NO SUN TO SHINE ON THE OLD KENTUCKY HOME

There's some wild weather in store for Louisville, and Friday's sunshine will be a distant memory by the time they start singing "My Old Kentucky Home." Rain will be moving into the area overnight, and is scheduled to become very heavy by first post. National Weather Service officials addressed the media Friday afternoon. "We expect a period of showers and thunderstorms to develop in the local area by around 10 a.m., and for it to last about three or four hours," said Joe Ammerman of the NWS. "We expect about an inch of rain from that, though certain locations could get more. Then, from the 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. timeframe, we are looking at scattered showers, or some light rain, and there could be an isolated thunderstorm as well." Contradicting some reports, Ammerman added, "We're not looking for any severe weather during the day. Thunderstorms in the morning could produce winds of around 40 miles per hour, and we expect southerly winds at around 15 to 20 miles an hour in the afternoon. The heavy rainfall shouldn't hit until after midnight." Churchill officials, who are still expecting a crowd of about 150,000, indicated that, short of a tornado warning, people would likely not need to evacuate the infield. Though heavy rain could produce flooding in the underground tunnel that leads from the grandstand to the infield, track personnel said the tunnel typically drains quickly under such circumstances. The lighting system installed by Churchill last year will enable the race to be safely lit in the event it is delayed significantly. The 2009 Derby, contested under dark skies and over a sloppy track, was won by the 50-1 Mine That Bird (Birdstone), and a similar scenario could be in the cards once more. "Any time the track gets like that, every longshot has a chance," said trainer Bob Baffert, who will saddle morning-line favorite Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) and expected pacesetter Conveyance (Indian Charlie) this afternoon. But the Hall of Famer quipped, "The gray horse won't be eating any mud--he'll be gone." Field p7

BEST TO BE LUCKY AND GOOD

The 2009 renewal of the G1 Kentucky Oaks saw record 20 1/4-length margin of victory, but it was the opposite end of the spectrum on yesterday's sunsplashed afternoon, with pink-silked Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) winning by a whisker over a valiant Evening Jewel (Northern Fleet). "I knew she was going to kick in for me and show me that run," said winning rider Rafael Bejarano. "The stretch here is very long, but she kept trying hard until the end and never stopped. She's amazing." Cont. p2-3

RACHEL OUTRIVALED IN LA TROIENNE

Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) turned for home with the lead over Unrivalled Belle (Unbridled's Song) in the GII La Troienne S. at Churchill yesterday, and fans were treated to a battle royal. Unrivalled Belle went stride-for-stride with the champ down the stretch and finally got her grey head in front in the shadow of the wire. "Oh, man, my mare was breathing fire today," said winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "I feel like the mouse that stole the cheese." Cont. p3-4

Blind Luck, denied a champion's crown when she finished third by 3/4 of a length in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in November, confirmed her standing as the nation's top three-year-old filly with this last-gasp score over Evening Jewel. After closing out 2009 with a seven-length triumph in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 20, the chestnut denied Evening Jewel by a nose in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 13, but couldn't overcome a questionable ride by Rafael Bejarano in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 6 and wound up third, a half-length behind Crisp (El Corredor). Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer opted to test her on conventional dirt and shipped her to Hot Springs for the GI Fantasy S. Apr. 2. She kicked off the Racing Festival of the South with an impressive win at Oaklawn, and many wondered whether she shouldn't face the boys in the GI Kentucky Derby, especially after early favorite Eskendereya (Giant's Causeway) was withdrawn from consideration last Sunday. Cont. p3

Breaking from the five hole, Blind Luck assumed her usual spot as the caboose, with Fantasy runner-up Tidal Pool doing the honors up front through splits of :23.95 and :48.15. The favorite made eye-catching progress while taking the overland route on the far turn, and entered the stretch six wide. Evening Jewel took over in front of the stands and Blind Luck still had three lengths to make up at the eighth pole, but the pink-silked filly collared her dead-game rival with a final surge, and got the nod. "It was tense enough for a few minutes waiting, but I thought we got it on the head-bob, and we were right," said trainer Jerry Hollendorfer after winning his third Kentucky Oaks.

"A great ride by Rafael got her there. When I bought her, I paid way more than the $40,000 claiming price, so we always anticipated she would be a stakes horse. She's delivered." It was an agonizing defeat for Evening Jewel's connections. "Oh, man, that was hard," said trainer Jim Cassidy. "Toughest beat of my career--no question. I've been beaten some dirty noses in Grade 1s at other tracks, but given the context here--Kentucky Oaks, all that money, huge crowd, this was the toughest one of all." Fourth in the GII La Canada S. on the Santa Anita synthetic Feb. 14, she got back on track with a wire-to-wire score in Gulfstream's GIII Rampart H. Mar. 20, and was the third choice to the prohibitive choice here.

Rachel Alexandra, famously upended by Zardana (Brz) (Crimson Tide {Ire}) in her 2010 opener in the New Orleans Ladies S. at Fair Grounds Mar. 13, came out of the gate smoothly and settled on the hip of Be Fair (Exchange Rate) as that filly showed the way around the clubhouse turn. After a :24.79 opening quarter, Rachel had her distinctive head in front through a :48.81 while racing in the three path, and looked to be moving right along with it through the far turn. But, just like that, it turned into a horse race. Unrivaled Belle, having raced in third from the start, was given her cue by Kent Desormeaux and moved quickly to the favorite's throatlatch. Rachel was a bit late switching leads and dug in gamely along the inside, but the grey had too many guns for her rival, and finally got on top in the final strides. "I told Mr. Vegso [co-owner Peter Vegso] to expect that we'd run well, but not that we were going to win," Mott said after the race. "But here we are. My filly ran huge. She just ran great. And I don't think it was that the other mare ran poorly--she ran her race, too. We just outdid her. They were eyeball to eyeball there, and my filly got her." Rachel's rider Calvin Borel didn't speak to reporters afterwards, but trainer Steve Asmussen offered, "She's just not been as fast as last summer. She ran a good race, but not a great race. She does carry a lot more weight. Calvin did absolutely nothing wrong today. I thought he got along with her great. There's an old adage in racing: You get paid for what you do, but you pay for what you do. I think there's some hangover. What we have to realize is there has been improvement since her last race. We don't need a knee-jerk reaction. The defeat last time put a lot of pressure on." Co-owner Jess Jackson later confirmed, "She's not going to retire." THE ELUSIVE ONE

Despite a distinguished training career boasting nine domestic Classics, John Dunlop has yet to add Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas to his tally, but the longstanding master of Arundel may finally have the material in Elusive Pimpernel (Elusive Quality). Something of a slow-burner so far, the Windflower Overseas Holdings homebred presented a powerful argument for his claims when surging to a four-length success in the G3 Craven S. over this track and trip on his sophomore bow last time Apr. 15. That tour de force served notice to connections of his comprehensive G1 Racing Post Trophy conqueror St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) that he had not stood still over the six-month period since that Doncaster contest. His trainer was analyzing how it could be done earlier this week. "There are three things which give me hope: the day he was beaten at Doncaster it was very soft, which didn't suit him," Dunlop told the Mail. "And he does like a strongly run race, which he didn't get there. Those two factors can be improved on. In addition, he has developed particularly well from two to three. He is now a lovely-looking horse and has a marvellous attitude."

A Leap Of Faith...

With three editions of this historic prize in the bag, the Richard Hannon team at East Everleigh have a keen eye for the kind of colt needed to make the breakthrough here. After the trainer had labeled Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) the best he had handled after his authoritative victory over Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) in the G2 Coventry S. over six furlongs at Royal Ascot, two subsequent defeats have hardly served to justify that statement.

Richard Hannon Despite his third in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville in August and runner-up effort to stable companion Dick Turpin (Ire) (Arakan) in Newbury's G3 Greenham S. on his three-year-old return Apr. 17--where on both occasions he drifted left under pressure--Hannon is sticking to his story. "We still don't know why Canford Cliffs repeatedly hangs to his left, but I am glad that he is drawn four rather than 19, as [Richard] Hughesie will be able to bury him in the pack near the stand's rail," he said. "Obviously, it was a bit of a shock being beaten in the Greenham, but you'd have to say that had he kept straight he would have won and, though he has been working lazily all spring, he came alive last Sunday morning when working with Stan Moore's Prix de l'Abbaye winner Total Gallery (Ire), and Hughesie got off him with a grin as wide as the Liffey. He had been showing that sparkle before Ascot last year, so it was good to see him produce the same sort of zest." Dick Turpin has to bury the recent hoodoo of Greenham winners to go on to success here, with Rodrigo de Triano the last to use that prep as a springboard when bettering his fourth at Newbury with glory here in 1992. Hannon is pitching him in against his much-lauded stable companion once again, and he appears less than confident that it will pay off. "If he were mine, maybe I would have waited for the French Guineas as, he does enjoy a dig in the ground, but John Manley, who owns him, wants to go to Newmarket and maybe then on to The Curragh, so that is fine by me," he added. "Any rain that they get up there has to be a bonus and if it comes he won't be far away."

Best Is Yet to Come...

When it comes to dark horses, few come in a deeper shade than Margaret Findlay and Ben and Guy Sangster's once-raced Inler (Ire) (Red Ransom), a John Best trainee who has been causing a stir all spring. With just a six-furlong maiden success to his name over this course in October, the exciting prospect is set for a baptism of fire, but his conditioner is hoping he can translate his homework on the big occasion. "Inler is moving beautifully and looks an absolute picture," Best commented. "Everything has gone 100 percent--the only thing that I wish was that he had had one run beforehand, but I wasn't going to run him in a trial so close to the race. A bit of rain won't bother me, and if we are there or thereabouts, you won't see many people happier than me." Best also has the similarly unexposed Elsbeth's Boy (Tiznow) to go to war with and he has just a seven-furlong Wolverhampton maiden win in November to recommend him. "Elsbeth's Boy has come on so much in the last month that he's not that far behind Inler now, so it wouldn't be the biggest shock in the world if he finished in front of him."

Getting Zirious...

Godolphin's last Guineas winner was Island Sands (Ire) (Turtle Island {Ire}) 11 years ago, and the operation is double-handed this time. ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Al Zir (Medaglia d'Oro) is the number one, but, despite his obvious potential, has ground to make up on St Nicholas Abbey and Elusive Pimpernel on the form of the Racing Post Trophy. That was his first real test, and he can be expected to improve, while Mahmood Al Zarooni's first Classic representative Buzzword (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is more exposed despite some solid juvenile form. That included a defeat of Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp in September, a subsequent third in that track's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere the following month and fifth in the Nov. 7 GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. "Al Zir has had a really good winter, but he's going to need lots of tricks up his sleeve if he is going to turn the tables on St Nicholas Abbey and Elusive Pimpernel, who are top-class colts," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented yesterday."

Fire fight

Samantha Siegel, with her father Mace, campaigns ARSON SQUAD for Jay Em Ess Stable. Samantha and her team found ARSON SQUAD in 2004 at our red-hot Kentucky July Yearling Sale. His graded stakes win at Churchill Downs on Oaks Day raised his earnings to nearly $1.1 million! click for video

This edition has an open look to it, with several unexposed types bidding to upstage proven group performers. One such is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Rumoush, who bids to provide her dam Sarayir (Mr. Prospector) with back-to-back renewals following the exploits of Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway) 12 months ago. Like that fellow descendant of the great Height of Fashion (Fr), Rumoush has taken a low-key path to this Classic. Off the mark only in November on Lingfield's Polytrack, the homebred took a giant stride forward when capturing the Listed Feilden S. over a panel further here last time Apr. 14 and has not stopped progressing at home in the interim. "Rumoush came back and won well over a mile and a furlong this season and we were originally feeling that she was more an Oaks filly," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Angus Gold explained. "Sheikh Hamdan looked at the tapes again and felt that she might have more speed than we thought, being a half-sister to last year's 1000 Guineas winner Ghanaati. Therefore, we have decided to run her, and we hope that she might have the speed for the mile." Trainer Marcus Tregoning added, "She is mentally sharper now and is physically fine. It's the first Classic of the year, and she deserves to take her chance." Also in the Shadwell livery is the Ed Dunlop-trained Habaayib, who was a neck second to Puff (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) in the Listed Fred Darling S. at Newbury last time Apr. 17. "She lost her way a bit at the end of last season, but she is going well now and we are hoping that she stays a mile," Gold continued. "She looks like a good second string." Special Duty is currently holding on to favoritism, but the cracks may be appearing following her latest third in the G3 Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte on her return Apr. 8. Khalid Abdullah's G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine has yet to prove she can last beyond sprint trips, but the fellow French-trained Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) prevailed here off the back of a win in that six-furlong juvenile contest two years ago. Trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek, who has saddled three winners, is in guarded mood regarding the homebred's stamina. "We are not sure she will get the mile," she told PA Sport. "From what I have seen so far, she has been doing everything I've wanted her to do. There are a lot of runners, but that is good because they'll go faster and maybe she'll be able to wait behind."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Warrior's Reward endured six straight losses following his win a year ago, but has been perfect in a pair of seven-panel starts this year, and won't be inconvenienced by the likelihood of rain. Musket Man's trainer, Derek Ryan, thinks he can turn the tables on the Carter conqueror. "I'd love to get a clean trip this time," he told Daily Racing Form. "The horse has trained super since that last race, and an off track wouldn't bother him. I'm hoping to win and expecting to win." If the rains do come, Munnings is almost certain to pull out. This contest also fields defending titleist Accredit, as well as MGSW Kensei--a half-brother to GI Kentucky Derby favorite Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike)--whose only appearance this year was a bang-up second to Cash Refund (Petionville) in a stakes at Fair Grounds Mar. 27.

Hot Cha Cha, a rousing winner of the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup over soft ground at Keeneland Oct. 17, closed out 2009 with a fourth as the favorite in the GII Mrs. Revere S. over this course Nov. 14. In her seasonal opener, the dark bay rallied for third behind the talented duo of Wasted Tears (Najran) and Forever Together (Belong to Me) in the GII Jenny Wiley S. in Lexington Apr. 10. Defending champion Tizaqueena went winless in her next five tries, including a 3/4-length loss to Diamondrella in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland Oct. 10, but got back on track with two scores in the Big Easy. The Darley colorbearer comes in off a score in the nine-furlong Bayou H. at Fair Grounds Mar. 26. Diamondrella, a two-time Grade I winner last season, was a troubled 11th in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 7 in her final appearance for Angel Penna Jr. Turned over to jockey-turned-trainer-turned-television personality Gary Stevens, the bay ran third in the GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood Nov. 28, then followed that with a fifth in the GII San Gorgonio H. Jan. 2. She was a desultory 10th in the GI Santa Monica H. on Santa Anita's Pro-Ride Jan. 31, and is now trained by Jim Corrigan for SF Racing.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Hot Dixie Chick looks to carry her win streak to five following a facile 5 3/4-length victory in the Prima Donna S. over a wet-fast track at Oaklawn Mar. 20. She will go a half-furlong farther than she ever has before and faces the only horse to ever beat her. Westrock Stables' Decelerator finished a half-length in front of the GI Spinaway S. and GIII Schuylerville S. winner in the pair's five-furlong debut last May in the slop at Churchill Downs. Decelerator might keep her old nemesis honest on the front-end. She took the Instant Racing S. wire-to-wire at Oaklawn on Apr. 10 to compile a 4-2-1-0 record so far in 2010. Sister Resistor makes her first start for trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. after an off-the-board effort as the favorite at Turfway in the Valdale S. Feb. 20. She was two-for-two at a mile on dirt for previous conditioner Ken McPeek.

Successful in the G3 Prix du Lys at Chantilly last June, that former Andre Fabre trainee was an encouraging third behind Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the G3 John Porter S. over this trip at Newbury last time Apr. 17. Trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni commented, "I think that Claremont has a good chance in Saturday's race--he is looking well. He ran a good race at Newbury and I am hopeful that he can improve on that run. A mile and a half suits him well and he goes to Newmarket in good order." Mick Channon saddles last year's Bosphorus Cup scorer Halicarnassus, who needs to improve off a latest 10th in the John Porter.

This fascinating renewal, which more than upstages Newmarket's Jockey Club S. despite sharing its status with that race, features the comeback of the 2009 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winners Silver Frost and Elusive Wave, respectively. Both have a cloud over them, with the former having been injured when a latest sixth in Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois in August, while Elusive Wave refused at the start of the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September. They will also need to be near their best to deal with last year's one-two Vertigineux and Gris de Gris. The latter had Vertigineux back in fifth when annexing the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc over this track and trip on his latest outing Apr. 4 and also bids for a second renewal, having captured it in 2008.

All carry 128 pounds.

Another open-looking Classic, with last year's G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Neon Light bidding to maintain her unbeaten run for the Andreas Wohler stable. Also perfect at present is Ronja. She has the advantage of race-fitness, having won twice this season, and holds second Kinky Afro and third Reine Heureuse on the form of her Listed Henkel-Stutenpreis over course and distance last time Apr. 11. Vanjura is an intriguing contender, having given the subsequent G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third and G3 Dr Busch-Memorial winner Zazou (Ger) (Shamardal) a race in a seven-furlong conditions event on her latest outing at Baden-Baden in October.

Last year's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye winner Total Gallery returns under a stiff eight-pound penalty due to his exploits in that Longchamp feature on Arc day. Subsequently sixth in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin in December, the four-year-old's trainer Stan Moore is looking forward to getting him back on track again. "He has had one piece of work away from home and he is in as good form, as you could expect for his first run," he said. "His main aim is the [June 15] G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot, so he will improve for the run on Saturday. Having said that, he is certainly in good enough order to do himself justice and I think he will take a bit of beating." Last year's Palace House winner Amour Propre was last seen finishing sixth behind Borderlescott in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August and has to make up for lost time.

The only horse to win the Irish Champion S.-Gr.1 TWICE.

Dylan Thomas beats Ouija Board in 2006 (PICTURED) and in 2007 he beat Duke of Marmalade

“He was bred to be a good horse - by a champion stallion out of a mare who has already thrown a top performer in Queen's Logic - and DYLAN THOMAS fully lived up to expectations.... Add to that fine looks and Danehill's record as a sire of sires, and you have the perfect credentials for a stallion”

Thoroughbred Owner & Breeder, Dec 07

“His first foals were born this year and will surely add to the Danehill legend if they inherit their sire's durability and great will to win.” Source: Andrew Caulfield, TDN, 25th Sept. 2009

Dylan Thomas

Won 10 races and over €5m from 2-4 yrs over 7-12f. including 6 Gr.1's.

Doubles Partner finished up the track in each of his first three tries on the main surfaces at Saratoga, Belmont and Keeneland, but, switched to this turf course, got up in the last jump to graduate at 15-1 Nov. 28. He doubled up in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 17, defeating the highly regarded Lentenor (Dynaformer) and Saint Eligius (Saint Liam), and the decision was made to go back to Polytrack for the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Mar. 27. Forwardly placed early, the bay faded to finish eighth of nine, and it was grass court time once more. He settled on the hedge in fifth as Lost Aptitude (Aptitude) led from Strike the Tiger (Tiger Ridge), and began to advance when Garrett Gomez said "Go!" on the far turn. Doubles Partner entered the stretch in front and held Asphalt at bay to maintain his perfect turf record. "We thought early on he lacked a little focus, but he's a lot more professional and settled now," revealed winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "We tried the Lane's End...but he's just better on the turf. He's stepping up at the right time. At the head of the stretch, he looked like he produced a big kick at the right time. He's a rapidly improving colt, and he has some exciting and big turf races to come on the schedule this summer." Perhaps no horse was victimized more than Arson Squad when the California Horse Racing Board mandated the installation of synthetic racing surfaces back in 2007. From his first 10 starts on conventional dirt at three and four, the gelding won half of those, capped by an impressive score in the GII Strub S. Switched to the East Coast barn of Rick Dutrow after failing to hit the board in seven tries at all three Southern California ovals, he has since experienced a renaissance and yesterday registered his third graded score since October 2008. Winner of the GII Meadowlands Cup H. that season, Arson Squad faced the starter just three times in 2009, concluding with a dead-heat fourth behind Macho Again (Macho Uno) in the GI Stephen Foster H. Off the better part of eight months thereafter, the Pennsylvania-bred resurfaced with a third to Grasshopper (Dixie Union) in a Feb. 3 Gulfstream one-mile allowance, improved to second in Tampa's Challenger S. Mar. 6 and entered this off a convincing 3 3/4-length score in the GIII Skip Away S. in Hallandale Apr. 3. The second choice in a wide-open affair, Arson Squad stalked from the three path as Friesan Fire (A.P. Indy) was engaged by Enriched--Lava Man's younger half-brother--up front. He attacked from that position on the turn, took command in upper stretch and drove clear. "We're going to keep him here and run him in the [GI] Stephen Foster [H. June 12]," said Dutrow. "I told [owner] Sam [Siegel] that if does run big in here, we'll just keep him here and run him in the Stephen Foster because the horse does get along good with this track." Silver Timber improved to five wins from seven tries for these connections, who claimed the New York-bred gelding for $25,000 in April 2009. Victorious in the July 18 GIII Jaipur S. in his second starts in these pink and yellow silks, the gray missed by a neck to fellow Empire-bred Cannonball (Catienus) in the Commentator S. at Saratoga Sept. 6, but bounced back to land the GIII Woodford S. at Keeneland Oct. 10. A midpack sixth at odds of 17-1 in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 7, he got a well-deserved vacation, returning to Lexington to register a neck success in the GIII Shakertown S. Apr. 10. Settled in mid-division as Central City and Starfish Bay (Elusive Quality) dueled through a :21.25 quarter mile and a half in a scorching :43.57.

Asked three wide leaving the far turn, Silver Timber took aim on the frontrunners at midstretch and held off a late surge from defending champion Chamberlain Bridge for the victory. "I got a perfect trip, a very good trip," said winning jockey Julien Leparoux. "My horse had a lot of speed already, and they were very, very fast from the gate so I knew they were going fast, but I was comfortable all the way. I was very happy where I was and the horse is very nice." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Lou Brissie came on late to capture his unveiling at Keeneland Apr. 15, despite rider Robby Albarado dropping his stick, and was the third choice in this five-horse field. John Velazquez was in the irons here. Content to let a speed duel develop up front, the chestnut rallied four wide into the lane and, though he was very green about changing leads, drove past his rivals to maintain his perfect record. "I didn't want to be too far back and have too much dirt hitting him and get discouraged," Velazquez revealed. "Once I got him in the clear at the five-sixteenths pole, he got into a good rhythm and I just kept him there. Down the lane I just had to keep him mind on running. The way his personality is, in the future going longer will be better."

He finished off the board in four attempts in Hallandale, including a fifth-place finish in the grassy Gill Canadian Turf S. Feb. 20 and a well-beaten 10th in the Gill Gulfstream Park H. last time Mar. 13. The dark bay signaled he may be ready to turn it around with a bullet four-furlong move over the Belmont training track in :47 Apr. 28, but wasn't given much respect by the opening-day crowd. Placed in second as Ironman Jon led the way, Le Grand Cru turned up the heat on the turn for home, finally fought his way past the game pacesetter in deep stretch and powered clear for his first victory of the year, leading home a Jerkens exacta. "I didn't think he'd be that big a longshot," trainer Allen Jerkens revealed. "I don't know why he didn't run so well in Florida, but we gave him a rest and he had a couple of real nice works, just great. We'll enjoy this one and see how he comes out of it. But, of course, we will look at the [GI] Met Mile [May 31]." Jimmy Jerkens, trainer of the runner-up added, "Well, if we had to get beat, at least we got beat by the 'Chief.'" Curragh Target for Termagant...

☛ "TDN Rising Star" ☛ Termagant (Ire) (Powerscourt {GB}) was yesterday reported on course for the May 23 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. Ruled out of tomorrow's G1 1000 Guineas after a slow start this year, Joerg Vasicek's G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner will be running for the first time since capturing that August contest. "We are happy with her," trainer Kevin Prendergast said. "She is just starting to come right now. We wanted to run her in the English 1000 Guineas, but she didn't come to hand in time. I don't know whether or not it was as bad in England, but we had a terrible winter here. She did nothing wrong last year and all she has to do is repeat and improve on it and she could be thereabouts. Ideally, she wants good, dry ground but as she showed last year, she can handle soft ground."

GRADES FOR PA RACES REINSTATED The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association's American Graded Stakes Committee has reinstated the grades for the GII Pennsylvania Derby, GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion S. and GIII Presque Isle Downs Masters S. after an agreement was reached with the Pennsylvania Racing Commission. The AGSC had rescinded the races' graded status late last year due to issues with drug testing procedures in the Keystone State. "We are pleased to reach an agreement with Pennsylvania that will permit the reinstatement of the grades to these races, and we thank the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission for taking the administrative actions necessary to make this possible," said Peter Willmott, the committee's chairman. "The goal of the American Graded Stakes Committee's drug testing protocol is to strengthen integrity standards in graded stakes races, a goal which is shared by the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission. To that end, the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission recently announced a directive to implement standard operating procedures for random testing of alkalinizing agents at all Pennsylvania race-tracks. Given Pennsylvania's initiative and willingness to comply with the Committee's standards, we did not want to see the racetracks and participating owners in these three races continue to be harmed. Therefore, we have agreed to reinstate the grades." The winners of the three races in question--Gone Astray (Dixie Union), Careless Jewel (Tapit) and Informed Decision (Monarchos)--all had other graded-stakes wins on their respective resumes. "The Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission is committed to the highest standards of fairness for racing and, through our testing and research laboratory, has internationally recognized expertise in the detection and confirmation of prohibited drugs in horses," said Michael Dillion, the Pennsylvania Racing Commission's acting executive secretary. "We appreciate TOBA's willingness to work with the department to find common ground and applaud the decision to restore the grades to three great Pennsylvania races."

INVINCIBLE SPIRIT COLTS LEAD THE WAY

Locally based agent Dick O'Gorman, a key member of Sheikh Mohammed's sales buying team, signed for the only two six-figure lots at Tattersalls' Guineas Breeze-Up Sale yesterday. Both were sons of Invincible Spirit (Ire), sire of Godolphin's 2009 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner and Tattersalls breeze-up purchase Vale Of York (Ire). The top lot, a 220,000gns colt consigned from Willie Slattery's Meadowview Stables, missed the Craven Breeze-Up Sale after cutting himself, but had plenty of admirers yesterday. Ed Sackville of Kern Lillingston, owner Andrew Tinkler and underbidder David Redvers were among those who showed their interest without success. "He was only here because he couldn't sell at the premier sale and was definitely the nicest horse today," said O'Gorman. "He was on our shortlist after he did his first breeze at the last sale, and he looks a typical Invincible Spirit, a real two-year-old with a sharp pedigree. We'll be alright if he's as good as Vale Of York!" It was a good pinhooking result for Slattery, who had bought the colt for 48,000 euros as a yearling at Goffs in October. O'Gorman, who would only say that his purchases were for "an established client," also paid 100,000gns for an Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt consigned from Tom Whitehead's County Kilkenny-based Powerstown Stud. Norman Steel, an owner with trainer Richard Fahey, was underbidder on this youngster, who had been purchased by John Fleming for €48,000 as a yearling. Fahey's assistant Robin O'Ryan was also in action. He spent 75,000gns on the only Mr. Greeley on show, a colt who had made $170,000 as a weanling at Keeneland and was sold from Eddie O'Leary's Lynn Lodge Stud. "He's been bought for an existing owner with Richard," said O'Ryan. "He breezed very well and looked a mid-season type of two-year-old with a bit of scope." O'Ryan's cousin Bobby was also buying, going to 76,000gns on a Street Cry (Ire) colt who will race in the colors of Iona Equine from Ken Condon's Curragh stable. Although the day's 63-percent clearance rate advanced on last year's 54 percent, the other figures all showed marked declines at this fourth, and smallest, renewal of the Guineas Sale. Turnover fell by 24 percent to 2,149,500gns, while the 25,898gns average and 20,000gns median declined respectively by 32 percent and 20 percent. Cont. p19

“There have been a number of positives to take from today’s trade,” Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony noted. “We were delighted to be able to accommodate the Invincible Spirit colt from Meadowview Stables who was originally scheduled to sell at our Craven Breeze-Up two weeks ago. He was always a colt of real quality and it was great to see his vendor rewarded with the top price of 220,000gns.” Mahony added, “We were pleased that the clearance rate also significantly improved on last year. Having said that, we would still like to have seen a higher percentage of lots sold, and the sale has graphically demonstrated the old adage of ‘breeze well, sell well.’ Nevertheless, while there is little doubt that the market remains selective, numerous buyers have remarked that there has been plenty of competition for quality horses. The Guineas Breeze Up is still in its infancy, but in the three years since its inception it has quickly established itself as an important middle-market sale which is increasingly targeted by buyers from throughout Europe as well as a wide cross section of domestic buyers. These are still difficult times, but I have little doubt that today’s sale will produce its usual steady stream of high class winners and also unprecedented returns on investment for those lucky owners whose purchases benefit from the two extensively promoted bonus schemes.”

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT KEEPS PREAKNESS AT PIMLICO

An agreement announced yesterday between MI Developments Inc., operator of the Maryland Jockey Club tracks, and the state of Maryland will guarantee that the GI Preakness S. remains in the state. Under the "Preakness Covenant," Maryland waived its right of first refusal to buy the second leg of the Triple Crown, but MID asserted that it would not move the race and that, if the tracks are sold, the agreement will be binding on the new operators. "For 134 years--and counting--the Preakness S. has been run in the state of Maryland and has belonged to the people of our state," said Governor Martin O'Malley. "The Preakness Covenant will ensure that people of Maryland continue to enjoy this time-honored tradition, and that the state of Maryland and city of Baltimore will continue to realize the economic benefits of this annual event. I want to thank Attorney General Doug Gansler, and his staff for working quickly and aggressively with us with us to secure the future of the Preakness S. right here where it belongs in Maryland."

ICE BARN MOVING ON 'UP' Trainer Tim Ice will take over training duties of 11 horses owned by Bob Hutt's Fantasy Lane Stable, including the GI Belmont S.-bound Uptowncharlybrown (Limehouse). The popular chestnut, most recently third in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 17, was previously conditioned by the late Alan Seewald. "It was my son, Aaron, who first suggested Tim's name to me, but it was right after Alan died and I wasn't ready to think about it," Hutt said. "Everyone started calling me to throw their hats into the ring, and when I was down at the sales earlier this month, another close friend said I should consider talking to Tim, and he came to New Jersey and I interviewed him with some of our partners. He was very impressive and we were looking for someone who was familiar with handling world-class horses. Tim understands the grief we're all going through after losing Alan and he seemed like a natural fit. It feels like fate intervened to put us together." Linda White, Seewald's long-time assistant, will now assist Ice and oversee the Monmouth Park string. Ice won last year's Belmont with Summer Bird; he was transferred to trainer Tim Ritchee earlier this year.

CHRISTMAS FOR LIAM (c, 3, Saint Liam--Gone for Christmas, by Gone West) had some trouble at the break in his career opener at Gulfstream Mar. 27, but shook it off and rallied late to be third. He was bet down to 1-2 here while coupled with Brother Bird (Yonaguska), the half-brother of Mine That Bird (Birdstone). Away sharply, Christmas for Liam was taken in hand to sit just off the leaders through the opening half. Brother Bird got first run, gaining the advantage as they came out of the bend, but his stablemate was looming a threat. Eased to the outside when they hit the lane, Christmas for Liam swept to the front in a matter of strides and pulled away to win by 4 3/4 lengths. Devon Rock (Rock Hard Ten) was a distant third at odds of 8-1. "He broke pretty sharply and we had a nice pace in front of us," said winning rider David Cohen. "They had him well prepared today, and I just swung him out at the top of the lane. It made my job very easy. He finished up very nice, and galloped out well. I definitely think he can handle more distance, if that's what they ask of him." Sales history: $240,000 RNA yrl '08 KEESEP. 4	3	Rashaad	Smart Strike	R Hills	B Hills
5	2	Wigmore Hall (Ire)	High Chaparral (Ire)	Spencer	Bell

All carry 124 pounds.

This early Derby trial features a pair of Godolphin representatives from the bin Suroor and Al Zarooni yards in Anhar and Namecheck, respectively. The former was a latest second in a course-and-distance conditions event in late October, while Namecheck was beaten two short heads when third in the Listed Silver Tankard S. at Pontefract earlier that month. Wigmore Hall could upset some Classic aspirants if his facile success in a competitive track-and-trip handicap Apr. 15 is any guide.

6.45 Doncaster, Mdn, £4,000, 2yo, 5fT

BREATHLESS STORM (Storm Cat), a $300,000 yearling at Keeneland September, starts out for owner Fitri Hay and trainer Tom Tate. The three-parts brother to 2008 GI Suburban H. winner Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway) meets the Comic Strip Heroes' Foghorn Leghorn (GB) (Medicean {GB}), a Peter Chapple-Hyam-trained colt whose third dam is the 1995 G2 Lowther S. winner Dance Sequence (Mr. Prospector). The latter was scratched from his intended debut at Newbury last month.

7.15 Doncaster, Cond, £10,500, 3yo, 7fT

MEEZAAN (IRE) (Medicean {GB}) went into many notebooks with an impressive success in a seven-furlong handicap at Newbury last month and takes the next step en route to better things for the Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum/John Gosden combination here. Out of a half to Steinbeck (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), he encounters the Chris Wall-trained colt Citrus Star (Broken Vow), last seen finishing third in the Listed Doncaster S. in October.
