Triple Threats

JACKSON BEND WORKS BULLET

Jacks or Better Farm and Robert LaPenta's Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil), who remains on the bubble to qualify for the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby, turned in a bullet five-furlong work yesterday at Churchill Downs. The bay colt completed the drill in 1:00.00, the fastest of 19 at the distance, turning in fractions of :11.80,

Reed Palmer

:23.40, :35 and :47.20. He galloped out six furlongs in 1:14.20. "He went very, very well--we were happy with him," trainer Nick Zito reported. Jackson Bend worked in company with stablemate Thomas Got Even (Stephen Got Even), who was credited with a four-furlong work in :47.80. Runner-up in both the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S. and GI Wood Memorial, Jackson Bend currently stands 22nd on the graded-earnings list. "We'll see if he gets in," Zito said. "If not, we'll just have to go on to the GI Preakness [May 15]. But I would think he's got a pretty good shot to get in." LaPenta and Zito also have GI Florida Derby winner Ice Box (Pulpit) in the Derby.

Weather an Issue

A bevy of Derby hopefuls are scheduled to work Saturday at Churchill, but the forecast for heavy rains are causing many to reconsider. Trainer Mike Maker has moved up works for Dean's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) and Stately Victor (Ghostzapper) to today, and Dale Romans has done the same with Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}). John Sadler said a Saturday work for Sidney's Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) may be postponed until Sunday. "I'm pretty much set for Saturday, but if the weather gets real bad and the work changes, it would be the other way of Sunday and not a day ahead on Friday," Sadler explained. Todd Pletcher will keep an eye on the weather with his Derby brigade still scheduled to work Saturday. "Hopefully we'll be able to get most of them in Saturday morning," Pletcher said. Pletcher added that GI Toyota Blue Grass fourth-place finisher Interactif (Broken Vow) was still considered possible for the Derby. "He is going to work this weekend and, if he works lights out, we will talk about it." Cont. p2

LADY SHAKESPEARE BEWITCHES

Lady Shakespeare (Theatrical {Ire}) surged past pacesetter Changing Skies (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) with a furlong to run and drew clear to a 2 1/2-length victory in yesterday's GIII Grey Goose Bewitch S. at Keeneland. Favored against six rivals, Lady Shakespeare was under a snug hold as she stalked pacesetter Changing Skies through pedestrian fractions. Shaken up on the final bend and into the straight, the chestnut filly engaged the pacesetter in upper stretch and spurted clear late for her first graded stakes victory. "Once I got her running--once she switched to her right lead and she started running really well--I knew I had them," said winning rider John Velazquez. Trainer Roger Attfield said he was finally able to get his charge's preferred firm turf. "Every time we entered her, we got a lot of rain, so I had to keep scratching her because she doesn't like real soft turf, which is what she showed in the Queen Elizabeth here," Attfield said. "She'll win a Grade I, don't you worry." Cont. p2

Lady Shakespeare, winner of last year's Ontario Colleen S. at Woodbine, ended her 2009 campaign with a fifth-place finish, promoted to fourth, in the Oct. 17 GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup over this course. She was narrowly beaten when runner-up in a pair of Gulfstream stakes events to begin the year. The homebred missed by just a head in the Jan. 16 Marshua's River S. and was short by that same margin in the Mar. 28 Gill Orchid S. last time out. Churchill Introduces Safety From Start to Finish Churchill Downs Inc. has unveiled its safety initiatives for the 2010 Kentucky Oaks and Derby. In March 2009, the organization created Safety from Start to Finish, a comprehensive initiative to increase safety for horses and people at all four CDI tracks. Initiatives in place for this year's Classics include independent, standardized third-party testing of track surfaces; supertesting on all winning horses for more than 100 performance-enhancing drugs for every race; the banning of steroids and milkshaking, banning of unsafe horseshoes, the use of low-impact riding whips; the presence of on-site medical personnel and equipment and state-of-the-art equine ambulances; $1 million in catastrophic injury insurance coverage for jockeys; mandatory reporting of equine injuries to the Equine Injury Database System; and inspection of all horses by regulatory veterinarians prior to and following all races. In addition, beginning this year, CDI will fund research on a track water truck which would use moisture sensors and GPS capability to determine the moisture content of various parts of the track and would be able to alter the application of water in real time to improve the consistency of the racing surface.

Classic Corner

AL ZIR LIKELY FOR GUINEAS

Godolphin's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Al Zir (Medaglia d'Oro) looks set to appear in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas next Saturday. Third in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in October, the dark bay will get another crack at that race's first and second St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Elusive Pimpernel (Elusive Quality) in the mile Classic if he continues to please connections. "Al Zir has had a good winter and is pretty straight at the moment, so he's a likely contender," racing manager Simon Crisford said.

Al Zir after selling for $1.6 million at FTFFEB in 2009
Horsephotos

"He certainly gives the impression he's stronger this year, but he doesn't really fill his frame, and I don't think he ever will--he's just one of those horses. He is very well-balanced for such a tall horse, and the dips and cambers at Newmarket aren't going to bother him. We think a mile and a quarter will be well within his compass, as he lengthens more than quickens." Crisford also revealed that the operation's two other remaining entries Poet's Voice (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Buzzword (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) were still in the mix, although the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 16 is an alternative option for the former.

Hibaayeb for 1000...

Godolphin are pointing last year's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Hibaayeb (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) at next Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, it was confirmed yesterday. Transferred from the Clive Brittain yard after that highlight at Ascot in September, she will take in the mile Classic en route to the June 4 G1 Epsom Oaks, according to racing manager Simon Crisford. "She's done very well and the plan would be to run her in the Guineas," Crisford commented. "She's more than likely to go a bit further in due course, but the Guineas is a very good Oaks trial, if not the best one, so we're very happy to let her take her chance at Newmarket."

PRECOCITY - 4 consecutive wins over 8f. as a 2-y-o including Criterium International-Gr.1 (PICTURED), Prix Thomas Bryon-Gr.3 & Criterium de Lyon-L.R.

PEDIGREE - By Kingmambo. A half-brother to 4-time Gr.1 winner Peeping Fawn. Closely related to the brilliant Rags To Riches, leading sires El Gran Senor, Redoute's Choice etc.

The Way You Are

"The way you are was a really masculine colt with a beautiful action. What impressed me most about him was that he had great speed for a horse with such a fine Classic pedigree."

Defending champion Presvis will break from post six in his bid to bounce back from a Dubai disappointment. After winning the G2 Jebel Hatta at Meydan Mar. 4, the bay gelding failed to fire in the G1 Dubai Duty Free over that course Mar. 27 and wound up 11th. Christophe-Patrice Lemaire rode him on Dubai World Cup night, but Ryan Moore, who piloted Presvis in the Jebel Hatta, will be back in the irons Sunday. "It's good that we have Ryan Moore back on board," said Charlie Hanson, trainer Luca Cumani's head lad. "Ryan knows him best--he gets the best tune out of him. The competition is probably tougher this year, but there is no reason why he can't win it again."

Presvis Dodges a Bullet...

While would-be rivals were unable to travel to the Far East for Sunday's race due to the volcanic ash from the Icelandic eruption, defending race champion Presvis (GB) (Sakhee) did not have to endure any such problems en route to Hong Kong. The six-year-old, who will be making his third start in the former British colony this weekend, had been based in Dubai since his luckless run in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 27. Having arrived this past Tuesday, Presvis was restricted to a canter around Sha Tin yesterday and has settled in well, connections report. "He's very well and very relaxed," said Charlie Henson, Cumani's assistant trainer who is supervising preparations for this year's tilt at the QEII. "We were slightly delayed in Dubai and had to catch a later flight than originally intended. So technically we missed a day's work. But that's no problem. He worked on Sunday, he's travelled very well, and he's absolutely fine." Just one horse has gone back-to-back in the QEII Cup, Japan's Eishin Preston (Green Dancer) in 2002 and 2003.

Dariole ran third in a Nov. 16 newcomers' heat at Fontainebleau, and improved one spot when closing her brief juvenile campaign in a 10-furlong conditions event here eight days later. She returned this term to shed maiden status going 10 furlongs in another conditions race here last time Apr. 9, and overcame an outside draw to take this Classic trial. Positioned in second after the initial exchanges, the bay filly eased into a slender lead passing the quarter-mile marker and came under a late drive to withstand the closing bids of dead-headers A Media Luz and Middle Club. "Dariole hasn't stopped improving and she won quite safely today," commented trainer Pascal Bary. "She has now compiled a good record for a filly bought for just €10,000 at a dispersal sale, at which time she was still unbroken. She may run next in the [G1] Prix Saint-Alary [at Longchamp May 23], where she doesn't currently hold an entry, but there's a strong possibility we will supplement her for that race." Dariole's dam was runner-up in this event in 2002. Click for the Racing Post chart. raised or sold since 2000...

“When considering a consignor, I think a proven producer of raising or selling racehorses has to be a key factor. We are proud of our record of ‘raising or selling’, 25 G1 winners (six Breeders’ Cup winners) since 2000.

With the May 3rd deadline approaching for the Keeneland September sale, we welcome the opportunity to inspect your yearling sale candidates or discuss their future.”

LIMEHOUSE FILLY TOPS OBS APRIL A filly by Limehouse proved far and away the most popular offering at the four-day OBS April Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training, selling yesterday for $500,000 to the bid of Mark Casse, agent. The juvenile zipped a quarter mile in :20 2/5, co-fastest at the sale's under tack preview last Friday. Consigned by Craig Wheeler, agent for the Hobeau Farm dispersal, she is out of Deputy Delight (French Deputy) and is a half-sister to multiple graded stakes winner Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris). Limehouse, whose first foals are now three, was also responsible for the day's second-highest priced lot. A son of the Vinery stallion sold for $200,000 to Sagamore Farm, Bob Feld, agent. The colt, a $7,000 FTKOCT yearling, is out of Cukee (Langfuhr), a half-sister to stakes winner Lucy's Luck (Bounding Basque). Consigned by Alexandra de Meric and Brandon Rice, he worked a quarter in :20 4/5. During yesterday's fourth and final session of the auction, OBS sold 160 horses for a gross of $4,983,300. The session average of $31,146 was up 27.3 percent from last year's corresponding figure, while the median rose 23.3 percent to $18,500. Through four sessions, 739 two-year-olds grossed $20,754,400. The average rose 13 percent to $28,084 and the median rose 33.3 percent to $20,000.

BREEDERS' CUP BOARD MEETS The Breeders' Cup Board of Directors met yesterday for its regularly scheduled April meeting. The board continued to debate potential options for future sites of the Breeders' Cup championships, but no final determination was made, according to notes released after the meeting. During the meeting, the board authorized a $100 (20-percent) discount for all 2010 foals nominated online to the Breeders' Cup program by Aug. 1. A report from the Finance and Audit Committee revealed that Breeders' Cup net assets declined by less than $1.1 million in 2009. There was a $5-million decline in nominations revenue, but those losses were offset by other operations revenue and investments. "Decreasing nominations revenue is the result of lower bloodstock values and smaller foal crops driven by the larger economy and consolidation in our industry," said Breeders' Cup President and CEO Greg Avioli. "As all organizations must do from time to time, we have to adapt and find ways to generate the resources necessary to fulfill our mission." The board also approved its 2010 budget, which includes over $30 million in Breeders' Cup purse funding and $4.25 million in additional purses for Breeders' Cup nominated horses in the U.S. and internationally through the Breeders' Cup Challenge and Stakes programs.

"In a year where we are projecting less than $12 million in total nominations revenues, it is rewarding to be able to provide over $30 million in purses," Avioli added. "Our ability to do so is a direct result of the successful expansion of the championships over the past few years."

DEL MAR STAKES TOP $7 MILLION IN 2010 The Del Mar stakes schedule will be worth $7.1 million in 2010. The oceanside oval's signature GI Pacific Classic will once again boast a $1-million purse because of a sponsorship deal with TVG. The Pacific Classic, presented by TVG, is slated for Aug. 28. TVG will also have exclusive broadcasting rights on Del Mar's races. "We are delighted we were able to maintain our million-dollar purse on the Pacific Classic and we salute the folks at TVG for helping us to make it happen," said Del Mar's executive vice president for racing and industry relations/racing secretary, Tom Robbins. "We did have to trim back some of our stakes as we adjust purses in our current environment, but all in all, I'm proud of the fact that we didn't lose any of our principal races and are looking forward to another successful summer." In the juvenile division, the $250,000 GI Del Mar Futurity returns to its traditional closing day slot on Sept. 8; the $250,000 GI Darley Debutante will be run Sept. 4. Other Grade I events on the stakes schedule are the $300,000 GI Eddie Read S. July 24; $250,000 GI Bing Crosby S. Aug. 1; $300,000 GI Clement L Hirsch S. Aug. 7; the $300,000 GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 21; and the $300,000 GI Pat O'Brien S. Aug. 28. All of Del Mar's overnight stakes have been reduced by $10,000 to $75,000 each. Del Mar's 71st season runs from July 21 through Sept. 8, with racing Wednesday through Sunday.

MARENZIO (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--Bella Bellucci {MGSW & MGISP, $511,820}, by French Deputy) was sixth at 38-1 odds in his debut over Santa Anita's Pro-Ride Feb. 5. He was beaten 1 3/4 lengths in an improved fourth-place effort there Mar. 5 while running under Mike McCarthy's name at 18-1, and was the solid 8-5 choice heading east. Content to rate well back in fourth as part of a strung out field, the chestnut made an eye-catching move on the far turn to catch and pass the tiring pacesetter and was never threatened down the lane, scoring by four lengths on the line. EIGHTTOFASTTOCATCH (g, 4, Not For Love--Too Fast to Catch {SP}, by Nice Catch), a $47,000 FTMOCT yearling, won a NW1X at Laurel on the main track last September and concluded his season with a tired fourth in a grassy NW2X there Oct. 12. The 13-1 outsider was put on the front and set modest :24 1/5, :50 and 1:15 1/5 splits under a red-hot Edgar Prado, who took five races on yesterday's card. The pair were confront by the returning Into My Soul (Pleasantly Perfect) in earnest in the lane, but dug in gamely to best that foe by 3/4 lengths. Sent off as the 2-1 third choice in this short-but-contentious four-horse field, the Gold Square colorbearer pressed Storm on the Moon (Stormy Atlantic) early and took command on the turn, then inched away to prevail by 2 1/4 lengths. Favored Triple A. Rating (Value Plus) was in a good stalking position early, but couldn't match strides down the lane and was overtaken in the dying strides by Storm on the Moon, switched wide, for place honors. "Very professional," is how jockey Edgar Prado described the effort. "I was very happy with the way he responded. He impressed me. I think he'll go farther." Toby Sheets, assistant to winning trainer Steve Asmussen, added, "I want to thank the owners for just giving us the time to let us do the right thing by the horse. He had been training super up to the race, but he just needed some time." Al Gold, the colt's owner, said he had no immediate plans for Rule by Night, other than to "keep on winning." He drifted out just a tad nearing the quarter pole, allowing foes to challenge from both the inside and outside, but he kept on finding more down the lane and held 3-4 choice Sea of Liquidity (Friends Lake) safe by a neck. Churchill Officials to Ring Wall Street's Opening Bell:

Churchill Downs officials will kick off its 136th spring meeting by ringing the opening bell at the NASDAQ Stock Market. CDI Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer William Mudd and CDI Corporate Controller Phil Milliner will participate in the opening bell ceremony today at 9:30 a.m. "We are excited to open the NASDAQ Stock Market on Friday, highlighting the opening of the Churchill Downs Racetrack meet on Saturday, with the Kentucky Oaks and the Kentucky Derby only one week away," Mudd said. "As the excitement builds in Louisville and throughout the country, it's easy to see why the Kentucky Derby, the longest running, continuously held sporting event in the United States, is the greatest two minutes in sports and we are proud to share the Kentucky Derby experience with fans everywhere, with the help of our partners at NASDAQ." Friday will mark the seventh time Churchill Downs Inc. has opened the stock market. It has been listed on the NASDAQ for 17 years.

Budweiser Renews Churchill Sponsorship Deal:

Budweiser Select will remain the official beer sponsor of Churchill Downs, the Kentucky Derby and Oaks through 2011. The low-calorie American light lager will also remain the presenting sponsor for Friday's Happy Hours at Churchill Downs. "The Kentucky Derby has proven a good fit for Budweiser Select, allowing us to connect with contemporary adult beer drinkers who enjoy a great-tasting light beer during a beautiful day at the track or a fun-filled night in Louisville," said Greg Billmeyer, vice president Trademark Brands, Anheuser-Busch, Inc. "The Derby remains one of the country's premiere sporting events and it gives us marketing and promotional opportunities at the local, regional and national levels."

JURY OUT AT NEWMARKET Mark Johnston yesterday announced that he intends to run TDN Rising Star  Jukebox Jury (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in next Saturday's G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket. He disappointed when 15th in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan Mar. 27, and last year's G1 Preis Von Europa winner and G1 Canadian International runner-up will bid to get back on track in the mile-and-a-half contest. "Jukebox Jury will run principally as a preparation for the Coronation Cup at Epsom, because we felt that last year he took two or three runs to come to his best, and we were clearly disappointed with his first run this year in Dubai," Johnston explained. "There was no physical reason for the way he ran at Meydan, and that is why we have looked back at 2009--he ran very badly first time last year as well, so possibly it is not sensible to give him such a big gap to the Coronation Cup, hence we will run him in the Jockey Club S."

STRATEGIC COLT TOP INGLIS MELBOURNE AUTUMN OPENER A full-brother to Group 3 winner Desuetude (Aus) (Strategic {Aus}) topped yesterday's opening session of the Inglis Melbourne Autumn Yearling Sale when going for A$65,000 to the account of Edwards Elkington Racing. The grey colt, a son of the Unbridled's Song mare Martella (Aus), was consigned by Darley as lot 178. Of the 217 yearlings offered, 172 exchanged hands for a clearance rate of 79 percent. The average was A$12,765 and the median was A$8,500, an improvement on 2009, when the average was A$9,128 and the median was A$7,000. "We are very pleased with that opening session result today," said Inglis Director Peter Heagney. "Horses that were well-prepared and well-presented sold extremely well, and there was international competition from New Zealand, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore and Macau. In saying that, there was still some good buying and that will continue into tomorrow's second session." Selling gets underway today at 10:30 a.m. Complete results are available on www.inglis.com.au.
