Gestut Ammerland's "TDN Rising Star" Lope de Vega (Ire) (Shamardal) swooped late to emulate his sire and win yesterday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp. Third last time in the main trial, the

Lope de Vega Paris-Turf

G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over course and distance Apr. 25, the chestnut defied a horror wide draw to reward those who kept the faith and sent him off at nearly 17-2. Settled in rear early by a patient Maxime Guyon, the homebred delivered his surge widest of all to rob Dick Turpin (Ire) (Arakan) of Classic glory in the final furlong and record a half-length success. Guyon said, "The key to this horse is getting him to relax and, once he does, he has a terrific turn-of-foot. Also, he came on for his run in the Fontainebleau, and was able to show his true class and quality today." Cont. p2

LOOKIN AT LUCKY, LONGCHAMP-STYLE

Juddmonte Farms' Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy) required assistance from Newmarket's stewards to claim victory in the G1 1000 Guineas at the Rowley Mile May 2. She benefitted from official intervention once more after original first past the post Liliside (Fr) (American Post {GB}) wreaked havoc in the closing stages of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp yesterday. Avoiding the trouble that unfolded in early stretch, the 3-1 joint-favorite Special Duty looked held when only seventh entering the final furlong, but proved resilient under a drive and quickened smartly in the closing stages to claim an initial second on the line. It came as no surprise that the result was amended, but it was surprising Paris officials took almost 75 minutes to reach their conclusion. "It is most extraordinary what has happened, to win two Classics in the stewards' room," admitted trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek, adding, "This time [unlike last time], my filly was not involved in any of the incidents, so there is not much I can say about the official decision." A Star from the Start...

Off the mark at first asking at Deauville in August, Lope de Vega earned ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status here in a seven-furlong conditions event the following month before failing to justify favoritism in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere back here on Arc day. Beaten less than three lengths when fourth on that occasion, the homebred returned to this venue to run an encouraging half-length third behind Rajsaman (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) in the Fontainebleau, which had thrown up six of the last eight winners of this Classic. With only one rival drawn higher, jockey Maxime Guyon faced an early dilemma, but he refused to rush his mount up the outer and instead let him find his own rhythm at the back. Winding up his challenge in early stretch, Lope de Vega strode past Dick Turpin and jockey Richard Hughes with a furlong remaining to lead a clean-sweep for the first-crop sires and add his name to the honor roll that already featured his sire, winner in 2005, and damsire Vettori (Ire), successful 10 years before that.

Crispin de Moubray, racing manager for winning owner Dietrich von Boetticher, remarked, "That was a really nice performance, and we always felt he had Classic potential. There will be discussions between Andre Fabre and his owner as to where he will run next, as it is too soon to say."

Richard Hannon Jr. said of runner-up Dick Turpin, "He's run a super race and is an exceptionally good horse. There are no excuses and we will now go for the G1 St James's Palace S. [at Royal Ascot June 15]."

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Siyouni, who was sent off the 11-10 favorite, encountered trouble in running in early straight and was never able to use his potent acceleration before coasting home into ninth. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Special Duty bagged last July's G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte, and confirmed her place in the upper echelon of European juveniles when runner-up in the following month's G1 Prix Morny at Deauville. The chestnut homebred entered winter quarters as ante-post favorite for the G1 1000 Guineas off the back of a decisive score in the Oct. 2 G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket, but was in need of the run when third behind Joanna in the G3 Prix Imprudence back at Maisons-Laffitte on seasonal return Apr. 8. She fell short, by a nose, in the May 2 1000 Guineas last time, but was adjudged to have been affected by the late drift of Jacqueline Quest (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and gained a career high behind closed doors. The French edition of the 1000 Guineas was a case of deja-vu all over again. Cont. p3

Duty Bound...

Compromised by the widest gate in a field of 10, jockey Stephane Pasquier held Special Duty back at the break and made a deliberate move to the rail, settling

S Pasquier zone-turf.fr

his mount in rear. A quarter mile out, Liliside (Fr) (American Post {GB}) barged into Full Steam (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who in turn hampered Rosanara (Fr) (Sinndar {Ire}), but the Juddmonte filly was unaffected as she mounted her bid passing the two pole. She was still only seventh as Joanna towed the field into the final eighth, but found late reserves and an additional gear to snatch second on the line--and ultimately the win--as Liliside caused further interference before prevailing in a blanket finish. "We had a good draw in England, but we had a bad draw this time and maybe, with a clear run, she would have won anyway," said Criquette Head-Maarek, who was saddling her seventh winner in the contest. "When she runs again she will most probably have the help of a pacemaker to make sure there is a proper pace."

Decision Explained...

There was a near 75-minute delay before the final result was announced, and stewards' secretary Henri Pouret gave a full briefing of the official report. "The first incident involving Liliside occurred two furlongs from the finish, when she tried to come out, bumping Full Steam, who, in turn, badly bumped Rosanara," Pouret said. "That caused the latter to lose ground and momentum, and, after that, Rosanara finished strongly and lost a better placing by just a head. In the final stages...Liliside drifted right, taking the ground of Lady of the Desert, whose jockey [Kieren Fallon] was forced to check back and she, too, lost a better placing by very little. Those two incidents left the stewards with no other choice but to place Liliside behind those two fillies. In all probability, the first incident alone would have been enough to lead to the same conclusion."

Rohaut Reflective...

Initially jubilant after saddling Liliside and Baine to be first and third past the post, trainer Francois Rohaut took the DQ of Liliside with good grace. The Pau-based conditioner, who won the 2004 renewal with Torrestrella (Ire) (Orpen), said, "This is sad and, with a clear run, my two fillies may have finished first and second. We'll see what the future holds. I think Baine will stay further, but if they both recover well then the [G2] Prix de Sandringham [June 6] is a possibility."

Silver Pond recorded a debut win over 10 furlongs on debut here Apr. 5 before earning a supplementary for this G1 Prix du Jockey-Club trial when doubling his tally over 1 5/16 miles at Maisons-Laffitte 23 days later. Keen early, the grey eventually settled when he found cover towards the rear and reserved enough energy to produce a sustained burst to lead approaching the furlong marker. Mainly pushed out with hands and heels from there, the homebred was firmly on top at the line. "This is a horse we've always liked, but I was not certain he would be ready to run in one of these trials so that's why he wasn't entered initially," trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias commented. "After he won his first two races, we thought it was worth taking a chance and he's come through the test very nicely. He is in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [at Chantilly June 6] and G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp July 14] and it will be a choice between those two. He'll certainly stay further." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Gloria De Campeo may have broken the hearts of Lizard's Desire and his connections with a well-placed nose on the wire in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, but the South African four-year-old got the last laugh with a vengeful half-length score here. Brazilian-bred Gloria De Campeo, who took this race last year in front-running fashion, was relegated to pressing duties in this edition behind local mare Jolie's Shinju (Jolie's Halo). Eventually overtaking the exhausted leader under first-time Brazilian pilot Bruno Reis, he was, after his early exertions, an easy target for those coming from off the pace. The closers bore down on him, but only familiar rival Lizard's Desire could pass the defending champ. Al Shemali was 1 3/4 lengths back in third in a controversial stretch run. Lizard's Desire came in on the show horse at the 200-meter mark and, while the order of finish was not changed, Shea was suspended for three days by the stewards for careless riding. The winner was coming off another second last out in the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 25. A jubilant and vindicated Shea said, "I don't think I will ever forget the World Cup defeat. As a sportsman, you accept you got beat, but tonight is just awesome...everything's gone to plan. First the rain came...[and] I wanted pace in the race, and I got it." Lizard's Desire will have some time off and then be guided on a campaign that will culminate with another try in Dubai next March. Singapore's champion sprinter Rocket Man had been knocking on the door in International Group 1 events, with runner-up efforts in the '09 edition of this race and the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in March. And, once again, he had that door shut cruelly in his face. This time, the local hope's spoiler was Hong Kong-based Green Birdie, who was due for a breakout performance of his own; the New Zealand-bred hadn't found the winner's circle since 2008. The victor was last seen May 1 at Sha Tin, where he was a close second in the G2-HK Sprint Cup. Rocket Man, who has nine wins to go with his three heartbreakers in his 12-race career, was second early behind pacesetter Gold Trail (Hussonet), with Green Birdie biding his time in fourth. Rocket Man's rider, Robbie Fradd, steered his mount outside to make his bid, while Green Birdie remained inside under Mark Du Plessis in anticipation of a hole opening up. It did, and Green Birdie closed the gap on his rival and wore him down after a furious stretch drive. Rocket Man's connections attributed the tough loss to a rain-soaked yielding course. "I had my concerns before the race. The grass had been left a little longer than it is normally and the track wasn't draining as well as it normally does," said Fradd. "He was having trouble getting a good grip on the track and, because of that, he didn't have his usual kick." Comments from the Green Birdie camp were, as expected, more upbeat. "I'm very excited!" said conditioner Caspar Fownes. "To come all the way here and beat the best sprinters in the world--wow! I'm very happy for Mark and the connections as well. It's a big win for all of us." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video Replay.

Singapore Turf Club

Querari finished runner-up in both the July 19 G3 Fraport AG-Pokal at Frankfurt and the Aug. 1 G2 Henkel-Trophy at Dusseldorf, and registered a first black-type score in the Aug. 30 Listed Preis des Casino Baden-Baden. He was rewarded for his consistency when making all in the Sept. 20 G3 Euro-Cup back at Frankfurt, but fitness seemed to be the issue as he faded late to finish sixth in the G3 Frankfurter Meile on his only subsequent outing Apr. 11. Settled in mid-division as the runners meandered through the early fractions on the heavy ground here, the homebred failed to get a run up the fence at the three-furlong pole. Switched off the rail soon after, he stayed on well under an Eduardo Pedroza drive to pick up the smooth-travelling Voila Ici 40 yards from the line and claim a landmark win. Querari will point to the July 25 G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich, while runner-up Voila Ici will likely target the July 3 G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown. Marchand d'Or enjoyed a banner 2008 with wins in the G1 July Cup, the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest--his third renewal of that event--and the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye. He closed that campaign with a sixth in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint, but finished last of 12 in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in his 2009 return. Fourth in last year's renewal of this contest, he ran eighth in the May 31 G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly in his final start for trainer Freddy Head in a season curtailed by illness. Settled in rear until coming under pressure to close after the halfway marker here, he exhibited his old dash by slicing through the pack under continued urging in the closing stages to nail fellow veteran and long-time leader Benbaun on the line. "It looks like he's come back to his old self," said regular partner Davy Bonilla. "It panned out the way he loves best, quickening off a fast pace and I'm very happy to see him back." The winning owner's husband, Jean-Louis Giral, added, "He was sick for most of last year and has taken a long time to recover. We have to thank all of the people who have brought him back to where he is now." Marchand d'Or will likely point to the June 6 G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly, a race which he won in 2008. Made for Magic was a war horse last year, starting 18 times, and hitting the board in 11 of those outings. The bay was out of the frame in her first three tries this term, but got back on track with an 8 3/4-length score in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Apr. 2. Third in the Santa Lucia S. two weeks later, she was the second-longest shot on the board with the step up to the graded ranks. Rated just off the early pace while on the bit early, Made for Magic started her bid as favored Wynning Ride drove to the front in the stretch. She powered past the chalk as they approached the wire to earn a narrow decision. Asked if he would target the June 13 GI Vanity H., trainer A.C. Avila said, "We applaud our mare today, but I don't want to go up against Zenyatta [Street Cry {Ire}]." Tribal Belle won five of her six outings last term, reeling off wins in the Sept. 5 Gill Seaway S., Nov. 1 Ontario Fashion S. and Nov. 22 Bessarabian S. to end the year. After a well-deserved winter vacation, the dark bay made her return as the 4-5 favorite in the Apr. 18 Whimsical S. She was beaten a nose by Proud Heiress (Broken Vow) in that effort, but turned the tables in style here. Content to let favored Dr. Zic roll along on the front end through a half in :45.18, Tribal Belle collared the leader in the stretch and drew clear. Trainer Terry Jordan, who said the mare would follow the same schedule as last season, remarked, "She's going a lot better this year than last year. She's an easy horse to be with, but she's a difficult horse to train. She doesn't like working. She does what she wants to do." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Derby and Preakness Winners to Skip Belmont...

For the third time since 2000, the winners of the first two legs of the Triple Crown will skip the GI Belmont S.

Trainer Bob Baffert said yesterday morning that he will ship GI Preakness S. hero Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) back to California. "I like the Belmont--it's a tough, long race," Baffert said, but added, "When I ran my other horses for the Triple Crown, I had to give them a break. It's tough on them. I want to keep this horse around." The conditioner has not made a definitive plan for the colt, but said the Aug. 1 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park is a likely target. As for the outcome of Saturday's race, Baffert remarked, "I was just happy for that little horse. He deserved to win. He's been a true warrior."

GI Kentucky Derby hero Super Saver (Maria's Mon) shipped back to Belmont Park Sunday morning, but he will also take a pass on the "Test of the Champion." The WinStar homebred finished eighth as the favorite in the Preakness. Trainer Todd Pletcher reported that the colt came out of the race in good order, but offered, "I talked to [WinStar VP] Elliott Walden briefly after the race, and the only real decision that we've made so far is that he will not run in the Belmont. We'll freshen him up and let him tell us [what's next]. But we know that he loves Churchill and, with the Breeders' Cup Classic being at Churchill this year, we'll focus on that and try to figure out the best game plan on how to get there in top shape."

Super Saver Sarah K Andrew

First Dude Earns Belmont Berth...

Beaten just 3/4 of a length at 23-1, GI Preakness runner-up First Dude (Stephen Got Even) headed back to his home base at Churchill Downs Sunday, but trainer Dale Romans announced the three-year-old will have another Classic test in the June 5 GI Belmont S. "I think he's going to move forward again," Romans said. "The mile and a half suits him, and we're excited to go up there." Stablemate Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}), third in the Kentucky Derby, but sixth over a fast track in the Preakness, will likely switch surfaces for his next start. "I don't know if he liked that racetrack; it was kind of sandy and deep," Romans said. "I'm not saying he won't run on a fast, firm racetrack somewhere else, but if I'd have to say right now, I'd probably say he'll go back to the grass."

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC

Two-Year-Olds In Training
Monday, May 17 10:00 a.m.

TIME FOR TIMONIUM

Fasig-Tipton's Midlantic Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training will kick off at 10 a.m. this morning at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, just outside of Baltimore. A total of 405 head were catalogued for the one-day sale. Consignors were busy showing horses on a sun-splashed Sunday afternoon, with the likes of trainer Bob Baffert, fresh from saddling Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) to victory in the GI Preakness S., looking over the offerings. Six years ago at this sale, Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) proved a bargain buy at $75,000. "He wasn't really flashy, just a good, professional horse," recalled David Scanlon, whose late father Robert consigned the future champion. "Later on, people came up and asked, 'Why didn't you show him to us?' and I said,

Hip Happenings FT MIDLANTIC - MONDAY

27, f, Stormy Atlantic--Ava Darling, by Gilded Time
364, f, Giant's Causeway--Thetactics Ofdance
Consigned by Nick de Meric, agent

These stablemates went in :10.2 and :10.3, respectively, last week. "The two fillies have been very popular, with good reason," said Nick de Meric. "They both had nice breezes and they've both got nice pedigrees--they're by good stallions. I think they'll both be well-received." Hip 27, out of a half-sister to MGSW Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory) and two other black-type winners, was acquired by de Meric for $125,000 at KEESEP. Hip 364 is the first foal from her dam, who earned $288,953 while winning a pair of stakes races from 28 starts. She was a $20,000 short yearling at KEEJAN.

69, f, Medaglia d'Oro--Chit Chat Pam, by Valid Expectations
Property of The Estate of Edmund Gann, Eisaman Equine, agent

The first foal from SW Chit Chat Pam, and by a sire who needs little introduction, this bay filly earned a bullet for her :10.1 breeze last week. "She came to the farm for us to break and, when Mr. Gann died in February, since his children don't have much interest in racing, this was the next logical path," Barry Eisaman explained. "She wasn't destined to be a two-year-old-in-training horse, but she happened to be very quick, and is very, very talented."

Sandra Madison/Eisaman Equine

100, c, Southern Image--Divine Rockette, by Is It True
Consigned by Murray Smith, agent

This handsome dark bay leveled out well at the end of his breeze last Wednesday, stopping the clock in :10.4 before galloping out strongly. "I saw him as a yearling and just had to have him," Smith said. Purchased by Smith's Divine Assetts for $150,000 at FTKJUL, the Florida-bred got a big pedigree boost when his year-old brother Who's Up (Graeme Hall) captured the GIII Generous S. at Hollywood at the end of November.

108, c, Hennessy--Dream Profit, by Hennessy
Consigned by Hoby & Layna Kight, agent

This racy chestnut zipped through a quarter in :21.4 last week, and has been popular back in the barn area. Out of a half-sister to GSW Final Round (Storm Cat), the colt didn't meet his reserve at the Calder sale and was bought back for $100,000. He hails from a solid family that has produced the likes of Muhtarram (Alleged) and Communique (Smart Strike).

143, c, Kitten's Joy--Fragile, by Victory Gallop
Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent XIV

Offered by Eddie Woods on behalf of breeders Ken and Sarah Ramsey, this blaze-faced chestnut was timed very comfortably in :10.4 last week. "He's a very nice colt," said Woods. "He's going to be a serious horse."

149, f, Tapit--Frost Report, by Corporate Report
Consigned by Wavertree Stables Inc (Ciaran Dunne), Agent IX

This flashy chestnut got a bullet for her :21.3 move last week. "She's a big, strong, almost masculine filly with a tremendous way of going," said Ciaran Dunne. "She's a homebred and hasn't been through a sale yet, so she's fresh meat on the block."

185, f, Quiet American--Icelandic Dancer, by Eskimo
Consigned by Pike Racing, agent

A $30,000 purchase at FTKJUL, this bay filly cruised most comfortably through three-eighths in :34.3 last week. "She's been very popular," said Al Pike, who is based in Weatherford, Texas. "She moves beautifully, and looks like she could be the real thing." The Kentucky-bred is a half-sister to SWs Sizzlin South (A Corking Limerick) and Sparklin Lil (Mr. Sparkles).

187, c, Ghostzapper--I'll Be Along, by Notebook
Property of Stonestreet Stables LLC, Scanlon Training Center, agent

This bay colt raced through a panel in :10.2. He is a half-brother to the popular local sprinter Gators N Bears (Stormy Atlantic), who bankrolled over $800,000. "He's out of a nice mare and he breezed really well," said Dave Scanlon. "He's been very popular." Scanlon is selling the colt for breeder Jess Jackson. "They didn't want to sell anything until later on [in the season]," Scanlon explained.

216, c, Wildcat Heir--Lanzada's Sonata, by Lord Carson
Consigned by Murray Smith, agent

The Florida-bred, picked up by Smith for $60,000 at FTKJUL, moved effortlessly during the preview, getting a quarter in :21.4. The bay has been very popular at Barn J. "He's a big, rangy colt," Smith noted. "He covers the ground really easily--he'll be a two-turn horse."

282, c, Tapit--Prall Street, by Cherokee Run
Property of Graves and Lynch, Eddie Woods, agent

The second foal from his young dam, this grey colt stretched over the ground nicely while putting up a quarter in :22.1. "He's a big, strapping colt, and a beautiful mover," said Eddie Woods. "He's by a great stallion. He's always been very nice, and we just wanted to give him a little time to come around." Woods has prepared the colt for his breeders, Bill Graves and Dennis Lynch, who have bestowed the youngster with the moniker Doc Farone. So what's in a name? "Doc Farone is apparently quite a character from New Jersey who comes with some pretty hilarious stories," Woods explained.

288, c, With Distinction--Pure Adrenalin, by Saint Ballado
Consigned by Scanlon Training Center, Agent II

Bred in Florida by Murray Smith, this dark bay is out of a 3/4-sister to GSW Dianas Halo (Sunny's Halo). He was very economical during his :10.4 move. "He's a really good-looking horse, just gorgeous," Dave Scanlon noted.

373, f, Lemon Drop Kid--Tom's Kid, by Capote
Consigned by Wavertree Stables (Ciaran Dunne), Agent VIII

Like her barnmate hip 149 (see above), this dark bay filly put up :21.3 during the breeze show. "Physically, she's at the opposite end of the spectrum from the Tapit filly," Ciaran Dunne remarked. "She's very feminine and sleek." Wavertree signed a $47,000 ticket for the filly at FTKJUL, and bought her back for $42,000 at OBSFEB. "She worked really well there, but, in retrospect, it may have come up a bit quick for her," Dunne explained. "She's done well in the time since, and has showed herself very well on the shank here."

396, c, Rockport Harbor--Wildcat Princess, by Forest Wildcat
Consigned by Eisaman Equine, agent

From the first crop of his multiple-graded-stakes-winning sire (by Unbridled's Song), this bay--sporting a tremendous amount of chrome--drilled an eighth in :10.1 during the first breeze show. "We bought him at OBS in August," Barry Eisaman said of the $25,000 yearling purchase. "We scheduled him to come here --we like to bring horses here that haven't been to another two-year-old sale. He's very quick--he's flashy and fast." The Florida-bred has the good long-distance turfer Ramazutti (Honor Grades) under the second dam.

COSSET (f, 3, Mizzen Mast--Corsini {GB}, by Machiavellian) began her career with a pair of runner-up efforts over the Santa Anita lawn, first over one mile Feb. 4 and then over nine furlongs Mar. 20. The Juddmonte homebred, a tepid 2-1 favorite, raced off the pace early. In traffic on the turn, she swept to the outside for the drive and closed powerfully to just get a head in front of Home Rule (Empire Maker) on the line.

Mad about the Boy...

Trainer Richard Hannon yesterday poured praise on Saturday's impressive G1 Lockinge S. winner Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}), and confirmed him on course for the June 15 G1 Queen Anne S. Following his facile 3/4 of a length success in Newbury's mile contest, the five-year-old will bid for back-to-back renewals of the Royal Ascot contest. "I have been lucky to train some terrific horses and, until now, Tirol was probably top of the pops," his conditioner said. "But Paco has done so much these past couple of seasons and he is out on his own. It is that explosive turn of foot that sets him apart from anything else. The Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot will be his next race. He will be defending his crown and he will be very hard to beat, as he looks to have improved again this year."

Rip Van Winkle's half-brother has a long way to go to match the dizzy heights of that performer, but Le Vie Infinite took a small step here when recording a first black-type success. Breaking his maiden with a 10-length success over 1 1/16mile here last time Apr. 25, the bay was settled in fifth early and after cruising up to join Spirit of Fortune at the quarter pole had to work hard to subdue that enterprisingly-ridden rival in the final 50 yards.
