ICON PROJECT UNLIKELY FOR BC

Andrew Rosen's Icon Project (Empire Maker), an emphatic winner last out of the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga Aug. 30, is "less than 50-50" to make the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies Classic at Santa Anita Nov. 6, according to Daily Racing Form. The four-year-old's connections had opted to skip the GI Beldame S. at Belmont Oct. 3 in favor of getting a run over a synthetic surface in the

Horsephotos

GI Juddmonte Spinster S. last Sunday at Keeneland, but she was not entered for that race. Trainer Marty Wolfson told DRF that the bay filly bled during a workout at Calder; her most recent move was a four-furlong drill in :52.40 Oct. 4. Shipped to an Ocala, Florida, farm, Icon Project is reportedly undergoing treatment in a hyperbaric chamber, and is currently in light training.

TRYING TWICE

Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) will bid to better his second in last year's G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. after connections gave the go-ahead for a repeat bid in Saturday's Newmarket feature. Khalid Abdullah's four-year-old colt, who found trouble 12 months ago when six lengths behind winner New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), is coming into the 10-furlong contest off a smooth win in the Sept. 23 Listed Foundation S. at Goodwood. Trainer Henry Cecil, who saddled Champion heroines Indian Skimmer (Storm Bird) in 1988 and Bosra Sham (Woodman) in 1996, said, "We have decided to have a crack at the Champion, as the horse seems very well. He does go a bit better with cut in the ground, but I hope he can still go well."

TATTS OCTOBER BOOK 2 CONCLUDES

Book 2 of Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale finished last night with a turnover of 20,565,500gns, up five percent on 2008. The 25,000gns median dropped by 14 percent and the 33,936gns average by 12 percent. The 83-percent clearance rate compared with 71 percent 12 months ago.

Angus Gold of Shadwell bought the session topper, a Medicean (GB) colt (lot 1400) who produced a bumper pinhook profit. Purchased as a foal for 16,000gns by agent Will Edmeades for a syndicate of 145 staff at Juddmonte's farms in Britain and Ireland, the colt resold for 220,000gns to Gold, who won a battle with trainer Amanda Perrett.

Lot 1400 Tattersalls

"As I've said before, we've got some nice Medicean two-year-olds coming through, and we had nice winner by him in Meezaan at Lingfield this afternoon," said Gold. The yearling is out of the unraced Navajo Rainbow (GB) (Rainbow Quest), a half-sister to Group 1 winner Mus-If (GB) (Lahib).

Many of the successful syndicate were celebrating at Park Paddocks and Juddmonte's general manager Philip Michell commented: "We started the syndicate in 1998 when we bought a King's Theatre colt [subsequently named Royal Shakespeare] for 15,000gns and resold him for 200,000gns and thought this was easy. But we have since realised we got lucky then and it's great when it works out for all the staff. Anybody who works on any of the farms can take part." Cont. p2-3

BOOK 2

Oct. 12-14

Getting Motivated...

Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's yearling purchasing was completed after John Warren paid 150,000gns for a Motivator (GB) colt (lot 1246) out of Intaaj (Ire) (Machiavellian). Bred by Alexandra Chandris, the bay was consigned by The Sussex Stud. "We've bought 14 this year, which is about the same as 12 months ago, and it's possible we could also buy in December and the breeze-ups and end up with 17 or 18 two-year-olds next season," said Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's managing director Harry Herbert. "Our yearling parades start on Sunday and we will now put together our syndicates and try to place this fellow. He was one of John's star lots of the catalogue and was very like his father."

Trainer Marcus Tregoning picked up two six-figure lots. The first was a 110,000gns Encosta De Lago (Aus) colt out of Jabali (Fr) (Shirley Heights {GB}) (lot 1254) from the family of Montjeu and consigned from Highclere Stud. The second was a 125,000gns son of High Chaparral (Ire) out of Pay the Bank (GB) (High Top {Ire}) (lot 1449) consigned from Frank Barry's Manister House Stud. The yearling is a half-brother to Group 1 placed My Branch (GB) (Distant Relative {Ire}).

"The High Chaparral's been bought for the owner of Askar Tau (Kazakhstan-based Nurlan Bizakov), who loves the racing in this country because it's the best in the world," said Tregoning after seeing off agent John O'Byrne, who was standing with Charles O'Brien. "I'm very pleased to get this colt and the stallion's doing very well. He should be a three-year-old type. The Encosta de Lago was a very nice horse from a top stud that had presented him very well. I haven't seen too many by the sire but, having seen a picture of him, this colt looked very similar to his father conformation wise. He's been bought for an existing client."

Book 3 of the October Yearling Sale takes place today and tomorrow, and at the end of last night's trading Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony reflected: "We were delighted with the trade at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale last week and it has been equally pleasing to see it mirrored over the three days of Book 2. It seems extraordinary to be able to reflect on Books 1 and 2 of the October Yearling Sale in such positive terms, bearing in mind the continuing economic uncertainties, but the strength of both sales has been remarkable. Cont. p3

“The quality of the yearlings has been a key factor for which we must thank our vendors, and the major buyers who made last week such a success have again been active at the top of the Book 2 market,” Mahony continued. “The sustained demand at all levels and a clearance rate in excess of 80 percent have been further positive aspects to take out of the sale. British and Irish buyers have been out in force from start to finish and, while the new Tattersalls Millions was the major attraction for Book 1, the Racing Post Yearling Bonus Scheme has been a great incentive for everyone this week. It is a well thought-out initiative and its benefits will be felt even more strongly next year. In addition to the domestic demand, the support from throughout Europe and further afield has been crucial and has confirmed the enduring global appeal of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale even in these difficult times. Another feature of both Books 1 and 2 has been the success enjoyed by so many of the foal buyers. Profitable pinhooking is always an indication of a robust market and encouraging not only for Book 3 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale which begins Thursday at 10 a.m., but also the forthcoming Tattersalls December Foal Sale.” Complete results are available on www.tattersalls.com.

Irish Lights provided Coolmore sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill) his first Group 1 victory. The filly was purchased out of last year's Inglis Easter sale for

A$230,000 by Coolmore's Demi O'Byrne. "We raced Fastnet Rock and to get a filly as good as her, who does everything right, it's great," commented Coolmore Australia General Manager Michael Kirwan.

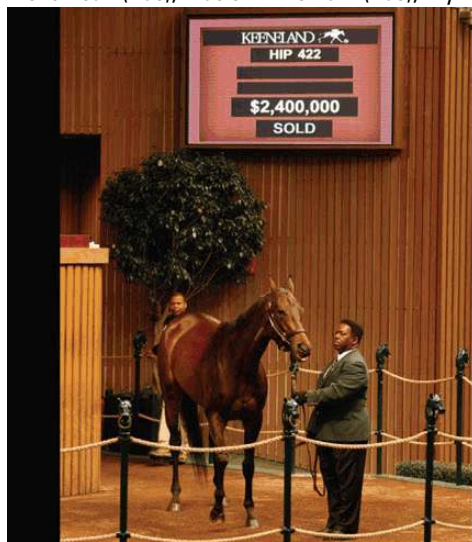

The victory was the 169th Group 1 win for the Lindsay Park yard of trainer David Hayes. Hayes, who said Irish Lights would be tested against older mares in the G1 Myer Classic during Flemington's Melbourne Cup week, has announced plans to sell the Lindsay Park racing and training complex. Inglis is acting as selling agent for the property and expressions of interest will be taken through Oct. 24. Irish Lights' second dam River Crossing is a half-sister to Kentucky Broodmare of the Year Fall Aspen (Pretense), the dam of Timber County (Woodman), Northern Aspen (Northern Dancer), Hamas (Ire) (Danzig) and Fort Wood (Sadler's Wells).

Under new racing tactics, Cafrune rallied from off the pace to overtake the favorite in the closing meters en route to clinch his most significant career victory. The top three finishers will likely target the G1 Gran Premio Dardo Rocha, La Plata's premiere event in November. Cafrune had previously finished fourth in the opening legs of the series. During his juvenile campaign, he captured the G3 Clasico Luis Maria Doyhenard and G3 Clasico Asociacion de Propietarios de Sangre Pura de Carrera de Buenos Aires.

RACING ROUND-UP

Girolamo, Regal Ransom Breeders' Cup Bound...

Godolphin's Girolamo (A.P. Indy) and Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor) are slated to ship to Santa Anita Monday to prepare for the Breeders' Cup, Daily Racing Form reports. The three-year-old colts will be pre-entered in both the $5-million GI BC Classic and $1-million GI BC Dirt Mile. Regal Ransom came back from a lengthy break to take the GII Super Derby Sept. 19, while Girolamo won his third straight race in the GII Jerome H. at Belmont this past Sunday. "Both of them are going to go out there and train as if they're going to run in one of the two races," assistant trainer Rick Mettee told DRF. "Saeed and [racing manager] Simon Crisford said that we wouldn't have to make a decision until entry time which one would go where." Breeders' Cup pre-entries must be made by Oct. 26, and fields will be drawn Nov. 3. Godolphin has two other like runners for the Dirt Mile--run on Pro-Ride--in Midshipman (Unbridled's Song) and Pyro (Pulpit).

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

NTRA FILES PETITION TO DELAY UIGEA COMPLIANCE

NTRA recently filed a petition with U.S. Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner to delay implementation of regulations for the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA).

The move comes as legislation to put off enforcement of the regulations is being held up in a Congress focused on health care reform. Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA) introduced a bill in April that would delay for one year final implementation of the UIGEA regulations, scheduled to go into effect on December 1, 2009.

The Treasury Department and Federal Reserve, in consultation with the Justice Department, produced final regulations supporting the 2006 UIGEA to prohibit the use of credit for online gaming. Pari-mutuel wagering would be exempt, but NTRA and other horse industry interest groups remain concerned that some banks and other financial institutions may become overcautious and over block all such transactions, even those made legally on pari-mutuel wagering.

The Poker Players Alliance and the American Greyhound Track Operators Association co-signed the petition with the NTRA. Geithner has 180 days to respond to the petition.

RISING OF THE PHOENIX

By Christina Bossinakis

For all of his success and professional accomplishments, Bradley Wayne Hughes probably never imagined himself becoming a hero in the horse racing industry. However, with the purchase and the subsequent restoration of historic Spendthrift Farm in Lexington, some might argue that is exactly what he has become. On June 25, 2004, Hughes purchased the 733-acre tract of land from a partnership headed by Bruce Kline, who previously bought the property from Ted Taylor in 2000. Throughout most of the 20th century, Leslie Combs II developed Spendthrift into the epitome of racing, breeding and sales, but in the final decade of the century, the Kentucky showplace had fallen onto hard times, with many of its structures and edifices deteriorating from disuse.

"The history of Spendthrift is an intriguing subject," said Hughes. "The stallion barn is a big piece of the Spendthrift history."

Among the equine luminaries to have graced the barns and fields of Spendthrift Farm are Triple Crown heroes Seattle Slew and Affirmed; nine Kentucky Derby winners, including Foolish Pleasure, Proud Clarion, Swaps, Decidedly, Nashua and Dark Star; and leading sires Caro, Raise a Native, My Babu, Gallant Man and Exclusive Native.

"We are basically caretakers of that history, and if we are going to take good care of it, it doesn't seem like ripping down that barn, where the best part of our history resides, would be the best approach," said Hughes.

"We put in new barns, and the main house, which was run down, we have now made into an office. We built a few houses on the farm. There has been quite a bit of change on the property over the last few years."

While plenty of time and resources have been channeled into returning Spendthrift to its former splendor, Hughes acknowledged that the restoration of the Kentucky landmark has granted him a level of satisfaction beyond financial reward.

"Many of the breeders in Kentucky have come to me and thanked me for improving and trying to bring Spendthrift back to its better days, when the reality is that I should be thanking them for breeding their horses here, and once again making this a historic place for the Thoroughbred industry," he said.

Early Start...

Born in Gotebo, Oklahoma, in 1933, Hughes moved to the West Coast with his family at a young age and grew up in the San Gabriel Valley in Southern California. At the tender age of 11, Hughes was first introduced to racing by his father, a factory worker, who would frequent nearby Santa Anita Park in Arcadia. Having been bitten by the racing bug early, Hughes continued to go to the races, on his own accord, through his high school and college years.

"When I was in high school, I would go out to Santa Anita with my friends, because you could get in free for the last race," explained Hughes. "We had a lot of fun in those days, and that was basically what attracted me to the sport."

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Hughes embarked on a career in real estate and moved to San Marino, where he met fellow horseracing enthusiasts Jim Mamakos and Marc Stubrin. At a sale in Pomona in 1970, the trio purchased three mares, the highest of which cost a mere $600. Later named Winston Stable--after the street on which the three friends lived at the time--the partnership invested in its first two-year-old at a sale at Hollywood Park in 1971. Named Patmos, the colt--trained by Warren Stute--proved to be only a modest winner in the claiming ranks, but Hughes's fortune--at least at the professional level--was about to change. Inspired by an over-loaded self-storage facility in Texas in 1972, Hughes conceived of, and later founded, Public Storage, a multi-billion dollar operation that vaulted him onto the Forbes 100 list of the nation's wealthiest people. In 1991, Hughes secured his first horse farm, a 10-acre tract of land in Malibu, which is currently managed by Seth Semkin and used as a lay-up center.

Taste of Success...

Hughes enjoyed his first taste of graded-stakes success in 1994 when Trishyde (Nureyev) landed the GIII Fleur de Lis H.

Action This Day

at Churchill Downs. Campaigned in partnership with Tracy Farmer and Three Chimneys, Hughes raced the $450,000 KEEJUL yearling purchase Joyeux Danseur (Nureyev), who won four stakes during the 2004 season, including the GI Early Times Turf Classic and the GIII Explosive Bid H. Having also celebrated graded-stakes success with Don't Get Mad (Stephen Got Even), Siphonizer (Siphon {Brz}), Greeley's Galaxy (Mr. Greeley), Teton Forest (Forestry) and Osidy (Storm Cat), Hughes admittedly enjoyed his greatest success with Action This Day (Kris S.) in 2003. Secured for $150,000 at the Keeneland July Sale in 2002, the bay rounded out his juvenile season with a score in GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita, earning a divisional championship in the process.

"Probably my best moment in racing so far has been with Action This Day when he won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile," confirmed Hughes. "It was a big surprise to us. I never go into a race like that expecting to win. The fact that we did was just great. My friends told me afterward that I didn't want to leave the winner's circle. Racing is just fantastic. Getting to the winner's circle is a very good thing, and everything we do is a means to that end. That win was very satisfying and rewarding."

A Piece of History...

In the early part of the '90s, Hughes became increasingly active in a variety of segments of the racing industry, and by the early part of this decade, Hughes began to take an interest in finding a farm in Central Kentucky.

"We raced our horses for about 10 years, and during that time, we ended up with some mares when our fillies would come off the track," explained Hughes, who previously sent his broodmare prospects to Lexington-area Three Chimneys, Lane's End and Walmac.

"Pretty soon, we had a bunch of mares, and I decided that I wanted to have my mares all in one place, so my family could enjoy them more," he said.

"We had been looking for a couple of years, trying to find something that matched up with what we wanted. We absolutely fell in love with Spendthrift--the history and the farm--even though it was much larger than we anticipated. I'm happy with the purchase. It makes me feel like a part of Kentucky."

Hughes sells all of the young stock bred at Spendthrift, and looks to the sales to stock his racing team. Currently standing at Spendthrift are Don't Get Mad, Into Mischief, Malibu Moon, Notional, Teton Forest and Tiz Wonderful.

"We buy at the two-year-old sales, yearling sales and breeding stock sales," he said. "We operate in every segment of the industry, and I don't really see any change on the horizon, since it has worked well for us. In fact, we're very happy to be going to the sales every year. We were fortunate to do well at the sales this year, especially during a time when some others didn't do as well."

While the desire to restore Spendthrift to its former splendor is strong, Hughes points toward a greater purpose that keeps him moving forward in the sport of horse racing.

"Spendthrift has this marvelous history, and I am the caretaker here," he said. "I take that responsibility very seriously, but what I like the most about the sport is the horse itself. I think they are magnificent creatures, and I really enjoy the racing game."

PROVENANCE

FIST OF RAGE (Consolidator)

Owner Drew Rayman has been active for the last handful of years at yearling sales, picking up mostly inexpensive horses with an eye on reselling at one of the juvenile sales the next season. His advisor Ken McPeek went to $55,000 for hip 65, a chestnut colt from the first crop of GISW Consolidator (Storm Cat), at last year's Fasig-Tipton July Kentucky's Freshman Sire Showcase. What caught the team's collective eye?

"He was just a really sharp-looking chestnut," said Rayman, a resident of Westchester County, New York, who has been pinhooking horses since 2004. "He [Ken McPeek] is looking for the next Curlin, and he's bought champions every year. He just has an eye for these inexpensive horses. I was looking to pinhook and he tells me he's got an athletic horse by Consolidator, so I say OK."

Rayman sent his purchase to consignor Niall Brennan, who was to prepare the colt for the OBS March Sale. But he never made it further than the catalogue.

"I get a phone call from McPeek as he's standing right next to the horse, and he says, 'Pull the horse from the sale,'" Rayman recollected yesterday by phone. "If you ever owed it to yourself to get a good horse--I'm not saying he's going to be a champion--but he is beautiful and as good as you can get, and I want a chance to train him.' That's how positive Kenny was about him. So, I said, 'Kenny, you gave me the call, I'm going to pull him.' And I did."

The grandson of Storm Cat seemed to take on some of that sire's behavioral traits.

"He's spectacular physically, but he's a tough, tough horse," Rayman explained. "Even Niall Brennan said this horse is a bit of an a--hole. He was studdish, he was tough and he wanted to get in there and battle. So, that's why I named him Fist of Rage."

Rayman said that McPeek was looking for a race over an intermediate distance for the colt, but reluctantly settled on yesterday's six-furlong event.

"Kenny said, 'This horse is not going to be a sprinter. He's good enough to sprint, but he's long and he wants two turns,'" Rayman stated. "He put him in here and said, 'Let's give him a shot in here. It's not going to be his distance. But this is a Classic-type horse--he's long, leggy and wants to go.'"

Rayman realizes that Keeneland is the October place to be and was awestruck to be represented by his first winner at the famed Lexington oval.

"I was shocked when I watched the race and he got up," he offered. "That was one of the most thrilling races I have ever seen. I think he's going to be so much fun to watch. To win at Keeneland means everything. It was an honor to be a part of it." --Alan Carasso

Smart Seattle was very impressive rallying to win a 5 1/2-furlong turf dash at Saratoga Aug. 13. She was sent off the chalk when stepped up in distance and class in the 8 1/2-furlong P.G. Johnson S. at the Spa Sept. 3, and ran with credit to be runner-up to Tapitsfly (Tapit). She should get quite a bit more pace to run at in her second go around two turns, especially with the inclusion of longshot speedster Dreaminofjosephine. The impeccably bred Hatheer, a daughter of champion Golden Apples (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), ran second as the favorite to Smart Seattle in that Aug. 13 maiden. She broke through going 1 1/16 miles in her second outing at Saratoga Sept. 7 and has tactical speed. Longshots Jonmil's Edge, third in the Presque Isle Debutante Sept. 26, and Lisa's Kitten, a maiden winner at Belmont Sept. 25, could add value to the exotics. Click for the brisnet.com PPs.

STRANGLES CASE FOUND IN LAMBOURN

Lambourn's training centres were on alert yesterday after it was announced that a case of strangles has been confirmed at Stan Moore's yard. All the customary containment measures are in place after the affected yearling filly was isolated in the Hungerford-based stables, and there is a restriction on the movement of horses until testing is complete. Tim Morris, British Horseracing Authority director of equine science and welfare, said, "Stan called us straight away this morning, and I'm satisfied that all the appropriate steps are being taken to protect other horses in the yard and the rest of the horse population, from infection."

FAREEJ (c, 2, Kingmambo--Adonesque {Ire} {SW & GSP-Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) made a successful winning debut over a mile at Newmarket Oct. 1 and started as the 5-4 joint-favorite alongside Business As Usual (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in this three-runner contest. Settled behind that rival throughout the early stages, the homebred showed the sharper turn of acceleration to lead approaching the furlong marker and assert for a comfortable 2 1/4-length success. MEEZAAN (IRE) (c, 2, Medicean {GB}--Varenka {Ire} {SP-Ity}, by Fasliyev) started out in the Tattersalls Timeform Million at Newmarket 11 days ago and, after failing to get involved in that competitive affair, was backed into 9-2 here. Rushed along from the break, the 200,000gns TATOCT yearling was set alight, but after being allowed to stride to the front settled before kicking decisively at the top of the stretch. Challenged by Mass Rally (Ire) (Kheleyf), he veered right, but when the whip was applied quickened again to settle the issue in the final furlong en route to a convincing 2 1/4-length success. Quick Wit (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), the half-brother to last year's G1 Prix Morny runner-up Gallagher (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}), was slowly away and, after surrendering vital ground, stayed on in eye-catching fashion to finish fifth.
