FULL FIELD FOR THE BIG ONE

The post-position draw for Saturday's $10-million G1 Dubai World Cup was held last evening at The

Gio Ponti Sarah K Andrew

Meydan Hotel, and as expected, a crowded 14-horse field will vie for the richest race in Thoroughbred history. Included is a quartet of North American Grade I winners, led by champion Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat), who leaves from the four hole. "That's great, we wanted to be in the first half," said Christophe Lorieul, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement. "There doesn't seem to be much kick back, and the rail is the closest way around." Fellow American invader Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) also rates a big chance and has drawn post 10. "I spoke to Bob [Baffert] on the phone, and he was just glad I didn't choose number 14--the titanic," quipped assistant trainer Jim Barnes. Cont. p2

DETTORI PICKS CAVALRYMAN IN SHEEMA

It's good to be the king. Frankie Dettori, first-call rider for Godolphin, had the pick of four top-class runners for the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic over the metric mile and a half, and landed on 2009 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe third-place getter Cavalryman (GB) (Halling). In the end, he selected the four-year-old over a group including defending race champion Eastern Anthem (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), Campanologist (Kingmambo) and Anmar (Rahy). "Campanologist is one of my favorites--he is a great character and always a challenge to ride, but I love him," Dettori explained. "However, he is a Group 2 horse, so I had to go with Cavalryman, who did not take to the all-weather surface last time. He would have needed that race, and he has improved a lot judged on his homework, and, like Campanologist, he is very tough, and on his third to Sea the Stars in the Arc he must have a chance in what is another open race." Cavalryman was a top sophomore in France last summer, with wins in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G2 Prix Niel prior to his Arc effort. In his lone appearance this season, he was no better than seventh in Round 3 of the G2 Maktoum Challenge in what was to be a prep for the World Cup. Sheema Field, p3

GI Breeders' Cup Mile upsetter Furthest Land (Smart Strike) drew two inside of Richard's Kid, in post eight. Jim Cornes, representing owners Ken and Sarah Ramsey, said, "The horse has settled down well since he arrived from America, and it will be great to think that it could give Ken and Sarah a second World Cup after Roses in May in 2005."

Team Valor International's Gitano Hernando (GB) (Hernando) himself sprang a big upset when taking down last fall's GI Goodwood Breeders' Cup S. at Santa Anita at 18-1 odds. Connections opted to skip the Breeders' Cup, and he returned with a facile win in the Winter Derby Trial S. at Lingfield in February. Team Valor's Barry Irwin said of the four-year-old's post position two, "[Jockey] Keiren Fallon will be relieved that we have stall two, and this horse is getting better as he gets older." Trainer Marco Botti was also happy with the assignment, adding, "From there Keiren should be able to have him mid-field or slightly better, and there is pace in the race which will suit him."

European hopeful Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest), runner-up in his two local preps in the G3 Al Rashidiya Feb. 4 and G3 Maktoum Challenge Round 2 Feb. 18, goes from post nine. "It is an ok draw, because they will go a fast pace and I'm happy with that," said trainer Brian Meehan. "He needed his two prep races, which have blown the cobwebs away."

To the chagrin of racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe, Juddmonte didn't get the luck of the draw with any of its starters. Spanish Moon (El Prado (Ire) has post 13 in the G1 Sheema Classic, Confront (GB) (Nayef) post 12 in the G1 Duty Free, and in the World Cup, GI Breeders' Cup third Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) drew 11. "It's disappointing, as they all need to be handy," said Grimthorpe, who added of Twice Over, "He ran a blinder at the Breeders' Cup. The idea of taking him to California was to find out if he acted on a synthetic surface, as this race has always been in the back of our minds."

Presvis Has Some Hurdles to Overcome in Duty Free...

He'll have a high draw (15 of 16) and a new rider in Saturday's G1 Dubai Duty Free S., but it is still reasonable to expect Presvis (GB) (Sakhee) to take all the beating in the nine-furlong event. Unheralded when runner-up to Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}) in last year's event at Nad al Sheba, the bay gelding took the G1 Queen

Presvis

Elizabeth II Cup and was desperately unlucky in just missing to World Cup hopeful Gloria de Campeao (Brz) (Impression {Arg}) in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup in May. He too arrived in Dubai this winter with an eye on the big prize, but a distant runner-up effort behind Allybar (Ire) (King's Best) in a handicap Feb. 5 dashed those ideas. He proved the turf is where he belongs when swamping Alexandros (GB) (Kingmambo) in the G2 Jebel Hatta on Super Thursday. With Ryan Moore committed to Juddmonte Farms' Confront (GB) (Nayef) Saturday night, trainer Luca Cumani reaches out for Christophe Patrice Lemaire, and the conditioner, and horse, are ready for action. "The horse is relaxed and happy," Cumani stated. "People seem to have got into their heads that he is a frustrating horse and they keep repeating it, but it could not be further from the truth. He cost peanuts and has won over two million pounds. Regarding the jockey we are very pleased to have got Christophe Lemaire who is a world-class rider. Obviously it would have been preferable if Ryan [Moore] was still riding him as he gets on so well with the horse, but he's committed to Confront for Sir Michael [Stoute]. That's life."

Japan's Shaheen Hopeful Blows Out...

Japanese sprinter Laurel Guerreiro (Jpn) (King Halo {Jpn}) worked 1200 meters over the Tapeta, clocking :23.78 for the final quarter mile beneath trainer Mitsugu Kon. "He lost a bit of weight after the travel from Japan, but it is his second time abroad, and he has recovered quickly since he arrived," Kon commented. "We will put blinkers on him for the first time in the race, so I wanted to see him with blinkers on this morning, and it really helped his concentration. He also schooled in the starting gate, but he was settled and not at all tense. As for the track, it will be his first start on an all-weather surface, but he has already experienced a dirt track last time out [seventh in the one-mile G1 February S. Feb. 21], so I'm not concerned about this." As far as his post position for the Shaheen, Kon added, "I am very happy with the draw [post four], which makes me hopeful that he can set the pace, which is his winning style." Laurel Guerreiro's marquee win came in the 2009 G1 Sprinters' S. at Nakayama.

Mendip Aims to Give Godolphin Seven in Derby...

Godolphin has owned the G2 UAE Derby since its inception, winning the main-track event--run this year for the first time over 1900 meters, or roughly 1 3/16th miles--a record six times.

Mendip Watkins/emiratesracing

Sheikh Mohammed's flagship has four chances to add a seventh renewal Saturday, with the Kentucky-bred Mendip (Harlan's Holiday) the main hope. "Mendip is still immature mentally and relatively inexperienced, though he is potentially very nice," said Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager. "The door is still open for the G1 Kentucky Derby should he come through this test. But he is still learning, and we will get Saturday out of the way before even contemplating Churchill Downs." Jockey Frankie Dettori, who had his choice of the Godolphin runners before choosing Mendip, added, "He has done nothing wrong and could be anything, but he is a bit hot with a wild eye, and we'll have to see how he takes this jump in class." A $375,000 FTFFEB juvenile purchase by John Ferguson, Mendip is a perfect three-for-three. He won at first asking going a mile at Kempton last fall, returned to take a Meydan allowance Feb. 11 and, in his most recent, aired by 6 1/4 lengths in the Al Bastakiya S. Mar. 4.

All Not Smooth for All Silent...

Australian raider All Silent (Aus) (Belong to Me) galloped on Meydan's all-weather yesterday, rather than an intended spin over the lawn, after a misunderstanding. The veteran is preparing for the 1200-meter Al Quoz Sprint on the grass. Trainer Grahame Begg, who had set up shop near the finish line, could hardly believe his eyes when the horse appeared around the home turn on the Tapeta, rather than on the grass course. "That was the whole point of the exercise, to let him get the feel of the course proper under galloping conditions," Begg said. As it turned out, an official had directed experienced track rider Sean Murphy onto the main track rather than the turf, having misinterpreted an instruction from another official. "There is nothing we can do about it now," said Begg. "I might try and let him have a canter on the course proper on Friday" Despite the mix-up, Ryan said he was happy with the way All Silent, a notoriously poor track galloper, had worked.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Another great morning and more and more people arriving. Garrett Gomez arrived late last night around 9:30 p.m. with three sets of golf clubs and a body-guard, 'BIG D.' "It's not all about horse racing," he says.

At about 10:45 p.m., Gomez still had no room, but thanks to Victor Espinoza, who offered him the couch in his suite for $500. Jim Cassidy arranged for Big D to spend the night with The Usual Q.T. night watching.

Lots of horses back on track today after their works. Richard's Kid still looking awesome. Take the Points galloped 1 1/2 miles, looked strong. Gio Ponti is coming around and looked better and stronger today.

Courageous Cat galloped nice and easy, looked good. Presious Passion, well he rolls around there, but that's his style and he looked good. Kinsale King is on his toes, as is California Flag.

The Usual Q.T. worked an easy half-mile, stretching his legs with Espinoza in the irons, and Mr. Cassidy seemed happy. After that Jim and I took each other on in a game of pool and he beat me, but he cheated. The cameras showed him moving the ball as I turned my back on the table to speak to someone. Rematch tomorrow!

No sightings of Mr. Julio Canani or Mr. Panza this morning. I did see Mr. Jack Wolf from Starlight Racing Stables, owner of Take the Points. He admitted he loved reading the TDN, and my blog.

"So how do I read my TDN? With a cold pint of Guinness."

Tonight we're off to the draw for the big races. Update more tomorrow...

BILL TO REOPEN AQUEDUCT VLT BIDDING INTRODUCED

New York State Senator Marty Golden, a Republican representing Brooklyn, yesterday introduced a bill that would reopen the bidding for a VLT operator for Aqueduct, and also significantly change the selection process. The legislation outlines a schedule that would take approximately 65 days to complete. In response to the controversy that surrounded the decision to appoint Aqueduct Entertainment Group as the VLT operator, a deal that ultimately fell through, Sen. Golden's bill would be designed to make the procedure more transparent. "The selection of AEG to run the VLTs at Aqueduct was made behind closed doors after a secretive, politically influenced process with no public input or review of the submitted proposals," said Sen. Golden in a press release. "This is the latest in a series of missteps that have delayed the installation of VLTs at Aqueduct and cost New York State hundreds of millions of dollars in lost revenue. My legislation will put an efficient, transparent process in place so we can ensure the best vendor is chosen as soon as possible." Under the new legislation, the State Comptroller would recommend a major accounting firm to review the bids. In addition, there would be a third-party reviewer, chosen by the Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly and the Temporary President of the Senate, to oversee the accounting firm and submit a final recommendation. This would be followed by a public hearing on the matter, and the announcement of the selection would be made within 15 days of the public hearing. "New York is in a fiscal crisis, and each day we delay the implementation of VLTs at Aqueduct, we are losing millions of dollars in potential revenue," Sen. Golden continued. "This process has taken far too long--it's clear we need an expedited, fair and open process to get the best vendor in place as soon as possible. Resolving this issue will bring in revenues to help us close the massive budget deficit, and create hundreds of much-needed jobs for New York City residents."

Sen. Marty Golden

Oaklawn Offers Incentives to Boost Field Size:

In an effort to maximize field size during the final days of its season, officials at Oaklawn said it will once again offer an incentive for participating in all overnight races beginning Friday, Mar. 26, and lasting through the end of the season, Saturday, Apr. 10. The incentive will offer a $1,000 per starter purse increase for every wagering interest greater than eight. As an example, a $15,500 purse would increase to $16,500 if there are nine wagering interests and continue to increase to as much as $19,500 for 12 wagering interests.

★ KEENELAND ★

Keeneland Announces Changes For Calipari Signing:

As support for the NCAA tournament run of the University of Kentucky Wildcats reaches a fevered pitch, interest has continued to grow in the Apr. 9 John Calipari bottle signing at Keeneland. As a result, Keeneland officials have announced a new ticket-distribution process to maximize the limited amount of time Calipari has for the Apr. 9 signing, while also mitigating traffic, safety and security issues. Now, rather than a live lottery drawing prior to the bottle signing at the Keene Barn and Entertainment Center as previously announced, Keeneland is working with Ticketmaster to conduct an online distribution on Apr. 3 beginning at 10 a.m. of 1,200 tickets--allowing one ticket per customer. The face value of the ticket is free; however, there will be a $1 handling fee through Ticketmaster. Keeneland will, in turn, make a $1,200 contribution to Galilean Children's Home in Liberty, KY--the charity of choice for this year's Maker's Mark ambassadors. Fans should go to www.ticketmaster.com on Apr. 3. The signing is limited to one bottle per person. Go to www.keeneland.com for more information.

MORE WOE FOR BADEN-BADEN

Baden-Baden's recent troubles continued yesterday with the news that the spring meeting has been cancelled. Just weeks after the future of the race track was secured in a last-minute deal, logistical problems have proved insurmountable ahead of the traditional racing festival. Andreas Jacobs, spokesman and major shareholder in the track's new investors' group, revealed that the leasing of the racecourse could not be fulfilled until the end of May. "While the majority of aspects regarding the track have been cleared up, there are still some minor aspects which need to be acknowledged by the township of Iffezheim," Jacobs said. "We still would like to finalise the lease plan as quickly as possible to be able to ensure a high-quality and successful summer meeting in September." BBAG Sales company have announced that their Breeze-Up Sale will be held on Friday, June 4, as planned, and President Karl-Dieter Ellebracke remarked, "The Breeze-Up sale has become a fixture in the racing year, and breeders are relying on this sale."
