STARDOM BOUND RETIRED

Stardom Bound (Tapit--My White Corvette, by Tarr Road), the champion juvenile filly of 2008, has been retired and will be bred to Big Brown, it was announced Thursday. A $50,000 KEESEP yearling, the grey was bought by trainer Chris Paasch for owner Charles Cono for $375,000 at OBS March.

Horsephotos

The four-year-old dashed off five consecutive Grade I wins between September of 2008 and March of 2009, taking the GI Del Mar Debutante S., GI Oak Leaf S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies during her Eclipse-winning season. Purchased by IEAH Stables and partners Paul Pompa Jr., Michael Dubb and Golden Goose Enterprises LLC, with

Nick Sallusto as agent, for $5.7 million at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale at the end of her two-year-old campaign, she came back to annex the GI Las Virgenes S. and GI Santa Anita Oaks to kick off her sophomore year. Sidelined after finishing third in the GI Ashland S. that April, Stardom Bound was runner-up in the GII El Encino S. Jan. 17 in her second start back, but it was decided to send her to the breeding shed after a fifth-place finish in her turf debut in a Keeneland allowance test Apr. 11. She compiled a record of 12-5-3-1 and earnings of $1,861,610. "There are not many horses in history who have won five Grade I's in a row, especially spanning their two- and three-year-old seasons," said IEAH representative Chris Brothers. "We are very excited to see the result of the match-up between Stardom Bound and Big Brown--two great champions who carried our silks. The mating is a perfect fit, both on paper and physically."

ELUSIVE QUALITY COLT TOPS CRAVEN SALE

A few hours after his son Elusive Pimpernel starred in the G3 Craven S. on Newmarket's Rowley Mile, Elusive Quality was making the headlines at Tattersalls last night. A Kentucky-bred colt by the Darley sire, bought at Keeneland in September for $150,000 by County Tipperary-based Willie Browne of Mocklershill Stables, stole the show when selling for 400,000gns during the second and final session of the Craven had the successful bid, he was acting for local agent Oliver St Lawrence, who watched proceedings across the ring. The colt will race for a client of Bahrain-based trainer Fawzi Nass, who also owns Aislabie Stud near Newmarket. "We knew there was going to be plenty of competition, but the owner didn't want to be seen to be bidding, so we asked Federico to do it for us," said St Lawrence. Cont. p2

Breeze-Up sale. Although Rome-based agent Federico Barberini

Elusive Quality Colt Tops Craven Breeze-Up

"This was the standout here," Oliver St Lawrence said of the sale-topper. "He was gorgeous and had a clean bill of health, vet-wise. We were bidding on behalf of one of Fawzi's clients in Bahrain and he will be staying in training in England, although I am not sure where at present."

Big-spending new owner Andrew Tinkler was underbidder on the colt, while other agents bidding including Johnny McKeever, Hugo Merry and David Redvers. Agent Dwayne Woods, who bought seven lots for 892,000gns, was the sale's biggest individual purchaser. He added a notable two-year-old for Tinkler and trainer Michael Dods last night, a 215,000gns Speightstown colt sold from Norman Williamson's Oak Tree Farm in County Meath. Peter Doyle was underbidder on the youngster, who had a $160,000 yearling price tag.

Andrew Tinkler & Dwayne Woods

It would be no surprise, as in past years, if many of the purchases bought by a variety of agents for undisclosed clients will race for Sheikh Mohammed and associated entities, and Richard Frisby paid 180,000gns for a Shamardal colt early into the session. Regular Darley buyer Dick O'Gorman bought three six-figure lots, including a Medaglia d'Oro filly and an Arch colt that each realised 150,000gns last night.

Making Hay...

Dubai-based Scotsman Jim Hay bought the only Montjeu (Ire) on offer through his trainer Paul Cole, a 190,000gns colt sold from Mocklershill. Blandford Bloodstock's Tom Goff was underbidder.

"The Hays want to compete at the top level and, if you're looking for something that could win a Classic, then there are only a handful of obvious horses here, and he was the one I liked," said Cole. "He'd be later rather than early, and is by one of the great stallions in the world at present."

Hay and his wife Fitri have around 45 horses in training in Britain with Cole, Stan Moore and Tom Tate, and also have horses in the U.S. with trainer Kieran McLaughlin.

By the Numbers...

The sale's 7,656,500gns turnover fell by 11 percent on 2009, although the 70,000gns median and 79,755gns average were up by 17 percent and seven percent, respectively. The clearance rate fell to 69 percent from 71 percent last year. At the end of the sale, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "It was a slow start to the sale on Wednesday evening, but happily for all concerned, trade picked up considerably as the sale progressed, and the final figures compare very favourably with last year's sale. Turnover is down, as expected with a smaller catalogue, but both the average and median have risen, which is a tribute to the quality of the horses and to the professionalism of the consignors."

Mahony continued, "The market has been selective at times, but we have seen plenty of international competition at the top end, and the success of recent graduates of the sale has clearly not gone unnoticed. Equally, the Racing Post-sponsored Breeze-Up and Yearling bonuses have proved to be an added attraction for buyers, and we would expect this to be even more pronounced at our Guineas Breeze-Up Sale in two weeks time, with 142 of the 146 catalogued eligible for one or the other bonus scheme, and 80 of them eligible for both. Alongside the positive aspects, however, the prevailing economic uncertainties continue to have an impact on the European bloodstock market, and the domestic demand, with a few notable and welcome exceptions, remains tentative."

BAFFERT HOPEFULS WORK

Trainer Bob Baffert's Kentucky Derby contenders arrived at Churchill Downs Tuesday and were on track yesterday for five-furlong drills. Juvenile champion Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) went the distance in an easy 1:01.20, while stablemate Conveyance (Indian

Lookin at Lucky R Palmer

Charlie) went in 1:00.60. Lookin at Lucky cut out fractions of :12.60, :25.20, :37.40 and :49.60, galloping out six furlongs in 1:14.60. Conveyance's fractions were :13.60, :37.40, and :49. He galloped out six furlongs in 1:13.60. "I just wanted to get over the track and see where they stand--just get a little easy five-eighths in both of them," Baffert said. "It seemed like they went over it nice." Baffert added both horses would have two additional works before the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby. Lookin at Lucky, coming off a troubled third-place effort in the GI Santa Anita Derby, will run in the Derby without blinkers, Baffert revealed. "You learn more from your losses than your wins, so I'm taking the blinkers off him," Baffert explained. "He doesn't need blinkers. The thought was he needed a target, because he'd make the lead. But he's going to have plenty of targets in the Derby with all those horses in there. I think it'll settle him a little bit. He was getting a little antsy at Oaklawn with the blinkers on going to the gate, and he's usually a pretty cool customer. So, he doesn't need them." Also working at Churchill yesterday was GI Wood Memorial runner-up Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil). The Nick Zito trainee worked four furlongs in :47.40.

Elusive Pimpernel, beaten only by St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) thus far in his career, issued a shot across the bows of that rival with a highly impressive success ahead of their rematch in the G1 2000 Guineas here on the first day of May. Imposing in stature at two, the bay justified his trainer's decision to kick on in midsummer when opening his account at first asking over seven furlongs of this town's July Course. Out-paced and apparently struggling as the tempo increased on his second start over that trip in York's G3 Acomb S., the homebred found a dramatic finishing flourish to deny Emerald Commander (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and subsequent G2 Champagne S. winner Poet's Voice (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in a strong renewal. He went on to beat everything comprehensively bar Ballydoyle's latest star in Doncaster's G1 Racing Post Trophy at a mile in October, when lack of a strong early pace may have been a disadvantage. That was not a factor here, as Morana (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) set a generous tempo with Elusive Pimpernel tracking in fifth. Wound up in customary style passing halfway, he took a few strides to find top gear before seizing the advantage passing the quarter pole and drawing clear in impressive fashion. "He's a very big horse and I wondered what on earth I was doing running him as a two-year-old in July, but he had always shown a lot of ability at home," conditioner John Dunlop commented. "He's continued to work very well; he has a wonderful attitude and a very good outlook on life. Today, he relaxed completely after the race and didn't turn a hair. He's an easy horse to train--he does exactly what he's asked to do and it's not a complicated job for the trainer, I'm glad to say."

Dunlop added, "We won't do an awful lot with him between now and the Guineas. He'll have a quiet week and he might do a little bit of work at the end of next week.." Regarding future plans, Dunlop offered, "He's not a Derby horse--he's not the right size and doesn't have the right stamp or conformation for Epsom. He's in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, and there are various options in France, but we'll see what happens in the Guineas." His elder half-brother Palavicini was third in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. one race later. Sri Putra gave early notice that he was a colt of substance when winning Sandown's G3 Solario S. at two and, after a slow start to his sophomore campaign, returned to the winner's spot as the highweight in a heritage handicap over a mile of Ascot's stiff track in July. After following up in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville in August, the bay came undone on two trips overseas when fifth in Longchamp's G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange in September and seventh in the G1 Premio Roma on his latest start in November. Racing with only one other in the centre of the track away from the main field, he enjoyed a lead until left alone approaching the final quarter. Sri Putra outbattled Tranquil Tiger, who came across from the stand's side, in the final 150 yards. "Fast ground is key to him, and he has lots of options now, including the Singapore Cup," said winning trainer Michael Jarvis. Click for the Racing Post chart. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

WHITE TO SADDLE UPTOWNCHARLYBROWN

Linda White will be the trainer of record when Uptowncharlybrown (Limehouse) goes postward in Saturday's GII Coolmore Lexington S., but connections will all be thinking about trainer Alan Seewald, who passed away Monday. "I don't think I have ever wanted to win a race so hard in my life," White said yesterday. White, who worked with Seewald for 13 years, was overseeing 11 horses at Tampa Bay Downs. Just hours after receiving news of her boss's death, White and exercise rider Fernando Arellano were riding in the back of a horse van with Uptowncharlybrown, en route to Kentucky. "Horses have a way of keeping you in the now," White explained. "You can't just shut the door on the stall. Fernando and I pulled out a chaise lounge and rode in the back with him. We got here between eight and nine Tuesday morning."

While in Kentucky, White is staying at Tony Ocampo's Rose Hill Farm. Uptowncharlybrown was foaled at the farm in 2007, and his dam produced a Street Hero filly Wednesday. "We were out shopping last night at Macy's and Tony called and said La Iluminada was foaling and we went flying out of there," White said. "We got there and the foal was coming out head first. The vets were there and everything worked out and we got to see Uptowncharlybrown's half-sister born. I guess it is all part of the cycle of life."

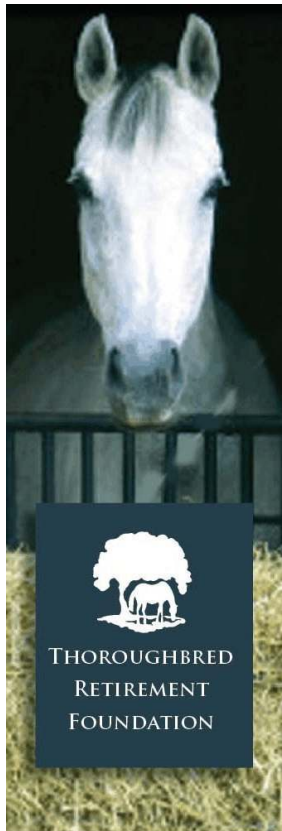

Saturday's Lexington S. will be broadcast live from 4:30-5:30 p.m. on TVG. Free, live streaming of the race will be provided online by www.keeneland.com, www.drf.com and www.ntra.com.

Classic Corner

Inler Shapes Up...

Inler (Ire) (Red Ransom) was put through his paces yesterday in a racecourse gallop at Newmarket ahead of his crack at the May 1 G1 2000 Guineas. Margaret Findlay's colt, a winner of his only race over six furlongs of this track in October, was joined by fellow maiden winner and Guineas entry Elsbeth's Boy (Tiznow), and finished comfortably ahead of that colt and a lead horse under Tony Culhane.

"I wanted it to be a fairly serious piece of work, and he came there very easily," trainer John Best said. "He possibly didn't go away from them as well as you would really hope, but he couldn't do any more than he's done. We wanted to stretch him out a little bit, because at home he does everything so easily and never blows. On pedigree, he should stay the mile, and the thing he does here is travel down into the 'dip,' which should be a huge advantage."

Timepiece is Oaks-Bound...

Henry Cecil pointed at the G1 Epsom Oaks as the likely target for ♀ "TDN Rising Star" ♀ Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) following her reversal in Wednesday's Listed Feilden S. at Newmarket. Only fourth as the 2-1 favorite for the 1 1/8-mile contest, Khalid Abdullah's Listed Montrose S. heroine will bypass the May 2 G1 1000 Guineas at the track and head to Lingfield for a prep ahead of the June 4 Classic. "I was very happy with her, as the race didn't work out at all," Cecil said. "I have to talk to the Prince and Teddy [Grimthorpe], but, hopefully, she'll run in the [May 8] Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial, and I expect to see a different performance there."

Nathan Tinkler's Patinack Farm dominated the top end at yesterday's penultimate session of the Inglis Australian Easter Broodmare Sale, where consistent demand for young mares with Group 1 credentials pushed across-the-board figures up, with a session average of A$75,736. Patinack's Rick Connelly signed for the A$1,050,000 session-topper, Bel Mer (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), lot 570. She is in foal to Vinery's in-form sire More Than Ready, who covered an astounding book of Group 1-winning mares last spring at an advertised fee of A$148,500. The G1 Robert Sangster S. heroine fit the criteria for Tinkler.

"We are committed to excellence in everything we do at Patinack, and buying stakes winners by proven international stallions is one part of the strategy," Tinkler said.

Bel Mer was sold to Belmont Bloodstock for A$110,000 at Magic Millions in 2006. Patinack gave A$260,000 at Magic Millions last year for a full-sister to the mare, since named Found The One (Aus). Half-siblings Super Swell (Aus) (Danbird {Aus}) and Danzena (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) both recorded minor wins in recent weeks. Her dam Drop Anchor (Aus) (At Talaq) foaled a full-sister to Bel Mer Oct. 21. Vinery's Peter Orton, who signed for Bel Mer as a yearling, said yesterday's result was bittersweet.

"I was sad to see her sell, she is one of the nicest mares I have had anything to do with and we had a lot of fun with her," Orton reflected. "I bought her myself and she carried the Vinery colours and raced so well. She is a very good-looking mare and lovely to do anything with."

He added, "More Than Ready's last two books have been fantastic--his current crop of two-year-olds are the quietest crop he's had, and the yearlings he had sell this year were good to medium, but he has had phenomenal books, and the types of mares that have gone to him suit him better, because people now understand the mares that work well with him."

More Than Ready's book included Makybe Diva (GB) and Oceanfast (Aus), dam of champion Alinghi (Aus) (Red Ransom), as well as Group 1 winners Aqua D'Amore (Aus), Camarena (NZ), Champagne (NZ), Cheeky Choice (Aus), Danni Martine (Aus), Ha Ha (Aus), Hasna (Aus), Magical Miss (Aus), Regimental Gal (Aus) and Republic Lass (Aus).

SOAKING UP THE SUN AT EASTER SALE

Lionel and Caroline Cohen's champion Sun Classique (Aus) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) was a worthy headline act going into the Inglis Easter Broodmare Sale, but, offered as lot 677 by Widden Stud, initially failed to meet her reserve and was passed in at A$1.95 million yesterday. Bidding began at A$500,000 and, with four participants, rapidly escalated beyond A$1 million; a new bidder entering the fray at A$1.5 million, but the proceedings stalled before reaching her reserve. However, mining magnate Nathan Tinkler's Patinack Farm completed a post-sale transaction to secure the chestnut, carrying her first foal by Oasis Dream (GB), for A$2 million (US$1,865,758). "She commanded so much presence, and it was a privilege to watch her parade today," said Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster. "We're very pleased that a deal has been done this evening, and she has commanded a price that a mare of her standing fully deserves." Lionel Cohen had secured Sun Classique in utero when buying her dam Elfenjer (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) at this venue in 2003 for A$32,500. A three-time Group 1 winner in South Africa, she went on to capture the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic in 2008 and earned $3,344,066. She strained a tendon when training in England last summer, and was covered by Oasis Dream at Banstead Manor before returning to her native land. Onward and Upwards...

The Patinack juggernaut continued upward with the farm purchasing 21 mares at this sale to date at a gross of A$5,147,000. The take included some bargain-buys, as well as session toppers. The nascent breeding and racing operation enjoyed Classic success when Small Minds (Aus) (Canny Lad {Aus}), a A$48,000 purchase at the Inglis/HTBA Scone Yearling Sale, scored a determined win in the G1 Australasian Oaks Mar. 20. The farm's first Group 1 winner, Onemorenomore (Aus) (Red Ransom), will stand at nearby Vinery Stud this season, with Patinack retaining a significant interest in the colt. Onemorenomore, an A$800,000 purchase at the 2008 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, won the G1 Champagne S., but was later retired due to an unfortunate training accident, when he stumbled while trotting and injured his knee. Patinack has five stallions on its roster: Casino Prince (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}), Husson (Aus) (Hussonet), Murtajill (Aus) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), Wonderful World (Aus) (Agnes World) and Beautiful Crown (Aus) (Chief's Crown). The operation was relatively subdued last year purchasing mares, with highlights including the A$775,000 paid for G1 Turnbull S. winner Devil Moon (Aus) (King Cugat), and the A$375,000 given for Group 1 Stradbroke H. winner La Montagna (Aus) (Monashee Mountain). The previous year, Patinack bought more than 45 mares, including To Be Surprised (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) for A$1.3 million, Volted In (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}) for A$920,000 and Litter (Aus) (Catbird {Aus}) for A$860,000. The stud, which has a flagship property in the Segenhoe Valley, as well as extensive holdings at nearby Sandy Hollow, consigned its first draft of yearlings to the Easter Yearling Sale last week. The highlight was an Encosta de Lago (Aus) half-sister to Hong Kong champion sprinter Silent Witness (Aus) sold for A$700,000.

Absolut Celebration...

Trainer Danny O'Brien and a group of stable clients celebrated after Group 1 winner Absolut Glam (Aus) (Snowland {Aus}) was knocked down for A$950,000 to Bowden Global Bloodstock. O'Brien gave A$150,000 for the filly at the 2006 Magic Millions Yearling Sale, and she earned A$920,900 on the track before retiring to be covered by hot sire Fastnet Rock (Aus), who stood at an advertised fee of A$60,500 last spring. Agent Neil Bowden, who operates between bases in London and Australia, indicated that Absolut Glam was purchased for international clients, but would remain in Hunter Valley. Her half-sister, the California-based Miss Alphie (Candi's Gold), was recently represented at Santa Anita by Gill Sham S. winner Alphie's Bet (Tribal Rule).

"We thought she was probably worth a little more," Bowden revealed. "There was a nice update and that was helpful, but we thought she was one of the better physical types in the sale, a Group 1 winner in foal to a stallion with a lot of sex appeal, so there is a fair bit of upside."

Yarraman Park's Arthur Mitchell, who consigned Absolut Glam as lot 522, said he thought it was about the right price for the five-year-old.

"She is a great looker, in foal to a hot horse, she could produce a yearling that fetches a lot of money, so I think it is good news for everybody," Mitchell said. "The sale has gotten stronger as it has gone on, and the right mares are selling well, but mares that have had a few foals are struggling."

With 347 sold to date and an 82-percent clearance rate, the sale's cumulative average is A$69,239 and the gross is A$24,026,050.

Fritz's Princess (Aus) (More Than Ready), raced by Nick Moraitis and trained by Kris Lees to win the G2 The Shorts H. and finish runner-up to Absolut Glam in the G1 Winter S. in Brisbane in June 2008, was offered as a supplementary lot 949, and sold to Teeley Assets for A$800,000.

The mare was a A$65,000 yearling buy who retired with a record of 39-9-6-7. Teeley Assets is a company owned by Muzaffar Yaseen, who owns 50 percent of star stallion Redoute's Choice (Aus), and is represented in Australia by Iris O'Farrell. She signed the docket for Fritz's Princess.

Solid Investment...

Chinamora (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), sold to Inglis as agent for A$400,000 in foal to More Than Ready, is out of the Scenic (Ire) mare Rainscene, herself a solid producer and a half-sister to highly regarded Procrastinate (Aus) (Jade Hunter). Procrastinate is the dam of top performers Laisserfaire (Aus) (Danehill), Foreplay (Aus) (Danehill), Time Thief (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), and Personify (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}). Chinamora, a NZ$200,000 yearling, was Group 3-placed on the race-track and earned A$162,080. Her Fastnet Rock half-brother fetched A$150,000 when sold to trainer Mark Kavanagh at Magic Millions in January. The previous year, a half-sister by Oratorio (Ire) went for A$340,000 to the bid of Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock.

Yet Another Grade-2 Stakes Winner

In his second start of the year, NOT FOR LOVE's TOGETHER INDY powered down Keeneland's stretch to take the Gr. 2 Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. by a length. Getting the 7 fur. in 1:22.34, TOGETHER INDY gained his first stakes win for owners R.A. Hill Stable and Vic Fontana and trainer George Weaver.

TOGETHER INDY's quality was apparent from an early age—he was the top-priced NOT FOR LOVE juvenile sold in 2008 when bringing $325,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Florida Select 2-Year-Olds in Training sale.

NOT FOR LOVE has sired a baker's dozen graded stakes winners and an incredible 21% stakes horses from runners—that's one out of every five runners hitting the board in stakes races!

RMTC URGES LOWER BUTE THRESHOLD The Board of Directors of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium came out with a recommendation during a meeting in Lexington Apr. 12 that would lower the allowable threshold of phenylbutazone from five micrograms to two micrograms per milliliter of plasma or serum. Bute is one of three non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs) permitted at least 24 hours before a race. The other two are flunixin and ketoprofen. "This action was taken in response to concerns expressed by the regulatory veterinary community regarding the effects of NSAID administration on pre-race examinations," said Dr. Rick Arthur, chair of the RMTC Scientific Advisory Committee, and equine medical director for the California Horse Racing Board. "The committee felt that the regulatory veterinarians' concerns that NSAID levels may compromise pre-race examinations were justified. This adjustment in permitted phenylbutazone level is measured and appropriate." RMTC Director of Communications also unveiled the Recent Rulings Database at the meeting, a feature now available on www.rmtc.net. The database makes public all drug-related rulings, and includes information about the drug involved and its possible effects on a race horse. "I am excited about this project because I believe it fulfills a need in the industry," said RMTC Executive Director Dr. Scot Waterman. "Members of HANA [Horseplayers Association of North America], racing fans and participants have voiced their desire for transparency and easy-to-access data on drug-related rulings. We hope that this will begin the process of better clarifying the difference between medication management mistakes and more serious drug violations."

COURT SIDES WITH ZAYAT IN BREACH

CLAIM A New Jersey bankruptcy court has denied a motion by Fifth Third Bank that alleged Zayat Stables breached terms of a cash collateral agreement by withdrawing four of nine catalogued juveniles from the Keeneland April sale. In its motion, Fifth Third stated, "The debtor's unilateral decision not to sell four of the nine listed horses in the Keeneland sale as agreed and as required by the cash collateral order without the consent of Fifth Third is a breach of the cash collateral order warranting the termination of the debtor's further use of cash collateral. In its response, Zayat Stables stated that it had committed to entering the horses in the sale, but not to selling the juveniles, which were withdrawn when it was decided market conditions made selling them "imprudent in the debtor's business judgement." The cash collateral agreement with Fifth Third Bank calls for Zayat Stables to use cash collateral through May 1 and has allowed the stable to remain in operation since filing for bankruptcy protection in February.

Heart Ashley went on a three-race winning streak last spring, taking the GIII Cicada S. Mar. 14 and the GIII Miss Preakness S. May 15. She could not quite translate that form into Grade I company in two subsequent appearances at three, finishing sixth of nine in Belmont Park's Prioress S. July 4 before closing the season with a fifth in the Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 8. Odds-on while facing 2009 GI Ashland S. heroine Hooh Why, Heart Ashley sped to the lead and was doing it comfortably and on her own into the stretch. But Garrett Gomez had to get busy on her inside the final furlong and she was just able to hold off the late bid of Best Lass for the victory. A one-length graduate going a half-furlong shorter over this surface last Oct. 10, the bay gelding tried the infield in his final two outings as a juvenile, finishing fourth to Lost Aptitude (Aptitude) at Churchill Nov. 8 and eighth to that same foe in the Grand Canyon H. Nov. 28. Kicking off his three-year-old season as the 4-1 third choice, he was set a difficult task by racing well off a moderate pace, but charged five wide off the final turn and came home with good energy for a two-length victory from Brave Prospect (Purge). Just when it looked like the favored female was on her way to victory, Lou Brissie was just warming up to the task and fired home late to record a 3/4-length victory. A $100,000 FTKJUL yearling--the second most expensive offering from his sire's second crop--he is a half-brother to Fearless Cowboy (El Corredor). That three-year-old colt, from the same Gone West sire line, was a stakes winner and third in the GII Saratoga Special S. en route to earning $156,097 last season. LOU BRISSIE (Limehouse)

Two jumps past the wire in one of the two-furlong races during the Aiken Trials in mid-March in South Carolina, Dogwood Stables' Cot Campbell thought he just might have something special in the form of Lou Brissie, a son of former Dogwood standout Limehouse.

"It was just a quarter mile and he did finish second, but he was just burning up the track after the finish," Campbell explained yesterday from his offices. He added, "He had always trained like a good horse. He was a very good physical representative for his sire. Joe Brocklebank actually tipped us on this horse and signed the ticket for us. He's just a good-looking young horse with good size for his age, 15.3 or 16 [hands]."

Lou Brissie, named for a native son of South Carolina who overcame a leg injury before going on to a career as a pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics, followed very closely in the hoofprints of his second-crop sire, who broke his maiden at first asking over the very same 4 1/2 furlongs [on dirt] Apr. 16, 2003.

"He did it very much in the same style as Limehouse, from off the pace and weaving his way between horses," Campbell commented.

Lou Brissie is the first Dogwood horse to be trained by Neil Howard since the team campaigned Summer Squall to several prominent scores, including the 1990 GI Preakness S.

"Obviously, Neil has been a private trainer for many years, but he was good enough to let me know recently that he was going public," Campbell said. "I have been wanting to send him horses for many years, but could not because of his arrangement."

Howard has the utmost respect and full confidence of Campbell.

"There has never been a greater-detailed man than Neil," he offered. "He thinks everything through very, very thoroughly. He is a very fine horseman who has come up and trained for some other very good horsemen, and I've never been associated with a trainer that I have liked more than Neil. Now, that's not too hard when he's trained a Classic winner for you, but he is a great gentleman and a terrific horseman."

Following his debut success seven years ago, Limehouse returned on 17 days' rest to post a 1 1/4-length victory in the two-year-old stakes on the Kentucky Derby undercard. That race, now known as the GIII Kentucky Juvenile S. and scheduled for Friday, Apr. 30, is the immediate target for Lou Brassie, should he emerge in fine shape from his debut effort. But for some poor timing, Dogwood would send forth an entry in the Juvenile. Firepole (Hook and Ladder), trained by George Weaver to a first-out victory at Keeneland Apr. 8, would otherwise join his stablemate at Churchill, but will not yet be 24 months of age and is therefore prohibited from starting.

In addition to their two juvenile winners in Lexington, Dogwood was also represented by Deets (Forestry), a Dallas Stewart-trained three-year-old filly, who boxed on gamely to finish a narrowly beaten runner-up Wednesday.--Alan Carasso

Jockey Cards Return to Keeneland:

After a 10-year absence, Keeneland will be offering a 2010 series of 61 jockey cards at its gift shop this season. "Racing needs to develop stars in various segments of the sport," said Terry Meyocks, national manager of the Jockeys' Guild. "We are hopeful these cards will be part of that effort. The jockeys want to do their part to help grow the industry." The cards, sponsored by Daily Racing Form, will also be given away at "Breakfast with the Works," from 7-8:30 a.m. at the track Saturday, Apr. 17, and will be sold at the Riders Up! karaoke benefit at the Keeneland Entertainment Center Friday night, Apr. 16, from 6-9 p.m. Tickets to that event are $50 per person, with proceeds going to the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund. Riders included in the 2010 series are Robby Albarado, Garrett Gomez, Julien Leparoux and John Velazquez, with Steve Cauthen, Pat Day, Angel Cordero, Jerry Bailey and Ron Turcotte offered as part of the Special Edition set.

NTRA Announces Industry Sponsor Program:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association has launched an Industry Sponsor Program, which offers members promotional opportunities. The program is open to farms, training centers, racing partnerships and other industry organizations. Benefits include advertising on NTRA.com, sponsorship opportunities, the chance to host DRF/NTRA National Handicapping Championship qualifying events and state-bred race day sponsorships in Daily Racing Form. "The NTRA Industry Sponsor Program provides benefit packages that can help industry members promote their businesses and build relationships with their clients," said Joe Bacigalupo, director of membership development for the NTRA. "On NTRA.com, the top portal for horse racing, all industry sponsors receive complimentary advertising for 12 months. Coupled with advertising and sponsorship opportunities on the new NTRA Live! webcasts, the NTRA.com benefits alone offer tremendous access to both industry insiders and new fans. Additionally, complimentary tickets to Eclipse Awards and spots in the annual NTRA Charities golf outing at Valhalla allow industry sponsors to entertain and treat clients to a special event."

Following his surprise in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot in June 2008, Equiano appeared to lose his way with a runner-up finish in this race 12 months ago his last placing in nine efforts. The bay underwent a breathing operation after a latest no-show in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October, and found a new lease on life here when using his old speed to dominate most of the contest and pull out extra to hold the late-closing Mullionmileanhour. "I think he's faster than he was last year, so I'd say he'll come back here for the [May 1] G3 Palace House S. over five furlongs, and then he'll be mapped out for Royal Ascot," jockey Michael Hills explained. WANTED, AFTER ALL Following much negotiation, Group 1 Newmarket H. winner Wanted (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}--Fragmentation {Aus}, by Snippets {Aus}) will stand his first season at Eliza Park Stud in Victoria. On Feb. 21, the Thompson family's Widden Stud announced it would stand the three-year-old, in the wake of his G1 Oakleigh Plate fourth-placed finish. However, in a highly publicised case, the deal, believed to value the colt at A$10 million if he won the Newmarket, fell through because it was based on Widden securing first-season fertility insurance. The colt is a ridgling with only one testicle descended. On Mar. 25, the owners' legal representative Phillip Esplin reported that first season fertility insurance had been obtained through Howard Global Bloodstock at normal rates following examination by prominent veterinarian Angus McKinnon. At the time of the announcement, Antony Thompson said, "Wanted has been on the 'most wanted' list of sire prospects for some time now, and we are delighted to have finalized his purchase from Eddie Hayson, who will retain an interest in the colt when he embarks on a stud career at Widden at the end of his current campaign." Primary owner Eddie Hayson's representative Mick Fagan said in a press release, "We look forward to a long and fruitful association with Widden Stud." The A$800,000 Inglis Easter yearling, who was most recently fourth in the G1 TJ Smith S. Apr. 10 at Randwick, earned A$1.216 million while winning five of 15 starts. He has been retired to Lee Fleming's Eliza Park Stud. The stud said in a statement that "Eliza Park aggressively chased the horse following the opinion of two of the world's leading reproductive veterinary surgeons in Dr Angus McKinnon and Dr Geoff Hazard." Wanted will be limited to a book of 80 mares in his first season, and will stand at an introductory fee of A$38,500.

GAME, SET MATCH: WILANDER TO LINDSAY PARK

Multiple group winner Wilander (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Scandinavia {Aus}, by Snippets {Aus}) will enter stud at Lindsay Park Stud in South Australia. The deal was brokered by Magic Millions. He will stand for A$8,000. Purchased as a yearling by John Ferguson for A$625,000 at the 2007 Inglis Easter Sale, the speedy chestnut carried Sheikh Mohammed's colors to victory in the G3 Blue Diamond Prelude S. and G2 Schillachi S., and earned A$322,100. "Wilander is without doubt the most exciting sire prospect to enter South Australia for some time," said Magic Millions Managing Director Chester. "He has all the right ingredients to make it. The explosive racehorses--those with a great turn of foot--are the ones who make it. And he has a top-class pedigree." Chester added, "We're looking forward to the opportunity of selling his progeny at the Adelaide Yearling Sale and our other sales in the years to come. It wouldn't surprise me to see Wilander develop into the next Without Fear for Lindsay Park Stud." Wilander is a 3/4-brother to Group 1 winner Magnus (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}). Lindsay Park Stud's Sam Hayes commented, "We have been looking for a speed Danehill-line stallion to compliment our roster and Wilander fits the bill perfectly." Hayes also said, "His fee of A$8,800 will entice a healthy book of mares, and we are inviting shareholders to participate at A$30,000 a share, which entitles everyone to two shareholder noms in each of the first four years and one every year after that. We are fortunate that Darley have a strong selection of colts coming off the track and, being based outside of NSW and Victoria, we had the unique opportunity to secure a first-class prospect. It is nice to know that pristine countryside is not the only advantage of being in the Barossa Valley!"
