THIS TIME FOR SURE!

With a high of 57 degrees in the forecast, the GIII Southwest S. at Oaklawn will be held today without further delay. Originally scheduled for last Monday, the first graded prep for the Apr. 10 GI Arkansas Derby was postponed after freezing temperatures forced the track to cancel the balance of the card after four races. All 10 horses originally entered for Monday have returned, with no new shooters joining the cast. Post positions were redrawn, which had a significant impact on two of the probable favorites, undefeated ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Conveyance (Indian Charlie) and last year's GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. winner Dublin (Afleet Alex). Conveyance, winner of the GIII San Rafael S. over Santa Anita's Pro-Ride Jan. 16, was originally assigned post two, but now finds himself in post eight. Dublin would have been marooned out in post 10, but now has drawn post three in his seasonal bow. The San Rafael was Conveyance's first start over a route of ground, and trainer Bob Baffert is hopeful the switch to conventional dirt will be beneficial for the steel gray. "He's a very fast horse," Baffert told Daily Racing Form, adding, "I'm hoping the dirt might help him. His last race was going long first time. He went around there a little green, but he handled it all right." Dublin ended his two-year-old campaign with a pair of disappointing efforts--a fifth in the GI Champagne S. at Belmont Oct. 10 and a seventh in the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 1--before undergoing throat surgery. Dryfly (Jump Start) already has a victory over this track and trip to his credit, having led every step of the Smarty Jones S. Jan. 18. Owned by Oaklawn President Charles Cella, the gelding has won three of four starts. Field p6

THE SAINT GOES MARCHING IN

Buddy's Saint (Saint Liam) swept Aqueduct's pair of graded stakes for two-year-olds back in the fall, and will face the starter for the first time in 2010 today in the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Park. After the bay took the Nov. 7 GII Nashua S. by 12 lengths under a hand ride and the Nov. 28 GII Remsen S. by just under five, trainer Bruce Levine decided to give the Kingfield Stables representative a brief freshener. With the Fountain of Youth as the short-range goal and the Triple Crown out on the distant horizon, Buddy's Saint returned to the worktab Jan. 1, and served notice with a pair of brisk six-furlong breezes over this surface Feb. 7 and Feb. 14. “I’ve got no back-ups, no one in the bullpen, no one sitting on deck,” trainer Bruce Levine told Daily Racing Form,” but continued, “This is what every trainer dreams of. If you’re in the game, this is what you dream of, to have this opportunity.” Buddy’s Saint could face a stiff test from mighty mite Jackson Bend

Jackson Bend Horsephotos

(Hear No Evil), who overcame a wide trip to finish second to Winslow Homer (Unbridled’s Song) in the GIII Holy Bull S. over a one-turn mile at Gulfstream Jan. 23 in his most recent effort. The narrow defeat snapped a five-race winning streak the diminutive chestnut accumulated while racing at Calder. Eskendereya (Giant’s Causeway), victor of the off-the-turf Pilgrim S. back in October, tuned up for his return to black-type competition with a 1 1/4-length victory in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 7. The Fountain of Youth will be his first start around two turns since finishing ninth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Nov. 7. Lost Aptitude (Aptitude), winner of the Grand Canyon S. at Churchill Downs in November and second in the GIII Tropical Park Derby Jan. 1, makes his first start on turf. Last year’s GI Three Chimney’s Hopeful S. third and GI Dixiana Breeders’ Futurity runner-up Aiekenite (Yes It’s True) looks to get back on track following a sixth in the Holy Bull.

12	Hotep	A.P. Indy	Albarado	Frostad	12-1

All carry 116 pounds, bar Ron the Greek at 120.

Ron the Greek, the fast-closing winner of the Gill Lecomte S. Jan. 23, will try to hold serve on his home court here against a deep group of invaders from Florida and New York. Last of 10 up the backstretch in the Lecomte, the Jack T. Hammer homebred made an inexorable charge to collar pacesetter Maximus Ruler (Roman Ruler) in the final sixteenth and earn a 1 1/2-length score. "That's his style, and I think the greatest mistake a trainer can make is to change a horse's style," trainer Tom Amoss told Daily Racing Form. WinStar Farm's Drosselmeyer broke his maiden by six lengths in an off-the-turfer at Churchill Downs Nov. 18 in his last start as a two-year-old, and made it two straight with a 1 3/4-length triumph in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 31 last time out. His connections considered keeping the colt in Florida for today's GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth before opting for this spot. Discreetly Mine, second in the GI Champagne S. last October, stretches out off a rough-trip fourth in the Spectacular Bid S. in the slop at Gulfstream Jan. 9 in his lone start as a sophomore. Tempted to Tapit demolished maidens by 11 1/2 lengths over the inner track at Aqueduct Jan. 18 most recently and has been training at Gulfstream in preparation for his first start against winners. Both Stay Put and Hotep enter this spot off victories in optional claimers at this track Jan. 3 and Feb. 1, respectively.

Like Buddy's Saint, D' Funnybone, easy winner of the GII Saratoga Special S. and GII Futurity S. in 2009, makes his sophomore bow today at Gulfstream. Last of 13 in the Nov. 7 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in his seasonal finale, the Paul Pompa Jr. representative returns to conventional dirt and a sprint distance here. Also making his first start since the Breeders' Cup Juvenile is Radiohead, who reported home seventh that day. Winner of the G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot, the chestnut later placed in a pair of Group 1 events in England before he was acquired by IEAH Stables, Pegasus Holding Group, et. al. The Hutcheson will be his first start on dirt and for trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. Ned Evans' A Little Warm seeks his third straight victory, as he enters this spot off a dominant maiden victory at Philly Park Nov. 23 and a 1 1/2-length score over Wildcat Frankie in the slop in the six-furlong Spectacular Bid S. at this venue Jan. 9.

Bob Black Jack returns to the races for the first time since taking the 2008 GI Malibu S. The five-year-old, who set a world record for six furlongs in the Sunshine Millions Dash two Januaries ago, will have to deal with today's tricky seven-furlong trip. "The horse is looking good, he's healthy and he's sound," said his jockey David Flores. "His last work [Feb. 14, 6f in 1:11 2/5 at Hollywood Park] was good, and he's coming back really well. I don't know if he's going to need the race, because at seven-eighths; he might, but we don't know." Dancing in Silks should appreciate today's distance. The bay bested Cal-breds in the Sept. 9 Pirates Bounty S. at Del Mar and in the Cal Cup Sprint at Santa Anita Oct. 3, then took a three-way photo in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 7. He was given a bit of a breather thereafter, and his late run carried him to a third-place finish behind Kinsale King (Yankee Victor) and Ventana in his 2010 opener, the GII Palos Verdes H. Jan. 23.

From humble origins in Florida more than fifty years ago, no two-year-old in training sale can match Calder as a source of high-class winners.

Take 2009. 14 GSWs – 6 of them G1. Winners on dirt, turf and all-weather – from ages 2 to 5 – including 2009 Dual Eclipse Winner Gio Ponti.

Now in 2010 - COURT VISION wins the G1 Gulfstream Park Turf H. and MUNNINGS wins the G2 Gulfstream Park Sprint Championship.

What's happening now begins and ends with F-T.

This race seems ripe for an upset, and, making his third start off a layoff, Vanquisher could play the role of spoiler. A troubled fourth in this event last year, the Steinbrenner homebred has taken part in a pair of paceless races this year when third in a Jan. 3 Tampa allowance before filling the same spot in the GIII Colonel Bradley H. at the Fair Grounds Jan. 23. The early fractions figure much stronger here, and he should be motoring late. Courageous Cat went on a three-race winning skein last fall, culminating with an on-pace success in the GII Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 14. Third to Take the Points (Even the Score) in the GI Jamaica H. Oct. 10, he carried the lead into the final furlong of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile before being overhauled by Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa).

7	Jody Slew	Slew City Slew	Mena	Calhoun	6-1

Jody Slew appears to have turned the corner and should get a favorable set up in front of her. A distant 10th in the GIII Pocahontas S. going Churchill's one-turn mile Nov. 1, the bay improved dramatically to round out the triple at 76-1 in the grassy Caressing H. in Louisville Nov. 28. She was overlooked at 23-1 in this track's Tiffany Lass S. Jan. 23, but rallied from 12 lengths back after a half-mile to defeat Bella Medaglia by a half-length. Devil May Care returns to the main track for her sophomore debut. A maiden winner in the Saratoga slop Aug. 29, the half-sister to GSW Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor) added a head success in the GI Frizette S. Oct. 10, but failed to handle the Santa Anita Pro-Ride and was 11th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Quiet Temper, the GIII Delta Princess S. heroine three back, looks to make amends here for a flat fifth in the Tiffany Lass.

Connemara, a half-brother to 2004 GI Haskell Invitational H. winner and GI Kentucky Derby second Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), opened his career with victories at Turfway Park Oct. 4 and Oak Tree Nov. 4 before he tasted defeat for the first time when second to Ranger Heartley by 3/4 of a length in the California Derby over this course Jan. 16 most recently. Owned by Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor, Connemara has a habit of breaking slowly, which might have cost him the victory last time. Ranger Heartley, a gate-to-wire winner that day, could be difficult to track down once again with the lack of other speed entered in this spot.

The focus will be on three-year-olds today with four graded Triple Crown preps on the agenda, but it will be a trio of colts who were on the Derby trail last year who have the spotlight in this prep for the Mar. 27 GII New Orleans H. Friesan Fire, 18th in the Derby as the 7-2 favorite and 10th in the GI Preakness S., posted a 1 3/4-length victory over last year's GI Bluegrass S. winner General Quarters in the Louisiana H. over this track and trip last time out Jan. 23. Owned by Vinery Stables and Fox Hill Farm, Friesan Fire has expressed his affinity for this surface with four wins from six starts at the Fair Grounds, including a sweep of the 2009 GIII Lecomte S., GIII Risen Star S. and GII Louisiana Derby. Arlington Classic S. winner Giant Oak, second in the GII Illinois Derby and GII Indiana Derby, resurfaces here after finishing fourth in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Downs Nov. 27.

Bankable was the runner-up in five group races in 2008, then dropped into handicap company and finished sixth as the favorite at Newmarket that November. The bay kicked off 2009 with a handicap score at Nad Al Sheba in February before running fifth in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. the following month. Third in the May 17 G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji and second by a half-length in the Aug. 29 G3 Winter Hill S. at Royal Windsor, he was last seen earning his first black-type victory in the Sept. 16 Fortune S. at Sandown Park. Content to bide his time at the back of the pack in his return, Bankable came charging down the far outside in the stretch. He joined Imbongi on the front end in the waning yards and outgamed that rival to get the bob, with an unlucky Ibn Battuta just another head back in third. "He is a really nice horse, and the Dubai Duty Free [Mar. 27] has always been his target," winning trainer Herman Brown said. "Now he has won this, we will probably go straight there without another run." Click for the Racing Post chart or emiratesracing.com video.

RACING Round-Up

ANOTHER GO AROUND FOR FOREVER TOGETHER Forever Together (Belong to Me), the 2008 champion turf female, will compete in 2010 as a six-year-old, Daily Racing Form reports. "It was announced that the [G] Breeders' Cup [Filly and Mare Turf S.] was going to be her final race, but [owner George] Strawbridge changed his mind," trainer Jonathan Sheppard told DRF. "And I certainly was not going to argue. I'd much rather have her race than stand around in a field being a broodmare. She's perfectly sound, and she can still rub against the best." Winner of the Filly and Mare Turf in 2008, the gray was third in that race last year as the 2-1 favorite.

SHE'LL BE DOGGONE (f, 3, Gone West--Pate Maison, by Polish Numbers) rallied to take her debut for trainer John Parisella Nov. 15 over a muddy main track at the Big A. The dark bay was a contender for the Busanda S. last month, but missed that outing when she sustained a slight injury in her stall, according to Daily Racing Form. Making her first start back for Tony Dutrow, the 6-5 chalk settled in second under Ramon Dominguez. She took over turning for home and extended her advantage to 4 3/4 lengths while hand-ridden. Idealhouse (Limehouse) was second best while 11 1/4 lengths clear of the others. She'll Be Doggone's dam is a full-sister to the tough MGSW Biogio's Rose. ORDINATION (IRE) (g, 5, Fantastic Light--Seek Easy, by Seeking the Gold) graduated in his second start at three in Britain for trainer Brian Meehan. Turned over to Eoin Harty for his four-year-old campaign, the chestnut took an optional claimer at Golden Gate May 17, then finished fourth in the GIII Golden Gate Fields Turf H. two weeks later. However, he faded to 12th in the GIII Arlington H. in July, and hadn't been out since. Sent off at 7-2 in his first start for Christophe Clement, Ordination sat in second as Andhaar (Awesome Again) showed the way through soft splits. The tempo quickened approaching the straight, and the five-year-old dug in gamely to deny a stiff challenge from favored Silver Mountain (Victory Gallop) to score by a head. The chestnut backed up to finish a distant eighth to  "TDN Rising Star"  Brake Lights (Saint Liam) in a two-turn maiden at Aqueduct Jan. 2, but was 2-1 while shortening up here. Hustled away from the gate, Rasher was safely in front at every call, and opened up under a vigorous hand ride to romp by eight lengths. Even-money Chenoasilver (Eurosilver) was second through-out. ELLE A GENT (f, 4, Gulch--Ravish Me, by Wild Again) brought just $52,000 as a yearling at KEESEP, but blossomed into a $450,000 BESMAR juvenile. Though the half-sister to Foxy Danseur (Mr. Greeley) MSW & MGSP, $340,153, hit the board against the likes of 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Witty (Distorted Humor) and MGISW Gabby's Golden Gal (Medaglia d'Oro) in Santa Anita maidens last winter, she didn't actually get her picture taken until switched to the turf in her latest appearance over this course and distance Jan. 29. The 2-1 crowd's choice was prominent from the start, had the lead turning for home and was confidently ridden to a 3 1/4-length triumph by John Jacinto. Proper Reality Dead:

Millionaire Proper Reality (In Reality--Proper Princess, by Nodouble), whose eight stakes wins included the GI Met Mile H., GI Philip H. Iselin H. and GI Arkansas Derby, was euthanized yesterday morning at Hagyard's Equine Medical in Lexington. The 25-year-old had been a resident of Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Facility since last summer. "At about 7:30 this morning, during feeding time, Bill Van Den Dool noticed that he was acting like he had colic," said Old Friends President Michael Blowen. "After treatment by our barn manager Kent Ralstin and Dr. [W. Joshua] Mixon, the decision was made to bring him to the clinic, where an ultra sound revealed that his chances of living out the rest of his life with dignity were severely compromised." Bred and owned by Mrs. James A. Winn, Proper Reality won 10 of his 19 career starts and earned $1,701,650. From 18 crops to race, he sired 11 stakes winners and the earners of more than $12 million. He stood at Bob Holthus's Kilkerry Farm in Arkansas. "He will be really missed," added Blowen. "He was in a front paddock and was always first to greet our visitors." A spring memorial service will be held at Old Friends' Dream Chase Farm in Georgetown, Kentucky.

A JEALOUS WOMAN (f, 4, Muqtarib--Miss Free Bird, by Fly So Free), second in a live statebred maiden event over Hollywood's Cushion Track July 19, got up to graduate by a neck when sprinting on turf against open company at that venue Nov. 22. Off as the 2-1 favorite to make it four in a row, the chestnut raced at the head of affairs through a half in :46.70. She was put to a drive at the top of the stretch and was all out to hold off Welken (Sky Classic) by a half-length. 6th-SAX, $46,200, Msw, 3yo, 1m (AWT), 1:37, ft. ERBEIA (c, 3, Pulpit--Corrazona {GISW-US & MGSW-Fr, $513,919}, by El Gran Senor) improved to finish third when stretched out on Del Mar's Polytrack Sept. 5, but faltered in two subsequent tries on the Oak Tree sod, and was given some time to regroup following an eighth-place effort Oct. 24. Dismissed at 13-1 in this return on the all-weather, the homebred chestnut came away smoothly, but was taken back to caboose the field for the opening six furlongs. Jockey Joel Rosario got after him on the turn and the homebred found his best stride in the final furlong, rallying up the center of the track to take it by a length from Broken Tango (Broken Vow). Erbeia is a 3/4-brother to Olmodavor (A.P. Indy), MGSW & GISP, $706,540; and a half to Slow Down (Seattle Slew), SW-US, $120,139. MANIGHAR SOLD TO MACK AND OTI; JOINS CUMANI

Manighar (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), winner of last October's G2 Prix Chaudenay at Longchamp, has been purchased from His Highness The Aga Khan in a private deal, according to Racing Post. The four-year-old gelding, who ran third in the Oct. 25 G1 Prix Royal-Oak back at the Bois de Boulogne track last time for trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre, has joined Luca Cumani's Newmarket stable, and will race for the partnership of Earle Mack and the Australia-based OTI Racing. November's G1 Melbourne Cup has been mooted as a possible long-term objective. "I met Terry Henderson [of OTI Racing] in Australia when our horses ran in the 2008 Melbourne Cup, and I am really looking forward to our new association," Mack told the trade daily. "Manighar is settling in nicely at [Cumani's] Bedford House, but we will be in no hurry with him, and he probably won't be seen out until midsummer."

SKYSURFERS (GB) (c, 4, E Dubai--Fortune {Ire}, by Night Shift) broke his maiden by 10 resounding lengths in his career opener on the all-weather at Southwell Oct. 18, and had not been out since. Up with the pace from the start in his second appearance, he took control at the quarter-mile marker and opened up down the lane to take it by 3 1/4 lengths over Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). Trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "He is a horse I have always liked, and we will have to think about stepping him up in class." The runner-up, a champion in Ireland in 2007, captured the G1 Hong Kong Cup and was runner-up in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf in 2008, was also second in the G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Champion S. in '07. He raced just twice in 2009, most recently running fifth in his title defense in the Hong Kong Cup Dec. 13. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $75,348. MATE. CHECK.

$25 $50 $75 $100

When you fill out your foal registration application, designate $25, $50, $75, $100 or an amount of your choice to The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred retirement checkoff program.

Your payment will go directly to two leading organizations that help retire, retrain and adopt Thoroughbred racehorses.

The Jockey Club, through profits earned from its subsidiaries, will provide $200,000 in funding to these charities to supplement the monies raised through the checkoff program in 2010.
