ABBEY ON CLASSICS ROAD

Backing up a first pattern score in last month's G2 Juddmonte Beresford S. at The Curragh, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) laid down a spectacular marker for next season's Classics with a hugely impressive triumph in Saturday's G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster. Ridden with patience from the outset, the 13-8 favorite settled Britain's final Group 1 contest of the year in an instant. He quickened to the front approaching the final furlong and burst clear thereafter to easily defeat Elusive Pimpernel (Elusive Quality) by 3 3/4 lengths.

"I was concerned about the ground because he's a very light moving horse," admitted trainer Aidan O'Brien, who claimed his fifth renewal with the win. "When you see a horse that can relax, travel and quicken the way he does, it's very exciting. He's a natural, and all we have to do is mind him. He has that real speed a miler needs to have." Cont. p2

SAFE "HAVEN" IN DEFRANCIS DASH

He looked to be spinning his wheels as they raced around the bend in yesterday's G1 Frank J. DeFrancis Dash at Laurel Park, but 4-5 chalk Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}) wasn't done yet. Jockey Alan Garcia kept the paddle-wheeling grey on the fence as they straightened for home and, under a steady left-handed whip, the colt closed the gap. He still seemed to be up against it as they reached the final furlong, but Vineyard Haven finished with a flourish, driving past Ravalo (Mutakddim) from the inside in the shadow of the wire to win it by a half-length. "During the first part of the race I wasn't sure we were going to be able to get there, but when the rail opened my horse just started running for the hole," said Garcia. "He is a really nice horse. This was a great effort." Added Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor, "Going three-quarters instead of seven-eighths makes it an entirely different race. These horses run hard every step. Most have a good amount of speed themselves, and they don't stop until the wire. This was as good a race as he has ever run. It was a great performance, and Alan gave him a really good ride." Cont. p3

(Sadler's Wells) with the scintillating performance of St Nicholas Abbey. Stepping out with a four-length debut success going a mile at The Curragh Aug. 16, St Nicholas Abbey confirmed initial promise with a cozy win in the G2 Juddmonte Beresford S. back over that course and distance in his only other go Sept. 27. Jockey Johnny Murtagh employed patience from flagfall in this sterner test, and positioned his mount behind all 10 rivals. Cruising into contention passing the two pole, St Nicholas Abbey put the race to bed in one fell swoop, and left his rivals for dust thereafter to earn quotes as low as 5-2 for next term's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Derby. Click for the TVG PPs, Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Speed to Spare...

"He's an exciting horse with great speed," said Johnny Murtagh. "He has a great cruising gear and a great turn of foot. They went a nice gallop, but it was nothing special. When I got him out running to the furlong pole, I asked him to quicken and it was all over." O'Brien added, "They went slow, Johnny was super cool on him, and that was very special. He's one of those unique horses who has loads of speed and class, and the trip doesn't seem to be a problem." Veteran handler John Dunlop was delighted with the performance of the hitherto unbeaten Elusive Pimpernel, and told PA Sport, "He has run a cracking race and I think it will prove no disgrace to have been beaten by that winner. You have to be very pleased with that, although I suppose I could be more pleased, but there you go." Connections of third placegetter Al Zir, who also relinquished his unbeaten record, were content with his performance. Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford told PA Sport, "Al Zir has run very well, and there are no excuses. The winner looked very special, and we are going to look forward to next year now. Al Zir will be a mile-and-a-quarter horse next season, although he may stay a bit further, and I think he is a horse who needs a winter on his back."

 Vineyard Haven caught the eye of trainer Bobby Frankel when breaking his maiden for owner/breeder Lynne Scace in his debut at Calder in June of 2008. Purchased privately, he was shipped to Saratoga, where he ran third in the GII Sanford S. and came back to wire the field in the GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. He added an impressive victory in the GI Champagne S., then Frankel cashed in on his astute acquisition, accepting an eight-figure offer from Godolphin. Things did not go smoothly for Vineyard Haven after he was transferred to his new owner. A distant fourth in the Feb. 12 G2 UAE 2000 Guineas, he missed the G2 UAE Derby, and was out of action for 6 1/2 months before resurfacing in the Aug. 28 GI NetJets Kings Bishop S. at the Spa. It seemed an ambitious spot, but the three-year-old was sitting on ready. Sent right to the front, he set a rapid pace and fought back as Capt. Candyman Can (Candy Ride {Arg}) came at him in the stretch. Alan Garcia was a little too enthusiastic with the stick, and Vineyard Haven drifted out into Capt. Candyman Can. He hit the wire a head in front, but was demoted to second. Changing tactics yesterday, Vineyard Haven didn't look comfortable as he rated off the pace on the sloppy strip, but he found an extra gear when he needed it and got up in the waning strides. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

 TVG's Todd Schrupp may have had this one circled, but there were few others in the crowd at Keeneland who could boast a bet on Satans Quick Chick. The bay was batting .500 on synthetic surfaces, with three wins from six starts, but those victories came in a Turfway maiden test back in January and two allowance races routing at Presque Isle Downs May 22 and Aug. 30. In her two most recent stakes attempts, she had finished fifth in the Diamond Ring S. on the grass at Arlington July 11 and, last time out, sixth in the HBPA S. at Presque Isle Sept. 26. There was little to recommend her as she took on a solid field of a sprinting fillies, but Satans Quick Chick wasn't fazed by the board. Finding herself at the back of the pack after getting squeezed at the start, she was tucked in at the rail throughout. The longshot had to steady behind horses at the top of the lane, but she found the necessary gaps once clear, spurting up the inside to get the job done. Flashing (A.P. Indy), the 5-2 favorite, pressed the pace before fading to 12th. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

April Pride could do no better than 11th in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf last October, but improved to be second in the Blue Norther S. Dec. 28. She opened 2009 with another runner-up finish, this time in a Feb. 4 turf allowance at Santa Anita, and followed up with a score in the Mar. 8 China Doll S. Sidelined after that effort, the bay tired to eighth in her return, the Aug. 21 Sandy Blue H. at Del Mar, and entered this off a third in an optional claimer over this course and distance Oct. 1. April Pride was rated in fifth through the opening six furlongs of this test. She had to bide her time as she waited for running room at the top of the lane, but burst through when she got it and was quickly in front, drawing off late to win decisively. "When we straightened out for home, we were going for a really tight hole and we actually had to slow down a bit before we went for it," jockey Garrett Gomez said. "I actually think that helped her, because when I asked her she really accelerated." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Runner-up in the valuable DBS £300,000 St Leger Yearling S. at York Aug. 20, Carnaby Street dropped to ninth when going for another huge pot in the Weatherbys Insurance £300,000 Two-Year-Old S. at Doncaster Sept. 10. He lined up for this after finally shedding maiden status at Goodwood Oct. 11. Breaking well to race in a prominent third from the outset, he was pushed along with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and kept on in determined fashion under a power drive to prevail in a three-way photo. "He travelled well and stuck it out bravely for his first go at the trip," said rider Jimmy Fortune. "It's a big plus when they handle the ground, and he likes the ground. He's tough, he's very game and he's done what he had to do today." Click for the Racing Post chart or Video, courtesy of Racing UK.

Third in both the June 5 G1 Epsom Oaks and July 4 G3 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock, High Heeled bagged a first black-type score in the July 24 Listed Lyric S. at York, but dropped to fifth in the Aug. 1 G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood. She made a quick reappearance after running fourth in the Oct. 17 G2 Pride S. at Newmarket last time, and relished the deep mud here to claim a career high. High Heeled was settled in rear until making smooth headway once into the home straight. She challenged on the bridle at the quarter-mile marker and was urged clear soon after to outclass toiling rivals, leading home an exacta for the Barry Hills stable. "She's really done us proud this year," said winning rider Michael Hills. "She likes some cut in the ground, but we've had one of the driest summers ever. She got me there too early, but I wasn't going to take her out of her rhythm, so I kicked when I was going good, which is important in this ground. Trainer Bart Cummings continued to plunder the Melbourne spring carnival's plum prizes with this audacious move, sending lightly raced So You Think against more seasoned contenders to earn a stunning all-the-way victory. So You Think, a NZ$110,000 buy for Cummings at the NZB Yearling Sale, won first up at Rosehill May 20, and was spelled for 15 weeks. He resurfaced to finish second in the Listed Ming Dynasty S. at Randwick Sept. 5 before winning the G3 Gloaming S. at Rosehill Sept. 19. So You Think's latest run was a fifth-place finish in the G1 Caulfield Guineas Oct. 10. After jumping smartly here, jockey Glen Boss allowed the colt to lead throughout, with fellow sophomore Manhattan Rain in pursuit. "I knew I had it at the half-mile," Boss offered. "I started to stroll up there, you know, roll along, and no one came at me. He just got stronger and stronger; he wobbled around the corner, but it just shouldn't happen that you get that far in front. Bart wanted him midfield, but he broke brilliantly and I didn't want to wrestle him." Cummings, who notched his fourth renewal of the Cox Plate, remarked, "I've had some good ones, and it's hard to compare them. They've all been good mates of mine and helped me a great deal, but this ranks as one of the best. I was very pleased for Bossy. I encouraged him to take the ride. I said, 'Don't worry about wasting--I'll buy you a feed afterwards.'" He added, "You can't buy experience and I've got a bit of that. It's starting to work." Well-supported favourite Whobegotyou (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) was rearward throughout, with a stewards report later indicating the Mark Kavanagh trainee had pulled up sore. # MATE. CHECK.

$25     $50     $75     $100

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate $25, $50, $75, $100 or an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club, through profits earned from its subsidiaries, will provide $200,000 in funding to these charities to supplement the monies raised through the checkoff program in 2009.

Schiaparelli stages a quick return following a bloodless win in the San Siro's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club a week ago. That was his second renewal of that prize, and fifth at this level, having also garnered the 2006 G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg and the 2007 G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf and G1 Preis von Europa at Cologne. All have come at a mile and a half; despite his win over staying trips in the July 30 G2 Goodwood Cup and Aug. 23 G2 Prix Kergolay at Deauville, he found the 1 3/4 miles of the G1 Irish St Leger beyond him when third at The Curragh Sept. 12.

Askar has not been seen since finishing third in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot July 25, having previously won the May 15 G2 Yorkshire Cup and June 5 G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom. Askar Tau warrants respect as the winner of the Aug. 19 G2 Lonsdale Cup and Sept. 11 G2 Doncaster Cup, and was doing his best work at the finish when fifth in the G1 Prix du Cadran here Oct. 4. France's best hope may rest with Manighar. He bounced back from a second in the G3 Prix de Lutece Sept. 6 to take the G2 Prix Chaudenay over the same track and trip Oct. 3.

This fascinating renewal features a pair of Godolphin raiders in Flying Cloud and Lady Marian, who both have questions to answer. The former has to prove fitness, having been off the track since her career-best four-length success in the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 18. Last year's G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Lady Marian has to put two below-par efforts behind her, including a latest sixth when bidding for a repeat success in that Longchamp contest Oct. 4. Chinese White was due to run in that Arc day heat, but a small setback meant that she missed the chance to build on a trio of successes in the Aug. 12 Listed Hurry Harriet S. at Gowran Park and The Curragh's G3 Dance Design S. Aug. 30 and G2 Blandford S. Sept. 12.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Kowboy Up

Kodiak Kowboy (Posse), game winner of the GI Vosburgh S. Oct. 3, will make his next appearance in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old has been on the board in six of seven starts this season, winning the GI Carter H. and running second in the GI Forego S. while with trainer Larry Jones. Third in the Vosburgh last year, he skipped the Breeders' Cup, and instead won the GIII Sport Page H. "He's a solid horse and has been consistent for everybody who has had him," trainer Steve Asmussen, who picked up the bay after the Forego, told DRF. "He's already got two Grade I wins on his resume this year, and has a lot at stake in the Sprint." But the colt, who captured the Victoria S. at Woodbine as a juvenile, has not raced on a synthetic surface since finishing fourth in the Lafayette S. at Keeneland in April of 2008. Asmussen admitted that's a concern. "We're absolutely worried about having to run on the Pro-Ride," he added. "I sure wish the race was on dirt."

Rahystrada raced for his breeder through the end of 2008 before turning this gelding over to the current owner, who served Jaime Carrion for several years as a bloodstock advisor. An easy winner of an Indiana Downs turf allowance May 27, the chestnut was seventh in the Independence Day H. at Mountaineer before bouncing back to take a $50,000 tagger at Arlington July 31. He was fourth in a similar event back at the West Virginia racino Aug. 23 and was the second-longest shot on the board in this tougher test. Reserved while racing out into the track, Rahystrada raced five deep around the far turn, bid into the stretch and skipped away to score by handily. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Nominated to the G1 Epsom Oaks, the chestnut kicked off 2009 with a solid score on the Gulfstream grass Feb. 25, but missed an engagement in the GII Bonnie Miss S. with a minor injury and found herself sidelined for several months. She returned in the John Hettinger S. at Saratoga Aug. 8 and, after leading much of the way, faded to fifth behind Maram (Sahm). Striking Dancer followed that with a close third in a local allowance washed off the turf Oct. 9, and was the 4-1 second choice this time. Unperturbed in sixth as Touch My Soul (Fr) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) dashed off to a lonely lead, the sophomore set sail with a four-wide move entering the lane and drew off smartly to a 5 1/4-length triumph. Changing Skies (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) bested Grassy Nellie (Belong to Me) by a nose for second, while Touch My Soul was swallowed up late and wound up fifth.

Haynesfield reeled off four straight wins last winter, capped by open-company scores on the inner track in the Count Fleet S. Jan. 3 and Whirlaway S. Feb. 7. That streak came to an end when he ran a distant eighth in the Gill Gotham S. Mar. 7, and he was benched for some time thereafter. The chestnut came back Oct. 2 to finish second by a head as the 1-2 chalk in the 6 1/2-furlong Sir Keys S. at Belmont, and was stretching out significantly here. The three-year-old assumed command down the backstretch, held a clear lead at the eighth pole and made it to the wire in time over Ruffino. "That's a pretty big step up off 6 1/2 [furlongs]," said assistant trainer Toby Sheets. "Nice animal. He's been in great shape and has always done better going longer. He's never won at a mile and an eighth, so it was a concern, but he's done better longer." The Empire Classic was the fourth big-race win on the card for rider Ramon Dominguez. "It doesn't get any better--I'm very excited, very excited," Dominguez reflected. "It's special, especially being my first year riding year-round here. It's a very special day here in New York, and to be able to win four races is a great feeling, really." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Driven by Success rounded out the trifecta in three consecutive major events earlier this year: the GI Carter H. Apr. 4, the GI Metropolitan H. May 25 and the GI Tom Fool H. July 5. Second in the John Morrissey H. for New York-breds at Saratoga Aug. 6, the chestnut lost all chance at the start in the GI Forego H. Sept. 5, never saw the lead, and wound up eighth. The crowd's choice put away an early challenge here and pulled clear to a popular victory. "He kind of ran the way I expected," said winning trainer Bruce Levine. "I did some gate work with him; he didn't break sharp in the Forego. We freshened him up a little. We knew after the Forego we weren't going to run until this race. The only thing that would beat him was the slop."

Rightly So aired by 10 1/4 lengths in her second try over the Aqueduct inner track Jan. 25, then scored by 5 3/4 lengths in a state-bred optional claimer over the same strip Mar. 5. However, the dark bay didn't face the starter again until Sept. 16 at Belmont, where she cleared her New York-bred conditions by a slim margin, and was faced with the slop and a salty field here. The Zayat colorbearer went straight to the lead and never looked back, splashing home to record her first black-type victory. "She got a little time off [from March to September] to freshen her up," said assistant trainer Carol Fisher. "She was a hundred percent today. We like this filly a lot; she's one of our favorites." Mineralogist debuted at even-money in New York-bred company June 24, but got off to a rough start and finished a distant fourth. She got the job done at 3-5 against similar foes July 22, then finished second by 3/4 of a length in the Lucy Scribner S. at Saratoga Aug. 24. The Broman homebred pulled away late to take the Joseph A. Gimma S. over a sloppy Belmont strip Sept. 27, and was widely expected to keep up the good work here. That didn't seem likely after she had trouble at the start, but the bay regrouped in the tough conditions, put in a sustained four-wide move and, despite shortening stride late, dug in deep to find the wire in time for her second straight score. "[Jockey] Kent [Desormeaux] still says he doesn't think this is her favorite surface," reported winning trainer John Kimmel. "She gutted it out at the end. He said he had more horse, but she was waiting on horses. It would be my plan to have this as her final race of the year; she's had enough racing, and we'll give her a chance for next year." Fenway Faithful gave way late when second in his first at-bat at the Spa Aug. 22, but got on base with a hard-fought victory at Belmont Sept. 23. In the thick of things from the start here, the chestnut poked his head in front after a half in :45.35 and dug in gamely to earn his first black-type trophy. "He ran in the mud the first start of his life [in Saratoga], and he handled it that day," winning trainer Rick Violette noted. "I don't think he necessarily loved it, but at least that gave him some experience in it. We don't train a lot in the mud in the mornings, so that was valuable experience and he was very game. He was a little bit...not rank, but he certainly dragged Ramon into a spot where he attacked pretty early, and he was just game enough to hang on." Fenway Faithful is a bit ominously named for a New York-bred colt running on a day when the Yankees were scheduled to seek a berth in the World Series. "I hadn't thought of that, but probably," Violette offered. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Rahy's Attorney earned Sovereign Award honors in 2008 following his win in the GI Woodbine Mile. Second by a head in the GIII Connaught Cup to kick off 2009, the bay doubled up with wins in the nine-furlong GII King Edward S. June 27 and 10-furlong GII Nijinsky S. July 26, but found 11 panels too far when sixth in the GII Sky Classic S. Aug. 23. Though he could only manage seventh in his Woodbine Mile defense Sept. 20, the five-year-old was heavily favored in this softer spot. Rahy's Attorney secured a ground-saving trip after breaking from the inside, and skimmed the rail in the lane to secure a smooth success. Breaking from the 12 hole, the dark bay brought up the rear through the opening six furlongs. He was angled to the outside by jockey Chantal Sutherland coming off the far turn and blew past his rivals en route to convincing three-length success, then galloped out with gusto as Dino Dinero (El Prado {Ire}) prevailed in a blanket finish for second. Perfect Loch is the first foal from the unraced Loch Tay, an unraced granddaughter of Special (*Forli) acquired by McMahon Bloodstock for Charles Fipke for $12,000 at KEEJAN in 2006. The mare has a standing date with Fipke's Perfect Soul, producing a filly by the son of Sadler's Wells in 2008 and a colt this past spring, and was bred back to him once more.

MISS AFLEET ALEX (f, 2, Afleet Alex--Go Again Valid {GSW, $291,616}, by Valid Appeal) came up 3/4 of a length short in her debut sprinting on the Lone Star dirt July 17, then missed by a length when stretched out on the Louisiana Downs lawn in the Donnie Wilhite Memorial S. Aug. 15. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice in this return to dirt, the bay filly cabooseed the field for the opening half. She rallied three wide, collared even-money Golden Striker (Langfuhr) approaching the eighth pole and went on to defeat that filly by 3 1/4 lengths. Miss Afleet Alexa, an $8,500 FTKOCT yearling and a $22,000 OBSAPR juvenile, is the 11th winner for her freshman sire (by Northern Afleet). Click for the brisnet.com chart. Lifetime Record: SP, 3-1-2-0, $30,316. Lisa's Kitten, third in a maiden on the Belmont turf in her July debut, was off the board in an off-the-grass maiden at Saratoga Aug. 3 and in the P.G. Johnson S. on the Spa spinach Sept. 3. She graduated on the Belmont lawn Sept. 25, and was smartly placed here. Bet down to 6-5, the Ramsey homebred was unhurried as she tucked in at the rail early. Looking to close as they neared the far turn, she had to take up sharply when a horse stopped abruptly in front of her. She regained her momentum, motoring through at the inside as they entered the stretch and finding the openings she needed to sprint up the rail to an impressive win. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Kera's Kitten gave the Ken and Sarah Ramsey/Mike Maker/Kitten's Joy team an impressive double at Retama. The dark bay had been out just once before, going gate to wire in a Kentucky Downs maiden event Sept. 21. Showing good speed once again while trying black-type company at second asking, he put a head in front after six panels and galloped away from the field down the lane to win as much the best. Click for the brisnet.com chart. TATTS DECEMBER FOALS CATALOGUE

AVAILABLE The catalogue for the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, which offers 950 lots, is now available. It can also be accessed online at www.tattersalls.com. The four-day sale will be held Nov. 25-28. Remarking on this year's consignments, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "This year's Tattersalls December Foal Sale looks set to be a quality renewal. The catalogue has strength and depth, and the recent October yearling sales produced encouraging returns for the pinhookers. In addition to the pinhooking successes, it has been another highly successful year for those purchasing foals to race, with the likes of Irish Derby winner Fame and Glory (GB) Montjeu {Ire} and G1 Prix Du Moulin winner Aqlaam (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) advertising the December Foal Sale at the highest level throughout Europe."

Backing up a nursery handicap win at Haydock Sept. 5, Layla's Hero garnered a first black-type score in the Oct. 10 Rockingham S. at York last time and continued the theme with a narrow verdict in this. He raced in a close seventh from the break, but required stoking up at halfway. Making headway under continued urging passing the quarter-mile marker, Layla's Hero was urged to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and kept on in game fashion to prevail in the drive. "He's a lovely horse and was doing his best work at the finish," commented jockey Eddie Ahern. "He loves the good-to-soft ground, he's going the right way and he's tough."
