SUPER SAVER HEADS PREAKNESS DIRTY DOZEN

GI Kentucky Derby hero Super Saver (Maria's Mon) was installed as the 5-2 morning line favorite after drawing post eight for Saturday's GI Preakness S. at Pimlico. "That's very good for him," trainer Todd Pletcher remarked. "He'll have the opportunity to survey what's going on around him." Pletcher added, "We're not at the mercy of the race--we're not relying on a fast pace, and we're not worried about a suicidal first quarter. He should be able to find a nice cozy spot. If that's on the lead, that's okay, and if he's fourth, fifth or sixth, that's okay, too." Super Saver's plane touched down in Baltimore yesterday afternoon, and the conditioner was on hand to lead him off the van. "I really liked the way he shipped," Pletcher continued. "He seems to be in good order, and his energy level is very good." It rained yesterday at Pimlico, and Pletcher will see how the weather develops overnight before determining Super Saver's activity Thursday.

"We're going to see what the track looks like in the morning," he said. "It will either be a light gallop or maybe a jog if the track's sloppy."

Wednesday's report includes coverage of the arrival at Pimlico of Derby hero Super Saver & main challenger Lookin at Lucky

Seven is Lucky's Number...

Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike), sixth as the 6-1 favorite in the Kentucky Derby, drew the seven hole and was tabbed as the 3-1 second choice. Last year's champion juvenile has endured major traffic in each of his last two starts, and trainer Bob Baffert will give a leg up to Martin Garcia Saturday, rather than Garrett Gomez. "I told Garrett and his agent that I just wanted to change the luck up a bit," the Hall of Famer explained. As for post seven, Baffert said, "I've always felt that there isn't really a bad post at Pimlico, with the long run into the first turn," Baffert said. "He's got a nice spot in the middle of the field. We're just going to toss out that last race. We're not down on the rail, so hopefully he won't get T-boned again." The bay colt took the flight from Kentucky in stride. "He's happy, and that's the main thing," Baffert added.

Hurricane Ike out of Middle Jewel...

Ike and Dawn Thrash's Hurricane Ike (Graeme Hall) will not run in Saturday's GI Preakness S. after suffering an injury to his left hind leg. "My horse isn't so fine," trainer John Sadler reported. "This is pretty fresh, but it looks similar to the problem he had at Oak Tree. He might have re-injured himself in the same area." Winner of the GIII Derby Trial, Hurricane Ike had been expected to ship from Churchill to Pimlico Wednesday morning. "This is extremely disappointing," Sadler admitted. "It's disappointing, but what can you do? Sometimes they don't cooperate. Hopefully, we'll get him into some big races later this year."

LukasLooks to Add Sixth Preakness Winner...

When it comes to winning the Preakness, few trainers can boast the type of success that trainer D. Wayne Lukas has enjoyed over the last three decades. After winning the second jewel of the Triple Crown for the first time with Codex in 1980, the Wisconsin native added victories with Tank's Prospect (1985); Tabasco Cat (1994); Timber Country (1995) and Charismatic (1999). Lukas will have two chances to be honored his sixth Oaklawn vase with either Robert Baker and William Mack's Dublin (Afleet Alex) and Westrock Stable's Northern Giant (Giant's Causeway). The former, who triumphed in the GI Hopeful S. at two, drew post 12 at yesterday's draw, and was given a 10-1 chance from his outside draw. The chestnut will be ridden for the first time by Garrett Gomez, who was taken off Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) earlier this week.

Dublin meets the press

"Dublin is an exceptional horse," Lukas said. "He's been unlucky in a lot of ways."

A closing second behind Conveyance in the Feb. 20 GIII Southwest S., Dublin was third in the GII Rebel S. Mar. 13 and again in the Apr. 10 Arkansas Derby. Forced to steady in the early going of the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby, the colt crossed the wire a respectable seventh, beaten 7 1/2 lengths by winner Super Saver. With Dublin--who is a son of 2005 Preakness hero Afleet Alex--Lukas hopes history will repeat itself after having saddled another son of a Preakness winner, Charismatic (Summer Squall). Trying to cover all his bases, Lukas also sends out a new shooter to the Triple Crown in Northern Giant, who will break from the four hole. With Terry Thompson aboard, the colt has been set at 30-1 on the morning line.

"He's a totally different body type than Dublin," Lukas offered. "He's slight--feminine looking. He's got a great efficiency of motion, but he didn't come along or develop as quick."

After graduating by an eye-catching 11 1/4 lengths in the Oaklawn slop Feb. 4, the bay was third in the Feb. 20 GII Risen Star S. before finishing runner-up in the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Mar. 27. The $150,000 KEESEP yearling has not raced since a ninth-place finish in the Arkansas Derby.

Few horses win their first group race 41 runs into their career, but the sprinting division is prone to throwing up unusual scenarios and that was the case here as Prime Defender battled his way past some big reputations. Successful in the Listed European Free H. as a three-year-old, the chestnut added that season's Listed Sandy Lane S. and last year's Listed Cammidge Trophy to his tally thereafter, without breaking through at group level. Coming into this off the back of a confidence-boosting conditions win at Haydock on Saturday, he raced hard and stayed prominent on the far side and after battling past the eventual fifth Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) and into the lead approaching the furlong pole, he gave all as the Juddmonte duo Showcasing and Main Aim arrived late. "I was trying not to give him a smack, as I think he curls up a little bit, but he was very game and really put his head out," jockey Robert Winston said. "He is a horse I have a lot of faith in and, on his day, he's a very good sprinter." Trainer Barry Hills was winning this race for the seventh time and his son and assistant Charlie added, "This horse is a bit of an unsung hero, as he's been around a long time, but never quite got his head in front in one of these. We're delighted and it's been a long time coming." The runner-up's trainer John Gosden was encouraged by the performance of the three-year-old and told PA Sport, "When I saw he was drawn 11 at York I was pleased, but then I found out the stalls were on the other side and that is not where you want to be. He's a three-year-old taking on the older horses, he had the worst of the draw and was two lengths adrift after a couple of furlongs. He's run a great race for a three-year-old and will head straight to Royal Ascot for the [June 19] G1 Golden Jubilee S." Tattersalls Musidora S. cont.

Unbeaten after a Kempton maiden in November and an Ascot conditions event on her sophomore bow Apr. 28, Aviate had stamina to prove stepping up from a mile, but had adequate reserves to provide Henry Cecil with a ninth renewal of this noted trial. Reserved in fifth early by Eddie Ahern, the bay looked to have nowhere to go approaching the final furlong as Gold Bubbles took a short-lived lead off Eleanora Duse. Finding a large enough gap between the latter and the tiring early pacesetter Bikini Babe (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) soon after, the homebred quickened impressively on the rail to snatch the contest in the shade of the post. "When they quickened, I was in a little bit of trouble, as I wasn't getting the gaps and I had to sit and suffer for a long time," Ahern explained. "I switched her back onto the inside and she picked up really well. The trip was not a problem, and I think she'll get further."

Cecil, who also has Saturday's Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial runner-up Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) in the Oaks picture for the same operation, was keen to hold fire on Classic plans for the winner. "We ran her to see if she stays and I thought she would, as she's got a cross of Nijinsky, which always brings stamina in," he said. "She's very settled and doesn't give you any feel at all until you pick her up, and then she has a good turn-of-foot. She would have learned a bit there and it looks as if she'll stay a mile and a half, but we'll see how she does from now to then. We still have Timepiece, who blew in an extraordinary way after the race at Lingfield on Saturday, but who I felt at home was up with the best of the Oaks winners I've trained. So there is the G1 Prix de Diane [at Chantilly June 13] and Royal Ascot to think about, and we'll let them tell us what to do." In addition to Early March, Aviate is also a full-sister to Juddmonte's ill-fated ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Wingwalker (GB).

Akdarena shed maiden status at Galway in her third run last August and hit the board in the Sept. 13 Listed Flame of Tara S., and the Oct. 11 Listed Lanwades & Staffordstown Studs S. at The Curragh. Fourth in the G3 Park Express S. back at the County Kildare track Mar. 21, she made all to garner the Listed Salsabil S. at Navan last time Apr. 25, and repeated the dose in this to register a personal best and enter Classic calculations as a legitimate contender. Seizing control from the gate, she extended her advantage rounding the home turn and was urged further clear in the straight before gearing down late to win handsomely. "Akdarena is in the [G1] Epsom Oaks [June 4] and the [G1 Irish] Oaks [at The Curragh July], but we've made no decision on what her next target might be," said trainer Jim Bolger. "I don't know if she had improved since Navan as all we'd done was just canter her every day since. It's rare to see a race won at halfway." NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

DURBIN SEES 2010 IMMIGRATION BILL AS REMOTE

An immigration reform bill may not surface in 2010, according to Senate Majority Whip Dick Durbin (D-IL). In a radio interview, Durbin characterized the chances for immigration legislation as "remote."

As Democrats grapple with their Wall Street reform bill, Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) has changed his earlier plan to move immigration next. Reid's decision was influenced by the threat made by Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-SC) to halt discussion related to immigration. Democrats need at least one Republican vote to advance any legislation.

In April, a group of Democratic Senators led by Reid and Sens. Charles Schumer (NY) and Robert Menendez (NJ) unveiled a plan to reform U.S. immigration. The plan calls for border security measures to be in place prior to the issue of illegal immigrants being considered. It also calls for a way to unify standards on how illegal immigrants are detained and ultimately removed from the country.

When the British two-year-old handicapper Matthew Tester suggested in the New Year that those who didn't have ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Workforce in their notebook shouldn't have one, the hype started to gain momentum and it all comes to a head in this vital Derby trial. Not that the imposing Juddmonte homebred had done anything on his sole start to suggest he was anything other than an exciting prospect. In beating the subsequent Tattersalls Timeform Million winner Oasis Dancer (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) by six lengths in a seven-furlong Goodwood maiden in September, he set out his stall as a genuine Classic contender and, although he failed to make the Guineas, the world is still his oyster. Teddy Grimthorpe, Khalid Abdullah's racing manager, said yesterday, "The horse has done tremendously well over the winter and he is a big, scopey boy." Cont. p8

Grimthorpe added, “[Workforce] has only won a maiden, so the hype is slightly getting in advance of him, but that’s not to say we don’t like him. He’s certainly got to prove himself worthy of all this and we don’t want to get carried away yet. He took a while to come to himself, so whatever he does we would hope him to come on a good deal afterwards.” Another ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆, Coordinated Cut is a fascinating rival and, in taking the £250,000 Tattersalls Timeform 3-Y-O Trophy at Newmarket on his three-year-old bow Apr. 14, regained the reputation that was tarnished with a no-show in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in October. Trainer Michael Bell, who saddled Motivator (GB) to win this en route to Derby glory five years ago, said, “I was very happy with Coordinated Cut’s win at Newmarket--he showed excellent attitude and looks as if he will be certain to get the trip in the Derby. If he passes his next test, he will be a lively contender at Epsom.” Godolphin rely on Chabal, who beat the subsequent G3 Dee S. winner Azmeel (GB) (Azamour {Ire}) in comprehensive fashion in the Apr. 23 G3 Sandown Classic Trial, while Aidan O’Brien saddles the unbeaten G2 Futurity S. scorer Cape Blanco. “He’s a very low-moving horse and you wonder how far he’d stay, but he has a lot of class,” the Ballydoyle conditioner commented. “He should get a mile and a quarter, and then we’ll just have to see about further.”

All carry 124 pounds bar Midday, 129.

Recently upgraded to Group 2 status, this race has rewarded the decision of the authorities with a stellar line-up. Midday has to give her G1 English and Irish Oaks conqueror Sariska five pounds due to her victory in the G1 Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Santa Anita in November falling within the penalty conditions of this contest. In her favor may be the ground, which has firmed up, but trainer Henry Cecil is expecting her to be a little rusty. “She may need a race and so far has required a run to bring her to her best,” he said. Sariska was scratched from Newmarket’s G3 Dahlia S. earlier in the month and returns to the scene of her success in the G3 Musidora S. and surprise defeat in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks last term. Her Classic-winning exploits at Epsom and The Curragh and latest third in the G1 Champion S. mark her as one of the best of her sex around and conditioner Michael Bell is not expecting the ground to play against her. Cont. p9

These may be challenging times for the racing game. But some lucky people are still having the time of their lives. Come and meet a few of them in the TDN’s Spring Magazine.

we want to run and she’s in great form. The recent weather has helped and she’s got a very healthy skin.” High Heeled probably needs further based on her latest win in the 12-furlong G3 St Simon S. at Newbury in October, while Godolphin’s Flying Cloud has also looked at her best over further, having won the G2 Ribblesdale S. over a mile and a half at the Royal meeting last June. “Flying Cloud was an impressive winner at Royal Ascot last year, but she had a little setback, so we gave her plenty of time to recover,” trainer Saeed bin Suroor explained. “She ran a sound race in Italy [when sixth in the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio in October] and she has been doing some nice work at home. She is running against some very good fillies and I am expecting her to improve on whatever she does.”

Donver Stable's GISW Careless Jewel (Tapit), looking to have her first start since an eighth-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies Classic last November, will bypass this race, reports the Daily Racing Form. “The filly has some heat in one of her legs, off her last work,” trainer Josie Carroll told DRF Wednesday. “Until we check it out thoroughly, we're not comfortable running her.” Originally slated to contest Churchill's Apr. 30 GII La Troienne S., the four-year-old was forced to miss that race because of a quarter crack. Back at her Woodbine base following that setback, the fleet grey breezed five furlongs in :58 4/5 May 2 and, most recently, covered six panels in a bullet 1:11 1/5 May 9. The winner of five consecutive starts last year, including last summer's GI Alabama S. and GII Delaware Oaks, the grey also took the Oct. 3 GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion S. at Philadelphia.

Triple Threats

New Madrid Eyeing Belmont...

Shortleaf Stable's New Madrid (Rock Hard Ten), sixth last out in the GI Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Apr. 10, is trainer Tim Ice's hope for a repeat win in the GI Belmont S., which the conditioner took last year with champion Summer Bird (Birdstone). "He's doing great," said Ice. "I want to get a race into him so he can move forward off it to the Belmont," Ice explained. "He's coming off an easy five-eighths work [1:02.74 May 8], but he'd had a more serious move the week before." So how do the colts compare? "They're two different horses," Ice explained. "Obviously, this horse has a lot to prove, as did Summer Bird, but both have different styles and mannerisms. I do think this horse has a lot of talent; he just has to put it all together."

TRAIN DELAY

Khalid Abdullah's Bullet Train (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has yet to be committed to the June 5 G1 Epsom Derby following his impressive win on Saturday. Successful by 2 1/4 lengths in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial, the homebred is the subject of ongoing discussions between the owner and trainer Henry Cecil. The Juddmonte operation's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said yesterday, "I bow to Henry on all the matter of training Derby horses, but Prince Khalid will have a good say as to what goes where. We always rated Bullet Train very highly, especially as a young horse and hoped he would turn into a Derby horse, but we were a little shocked on Saturday because [the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial runner-up] Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) had worked all over Bullet Train at home. What I liked about the Derby Trial was the way he quickened off his own decent pace and put the race to bed in a few strides. If Henry wants to run him in the Derby, the Prince wouldn't stop him--the main thing is to judge it on its merits and Henry will want to be satisfied that the horse is good enough to do himself justice." Cecil later added, "He is maturing the whole time and we entered him in the Derby at the second stage because I really liked him and he has improved a lot--if he continues to, he will be a Derby contender, otherwise there is Royal Ascot. We'll just have to leave it open and see--we need to be realistic."

Xtension Curragh-Bound

Brighthelm Racing's Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) is being prepared for a tilt at the May 22 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh, trainer Clive Cox announced yesterday. Fourth to Makfi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 1, last year's G2 Vintage S. scorer has pleased his trainer subsequently and will have a second try at Classic glory. "Every step of the way, he's been very pleasing," Cox told PA Sport. "He did us proud last year and I'm delighted he's made such a pleasing seasonal debut. He's come out of the race really well. The horses that finished in front of us in the Guineas had the benefit of a previous start, so hopefully we will find a bit of improvement from that. For the time being, we'll keep him to a mile. He's in the Irish Guineas--at the moment that's where we are going to be heading."

BLOODSTOCK AGENT BUZZ CHACE
GIAMANO'S, 301 Main Street, Bradley Beach, NJ
07720 (732) 775-4275

This 'old New Jersey-style restaurant,' serving the Bradley Beach area since 1986, was voted one of the best places to listen to jazz and blues by Asbury Park Press Reader's Choice of Monmouth County. The upstairs room, which offers Giamano's full dinner menu, also provides a relaxing atmosphere to enjoy the live entertainment. While the venue's live show schedule--offered from Friday through Sunday--often proves to be a major draw, the menu sparkles in its own right. The kitchen--piloted by executive chefs Steffan Manno and Peter Petagno--is renowned for producing high quality fare, including its version of Chicken Murphy, which, according to Chace, is among the best in the country. As an extension to Giamano's main dining room, the venue offers an outdoor cafe, which was inspired by the beautiful coast of Italy. Patrons can dine under the stars, surrounded by tranquil sounds of the fountain and the fresh fragrant foliage.

BAY AVE. TRATTORIA, 122 Bay Avenue, Highlands, NJ

07732 (732) 872-9800

Well known and respected chefs Joe Romanowski and Maggie Lubcke have set up shop in this modest sliver-size storefront trattoria in the waterfront town of the Highlands. Renowned at the Jersey Shore, they only need to be referred to by their first names to set off light bulbs in the minds of devoted foodies. This BYOB resembles the traditional trattorias of Italy with its quaint setting and colorful accents; one begins to feel the love of food and family.

Joe's flair for Italian-American cuisine that made him famous is once again available in his daily creations and homemade deserts. Bay Ave Trattoria also offers a complete take-out and catering menu. According to Chace, "The food is excellent and the seafood is always very fresh--it's just unbelievable."

What a marvelous op/ed by Rob Whiteley! (TDN, 5/4/2010; click here to download.) It accurately describes the present state of our industry, suggests a sensible plan and points out three options that the industry can choose from. The second is preferable but also the most difficult to achieve. As a result, I've concluded option three has the best chance to replace the status quo. As Thomas Jefferson once said, "all theory must yield to experience."

So. California Report cont.

CHRB Starting Track Surface Safety Project:

Edited Press Release

The California Horse Racing Board has begun a project to develop track surface safety standards. One objective will be to determine any relationships between equine injuries and racetrack conditions, such as track maintenance procedures, climate, moisture content, degree of compaction. This will involve regular testing of the racing surfaces at California racetracks. Jeffery Salmon and Thomas McCarthy have contracted with the CHRB to serve as project managers. They will be working closely with the CHRB safety stewards at the racetracks. Salmon and McCarthy will be meeting with Luis Jauregui this week at Hollywood Park and with Paul Nicolo next week at Golden Gate. They will be meeting with the track superintendents and others involved in the project. They will be glad to speak with owners, trainers, jockeys, track officials, and anyone else interested in this matter. The CHRB welcomes the racing industry's input and cooperation in this project. The goal is to develop standards that will result in the safest possible racing surfaces.

LUCKY STORY DIES Lucky Story (Kris S.--Spring Flight, by Miswaki) was discovered dead in his paddock yesterday morning at Tweenhills Stud. Sire of last year's G1 Golden Jubilee S. winner Art Connoisseur (Ire), the nine-year-old's premature demise is a second blow to Tweenhills after the recent death of Ishiguru in September. Lucky Story, who was bred by WinStar Farm, was a full-brother to Dr Fong and was successful in the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood and G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in 2003 before returning the following year to be second to Rakti (GB) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. for the Mark Johnston stable. He stood under the Darley banner at Tweenhills from 2005 and was the leading first-season sire based in Britain thanks to Art Connoisseur's win in the G2 Coventry S. Other talented progeny include last year's Listed Redcar 2-y-o Trophy winner Lucky Like (Fr). "Having lost Ishiguru last summer to a freak paddock accident, this is a double blow to us, especially as Lucky Story was such a lovely horse," Redvers continued. "He provided us with our first Group 1 winner in Art Connoisseur and was champion British-based first-season sire. I am sorry for Darley, for whom we stood Lucky Story and who lose such an exciting young sire, but I am particularly sad for the team here who were so fond of the horse. This now leaves a huge hole in our stallion roster and I can assure our clients we will do our utmost to find a replacement in the near future."

SHAREDH (IRE) (Pivotal {GB}) is a half-sister to Maraahel (Ire) (Alzao), who hit the board in six Group 1 events, and opens her account in the colors of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum. Her opposition includes Lael Stable's Old Hundred (Ire) (Tiger Hill (Ire)), who is a gelded three-parts brother to the ill-fated George Washington (Ire) (Danehill).

IMPOSING (GB) (c, 4, Danehill Dancer {Ire}--On Fair Stage {Ire} {SW-Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) had been on the shelf since finishing runner-up in a 10-furlong handicap at Newmarket's Craven meeting last April, but still represented the same powerful connections on his return and punters took the hint when supporting him into 7-2 second-favoritism. Held up in rear early from his wide draw, the 170,000gns TATOCT yearling rolled down the outer in the straight and his sustained effort took him past the long-time leader Indian Days (GB) (Daylami {Ire}) with 100 yards remaining and onto a 1 1/4-length success. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute said, "He had a fracture soon after the Craven meeting. It was always going to take plenty of time, but he's back and let's hope he stays back.
