THIS IS UN-BE-LIEV-ABLE!!

Not far from Santa Anita Park in the Los Angeles foothills is the world-famous Hollywood sign. Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic had all the makings of a really gripping screenplay. Front and center was ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), who came into the $5-million event perfect in her 13 career starts and was clearly the day's marquee attraction. The plot would be thickened by a supporting cast featuring an accomplished group of male opponents, including leading three-year-olds Summer Bird (Birdstone) and Mine That Bird (Birdstone); the rock-solid handicapper Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck); and Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat), a Grade III winner on the Pro-Ride in late 2008 and four-time Grade I winner on the turf in 2009. As the players made their way onto the stage, otherwise known as the Pro-Ride, tension and anticipation filled the air as the 57,000 spectators knew that they could be minutes away from history. After all, no leading lady had ever won the Classic; in fact, only four had ever tried, and of those, Jolypha's third place finish in 1992 was by far the best. There was additional drama at the gate, when Quality Road (Elusive Quality) came undone when blindfolded. He was scratched (see p17) and minutes later, the main act began. Cont. p2

Horsephotos

The Main Attraction...

Quality Road's antics delayed the start of the Classic by several minutes, and, although the field was backed out of the gate while the Ned Evans runner was assessed, Zenyatta—who baulked a bit when loading up the first time—did not seem to handle the wait all that well. At long last, the field of 12 was reassembled and the curtain was raised. Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor), as expected, showed the way out of the chute and galloped along easily on the front end. Colonel John (Tiznow), Einstein and the slow-starting Rip Van Winkle (Galileo {Ire}) and Girolamo (A.P. Indy) were also prominent, as Summer Bird settled in midfield. Zenyatta was typically void of early speed and brought up the rear with Mine That Bird as the field raced past the audience for the first time. Regal Ransom continued to show the way up the backstretch, and there was largely little change in the plot after six furlongs in 1:11.88, though Mike Smith allowed Zenyatta to creep forward to be at the tail end of the peloton. Things began to get a bit interesting as they raced into and around the final turn. Regal Ransom still led, but was getting weary, and the stormers were launching their rallies from behind. Gio Ponti had a perfect inside trip, saving every inch of ground beneath Ramon Dominguez, and, when he punched through two off the fence, it looked like the four-year-old was on his way. But, unbeknownst to Dominguez, Zenyatta was picking off horses one by one, first towards the rail before shifting out in upper stretch. Mike Smith, who rode with supreme confidence, first spied a gap between Summer Bird and Twice Over, but when that did not materialize, he angled his mare diagonally outside of the Belmont winner and inside of Awesome Gem (Awesome Again). Dominguez, who'd gone for home on Gio Ponti, must have thought he had the race won. But, glancing nearly helplessly to his right and flagging his mount right-handed, he could do little in the final 70 yards but watch the freight train that is Zenyatta motor on by in front of her adoring fans. Twice Over came on for third. "I still never got to the bottom of her," said Smith. "She's incredible. I was able to cut the corner with her off the turn, and that made the difference right there. When we loaded the second time, she sure stood there when the gates opened. She started to get to them in the stretch, and the crowd started screaming. Then she started looking at the crowd, so I had to get after her a little bit, but she still won within herself."

Horsephotos

A Tip of the Cap from the Vanquished...

Lose a race of this caliber and it's easy to understand that there would be some disappointment or frustration. Yet Zenyatta seems to have won everyone over. "What a thrill seeing history being made by Zenyatta," said trainer Bob Baffert, whose Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) was sixth. "It was the only time in horse racing that I didn't mind getting beat in a big race. If they don't reward her with Horse of the Year, it would be a travesty. And the way she won! I've never seen a crowd so captivated. It felt like a horse winning the third leg of the Triple Crown." Added Helen Pitts, "That filly is unreal. Those are hard to come by." A virtuoso performance indeed. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Making the Scene...

A warm round of applause sounded from a crowd bearing Zenyatta-themed posters as the big mare made her way with her usual Spanish walk to the saddling stalls. Jerry and Ann Moss, all smiles, joined the throngs in the paddock and made small talk with wellwishers. Zenyatta emerged from the stalls and immediately struck a pose for the fans, who responded with hearty clapping and whoops of delight. The call came for riders up was delayed a bit as the favorite kept stopping and giving the crowd her best "look of eagles." The connections of the other horses seemed resigned to the fact that the queen was in the house.

‘CON’ DID IT

Ballymacoll Stud’s homebred Conduit summoned every ounce of his class to catch runaway pacesetter Presious Passion to secure his second straight success in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf. “It’s always a big day for the world championship,” said winning trainer Sir Michael Stoute, who also saddled fourth-place finisher Spanish Moon (El Prado {Ire}). “It’s a very important race, and it was great to see him go and do it two years in a row.” Sparingly campaigned this season, the chestnut’s lone win in four 2009 starts came July 25 in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot and, in his only subsequent outing, ran fourth in the G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 4.

When the gates opened, Presious Passion went barrelling down the hill and opened up 10 lengths by the time he hit the half in :45. None of the spectators thought the blinkered chestnut would have anything left to give in the stretch, but the six-year-old proved them wrong. The odds-on Conduit, last in the early stages, began to work his way forward, kept Dar Re Mi from angling off the fence, and was set down for the drive to reel in Presious Passion. The latter, who put up splits of 1:09.24, 1:34.58 and 1:59.72 over the firm going, battled back valiantly, but couldn’t quite fend off Conduit’s relentless surge. “Last year went about as planned, but this year wasn’t according to plan,” said winning rider Ryan Moore. “I knew I was going to get there.” As for Presious Passion, rider Elvis Trujillo said, “He fights--doesn’t matter how fast we go. The last quarter he’ll fight everybody. Even when [Conduit] came up to me, I thought I was going to win.”

It was announced last week that Conduit would head to Big Red Farm in Japan to begin his breeding career in 2010, and is currently scheduled to make an appearance in the G1 Japan Cup Nov. 29. “We want to get him back home and have a close look at him for about 10 days until we make a decision on Tokyo,” Stoute said. This was the fourth Breeders’ Cup trophy for the Weinstock family, which previously won the Turf in 1996 with Pilsudski (Ire) (Polish Precedent) and the 2003 F/M Turf with Islington (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) prior to Conduit’s rally last October.

Making the Scene...

The paddock grew ever more crowded as Breeders’ Cup day progressed. Even those without runners in the Turf were on hand as the horses were saddled. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor, enjoying a rare moment of down time, made the rounds. Frank Stronach chatted with an attractive brunette, and Henry Cecil calmed any pre-Classic jitters with a smoke. And while Mary Hartmann, trainer of the venerable Presious Passion, was delayed in the paddock for a TVG interview, even before the last of the Turf crowd had filed out, some of the Classic connections were filtering in. A half-dozen well-dressed racegoers, holding up paddles that identified them as owners of Awesome Gem, opted to stake out prime territory in the paddock well in advance.

GOLDEN GIRL

Unleashing a brilliant turn of foot, Goldikova (Ire) dashed past her rivals to secure her second straight victory in the GI TVG Breeders' Cup Mile, joining the likes of Da Hoss, Lure and Miesque as two-time winners of this prestigious affair. Miesque was piloted by Freddie Head in her 1987-88 victories, and, in 2008, Head became the first Breeders' Cup-winning jockey to train a winner at the event with Goldikova. There's a chance that she'll attempt to make history with a triple. "Maybe we'll come back and try for three," Head said immediately after the race. All business in the paddock, the neatly made bay was a bit unruly behind the gate and, once away from post 11, jockey Olivier Peslier guided her to the inside to save ground. As expected, Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}) and Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway) spiced things up on the front end through splits of :22.98 and :45.22. Goldikova was still in 10th at that point, but began to wind it up heading into the far turn and rallied alongside Zacinto (GB) (Dansili {GB}). That colt couldn't quite handle the corner, and the favorite continued her relentless charge. With Gladiatorus giving way, Cowboy Cal took over briefly, but was quickly overtaken by the white-faced Courageous Cat. Though that sophomore dug in gamely, he couldn't hold off fabulous filly. "I didn't want to make a run until the last turn," Peslier said. "I came wide because that was the only place to go." Goldikova didn't race on Lasix in last year's Mile, but was treated with the medication this time around. "I must say that every horse in the race had Lasix," Head offered. "I think it would have been silly to come away from such a long, long distance and not to run on equal terms with the others."

Goldikova Benoit

In 2008, the Wertheimer homebred captured the G1 Prix Rothschild and G1 Prix du Moulin en route to her Santa Anita success. After a hiccup in her 2009 opener, the G1 Prix d'Ispahan, Goldikova rattled off three hugely impressive wins in the G1 Falmouth S., Rothschild and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, but wound up a close third in her most recent outing, the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp Oct. 3. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A Courageous Performance...

Trainer Bill Mott was pleased with Courageous Cat, the lightly raced three-year-old who ran a bang-up race at 22-1. "Huge effort," said the Hall of Famer. Rider Garrett Gomez added, "He ran his eyeballs out. I thought for a while I might get there first. He kept digging, but the filly was just too good."

Zacinto was pulled up by rider Ryan Moore after blowing the far turn. "I was afraid he might have hurt himself," Moore explained. "He took a bad step or something like that, and I was concerned, but it turns out he's fine--he's OK."

Goldikova gave Alain and Gerard Wertheimer their fourth Breeders' Cup trophy, all of which have been won at Santa Anita: Kotashaan (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}) in the 1993 Turf; Halfbridled (Unbridled) in the 2003 Juvenile Fillies; and Goldikova in last year's Mile. In the days leading up to this event, the brothers indicated that there was a possibility that she might return for a five-year-old campaign, but were coy in the immediate aftermath of her victory. "We don't know yet," Gerard said when asked if Goldikova would remain in training.

CAL-BRED DANCING IN SILKS UPSETS IN SPRINT

Dancing in Silks became the second straight California-bred to land a Breeders' Cup event, coming from fourth in the stretch to defeat a hard-charging Crown of Thorns and fellow Golden Stater Cost of Freedom in a rousing finish. Godolphin's Gayego (Gilded Time) could not quite get through at the fence and finished fourth, beaten a neck. The disappointment of the race was favored Zensational (Unbridled's Song), who was slow into stride, was asked to settle by Victor Espinoza, but weakened in the stretch to finish fifth.

A First for Rosario, Gaines...

Joel Rosario has splashed on the scene in a big way in Southern California, and, save for Dancing in Silk's fourth-place finish in the Sunshine Millions Sprint this past January, has been aboard in each of his 12 career trips to the post. Not only did Dancing in Silks enter the Sprint with the top last-out Beyer Speed Figure (106) in the field, he entered off a three-race winning skein, including stakes scores in the Sept. 9 Pirates Bounty H. at Del Mar and the Oct. 3 California Cup Sprint H. over this course and distance. Those two races were against restricted company, and the betting public were not willing to gamble that he could reproduce that form against the nation's best sprinters. Settled neatly in fourth as Cost of Freedom--barred from last year's Sprint when stewards found him unsound to race--set the pace from 2008 runner-up Fatal Bullet (Red Bullet). Zensational was a bit sluggish from the stalls and drifted in towards the gap before Tyler Baze aboard Cost of Freedom consigned the chalk to a stalking trip. The latter led the field into the stretch after a swift half-mile in :44.22 and opened up a 1 1/2-length margin entering the final furlong. But Dancing in Silks, angled out to the four path for the drive, challenged inside the final sixteenth and got his nose down first, as Crown of Thorns outfinished Cost of Freedom for second. The win came as something of a surprise to trainer Carla Gaines. "The way Zensational had been training and Gayego won the Ancient Title, it looked like a tough situation," she acknowledged. "The way the post positions set up, we were able to sit off the pace and make our run." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Making the Scene...

As the crowd made its way into the paddock for the Sprint, there were a number of fashionably attired women, some accessorized with fascinators, but the best-turned out award went to Freida Pinto, who strolled to the far side with some family members. Pinto, who starred in the Oscar-winning film "Slumdog Millionaire," was garbed in a citron evening gown, and carried a purple macrame parasol as she posed for pictures with her family. Bo Derek strolled over to welcome the Indian-born actress, and asked, "Do you get a chance to go to the races in India?" Pinto responded with a smile, "I try to." The exchange got the attention of the professional photographers with the big lenses, and the shutters clicked at a rate worthy of a Vogue shoot.

Making the Scene...

Mike Pegram, co-owner of Lookin at Lucky, and Ken Ramsey, owner of William's Kitten, were rivals in the Juvenile, but shared a lighthearted moment in the paddock before the race. After sharing a joke, Pegram slapped Ramsey on the back and laughed, "Well at least I've never been in the winner's circle barefoot," referring to Ramsey's habit of removing his shoes before leading his horses into the winner's circle after a muddy race. Ramsey smiled back and said, "Some people never forget." The two then commiserated on their outside post positions, with Pegram concluding, "Which would you rather have, a good trip or a bad post?" Before parting ways, Ramsey offered Pegram a Kitten's Joy button.

Tripling Up in the Juvenile...

Sheikh Mohammed was the co-owner with Allen Paulson when Arazi took the 1991 Juvenile and celebrated a second win at this venue last year when Midshipman (Unbridled's Song) went wire-to-wire. Vale of York, winner of the Listed Stardom S. Sept. 8 at Goodwood, was third in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot Sept. 26 and was entering this off a neck second-place finish in the G1 Gran Criterium di Milano at the San Siro Oct. 11. Noticeably wound up in the preliminaries and a bit difficult to load, Vale of York ducked out at the break, but was able to secure a good spot as longshot Piscitelli (Victory Gallop) and GII Futurity S. winner D' Funnybone (D'wildcat) exchanged blows on a tepid pace up front. Lookin at Lucky, drawn out in 13, had no luck in the running, was forced six wide into the first turn and was trapped out on the backstretch. Meanwhile, Vale of York was enjoying a much softer journey, saving ground before being trapped a bit in upper stretch. Lookin at Lucky was five wide at the quarter pole, but, to his credit, he stayed on gamely and looked a winner late. That is, until Vale of York had the final say. "He ran a huge race," said winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "He ran a big race last time when he finished second. Every time he's come for a race he's handled everything really well. He's a tough horse, and next year we'll bring him for the Kentucky Derby."

‘FURTHEST’ LANDS PERFECT TRIP IN DIRT MILE

Owner Ken Ramsey and his trainer Mike Maker play the claiming game as good as anyone in this country, and, yesterday they struck gold when Furthest Land, haltered for $35,000 just over a year ago, parlayed a perfect trip into a 21-1 upset of the GI Dirt Mile. So, what was it about this particular horse that caught Ramsey’s shrewd eye? “I like his breeding by Smart Strike, the horse was three-years-old, he was young,” Ramsey offered. “I used my claiming methods primarily from the Rag[ozin] sheets. He had improving sheets numbers. Mike [Maker] checked him out, said he was clean, clean leg and all that, so we decided to go for it. And now you know the rest of the story.”

Another Rags to Riches Story...

Winner of his synthetic track debut at Keeneland Apr. 5, Furthest Land was an overmatched eighth to Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) in the GI Turf Classic, then took the off-turf Golden Bear S. at Indiana Downs June 10. Sent off at 9-10 in the Claiming Crown Jewel July 25, the dark bay atoned for that fourth-place effort with a last-jump victory in the GII Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Park Sept. 25. As expected, defending Breeders’ Cup Juvenile champion Midshipman (Unbridled’s Song) jumped fastest of all and set the pace from the Mosses Neko Bay (Giant’s Causeway) as Furthest Land was tucked neatly away at the inside by Julien Leparoux. Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) traveled comfortably enough further back in the pack. The Godolphin runner still held the call after six furlongs in a slow 1:11.08, but when Neko Bay began to drop back, a gap opened and Leparoux sent Furthest Land through and past Midshipman for the victory. Ready’s Echo got a perfect ride from Calvin Borel and rallied for the place. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Making the Scene...

Furthest Land Benoit

Heading back towards the jockey’s room after the Mile, jockeys Garrett Gomez and Robby Albarado took time to sign autographs, but the true star was Goldikova (Ire). Fans, packed several deep outside the paddock, showered the two-time Breeders’ Cup champ with applause as she made her way back through the paddock. While awaiting the horses for the Dirt Mile, Hollywood legend Mel Brooks talked with Jenny Craig, owner of Mile contender Chocolate Candy, and Pam Wygod, whose Life is Sweet won Friday’s GI Breeders’ Cup Ladies Classic. With the horses saddled and heading out to the track, connections made their way back to their seats for the Dirt Mile, as TVG’s Todd Schrupp and Paul LoDuca headed down the escalator, heatedly discussing their betting options.

DEJA VU IN JUVENILE TURF

Trainer John Gosden and jockey Frankie Dettori teamed to win last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf with Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), and the word on the backstretch was that Lady Serena Rothschild's Pounced (Rahy) was a good bet to make it two straight for the team. The blaze-faced chestnut, dispatched the 5-2 favorite, did his part, knifing through an opening between pacesetting Bridgetown and Interactif before going on to a 3/4-length success.

Pounced Benoit

The Right Horse for the Job...

Pounced did not debut until July 24, where finished a neck second in a seven-furlong maiden up the straight at Ascot, then broke through with a tidy three-length score at Newbury Aug. 14. Sent to Longchamp, where the ground can be very quick, he set fast fractions, held well into the final furlong and stayed on nicely for second in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere Oct. 4. With Dettori signed on for the first time, Pounced broke well, but was content to sit the pocket as GIII Summer S. winner Bridgetown set a moderate pace for the distance of :23.61 and :48.50. Interactif, saddled with a high draw, was forced to race three or four paths out into the track, but remained prominent throughout. Kent Desormeaux went for Interactif approaching the quarter pole, but vacated the two path when asked for his sprint. That gave Dettori and Pounced all the room they needed and they drove past a game Bridgetown in the waning strides. "I had a box seat, very pleased that we got the split (between horses), and he fought really hard for me," said Dettori, piloting his ninth Breeders' Cup winner. "I was worried about getting clear, but the gap was big enough and my horse was very brave."

Making the Scene...

Soaking in the brilliant sunshine in the paddock before the Juvenile Turf were Joe Torre, former manager of the New York Yankees and now manager of the L.A. Dodgers, and famed actress Bo Derek. Speaking of racing in California, Derek told Torre she serves as a commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board, to which Torre said, "Good. Now I know who to call." Torre also presented the trophy to the connections of Pounced after the race. Also in the paddock was Bill Nader, former COO with NYRA and now executive director of racing with the Hong Kong Jockey Club. Making a rare trip home, Nader talked about the transition to life in the Far East. "I can have a conversation with a cab driver—I can tell him where I live," he said. "But if I'm at a restaurant and the menu is only in Chinese, I'm in trouble." Jockey Johnny Murtagh, riding Viscount Nelson for Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle, greeted Team Coolmore in the paddock with a "Good morning, lads" before he and trainer Aidan O'Brien consulted quietly on strategy. A Coolmore photo-op was interrupted as trainer Jeremy Nosedo and jockey Ryan Moore rushed through to meet up with their Juvenile Turf hopeful Awesome Act.

REDEMPTION SWEET FOR FLEET CALIFORNIA FLAG

Last year, California Flag went an impossible opening half in :41.81 in the BC Turf Sprint, but hit a wall in the lane and ran 10th. It was a different story this time around. Allowed to lead them through an "easy" four furlongs in :43.09, the big grey had plenty left. The gelding bounced to his right lead as he started to cross the dirt, switched back to his left as he hit the grass in the stretch, and opened up on the field as they raced to the eighth pole. Back on his right lead for the final furlong, California Flag was not threatened as Gotta Have Her threaded her way through the field to get up for second. It was his fourth straight win, and third in three starts this year. For the runner-up, it was her first defeat on the course. California Flag was just a tick off his own course record of 1:11.10 as he gave jockey Joe Talamo and trainer Brian Koriner their first Breeders' Cup victories. It also marked the first Breeders' Cup success for owner/breeder Keith Card. The 82-year-old Montana native ran a heavy engineering contracting firm in California before retiring in 1994. Card got involved in the Thoroughbred business in 1964, and has just four broodmares on his 10-acre ranch in Murieta, California. "I'll tell you, the way Flag took off? That was exhilarating," Card said. "What an awesome feeling!" Koriner was thrilled to be provide Card with such a momentous victory. "His health has been so bad the last year," the conditioner revealed. "He's had a couple of strokes, and we didn't even know, you know, if he was going to be here for this. It's just a great thing for a man who has put so much into this game."

California Flag Benoit

Making the Scene...

Joe Pesci, sporting designer shades, made his way over the IEAH Stables camp to offer his well wishes. After a hug for Michael Iavarone and a high-five for bodyguard Marvin, he lit up a cigarette and stood chatting with the group. While the Academy Award-winning actor was easily recognizable, such was not the case for Rosemary Homeister Jr. The jockey, beaten a nose aboard Cloudy's Knight in the Marathon Friday, had to introduce herself to a Jockey Club member. Small wonder--Homeister, without a mount Saturday, had traded silks and boots for a low-cut sky blue number and sparkling gold sandals...Fasig-Tipton President and CEO Boyd Browning Jr., waiting to exit the paddock, was not looking forward to his trip back to Kentucky on the red-eye Saturday night. "Don't rub it in," he said when reminded that there are no direct flights to Lexington. "I have a three-hour layover in Chicago." But Browning was primed for Tuesday night's Fasig-Tipton November Sale. "I'll hit the ground running," he said.

Buddy's Saint, hit the line first when sprinting in his debut at Belmont Sept. 26, but was DQ'd for interference and placed second. The bay broke alertly from post three and took command as odds-on Toboggan Slide hounded him through :23 2/5 and :46 1/5 splits. Toboggan Slide put a nose in front at the three-eighths pole, but by the time they turned for home, Buddy's Saint had regained the lead and lengthened away powerfully. "I didn't expect him to run that big today!," enthused trainer Bruce Levine. "I know he got taken down, and he was a maiden, but if he had won, we were going to run him in this race, so I decided not to change direction. Our plan is to go to the GII Remsen S. [Nov. 28]." Expansion, winner of an optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 15 for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, came into this off a runner-up try in an 8 1/2-furlong optional claimer at Belmont Oct. 9. Making his first start for the Chad Brown barn here, the longshot settled toward the rear while racing in the two path. He was shuffled to last going into the far turn and was still last at the quarter pole, but, tipped widest of all, the four-year-old came flying to land the spoils. Winning jockey Channing Hill said he was flying blind out there, at least instruction-wise. "With Chad being in California, I really didn't get a chance to discuss much beforehand," he explained. "I was just trying to be as patient as I could and wait. Coming around the turn, I figured someone was going to have to be really running to outkick us, because I had a ton of horse." Malibu Prayer notched a well-deserved first graded win here against her elders. The Edward Evans homebred, a distant second to Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GI Mother Goose S. at Belmont in June, was second in both the GII Delaware Oaks July 18 and GIII Monmouth Oaks Aug. 15 and came into this off an overpowering win in the one-mile Cat Chat S. at Belmont Sept. 23, a race won in a snappy 1:33 4/5. Taking the show on the road, the bay was never far back, rallied three wide and held sway. Favored One Caroline, making her first start since May, was on the lead through a brutal half in :44 4/5 and battled on gamely to the finish. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The Usual Q.T. was mired in the role of bridesmaid early in his career, running second in four straight on turf and all-weather at Oak Tree and Hollywood. The bay broke the streak with a fifth on the synthetic at Hollywood in July, then was moved back to the grass and finally broke his maiden at Del Mar Aug. 5. Following up with an optional-claiming tally Sept. 2, The Usual Q.T. shipped north and added a one-length success in the Oct. 3 Cal Cup Mile. Rated just off the pace in his graded bow, he charged past the leaders in the stretch and staved off Battle of Hastings in the shadow of the wire to make it four in a row.

It took her three starts to break her maiden, but Ailalea has it together now. A distant third going 5 1/2 furlongs in her July 30 debut at Saratoga, the bay stretched to seven panels Sept. 6 and just missed, finishing just a half-length from the winner Mambo Fever as she crossed the line in fourth. She tried a mile at Belmont Park last time out Oct. 4, and showed her appreciation for the added ground with a four-length score. The Starlight colorbearer was favored to make it two in a row in her stakes bow. Unhurried in the early going, Ailalea edged closer while tucked in at the rail. She angled outside as they came around the bend and finished willingly, holding Mambo Fever safe in the final sixteenth. "I had a pretty good trip," winning jockey Eibar Coa said. "The one thing they told me was that she didn't like to be inside, but breaking from the inside, there wasn't much choice. She handled it pretty well. When I finally got her out at the three-eighths pole, she became more comfortable and went after the leaders. I think she has more to learn and room to improve." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Twice in the frame at Group 1 level previously, All American's indifferent form in five previous starts this campaign resulted in the four-year-old floating up to 40-1 in the betting. With G1 Cox Plate victor So You Think up to set a fast tempo in front, the longshot collared that rival late en route to the professional victory. "He was great," said trainer David Hayes. "They ran brilliant time and he's been knocking on the door all spring. He got the runs he's been trying to get. They strung out, [jockey] Corey [Brown] had him settled beautifully. The run came at the right time and he trounced them. If you can break 1:34 at Flemington then you're a pretty smart horse in that company. He's a stallion [prospect], he's a Group 1 winner and an outstanding two-year-old who's trained on at four, so I think [Arrowfield chief] Johnny Messara will be very happy." Initially purchased by David Hayes' bloodstock manager Mark Pilkington for A$220,000 at Magic Millions 2007, a controlling half-share in the colt was sold to Arrowfield on the eve of the 2008 G1 Golden Slipper after All American placed in the G1 Blue Diamond and won the G3 Skyline S. at two. Most recently, the colt was 3 1/2 lengths adrift in third in the Crystal Mile Oct. 24 at Moonee Valley and lost ground when well out of the frame in the G1 Toorak H. Oct. 10 at Caulfield. Hayes said All American was now likely to head to Perth for a crack at the Group 1 Railway S. at Ascot on Nov. 21.

First up off a 133 day break, All Silent won the G2 Gilgai S. at this track and trip Oct. 3, and the gelding proved that was no fluke with a startling last-to-first win here. "He gave us a few anxious moments," said winning trainer Grahame Begg. "Coming up to the 400 [meter mark], he was on the back of Nicconi (Aus)
 (Bianconi), but [Nicconi] didn't take him into the race and [All Silent] had to get around his heels and wind him up.

"Thank God it was Flemington," Begg added. "He loves getting on good tracks and he loves Flemington.
 He's a very, very good racehorse. The thing is with him is that he never exerts himself on the track and in his races he is pretty relaxed, but one thing with him is that he loves firm ground. He is four-from-four at Flemington." The half-brother to triple Group 1 winner Private Steer (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) took a starring role on this card last year as winner of the G1 Emirates
 S. However, his autumn campaign was disappointing when the speedster struggled on heavy tracks. In typical style, All Silent was last of nine at the 400-meter pole with Bank Robber (Aus) setting the pace before covering his final 400 meters in 21.71 seconds. Connections are considering a trip to Hong Kong for the G1 Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 13.

Successful in Ascot's G2 Royal Lodge S. at two, City Leader sprang back to his best with a latest fifth fitted with blinkers on for the first time in the Oct. 17 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket. Beaten less than three lengths by Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) there, a reproduction of that effort would be sufficient to make him a major player. Godolphin rely on Balius, who took the Tur-G2 Anatolian S. at Veliefendi Sept. 2 before running down the field along with City Leader in the G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp last time Oct. 3. "Balius was disappointing on his latest start, but he came out of that race in good order and I have been pleased with his work recently," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "I think we have found the right race for him.

The 10-furlong distance is his best trip and he has the class to run well." Heading the home defence is the highly consistent Voila Ici, who paid the price for taking on Schiaparelli (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) before fading late to be third in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club over a mile and a half at the San Siro last time Oct. 18. He had previously established a position as one of the country's leading middle-distance performers with wins in the May 9 G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio here and Longchamp's G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil July 14 and Milan's G3 Premio Federico Tesio Sept. 20.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Quality Road Scratched From Classic...

Quality Road (Elusive Quality) was fractious as they tried to load him, kicking out repeatedly at the assistant starters and nearly tossing Johnny Velazquez as he bucked in protest. The crew finally blindfolded the colt and got him in the starting stall, but Quality Road threw a fit, thrashing about until Velazquez bailed out and the assistant let him bolt out the front. The handler showed great skill in holding on to the still blindfolded three-year-old as he spun in a circle once out of the gate, and the hood was finally removed. Officials decided wisely to scratch him. "The horse is OK," trainer Todd Pletcher said afterwards. "He's got some scrapes and scratches. We're very disappointed, but it's just one of those things. We'll have to regroup and try again." The winner of the GI Florida Derby, Quality Road was second in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup last time out. Overall, he has a record of 7-4-2-1 and earnings of $972,830.

Lookin at Luckless....

On a weekend where several of the Breeders' Cup winners sat perfect and unmolested trips, GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile favorite Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) endured easily the most nightmarish journey. He covered ground all the way around the racetrack, yet came into the final 50 yards with a fighting chance and had victory snatched right out from under him. "He showed today what a good horse he is," said trainer Bob Baffert. "It's just frustrating to know you have much the best horse and to come up short like that. I didn't give him any chance at all at the half-mile pole. At least you know that you can look forward to the Derby." Jockey Garrett Gomez Gomez concurred. "My horse was running but he wasn't 'running running' until that horse came up inside of him. As soon as another horse came up inside of him, me and [the winner] took off together. Today my horse got banged around pretty hard a couple of times going into the first turn because there were a couple horses going into the turn on the inside that came out. It turned him a little sideways, but he took all that. For a young horse to keep on doing what he did - and when that horse came to him and he could fight with something, accelerate and show me that much more - makes me really excited about next year."

Lillie Langtry Sustains Fracture...

Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is reported to have sustained a fracture to her knee following her disappointing effort in Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Following her eighth placing in that contest, part-owner John Magnier told the Racing Post, "She has a small fracture in her knee. It was nobody's fault and everybody here at Santa Anita dealt with it efficiently. It's not a career-threatening injury. She will have a pin inserted in the knee on Sunday and then she will follow on home in 10 days' time." Earlier this season, the dark bay won the G2 Debutante S. and G3 Coolmore Stud Fillies Sprint S. and third in the G1 Moyglare Stud S.

Attendance Up at Breeders' Cup XXVI...

Attendance for Breeders' Cup Championships was up 11 percent for the two-day event Friday and Saturday at Santa Anita Park. A total of 58,845 fans were on hand yesterday to watch Zenyatta in her run for history. Total attendance for the two days increased from 86,588 to 96,496. "It was an electric atmosphere for two days and Zenyatta delivered what is arguably the greatest performance in the 26-year history of the event," said Breeders' Cup President and CEO Greg Avioli. "The Breeders' Cup extends its sincere thanks to all the owners who entered their horses this weekend, to our partners at Oak Tree and Santa Anita and to all of our nominators and the racing fans around the world whose support makes our event possible."

BREEDERS' CUP QUOTABLES

"We're not planning on switching trainers. We do have one little criteria on trainers. They must win 20 percent for us over a one year rolling period. But Mike [Maker] is well above that, and I think this would give him quite a bit of leeway in case he drops down to 19 percent."
-Owner Ken Ramsey on trainer Mike Maker, who has a 27-percent strike rate in 2009

BANK THE EIGHT (c, 2, Distorted Humor--Zori, by A.P. Indy), debuting in a one-turn mile at Belmont Oct. 8, raced toward the rear early and split horses in the stretch to finish second, 1 1/4 lengths behind Rule (Roman Ruler), who dominated the Jean Lafitte S. by nine lengths at Delta Downs Friday night. Off as the 85-100 favorite here, the homebred settled in eighth in the opening quarter-mile. He commenced a steady rally as he raced five wide on the turn, and was drifting in as he gradually forged to the front in the stretch to prevail by three-parts of a length over Argentarii (Roman Ruler). Comedero aired by 12 1/2 lengths on debut at Louisiana Downs Sept. 11, and prevailed by 4 1/2 lengths in the Razorback Futurity against Louisiana-breds over that track Oct. 3. The gelding entered this off three breezes at Keeneland. Facing three opponents, the bay went straight to the lead from post one and received mild pressure through an opening split of :22.20. The quartet lined up at the top of the stretch as the pace-setter drifted into the path of Vito Filitto. Put to a drive for the first time, Comedero turned back his rivals and pulled away to keep his unbeaten record intact. Vito Filitto stayed on to nab second inside the final sixteenth. Truth and Justice, an easy debut winner at Monmouth May 17, had trouble at the start of the June 28 My Dear S. over the Woodbine Polytrack and passed tiring horses after racing five wide to check in fourth. Back on the Jersey Shore for the Colleen S. Aug. 8, she battled for the early lead and yielded in the stretch to finish second by three lengths. The black-type breakthrough came in her fourth start, as she scooted clear in the lane to take Monmouth's Sorority S. by 3 1/2 lengths Sept. 5. She doubled her black-type tally with a 2 3/4-length score over Tapeta in the Presque Isle Debutante Sept. 26 and came to the Bayou bull ring to seek her third consecutive score. Away sharply, she led briefly before longshot Storming Suzy (Storm and a Half) moved up along the outside to contest the pace. The favorite inched away leaving the backstretch and was driven to the wire to hold Bella Diamante safe. Storming Suzy lugged in on the final turn, lost her rider and was vanned off. Charm School started his four-year-old campaign with a fair eighth placing in the prestigious Lincoln H. over a mile on good-to-firm ground here Mar. 28 and rounded his turf campaign off with an impressive success in contrasting conditions. Stepping up off a 10th in Newmarket's Cambridgeshire H. over 1 1/8 miles last time Oct. 3, the bay was switched off towards the rear early before scything through rivals near the fence inside the final quarter. Cutting between Hillview Boy and Ella with 100 yards remaining, he was driven out to assert in convincing fashion. "It got very tight in some parts, but he traveled well, and I knew a mile and a half on soft ground would suit him," jockey Jimmy Fortune said. "He's a talented horse who has looked a bit unlucky at times, but you've got to ride him from behind as if you get too handy on him he won't go."

DANDY MAN TO BALLYHANE

Godolphin's Dandy Man (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}--Lady Alexander {Ire}, by Night Shift) has been retired and will stand at Ballyhane Stud. Successful in the 2006 G3 Palace House S. at three when under the care of Con Collins, the Mountarmstrong Stud-bred sprinter was snapped up by Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation and raced in the colors of Princess Haya of Jordan when runner-up in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot and third in York's G1 Nunthorpe S. the following season. After failing to build on those efforts in the royal blue, one of the few sons of the ill-fated Mozart ended his career with a fourth in Newmarket's Listed Rous S. last month. Also the winner of three listed races and six of his 30 starts in all totaling just over £285,000 in prize money, he will stand at a fee of €4,500.
