MANY ANGLES POINT TO QUALITY IN DONN

Today's GI Donn H. has been used as a springboard to Horse of the Year honors by such horses as Cigar (1995, 1996), Skip Away (1998), Saint Liam (2005) and Invasor (Arg) (2007). While another calendar year will pass before we name the next champion of champions, Edward Evans's Quality Road (Elusive Quality) has a lot going for him as he looks for his fourth win from five appearances at Gulfstream Park. The reigning GII Fountain of Youth and GI Florida Derby hero, the homebred returned from well-chronicled foot issues--which precluded a trip down the Triple Crown trail--to take the GII Amsterdam S. in Saratoga track-record time in August. He was third to Eclipse Award winner Summer Bird (Birdstone) in the GI Shadwell Travers S. later that month and runner-up to that foe in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup in October before blowing a gasket in the gate at the Breeders' Cup. After deciding to pass on the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H. in late November, the colt was sent south to prepare for the GIII Hal's Hope H. Jan. 3. On the pace throughout, Quality Road turned back all challenges and was ridden out to score by 2 3/4 lengths. "I thought the Hal's Hope was a good comeback and we were finally able to put all the negativity of the Breeders' Cup behind us," trainer Todd Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "It didn't appear to be an overtaxing race on him and he's trained exactly like we wanted him to after that with three breezes and multiple gate-schooling sessions. He'll be giving away some fairly significant weight to some awfully nice horses on Saturday, but I anticipate him to go over and run his 'A' race." Quality Road has breezed three times since the Hal's Hope, including an easy half-mile move in :49 3/5 at Palm Meadows Jan. 31. Donn H. cont. p2

Quality Road Adam Coglianesse

SONEVA TAKES CAPE VERDI AT MEYDAN

Arnaud Curty's Soneva (Cherokee Run), never too far from the front, held off a belated dash from Godolphin's Aspectoflove (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) to claim the G3 Cape Verdi, Friday's feature at Meydan Racecourse. Heroine of the G3 Prix d'Aumale during her juvenile season, the dark bay ran fifth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches in May, and later secured the G3 Prix de Lieurey at Deauville Aug. 13. She concluded her tenure under Yves Nicolay with a 13th-place finish in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp Oct. 3. Tucked in on the rail in fourth as Synergy (Fr) (Victory Note {Fr}) showed the way, Soneva was angled out by Christophe Soumillon in the straight. The four-year-old poked her head in front with 100 meters remaining, and the wire came just in time to give trainer Marco Botti his first Carnival victory. "Obviously we are delighted with that and we now know she handles the faster ground," the victorious conditioner told Racing Post. "I will have to talk to the owners but the [Feb. 25 G3] Balanchine is the logical next race," he added. Click for the Racing Post chart or the Emirates Racing video.

Soneva (middle) goes for home in the Cape Verdi Andrew Watkins

Millionaires Row...

The Donn has attracted two battle-tested millionaires in addition to Quality Road. Dry Martini (Slew Gin Fizz) bankrolled over half of his career earnings of $1.2 million in 2009, his most important and valuable success

Dry Martini Adam Coglianese

coming in the GII Suburban H. over 10 furlongs July 4. Given his apparent affinity for distances of a mile and an eighth and beyond, his running-on fourth-place effort behind Duke of Mischief (Graeme Hall) in the off-the-turf GIII Fort Lauderdale S. over Gulfstream's one-turn mile merits respect. He was beaten just two lengths when all was said and done and the extra real estate and the prospects of a more legitimate pace work in his favor today.

Six-year-old Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris) is another who would benefit from some speed up front. Never worse than third in four tries in Hallandale, including a score in the 2009 Hal's Hope, the gray returned from a February layoff to finish a hard-charging third to Cool Coal Man (Mineshaft) in a seven-furlong allowance Jan. 22. The quick turnaround is a bit of a concern, but he is a horse that is easy on himself and can make some noise late.

All carry 130 pounds, bar Typhoon Tracy, 126.

Typhoon Tracy should be a warm item to beat the boys this afternoon. As low as 3-5 on some ante-post markets, the four-year-old, seven for 10 lifetime, looks to take her winning streak to three. She enters this test off scores in the G2 Tristarc S. over course and distance Oct. 17 and in the G1 Myer S. over 1600 meters Oct. 31. Sniper's Bullet has been scratched from the Orr according to trainer Tracey Bartley. "It looks like he has an infection of some sort," Bartley told Australian Associated Press. "It's not worth running the risk, I don't want to risk flattening him first-up." Sniper's Bullet was the toast of Western Australia earlier this season, with wins back-to-back in the Nov. 21 Railway S. and the Dec. 5 Kingston Town Classic.

Court Vision went a very close third in this event 12 months back, going down by just 3/4 of a length to Kip Deville (Kipling) in a swiftly run affair. Though he managed just one win in 2009, he posted triple-digit Beyers in five of his seven appearances, including a nose success in Keeneland's GI Shadwell Turf Mile in his first start for the Rick Dutrow barn Oct. 10. The 2008 GI Hollywood Derby hero turned in a strong effort in his latest to be fourth, beaten 1 1/2 lengths behind Goldikova (Ire)

Well held when seventh to the dual BC Mile heroine in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois Aug. 16, he makes his U.S. bow off a 10th behind subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Classic third Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) in the G1 Champion S. Oct. 17. Take the Points posted Grade I wins in the Secretariat S. in August and the Jamaica H. in October, but was an even seventh in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 29. He faces older rivals for the first time in his career this afternoon.

Eclipse Award runner-up Blind Luck looks to take her first step towards the final Friday in April this afternoon. Winner of the GI Oak Leaf S. going a sixteenth of a mile further over the Pro-Ride Oct. 4, the one-time claimer couldn't quite finish off her race in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and dropped a 3/4-length decision to champion She Be Wild (Offlee Wild). She put pay to that effort with an exclamation point, becoming the lone dual Grade I winner of her generation with a stunning seven-length triumph in the Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 20. She's remained in steady training since, and, while today's distance may be a touch sharp, trainer Jerry Hollendorfer is not lacking for confidence. "There's a little anxiety there, but our filly's been training really well over this track, so we're not expecting her to regress," he offered. "We're expecting her to run a very good race." Crisp earned ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status off her adventurous maiden score at Hollywood Dec. 10, then validated that performance with a one-length victory from Evening Jewel in the Jan. 10 GIII Santa Ysabel S. Trainer John Sadler knows he faces a daunting task this afternoon. "Racing against Blind Luck is challenging in the sense that she's the second-best three-year-old on the West Coast," he explained. "The first one is Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike). We're up against it, but you've got to get them started."

Misremembered put together an outstanding three-year-old season for breeder and trainer Bob Baffert, who owns the colt in partnership. Winner of the GII Swaps S. in wire-to-wire fashion July 18, he beat Giant Oak (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Indiana Derby Oct. 3. Second by a neck to the progressive Blame (Arch) in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Nov. 27, he cut back to a sprint and gave an excellent account of himself placing second in the GI Malibu S. Dec. 26. "Seven-eighths is a little bit short for him," said his jockey Victor Espinoza, currently in a four-way battle for leading rider honors at Santa Anita. "A mile and an eighth should be perfect. He's ready to go." Massone rates a longshot look for the exotics. Third in last year's GI Toyota Blue Grass S., he was fourth in the Swaps and earned a career-best figure when third to Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor) in the GII Super Derby in September. Most recently third in the grassy GIII Sir Beaufort S. Dec. 26, he has trained sensationally for this return to Pro-Ride. Square Eddie suffered a suspensory injury Thursday and has been scratched.

Dave in Dixie kicks off his sophomore campaign in a very strong renewal of the Lewis. The $310,000 KEEAPR purchase debuted impressively over six furlongs of the Del Mar Polytrack Aug. 29, drawing off for a 3 1/4-length victory. Sent off at odds of 4-1 against Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) while making his first start going two turns in the GI Norfolk S. Oct. 4, the dark bay was last or second last much of the way and made a late run into sixth, beaten just over two lengths. Tiz Chrome and American Lion make their respective route debuts this afternoon. Tiz Chrome broke his maiden at 15-1 at Churchill Downs Nov. 1 and was purchased privately. In his first appearance for his new connections, the bay laid close to a quick pace and accelerated away for a four-length victory in the Dec. 19 Stuka S., a non black-type event at Hollywood Park. American Lion was arguably the most impressive two-year-old at last year's Keeneland fall meeting, graduating by 6 3/4 lengths Oct. 18. He was less eye-catching when a half-length better than Get My Fix (Posse) in the GIII Hollywood Prevue S. Nov. 21, but should also appreciate today's added distance.

RACING Round-Up

PIPEDREAMER PURCHASED BY KOUKASH

Pipedreamer (GB) (Selkirk) has been snapped up privately by owner Marwan Koukash after being withdrawn from Thursday's Tattersalls February Sale. The Cheveley Park Stud-bred six-year-old, who captured the G2 Prix Dollar in 2009 and who had been thought set to retire, will join trainer Kevin Ryan following the deal brokered by Stephen Hillen. "He's been bought for Marwan Koukash and he'll be racing again next season," the agent told the Racing Post. "It's early days, but I should think we'll look at all the top mile or [nine-furlong] races with him, including perhaps the G1 Prix d'Isphahan. We'll have to see how it goes with him before thinking of any stud plans."

Why the TDN?

"The two words that come to mind when I open the TDN every morning are Current and Global. I always feel like I am up to date in the Thoroughbred world when I am done reading the TDN."

RULE TO MAKE SOPHOMORE BOW IN DAVIS

WinStar Farm's Rule (Roman Ruler), winner of his final three starts at two, including the GIII Delta Jackpot S. Dec. 4, will make his sophomore debut in the GIII Sam F. Davis S. at Tampa Bay Downs Feb. 20, Daily Racing Form reports. "We decided to send Rule to Tampa because we've had good luck up there in the past with our three-year-olds, such as Any Given Saturday and Bluegrass Cat," trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF. "He's trained well and he's ready to run and I'm a little more comfortable sending him to Tampa than to the Fair Grounds." Any Given Saturday was a memorable second to Street Sense in 2007, while Bluegrass Cat took the 2006 running.

 NORTH AMERICA

WINTER WALLOP IMPACTS RACING The Nor'easter creeping its way up the Eastern seaboard shut down Washington, D.C. Friday, and will take its toll on weekend horse racing. Officials at Laurel Park announced the cancellation of live racing programs both Friday and Saturday. The Magna 5 wager has also been lost to the weather Saturday. Saturday's Marshua S. will be run on the Feb. 15, which also includes the GI General George H. Philadelphia Park has officially canceled racing for Saturday and will bring back that card for Tuesday. Penn National and Charles Town have canceled Friday and Saturday racing, while Beulah Park will not race Friday, and, with additional snow in the forecast, Saturday's card would appear to be at risk. Racing at Aqueduct is on for Saturday as scheduled. The New York City area is forecast to receive 3-6 inches of snow, though winds could also have an impact on the decision to race. Saturday's program features the $100,000 Whirlaway S. for three-year-olds. If racing is cancelled, that event will be rescheduled for Feb. 13.

PHILLY JOCK GETS 200 DAYS FOR PUNCH Eriluis Vaz, who punched jockey Ademar dos Santos in the face during the stretch run of a Jan. 8 race at Philadelphia Park, was handed a 200-day suspension by track stewards, Daily Racing Form reports. Dos Santos received a 90-day ban. The incident occurred when Vaz attempted to guide his mount off the inside fence, bumping Dos Santos's horse in so doing (video). Dos Santos could be seen screaming at Vaz, who responded by hitting Dos Santos in the face with the back of his hand. When Dos Santos attempted to retaliate, Vaz brought the handle of his whip down onto the neck of Dos Santos. Vaz's mount, Divine Light, was disqualified from fifth to ninth. While suspended, neither will be permitted access to any Pennsylvania track. It is likely that no track will allow either to ride at their facility under reciprocity rules. "The stewards recognized with the penalty that Vaz was the aggressor," Justin Fleming, a spokesperson for the Pennsylvania State Racing Commission told the Form. The action taken is retroactive to Jan. 9. Vaz may return to the saddle July 28, while Dos Santos has been ruled off through Apr. 9.

SEA ROAD (f, 3, Tale of the Cat--Packet, {MSW, \$228,505} by Polish Navy), debuting in a Belmont turf dash Oct. 11, chased home eventual black-type winner and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf runner-up Rose Catherine (Speightstown) to finish second by 8 3/4 lengths. Fifth in a Nov. 1 Aqueduct maiden that was transferred to the main track, the dark bay dug in to earn her diploma by a head over the Big A's turf course Nov. 25. The homebred was given a 6-1 chance to make it two in a row here. Never far back, Sea Road saved ground in third as she waited to make her move. She began to reel in the leaders as the field turned for home, and made a steady run to post a half-length victory. SUPERIOR SELECTION (f, 3, Giant's Causeway--Society Selection {MGISW, $1,984,200}, by Coronado's Quest), the first foal out of the 2004 GI Alabama S. winner, showed mild late interest on debut to report home third in the slop at Belmont Oct. 18, finishing behind recent Gulfstream allowance victress Comic Marvel (Distorted Humor) and Aqueduct maiden winner Wild News (Forest Wildcat). The homebred raced evenly to be sixth at Aqueduct Nov. 1 in her juvenile finale, and was the 3-1 third choice here. The chestnut was quickest out of the gate before she yielded the top spot to Cape Cod Carrie (Purge) as the field exited the chute. Content to track the pacesetter in second through the upper turn, Superior Selection took command at the quarter pole and was driven home as she drew off to defeat that rival by five lengths. Trying turf for the first time here, the $400,000 KESEP yearling raced in fourth behind cover through the second turn. The 9-1 outsider found a seam at the marker, punched through to challenge for the lead, and out-nodded Wandaful Wandaful (Hero's Tribute) to prevail by a nose. Owned in partnership by West Point Thoroughbreds, R. D. Brass Hat Shooting for Nine-Year-Old Campaign:

Nine-year-old Brass Hat (Prized) is back in training at Gulfstream Park, the scene of his 4 3/4-length victory in a sloppy renewal of the GI Donn H. back in 2006. A homebred for Fred Bradley and trained by his son, William "Buff" Bradley, Brass Hat returned to the worktab Jan. 30, going three-eighths of a mile at Gulfstream. "He breezed for the first time last Saturday [36 3/5] with Elaine Castillo," Buff said Friday morning. "I was going to breeze him again tomorrow (Donn Day), but might wait until Sunday or later, depending on the weather. He's been very happy since we got down here and enjoys his morning routine. He's out at least 45 minutes every morning walking around the [barn area] before galloping with his regular exercise rider Jeff Lopez." The conditioner added, "We will only continue with him as long as he's happy with what he's doing. My dad is very patient and we never have any expectations for him. He did most of his racing going long on turf last year, which I think is more comfortable for him at his age with the pace of those races. We would like for him to run here at some point before shipping [to Kentucky], but again that will be up to him." Brass Hat won the GIII Louisville H. from seven starts in 2009 and placed in the GI United Nations S., the GI Sword Dancer H., the GII Elkhorn S. and the GIII Stars and Stripes H. The gelding has nine wins from 33 career starts and earnings of $2,047,110.

ALLRIGHTSRESERVED (c, 4, Awesome Again--Divine Angel {GSP}, by Matty G), a $300,000 KEESEP yearling, was runner-up in his sophomore debut at Gulfstream last January, then filled the exacta once again at Belmont in May. He faded to fifth after pressing the pace at Big Sandy June 6, and was subsequently sent to the bench. Favored at 95-100 in this comeback bid, the gray was forced inside by Friendly Wager (Friends Lake) in the opening furlong, and pinballed hard off Yankee Hill (Hook and Ladder). The chalk recovered to track the leaders in fourth up the backstretch, came under a drive at the top of the lane, and chased home Friendly Wager to be second by 2 1/2 lengths. Debby Diliberto to Wear Dad's Saints Jersey in Miami:

Originally, trainer Tom Amoss was going to wear the Saints jersey of the late New Orleans media legend Buddy Diliberto to Sunday's Super Bowl in Miami. But, when Diliberto's daughter Debby came up with a ticket to the big game, Amoss was only too happy to oblige. "I have no problem at all with that," said Amoss of the jersey that was given to the elder Diliberto when he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame some time ago. "If anybody should wear that jersey, it should be someone from that family. They deserve to wear it a lot more than I do."

Schwartz Resigns from TOC Position:

Citing his desire to spend sufficient time with his family, Steven Schwartz has announced his resignation from the position of President of the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC), effective immediately. Schwartz also indicated that, having given this decision a lot of thought, he felt the time and travel involved were beyond his expectations. Said Marsha Naify, chairperson of the TOC Board of Directors, "We respect Steve's decision and wish him all the best in his future endeavors." Schwartz also expressed how much he enjoys being a part of the California racing industry and he intends to continue to be active whenever possible.

Jocks, Holy Rollers B-Ball Game Set for Feb. 25:

The 43rd renewal of the Holy Angels--Santa Anita Jockeys Charity Basketball Game will take place Thursday, Feb. 25 at 7:15 p.m. at LaSalle High School in Pasadena. Retired Hall of Fame riders Eddie Delahoussaye and Laffit Pincay Jr. as well as national leading money-earner Garrett Gomez will be on hand from 6:15 to sign autographs. Proceeds will benefit the Holy Angels athletic department. David Flores, who has led the jockeys' team for the last 15 years, will serve as captain. "We've got a great bunch of guys and we have a lot of fun with this game every year," said Flores. "There are a lot of great people at Holy Angels and they've meant a lot to us here at Santa Anita over the years. This game helps raise money for their sports programs and we have a lot fun with it. The last couple of years, they've had some pretty big players, but we're fit and we'll give 'em a good game." HRTV personality Kurt Hoover will coach the jockeys as he has for the past 10 years. "David [Flores] does such a great job in getting the jocks to come out and play and most importantly, to stay loose and have fun with it," he explained. "I'll tell you one thing—that gym at LaSalle gets jam-packed and it's LOUD in there." Admission is $5.

G3 Burj Nahaar Mar. 5. However, the homebred finished seventh when stretched out to 10 furlongs for the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 28, and hadn't faced the starter since. Making his first appearance on turf since 2007, the blinkered bay was parked out wide for much of the running here. Having collected the Listed Prix Francois Mathet in his second start at three Mar. 29 for his breeders, the Wertheimer brothers, the chestnut ran third in the G3 Prix Greffulhe May 12, then finished second in the G3 Prix Daphnis June 22. He could only manage sixth in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam the following month, but rebounded with a close third in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville Aug. 16, and closed out his sophomore season with another third in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at Longchamp Sept. 19, his final start for trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. Allybar topped Arqana's Arc Sale at €370,000 in October, with Anthony Stroud signing the ticket, and was making his first start in the Godolphin blue here. When the gates opened, Presvis ceded his two rivals the advantage with a tardy break, and Zulu Chief (Fusaichi Pegasus) led an eager Allybar through the early stages. Allybar tackled the leader on the turn and quickened away smartly under an energetic Ahmed Ajtebi to hand Presvis a 7 1/2-length defeat. The runner-up, second in his only previous all-weather start at Lingfield in November, will continue to be prepared for the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 27. "We learned nothing basically in a very tactical race--that was always the concern with three runners, and very similar to what happened at Lingfield," trainer Luca Cumani told Racing Post. "We will come back on Super Thursday for the third round of the Maktoum Challenge over the same course and distance." Cumani added, "We always have two turf options on World Cup night if he does not take to the Tapeta, but that was not the reason for tonight's defeat." ELUSIVE CITY COLT TOPS SELECT FINALE A colt by Elusive City (Elusive Quality) topped Friday's final session of the New Zealand Bloodstock Select Yearling Sale at Karaka. Offered as lot 947 by Haunui Farm, the bay colt was purchased by O'Brien Thoroughbreds for NZ$250,000 (US$172,400). He was produced by the Generous (Ire) mare Della Mimosa (NZ). Over the course of the three-day Select Sale, seven youngsters made at least NZ$200,000, compared to just one in 2009. "When we were selecting for the sale this year, we saw a host of yearlings that in years past might have been in Premier now featuring in the Select session, so we knew the strength was there," Petrea Vale, NZB's co-managing director. "But it has been great to see the buyers still hard at battle for the lots they want. The Select Sale is growing year by year in its own right, and the results are speaking for themselves. More and more buyers are staying on for this session and the results are reflecting this growing competition." Vale added, "We're very happy to see the support the sale has received this week and wish buyers the very best of luck with their purchases. We hope that some of the momentum from this incredible week can flow into our Festival session on Sunday and Monday." Complete results are available on www.nzb.co.nz.
