THE WEIGHT IS OVER

Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), thought to be retired following her epic triumph in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 7, will instead look to stretch her perfect streak to 15 in today's GI Santa Margarita H., the only top-level contest for California distaffers currently missing from her trophy case. A prohibitive 1-9 on the morning line, the big mare will be giving away a minimum of 12 pounds to her rivals. "It is a lot of weight to spot, but what are you going to do?" rider Mike Smith commented. "We got what we got." Smith added, "I think she's really ready for a big performance. She's certainly training a little more forwardly than she was last year, let's put it that way. Given a fair opportunity, I think she's going to run really, really big." Trainer John Shirreffs is looking forward to seeing his star on the big stage once more. "She's a little heavier now, maybe 20 to 25 pounds heavier, than she was for the Breeders' Cup here," he said. "You'd expect that, 'cause she hasn't run since then. We're very excited to see her run again." Trainer Ben Cecil, whose Gripsholm Castle (Dynaformer) has a 112-pound impost, opined, "The weights are pretty fair. The spread has given us all an outside chance. Zenyatta's not getting away with it easy, but having said that, she's pretty good. She's 1-9 on the morning line, and she deserves to be." Cont. p2

SIT BACK AND WATCH THE ECLIPSE

In the space of 45 minutes this evening, three Eclipse Award winners will kick off their 2010 campaigns.

Reigning Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) will get the party started at 6:15 p.m. (EST) in the $200,000 New Orleans Ladies S. at Fair Grounds. Soon after that, two-time champion Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) will put her unbeaten record on the line as the 127-pound highweight in the GI Santa Margarita H. at Santa Anita (6:36 p.m. EST), and Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) will test his Triple Crown credentials on dirt for the first time in Oaklawn's GI Rebel S. (6:47 p.m. EST). Rachel's every move has been well-documented since her arrival in the Big Easy, and the dark bay will face four rivals in her first appearance following her historic 2009 season. Rachel and Zenyatta are currently on course to clash at Oaklawn in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 9; the race will be worth $5 million if both stars appear. "We need this to be a steppingstone and a prep," trainer Steve Asmussen told Daily Racing Form. "We want a good, physical exertion."

Striking Dancer (Smart Strike) showed flashes of brilliance early in her career, and finally put it all together in her latest, rallying four wide to post a 13-1 upset in the GII La Canada S. over this track and trip on Valentine's Day (video). Her late dash carried her past Euro import Gripsholm Castle, with Floating Heart (Giant's Causeway) coming along in her wake to complete the trifecta. "She's training just as good as she did in the last race," Jordan Blair, assistant to trainer Ken McPeek, told Daily Racing Form. "As long as we get the jump on Zenyatta, she'll have to run us down. I think we have a good chance to be up there, but we're running against the best horse in the world."

Cool Coal Man, four-for-five at this track, faded to fifth in this event last year. He rebounded to run second in the Apr. 4 GIII Excelsior H. and May 1 GIII Alysheba S. before a romp in the May 30 Lord of the Night S. at Belmont. The bay was well beaten in three subsequent graded tries, including a fifth in the Oct. 16 GII Meadowlands Cup, but he opened 2010 with a victory in an optional test at Gulfstream going seven panels Jan. 22. He makes his second start of the season. This Ones For Phil, three-for-four at this oval, exits a nose win in the Jan. 30 Sunshine Millions Sprint. GISW Harlem Rocker was fourth to Quality Road (Elusive Quality), Congressional Page and Motovato in his second start off a year's layoff, the Feb. 13 GIII Hal's Hope H.

Promising son of Pulpit

Case in point: Tapit won the Grade 1 Wood Memorial. Sightseeing also had success in the Wood Memorial, as he finished a fast-closing second, beaten only a half length. Sightseeing went on to win the Peter Pan (G2). Tapit stands for $50,000, while Sightseeing's stud fee is $7,500.

Shug McGaughey, Hall of Fame Trainer, on Sightseeing. "The Pulpits are doing very, very well at stud, and they are something to be looked at for breeding. Sightseeing is an extremely nice looking horse. I can see him being a very good stallion."

Champion Lookin At Lucky attempts straight-up dirt in his sophomore debut, having collected Grade I wins on all three synthetic surfaces available in Southern California. He sustained his sole career defeat when second by a head in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 7, but confirmed his Eclipse Award credentials with a typically professional score over Noble's Promise in the GI CashCall Futurity at Hollywood Dec. 19. Trainer Bob Baffert will add blinkers to the colt's equipment for his first out-of-town trip. "This is going to be an experimental race," Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "I'm only allowed one experimental race, and it's got to be right now. We'll see how he handles the dirt and the ship. There's a lot of things involved. We'll find out a lot about him." Noble's Promise, hero of the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity on Keeneland's Polytrack Oct. 10, will also be making his first appearance on dirt here. The third Grade I winner in the field is Dublin, who finished off the board in two starts following his victory in the GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at Saratoga. Having undergone throat surgery during his freshening, the chestnut put in a strong run to finish second by 3/4 of a length in the one-mile GIII Southwest S. Feb. 20 over this strip. "That was an unbelievable run from the half-mile pole to the wire, especially on a short stretch, where you've got a 230- or 240-yard stretch," trainer D. Wayne

Lukas explained to DRF. "I do think he'll move forward. He's actually a little ahead of where I think he would be normally. I'm probably more comfortable with him in early March than I've been with any of my Derby horses, just because of the combination of his mental state, the way he's training, his natural ability."

Unbeaten Caracortado looks to make it six-for-six. The Cal-bred capped off his juvenile campaign with a rallying score in the Dec. 26 California Breeders' Championship S. over this track and trip, and handled open company at the same distance in the Feb. 13 GII Robert B. Lewis S. He has worked sharply since, zipping five-eighths in :58 3/5 Mar. 5, and connections believe he will go well beyond the 1 1/16-mile route. "It doesn't seem like distance will be a problem for him," said 40-year-old jockey Paul Atkinson, who has ridden him in every start. "In the Lewis, he just waited, and sitting on him, it was kind of like, 'Can we go now? How about now? Are we ready yet?' When I let him go, he just turns it on and gives you everything he's got." Added trainer Mike Machowsky, "He's fast, but he also can run all day." Machowsky revealed that the gelding is called M.C. around the barn--which stands for "Mentally Challenged." "He was a pain in the ass when I first got him, but now he's a pro," the conditioner remarked.

🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Sidney's Candy makes his two-turn bow. The chestnut colt was sidelined after his star-making maiden win at Del Mar Aug. 22 and ran a lackluster fourth in his return, a Santa Anita allowance Dec. 30, but redeemed himself with a decisive gate-to-wire victory in the Feb. 15 GII San Vicente S. at seven furlongs. American Lion adds blinkers after running third in the Lewis.

WinStar Farm's colors were carried to victory by Rule (Roman Ruler) in the GIII Sam F. Davis S. over this surface Feb. 13, and stablemate Super Saver will try to make a victorious seasonal opener here. The homebred followed a seven-length maiden score at Belmont Sept. 11 with a solid fourth in the GI Champagne S. at that track Oct. 10, and closed out his juvenile campaign with a five-length triumph in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill Nov. 28. Odysseus stamped himself as a TDN Rising Star with a 15-length allowance rout over track and trip Feb. 17, and gets a class test here. "He didn't run against the toughest group in his last race," trainer Tom Albertrani told Daily Racing Form. "Now, it's time to step up to the next level. I'd love to see him relax a little more prior to the race and, hopefully, there'll be enough speed in there to set up the same scenario for him as in his last race."

Diva Delite has captured her last four starts, including the Jan. 16 Gasparilla S. and Feb. 13 Suncoast S. over this tricky track. She gets two pounds from champion and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine She Be Wild, who was upended in her first 2010 appearance. The Mazzoni homebred ran fifth in the GII Forward Gal S. Jan. 31, which was her first try over a non-synthetic surface. Trainer Wayne Catalano is pointing his charge for the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 3. "I really wanted to get another race into her before the Ashland, and the two options at Gulfstream were either to go seven furlongs, which was too short, or a mile and one-eighth, which is too far," Catalano told Daily Racing Form. "This race looks like a pretty good spot for her, and I'm sure she'll handle the track just fine. It's a big day up there, so they should have the track nice and firm and not deep and loose. We should be good."

Dec. 20, but backed out of it and wound up last of seven as the favorite. "I don't know if we have a clear excuse on that race," trainer Ken McPeek said to Daily Racing Form. "I'll take the bullet on that one. We really thought we could win the Starlet. She just had a bad day, whether it was the blinkers, whether it was one race over the top, or she was sick. We're not exactly sure what that was about. She's a whole lot better than that."

The bay lost all chance when getting off to a rough start in the Jan. 9 GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream Park and beat just one home, but rates another chance with a clean break here. Bickersons comes back on short rest as the heavy favorite. The George and Lori Hall runner cruised to a seven-length victory in her sophomore debut in the Jan. 31 GII Forward Gal S. going seven furlongs at Gulfstream, but faltered to fourth in the Feb. 27 GII Davona Dale S. at a mile. Her connections are confident she will appreciate the drop back to six furlongs. Fuzzy Britches steps up off a half-length tally in the Dearly Precious S. over track and trip.

4 Unforgotten	Northern Afleet	Mena	Stewart	15-1
5 Clear Sailing	Empire Maker	Sellers	G D'houssye	6-1

Rachel Alexandra is a deserving 1-5 on the morning line in her first start since her gut-wrenching score in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 5, but this is no walkover, at least, on paper. GII Bayakoa H. heroine Zardana--Zenyatta's stablemate--has shipped in from California, and typically shows speed in her races. The bay is coming off a fourth-place finish in the GII Santa Maria H. at Santa Anita Feb. 13. Clear Sailing has been perfect since returning from an 18-month hiatus. After wiring first-level allowance foes by 8 3/4 lengths at Fair Grounds Jan. 17, the bay came from off the pace to nail Fighter Wing at the wire in the Pelleteri S. over track and trip Feb. 13, and appears to be on an upward progression. She was acquired by Coteau Grove for $255,000 as part of the Overbrook dispersal at Keeneland November.

NEWS TODAY

OBS TO START LATER TUESDAY The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company announced that Tuesday's opening session of the March Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training will begin at 2 p.m. instead of 11 a.m. as previously scheduled. The under-tack shows were delayed due to heavy rains and high winds, and will take place today and tomorrow, beginning at 8 a.m. Hips 1-170 will breeze this morning, with the remainder to strut their stuff Sunday. The sale's second session on Wednesday will kick off at 11 a.m. For more information, go to www.obssales.com.

BIG BROWN TO DELIVER DOWN UNDER? Vinery Australia announced yesterday that it is in the process of acquiring a significant interest in champion Big Brown

(Boundary), pending shareholder approval, and they plan to stand him later this year during the Southern Hemisphere breeding season. The five-year-old entered stud at Three Chimneys last year. "It is a great thrill to be standing a horse of the caliber of Big Brown," said Vinery's Peter Orton. "He was the most superior racehorse of his generation, showing a devastating turn of foot to dominate the best horses in the land. Even more appealing to us is his pedigree, bred to run on turf, yet brilliant enough to beat the best on their terms on dirt." Orton added, "After inspecting the stallion last week, I'm delighted to say he exceeded my expectations on conformation and his suitability to the Australasian style of racehorse. He stands just on 16.1 hands, possesses a particularly kind temperament and handles himself in the covering barn like a real professional. The most pleasing aspect for the future of this stallion is the quality of his first foals that are now arriving in Kentucky. They are all strong, compact types with good strong shoulders and powerful hindquarters, typical of the Danzig-line progeny we see here that are so successful in our conditions."

Lopez inside the final furlong. A debut third at Philly Jan. 9, the dark bay was a distant fourth Jan. 23, but atoned with a half-length maiden success Feb. 15. Trying much tougher in his first go against winners, Confidence Crisis stalked three wide and took command late for a 3/4-length victory from Lion Attack (Lion Heart). Magic Tiger was committed to an inside run in the stretch, but was bothered by Bernie's Bullet, who was subsequently demoted to fifth for causing interference. KY Horse Park to Unveil Alysheba Statue:

The Kentucky Horse Park is scheduled to unveil a memorial statute at the grave of the 1988 Horse of the Year Alysheba (Alydar), who was euthanized last March after residing at the park for five months. The ceremony will take place Apr. 16 at 10:15 a.m. "During the brief time he lived at the Kentucky Horse Park, Alysheba stole the hearts of our park employees, especially those who worked with him each day and frequently commented on his loving disposition," said Kentucky Horse Park Executive Director John Nicholson. "Now we are inviting his fans and those who revere champions to join us in the unveiling of this stunning statue to memorialize Alysheba for future generations." After retiring as the world's richest Thoroughbred, Alysheba stood his first years at stud at Lane's End Farm, and subsequently spent eight years at the royal stables of His Majesty King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia. He was sent back to the United States as a gift to the Kentucky Horse Park in October 2008, but had to be put down after an accidental fall less than half a year later. The bronze statute was commissioned by Clarence Sharbauer III of Midland, Texas, whose family owned Alysheba while he was racing. Sculpted by Shelley Hunter, the statue will serve as a complementary piece to the John Henry memorial statute adjacent to it, which Hunter also created.

The chestnut set the pace in a Feb. 19 event on the Stall-Wilson turf course and just failed by a head. Favored at 2-1 in this off-the-turfer, the homebred coasted along on a soft pace up front and stayed on gamely for a half-length success. Sheryl's Melody (More Than Ready) completed the exacta. Slew's Tiznow was bet in half from his morning line of 12-1 and got just the better of favored Aggie Engineer after a stretch-long battle. The homebred, runner-up in the GI Breeders' Futurity S. at two, was a dual stakes winner at three, but faced the starter but three times last season. Fourth as the favorite in the GII San Fernando S. in January, he beat just one home in the GII Strub S. the following month, then went missing off a 10th in the GII New Orleans H. in March. Set a nearly impossible task in his return, he never factored when last of 11 to Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) in the Feb. 7 GII San Antonio H. Sent along by Garrett Gomez to track Aggie Engineer through a sluggish pace, Slew's Tiznow responded when set down in upper stretch and outfinished the chalk for the victory. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

MARCHAND D'OR SWITCHED Marchand d'Or (Fr) (Marchand de Sable) has returned to training with Mikel Delzangles, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Formerly with Freddy Head, the multiple Group 1-winning seven-year-old had spent a spell at his owner-breeder Carla Giral's stud following some below-par efforts in 2009. Delzangles told the Post, "Marchand d'Or arrived with me a week ago, and we must now see how he comes along in his training. We have no definite plans for the moment, and must hope he returns to his very best form."

FIGURES DOWN AT KEMPTON BREEZE-UP

Europe's breeze-up season got underway at Kempton Park yesterday, with Goffs suffering slight drops in average. Despite a respectable clearance rate, the £15,991 average was down 15 percent and the £12,500 median fell by 17 percent. With 24 more horses on offer this year, receipts rose £200,400 to £863,500. The Scandinavian influence was evident as Lennart Reuterskiold's Zawawi Racing paid £55,000 for Oak Tree Farm's hip 37, a son of Street Cry (Ire) out of the multiple black-type-winning Inspired Kiss (Inspired Prospect). "He's American bred, and that's mainly why we bought him, because the Derby at Malmo is run on dirt," Reuterskiold told the Racing Post. "He looked as if he handled this surface, so hopefully he will go on the dirt as well. He's not the biggest of horses, but we have quite narrow tracks so he should be suited to our racing. He is for Dr. Omar Zawawi, who has had horses with me since I started training 10 years ago. He's from Oman, but the head man who works for him is Swedish, which is how he has ended up having horses in Sweden." That price bettered the £50,000 paid by Bobby O'Ryan for hip 25, a daughter of Exceed and Excel (Aus) from the draft of Willie Browne's Mocklershill. Stephen Hillen secured hip 49, a filly by Kheleyf whose half-brother Art Advisor (Ire) (Noverre) was runner-up in the 2007 G2 Norfolk S. From Tally-Ho Stud, the relative of the sire Second Set (Ire) was knocked down to the agent for £36,000. Henry Beeby, Goffs Chief Executive, told the Post, "Any sale that shows an improvement is always a pleasure, but even more so in the current climate. An increase of 30 percent in turnover is of course a reflection of a slightly bigger catalogue, but there was a great buzz from start to finish, which allowed us to improve the clearance rate to a highly respectable 67 percent. That said, we have some way to go to return this sale to 2007 heights and will be working hard with the Kempton Park executive and our vendors to produce an even better sale next year."
