A LION IN LATE FALL?

WinStar recently retired homebred standout Colonel John (Tiznow), but they may have another son of the two-time GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero ready to take his place. American Lion (Tiznow) made a promising debut for trainer Richard Budge Sept. 13, finishing second at Arlington, before opening up by an eye-catching 6 3/4 lengths at Keeneland Oct. 18 (video). That graduation marked his first try for Eoin Harty, and jockey Julien Leparoux will fly in to be in the irons once more.

 Pat Lang photo

"He was very impressive breaking his maiden," Harty said. "[This is] a big step up, but I think he's up to the task. He's a big colt. He looks like a combination of Tiznow and [broodmare sire] Storm Cat."

The colt's dam, Storm Tide (Storm Cat), a daughter of GISW City Band (Carson City), captured her lone career appearance in 2002. She was acquired for $200,000 at KEENOV in 2005 from Overbrook Farm by Dr. William Lockridge. Both American Lion and his yearling full-brother were bred by the partnership of WinStar and Lockridge, and the mare sold for $155,000 in foal to Tiznow at KEENOV in 2008. The yearling went for $40,000 at KESEF.

Bob Baffert, looking for his fifth renewal of the Hollywood Prevue, will saddle a pair of youngsters in Indian Firewater (Indian Charlie) and Macias (Purge), who is coming off a hard-fought win in the Jack Goodman S. at Oak Tree on Halloween. "Macias should be up close," Baffert noted. "Indian Firewater should not be far back, either."

PURE POETRY

Goffs' November Foal Sale concluded on a high yesterday, with increases across the board following a final session that proved a resounding success. Topping proceedings, and the sale overall, was a colt from the first crop of Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) who sold to Hideyuki Mori for €200,000. Out of In My Dreams (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a half-sister to Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill), hip 811 was consigned by Carriganog Stud, and was a stand-out on pedigree on a day of bluebloods. "He will go back to Japan eventually," commented Takashi Kodama, who was buying on behalf of Mori. "He's a very nice and well-bred colt. Rock of Gibraltar stood for a season in Japan, and was very popular with Japanese breeders." Dylan Thomas was also responsible for a February-foaled colt from Abbeville & Meadow Court Studs that sold for €140,000. Hip 715, out of a half to the 2002 G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano hero and 2003 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis runner-up Highdown (Ire) (Selkirk), was snapped up by Jim Bolger. Cont. p5-7

Gone Astray is a deserving favorite as he bids for a third consecutive graded trophy, but, as they say, anything can happen in a horse race. Haynesfield defeated his elders in the Empire Classic Oct. 24 in his second start off a lengthy break. "It's the next step, and we'll see how it goes," said Toby Sheets, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen. "He worked well on Monday, and we know he likes Aqueduct." Precursor edged Bad Action in the Proud Truth S. over track and trip Oct. 28; the latter came back to upset the GIII Pegasus S. at The Meadowlands Nov. 6.

RACING Round-Up

School's in Session for Quality Road...

Quality Road (Elusive Quality), vanned back to New York after pitching a fit in the starting gate prior to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Nov. 7, will school in Aqueeduct's paddock and gate today. Regular rider John Velazquez will join the Ned Evans's three-year-old, who is still under consideration for next Saturday's GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile.

"We'll try to simulate a race scenario a little bit, and see if we can load him without incident," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "He'll breeze on Sunday, we'll see how that goes, and get with Mr. Evans and come up with a plan." Pletcher added, "I think he's handled everything since he's shipped in. He's done as well as you can hope for, but obviously this wouldn't be the way you would draw it up. He's been schooling perfect. The whole gate crew has gone out of their way, which we appreciate." Cont. p4

Quality Road's stablemate Munnings (Speightstown) is a definite for the prestigious one-mile affair. The flashy chestnut is coming off three straight thirds, including a last-out appearance in the GI Vosburgh S. over seven furlongs Oct. 3. "I think Munnings gets a mile, no problem," Pletcher offered. "If you look back at his Haskell at a mile and an eighth, he was right there at the eighth pole, and was just beaten by Summer Bird. Obviously, Rachel Alexandra was an impressive winner, but I felt he held his own pretty well." WinStar's Super Saver (Maria's Mon), fourth in the GI Champagne S. Oct. 10, could be Pletcher's representative in the GII Remsen S. Nov. 28. "He is a possible for the Remsen or the [GII] Kentucky Jockey Club [at Churchill the same day]," Pletcher explained. "If he doesn't run in the Remsen, we will not have a starter." Pletcher also revealed that Ailalea (Pulpit), heroine of the GIII Tempted S. Nov. 7, developed a fever and will skip the GII Demoiselle S. Nov. 28.

Godolphin Gearing Up for Thanksgiving at Big A...

Godolphin has several runners for Aqueduct's Holiday Fest races, including Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}) in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile and Flashing (A.P. Indy) in the GI Gazelle S., both Nov. 28, as well as Sara Louise (Malibu Moon) in the Nov. 27 GII Top Flight H. Pyro (Pulpit) is also under consideration for the Cigar. Sara Louise, distinguished as the last horse to make Rachel Alexandra taste defeat, was narrowly beaten by champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the GII Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont before finishing fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint Nov. 6 at Santa Anita. "Sara Louise ran okay [in the Breeders' Cup]," said assistant trainer Rick Mettee. "We thought she would actually move up on the synthetic, the way she trained over it, but she didn't. We thought she would be a competitive third in there, and to see her come in a modest fourth was a little surprising. But, she came back and worked well yesterday. She'll run in the Top Flight and then get the winter off." Pyro, hero of the GI Forego S. at Saratoga, finished 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Nov. 7. "If Pyro breezes good on Sunday we may take a shot in the Cigar Mile; he may run as an entry with Vineyard Haven," Mettee said. Sara Louise will remain on these shores during her vacation, as will Vineyard Haven, while fellow Godolphin colorbearers Justenuffhumor (Distorted Humor), Gayego (Gilded Time) and Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor) will winter in Dubai.

She Be Wild Possible for Delta Princess...

Nancy and Mike Mazzon's She Be Wild (Offlee Wild), who likely clinched championship honors with her win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, is under consideration for the GIII Delta Princess S. Dec. 4, according to Daily Racing Form. "I've got Mr. and Mrs. Mazzone coming to Churchill Downs [Saturday] to watch her train and we're going to talk about it," trainer Wayne Catalano told DRF yesterday.

"The pre-entries were today, and if you don't pre-enter, you don't have the option." He added, "The way she's training and acting, I think she wants to go. She's training forwardly, and loving that dirt track at Churchill. We'll just have to see." As a Grade I or II winner in the Princess, She Be Wild would be running for an additional $250,000 in purse money.

GOFFS FOAL SALE

Nov. 17-20

Hitting the Mark...

After totting up a sale average of €22,260, an 11-percent increase on 2008; and a €13,000 median, up 30 percent, Goffs officials were in celebratory mood yesterday. "The contrast between 2008 and 2009 has been palpable in terms of atmosphere, buzz, statistics, clearance rates and the overall attitude of all the players attending horse auctions," Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby commented. "Twelve months ago, the industry was facing the bleakest of times as the worst effects of the worldwide economic downturn impacted on the bloodstock world. The real worry in November 2008 was fear of the unknown, as no one really knew how long, or how deep, and the shock of the fall resulted in some form of paralysis at the sales, which manifested itself in frighteningly low clearance rates as the autumn progressed. Happily, the bloodstock world is a remarkably resilient and hardy world populated by a bunch of pragmatic optimists who simply put their heads down and focused on what we know and can influence, rather than what is out of our hands. That approach resulted in better than expected yearling sales, which in turn flowed through to a really solid foal trade at Goffs this week. Indeed, the vibrancy of the market yesterday and today, in particular, is testament to the enduring success and popularity of Irish bloodstock and the forward-thinking approach and stamina of foal speculators who have been forced to fight significant groups of end users for the best foals each day." Cont. p6

Kennycourt Spree...

Kennycourt Stud were in the thick of the action and, for much of the day, had the top-priced foal, going to €165,000 for a son of Azamour (Ire). Consigned by Rheindross Stud, whose Brian Walsh owns the 2007 Grand National hero Silver Birch (Ire), hip 738 was the subject of a major update a week ago when Godolphin's Passion for Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) ran away with the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. That serious Derby contender is out of C'Est L'Amour (Thunder Gulch), who also features as this colt's second dam, and this purchase could prove a pinhooking triumph come next summer. The Stud's owner Eugene McDermott also paid €130,000 for Ballylinch Stud's hip 814, a colt from the first crop of the 2007 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club and G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Lawman (Fr). He is a half-brother to the group-winning Ashdown Express (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}), who was also second in the 2004 G1 July Cup, and to the 2003 GII Mrs. Revere S. scorer Hoh Buzzard (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}). Two others heading Kennycourt's way were Meath Farm's hip 671, a colt from the first crop of Teofilo (Ire) out of the dual Group 3 scorer Redstone Dancer (Ire) (Namid {GB}), who fetched €110,000; and hip 746, Eyrefield Lodge Stud's son of Montjeu (Ire). From the family of Marwell (Ire) (Habitat) and Marling (Ire) (Lomond), the latter was acquired for €75,000. "They're very strong, good-walking colts by exciting young stallions, and they will be back for resale next autumn," McDermott said. "We've been buying flat foals for the last couple of years, and it has been working out so far. One of the two-year-olds that we sold as a yearling in 2008 was Don Carlos (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), who was fourth to Passion for Gold at Saint-Cloud on Sunday."

Late Fireworks...

As the session drew to a close, two colts set the dying embers alight when selling for €160,000 apiece. Willie Browne's Meadowlands Stud snapped up Cloneymore Farm's hip 840, a son of Cape Cross (Ire) out of the top-class speedster Miss Sally (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), while Paddy Twomey matched that figure 11 lots later for a son of Pivotal (GB). Out of the fast and precocious black-type performer Ooh Aah Camara (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), he was consigned by Dermot and Meta Cantillon's Tinnakill House Stud. That came shortly after Jim Bolger paid €150,000 for the sale's top-priced filly, who hailed from the first crop of his beloved Teofilo (Ire). From the draft of Riversfield Stud, hip 847 is out of a sister to the top-class Green Desert duo Kheleyf and Bint Allayl (GB), and half to the group winner Laa Rayb (Storm Cat).

Nicoll at the Ready...

Adrian Nicoll of BBA Ireland, busy again, paid €120,000 apiece for a daughter of Galileo (Ire) and son of Hurricane Run (Ire). The former, who was consigned by Osberstown Stud as hip 712, hails from a high-class Juddmonte family, with the sires Wharf and Rail Link (GB) close up. Hurricane Run's pedigree has a major German influence, and Castletown Stud's hip 771 is rich in that respect. His second dam is listed-winning and Classic-placed Dapprima (Ger) (Shareef Dancer), who has produced the group winners Davidoff (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Denaro (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}). The organisation also paid €82,000 for Ringfort Stud's hip 722, a member of the first crop of Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom), who is a half-brother to the top-class sprinter Moss Vale (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}) and recent maiden winner Jarrow (Ire) (Shamardal). "The Galileo is a lovely filly and she has been bought to stay in Ireland," Nicoll said. "A decision will be made later whether she is re-offered or kept to race. As a daughter of Galileo from her family, she looked good value. I actually bought both Red Clubs and Moss Vale as yearlings, and that colt has been bought on behalf of a client to race." John Ferguson also paid €120,000 for a Dalakhani (Ire) colt from the draft of the Hyland Brothers' Oghill House Stud. Hip 805 is a half-brother to last year's GII American H. and GII Del Mar Mile victor Whatsthescript (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}). Ferguson had earlier paid €110,000 for hip 729, from Robert and Jacqueline Norris's Jockey Hall Stud. Comeraincomeshine has already produced the talented Danehill Destiny (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who was successful in the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock and finished third in the G3 Fred Darling S. this year. She is a half to the sire Where or When (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and is in foal to Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill).

1017, Elouana (Ire), f, 4, Kalanisi (Ire)--Edabiya (Ire), by Rainbow Quest
Consigned by Aga Khan Studs

One of a clutch of broodmares from His Highness The Aga Khan's sought-after draft, this is an unraced daughter of the 1998 G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Edabiya, who is herself a half to the 1997 G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Prix Royal-Oak winner Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and 1999 G1 Gold Cup hero Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}). She is carrying a foal by Shadwell's proven sire Muhtathir (GB).

1039, Gifts Galore (Ire), m, 12, Darshaan (GB)--Speciality Package, by Blushing Groom (Fr)
Consigned by Moyglare Stud Farm

One of the picks of the Moyglare draft, this is a sister to the group-placed Super Gift (Ire), dam of the smart current runners Dance Pass (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Sense of Purpose (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Gifts Galore, whose page includes Grey Swallow (Ire), is responsible for two black-type performers in Glitter Baby (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Going Public (Ire) (Night Shift), who was runner-up in the 2007 G2 Beresford S. # KEENELAND NOVEMBER

$50K THREE WAY A trio of horses brought $50,000 to share top honors at yesterday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. The first was hip 3976, a filly from the first crop of Half Ours (Unbridled's Song) that was purchased by Stoney Lane Farm. Offered by Baccari Bloodstock as agent, the grey miss is out of Fine Prospect (Meadowlake). Next to achieve co-topper status was six-year-old Sudan (Ire) (Peintre Celebre--Sarabande, by Woodman), offered as a stallion prospect by Three Chimneys Sales. The Group 1-winning chestnut, offered was hip 4078, was acquired by Marcel Zarour. Black-type winner Grand Minstrel (Grand Slam--Colonial Minstrel, by Pleasant Colony), selling as hip 4093 from the Lane's End draft, also made $50,000. Agent Jason Hall signed the ticket for the four-year-old racing/stallion prospect, whose second dam is champion Minstrella (The Minstrel). Today's session gets underway at 10 a.m. The sale continues through Sunday. For complete results, visit www.keeneland.com.

 Bien Toi, coming off a runner-up effort in the G2 Clasico Comparacion at Palermo Oct. 18, elevated his name among Argentina's best stayers by scoring his most important career victory in this race, La Plata's signature event. Under Pablo Falero, the gray colt rallied determinedly along the inside to deny MG1SW Flag Copado. He could make his next appearance in the Dec. 12 G1Gran Premio Internacional Carlos Pellegrini.

TO THE EDITOR

In reference to yesterday's article "Bloodstock Agent Billy McDonald Dead." What an entertaining remembrance of a wild and colorful character. I never knew--or even knew of--Billy McDonald until the reporting of his passing. Although I am sure he was not revered by everyone, your obit outlining his actions and successes, summarizes what a real bloodstock agent should do. These include: introducing new people to the thrill of racing, educating new owners, sharing in their successes and failures, and being friends for life. The "friends for life" is the tough part. It is especially hard to accomplish if you don't treat the client ethically. His is a story worth reading by those practicing the "bloodstock trade." How many more of our new owners would still be involved, enjoying the thrills of the sport and buying horses, if they had not been turned off by an early bloodstock experience? Not everyone can have Billy McDonald's flair, but more should understand the "friends for life" concept.

Bittel Road snapped a six-race and 13-month skid with this game pace-pressing effort. Winner of his first three career starts, including Keeneland's GIII Bourbon S., the dark bay was fourth to Pioneerof the Nile (Empire Maker) in the GI CashCall Futurity S. Dec. 20 and filled the same spot behind that now-retired rival in the GII Robert B. Lewis S. Feb. 7. Tenth at 2-1 in the GII Lane's End S. Mar 21, he was last seen finishing a non-threatening seventh in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill May 1. Up to force the issue from the inside here, Bittel Road was joined and passed by Retriever, who launched an ambitious wide run around the bend. But Bittel Road had more to say and fought back gamely to take it at the finish. Pitched Perfectly, who normally races prominently, was wrangled back off the speed and came home nicely to snatch second in the waning strides. Click for the brisnet.com chart or video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

This sees the return of Presvis, who warms up for Hong Kong off the back of a six-month break. Successful in the Apr. 26 G1 QEII Cup at Sha Tin, the gelding was runner-up in the Mar. 28 G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba and May 17 G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup either side. "It was always the plan not to run him after Singapore and give him a break, as he had a winter campaign," trainer Luca Cumani commented. "We brought him back in the middle of August and he's in great form, but possibly a little bit overweight, so he will benefit from the run. The plan after Lingfield is to go for the G1 Hong Kong Cup [at Sha Tin Dec. 13] and after that he will go to Dubai and prepare for either the Duty Free or the [G1 Dubai World Cup]." Heading the opposition is the May 25 Listed Festival S. winner Tranquil Tiger, who is also back after some time on the shelf and enters this spot off a third in a 10-furlong conditions event at Epsom Aug. 31.

SOUTHERN HALO DEAD Southern Halo (Halo--Northern Sea, by Northern Dancer), pensioned prior to this year's Southern Hemisphere breeding season, died at Haras La Quebrada in Argentina Thursday at the age of 26, Racing Post reports. The sire of 161 black-type winners was represented by Team (Arg), Argentina's Horse of the Year in 1998, and fellow Argentine champions El Compinche (Arg) and Miss Linda (Arg). The latter later found success in the United States when she upset the 2001 GI Spinster S. at Keeneland. Southern Halo shuttled to Ashford Stud in Kentucky from 1996-2002, standing for a top fee of $40,000 in 2001. His first North American crop included GI King's Bishop S. winner and dual-hemisphere sire More Than Ready. Other notable Northern Hemisphere progeny for Southern Halo include G3 Princess Margaret S. heroine Sainly Speech and Canadian champion two-year-old Edenwold. Bred by E.P. Taylor, Southern Halo was purchased by the Niarchos family for $600,000 as a KEEJUL yearling and went on to finish second in the GI Swaps S. and GI Super Derby.
