EXHI-TING DAYS FOR PLETCHER

Go ahead and add yet another graded-stakes winning three-year-old from the barn of Todd Pletcher, though this one was a little less ex-pected. Wertheimer et Frere homebred Exhi (Maria's Mon), coming off a front-running score in the Mar. 27 Rushaway S. up at Turfway Park, crossed and cleared the field from the eight hole, relaxed nicely on the front end for Robby Albarado and held off the come-from-behinders for a 19-1 upset in Saturday's GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland.

HOMETOWN HORSE MAKES GOOD

Researcher (Two Smart), who claimed the scalp of Commentator (Distorted Humor) in last year's Charles Town Classic, successfully defended his title Saturday evening, outlasting California invader Awesome Gem (Awesome Again) and New York-based Redding Colliery (Mineshaft) in the $1-million event. A nine-time winner in his 13 previous starts at Charles Town, Researcher added a 14 1/4-length win in the HBP Governor's Cup H. last October, but could not translate his form into open company, running second in the Mountaineer Mile H. in November and in the GIII Queens County H. in New York the following month prior to a distant sixth in the Native Dancer S. at Laurel Jan. 2. Freshened off that effort, he returned to this bullring in style three Saturdays ago, coming from just off the pace for a 6 1/2-length score in an optional claiming prep for this event. Acting Zippy (City Zip) and Understatement (Distorted Humor) hooked up soon after the start and engaged each other in a spirited duel, while Researcher bided his time in sixth as they raced around the second turn. The Virginia-bred made a middle move into contention approaching the final turn, came three wide into the lane and was fully extended to the line. Awesome Gem commenced his rally about three furlongs from home and loomed a threat, but could not quite get to the winner. Gone Astray (Dixie Union) was bothered by Fiddlers Afleet (Northern Afleet) soon after the break, effectively ending his night before it began. Chart p3

Darley

Soldera Werth the Purchase...

Exhi is the second foal produced by Soldera (Polish Numbers), a Listed winner at three and second in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot in 2004. Down the field in the G3 Darley S. in October of that year, she found herself in the Keeneland sales pavilion a couple of weeks later and was purchased by the Wertheimer Brothers for $600,000. Exhi is bred on a similar cross to 2001 Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos, but needed three starts to break his maiden, defeating Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor) on the turf at Belmont Park Sept. 20. A midpack sixth to stablemate Interactif (Broken Vow) in the GIII Bourbon S. on the Keeneland weeds Oct. 11, he flopped when sixth in a first-level allowance 13 days later and was gone for the year. The bay had the misfortune of running into the recently sidelined Odysseus (Malibu Moon), who earned ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status when beating Exhi by 15 lengths in a Tampa allowance Feb. 17, but atoned for that lashing with his determined tally in the Rushaway.

Krypton (Rock Hard Ten), an impressive 6 1/4-length allowance winner going seven furlongs Apr. 2, skimmed the rail and argued the pace with Exhi into and around the clubhouse turn before conceding the lead to the Pletcher runner turning up the backstretch. Despite having to work fairly hard to secure the front, Robby Albarado was able to get his charge to come back to him just a bit and got the half-mile in a solid, but not overly taxing :46.99. Still traveling well approaching the short stretch, Exhi cut the corner nicely and stayed on gamely, as Bushwhacked and 4.20-1 second choice and the sentimental favorite Uptowncharlybrown came with mild late rallies. "I spoke to Todd earlier this morning," said Albarado. "He said don't goose him leaving there because he's going to be for it, forwardly placed, within himself. On the backside, [Exhi] was putting on some pretty good splits there, clipping right along, but it seemed like he was doing it within himself. I decided to be a quiet passenger on him and hopefully finish, and he did." It was the third straight Lexington win for Pletcher, who saddled Advice (Chapel Royal) last year and Behindatthebar (Forest Wildcat) in 2008.

Tar Heel Mom had been knocking on the door in graded company for several months, and yesterday earned a well-deserved first win at the level here. Victorious in the Seton Hall S. at the Meadowlands Oct. 24, the Rankin homebred concluded a successful season with a four-length victory in the In Her Glory S. going six furlongs over this strip Nov. 11. Sent to Florida for the winter, the dark bay carried a daylight advantage past the eighth pole in the Gill Sugar Swirl S. at Gulfstream Park Jan. 9, but was tagged late and settled for third. A willing second, beaten a half-length in the Gill Hurricane Bertie S. in Hallandale Feb. 13, she wrapped a productive--if a bit frustrating--stint in the Sunshine State with a runner-up effort in the Gill Inside Information S. Mar. 14. Though it appeared on paper that rivals like Matchless Orinda had the better early speed, it was Tar Heel Mom who won the break and dictated terms up front while pressed by longshot Thunders Dove over a tiring muddy strip. Comfortably in front after a half-mile in :44.93, she cut the corner into the stretch and outstayed her rivals for an elusive success. "It's great for the people who have her to win a Grade II," said trainer Stan Hough. "She had been running against some really nice fillies at Gulfstream, and in all three of her previous graded stakes tries, she had run quite well. She had also run pretty well over off tracks before, so I didn't think that would hurt her." Tuscan Evening capped off a remarkable four-race streak at the winter stand, successfully stretching to 10 furlongs to take the Santa Barbara. Winner of the GII Monrovia H. down the hill Jan. 3, the bay took the GII Buena Vista H. going a mile Feb. 15 and added a front-running score in the nine-furlong GII Santa Ana H. Mar. 21. Long odds-on in this spot, Tuscan Evening raced ears pricked down the backstretch on a soft pace, turned back a mild mid-race bid from Restless Soul and never looked anything but a winner. Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer indicated that Tuscan Evening is a candidate for the GI Gamely S. at Hollywood Park May 29. Life at Ten had finished off the board just once in her previous 11 starts, a distant seventh over a yielding Belmont turf course Sept. 30, but has been untouchable since. Blocked and steadied at the three-sixteenths marker of a sloppy six-furlong Aqueduct allowance Nov. 15, she successfully carried her speed to take the Dec. 12 Snit S. over a mile and a sixteenth and was rested. Bet down to 9-10 for her seasonal debut in the Feb. 20 Rare Treat H. at the Big A, the chestnut made every pole a winning one, taking it by 5 1/4 lengths and found herself on a voyage to the Windy City. Closest to favored Jessica Is Back as that one had things her own way on the engine, Life at Ten ratcheted up the pressure at the quarter pole and wore down her rival for the win.

Mr. Gruff continues to make the most of his limited afternoon appearances and successfully defended his title in this event. Winless in a pair of starts as a four-year-old, the dark bay took three of his four outings last season, and a nose defeat in a Jan. 31 entry-level allowance was all that stood between him and a perfect season. He cleared that condition in his next start Mar. 11, but found himself on the sidelines following a 3/4-length victory in last year's San Simeon. He was gone 11 months this time around, and showed very few signs of rust in his Mar. 19 return to action, overcoming a bit of a slow dispatch to score by 2 3/4 lengths. Heavily favored in this spot, Mr. Gruff was content to lay second while racing inside down the hill. He made progress to challenge for the lead approaching the main track, skipped across the Pro-Ride without missing a beat and stretched away for yet another convincing tally. His record down the hill now stands at five wins and a second from six runs. "I knew I had to get a good break," said winning rider Joel Rosario. "My horse and another outside of me were the only speed. I let the other horses on the outside go for a little while, then after that I took the lead. He's running good, and he's a nice horse." The winner could stretch out for the first time in the GI Shoemaker Mile at Hollywood Park May 31, according to trainer Ron Ellis.

The market suggested that Dick Turpin, while not entirely in the shadow of Canford Cliffs before this 2000 Guineas trial, might struggle to upstage that much-vaunted stable companion. Not for the first time, this contest produced a surprise as the hot favorite veered under pressure late on and failed to contain the late flourish of his apparent understudy. Successful over six furlongs in Goodwood's G2 Richmond S. in July and the Tattersalls Ireland Sale S. at Fairyhouse in August, Dick Turpin suffered a troubled trip when only fifth in Longchamp's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere on the Arc card before finishing sixth in the G1 Dewhurst S. on Newmarket's Champions' Day. The dark bay settled in the slipstream of the free-wheeling Canford Cliffs early, kept a straight line as that rival went wayward in the final furlong and duly collared him close home to score with authority. "This horse is a Group 2 winner and was unlucky in France, and then the Dewhurst probably came a bit quick after that," jockey Ryan Moore said. "He showed a good attitude today and traveled and quickened up really well. He's seen out the distance well today, but he might just end up being best at this trip." Trainer Richard Hannon added, "If Canford Cliffs hadn't run off a true line, he probably would have won, but I'm very pleased with both of them. It was a good trial and a hell of a time, but, as for them both going to the [May 1] G1 2000 Guineas, I might separate them and send one to France or Ireland. Canford Cliffs would be ridden differently at Newmarket--I didn't want this to turn into a monkey race today, so said to Richard Hughes to let him roll." Puff, unheralded and seemingly exposed prior to this trial for the G1 1000 Guineas, took a step forward to dent some reputations and stake her Classic claims. Her odds here were a reflection of the fact that she spent most of last term chasing the tails of some high-class sprinting juveniles, and her fourth in both the G2 Lowther S. at York in August and G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October were creditable efforts, which nonetheless left her short of the mark. With one more effort to her name at two when runner-up in the Listed Bosra Sham S. again over six furlongs at Newmarket later in October, the bay took advantage of the apparent failure of Lady of the Desert to see out the extra panel here. She was keen early on the heels of the leaders and veered right when asked for her challenge initially, but was staying on as that favorite struck the front approaching the furlong pole. Outstaying that rival in the final 100 yards, she was always holding Habaayib on the far side for the upset. "They went a nice gallop and she traveled nicely and was very tough in the finish," rider Jim Crowley commented. "She was doing her best work at the end of the Cheveley Park last year and wasn't stopping there, but the knack is to get her to switch off, as she's been running a bit like a sprinter." Lady of the Desert's trainer Brian Meehan said, "She definitely got tired and had a strong blow when she came back in. It was a very rough race, and Kieren [Fallon] said he couldn't do anything he wanted at any point and that she would definitely get a mile, no problem. I'll have to talk to the owners, but she will probably head to France [for Longchamp's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches May 16], as that would be perfect for her." Harbinger missed an engagement in the G1 Epsom Derby after breaking his maiden at Chester last May, but came back to lift the July 28 G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood. Last of seven in the Aug. 18 G2 Great Voltigeur at York next time, he closed his sophomore campaign with a third in the G3 St Simon S. over this course and distance Oct. 24. Settled in rear from the outset of this seasonal return, he made smooth headway on the outside in the long straight to challenge at the two pole, and was ridden clear inside the final furlong to double his pattern-race tally in dominant fashion. "He switched off and found a great rhythm," said winning rider Ryan Moore. "He just cruised by them, got to the front so easily and did it smoothly. He had a soft palate operation over the winter and has got his confidence back. He's a pleasure to ride and, hopefully, there'll be a few more group races in him throughout the year." A year ago, Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) was the latest of the five winners saddled by Aidan O'Brien in the last decade, and the master of Ballydoyle is represented by a duo this time in Mikhail Glinka and At First Sight. The former followed a luckless unplaced effort in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot in September with an easy win in Leopardstown's Listed Eyrefield S. in early November and a second in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud nine days later. He did well in a recent racecourse spin with his vaunted stable companion St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and is Johnny Murtagh's preference over At First Sight, who has been on the shelf since recording a comfortable success in a mile maiden at Gowran Park in July. "Mikhail Glinka is a horse that we like a lot, he worked well at the Curragh back in March and has been in good form since, we hope that he runs a good race on Sunday, but he should improve for the run," O'Brien said. "At First Sight is a nice colt who won his maiden easily at Gowran in the middle of last season. He had a few minor hold-ups after that and we ran out of time with him last year, but he is ready to run again and we hope he runs a nice race." Two other unexposed types of interest are the Dermot Weld-trained Address Unknown, who opened his account over a mile on Dundalk's Polytrack last time in November; and Icon Dream, a David Wachman trainee who scored on his only start over seven furlongs at Tipperary in September. "His maiden has worked out well, but this is still a step up for him," the latter's conditioner told PA Sport. "He's also stepping up in trip, but I would have thought that would suit as he is a son of Sadler's Wells. All of mine come on for the run, so I'd expect him to do to same, but, hopefully, we'll learn a bit with him, and we'll take it one step at a time."

Eskendereya Leads Pletcher Brigade in Florida...

Trainer Todd Pletcher planned on working the majority of his Kentucky Derby hopefuls Sunday morning at Palm Meadows, but a wet weather forecast led to a change of plans, and all went through their paces yesterday morning. Zayat Stables' Eskendereya (Giant's Causeway), in most eyes the clear favorite for the Run for the Roses in 13 days' time, came out shortly after 9 a.m. and went five furlongs in 1:02 flat, with a final quarter-mile into a strong headwind in :24 3/5, into a strong headwind, according to Daily Racing Form. He galloped out six panels in 1:15 2/5 and seven-eighths in 1:29 3/5. "It rained here [Friday] night and the track was about a second slower than usual," said Pletcher after the work, "I was very pleased with the way he and all of our other horses worked. [Eskendereya] went just like he did before the Wood [Memorial]. Everything has gone as planned so far." Also working over five furlongs were Discreetly Mine (Mineshaft), the GIII Risen Star S. hero who went in 1:01 4/5; GII Louisiana Derby winner Mission Impazible (Unbridled's Song), 1:02; and GIII Delta Jackpot S. victor Rule (Roman Ruler), 1:02 3/5.

Endorsement Works Well at Keeneland...

With trainer Shannon Ritter in the irons, WinStar Farm's Endorsement (Distorted Humor), last-out winner of the GIII Sunland Park Derby, breezed five-eighths of a mile in 1:01.60 as he continues towards an intended start in the GI Kentucky Derby May 1. The colt spotted a workmate some five lengths and went in early fractions of :13.60, :26.60, :38.40 and :49.40. He galloped out six panels in 1:14 and seven furlongs in 1:27.40. He blew past his company nearing the stretch and was 10 lengths clear at the wire. "I started him off a little slow because I wanted him to relax off the other horse," Ritter said. "[On the turn] he couldn't wait any longer. He finished up strong--the last three-eighths in 35 [seconds]--and galloped out well." Endorsement, who will be ridden in the Derby by Robby Albarado, leaves for Churchill Downs today and is scheduled to have his final pre-race move next Sunday beneath the Twin Spires. Ritter has never saddled a horse in the Derby, but she was the regular exercise rider for 1998 runner-up Victory Gallop (Cryptoclearance).

Drosselmeyer, Pleasant Prince Possible for Derby Trial...

Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor) breezed five furlongs Saturday morning in 1:02.20 and is mentioned as a possible starter in Saturday's GIII The Cliff's Edge Derby Trial S. going the one-turn mile at Churchill Downs. Most recently a troubled third from a high draw in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 27, Drosselmeyer went in splits of :25.80, :37.80 and :49.60 before galloping out three-quarters of a mile in 1:15.40. Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Pleasant Prince (Indy King), the GI Florida Derby runner-up who ran no kind of race when seventh in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 10, will try to pad his graded earnings and earn a Derby berth in the Trial. "He acted like he didn't run, which he didn't," trainer Wesley Ward said, referring to the Blue Grass. "He just galloped around there. He went back to the track Wednesday. I am not sure when we are going over [to Churchill Downs]; that has not been finalized."

No Withers for Trappe Shot...

Mill House's ♀ "TDN Rising Star" ♀ Trappe Shot (Tapit), an $850,000 FTMMAY juvenile graduate, will miss next weekend's GIII Withers S. at the Big A with an ankle injury, according to Daily Racing Form. "We're going to have to back off him for a few days, and hopefully it comes around quickly and it'll take care of itself," trainer Kieran McLaughlin told DRF. "When it does, then we can look for a race. It might be two weeks, four weeks, eight weeks, but it's not going to be a week from today." Trappe Shot romped by 10 1/4 lengths in his sophomore bow versus Florida-breds at Gulfstream Feb. 21, then followed with another runaway score in Hallandale against state-breds Mar. 21.

GI Kentucky Oaks Apr. 30. The move was originally intended to take place over the Santa Anita training track. "It was a real good work," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer said. "I told him to go between :59 and a minute, and he went :59 4/5." As for the switch to the all-weather, Hollendorfer commented, "I don't really have a good reason. I just did that." Blind Luck is scheduled for her final pre-Oaks work next Friday at Hollywood Park and departs for Louisville Apr. 24.

Hot Dixie Chick Aiming for Eight Belles...

Hot Dixie Chick (Dixie Union) will make her next appearance in the 7 1/2-furlong GIII Eight Belles S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard, Daily Racing Form reports. Herself an Eclipse Award finalist in 2009, the Grace Stables runner captured three of her four outings as a juvenile, including the GIII Schuylerville S. and the GI Spinaway S. She was never under consideration for the Breeders' Cup, owing to Jess Jackson's well-documented disdain for synthetic surfaces, but made a successful three-year-old debut, taking the Mar. 20 Prima Donna S. at Oaklawn by an easy 5 3/4 lengths.

“Very Happy” Sheppard Reflects Rainbow...

Augustin Stables' Rainbow View (Dynaformer) has emerged from her Friday allowance score at Keeneland in good order and will return to stakes competition for her next start. While Jonathan Sheppard was not doing cart-wheels following Friday's 1 1/2-length victory, he was pleased all the same. "It was a very workmanlike performance, not brilliant, but that's fine," he commented. "We got Just as Well (A.P. Prepping for her seasonal debut in the GII La Troienne S. at Churchill Downs Apr. 30, a race rumored to be the next stop for reigning Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), Donver Stables' Careless Jewel (Tapit) turned in a typically swift morning work, going five furlongs in :57.80, best of 30 at the distance. Fractions were :22.20 for the opening quarter-mile and :45.80 for the half with a six-furlong gallop-out time of 1:11. Wire-to-wire winner of the GII Delaware Oaks and GI Alabama S. last summer, the grey filly is unraced since her last-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic Nov. 6.

NYC OTB BOARD RESCINDS SHUTDOWN The Board of Directors of New York City Off-Track Betting Corporation announced yesterday that, not only had it been decided that NYC OTB would not cease operations at the close of business today, the possibility of a shutdown and a layoff of all 1,300 NYC OTB employees had been taken off the table. After noting that "all parties recognize that closing NYC OTB now would be catastrophic to the racing industry," and "would irretrievably damage NYRA and other in-state tracks and the state's breeding industry," NYC OTB Chairman Sandy Frucher read a statement prepared by the Board. "Earlier this week, there was a three-way agreement among leaders of the assembly, state senate and executive chamber on at least an interim package for NYC OTB that would grant temporary relief from certain payments called for under the racing law," the statement explained. "While the legislation was said to have been agreed upon on a three-way basis, the legislature did not take action on a bill. Nevertheless, the announced achievement of consensus from each of the necessary branches of government on the need to rationalize the racing law and preserve jobs not only for NYC OTB, but throughout the racing industry...truly marks the opening of a new chapter." It continued, "In addition, earlier this month, the bankruptcy court appointed a creditors' committee, comprised of representatives of our industry, of our employees and of our landlords, to engage with us in negotiating a resolution of our financial situation and developing a plan for restructuring of NYC OTB. We believe the committee can provide the best forum for all interested parties to come together in an organized fashion with a common purpose to build consensus on a resolution that will work for the entire industry. These events evidence a significant, meaningful and encouraging change in circumstances from when this Board last convened a little more than a week ago. It therefore would not be wise to shut down operations and engage in mass layoffs if there is an alternative based on what we've learned in the past week. The fiduciary obligations by which each member of this Board is bound mandates that this change in circumstances be thoroughly and carefully evaluated before rushing forward to implement a closure plan." The statement then outlined the steps necessary to make continued operations possible, including, "a reduction of two-thirds of brick-and-mortar operations, deep cuts in management, and head-count reductions consistent with the memorandum of understanding we have previously reached with our principal unions." In addition, NYC OTB lobbied for a reduction in the fees paid to the tracks, and a deferral of subsidy payments made to the industry. It concluded, "We believe we can maintain operations for the benefit of our customers, our industry and our employees for an interim period of up to one year if necessary, to allow a more permanent resolution of OTB's and the industry's woes."

MIGLIORE'S CAREER IN JEOPARDY The Daily Racing Form reports that jockey Richie Migliore will require surgery to repair broken vertebrae in his neck, and that his riding career may be over. The 46-year-old broke his neck in a horrific spill at Belmont Park in 1988 and was out of action for six months. He apparently reinjured the area when he was thrown in a race at Aqueduct Jan. 23. Initially diagnosed with a concussion, Migliore was sidelined for two weeks, but had been riding in pain since. The Long Island native had four winners on the card Mar. 27, and told DRF, "Honestly, I've never been in this much pain all my life. The day I won four I couldn't drive to and from the track." Migliore finally consulted with a neurologist last week, and will have four vertebrae fused. According to DRF, Dr. Andrew Hecht will perform the surgery at Mt. Sinai Hospital in Manhattan this week. As for his future, Migliore told DRF, "The possibility does exist [that he won't be able to return to riding], but I don't want to be too premature one way or the other. I want to know I can go forward with my life in a productive manner before making any hard and fast decisions. I'm confronting too many things right now, that the possibility I've ridden my last race is a little too emotional for me to think about." He added, "I want to ride without a shadow of a doubt, if the doctors allow me to go forward." An Eclipse-winning apprentice, Migliore was the leading rider in New York in 1985. He piloted his 4,000th winner at Aqueduct in February of 2005, and has earned more than $160 million in purses.

She'll be one to watch for the GII Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. West Ocean dashed past Libor Lady at midstretch and opened up to win this as much the best. The runner-up in a turf sprint at Saratoga in her career opener last August, the dark bay followed up with consecutive wins in a maiden test at the Spa Sept. 3, an allowance at Belmont Oct. 22 and in the 1 1/16-mile Flitalong S. at Aqueduct Nov. 18. West Ocean did not seem to appreciate the two turns of the Jan. 16 Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream, however, tiring to be 12th, but she put it behind her with a second in the Feb. 21 Ladies Turf Sprint going five panels at that track. She entered this off a five-length tally in the 5 1/2-furlong Bienville S. at Fair Grounds Mar. 26. Rated in fifth for three furlongs, West Ocean angled outside at the top of the lane and sailed away to an easy success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Sixth again when making his comeback in a six-furlong NW1X test on the Big A inner track Jan. 7, the bay added blinkers for a two-turn allowance Feb. 20 and led every step to score by 1 3/4 lengths. The four-year-old was 4-1 as he tried to put them back-to-back in his first start outside the Empire State. She rebounded to be second in a Churchill allowance Nov. 22, and opened 2010 with a third in an optional claimer on the Gulfstream dirt Feb. 12. Switched to the turf for the first time for a five-furlong optional test in Hallandale Mar. 17, the Whitham homebred filled out the trifecta once more, and she was the 2-1 favorite in her second attempt on the weeds. Ivory Empress pressed the pace from third, took over in the stretch and was very lucky to get to the wire a neck in front of Qeyaada (Elusive Quality). ETC Numbers Up for Third Straight Year:

Experts in the Commonwealth of Kentucky report that for a third straight year, the numbers of eastern tent caterpillars are up, though populations vary by location. According to Lee Townsend, an entomologist for the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, now is the time for farm managers to check wild cherry and related trees for eastern tent caterpillar activity. "The tents are easy to see now," Townsend said. "Many of the small nests out on limbs have been abandoned because caterpillars have moved to larger tents at branch angles on the main trunks." From the time full-grown larvae are seen in the third week of April through early May, caterpillars will leave the trees and disperse, making them much more difficult to control and monitor. Eastern tent caterpillars are widely linked to the outbreak of Mare Reproductive Loss Syndrome (MRLS) in Kentucky in 2001-2002, which resulted in the loss of roughly 30 percent of that year's Thoroughbred foal crop and exacted a $336-million economic impact on the commonwealth.

Comedero has been beaten just once in his career. The bay took two at Louisiana Downs in easy fashion last fall, then shipped to Fair Grounds to make it three-for-three in the Nov. 7 Old Hickory S. The wheels came off when he was stretched to a mile for the Dec. 13 Springboard S. at Remington Park, and he hit the line with just one horse behind him, but the bay rebounded with a win in the Feb. 27 Mountain Valley S. at Oaklawn. He came into this test off a 10-length romp over fellow Arky-breds in the Mar. 28 Rainbow S. in Hot Springs. The heavy chalk to add to his resume here, Comedero stalked the pace from second, gained the lead when ready and needed little encouragement to pull away to another easy score. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The chestnut was pre-entered for the Breeders' Cup, but was withdrawn due to a fever, then missed the entire 2009 season, breezing once over the summer before being sent back to the farm. Always traveling strongly at the rear of this small field, he made smooth headway from the quarter pole and squeezed through the pack along the rail to record a comfortable score under minimal urging.
