RADIANT CONSTELLATION

Guided by the incomparable nerve of Mick Kinane, Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) emerged from the cauldron of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe with a reputation pitched into the stratosphere, registering an emphatic two-length success in yesterday's 88th renewal. Despite the scarcely believable exploits of the Tsui homebred so far in 2009, there was no sign of any wear-and-tear. The 4-5 favorite over-raced from the outset, and continued to pull even after his jockey had buried him in the pack against the fence. While that is the quickest way around Longchamp, it is not a route without anxiety, and for a brief period in early stretch with space in short supply, it seemed as though his quest for immortality was in jeopardy. When a half-gap appeared, the brilliant winner of two Classics and a total of five Group 1s delivered his spellbinding acceleration to cut a swathe between the G1 Prix Vermeille protagonists Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) and Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), and once he was in front with 250 meters remaining, the story was told. In the end, it was Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) who emerged best of the rest to fill the runner's-up berth for the third consecutive year. Trainer John Oxx was typically calm afterwards when saying, "It's just a relief that he came through it and it's wonderful that it's over. He had to have the gears to get out, and Mick wouldn't panic, because he knew he had them. We were not too alarmed at any stage." Cont. 2

AGA KHAN RULES ARC WEEKEND

It was a weekend that was ruled by His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre. First, "TDN Rising Star" Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) delivered a knockout blow under substitute rider Gerald Mosse to record a smooth success in Sunday's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Grand Criterium). As the afternoon progressed, there were three additional winners hailing from the Aga Khan's racing operation: "TDN Rising Star" Rosanara (Fr) (Sinndar {Ire}) in the G1 Total Prix Marcel Boussac; Alandi (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran; and Shalanaya (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}) in the G1 Qatar Petroleum Prix de L'Opera. *Cont.. ## LOTS O' LUCK AT OAK TREE Punching his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 7, Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) left no doubt who the best two-year-old in California is by adding a second Grade 1 triumph to his resume in Sunday's GI Norfolk S. "This was his first time long and he handled it perfectly," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "He made the lead turning for home and when he did, he threw his ears up and kind of waited.

When I got after him, he went on with it and finished up real game."Also reserving a spot at the World Championships next month was Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision), who came from off the pace to score in the GI Oak Leaf S. earlier on the card. The filly is expected to make her next start in the GI BC Juvenile Fillies Nov. 6. cont. p10&11

In a Class of His Own...

Sea The Stars first came to attention as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ when registering a smooth maiden win at Leopardstown in August of 2008, each step of the journey for the latest product of the celebrated Urban Sea has been well-documented. Following his comfortable win in The Curragh's G2 Beresford S.--essentially a race for potential middle-distance prospects--the following month, John Oxx spoke of his desire to avoid pigeon-holing his rare talent. The G1 2000 Guineas was the first port of call this term. He proved at Newmarket he had the speed to sprint, and at Epsom on the first Saturday in June, he entered a small class of luminaries able to carry that pace over a mile and a half. Still in league with some past greats when adding the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. to both Classics, he began to distance himself from all but the very top runners in history by taking the G1 Juddmonte International and G1 Irish Champion S. with more than a degree of comfort. Entering Europe's endgame, which had proven a bridge too far for many of racing's stars, the combination of perfect ground and his unshakable temperament kept confidence high. His enthusiasm was certainly intact in the first furlong, where only Dar Re Mi was ahead as he adopted his sprinter-miler persona and tugged for his head before calming to Mick Kinane's hands as he was found cover. Deep in the ruck on the final turn, his veteran jockey refused to give up the rail, and after being given the office, Sea the Stars skipped around the fading pacemakers with balletic poise before cutting down the competition in ruthless fashion.

The high-class fillies Stacelita (Monsun {Ger}) and Dar Re Mi (Singspiel {Ire}) were the last rivals Sea the Stars saw as he raced into the lead, and although a batch of five Group 1 winners followed him home, he proved in a different category at the line. "I ended up in a position that maybe I didn't want to be in, but he was so well I didn't want to risk firing him up and get him running too free," commented Kinane, who has made a habit of winning this at 10-year intervals, steering Carroll House (Ire) and Montjeu (Ire) to glory in 1989 and 1999, respectively. "They were going a nice pace and I knew I had the pace to get myself out of anywhere. He is a phenomenal horse." Oxx added, "I thought after the Irish Champion he would be unbeatable in the Arc, but as we got closer to the race and saw so many good horses in it, I started to worry. He had worked impressively at home and had changed so much physically since the Eclipse, he was a really a different horse. He was keen early on, but Mick did the right thing getting cover and I was very confident in the straight. He idled in front and never wins by far, but that was a fantastic performance and we are blessed to have him." As for what lay ahead for the star sophomore, Oxx added, "This is a day to enjoy, not to make plans, and we are not committing to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic yet as he has been on the go for a while. With regards to next year, nothing has been decided, but I don't see him staying in training."

Christopher Tsui, whose family enjoyed Arc success with the dam in 1993, was overcome after watching his brilliant winner and said, "I have absolutely no words to describe today, and that was his pinnacle performance. There is nobody more happy than me."

Always the Bridesmaid...

Jaber Abdullah's Youmzain, who was sporting blinkers for the first time and was partnered by Kieren Fallon, who had beaten him on Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) in 2007, continued his bittersweet love affair with the Bois de Boulogne. Delivered wide in the stretch, he came out best of the pack trailing in the wake of Sea the Stars, and the sight was reminiscent of his clear second-best behind Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) 12 months ago. "Obviously, we're delighted with his run and for Jaber and everyone at West Ilsley, but we've run into a great one again," commented trainer Mick Channon philosophically. "Kieren said he didn't think he'd get through where Mick Kinane went on the inside, so he had to come out wide, and Sea the Stars had gone. Our fellow has run all the way to the line and he is so brave. He has had a few little setbacks this year and has run as well as ever. Hopefully, he'll stay in training next year and we can keep trying." Cavalryman (GB), who was a head further behind, is likely to stay in training at four. Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented, "We are absolutely delighted with Cavalryman's performance--it was a big effort. We are looking forward to him racing in the blue silks of Godolphin next year. He will spend the winter in Dubai and then come back to Europe. He would be better with a bit of cut in the ground." Martin Schwartz's triple Group 1 winner Stacelita is another who will be back at four. She was in front for 100 yards until Sea the Stars swooped, and eventually faded to share seventh. "Christophe Soumillon said that she travelled so well at the top of the straight, he thought he had the race won," the owner's Racing Manager Michel Zerolo said. "We know now she definitely doesn't stay a mile and a half, as we had suspected in the Prix Vermeille, where she stopped at the end. She will remain in training with Jean-Claude Rouget."

"It was a lovely, easy win and, hopefully, he'll progress again. He's a Derby contender at this early stage, but he has to keep progressing."

defeat of the subsequent G3 Prix du Bois heroine Dolled Up (Ire) (Whipper) at this track. He repeated the dose in a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte 23 days later, and it was plain sailing once again as he made light work of his first black-type test when registering a three-length success in the Listed Prix la Fleche back there next time June 17. On his first try beyond five furlongs in the July 26 G2 Prix Robert Papin on his third visit to that track, the bay suffered an upset as the 1-2 favorite, but the winner, Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy), went on to underline that form as the runner-up in the G1 Prix Morny and winner of last Friday's G1 Cheveley Park S. Up to this trip for the G3 Prix La Rochette here last time Sept. 6, he was again in the second spot behind Buzzword, but reversed that form in style where it mattered.

In fourth early without cover, he was full of run inside the final quarter as Jimmy Fortune sought to repel all comers on Pounced. Once allowed his head by Gerald Mosse, Siyouni zipped by that long-time leader passing the eighth pole before asserting under hand-riding. "He was the best horse today and we had an ideal run," Mosse said. "He came through easily and is really a super horse." His owner/breeder added, "He started off as a sprinter and, as he has matured, has been able to cover longer distances. We weren't sure if he would be able to convert from a pure sprinter to a seven-furlong horse, but his jockey saved him well and gave him a few breaks during the race. I imagine that his objective for next year will be one of the Guineas, but we'll have to discuss with the trainer which one." Pounced's trainer John Gosden is looking at the G1 Dewhurst S. status with a smooth four-length debut win from the subsequent winner Aruna (Mr. Greeley) over course and distance Sept. 1. She was partnered by the recently injured Christophe Soumillon here following the 11th-hour spill of Christophe Lemaire. Sent off a warm favorite by the Paris faithful, who sensed a case of deja

vu, the homebred almost lost her rider at the outset

when stumbling out of the gates, but, like Zarkava (Ire), proved that an untidy start should be no bar to success. Initially keen in sixth, she was delivered six-wide in the stretch and, after swooping to lead at the furlong pole, surged to a comfortable defeat of On Verra, who denied Joanna the runner's-up spot in the final stride.

"She is a lovely filly and had demonstrated unusual quality first time, so we are not surprised by this," Alain

de Royer-Dupre commented. "We got a scare at the start, but she recovered nicely and, in a truly run race, her turn of foot made all the difference. She is through for the year and we look forward to her next season, when the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches will be her nounced that he was retaining Lemaire as his first-call jockey in 2010, added, "I am very happy and delighted that Christophe [Soumillon] could partner her, and she is an easy ride. We were not certain yesterday that he would be able to ride to his full ability, but he proved that he is back to his best, and there were no worries."

Blood Will Out...

In 1978, the Aga Khan acquired Marcel Boussac's bloodstock for a reported £4.7 million and, in 2005, made a lock, stock and barrel purchase of the late Jean-Luc Lagardere's equine holdings for an estimated €40-50 million. It was only fitting that the Aga Khan's green-and-red colors were flown in both of the races named for those legends of the French Turf with

Rosanara (Fr) France Galop/APRH

Rosanara (Fr) and Siyouni (Fr), two-year-olds whose dams were part of the Lagardere pipeline.

Rosanara is a granddaughter of Rose Quartz (GB) (Lammtarra), a descendant of Square Angel (Quadran-ple). On Lagardere's behalf, Eric Puerari signed the 42,000gns ticket for the then-three-year-old in 2000 at Tattersalls December; the bay filly had won once in four starts for owner/breeder Sheikh Mohammed. In 2002, Rose Quartz produced Rosawa, winner of the Listed Prix Liancourt and Listed Prix de la Colonne, to the cover of Lagardere's stallion Linamix (Fr). After producing Rosanara as her first foal, Rosawa has a yearling colt by Selkirk.

Siyouni's second dam Slipstream Queen (Conquistador Cielo), black-type placed at four for Hermitage Farm in 1994, was purchased by Puerari for $110,000 at Keeneland January in 1995, and immediately joined Lagardere's broodmare band in France. Her first foal, Slickly (Fr) (Linamix), captured the 1999 G1 Grand Prix de Paris in the pink-and-grey Lagardere colors before being purchased privately by Godolphin. Slipstream Queen later produced MGSW No Slip (Fr) (Exit to Nowhere), as well as the Group 3-placed duo by Linamix of Slipstream King (Fr) and Streamix (Fr), and Sichilla (Ire) (Danehill) in 2002. That bay captured the Listed Prix Amandine for the Aga Khan in 2005, and Siyouni is her first foal. She also has a yearling Medicean (GB) filly and foaled a Dalakhani (Ire) colt this spring.

There was yet more joy for the almost unstoppable His Highness The Aga Khan operation here as the outsider Shalanaya registered a fourth Group 1 and sixth weekend success for her owner/breeder. This time, it was the turn of Mikel Delzangles, in his second season training for The Aga Khan, to share in the glory; Maxime Guyon benefitted from the absence of Christophe Lemaire, whose costly injury Friday has become the stuff of Greek tragedy by denying him no fewer than three Group 1 and four Group 2 wins at this showcase meeting. Off the mark at the second attempt over this course and distance June 18, Shalanaya looked to have the G3 Prix de Psyche at her mercy when hitting the front at the quarter pole, but was swamped late on to finish fifth in that Aug. 1 Deauville contest.

The chestnut, successful by three lengths in the Listed Prix de Liancourt over 1 5/16miles here last time Sept. 1, was restrained in rear early before arriving widest of all in the straight and overhauling Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) with a furlong remaining. Stretching to an authoritative success from there, the homebred capped a milestone Arc meeting for Prince Karim, who announced, "What has happened over this weekend has been most extraordinary and has been the greatest weekend since I started as an owner/breeder." Delzangles added, "We were very happy to let her take her chance, even though she is not very experienced, as she has a lot of talent and a very special turn of foot. The plan was to ride her like that and, although she was fresh, she did it well under a great ride. I have never had any doubt about her quality and, although she was quite immature at the beginning of the season, she has never stopped improving and showed today what a good filly she is. She could run again this year, but we will have to see how she recovers. We could think about the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf, but we will discuss it." This renewal had a special resonance for two reasons. Firstly, it served as the culmination of a dramatically successful weekend for His Highness The Aga Khan after Alandi had secured a fifth Group 1 victory of the seven on offer, and secondly, it was the exit point for the remarkable Yeats. While the latter went out on his sword with a battling performance in third, the win of Alandi--who is half his age--represents a changing of the guard in this division. Having shown gritty determination to overcome testing ground at The Curragh when prevailing in the Sept. 12 G1 Irish St Leger, Alandi had to prove his versatility on this quicker surface as connections eye a potential visit to the Royal meeting that was so dominated by Ballydoyle's great stayer during this decade. In the early stages of this truly run renewal, Yeats traveled with all the elan he usually reserves for Ascot in behind his pacemaker with Mick Kinane intent not to give him too much rope. As Johnny Murtagh sent the four-time G1 Gold Cup hero to the fore with a full five furlongs remaining, Alandi was on his case, and loomed alongside with a quarter mile remaining. Gaining the edge over the champion soon after, he had won the war with that rival by the furlong marker, and the line came in time as Kasbah Bliss closed with a flourish.

"This is the cherry on the cake and, as they say in Ireland, when you are on a roll you are on a roll," commented trainer John Oxx, who was completing a quick double after Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) entered the annals of history an hour and a half earlier. "I have had other great days here, such as when Namid (GB) and Sinndar (Ire) won the Prix de l'Abbaye and Arc in 2000, but you never know if they will come again," Oxx said. "Having said that, my achievement is less remarkable than His Highness The Aga Khan's. This is a very genuine horse who needs soft ground at a mile and three quarters, but over extended distances, good ground is fine. Hopefully, he'll make up into a Gold Cup prospect next year." Yeats Retirement Confirmed...

While the stellar performance of Sea the Stars stole the headlines on a glorious autumn afternoon in Paris, record-breaking G1 Ascot Gold Cup hero Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) brought down the curtain on an illustrious career in the G1 Prix du Cadran. Connections confirmed the eight-year-old entire would not race again following a third-place finish in the marathon €250,000 event. "He ran a great race and the big danger was that he would get hurt, as he's been on the go for seven years now," Aidan O'Brien said of Yeats. "I'll never get another horse like Yeats, he's a once-in-a-lifetime horse." Prepared for an attempt on the 2003 G1 Epsom Derby, Yeats was forced to miss that Blue Riband appointment after garnering that year's G2 Leopardstown Derby trial, but returned the following season to claim the G1 Coronation Cup over the Derby course and distance. He failed to win in three subsequent starts, but gained the first of his Gold Cup triumphs at the 2006 Royal Ascot meet. Despite a reversal in the 2006 G1 Melbourne Cup, further success followed, and he added a second Gold Cup before gaining his sole victory in the G1 Irish St Leger in 2007. Yeats equaled Sagaro's record with a third straight score in the 2008 Gold Cup, and backed up that victory with a second G2 Goodwood Cup and a win in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak, his only success in four attempts at Longchamp. Below par on unsuitable ground in the Apr. 26 Listed Vintage Crop S. at Navan on seasonal return, he lit up this semester's Royal Ascot with a record breaking fourth success in the June 18 Gold Cup, but was again undone by ground conditions in the Sept. 12 G1 Irish St Leger in his penultimate start. "To think he was trained as a two-year-old and then for the Derby at one point, it's incredible," joint-owner John Magnier told PA Sport. "He's one of the greatest stayers I can remember--the last one was probably Sagaro. We have had great fun with him, and this is the beginning of something new. I suppose we will just have to find something to replace him." Yeats retires with a career record of 26-15-2-2 and earnings of €1,887,624.

Kept on the go through the Summer, the dark bay was off the board in three tries in group company before enjoying a class drop when successful in a competitive six-furlong heritage handicap at Newmarket July 8. He was revived by that experience, and found only Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) too strong in the G3 King George S. over Goodwood's fast five furlongs July 30, then was caught close home by Strike the Deal (Van Nistelrooy) over that same trip in the Sept. 19 G3 Dubai Duty Free World Trophy at Newbury. Always perfectly poised behind the leaders against the fence here, Total Gallery found a seam up the inner to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and refused to let the favorite by in the final 100 yards. Johnny Murtagh, who also partnered Namid to success nine years ago, commented, "He is an improving sprinter and has got faster and more professional the more he has raced. He is naturally quick and I got to the front too soon, because he changed legs, but, when the others came, they helped him." Trainer Stan Moore added, "He's a top-notch horse and what he did early on in the year was a bonus, as I always said we'd aim for the Abbaye, and hopefully be in the first four. It is tough for three-year-olds, but he has improved and improved, and was pretty awesome there. Johnny said that he is the best of the Namids he has ridden and will be better next year, so I'd say that is him done for the season, and we'll make our plans next year as the world is our oyster."

Aug. 9 and the seven-furlong GI Del Mar Futurity Sept. 7. The $475,000 KEEAPR juvenile was being asked to tackle two turns here as the odds-on pick and handled the assignment with verve. Away alertly from the two hole, he settled into an easy stride along the rail as they laid down :23.23, :47.54 and 1:11.56 splits. After being angled out on the backstretch, the bay progressed into contention on the turn, forged to lead in upper stretch and was well clear as five others comprised the place photo. Mike Smith, who rode runner-up Pulsion, hailed the winner. "Forget about [him] being the best two-year-old on the West Coast," he said. "I think the best two-year-old in the country won the race." It was trainer Bob Baffert's fifth Norfolk win in 13 years, and it left him feeling confident in advance of a tilt in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita Nov. 7. "He's the best two-year-old I've had in the last five years," Baffert said. "He's got something different than the other ones have ever had, and it's exciting. I'm becoming a big fan of his watching him run." Lookin at Lucky's dam, Private Feeling, is slated to sell at Fasig-Tipton November from the draft of Taylor Made Sales. Blind Luck was thrown in against $40,000 maidens at Calder June 21 and responded by scampering off to a 13 1/4-length victory in her only start for trainer James Hatchett. Making her debut for the Jerry Hollendorfer barn July 29, the chestnut posted another easy score--this time on the Polytrack--at Del Mar July 29. Facing the talented Mi Sueno (Pulpit) last time, the filly had to settle for second--beaten one length--in the seven-furlong GI Darley Debutante S. over the ocean-side oval Sept. 5. "In the [GI Del Mar] Debutante, she was all over the place with me and I really think that if she'd run down there like she did today, she'd have won it," said winning rider Tyler Baze. Sent off the joint second choice in her route debut, Blind Luck settled well off pacesetter Always a Princess, who reeled off opening splits of :23.04, :47.59 and 1:12.12. Closing three wide turning for home, the filly took over at the sixteenth pole and drew clear late to score comfortably. "She was a little keen at the break and it took me a moment to get her to settle," said Baze. "Things got a little tight around the first turn, but besides that, we had a clean trip. Turning for home, the seas parted and she ran great to the wire. As far as I'm concerned, she's the best 2-year-old filly in California. She's doing everything right now and I can't wait to ride her Nov. 6 [in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies]." In regards to the runner up, trainer Bob Baffert added, "[Always a Princess] got a little tired at the end, but she did all the running. This will set her up perfect for the Breeders' Cup." Le Gran Cru came home third behind Pinckney Hill (A.P. Indy) going a mile in a turf allowance here in May, before tiring to fifth going a sixteenth further over Belmont's rain-soaked course June 6. On the main track for his next start, the dark bay scored by five lengths June 25, but failed to make an impact when fourth in the six-panel GIII Jaipur S. on the lawn July 18. Filling that same spot in the nine-furlong Albert the Great S. at the Spa Aug. 10, Le Grand Cru could do no better than that in his latest in a Sept. 23 allowance while trying seven panels over the local sod. Sent off the second choice in this scratch-decimated field, the colt settled just behind the early pace, moved up to take command after a half mile in :48.60 and had enough left to hold off Ready's Echo. "It was an easy trip in a three-horse race," said winning rider Jose Lezcano. "He broke sharp...and I thought the outside was better. When I asked him, he gave me everything he had." Originally scheduled as a Grade II on Belmont's 10-race card Sunday, the Kelso was among races downgraded after all of the turf events were redirected to the main track. Additionally, the eight-furlong test, originally part of the Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' program, would not provide an automatic berth into this season's Mile at Oak Tree Nov. 7.

The Ontario-bred resurfaced Aug. 29 in a local affair that was washed off the grass, and overcame trouble to take it by a length. After breaking from the rail here, the dark bay was content to caboose the field through the opening three-quarters.

He took the overland route on the far turn, ranged up to Ice Bear's throatlatch in midstretch and gradually put away that grey to record a career-best success. "He's a serious horse," said winning trainer Mark Casse. "His last race was remarkable to me. That's why we went ahead and took a shot. We need somebody to replace Marchfield [A.P. Indy, last year's Canadian champion older horse that recently sustained a career-ending injury]. I don't know if he's Marchfield, but he's pretty good. We'll see how he comes out of it. If he continues to train the way he has, he can go anywhere." Casse has always been high on his charge. "He was injured as a two-year-old," the conditioner explained. Duff is hard to peg back given seven furlongs and fast ground, and the six-year-old underlined that when taking the G2 Park S. at Doncaster on his latest run Sept. 12. Sent straight to the lead until headed by Advanced (GB) after 1 1/2 furlongs here, he was ridden clear again off the home turn and dug deep under a drive as the pack closed in. "You could think you are a racehorse trainer when you have a horse like him," trainer Edward Lynam told PA Sport. "We are thinking of going to Hong Kong with him. The trick is to get a rating of 115, then we'd have a choice of the mile or sprint race over there. He only needs to go up one pound and, after today, I think he'll go up enough. [Jockey] Fran [Berry] gave him a great ride, and he gets on very well with him." Click for the Racing Post chart. Video, courtesy of attheraces.

Sassoaloro tracked the leaders in fourth through the opening exchanges here and traveled best of all as the field straightened for home. He was pushed to the front soon after and galloped on relentlessly to the line over the tiring ground. "We were really quite optimistic about Sassoaloro's chances, as his form in Turkey was very good," said trainer's daughter Alida Blume. "He could run in another group or listed race in Italy now; those are his options."

Eskendereya, making just his second career start, was runner-up going 1 1/16 miles over the Saratoga turf in his Sept. 7 bow. Allowed to lope along near the back of the five-horse field, the strapping chestnut rallied between rivals and sputtered to the lead at midstretch before pulling clear for a confident tally. "It was a very good effort," said trainer Todd Pletcher, who swept Belmont's juvenile stakes yesterday. "The horse had trained very well and we knew he was an improving horse. He got excluded from a maiden race, so we decided to take a shot in the stake. When it came off, we had a decision to make, but we felt like the horse had improved in his training recently on the dirt and felt like it was worth taking a shot. I was particularly pleased with the way he finished up and the way he galloped out, I'd say that he's typical of the Giant's Causeways and probably good on any surface. We'll talk to the owners about his next start; we have a lot of options." Originally a 'Win in You're In' event, yesterday's winner of the Pilgrim will not receive an automatic berth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Santa Anita Nov. 7. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Dad's Crazy, making her first start on the main track when this affair came off the lawn, followed a debut fourth at Belmont July 10 with a fifth-place finish at Saratoga Aug. 19, and was coming off a runner-up effort at the Spa Sept. 7. The bay filly trailed her two rivals as Fuzzy Britches set a moderate pace with Tapitsfly in close attendance. Dad's Crazy moved to the lead in upper stretch and pulled clear to the wire. "Todd [Pletcher] told me in the paddock that she's a difficult horse to get to relax, but she relaxed very well for me today and finished well," said winning rider Julien Leparoux. "It was perfect sitting right behind the other two horses today. The main goal was to get her to relax and keep her covered up. I think she will run on anything." Pletcher admitted the scratch-shortened field proved an attractive prospect. "It was too good an opportunity to pass up when the field scratched down," he said. "She may be a better filly on turf, but she had trained well on dirt. It worked out well. We'll look for something for her towards the end of the meet."

Laurel Guerreiro posted a mild upset when taking the Mar. 29 G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen, and has been well back in his two starts since. The dark bay proved his first Group 1 score was not a fluke, however, with this game effort. Fifteenth in the G1 Yasuda Kinen when stretched to 1600 meters June 7, he was back at this trip for the Sept. 13 G2 Centaur S., but beat just one home that afternoon. The five-year-old was off at double-digit odds here. Quickly into stride, Laurel Guerreiro opened his advantage to three lengths as they came into the lane, then had to dig down deep as B B Guldán closed to get the nod at the wire. According to trainer Mitsugu Kon, the winner was not on top of his game. "He was not in the best condition coming into this race and was a little underweight," Kon said. "He deserves much credit for giving a quality performance and proving himself fit as a Group 1 winner despite our concerns." The G1 Hong Kong Sprint in December could be on the calendar for the Laurel Guerreiro. Click for the Racing Post chart.

RACING Round-Up

'BIRD' FLYING HIGH AFTER GOLD CUP WIN

Classic winner Summer Bird (Birdstone) appeared to be back in fine fettle yesterday morning, only a day after the Jayaraman family's sophomore recorded his first victory against older foes in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont. "He was bouncing and playing this morning, and ate up everything [Saturday] night," trainer Tim Ice said Sunday. "He's feeling better than me--that rain just killed me [Saturday] afternoon and now I've got a cold. I couldn't be happier with the way he looks this morning, though." According to Ice, the chestnut will be supplemented to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, both to be contested at Santa Anita Nov. 7. "He's already trained four months [over the Santa Anita Pro-Ride] and he has [recorded] solid works over it," explained Ice. "I think we could put him on anything and he'd run. We'll probably be in against a bunch of turf horses in the Classic anyway." Summer Bird, who is scheduled to return to the track at Belmont either Wednesday or Thursday, is expected to be shipped to California Oct. 12.

MI SUENO RETIRED

Mi Sueno (Pulpit--Madcap Escapade, by Hennessy), winner of the GI Darley Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 5, has been retired after sustaining a condylar fracture to her right front cannon bone, according to published reports. Campaigned by Southern Equine Stable, the filly, who was preparing for a start in Sunday's GI Oak Leaf S., was injured during a workout at Hollywood Park Sept. 29. The bay was bred by a partnership including Southern Equine and Hill 'n' Dale Farm. Southern Equine went to $1.7 million to buy out their partners at the 2007 Keeneland November Sale. Mi Sueno, who underwent surgery last week, is expected to remain at Hollywood for 60 days. The winner of the Aug. 7 GIII Sorrento S., the filly will be bred in 2010. She retires with two wins and two seconds in four lifetime starts and earnings of $288,400.

FABULOUS STRIKE TO BYPASS BC SPRINT

Walter Downey's Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike), runner-up behind Kodiak Kowboy (Posse) in Saturday's GI Vosburgh S., will bypass the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Oak Tree, and will stay in the east to contest either the GIII Fall Highweight at Aqueduct Nov. 26 or Laurel's GI Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash Oct. 24. "I'm pretty sure we're not going to go in the Breeders' Cup," said trainer Todd Beattie. Explaining Saturday's defeat, Beattie added, "The track got deep and heavy for those horses to run in 1:10. I'm disappointed, but we can't win them all, can we?" Beattie, who indicated that a decision will be made within two weeks as to where the six-year-old will start next, said he is currently leaning toward running in the New York feature, because it gives the powerful bay more time between races. Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen, indicated that Kodiak Kowboy might also make his next start in the De Francis or the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile Nov. 28.

EXCUSE FOR ASIATIC BOY IN JC GOLD CUP

Asiatic Boy (Arg) (Not For Sale {Arg}), who was eased to seventh in Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, bled during the race, trainer Kieran McLaughlin said Sunday morning. "We'll adjust, and treat him," said McLaughlin. "It's something we can deal with, but you won't see him in the entry box anytime soon." Making his fourth start Stateside, the six-year-old finished fourth behind Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) in his most recent start in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 5.

F-T EASTERN YEARLINGS SALE STARTS The Fasig-Tipton Eastern Fall Yearlings Sale begins its two-day run in Timonium, Maryland today with the first of 670 catalogued yearlings going through the newly renovated sales ring at 10 a.m. Stallions represented by their first crop of yearlings in the catalogue include: A.P. Warrior, Aragorn (Ire), Around the Cape, Artie Schiller, Badge of Silver, Bandini, Bellamy Road, Bernardini, Cherokee's Boy, Congrats, Da Stoops, Deputy Storm, Flower Alley, Forest Grove, Giacomo, Good Reward, Greeley's Galaxy, Henny Hughes, Imperialism, Leading the Parade, Love of Money, Pies Prospect, Shaniko, Sharp Humor, Show Tune, Silver Train, Suave, Survivalist, The Daddy, Unbridled Energy, and With Distinction. During last year's three-day auction, 483 yearlings grossed $8,211,600. The average, $17,001, declined 26.8 percent from 2007, while the median of $9,000 was down 10 percent. A son of Holy Bull attracted 2008's top price of $320,000.

GRAZEN RETIRED Graded stakes winner Grazen (Benchmark--Hazen, by Rubiano), who was pulled up as the favorite in Saturday's California Cup Classic H. at the Oak Tree meeting, has been retired from racing. The three-year-old suffered a tendon injury to his right leg while leading the field into the stretch. "Grazen is very comfortable this morning," said trainer Mike Mitchell. "He's walking great and he's putting a lot of pressure on it as he walks. He doesn't look as though he favors his leg at all. He is retired, though, and thank God we didn't have to put him down. Hopefully there'll be a little spot for him as a stallion in California. That would be nice." Grazen began his sophomore campaign with three straight victories, culminating with a 2 3/4-length victory in the June 20 GIII Affirmed H. He was second in the July 18 GII Swaps S. before returning to the winner's circle in the Sept. 5 El Cajon S. at Del Mar. On the board in five of seven starts for owner Nick Alexander, Grazen retires with four wins and earnings of $245,400. Also pulled up in the California Cup Classic, Blackbriar (Cape Town) suffered a fractured right sesamoid and was euthanized.

Yesterday's Results:

5th-BEL, $44,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:38 1/5, gd. AILALEA (f, 2, Pulpit--Wood Sprite {SW}, by Woodman) bobbed at the break in her debut at Saratoga July 30, but made up some ground to be third, beaten over seven lengths. She again rallied when a close-up fourth going seven furlongs at the Spa Sept. 6, and was a 6-1 shot adding more ground here. The Starlight colorbearer was content to track near the back of the pack up the backstretch, but began picking off foes with a wide move rounding the turn. She turned into the stretch with a full head of steam, dueled briefly with Quiet Temper (Quiet American) and put that rival away en route to the sharp four-length triumph. Quiet Temper was easily second best. Favored Muhaawara (Unbridled's Song--Habibti) was a dull fourth. The victress, a $340,000 KEESEP yearling, is a half to Spritely (Touch Gold), MSW & GISP, $462,628; and Sea of Trees (Belong to Me), GSP, $303,335. Calder Eliminates Stakes, Cuts Purses:

Calder Race Course, citing declines in handle, announced yesterday that it has eliminated three stakes and reduced the purses on two other black-type events. The following races were canceled:

- $100,000 GIII Frances Genter H.
- $100,000 Fred W. Hooper H.
- $100,000 Tropical Park Oaks.

The Genter H. will lose its graded status, as mandated by American Graded Stakes Committee rules, because it was also canceled in 2008. The Calder Derby saw its purse cut $50,000 to $100,000, while the Calder Oaks purse was trimmed $25,000 to $75,000. Overnight purses will be cut 15 percent, effective Oct. 8. The Miami Gardens, Florida, racetrack has been hindered by wet weather, which forced 33 of 40 turf races to be moved to the main track in September. A total of 127 of 216 (58 percent) turf races have been lost year-to-date, which has affected handle. Track management believes alternative gaming, once operational, will eventually reverse the trend of declining purses.

opening three quarters. Tipped five wide for the stretch drive, she came with a sustained run and just got up in the shadow of the wire. Winning jockey Richard Dos Ramos said the filly's stature may have allowed her to handle the soft terrain. "She's such a small filly, we figured she wouldn't sink too far into the bog," said Dos Ramos. "She handled it really nicely. When I asked her to run down the lane, she gave me everything." Added winning trainer Roger Attfield, "She's full of grit. She's a tiny pocket-rocket. It was a very thrilling finish. She's a filly that has really come around. Inaugural California Cup Yearling Sale Today:

Barretts will conduct its renamed California Cup Yearling Sale today in Pomona, with bidding beginning at 11 a.m. The catalogue, consisting almost entirely of California-bred youngsters, features 282 yearlings. During last year's California Fall Selected Yearling Sale, 149 head sold for $2,486,600. The average was $16,689 and the median was $9,000. Top price of $135,000 was brought by a daughter of Speightstown. Last year's leading consignor, Havens Bloodstock, is well-represented again in this year's catalogue with 55 yearlings scheduled to sell.

Crisis of Spirit was produced by an unraced daughter of Mike Pegram's superb champion Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy). She was given a 2-1 chance in her debut at Del Mar Sept. 5 and was a good second, beaten 3/4 lengths by Always a Princess (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), who came back to be runner-up in yesterday's GI Oak Leaf S. at Santa Anita. Hammered down to 4-5 favoritism in this second go, she was away alertly from post three and was clear as she sped through a half in :45 3/5. FALLON LOOKS FORWARD TO COOLMORE

SUPPORT Jockey Kieren Fallon, out of luck over the two-day Arc weekend, is preparing for an attack on next year's British jockeys' championship, and can look forward to some support from his former employers at Ballydoyle, it was revealed yesterday. Speaking at Longchamp, owner Michael Tabor indicated Fallon would be used in some capacity in the future, if the jockey's services were required. "We are delighted to see him back and, hopefully, he'll be riding for us at some time in the near future," said Tabor. "He's as good as it gets." Confirming his intention to reclaim the jockeys' title, Fallon, who recently returned from an 18-month ban, added, "I'm better, mentally and physically, than I was before [the ban], and I'm thankful for all the support I've been getting. If I'm going to win [back] the championship, I'm going to need all the support I can get. I'm up for the challenge, I'm going to fight for it, and I'm looking forward to next year."
