“BECK” IN THE HUNT

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Steinbeck (Ire)

(Footstepsinthesand {GB}), one of Ireland's biggest talking horses, returns to lead the Ballydoyle battalion in tomorrow's G1 Abu Dhabi Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh.

Steinbeck irishracing.com

Whether it will be a case of Mice or Men remains to be seen, but trainer Aidan O'Brien could hardly have been more effusive in his praise for the still unexposed and exciting prospect. There is evidence to back up O'Brien's enthusiasm, including a comprehensive debut defeat of the recent G3 Musidora S. runner-up Gold Bubbles (Street Cry {Ire}) in a six-furlong conditions event at Naas last May, and a close-up fourth in Newmarket's showcase G1 Dewhurst S. on Champions' Day. The latter performance came off the back of a compressed preparation, and that is the case again here after a setback ruled Steinbeck out of the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket three weeks ago. "It'll be his first run of the year and he's just ready, but we're hoping he'll run a nice race," commented O'Brien, who will saddle a 2000 Guineas sextet Saturday afternoon. "He won his conditions race very impressively, then ran a lovely race in the Dewhurst after not being back in work that long and just got tired in last 50 yards. He was ready to run in the spring, but met with a little setback and, rather than force him and rush him back for the English Guineas, we gave a little bit of time. He's had a racecourse gallop and has done very well, and matured a lot in that time." Cont. p2

I Want Revenge, scratched the morning of the 2009 GI Kentucky Derby with a career-threatening ankle injury, is nearing a return to the races. The GIII Gotham S. (video) and GI Wood Memorial S. (video) hero, now under the care of trainer Rick Dutrow Jr., has posted three workouts at Aqueduct, including a four-furlong move in :48 May 18. IEAH President Michael Iavarone said that I Want Revenge has made a remarkable recovery and can be expected to compete at a high level later this year. "We have been thrilled thus far with the positive reports coming out of the Dutrow camp," Iavarone said. Cont. p4

Steinbeck was behind stable companions Beethoven (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), Fencing Master (GB) (Oratorio {Ire}) and Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) in the Dewhurst, and the latter pair have the advantage of race fitness here,

Canford Cliffs Horsephotos

having finished fourth and seventh, respectively, in Newmarket's Guineas May 1. Xtension was continuing an upward trend there, having followed a six-lengths second to Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot in June with a win in Goodwood's seven-furlong G2 Vintage S. the following month. "The Coventry was only our second run and he is progressing with each step up in company," trainer Clive Cox said. "Stepping up in trip has helped us too and we've been very happy with him all the way through. He is very straightforward with a great temperament and had trained really well prior to the English Guineas. He ran a blinder there and has come out of that race well--we couldn't be more pleased with his progress since. A stiff mile on the Curragh should suit him and I'm pleased we've now got the benefit of a run under our belts." Of the withdrawals, Jan Vermeer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) is the most notable; Michael Tabor's colt is set to run in Sunday's G3 Gallinule S. instead. "When we said we were going to start Steinbeck in the Guineas we were going to split them up, so he'll start in the Gallinule," O'Brien said of last year's G1 Criterium International winner.

CHAMPION STAKES SET FOR ASCOT MOVE

Newmarket's G1 Champion S. will be staged at Ascot racecourse from the 2011 onwards and will boast a seven-figure prizefund if plans are approved by France's and Ireland's racing authorities, according to Racing Post. The Rowley Mile track will host the G1 Fillies' Mile as a token of compensation, the trade daily added. "The Champion S. in its current guise, while a great race, can be even greater," Ascot spokesman Nick Smith told the Post. "However, none of this can be done without the support of the European Pattern Committee and its main partners, France and Ireland. At the forefront of our minds has been that we must protect Arc weekend and the Irish Champion S."

CORRECTION: In the story about Stephane Pasquier's injury in Thursday's TDN, it was stated that he was due to ride Deluxe (Storm Cat) in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary and Byword (GB) (Peintre Celebre) in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan Sunday. This is not the case, as he is retained by Prince Khalid Abdullah except for Andre Fabre-trained horses.

Michael Iavarone added that possible targets for I Want Revenge are Belmont's GII Suburban H. or Monmouth's GIII Salvator Mile S., both run July 3. IEAH and Dutrow teamed up for an upset victory in the 2008 Suburban, then a Grade I, with Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway).

Formerly trained by Jeff Mullins, I Want Revenge came within a nose of annexing Hollywood's GI CashCall Futurity and was a close third in the GII Robert B. Lewis S. at Santa Anita before posting a pair of breakthrough victories when switched to dirt in New York. He has not raced since overcoming a nightmare trip to win the Wood.

"We're obviously all anxiously awaiting his return to the races, and we'll know a lot more as his morning workload increases in the coming weeks," Iavarone concluded. "For now, we just know we have a colt with a world of talent who is showing us that he will be back at his top-class level."

Last Start: 6th in '09 Ontario Derby Sept. 27

Regally bred Eye of the Leopard, who gave Sam-Son its fifth Queen's Plate victory last June (video), earned an "extended rest" after running sixth in the Ontario Derby last September, according to Tom Zwiesler, farm manager at the operation's Ocala training center.

"He had a hard campaign last year," Zwiesler explained. "It was very quick going into the Plate series and [trainer] Mark Frostad did a great job of getting him there. We won the big one and then he tailed off at the end, so we felt that it was a lot for him in a short time. We all felt that he needed an extended rest."

Last year's Canadian champion sophomore enjoyed his winter in Florida.

"He packed on a lot of pounds and matured everywhere," Zwiesler said.

Eye of the Leopard is now based in the Churchill barn of trainer Neil Howard. He has two three-furlong drills at Churchill this month, most recently covering the distance in :38 4/5 May 14.

Of the trainer change, Zwiesler explained, "We want to try a dirt surface and to try to compete in the States. We want to find out if he can compete on a high level here. If not, we'll take him back up and Mark will take him back. Right now, as far as a stallion value, we have to test the waters down here and we thought it was best to keep him on a dirt surface, since we plan on running him on a dirt track."

In his only dirt appearance to date, Eye of the Leopard was a close third in the Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie last July. Zwiesler is hoping the Sam-Son homebred will be ready for a summer campaign.

"We hope to have him back within a couple of months--hopefully the end of July or August, around that area," he said. "We're going to let the horse tell us when he is ready to go and take it from there."

Last Start: 2nd in '09 GI Vosburgh S. Oct. 3

Fabulous Strike has been one of the country's most consistent and talented sprinters over the past four seasons and will be back for more as a seven-year-old in 2010. The gelding, winner of the 2007 GI Vosburgh S., hasn't worked since finishing a game second in a sloppy renewal of that race last Oct. 3 (video).

"He had a little bit of a ligament issue in a pastern after that, so we've given him plenty of time," trainer Todd Beattie said.

“He’ll be coming back in a month or so,” Beattie added. “We wanted to bring him back a little later this year, so we could have him fresher closer to the Breeders’ Cup, if we’re lucky enough to make it there.”

Beattie said he would wait to see how the big bay worked a few times before picking out a spot for his return. Fabulous Strike, winner of the GII True North H. and GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. last term, has been first or second in 19 of 24 starts and earned $1,409,412. He is owned by his breeder, Walter Downey.

O-Roe Rauch & David Zell; B-Lantern Hill Farm LLC,
 J Rauch & D Zell (KY); T- Ian Wilkes
 Last Start: 8th in ‘09 GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint Nov. 7

Capt. Candyman Can proved to be an ace going seven furlongs last year as a three-year-old. The gelding won the GII Hutcheson S. and GIII Bay Shore S. early in the year, then came back over the summer to finish a head adrift of Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}) in the GI King’s Bishop S. (video) in the Saratoga slop.

Stewards took the latter’s number down, however, for interference in the stretch, giving the “Capt.” his first Grade I victory. After a fast-closing second in the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland in October, he finished eighth, beaten 3 1/2 lengths by Dancing in Silks (Black Minnaloushe), in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint Nov. 7. The gelding was preparing for a return in Florida earlier this year, but was sidelined with injury.

“He had surgery for a left knee chip,” reports trainer Ian Wilkes. “He’s still turned out at Suzie Shoemaker’s Lantern Hill Farm, and he’s still got a little bit more time to go. He’s not quite ready to come back yet. There’s not a time frame to bring him back, but I think it’ll probably be another two months. He’s a gelding, so there’s no rush--we just want to bring him back healthy.”

Capt. Candyman Can, a $25,000 KESEEP yearling purchase, registered one of his four graded victories at Churchill Downs in the 2008 GIII Iroquois S. as a juvenile, but Wilkes said he wouldn’t be pushed to make the Breeders’ Cup, which will be held under the Twin Spires in November.

“We’re too far behind the eight ball, I think,” said Wilkes. “You’ve got to train him up to get ready to run, then find the right spots for him--I just think we’re too far behind.”

"He's doing super," Wilkes said of the GI Carter H. winner. He added that the one-turn configuration of the Met Mile fits Warrior's Reward perfectly.

"Anywhere going seven-eighths to a mile around one turn, I think that's what he wants to do," said the Aussie.

MARAM

(f, 4, Sahm--American Dreamer, by Quest for Fame {GB})

O-Karen N Woods & Saud bin Khaled;
B-Palides Investments N. V. Inc & Hair 'Em Corporation (KY); T-Chad Brown
Last Start: 6th GI BC Filly & Mare Turf

Maram, a heart-stopping heroine of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Oak Tree in 2008 (video), held her own versus a deep group when last seen placing sixth, beaten 3 1/2 lengths, in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf Nov. 6. The dark bay made only two prior starts at three, annexing the John Hettinger S. at Saratoga in August (video) and finishing a close third in Belmont's Pebbles S. Oct. 12. Maram has posted seven workouts since late March, including a bullet five-furlong move in 1:00 at Belmont May 1, and most recently went five furlongs over the Belmont lawn in 1:02 May 16.

"She's really rounding into form nicely the past few weeks," trainer Chad Brown said of the GIII Miss Grillo Breeders' Cup S. victress. "She wasn't quite right when she came out of the Breeders' Cup. She just needed some time and she's come back nicely...She did as good as she could do [in the Filly and Mare Turf]. There were a lot of good fillies in there. Aside from being a tall task to begin with, she didn't get the greatest of trips. It's just one of those things. We took a shot."

Brown has selected Monmouth's GIII Eatontown S. May 31 for Maram's seasonal debut.

"We're going to pull back a little bit and campaign her in easier spots, at least for the first couple of starts this year," Brown added. "If an opportunity comes up down the road for a Group 1 again, we'll try it."

MICHAEL STIDHAM

stidhamracing.com

Accomplishment: Saddled Comedero (Posse) to an impressive victory in the GIII Chick Lang S. (video) on the GI Preakness S. undercard.

Birthdate: 12/18/57

Birthplace: Neptune, New Jersey

Family: Three daughters: Stephanie, Samantha & Camile

Current Residence: I have two. New Orleans in the winter and Palatine, near Arlington, in the summer.

How did you celebrate Comedero's victory? By doing some work for the Timonium sale [laughs]. We stayed and watched the Preakness, then had some dinner and started working on the sale. We bought two.

Do you have any hobbies outside of horse racing? I like to run. For the past 20 years or so, I've enjoyed running. It's a good stress reliever.

What's playing on your CD player or I-Pod right now? Dave Matthews.

Favorite vacation spot? I was raised in Miami--I like to go down there or the Keys. Somewhere warm...by the water...fishing, etc. That type of stuff.

Any favorite TV shows or movies that you like to watch? TVG and HRTV. That's basically what I watch.

Your dad, George Stidham, was a former trainer and jockey. Any good advice that he gave you about training or horse racing stick out? Yeah, don't be a trainer [laughs]. He always wanted me to go to school, get a degree and become a vet.

Do you follow any other sports besides racing? Football. I'm a big Oakland Raiders fan, which is embarrassing now.

Where you upset when they cut loose [former No. 1 draft pick] quarterback JaMarcus Russell? Not even a little bit [laughs].

Who's the best horse you've ever seen? Secretariat. He's truly the most sensational horse that I've ever seen.

What's your favorite thing about horse racing? The action. I love the constant action and the thrill of winning.

If you could change one thing about racing, what would it be? The medication inconsistencies from state to state. We need more of a consistent playing field.

If you could name a stakes race after any person or horse, who would it be? My dad. He really worked hard as a jockey and trainer.

He never really got some of the places that he wanted to go. He was a big inspiration to me. I wish he was around now because I've gotten to some of the places where I want to go in the business.

What inspired you to drop out of veterinary school and become a trainer? I was there because it was what my dad wanted me to do. He had a string of horses at the time and I was like, 'Get me out of this classroom, I've got to be at the racetrack.'

You just hit a million dollar pick-six. What do you do with the winnings? I would be a horse owner. I'd cut my stable back, and own and train my own.

Triple Threats

Two Ruled Out of Belmont...

The Daily Racing Form reports that the connections of both Dublin (Afleet Alex) and Setsuko (Pleasantly Perfect) have announced their intentions to skip the third leg of the Triple Crown, the June 5 GI Belmont S.

Setsuko, runner-up in the GIII Sham S. and GI Santa Anita Derby, missed the cut on graded earnings for the GI Kentucky Derby. The bay instead switched to the turf and ran fourth in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S., but trainer Richard Mandella told DRF he has since developed inflammation in his ankles, and will be sidelined. "It's nothing serious," he told the publication. "We are going to give him a couple months off and start thinking about next year." Dublin finished seventh in the Kentucky Derby and, after bearing out badly from his outside draw in the May 15 GI Preakness S., came on to be fifth. He will be freshened and pointed for a summer campaign.

Stay Put Moves Closer to Belmont Start...

Stay Put (Broken Vow) turned in a six-furlong drill in 1:14 Thursday in preparation for a start in the June 5 GI Belmont S. The Richard Bertram and Elaine Klein-owned chestnut colt came out after the break on a fast track under regular rider Jamie Theriot, and cruised through splits of :13, :26, :38.60, :50.60 and 1:02.40. "He galloped out really strong," said Theriot. "I think we've got a big chance. The longer I can sit on him, the better off we'll be." Trainer Steve Margolis was similarly upbeat. "It was very good. Jamie said he finished well, and I got him galloping out in 1:28 and a mile in 1:42," said Margolis, who has never before saddled a horse in the Belmont. "He will ship to Belmont next Thursday, train Friday and then work a half-mile Saturday or Sunday." Stay Put is coming off an allowance win in the slop on the Kentucky Derby undercard. He finished fifth prior to that in both the GII Risen Star S. and GII Louisiana Derby.

It's down at the boardwalk, and is very good. It's sushi and hibachi. I'm not a big hibachi fan--my son likes that--but I love the sushi. We go all the time, and the jocks are there all the time. Joe Bravo was there the other night, Rajiv Maragh went with me. There are a lot of racetrack people. There's also one in Eatontown, but I like the one on the boardwalk.

I don't think too many people know about this place, but any time my parents come down, we go here. I've never had a bad meal. Everything's cooked to order. It doesn't have a great atmosphere, to be honest--it's kind of dark--but the food is always great.

If you have kids with you, it's the perfect place to take them after the races. I'm actually going there tonight with my son. There's something called the Crunchburger, where they put the potato chips right in the burger. You can also get take-out.

There's a really nice boutique here called Tula that's a great place for women to shop. There's The Grove East and The Grove West--that's in The Grove West, but both places are good for shopping. I also love walking around Red Bank and shopping there. There's a clothing store called Nirvana. If you have teenagers, they have great stuff.

It's a nice, quaint country bistro, and it's another place where I've never had a bad meal. It's always very, very good. I've already been there since I got back to Jersey.

A LION HEARTED colt who sizzled at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale's Under Tack Show, lit up the board at the Timonium, Md, sale when hammered down for $240,000 by Boom Boom Boom Stable. The colt named AMAZING HEARTED is headed to the barn of 2010 Preakness-winning trainer Bob Baffert.

The LION HEARTED colt, who turned in a quarter in a co-fastest :21.60, is from the family of G1 winning sprinter Henny Hughes.

The price equals the highest ever for a LION HEARTED juvenile sold at auction, matching that for the filly Storm Hearted, from his first crop.

HAINES NAMED INTERIM SANTA ANITA

PRESIDENT George Haines has been named interim president of Santa Anita Park and Golden Gate Fields, MI Developments Inc. announced. Haines replaces Ron Charles, who resigned Wednesday after holding that post for 5 1/2 years. "I am delighted George has accepted the challenge to lead our West Coast racing operations during these challenging times in California racing," Dennis Mills, MID's Vice-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said. "George and I will seek to complement our advisory team to help develop a strategic approach in California that will benefit all stakeholders." Haines, employed by Santa Anita since 1972, was Santa Anita's vice president and general manager.

NEW YORK STATE COMPTROLLER RELEASES

OTB REPORT The office of New York State Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli yesterday released its audit of five of the regional off-track betting corporations in the state. The audit, which covered Capital, Catskill, Nassau, Suffolk and Western OTBs, from January 2004 to June 2009, found that handle during that period was hit by the same conditions affecting the global economy, decreasing by $103 million--approximately 10 percent. "OTB is hitting the home stretch, and it's coming in last," said DiNapoli. "If OTBs are going to remain viable, New York will have to take action to bring back the bettors and fix OTB. The current business model just doesn't work." The report also stated that the OTBs have faced increased competition from casinos and advance deposit wagering outlets, and that only two--Capital and Nassau--offer on-line wagering to their customers. The Comptroller's office found that the fees charged by harness tracks for their nighttime races were "outdated and too high." Recommendations from DiNapoli included reviewing:

- The formula used to calculate the corporations' payments to harness tracks.
- The corporations' authority to site remote wagering locations.
- Whether ADWs should be subject to state Racing Law and regulatory requirements.
- The formulas used to calculate the corporations' up-front statutory and surcharge payments to NYS.

According to a press release, the OTBs agreed with much of the report, and that a reduction in up-front payments to the state and the racing industry need to be reduced to ensure the continued viability of the operations. DiNapoli's office completed an audit of New York City OTB last year, and is in the process of auditing the New York Racing Association. That report is expected to be released this summer. (For the complete audit of the five regional OTBs, click here).

Raced exclusively at marathon distances last term, Gangbuster rolled home by 10 3/4 lengths in the Fort Harrod S. over the Keeneland Polytrack in April, but failed to find the winner's enclosure in five subsequent starts. Sixth in the grassy GIII Louisville H. May 23, he was disappointing when second in the June 27 Polar Expedition H. at Arlington and fourth in the Cougar II H. at Del Mar Aug. 5, in the GIII Turfway Park Fall Championship S. Sept. 12 and in the Nov. 6 Breeders' Cup Marathon. Three wide early and never far from the front, Gangbuster responded when set down for the drive and put away favored Lemon Spice for a comfortable victory. KINDERGARDEN KID (c, 3, Dynaformer--Amelia {SW, $179,565}, by Dixieland Band) was off slowly in his nine-furlong debut over the Gulfstream Park turf course Feb. 20, but came with a stinging late run that saw him finish fourth, beaten 3/4 of a length. He added an extra quarter of a mile for his latest in Hallandale Mar. 31, and, despite getting broadsided on the final of three turns, struck the front at the eighth pole and went on to graduate by three-parts of a length. Let go at odds of 7-1 in his first try against winners, the $500,000 KEESEP yearling purchase was a close fifth and three wide through a slow opening three-quarters of a mile. Eased out one more path into the stretch, he swept to the front outside the eighth pole and outlasted Cherokee Speed (Cherokee Run) to score by 3/4 of a length. New Madrid (Rock Hard Ten) set the pace, but weakened to fifth in what was to be a prep for the GI Belmont S. June 5. The winner holds entries for Arlington Park's Mid-America Triple series and could factor prominently in the two-race sequence for sophomores at Colonial Downs this summer. Five in the Running for Aqueduct Casino:

The Daily Racing Form reports that five separate entities have met the May 18 deadline to submit questions pertaining to bids to operate the Aqueduct casino. The questions were submitted in response to a Request for Proposals announced by the New York State Lottery May 11, but Lottery officials declined to identify the five potential bidders. Three bidders have already announced their intention to make proposals: Penn National Gaming, and partnerships comprised of SL Green and Hard Rock Casinos, and Peebles Development and MGM Grand. The deadline to submit bids is June 29, and the state Lottery is expected to announce their recommendation on a winner Aug. 3.

CONNIE AND MICHAEL (f, 3, Roman Ruler--Detect, by Devil's Bag) made an ultra-impressive return to the races here, earning herself a trip to the Big Apple for the GI Mother Goose S. June 26. Bet down from 12-1 to 5-2 favoritism in her Oct. 17 debut at Keeneland, she rolled home by 7 3/4 lengths and, 20 days later, took in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. A forward factor for six furlongs that Friday afternoon, she weakened in the stretch to finish eighth as the 9-2 second choice. She was making her first start since a third-place effort as the betting choice in the GIII Miesque S. on the grass at Hollywood Park Nov. 29. Allowed to lope along up front, Connie and Michael got her opening quarter mile in :23.93, but was forced to work a bit harder in the middle of the race. Tackled in earnest by Lady Etienne (Stephen Got Even) after six panels in 1:11.31, the $80,000 KEESEP yearling rebroke in upper stretch and shaded :24 for her final quarter mile to win by 5 1/4 lengths. Winning trainer Ken McPeek was duly pleased with the comeback effort. "She has been very special from day one," he explained. "We were very ambitious with her in her second start there, but we always felt she was that good. She had a small issue over the winter that we gave her time off for, but obviously she's back to her game." One of the filly's best attributes? Her versatility, says the conditioner. "She has always handled the dirt very well, so I wasn't concerned about that," McPeek offered. "It was more of a timing thing that she tried the Polytrack in her debut. In terms of the Miesque, we didn't have a lot of other options. We were in California at the time and there just wasn't a whole lot for her. We could have been more conservative and won some smaller stakes last year, but we decided to be more aggressive." Lifetime Record: GSP, 4-2-0-1, $72,000. A handy third as Iwillinaminute (More Than Ready) set the pace, the homebred tipped out three wide into the stretch and drove past the frontrunner to post a 3/4-length victory. Recent Kentucky Derby winner Borel was taken off all his mounts Thursday with an eye infection, but should return Saturday according to his agent, Jerry Hissam. Leparoux will be out of commission for longer following a spill during last Friday's GI Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico. Last year's Eclipse Award winner rode two winners on the following day's Preakness card, but an MRI Tuesday revealed that the injury was more severe than originally believed. "He has a compression fracture of the T-8 [vertebra] in the middle of his back," said agent Steve Bass. "Julien was still sore when he got back here and, when we went to the doctor, he didn't think it was anything major...I told him it was something that needed to be tended to before it turned out to be something that could affect him long term." Leparoux is expected to miss 1 1/2 to two weeks.

Edited Press Release

The 2009 Breeders' Cup World Championships is one of five nominees for the Sports Business Journal's Sports Event of the Year Award, along with Super Bowl XLIV, the MLB All-Star Game, the Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic and the tennis U.S. Open. Fifth Third Seeks Personal Bank Records In Zayat Suit:

According to published reports, attorneys for Fifth Third Bank filed a request Wednesday in a New Jersey bankruptcy court for access to the personal banking records of Ahmed Zayat. Fifth Third Bank sued Zayat Stables last December, alleging the operation had defaulted on a $34-million loan. That lawsuit was put on hold when Zayat Stables filed for bankruptcy at the beginning of February this year. Fifth Third Bank's attorneys stated in the filing that Zayat had used business assets for personal expenditures, including personal loans and credit card bills and to fund an internet wagering account. Zayat Stables' lawyers are expected to counter with a motion to deny the request.

VERDICT RETURNED IN JOCKEYS CASE Building worker Peter Brown was yesterday found guilty of killing apprentice jockeys Jamie Kyne and Jan Wilson by setting fire to the apartment complex where the pair were staying last year. However, Brown, who was found to have committed the offence in a drunken revenge attack, was ruled guilty of manslaughter, but cleared of murder at Leeds Crown Court. He was also acquitted of a separate charge of committing arson with intent to endanger life. The jury of 12 took 13 hours to reach their verdicts. Brown has yet to be sentenced after Justice Nicola adjourned proceedings for the completion of a pre-sentence report, telling the defendant, "So I can have full information about the danger you pose." Following the verdict, families of both jockeys issued a statement, saying, "Peter Brown has robbed us of two wonderfully young people who had so much to live for. When Jan and Jamie died, a part of each one of us died with them. He has left us all shattered and our lives will never be the same again. We are pleased that he has now been held accountable for the devastating events of last September, however no punishment will ever bring Jan and Jamie back. They have both been denied a great future, and lifestyle in a sport they loved so much and had triumphed in. Brown may have taken away Jan and Jamie, but he cannot take away our memories. We would like to thank everyone involved in bringing the case to trial and ensuring that justice was done for Jan and Jamie. Our thanks go to everyone who has helped and supported us through the past eight months, in particular the Injured Jockeys Fund. We must now try to rebuild lives and ensure the memories of Jan and Jamie live on."

+ MAQAASID (GB) (f, 2, Green Desert--Eshaadeh, by Storm Cat) missed the break and was held up at the back of the pack throughout the early stages of this racecourse bow. Always travelling well, the 7-2 joint first choice scythed through the field at the two-furlong marker and had to be switched out wide for a clear run. Once finding daylight, the bay showed an impressive turn of foot to gain the advantage inside the final 100 yards and landed the spoils under hands-and-heels riding by a half-length from Elshabakiya (Ire) (Diktat {GB}). Take Flight (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), a full to Saoire (GB), struggled with greenness after an alert break, but made promising late headway to be third. Video, courtesy of Racing UK. India Lifts Import Restrictions on British Thoroughbreds:

Indian has lifted its restrictions on the importation of Thoroughbred breeding stock from Great Britain following extensive lobbying led by the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, according to an official announcement in the latest edition of the Indian Government Gazette. "The TBA has been working to secure the movement of horses since the restriction was imposed in 1995," said TBA Chairman Kirsten Rausing. "This has been a long campaign, but one which stepped up a gear last year. Whilst it was unfortunate that we were unable to welcome Indian buyers to the 2009 Tattersalls December Sales, we now look forward to their return to British sales later this year." The trade restriction was invoked in 1995 as a result of an outbreak of Contagious Equine Metritis in the United Kingdom. According to reports found on the Horserace Betting Levy Board's website (www.hblb.org.uk), the disease has been eradicated in Thoroughbreds the U.K.

PERUGINO MARE TOPS GREAT SOUTHERN

The Perugino mare Streghetto (Aus), in foal to leading Southern Hemisphere sire Zabeel (NZ), topped Thursday's Great Southern Broodmare Sale in Melbourne when selling to Morning Rise Stud for A$190,000.

Offered by Greta West's Bucklee Farm, Hip 953--who is out of stakes winner Lucky Witch (Aus) (Voodoo Rhythm)--is a full-sister to the Group 3 victress Lucky Diva (Aus) and listed winner Gina Lollawitcha (Aus). The unraced mare is also a half-sister to Group 3 winner Spirit Of Westbury (Aus) (Sir Tristram {Ire}), who placed at the Group 1 level; and listed victor Duke Of West- bury (Aus) (Sir Tristram {Ire}). The unraced mare was one of three mares to top the A$100,000 mark during the opening session of the Broodmare sale. Also surpassing the mark was Hip 951, the nine-year-old Red Ransom mare Ransom Claim (Aus). Out of multiple stakes winner and Group 1 placed Loving Cup (Aus) (Bluebrid), the nine-year-old sold late in the day to Patinack Farm for A$100,000.

Consigned by Lindsay Park Stud, the mare sold carrying a positive test to the first season sire, Arrowfield resident Starcraft (NZ). Rounding out the top trio was Hip 495, Lady Madeleine (Aus) (Hector Protector), who made A$100,000 from William Inglis, agent, at Thursday's opening session. In foal to Fastnet Rock (Aus), the 12-year-old is already responsible for listed-placed colt Bertonic (Aus) (Bianconi). The bay is a daughter of Mare Doree (Fr) (Kenmare), a half-sister to Le Bavard (Devon), winner of the G1 Prix du Cadran. "It was pleasing to see the better quality mares sell well and there was some good value buying in amongst them," Inglis Director Peter Heagney said. The sale concludes today [Friday], with the General Session commencing at 11 a.m. Highlighting the final day are the well-bred fillies and a number of geldings with disclosed race form in the Racehorse section.
