Calm Before the Storm? Not Here...

Sunny skies finally emerged at Santa Anita late Thursday morning after an overcast start to the day. Defending Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine

Sherackatthetrack

Forever Together (Belong to Me) began her voyage to the track a little before 7:30 a.m. with trainer Jonathan Sheppard keeping a close eye on the striking gray. A few moments later, Classic contender Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) made his way back to the barn area after galloping 1 1/2 miles beneath trainer Helen Pitts-Blasi. "He was very strong--my arms were burning by the time we got through," she revealed.

ESPN anchor and funnyman Kenny Mayne talked with trainer Eoin Harty and Jay Privman of Daily Racing Form near the gap, before jetting off to the backstretch area. Biofuel (Stormin Fever), a live longshot in the Juvenile Fillies, received several gentle pats on her shoulder by her exercise rider as she set up shop near Steven Knapp's barn awaiting the track to re-open shortly after 8 a.m. Airdire principal Brereton Jones, sporting a purple Breeders' Cup cap with his Grade-I winning homebred's name on it, talked with Lane's End's Bill Farish just yards away while Biofuel playfully nibbled on her stable pony's exercise rider's boots.

The track remained closed at 8:20 a.m. and a slew of horses eagerly began to line up and circle by the gate at the chute. Trainer Todd Pletcher was on the Pro-Ride walking one of his three charges. The floodgates were opened roughly 10 minutes later as Jerry and Ann Moss conducted an interview with KTLA 5 near Clockers' Corner. Zenyatta's pilot Mike Smith stopped by briefly to exchange pleasantries with the couple, and had a good laugh at the television reporter's flamboyant green hat before taking off. Breeders' Cup President and CEO Greg Avioli was all smiles making his way through the crowd shortly thereafter, just as the sun officially came out.

Careless Jewel

Around 9 a.m., Colonel John (Tiznow) came roaring off the far turn to the sound of clicking cameras, with Careless Jewel (Tapit) not far behind. The gray, who can be a handful at times, was a model citizen heading off the track and made an uneventful journey back to her temporary home at Bob Baffert's barn. Trainer Josie Carroll watched the GI Alabama S. victress cool out and get unsaddled as she spoke with reporters. Cont. p2

If anyone's questioning whether Juvenile candidate D' Funnybone (D'wildcat) will take to Santa Anita's synthetic surface, they should've caught a glimpse of the GI Futurity S. winner Thursday morning. The handsome chestnut looked phenomenal after completing his day's work over the Pro-Ride, much to the delight of bloodstock agent Nick Sallusto, who watched from Clockers' Corner.

The Jayaramans were on hand at the Great Race Place yesterday, and received plenty of well wishes in the Classic while heading back to the barn area after watching Summer Bird (Birdstone) jog a mile. With training hours winding down approaching 10 a.m., a large crowd was still assembled at Clockers' Corner, including jockey Rajiv Maragh, who was sporting a Sovereign Stable cap. He is scheduled to pilot the company's Neglige (Northern Afleet) in the Juvenile Fillies. --S.S.

Fueling the Fire

Biofuel (Stormin Fever) has made a favorable impression since arriving at Santa Anita, and will bid to give owner/breeder Brereton Jones his first Breeders' Cup winner when she goes postward in the GI Juvenile Fillies Friday afternoon. Dismissed at 23-1 last out in the GIII Mazarine S. at Woodbine Oct. 10, the bay filly made a stirring rally from the back of the pack (video), and a repeat of that effort would put her squarely in the picture here. "She got a little hot [Wednesday] out on the track, but she jogged two times around the wrong way, and she was okay this morning," trainer Reade Baker reported. "She'll tell us how good she can be, but I think that she's good enough. I think she can win this race." Biofuel is out of Jones's mare Ms. Cornstalk (Indian Charlie). "Unfortunately, the dam was hurt as a foal or yearling, and the x-rays at the time indicated that she wouldn't pass to get into the sales ring," Jones explained. "I didn't take her to the sales, but kept her. There proved to be nothing wrong with her. And now she has given us this very nice filly." Jones, owner of Airdrie Stud, has a notable history with this race. He bred Caressing (Honour and Glory), the Juvenile Fillies heroine of 2000, and his first Breeders' Cup starter as an owner came with Proud Spell (Proud Citizen), who ran second in the 2007 renewal before earning Eclipse Award honors in 2008.

Careless Jewel to Run in 2010

Careless Jewel (Tapit), winner of the GI Alabama S. in August, will return for another season of racing in 2010 no matter how she fares in Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic. "We'll run her next year; That's the plan," said owner Vern Dubinsky, who purchased the filly for $40,000 as a yearling. "After this race, she'll go to Wavertree Farm in Ocala for a nice break, and then we'll get her ready to run as a four-year-old." Careless Jewel galloped a mile yesterday morning under exercise rider Moises Guce and was to school in the paddock during the afternoon races. According to trainer Josie Carroll, the plan is to send the filly out for a jog this morning at around 6:30 a.m. As for the nine-furlong test, Carroll indicated the grey would be employ similar tactics that have served her so well in the past. "She's got a lot of natural speed, so she'll be on or close to the lead," Carroll said. "Music Note [A.P. Indy] has early speed as well, and she's capable of sitting close to her and will be there in the stretch. Rainbow View [Dynaformer] ran a big race at Woodbine in her last and will be running at us at the end. This is the Breeders' Cup and they'll all be running at us. This is a really good field and it will be a really good test."

Forever Together to Retire After F&M Turf

Regardless of the outcome in Friday's GI Filly & Mare Turf, MGIW Forever Together (Belong to Me) will likely be retired to the breeding shed, according to trainer Jonathan Sheppard yesterday.

"This will probably be her last race," he said. "She's going to be bred next year. I'm going to miss her. In fact, I have mixed emotions when I even look at her, because I know I'm running on borrowed time. She's been a big part of my life for the last three years." The five-year-old, who will attempt to defend her title in the 10-furlong test for the fairer sex, followed her usual routine at Santa Anita Thursday morning, galloping 1 1/4 mile over the training track. "To me she's as good as she's ever been," Sheppard added. "Some people, some friends in the media, claim she's lost a step, but I don't actually think she has. She seems fine to me."

Goldikova Back in 2010?

Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), looking to repeat in Saturday's GI Mile, was sent to the track with stablemate GI Filly and Mare Sprint contender Only Green (Ire) (Green Desert) yesterday morning.

Goldikova

Horsephotos

Following the exercise session, trainer Freddie Head indicated that too early to say whether Goldikova, bred and owned by Alain and Gerard Wertheimer would compete again next year. "We don't know yet," he said. "The Wertheimers are talking about it. Maybe. We'll see how she comes out of the race and what she does. After that we'll know. They're not against running her again next year." Goldikova is 9-2-0 in 11 starts over a mile on the turf. She will be ridden in the Mile by her regular jockey Olivier Peslier.

Fatal Bullet to Head Overseas in 2010?

Canadian champion Fatal Bullet (Red Bullet), second to Midnight Lute (Real Quiet in last year's GI BC Sprint may remain in training to make a trip overseas next season, according to trainer Reade Baker. "Now the dream would be to take him to Dubai [for the Dubai World Cup card next March]," said the veteran horseman. "I went to Dubai about 15 years ago..it was different back then and there wasn't much there. Now I hear it's out of this world. But that's the great thing about this horse, he takes you where you want to go. Every trainer in the world wants to be here for the Breeders' Cup, but it's good to be here with a horse who can win it."

Change of Plans for Silver Timber

Trainer Chad Brown made the executive decision and decided not to train Silver Timber (Prime Timber) on Santa Anita's downhill turf course despite having been granted permission to do so Thursday. Instead, the six-year-old galloped 1 3/8 miles under exercise rider Richard Johnson on the main track in preparation for a start in BC Turf Sprint. "I decided not to go on the turf course with him," confirmed Brown. "I just didn't want to change his routine too much. He's sound and happy. I don't think it will make a difference one way or the other." The Saratoga native added, "I didn't want to take him up there and get him bent out of shape. He's going to take to the hill or he isn't. He handles everything okay in his races. I didn't want to over-think things too much." A winner of three of four starts since being claimed for $25,000 last April, Silver Timber, will be accompanied by Julien Leparoux Saturday.

Allegre Declared From Turf

Eagle Oak Ranch and partners' four-year-old Allegre (Orientate), based at Turf Paradise for most the of the past year, has been ruled out of Saturday's GI Turf because of a foot problem. Turned over recently to trainer Brian Koriner, the four-year-old did not go to the track Thursday. Koriner indicated that the bay colt may have an abscess brewing in his foot.

Ready to Pounce

Back in 1984, John Gosden--based in California at the time--saddled Royal Heroine (Ire) to land the inaugural Breeder's Cup Mile. Little did he know that it would take 24 years, and 18 other starters, to get another win at the championship event, though when he did so, it was in tremendous style. In 2008, Gosden brought over Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) to land the Juvenile Turf and, later that afternoon, orchestrated the Classic upset with Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality).

Gosden is back with a solid trio this year: Rainbow View (Dynaformer), who will make her first start on a synthetic surface in Friday's GI Ladies' Classic; Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), who will attempt to turn the tables on Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in the GI Turf on Saturday; and Pounced (Rahy), who will fly Lady Serena Rothschild's colors in the GII Juvenile Turf. The liver chestnut will be making just his fourth career start Saturday, and Gosden reported that the youngster had handled the shipping well. Second in his July 24 debut at Ascot, Pounced graduated next out at Newbury Aug. 14, and attempted to make all the running in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (ex Grand Criterium) Oct. 4 before settling for the runner-up spot to Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}).

Gosden was sporting a Houston Texans baseball cap and a Stonerside jacket, which, he pointed out, he wore last year in the days leading up to the Breeders' Cup. "I think of them as lucky, but people probably are saying that I'm superstitious," he quipped. Gosden confirmed that he earmarked a trip to Santa Anita for Pounced "when he broke his maiden." The conditioner explained, "He was Breeders' Cup eligible. I wanted him to be able to pay his way in. He ran second in the Grand Criterium and he earned a lot of money for that, so then I thought, 'His ticket is paid.' I'm not asking the owner for it, I'm merely taking it from his prize money. I do feel that when you come here, you want to have a legitimate reason."

Dar Re Mi, heroine of the G1 Pretty Polly S. and G1 Yorkshire Oaks before being controversially disqualified from her win in the G1 Prix Vermeille, ran a length behind Conduit when they were fourth and fifth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 4. Gosden opted to keep her at 12 furlongs, rather than shortening her up for the 10 panels of the GI F/M Turf. "I think it's better to keep a horse at its preferred distance," he said.

Thursday morning. The unbeaten champion, who will lineup for Saturday's Classic, was accompanied by regular exercise rider Steve Willard for the routine gallop. "We went out at 6:20 a.m. and she stood around and looked around," said Willard. "She jogged off, galloped once around and came back through the paddock. She did it really terrific. Just superb." Trainer

John Shirreffs indicated that the unbeaten five-year-old will gallop again today before attempting to become the first female to win the Classic. "Optimism is high," said owner Jerry Moss, accompanied by his wife and co-owner, Ann, and racing manager Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs, wife of the trainer. "She's ready," said Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith. "If she fires, she's certainly going to be the one to beat. I think you're going to see something amazing."

Summer Bird Schools

Trainer Tim Ice confirmed yesterday morning that Classic hopeful Summer Bird (Birdstone) was to school in Santa Anita's paddock prior to Thursday's second race. "They have all that stuff that they put up for the Breeders' Cup and I just don't want it to be something new for him," explained Ice. "He's been to the paddock before, schooling here in the mornings, but now they have everything set up in there and I just want him to see it before he'll have to see it on raceday." The chestnut had been to the paddock about 10 times after training while back to the barn, but hasn't gone home that way since on-track preparations for Breeders' Cup began. "I didn't want to take him through there while they were still working on it," Ice said. "Basically today what it's going to be is just let him get up there, look around, see all the new stuff that they've done--not that it's going to bother him--but I don't want to take any chances come raceday." The GI Belmont S. winner jogged one mile before being allowed to stand in the gate following the maintenance break. He is expected to gallop Friday in preparation for Saturday's test, when he seeks a third straight victory, including win in the GI Travers and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. The Classic will be his first start on a synthetic surface.

Also scheduled to school in Santa Anita's paddock Thursday were Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) (Juvenile Fillies; second race); Noble Court (Doneraile Court) (Turf Sprint; fourth), Get Funky (Straight Man) (Turf Sprint; fourth), Cost of Freedom (Cee's Tizzy) (GI Sprint; fourth), Evita Argentina (Candy Ride {Arg}; GI Filly and Mare Sprint; fourth); and Whatsthescript (Royal Applause {GB}) (Mile; fourth).

Einstein Primed for Classic

Trainer Helen Pitts-Blasi was pleased with her charge Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck), who galloped 1 1/2 miles over the main track Thursday and was slated to school in the paddock before Thursday's third race. "He galloped strong," said Pitts-Blasi, who was aboard for the maintenance move. "He was very strong. My arms were burning by the time we got through." Jockey Julien Leparoux is scheduled to ride the dark bay for seventh consecutive time Saturday and Pitts-Blasi plans to keep her instructions simple. "I'll just tell him to sit behind the speed and have a good trip," she said. "With this kind of race, anything can happen."

Racing Pages a Big Hit on Facebook

Facebook, the popular social networking website, is quickly becoming a fun avenue for horseracing fans to connect with the sport and its stars.

The Breeders' Cup's new fan page (click here), currently 3,000-plus members strong, boasts fan polls, race replays, photos, racing schedules, gift applications, and much more.

"We have a couple of cool things on there right now," Peter Rotondo, vice president of media and entertainment for the Breeders' Cup, commented. "We're doing this best score promotion trying to get the fans to tell us their best Breeders' Cup betting story. We want to share those stories through Facebook and Twitter to show that with horseracing and the Breeders' Cup, you don't have to bet a lot to win a lot, unlike sports wagering. The stories are starting to come in and they're pretty awesome."

He continued, "We also did a contest for Breeders' Cup tickets. All you had to do is join our discussion board and we did a random drawing for six tickets. You can also send a friend a Facebook Breeders' Cup trophy or blanket through the gifts application. It's fun and it's amazing how many people are doing it. The page looks good and it has a lot of fun and interesting stuff to play around with. We're on the right path--we just need to come up with some cool ideas to keep the fans engaged." Cont. p8

Breeders' Cup Classic contender Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat)'s page (click here), launched by Castleton Lyons after the Christophe Clement trainee annexed his first Grade I win in the Frank Kilroe Mile H., has in excess of 600 fans.

"We had people stopping us all the time telling us how much they loved him," Anna Studenny, Castleton Lyons assistant commercial manager-stallion nominations, explained. "We put it up there to see what would happen, and then of course, he kept rolling on with his Grade I wins, and it just grew and grew."

Loaded with photos, links to pertinent stories and videos, and well wishes from his adoring supporters, it's easy to see why the page has become so popular.

"More people were joining--everyone from the average racing fan to people that have worked with him, whether as he was being broken as a yearling or with Christophe Clement at the track--and adding pictures and sharing anecdotes about him," Studenny continued. "It really became a way for us to let his fans connect with him and promote him, as well as attract more of the general public to racing itself. It's almost become this little great community of people that absolutely love the horse, which we are absolutely thrilled with."

Other Breeders' Cup runners with fan pages include unbeaten champion Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), GI Kentucky Derby winner Mine That Bird (Birdstone), three-time Grade I winner Summer Bird (Birdstone) and undefeated juvenile Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike).

finished second last time to Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint morning-line second choice Diamondrella (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) after leading in the stretch of Keeneland's GI First Lady S. Oct. 10, but finds herself marooned in post 13 here and could be close to what should be a hot pace. Teamgeist, MGSW and MG1SP in her native Argentina, could pick up the pieces late. The invader came from far back to complete the trifecta in the Oct. 11 GI Spinster S. over Keeneland's Polytrack in her most recent start.

Internallyflawless, heroine of the Aug. 22 GI Del Mar Oaks two starts back, cuts back in distance off a last-of-eight finish in the 1 1/4-mile GI Yellow Ribbon S. over this course Oct. 10.

A three-length winner of the G2 Wakeful S. at Flemington Oct. 31 in her third start after a 90-day break, Faint Perfume continued the Bart Cummings--Dato Tan Chin Nam dominance of Melbourne's spring prizes here. The three-year-old rocketed home from last to score by a neck as the odds-on favourite. She is Cummings' ninth VRC Oaks winner, and the 33rd filly to complete the Wakeful-Oaks double. "She was the best horse in the race, and I was confident that I could get her around safely," said jockey Michael Rodd. "As we got down the back, I was lucky enough to be on Nick Hall's tail [on Valdemoro], and he was the horse to beat. I just let him ride the race and I got on his tail and followed him everywhere." Rodd added, "With the pace they went, I thought I better just hold her up a little longer because she might be out on her legs a little bit earlier than what I thought. She got to the front and she battled on and held them off." Cummings said he was always confident of victory, thanks to the solid tempo set by the leaders. "The pace was genuine today--unlike the Melbourne Cup, there was a decent speed on, and it gave the backmarkers a good chance to pick them up," he said. "She's only about 15 hands, but she's got a big heart and she very stays well."

NEWS TODAY

INDIAN BLESSING RETIRED Hal and Patti Earnhardt's dual champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie--Shameful, by Flying Chevron) has been retired, Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old filly beat Sara Louise (Malibu Moon) by a valiant head in her most recent in the GII Gallant Bloom Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Sept. 26. Trainer Bob Baffert opted to pass on a second tilt in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, a race she ran second in last year, reasoning the filly wasn't as effective on synthetic surfaces, and Thursday the announcement was made that she would be retired. "There's nowhere else to run her," Baffert explained to DRF. "It's hard to let go. She's so great."

Sarah K. Andrew

Indian Blessing made an immediate splash as a two-year-old, capping an undefeated three-race season with a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Monmouth in 2007. She earned an Eclipse Award for her efforts. At three, her victories included the GI Prioress S., GI Test S. and GI La Brea S., and a runner-up to Ventura (Chester House) in the Filly & Mare Sprint. She earned her second Eclipse, this time as champion female sprinter. Indian Blessing began her four-year-old year with a second to Big City Man (Northern Afleet) in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. Off the board in a minor sprint stakes at Hollywood in June, she returned to be second to Music Note (A.P. Indy) in the GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga in August in her penultimate start. Indian Blessing retires with a record of 10 wins and five seconds in 16 starts and earnings of $2,995,420. Baffert said breeding plans are undecided.

LANE'S END CUTS A.P. INDY'S FEE TO $150K

Will Farish's Lane's End Farm announced its stud fees for the 2010 breeding season yesterday. The Versailles nursery cut the fees for many of the stallions on its 21-strong roster, most notably of leading sire A.P. Indy, who will stand for $150,000. In 2009, the 20-year-old son of Seattle Slew stood for a fee of $250,000 and bred a total of 67 mares, according to the Jockey Club. Reigning two-time champion sire Smart Strike, meanwhile, will stand for $75,000, off from $125,000 in 2009, when he covered 102 mares. Kingmambo will once again stand for a private fee. One of the few stallions to see an increase is second-crop sire Candy Ride (Arg), who was moved from Hill 'n' Dale to Lane's End last season. The 10-year-old began the 2009 season at an advertised fee of $12,500. He is currently the leading freshman sire by graded stakes winners with five.

Said Will Farish, "All of our farm fees are on a live foal, payable when foal stands and nurses basis. We are also offering a 10-percent discount if the stud fee is paid in full prior to November 1, 2010." Farish added, "In an effort to increase market value for all of our clients, we will continue to closely monitor the size of our stallions' books and will remain sensitive to this issue."

HIP#27 - SWEET TRIP - SELLING AT FASIG-TIPTON

- ✓ YOUNG DAM OF A 2009 GRADE 1 WINNER
- ✓ BY A WORLD CLASS BROODMARE SIRE
- ✓ IN FOAL TO A YOUNG RED-HOT STALLION

GULCH PENSIONED Lane's End Farm announced Thursday that champion Gulch (Mr. Prospector--Jameela, by Rambunctious) has been pensioned due to declining fertility. The 25-year-old stallion covered 20 mares in 2009, according to The Jockey Club's Report of Mares Bred. Campaigned by breeder Peter Brant, the son of millionaire Jameela began his career for trainer Leroy Jolley, rattling off wins in the GI Saratoga Special S., GI Hopeful S. and GI Futurity S. before finishing second in the GI Norfolk S.,

and closed out 1986 with a fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The durable bay won just three of 14 starts during his sophomore season, but two of those were the GI Metropolitan H. and GI Wood Memorial S. He also hit the board that year in the GI Belmont S., GI Whitney H. and GI Woodward S., and was turned over to D. Wayne Lukas for a four-year-old campaign. He won the GI Carter H. and successfully defended his title in the GI Met Mile and, after finishing second or third in his next five outings, closed out 1988 with a stirring win in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, and earned an Eclipse Award for his efforts. Gulch took a record of 32-13-8-4 and earnings of $3,095,521 with him to stud, and carved out a solid career for himself. He was represented by Grade I winners Great Navigator and Wallenda in his first crop, and GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont S. hero Thunder Gulch, as well as G1 1000 Guineas heroine Harayir, emerged from his foals of 1992. Gulch is also the sire of British highweight Nayef, a four-time winner at the top level; and multiple Grade I winner Court Vision, who goes postward as a top American hope in this year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile. Thunder Gulch has gone on to become a successful stallion with the likes of Horse of the Year Point Given and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Spain, while Nayef has made a bright start to his stud career, and another son, Kipling, is the sire of 2007 BC Mile victor Kip Deville. To date, the stallion has been represented by 70 black-type winners (seven percent of foals), and his progeny have bankrolled $77,185,543 thus far. His daughters have produced the likes of Grade/Group 1 winners Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}) and Siren Lure (Joyeux Danseur).

TURF MELODY (c, 2, Maria's Mon--Tricky Bird, by Storm Bird) filled the third spot in both the Spectacular Bid S. at Arlington Aug. 8 and in the Swynford S. at Woodbine Sept. 13, but never factored in a seventh-place effort to Interactif (Broken Vow) in the GIII Bourbon S. over a yielding Keeneland turf course Oct. 11. Heavily favored here at 2-5, the $200,000 KEESEP yearling missed the break, then rushed up to chase from second. She took closer order at the quarter pole, opened a clear lead past midstretch and held sway by 3/4 of a length as Not Abroad (Not For Love) made late progress into second. The winner is a half to Stanley Park (Swain {Ire}), MGSW, $272,916. Lifetime Record: MSP, 6-2-0-2, $54,226. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

HATFIELD (g, 3, Proud Citizen--Key Flight, by Bates Motel), a half to Key Hunter (Jade Hunter), SW & GISP, $168,091, was claimed for $40,000 by his current connections when he won his debut by 10 lengths over the Aqueduct inner track Feb 1. Stretched out to two turns in an inner-track starter allowance Feb. 27, the gelding surged late to win by a length. He tried deeper waters in the Apr. 4. GIII Bay Shore S. on the Big A main track, racing evenly to finish fourth, 5 1/2 lengths behind the winner and GI Breeders' Cup Sprint entrant Capt. Candyman Can (Candy Ride {Arg}). Dropped into an entry-level Aqueduct allowance Apr. 26, he faded badly to finish last of six as the 2-1 favorite. The bay re-emerged in a Laurel turf sprint Oct. 22, setting all the fractions to win by two lengths. Off as the 6-5 favorite here, he quickly cleared on the lead and was kept to task in the stretch to prevail by 3 3/4-lengths. Sales history: $70,000 RNA yr1 '07 KEESEP; $70,000 RNA 2yo '08 OBSAPR. EVER A FRIEND (g, 6, Crafty Friend--Never Is a Promise, by Capote), a $35,000 FTKJUL yearling, put up a spectacular performance in this return to the races. The gelding, a $62,500 claim by his current connections at Hollywood in December of 2007, looked like he was on his way to last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile after he romped in Santa Anita's GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile H. in March of 2008. He couldn't quite stave off Daytona (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) in the GI Shoemaker Mile at Hollywood in June, and went to the sidelines with an injury shortly thereafter. It had been 17 months since Ever a Friend faced the starter, but Santa Anita's faithful were confident of a big effort and sent him postward the even-money pick. Reunited with regular jock Tyler Baze, Ever a Friend raced along in fourth, moved wide just before crossing over the main track, then ate up ground with huge strides and was an easy 1 1/4-length winner. Pacesetter Banner Lodge (Chester House) was second best. Lifetime Record: GISW, 20-6-3-2, $466,568. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

SAHARA KINGDOM (IRE) (c, 2, Cozzene--Rose Indien {Fr} {SW-GB}, by Crystal Glitters), a debut winner over course and distance Oct. 9, missed a beat at the kick here, but soon recovered to assume an early lead. Maintaining control thereafter, the 2-9 chalk was pushed along off the home turn and drew off late under whipless encouragement to score by an easy five lengths from Ongoodform (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The winner is a 1/2 to Salty Sea (Siberian Express), SW-US, $226,598; and War Tempo (Quiet American), SP-US, $279,412. Sales history: 50,000gns wnlng '07 TATDEC; €200,000 yrl '08 ARQAUG. SHINING SEA (FR) (f, 2, Anabaa Blue {GB}--Seelland {Fr}, by Linamix {Fr}), a debut third over course and distance Oct. 3, broke well and raced in a handy fourth for most of this outing. Making smooth progress to challenge at the distance, the 23-10 choice quickened clear in the latter stages to comfortably account for Sunday Girl (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €9,100.

AMAGANSETT (c, 2, Fusaichi Pegasus--Wonder Woman, by Storm Cat), a first-up second at Toulouse Sept. 18, raced under a tight hold behind the clear leader in fifth. Pushed along rounding the home turn, the 13-10 pick was ridden to challenge at the eighth pole and kept on well from there to best Nova Med (Ire) (Whipper) by 1 1/2 lengths. He is a 1/2 to War Officer (Grand Slam), MSW & GSP-Fr, $184,549. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €9,800.

AUSTRALASIA

FAREWELL FOR TAKEOVER TARGET SATURDAY

One of racing's most remarkable fairytales will end on a high note when eight-time Group 1 winner Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) is officially farewelled at Randwick Saturday with a parade. In a career spanning five seasons and four continents, 10-year-old Takeover Target picked up a cheque in 37 of 41 starts, was Group 1 placed on seven occasions, and in the frame in 31 of 41 his starts. The only blot on Takeover Target's copybook is an aborted trip to Hong Kong after he won the G1 Sprinters' S. in Japan in October 2006--the gelding failed a drug test because the substance had lodged in ligament and stayed in his system for much longer than anticipated, and he never took his place in the G1 Hong Kong International Sprint. Famously purchased at a tried horse sale for just A$1,200 and trained by one-time taxi driver Joe Janiak, the veteran went on to earn an astonishing A$6,019,400, with a record of 41-21-6-4. He first ventured abroad to win the G2 King's Stand S. and place third in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. before holding his own in Japan three years ago. In May '08, Takeover Target added the Krisflyer Sprint at Kranji in Singapore to his record ahead of a second in the King's Stand S. and fourth in the Golden Jubilee. This year, he won the Singapore International Sprint.

DAVID HAYES FINED

Trainer David Hayes was fined A$2,000 after pleading guilty to using insulting behaviour towards the vets who ruled Changingoftheguard (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) unfit to race in Tuesday's G1 Melbourne Cup. Hayes referred to the vets as "knuckleheads" in a media interview at Flemington. The horse had a foot abscess that burst 10 days before the Melbourne Cup, but Hayes was adamant that the four-year-old was sound. "I had the horse trot in front of the TV cameras to show everyone that he was sound. I've never been so insulted in my life," he said after the race. "The horse worked in public for 13 days straight." The conditioner's carnival fortunes worsened when Livia (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}), rated a 12-1 chance, was scratched from the A$1-million G1 Crown Oaks due to a hoof problem. He is aiming to end the spring carnival on a positive note with Nicconi (Aus) (Bianconi {Ire}), rated a 9-2 chance in Saturday's G1 Patinack Farm Classic over 1200 meters at Flemington. Coming off a 43-day break since a close-up third in the G1 Manikato S. at Moonee Valley Sept. 25, Nicconi won the G1 Galaxy S. at Randwick Apr. 11. Hayes has three horses in the G1 Emirates S. on the same card, including last start G2 Salinger S. winner Eagle Falls (Aus) (Hussonet), who surged home from the 200 meters to win that race on Oct. 31 at Flemington.

$25 $50 $75 $100

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate $25, $50, $75, $100 or an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club, through profits earned from its subsidiaries, will provide $200,000 in funding to these charities to supplement the monies raised through the checkoff program in 2009.
