ESKENDEREYA ODDS-ON IN WOOD

In the wake of his dominant win in the Feb. 20 GII Fountain of Youth S., Zayat Stables' Eskendereya (Giant's Causeway) has been installed the 4-5 favorite in Saturday's GI Wood Memorial at Aqueduct. The strapping chestnut will break from post three in the six-horse field. Eskendereya, who wintered in Florida, arrived at trainer Todd Pletcher's Belmont barn Wednesday afternoon.

Eskendereya A Coglianese who shipped in from England to capture the Mar. 6 GIII Gotham S., will break from post two and was installed the 9-2 second choice as he looks to continue on the Kentucky Derby trail for trainer Jeremy Noseda. Derek Ryan will saddle Schoolyard Dreams (Stephen Got Even), who ended up on the wrong side of a dramatic finish behind Odysseus (Malibu Moon) in the Mar. 13 GIII Tampa Bay Derby. "I still can't believe he lost that race," Ryan said. "But he's a horse that is going in the right direction. He was never going to be the kind of horse who won a two-year-old stakes at Saratoga; but right now, he's training very well and I'm pleased with where he is." Schoolyard Dreams has the four hole Saturday and is 5-1 on the morning line.

SANTA ANITA DERBY DRAWS 10

A field of 10 sophomores, led by 2009 Eclipse Champion juvenile Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike), was entered yesterday for Saturday's GI Santa Anita Derby. The lone blemish on Lookin at Lucky's record is a hard-luck runner-up effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. He broke from post 13 that day, but fared significantly better in yesterday's draw. The 4-5 morning-line choice drew post seven. "I just want to get a nice race out of this," trainer Bob Baffert, looking for his sixth Santa Anita Derby, said yesterday. "It's a good field and a lot will depend on the pace. I never have to worry about losing the race. It's about luck. If I keep the horse healthy, fit and happy, he carries me the rest of the way." Lookin at Lucky overcame trouble to take his sophomore bow in the Mar. 13 GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn. Sidney's Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}), who drew post four, is the 3-1 second choice on the morning line. The Craig family homebred is coming off front-running victories in the seven-furlong GII San Vicente S. Feb. 15 and the 1 1/16-mile GII San Felipe S. Mar. 13. He will attempt to stretch his speed an extra half-furlong for trainer John Sadler Saturday. Caracortado (Cat Dreams) suffered the first loss of his career when closing for third in the San Felipe and will try to start a new streak from post six. He is 5-1 on the morning line. Full field p2

RACING Round-Up

Oaks Rematch at York?...

Last season's G1 Epsom Oaks first and second, Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), may cross swords once more after both were revealed among the entries for the recently up-graded G2 Middleton S. at York May 13. Lady Bamford's homebred Sariska followed up her Epsom Classic triumph with an imperious victory in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh in July and also hit the board in August's G1 Yorkshire Oaks and October's G1 Champion S. at Newmarket. Juddmonte Farms' Midday was unsuited by the deep mud when third to her old foe in the G1 Irish Oaks, but blossomed on better ground when garnering the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood in August and the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Santa Anita in November. "Sariska has been given an entry for the Middleton," trainer Michael Bell told Racing Post. "Her main mid-season target is the G1 Coronation Cup [at Epsom]. It would be nice to get a race into her before that, and so the Middleton is really the only option open to us. There is also the [G1] Tattersalls Gold Cup in Ireland 10 days later, but that doesn't give us as much recovery time and you can't dance every dance. It won't be the opposition that dictates whether she runs or not, it will be the state of the going [at York] and her well-being at the time. A lot depends on how she is galloping and the going. She really ought to be a serious horse over middle distances when conditions are in her favour. She is still comparatively lightly raced, having only run seven times in her life so far, and she is in great form at the moment. She is not yet in fast work and we will start stepping her up around the time of the Craven meeting." Lord Grimthorpe, racing manager to Midday's owner Khalid Abdullah, added, "Midday has wintered well and, if anything, she has filled out a little bit more. [Trainer] Henry [Cecil] is very pleased with her as she looks to have done very well. The Middleton is likely to be her starting point and there is a range of 10- and 12-furlong races for us to consider thereafter."

Rip Van Winkle Possible for Return in Lockinge...

Last term's G1 Sussex S. and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. hero Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is listed among 37 possibles for the May 15 G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury it was revealed yesterday. The Aidan O'Brien trainee, who was beset by foot problems during an interrupted sophomore campaign, was last seen finishing a lackluster 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Nov. 7. Other notable entries include The Calvera Partnership's G1 Queen Anne S. victor Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and last year's G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Lord Shanakill (Speightstown).

FRANK BROTHERS JOINS KEENELAND Former trainer Frank Brothers has joined the Keeneland sales staff as a member of the yearling inspection team. Brothers will replace Dr. A. Gary Lavin, who retires this year after 16 years with Keeneland. "We are delighted to have Frankie on our inspection team," said Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "He is widely recognized and respected for his keen horsemanship, and his exceptional ability to evaluate young stock is evidenced by the highly successful horses that he has purchased over the years." Brothers, who retired from training in 2009, trained champion Hansel, MGSW & GISP Pulpit and Grade I winners First Samurai, Madcap Escapade, Arch and Oath. "It's an honor to be part of the Keeneland inspection team," said Brothers. "Keeneland has been a very special place to me since I began racing here in the early seventies. Having recently retired from a wonderful training career, being part of the Keeneland team will keep me around young horses, which I love, at the greatest place in the world for sales and racing."

Pimlico Partners with Susan G Komen for the Cure:

Pimlico Race Course will team with Susan G. Komen for the Cure to raise funds and aid awareness and research of breast cancer on Black-Eyed Susan Day, May 14. Pimlico has pledged to raise a minimum of $100,000 for Komen for the Cure. In addition to the 86th running of the Black-Eyed Susan, the day will feature an historic pari-mutuel race between legendary retired female riders. "We are excited to partner with Susan G. Komen for the Cure to fight breast cancer," said Maryland Jockey Club president Tom Chuckas. "Our team at Pimlico has worked hard with the team at Komen to make The People's Pink Party something all of us can proudly take part in and have a lot of fun with while supporting a remarkable charity that is truly making a difference in the lives of those impacted by breast cancer. I would like to thank in advance the many people who have made this day happen, as well as the many supporters of both Pimlico and Komen who will make this day and these efforts a wonderful success."

Delbert Clements Dies:

Longtime jockey agent Delbert Clements passed away yesterday. He was 99. During 50 years as a jockey's agent, Clements worked with such riders as Don MacBeth, Billy Phelps, Earlie Fires, Doug Dodson and John Adams. Visitation will be held at Fred Hunter's Funeral Home in Davie, Florida, from 4-8 p.m. on Apr. 5. A funeral mass will be held at St. David's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Apr. 6. In lieu of flowers, the family asks contributions be made in Clements' name to either the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockeys Fund, PO Box 18470, Encino, CA 91416 or the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund, PO Box 803, Elmhurst, IL 60126.

Dravo Foley, Father of Vickie and Greg Foley, Dies:

Trainer Dravo Foley, a veteran of more than five decades in Kentucky's horse industry and the father of successful trainers Greg and Vickie Foley, died Monday, Mar. 29 at Kindred Hospital in Louisville, Ky., following a long illness. He was 75, and would have turned 76 on Apr. 11. Foley enjoyed his greatest training success at River Downs in Ohio, where he won multiple training titles, and at Michigan tracks that included Detroit Race Course and Hazel Park. Top horses trained by Foley included Tiger Lure, a multiple stakes winner. Foley was also the breeder of Taylor's Special, who won the 1984 Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. Along with Vickie and Greg, who followed their father into the training business, Foley is also survived by daughters Sharon Foley and Lisa Wirth. "He didn't necessarily encourage us to go into the horse business, but he didn't discourage us," Greg Foley said of his father. "We were hot walking as soon as we could walk. The horses always came first with him. We worked hard for him, but we liked it." Stoess Funeral Home in Crestwood, Ky. is in charge of funeral arrangements. Visitation is scheduled Wednesday, Mar. 31, from 2-8 p.m. (EDT), with services at the funeral home on Thursday, Apr. 1 at 11 a.m. The family has requested that expressions of sympathy be made in the form of donations in Dravo Foley's memory to the Kentucky office of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association. ## NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

NTRA LEGISLATIVE ANNUAL REPORT NOW AVAILABLE

The 2009 NTRA Legislative Action Campaign Annual Report is available for download at the revamped Web site www.SupportHorseRacing.org.

This first electronic-only version of the annual report includes a review of key federal legislative issues facing the horse racing industry, a decade of legislative history, a list of 2009 contributors to the Legislative Action Campaign, an overview of the programs to fund the NTRA's lobbying effort in Washington, D.C. and more.

In addition to an annual report, the NTRA's Legislative team regularly releases electronic newsletters, legislative updates and other information to increase awareness of news from Capitol Hill that affects the horse racing industry. If you currently do not receive these communications, please e-mail Barbara Fossum today to be added to the NTRA Legislative distribution list.

★ IRELAND ★

EEF TO SPONSOR IRISH GUINEAS FESTIVAL

Curragh Racecourse yesterday announced a five-year partnership with the Emirates Equestrian Federation (EEF), which includes sponsorship of the Irish Guineas Festival. Re-named the Abu Dhabi Irish Guineas Festival, the weekend will feature the G1 Abu Dhabi Irish 2000 Guineas May 22 and the G1 Etihad Airways Irish 1000 Guineas the following day. The sponsorship arrangement also includes naming rights to four other Thoroughbred races throughout the weekend. "The sponsorship of two of the top Classic races in Europe, together with the opportunity to showcase some of the best purebred Arabian racehorses creates multiple benefits, such as promoting tourism and enhancing bilateral relationships between countries," said Taleb Dhaher Al Muhairi, Secretary General of the Emirates Equestrian Federation. The Curragh's General Manager, Paul Hensey, added, "The support of our Guineas Festival by the Emirates Equestrian Federation is hugely positive for both the Curragh racecourse and Irish horse racing and their association with two of our most prestigious races will ensure we continue to attract the very best horses and riders for what promises to be an outstanding event."

AUSTRALASIA

BC3 ENLISTS HELP OF INGLIS FOR SALE Officials at BC3 Thoroughbreds have announced that the organization will enlist the assistance of William Inglis Co. to promote and facilitate their "Future Stars" sale this coming August. "We're extremely excited to have the services of Inglis behind the promotion and running of this sale," said BC3's Bill Vlahos. "The Inglis brand is an extremely well respected brand within the global Thoroughbred industry, and we look forward to working with them to create an even stronger two-year-old sale." Added Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster, "The Inglis team is delighted to assist BC3 to further develop their two-year-old sale, and I congratulate Bill Vlahos and his team on their success so far with local graduates such as G3 winner Deer Valley in addition to US based G1 winners Brother Derek, River's Prayer and Reraise. Their role is to prepare world-class racehorses. Our role is to run a world-class auction."
