A Small Class Reprive in Oaklawn's Biggest Race...

The Arkansas Derby has been such a successful avenue to the GI Kentucky Derby over the past decade that the race was accorded Grade I status in 2010--up from a Grade II last term. So it might be somewhat surprising that Chasing Dreams Racing's Noble's Promise (Cuvee) is facing probably his easiest field since winning the Fitz Dixon Jr. Memorial S. at Presque Isle last September. It also may be somewhat surprising the Grade I winner, runner-up to champion Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) in his last two and a close-up third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile before that, isn't the morning-line favorite in the race, which attracted nine horses at yesterday's draw. The bay is the 2-1 second choice, behind the highly regarded GSW Super Saver (Maria's Mon), installed at 9-5. That could be because Noble's Promise, a head second in the GII Rebel S. in his seasonal debut Mar. 13, has already outrun his sprint-oriented pedigree. Regardless, trainer Ken McPeck knows there's more two getting a route of ground that pedigree. "I think the key to this horse going a little farther is going to be the rider," McPeck said. "You know Robby Albarado is going to be getting another try on him here. I think has Robby learned a little something. Robby being a little more patient with the colt is going to be important." McPeck added, "I would much rather have a fast horse that you question his stamina limitations as opposed to a galloper that has no speed. I think the speed puts you in position."

A FREUDIAN SLIP

Franny Freud (Freud) was hammered down to 1-2 favoritism in Wednesday's GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland and made the public look smart, romping home clear by 4 3/4 lengths. Heroine of the Listed Ontario Debutante S. over Woodbine's Poly as a juvenile and of the restricted Fifth Avenue S. at Belmont in her seasonal finale Nov. 15, the bay was coming off a very good second to Amen Hallelujah (Montbrook) in the GII Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita Jan. 16. The New York-bred miss was soon in command in this and dictated sensible :23 1/5, :47 and 1:11 1/5 fractions under Garrett Gomez before powering away in the lane. "She did everything right," said jockey Garrett Gomez, who was winning his 20th stakes at Keeneland. "She put me in the right spot. She got a good breather for half a mile and was just galloping around there. When I set her down, she went ahead and put it out there and sprinted away home." Cont. p2

NEWS TODAY

BIG A DEAL BY JUNE? New York Governor David Paterson said in a radio interview Tuesday that he plans to bypass the state legislature and pick an operator for the long-stalled VLT operation at Aqueduct, possibly by June. "We have switched to a procurement plan," Paterson, as reported in the NY Post, said in an interview on WCNY/91.3 FM. "That was not popular with the other two leaders, because it's going to shift authority to the executive branch." It was unclear whether Paterson can go solo on the selection, as a 2008 law states that both the State Senate and Assembly must sign off on the pick. Earlier this year, Paterson selected the Aqueduct Entertainment Group to run the VLTs, but that selection as met almost immediately with charges of cronyism and the deal was scuttled.

To the chagrin of other members of the filly and mare sprint division, Informed Decision is back for more at five. Few would have faulted owner George Strawbridge had he opted to retire the gray following her crafty win in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, which secured her an Eclipse Award. But Strawbridge sportingly has given the champ an opportunity to add to her laurels, and she makes her first start since Santa Anita looking to defend her title in the Madison. A perfect four-for-four at Keeneland, Informed Decision beat Ventura (Chester House) in a thrilling renewal of last year's event. She doesn't have any listed works in 2010, but trainer Jonathan Sheppard told Daily Racing Form she's been working regularly in Camden, South Carolina. "She worked Friday [five-eighths in 1:03] before she left Camden," said Sheppard. "She had two strong five-eighths works prior to that. She has trained great, and she seems very sharp since she's been here. I'm very happy with her." California invader Witty seems to be the main competition. The "TDN Rising Star" , winner of the GIII Railbird S. at Hollywood last May, returned from a long absence to prevail in a Santa Anita allowance Feb. 18.

Look for the throughout the TDN entries, denoting Keeneland sales graduates.

All carry 126 pounds.

This sees the return of last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Special Duty, who puts her G1 1000 Guineas claims on the line against a talented line-up. Also runner-up in the G1 Prix Morny and successful in the G2 Prix Robert Papin last term, the Criquette Head-Maarek trainee is reported in rude health by her conditioner.

"She is a fantastic filly and has done extremely well throughout the winter," Head-Maarek said yesterday.

"She has been working well and has done everything I've asked of her so far. Horses can change from two to three and you never know until you run again—she's not a big filly, so she is still a little light-framed as she was last year. This is a prep race and she is not 100 percent, as she will be ready for the Guineas in May.

We've worked on relaxing her and she is much quieter now and doesn't pull anymore, so she can race from behind but speed is class in a horse."

Head-Maarek continued, "Last year, she was more difficult but she has changed completely and we can wait with her now as she still has that nice turn-of-foot at the end." Saying had a highly progressive profile at two and rounded off when taking the Listed Prix Herod at Longchamp in October, while the G3 Prix du Calvados scorer and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac third Joanna is already close to Special Duty in terms of form.

A contentious field of nine horses has been drawn for Saturday's Blue Grass, with Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Pleasant Prince, a very close runner-up in the GI Florida Derby, drawing post six as the 3-1 morning-line chalk. In his only start on a synthetic track, the chestnut finished third, beaten five lengths, in an $80,000 maiden claimer here at Keeneland last fall. "E.T. Baird rode him out on the lead, and he did well," said Ken Ramsey. "He finished third, but that's not how he wants to run. We won't be on the lead on Saturday. [Jockey] Julien [Leparoux] fits him really well. He has those soft hands, and he'll get a good position, and we'll let him take it from there. I love the post position. We didn't want the bookends--we didn't want the one, or the nine." Odysseus, coming off a re-rallying victory in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 13, drew the rail. "We would have preferred to be outside a little more if we had had the choice," Sasha Sanan, son of Padua Stables' Satish Sanan, offered. "He has enough tactical speed where he should be able to work out a good trip."

SIMPLY THE BEST AT INGLIS EASTER

A day after Kitchwin Hills purchased a A$1.875-million Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt, the boutique Upper Hunter Valley farm celebrated its first six-figure sale

Lot 296
www.inglis.com.au

when prominent bloodstock agent James Bester went to A$1.2-million for Kitchwin's Redoute's Choice colt. Out of Asian Reef (Aus), the yearling was offered as Lot 296. The bay, who was bred by long-time Kitchwin Hills client Carl Holt, is a half-brother to Group 1 winner Bon Hoffa (Aus) (Belong to Me) and Group 2 winner Before Too Long (Aus) (Belong to Me)--both of whom were bought as yearlings for far more modest sums. He is also a half-brother to the listed-winning filly Okanui (Aus) (Barathea {Ire}). Bester--believed to be acting for clients including astute owner/breeder John Camilleri--said he believed the colt was potentially worth more than A$1.2 million.

"It is tough at any time to do battle at that level, but I valued him a little higher than that, I thought he was the best colt in the sale," Bester said. "I had seen some horses in the Valley, but I had not seen this colt. The minute I saw him here, I decided he was better than anything I had seen, and I went back to see him five or six times. He ticked all my boxes. I was determined to buy him for a small group of prominent and very good clients." Cont. p7

“This colt had remarkable pelvic length, truly, that I have seen on any horse for a long time, a remarkable hind leg action, fabulous overstep and a real thrust, matched by a beautiful flowing front leg action,” said Bester. “For such a big horse, he has great quality--a little more quality than his father Redoute’s Choice (Aus), a beautiful head.”

While well over the price realized by the second highest lot of the afternoon, Bester felt the Oct. 17 foal was well worth the investment.

“He is absolutely the closest thing I have seen to his father, and in my opinion, he was nicer than any horse that has topped A$2 million in recent years at this sale.”

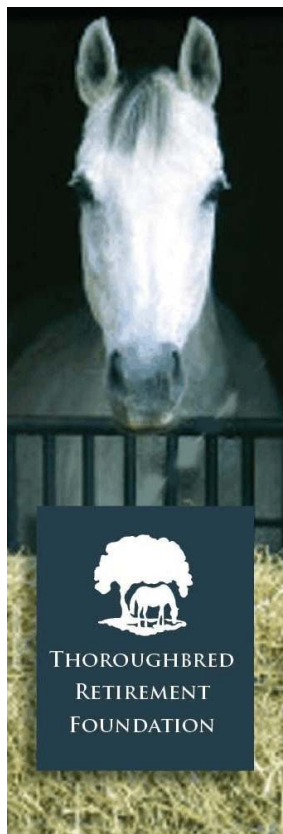

Bester admitted that it was difficult to decide between this colt and the Redoute’s Choice (Aus) colt--out of Regrowth (Aus)--knocked down for $1.875 million to Kitchwin during Tuesday’s opening session.

“I loved the Regrowth, he was a stunning horse and it was difficult on some levels to choose between them because the Regrowth is a good-looking horse as you will ever see,” he recalled. “They are both from good farms, both have good pedigrees, but I guess beauty is in the eye of the beholder and I went for this one. It would be a brave man to guarantee which is the best of them.”

Encosta de Lago Colt Brings $775,000...

Evergreen Stud's Tony Bott gave A$775,000 for Lot 274, an Encosta de Lago (Aus) colt out of Abonnement (Aus), the dam of champion Singapore miler Recast (Aus) (Thunder Gulch) and black-type winner Gonski (Aus) (Danehill). The colt was offered by Coolmore acting as agent.

Lot 274
www.inglis.com.au

"We paid more for him than we wanted too, confirmed Bott. "I thought going in to the ring he was maybe a $500,000 or $600,000 horse."

Bott acknowledged that he was encouraged to purchase the colt by the recent trackwork performance of his Redoute's Choice half-sister, owned by the same connections.

"He was bought for Hong Kong interests who are partners with me in the farm at Evergreen--the Siu family, who own his half-sister by Redoute's Choice," Bott said. "That filly has had a limited preparation with [trainer] Peter Moody and is back at the farm now. We haven't pushed her, she needs a bit of time, but we have got a bit of an opinion of her. That wasn't the only reason we bought this bloke, we thought on his merits he was a very nice horse, but I maybe went the extra leg knowing a little bit about her and the family."

Golden Choice...

Shadwell's Angus Gold signed for Lot 227, a Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Tycoon Lil (Aus) colt whose full-sister Estee was purchased at this sale in 2008 for A$2.1 million by Sheikh Mohammed's bloodstock manager John Ferguson. Whilst Ferguson is absent from this sale, Gold has been active, but restrained.

Lot 227 www.inglis.com.au

"He is a full brother to [SW & G1SP] Estee--a different type, but he looked a really hardy sort of horse," said Gold. "He is a bonny horse; a big powerful and a great walking horse. I hope he is as athletic as he made himself look. He has a fantastic temperament, as you seem to get so often here, and obviously he is by a top stallion, and I hope he can run."

Trainer Gai Waterhouse was among several trainers active throughout the sale, purchasing the Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Valkyrie Diva (Aus) colt offered by Tony Santic's Makybe Stud, for A$600,000.

"He is a beautiful colt, masculine, really lovely, big and strong and Makybe have committed to him as well, hoping he will be a stallion prospect," Waterhouse said. "They have brought a couple of friends in with him, and there are still shares in him available."

Declines, But Optimism, Too...

A broad bench of domestic and international participants took advantage of a buyers market in the second session of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale where, despite across-the-board falls on the corresponding session last year, the mood remained optimistic. Buyers reported that competition remained tough on sought-after yearlings although the average dropped from A$265,417 for this session last year to A$219,355 with a pass-in rate of 28 percent and a median of A$170,000 compared with A$200,000 for the same session in 2009. A total of 128 horses from 200 catalogued were sold for a gross of A$28,077,500--compared with A$47,775,000 for the corresponding session last year. Inglis managing director Mark Webster indicated he was hopeful that the sale would reach an 80 percent clearance mark at the end of Thursday's third and final session.

"There's a lot of buyers on the list that haven't unloaded yet and I would like to think they will spend that money and not go home empty-handed," Webster said. "We are seeing a few studs buying and that's a reflection that they see an opportunity to buy into these nice horses at a time when the market is a little soft. In saying that, the sale is still averaging beyond the A$220,000 mark, which is very much the top of the tree for yearling sales in this part of the world."

INGLIS EASTER YEARLING SALE

404, f, Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Empress Lily (Aus), by Zabeel (NZ)

Consigned by Arrowfield Stud, as agent

Bred on the same cross as MG1SW Samantha Miss (Aus) out of a daughter of Zabeel (NZ), this filly, a result of Arrowfield's Japanese joint venture with Katsumi Yoshida, is simply 'sparkling,' according to Arrowfield's John Messara.

"She is good looking, she has clean X-rays, it is a very current family and we are very confident about her," Messara said. Homebred Empress Lily, a half-sister to Sheikh Mohammed's A$2.1 million filly Estee (Aus), was third in the Group 1 VRC Oaks when trained by Lee Freedman. Her first foal, a filly by Arrowfield sire Snitzel (Aus), fetched A$400,000 here last year. Named Tigris Lily, she is in training with John O'Shea. Empress Lily (Aus) has a Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt at foot. Yesterday a Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Tycoon Lil (Aus) colt was knocked down to Shadwell's Angus Gold for A$675,000.

428, f, Flying Spur (Aus)--Flouze (Aus), by Zabeel (NZ)
Consigned by Cressfield Stud

The first foal from a listed-placed daughter of Group 1 winner La Baraka is a half-sister to SW Alizes (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}) and she has champion three-year-old Triscay (Aus) (Marscay {Aus}) as her third dam. The cross has produced six stakes winners to date. Cressfield spokesman Kieran Moore said Flouze (Aus) has a Flying Spur colt at foot and was covered last spring by Exceed and Excel (Aus). "This filly is a good-sized first foal, she resembles Triscay in colour and shape, so she is more like a Marscay than a Flying Spur," he said. "We try to identify certain families and try to buy into a branch of some good strong families. She is also by Zabeel and so far we have nine Zabeel mares so we are stocking up on Zabeel," Moore said of the Cambridge Stud-based sire who is damsire of 57 stakes winners, including 11 Group 1 winners.

441, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Gainesville (Can), by Afleet
Consigned by Tyreel Stud

Top end consignor Tyreel Stud has built an enviable reputation with outstanding sale-ring results since the late Jim Fleming purchased the picturesque Nepean River farm in 1986--the stud has catalogued 135 yearlings, sold 113 of those and graduates have an 11 percent stakes winning rate. The farm has a superb band of broodmares, many of whom are Oaks winners, but Dean Fleming has broken new ground offering a weanling pinhook for the first time in this colt, purchased at the Inglis Easter Weanling Sale last year for A$80,000. This, of course, was before Fastnet Rock burst into full flight as runaway leading second season sire with Group 1 winners, including Newmarket H. victor Wanted (Aus), himself an A$800,000 Easter graduate; Australian Guineas winner Rock Classic (Aus), a A$275,000 Easter graduate; and the 1000 Guineas victor Irish Lights (Aus), a A$230,000 graduate of the same 2008 Easter catalogue. Fleming confirmed the colt had been inspected more than 100 times. "He is a beautiful colt and I think there will be a few people out there trying to buy him," said Fleming. "I bought him at the weanling sale here last year, because we didn't have any colts in our sale draft, so I decided to have a bit of a punt and he has grown into a nice horse. It is the first time ever for us."

490, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Jodie Faster, by Theatrical (Ire)
Consigned by Coolmore

Fastnet Rock is a hot commodity with nine stakes winners to date and this colt is from the dam of four winners, including Enduring Will (Arch). "He is one of our best colts, a big, beautiful colt with terrific quality, a lovely mover and he has been extremely popular," Coolmore's Peter O'Brien reported. "He is by the hottest sire in the country at the moment, there has been plenty of interest in him--all the right people like him."

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

YOUMZAIN EPSOM BOUND Jaber Abdullah's ever-green campaigner Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) is due to return to Epsom for another tilt at the G1 Coronation Cup, connections announced yesterday. Runner-up in the last two renewals of the June 4 contest, the Mick Channon-trained seven-year-old was eighth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan last week. "Youmzain is doing well since returning from Dubai," the owner's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond commented. "He did a little bit of work yesterday morning and Mick was very happy with him. He won't have a run before the Coronation Cup, he'll go straight to Epsom. We feel he still has what it takes at the top, because he is the best horse at home. He looks good and does everything nicely. Other horses are improving and as a seven-year-old, I doubt that he will improve so it is a case of whether he retains his ability. They didn't go quite as quick as he wanted to in Dubai--he was stuck out wide and it wasn't his best run. He seems to run his best races at Epsom and Longchamp, so we are hopeful."

448, f, Zabeel (NZ)--Gin Player, by Defensive Play
Consigned by Rich Hill Thoroughbreds, as agent

Australasian stalwart Zabeel (NZ) can be relied upon to figure prominently at the major sales and this half-sister to three stakes winners, including dual Group 1 winner Zarita (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) illustrates why. Gin Player had a Pins youngster fetch A$200,000 here last year when knocked down to Nick Williams. Zabeel (NZ) has a staggering 129 individual stakes winners of 307 races to date.

Fourth in her state-side bow, the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga Aug. 21, the bay came up a head short in the GIII Valley View S. over this course Oct. 23, but finished the season by fading to 13th in Churchill's GII Mrs. Revere S. Nov. 14. The 4-1 shot broke awkwardly here, and was allowed to settle into stride near the back of the pack by rider Javier Castellano. Angled to the outside on the far turn, the Irish import collared Consequence (El Prado {Ire}) in the lane and got the better of that Phipps filly in the final strides to score by a head. Miss Keller is a half-sister to Sir George Turner (GB) (Nashwan), GSP-GB & Ger, $364,003; and Kotsi (Ire) (Nayef), GSP-GB. The bay resurfaced in a heat on the Gulfstream lawn Mar. 7, but could only manage a sixth-place effort, and was available at 6-1 in this return to Polytrack. He was able to save ground in the early stages, then shifted outside and knifed his way through to get up by a neck over Our Douglas (Stormy Atlantic). ### She's Funomenal Retired:

STD Racing Stable and Summit Racing's three-year-old filly She's Funomenal (Fusaichi Pegasus--Elderberry Drive, by Strawberry Road {Aus}), winner of Ifyoucouldseemenow S. at Hollywood last December, fractured a sesamoid during a Mar. 14 work and has been retired, reports Summit Racing's Bob Ike. "She was shipped to Kentucky and bred to Awesome Again, but it's too early to know yet if she's in foal," said Ike. Winner of her first start, She's Funomenal quickly added black-type in the restricted Ifyoucouldseemenow. She was a solid fifth behind Amen Hallelujah (Montbrook) and Franny Freud (Freud)--winner of yesterday's GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland--in the Jan. 16 GII Santa Ynez S. and was second in her latest in a one-mile Golden Gate allowance Feb. 25. She retires with a record of 4-2-1-0, $61,650. She's Funomenal was produced by a stakes winner and is a half to GSW Fist Fistite (Two Punch).

FIGURES UP AT LINCOLN SALE

Doncaster Bloodstock Sales' Lincoln Handicap Sale, which had a largely jumps bias yesterday, recorded a 40 percent advance on the 2009 aggregate with the median of £4,000 representing a 33-percent increase. Of the flat purchases, Mark Johnston's Kingsley House Stables was responsible for the sale of the six-year-old Lovelace (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), who was snapped up by Dab Hand Racing for £34,000. Consigned as hip 65, the seven-furlong and miling specialist had registered wins in the 2008 G2 Oettingen-Rennen and G3 Supreme S. a year earlier. "The Lincoln Handicap Sales may be the smallest of the DBS year, but today has shown that it fulfills an important role for middle market horses in training," commented DBS Managing Director Henry Beeby. "We are naturally pleased with the leap in turnover and the median that has advanced by a third, clearly illustrating the strength and depth of the sale. We have welcomed a large and diverse crowd to Doncaster from home and abroad with buyers from the U.K. and Ireland bidding against visitors from Sweden, Israel, Saudi Arabia, Greece, Germany and Kuwait, etc., who have been attracted by a cosmopolitan catalogue of horses who will undoubtedly go on to succeed for their new connections as have so many of their predecessors. Finally, on behalf of the Board and staff of DBS, I want to pay tribute to the late Liam Cashman for whom we held a minute's silence this morning. Liam was a valued client of so many DBS Sales for over 30 years and will be missed by all of us in the industry for his unfailing decency, integrity and horsemanship. Many eloquent tributes have rightly been paid to him over the last week or so, and it is fitting that he was remembered at the first sale since his passing."  Restricted to handicap company at three, Opinion Poll followed a smooth win in heavy ground over 12 furlongs at Haydock in May with a no-show on contrasting conditions in Royal Ascot's King George V S. over the same trip the following month. Back to winning ways returned to that venue for another 1 1/2-mile feature in October, the unexposed bay made some proven listed performers look pedestrian with a facile success here. Reserved in behind the early leaders by a confident Frankie Dettori, the homebred was committed approaching the quarter pole as the pace collapsed and was heavily eased in the final furlong to flatter the placed horses.
