic development in our industry.

These funds will help us compete, in the immediate future, by allowing us to raise purses and preserve Kentucky's year-round racing circuit, renovate infrastructure, explore new marketing ventures and employ new technologies in an effort to attract new fans.

Alternative gaming at Kentucky's racetracks will not change the behavior of Kentuckians. They already spend more than $670 million at riverboat casinos in Illinois and Indiana alone.

Sen. Williams, however, continues to stir the pot by stating that Kentuckians will have to "gamble" $11 billion to produce the $1 billion net win the horse industry proposal projects. As Sen. Williams knows, this is absolutely not true. He conveniently misuses this figure to confuse and concern. In reality, "churn"—whereby players repeatedly use their winnings to continue play—will account for most of that $11 billion gross wager. We are not asking any Kentuckian to gamble a single dollar that they are not already gambling. We are, however, asking that if they choose to gamble, they do it in Kentucky to help our own people. We don't want a government subsidy! What we want is a level playing field. If we get this we will out-work and out-produce our competition and remain the "Horse Capital of the World"!

 NORTH AMERICA

OHIO SLOTS ON HOLD Proponents of expanded gambling at race tracks in Ohio have been dealt a serious setback after the state's Supreme Court ruled that Gov. Ted Strickland's plan to install VLTs at tracks needs to be approved by Ohio voters. Such a vote might not be able to be held until November, 2010. According to the governor's office, the ruling leaves a $851-million gap in a budget approved in July by Strickland and the Ohio legislature. "Waiting for a November 2010 referendum, even if it is successful, still denies the state the revenue necessary to protect our schools from devastating funding cuts in this biennium," Strickland said in a statement. "Some have suggested placing video lottery terminals on the ballot at an earlier date, such as May. That would still be too late to generate the necessary revenue to fund education. And this would not resolve the legal challenges facing the state today. An outstanding question remains before the courts: Whether or not the Ohio Lottery has the authority to implement video lottery terminals without legislative approval. We need to hear from the courts on this constitutional question, and I will seek a Declaratory Judgment for clarification. But while we wait for that clarification, we must find another way to balance the biennial budget."

Rising Moon sat well off a quick pace and came with a stinging late run to snap a six-race skid dating back to May 2008. Third to then-stablemate Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway) in the GI Suburban H. last June, the gray was a non-factor fifth in the GI Whitney H. July 26 before hitting the shelf. Runner-up to Dry Martini (Slew Gin Fizz) in this track's Three Coins Up S. May 8, the veteran followed with a third in the GI Brooklyn H. over 12 furlongs June 5. He rounded out the triple for a second consecutive year in the Suburban July 4 and did not relish a switch to the turf when eighth in the GI Sword Dancer S. in his most recent start at the Spa Aug. 15. Content to linger towards the rear as Coal Play (Mineshaft) set a searching pace up front, Rising Moon was patiently handled into the stretch and came flying late to win going away. Adding Lasix for her U.S. debut, the Sangster Family runner settled in midpack as a speed duel developed up front. She remained glued to the inside when set down for the drive, got through one off the fence and outkicked Gran Appeal (Successful Appeal) to score by 1 1/4 lengths. Entered as main track only for this, Havre de Grace was sent off the 9-10 chalk and did not disappoint. Purchased by agent Tom McGreevy for $380,000 out of the 2008 Keeneland September sale, she was the fourth highest-priced offering from her freshman sire (by Saint Ballado)'s first crop and is his sixth individual winner. The winner's dam has a weanling filly of this year by former Fox Hill runner Hard Spun (Danzig). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $33,725. ### David Michael Reid Foundation Gala Saturday:

A fundraising gala for the David Michael Reid Foundation will be held Saturday, Oct. 3 at 6 p.m. at the Dolce Seaview Resort outside Atlantic City, New Jersey. David, the son of trainer Mark Reid, was heading into his senior year at Villanova University when he drowned in a swimming pool accident in the summer of 2004. He would have been a starting offensive lineman for the Villanova football team that fall. His family has created the foundation in David's memory to raise money for college scholarships for disadvantaged high school students in the Delaware Valley. There will be a silent auction featuring, among other items, a Masters Package, tickets for Villanova basketball games this season, a Raul Ibanez signed bat and a day spent with the mid-day Philadelphia Sports Radio WIP-AM hosts, Anthony Gargano and Glen Macnow. Joe Conklin will do his comedy routine. There will be dinner and dancing. Tickets and information about the gala and the foundation itself is www.dmrfoundation.org. Gala information may be found under 'Upcoming Events,' and tickets may be purchased under the "Tickets" link. Tickets may also be obtained by calling Mark Reid Jr. at 609-354-2220.
