GAME ON

Both Tuscan Evening (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and Forever Together (Belong to Me) have a bit to prove when they face off this evening in the G1 Gamely S. at Hollywood. A deserving morning-line favorite, Tuscan Evening has put together an impressive four-race skein on the Santa Anita sod, with successive graded scores from 6 1/2 furlongs to 10 panels in her latest trip to the winner's circle in the GII Santa Barbara H. Apr. 17. The speedy bay has also won three of four starts over this course, with her only loss coming when second to Ventura (Chester House) in the G1 Matriarch S. in November. The only thing missing from her resume is a Grade I event and, unless someone runs with her early here, it looks as though she'll be able to check that off. "Our filly runs on the front end or off the pace, so whatever happens, happens," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer told Daily Racing Form. "I wouldn't be uncomfortable with either." Forever Together, who earned the 2008 Eclipse Award with three top-level triumphs, added the G1 Diana S. and GII Jenny Wiley S. in 2009 before closing out the season with a third in her title defense of the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf at Santa Anita Nov. 6. The grey filly does her best running from off the pace, and will be hoping that Tuscan Evening is kept honest up front. Princess Haya (Street Cry {Ire}), who posted a 15-1 upset over Forever Together by a nose in the GII Canadian S. Sept. 20, makes her second start for trainer Carl O'Callaghan. The Texas-bred was beaten 2 1/4 lengths when fifth in the one-mile GIII Wilshire H. over this lawn May 1. That was her first start since finishing third in the G1 E.P. Taylor S. Oct. 17, and the bay should improve with that effort as well as the added distance here. Field p2

FOUR NEW HALL OF FAMERS

A trio of Thoroughbreds--Horses of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) and Point Given (Thunder Gulch) and the multi-millionaire Best Pal (*Habitony)--and jockey Randy Romero have been elected to the National Museum of Racing's Hall of Fame, it was announced Friday morning. The Hall of Fame unveiled a new voting process this year, with 10 finalists from a variety of categories on the ballot. The four getting the most votes became the newest Hall of Famers. Also on the ballot this year were distaffers Open Mind (Deputy Minister), Safely Kept (Horatius) and Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}), jockey Alex Solis, and trainers Gary Jones and Robert Wheeler. Cont. p3

Think About It!

Romero retired in 1999 after a 26-year career that saw him win 4,294 races and $75 million in purses. He partnered fellow Hall of Famers Personal Ensign (Private Account) and Go for Wand (Deputy Minister), and took the riding titles at 10 different tracks, including Belmont Park, Gulfstream Park and Keeneland. "It's a great honor, and it's a dream that's come true," Romero said. "If I die today, I accomplished all I ever wanted to accomplish." The 52-year-old was not surprised when he got the call about his election Friday morning. "I was pretty pumped up about it," he said. "I thought I would get in this year. I'm very fortunate that God took care of me and saved me from getting hurt too bad." But did Romero ever foresee this honor when he started out at the bush tracks in his native Louisiana? "I never dreamed that big," he admitted. "I knew it was going to be good, but never, never in my dreams did I think I was going to make it that big. No I didn't. I'm so excited, I have goosebumps."

As for what he has been doing lately, he explained, "I'm working on my book, 'Randy Romero's Remarkable Ride.' It's been out about six weeks, and we've sold about 5,000 copies already. I've got a producer and a scriptwriter and the script is all done—we're working on making a movie about my life story, from the age of nine years old, riding match races in Louisiana. We've got a couple of investors, but we're still looking for one or two more."

Best Pal, bred by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mabee and campaigned by their Golden Eagle Farm, retired as the leading Cal-bred money earner with a bank account of $5,668,245. Hero of the inaugural Pacific Classic and runner-up in the GI Kentucky Derby at three in 1991, the bay gelding captured six Grade I events during his lengthy career.

Point Given, a Thoroughbred Corporation homebred, was runner-up in both the GI Champagne S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in 2000 before signing off that year with a GI Hollywood Futurity success for trainer Bob Baffert. Wins in the GII San Felipe S. and GI Santa Anita Derby the following spring made him the GI Kentucky Derby favorite, but he faltered at 9-5 and wound up fifth. However, the chestnut came right back with victories in the GI Preakness S., GI Belmont S., GI Haskell Invitational H. and GI Travers S. The latter proved to be his career finale, and he went to stud with a record of 13-9-3-0 and earnings of $3,968,500. He has sired Canadian Horse of the Year Sealy Hill, as well as Canadian champion Points of Grace, ill-fated millionaire Go Between and GISW Point Ashley.

Azeri capped her Horse of the Year campaign with a win in the 2002 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Arlington Park. After three more Grade I wins the following season for trainer Laura de Seroux, the chestnut was transferred to D. Wayne Lukas, who saddled her to another three top-level scores. The Allen Paulson Trust colorbearer earned $4,079,820 during her career. Her first foal, an A.P. Indy colt, RNA'd for $7.7 million as a yearling at KEESEP before topping the 2009 KEEAPR sale at $1.9 million. Named Take Control, he was tabbed as a 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 for owner Kaleem Shah in December before being sidelined by tender shins. Azeri herself RNA'd for $4.4 million at KEEJAN in 2009 before selling to Katsumi Yoshida for $2.25 million at KEENOV later that year. She has a two-year-old Giant's Causeway filly named Arienza, as well as a yearling filly by Ghostzapper.

The 182 members of the Hall of Fame voting panel decided this year's inductees in the contemporary categories. The selections of the Hall of Fame's Historic Review Committee, which will round out this year's class, will be announced Wednesday, June 9. This year's induction ceremony will be held at 10: 30 a.m. on Aug. 13 at the Fasig-Tipton sales pavilion in Saratoga Springs, New York. The ceremony is free and open to the public. Tar Heel Mom and Hour Glass, the one-two finishers respectively in the Apr. 17 GII Distaff H. at Aqueduct, look to renew their rivalry here. The former set an extremely fast, but unpressured, pace before drawing off to score by 2 1/2 in the mud, while the latter rallied from fourth of five early to prove a clear-cut second best. The front-end should be more crowded today, and Tar Heel Mom may have to display the rating ability she showed two and three back to hold Hour Glass at bay. Lightly raced Saarligh will look to build on her 2010 comebacker, which also came in the mud in a Belmont allowance May 12. She stumbled at the start, dueled outside until taking over at the top of the stretch, but succumbed to multiple New York-bred stakes winner Sapphire Sky (Sky Mesa) by a nose in the final strides. Grade II winner Malibu Prayer could be dangerous if ready off an almost six-month break, but this looks like a prep for longer.

Ailalea may have been compromised by a wide post last time in the GI Kentucky Oaks here on Apr. 30. The bay filly broke from post 12 while sporting blinkers for the first time, was rank and extremely wide while scrambling for a spot close to the early lead, and understandably tired late to finish a solid fifth, all things considered. Winner of the GIII Tempted S. going a one-turn mile at Aqueduct last November, she should appreciate the cut back in distance this afternoon. Helen Belen, a puzzling sort who will make her first start on conventional dirt, should come out of the box running. She was a stalking third in the May 5 Indiana Distaff on turf last time after a speed-and-fade effort in the GIII Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway in March. She employed similar tactics in the Valdale S. Feb. 20, but never looked back that day; she ended up 14 3/4 lengths in front at the wire. Tap Tap Tapping has only a maiden win to her credit, but was third in the GIII Honeybee S. at Oaklawn in March. She has some upside, but must atone for an allowance flop last out at Churchill Apr. 28.

Dettori on Rewilding...

Godolphin yesterday announced that Frankie Dettori will partner the May 19 Listed Cocked Hat S. winner Rewilding (GB) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. After riding the operation's "TDN Rising Star" Al Zir (Medaglia d'Oro) in a home exercise in Newmarket, Dettori sided with the ex-Andre Fabre trainee, and Ahmed Ajtebi will have his first ride on Al Zir at Epsom. Racing Manager Simon Crisford said, "Frankie rode Al Zir on the watered gallop at Newmarket this morning and was pleased with him." But, Crisford added, "We have decided Frankie will be on Rewilding in the Investec Derby, with Ahmed on Al Zir." Rewilding is a half-brother to MG1SW Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). It was also revealed on the Godolphin website that Chabal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was being given a break, and that the G3 Prix La Force winner Simon de Montfort (Ire) (King's Best) is being aimed at the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 6.

St Nick Disappoints in Workout...

Derrick Smith's St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was at the centre of a shake-up in the markets for the G1 Epsom Derby yesterday after apparently disappointing Johnny Murtagh in a home spin. Trainer Aidan O'Brien revealed that Coolmore's retained rider reported that last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy winner, who finished sixth in the May 1 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, failed to "sparkle." The news saw a gamble develop with last Sunday's G3 Gallinule S. hero Jan Vermeer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) bet into favoritism with some firms as jockey plans were put on hold. "Johnny Murtagh rode St Nicholas Abbey this morning and thought he might not have shown the same sparkle he showed last Tuesday morning, therefore he won't make up his mind what horse he rides in the Investec Derby until the middle of next week," the Ballydoyle conditioner said.

Stately Victor Arrives in Empire State...

Thomas and Jack Conway's Stately Victor (Ghostzapper) was bedded down at Belmont Park Thursday night after flying in from Kentucky. "Everything went smoothly, but the plane was a little late," said trainer Mike Maker. "He'll gallop Saturday morning at 5:30 a.m. and breeze Monday or Tuesday after the break. Usually I prefer just to ship right on top of a race, but I thought that coming here, I would prefer to have a work over this track. Another positive on our side is that [jockey] Alan Garcia has won a Belmont [with Da'Tara in 2008], but, more importantly, he fits the horse well." Garcia was in the irons for Stately Victor's 40-1 upset of the G1 Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 10, and rode the colt during an eighth-place finish last out in the G1 Kentucky Derby May 1.

All in for the Acorn...

The $300,000 G1 BetFair TVG Acorn S. on the G1 Belmont S. undercard is likely to attract nine three-year-old fillies. Expected to reach the starting gate are Amen Hallelujah (Montbrook), Buckleupbuttercup (Najran), Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), Dances With Ashley (Wildcat Heir), Indian Burn (Indian Charlie), Much Rejoicing (Distorted Humor), Quiet Temper (Quiet American), Seeking the Title (Seeking the Gold) and Streaker (Forest Wildcat).

RACING Round-Up

SEATTLE SMOOTH RETIRED Mercedes Stables' Grade I winner Seattle Smooth (Quiet American--Our Seattle Star, by Seattle Song) has been retired due to ankle issues, Daily Racing Form reports. The five-year-old recently returned from an 11-month layoff to finish second in the GII Shuvee H., a race she won last year. "According to [trainer] Tony [Dutrow], she's got similar problems, so he doesn't think we can really go on with her," co-owner Ernie Moody told DRF. "Tony said she wasn't the same filly she was 11 months ago when she came back. He said she was having trouble galloping at full speed. He thought it was time to retire her. It's unfortunate. We were looking forward to her having a good year and getting to the Breeders' Cup. It is a sad thing." Bred by Dr. Oscar Benavides and Darley, the bay filly sold for $340,000 as a yearling at FTKJUL to Mercedes Stable and began her career under the tutelage of trainer Julio Canani. She won two of seven California starts for Canani, but was a different filly on the Eastern dirt tracks. Turned over to Dutrow in the summer of 2008, Seattle Smooth captured Delaware Park's Go for Wand S. by 7 1/4 lengths before trumping champion Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) in the GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion S. At four, she rattled off wins in the GII Bed o'Roses H. and GII Shuvee H. before capturing the GI Ogden Phipps H. last June. She took her bankroll to $1,001,160 with her runner-up effort in this year's Shuvee, and her career mark stands at 14-7-2-1. Breeding plans have not yet been announced.

Q & A WITH THE BREEDERS' CUP CANDIDATES

On May 24, Breeders' Cup announced the 28 candidates who will stand for election to the Breeders' Cup Board of Members and Trustees. There are 13 openings on the Board. Voting begins June 8 and closes June 22 at 5 p.m. The bios of the 28 candidates are available in documents circulated to the voters--Breeders' Cup foal and stallion nominators--and the TDN once again will provide additional information on the candidates' viewpoints. To that end, we posed the following question to each of the candidates, and have given them 400 words or fewer in which to respond.

Jerry Jamgotchian:

First off, I would like to thank TDN for the opportunity to answer this question, and I hope that other horseracing publications and websites will follow TDN's lead in this regard.

In response to this important question, I would like to focus on two major issues facing the Breeders' Cup, which I will aggressively pursue and seek to resolve:

#1 - Increase Purses and Nominator Awards: The Breeders' Cup must distribute YEARLY, through race-track purses and other nominator awards, at least 90 percent of all nominations received ($16 million), championship fees received ($18.8 million) and sponsorship revenue received ($5.5 million). Therefore, available Breeders' Cup purse money and nominator awards, under my plan, would exceed $36 million annually; far more than the $25 million or so currently being offered. Since the Breeders' Cup is a "non-profit organization," there is absolutely no need to make a profit or retain earnings, other than for normal business operational expenses. If the Breeders' Cup successfully markets Thoroughbred horseracing, I am confident that most breeders, stallion managers and racehorse owners would remain loyal to the Breeders' Cup and continue making nomination and other fee payments.

Jerry Jamgotchian

#2 - Better Utilize the Board of Members and Trustees: The Breeders' Cup Board of Directors must grant specific decision-making powers to the Breeders' Cup Board of Members and Trustees. There seems to be a total disconnect between the two boards, because the Board of Members and Trustees has little, if any, involvement in the operation or direction of the Breeders' Cup. Cont. p10

Since the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors exclusively and unilaterally makes nearly all Breeders' Cup decisions, this dysfunctional management structure creates friction between the two boards and fails to utilize the leadership talents, energy and ideas that the Board of Members and Trustees could offer to the Breeders' Cup management team.

Please visit my website--www.voteforjerryjam.com--to closely review my platform, business plan, qualifications, background and pledge to determine if you support my vision for improving the Breeders' Cup. If you do, I hope that you will vote for me during the upcoming election period, which runs June 8-22. Thank you for your consideration.

Niall Brennan:

One of the many issues facing Breeders' Cup is the same as that which is facing our entire industry: Survival in a very competitive sports environment. But why settle for survival? I believe that there is a real opportunity for continued growth of the Breeders' Cup and the sport we are so passionate about, following on the recommendations of the Strategic Planning Committee. Yes, it will take genuine cooperation. One voice may not be much, but, if elected, I would strive to be part of a team effort and a voice to be heard. We need fresh ideas! We can't think like the younger generation while continuing to act like the older! We need to forge a strong alliance with like-minded people in the media and use this technology to access the infinite number of potential fans among young men and women hungry for entertainment. The future success of the Breeders' Cup and its marketing strategy could be used as a face for the entire industry our organization needs to set up, so let's get front and center! United we stand and succeed. Divided? Well, we are already there!

SHOW ME THE MONEY... MONMOUTH 2010

In an ongoing series, the TDN will take a look at Monmouth Park's inaugural 50-day, $50 million Elite Summer Meet

California Dreamin'...

Monmouth Park's Elite Summer Meeting has attracted several new faces, including a handful of California-based trainers.

Conditioner Peter Miller shipped 12 of his 50-plus stable cross-country to compete at the lucrative meeting. From three starters on opening weekend, one finished in the money.

Peter Miller
Horsephotos

"Well, of course, the purse structure is the most obvious reason," Miller said when asked what lured him to Monmouth Park this summer. "But, also for me, it had to do with the state of racing in California as well as around the country. I thought I'd try to get my foot in the door and check out some other places."

Two of Miller's first three Monmouth starters have already been claimed. The trainer has also run a pair at nearby Belmont Park, hitting the board with both.

"We didn't bring anything that we'd be upset to lose," Miller explained. "I knew the claiming would be brisk. We also brought horses that we thought would excel on the dirt. With California being all synthetic, we had some horses that we thought really deserved an opportunity to run on the dirt. Those were really the two main things. I also brought over a New Jersey-bred two-year-old that I bought in Florida, and a New York-bred."

Miller's first trip to Monmouth Park came courtesy of Set Play (Van Nistelrooy) for the 2007 Breeders' Cup. The GI Del Mar Debutante S. heroine finished 11th behind champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the Juvenile Fillies.

"The track is in a really nice area near the water," Miller said of Monmouth. "The barn area is nice--it's a really good facility. The track seems to be in good shape. My wife and I enjoy the Jersey Shore area...I'm going to try and basically spend every third week in New Jersey."

Mike Machowsky, connecting at a 31-percent clip from 35 starters this season, has been allotted four stalls at Monmouth. The conditioner is waiting to see how a pair of runners perform this weekend at Hollywood Park before deciding who will ship East.

"I haven't sent anything to Monmouth yet," Machowsky confirmed.

"The few horses that I was going to originally bring had setbacks. It didn't work out the way I wanted it to with horses holding up out here."

Machowsky, who maintains an 18-horse string at Santa Anita, is considering GII Robert B. Lewis S. hero

Caracortado (Cat

Dreams) for the $200,000 Pegasus S. at Monmouth June 19. The chestnut was last seen tiring to finish seventh in the GI Preakness S. May 15.

"It's such a great opportunity," Machowsky said of competing at the prestigious Monmouth meeting. "They really have a great program. I've been there once, a while back. It's a beautiful place in a great area. It kind of reminds me of Del Mar." -SS

Mike Machowsky & Caracortado
Horsephotos

Mitchell in for Monmouth...

West Coast-based conditioner Mike Mitchell will also join in the reverse Gold Rush. The California native sent nine from his stable of almost 50, but has already lost one via the claim box.

That runner, Church Service (Pulpit), ran third in the fourth race last Sunday: a $25,000 turf claimer with a purse of $48,600. The seven-year-old gelding, who Mitchell claimed for $50,000 in January of 2008, was just a head shy of taking the inaugural Breeders' Cup Marathon later that year, is a Grade III winner and is Grade I-placed. He hadn't started since last September, but was haltered by owner Ken Ramsey and trainer Mike Maker.

In regards to the types of horses that he has armed himself with for the ultra-competitive battle at the shore, Mitchell said, "The horses [that I'm bringing] are horses that don't really fit in the races that fill at Hollywood, like an $80,000 optional race or a $60,000 optional race. I've got a two-other-than filly that's running Monday that the race didn't go twice. Cont. p12

So, a lot of the horses that I'm bringing belong in races that just don't fill [in California]." And, he added, "The pots are just so nice."

Mitchell continued, "They're good horses. Even the racing secretary commented that he looked at my papers and I was bringing in some quality horses. So, I'm not coming all the way there with horses that I don't think fit."

Although the notoriously astute Mitchell has already lost a runner to the claiming vultures, he has not been able to raise the funds he expected in order to scoop up fresh stock.

"I've been calling a lot of owners, telling them that I'm here, just trying to hustle up some money to claim, but that's been kind of slow. The purses are just so good that I didn't think it would be this hard," said the 62-year-old conditioner.

If he were to claim, Mitchell would only have one goal in mind. "There's no sense in claiming a horse [at Monmouth] and taking it to Del Mar because the pots [at Monmouth] are so big. I'd be claiming [at Monmouth] to run there."

The veteran is a strong proponent of the Monmouth concept, and believes that its success or failure could hold the key to the future of racing in his native state.

"I think it's the future of racing," he said. "I'm really hoping that it works because I think it's what California needs to do. They keep trying to have five days of racing, but the horses just aren't out there. They're just not there, and I really believe, in my own opinion, that 'sure, I'd love to be in a five horse field at 3-5,' but the public finds that boring. If we're going to put a good product out there, we need to have fuller fields." --BD

NJ SENATORS CALL FOR END OF CASINO

SUBSIDY New Jersey State Senators James Whelan and Stephen Sweeney spoke at the recently concluded East Coast Gaming Congress in Atlantic City, calling for an end to the $30-million annual subsidy provided to the horse racing industry in the Garden State by the Atlantic City casinos, according to Harness Tracks of America. The newsletter quotes Sweeney as saying "I don't think casinos should be spending $30 million on horse racing--they should be spending it on promoting the casinos." Wheelan, the former mayor of Atlantic City and now the chairman of the New Jersey Wagering and Tourism Committee in the Senate, indicated that he would also oppose continuing the subsidy. Dissent was offered by Tom Luchento, president of the Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association of New Jersey, who told those assembled that if slot machines were in place at the Meadowlands, they could raise $1 billion for the racing industry. Luchento said that 13,000 people are employed in the racing industry state-wide. "He's off-base," Luchento said after Whelan spoke. "They say our system is broken, but I say theirs is broken just as much." The subsidy agreement, which provides $90 million to the racing industry over a three-year period, expires in early 2011.

SIGNALS RESTORED AT NEW YORK CITY OTB

The wagering menu at New York City OTB Corporation was expanded from two tracks to 19 Friday afternoon after the New York State Racing and Wagering Board lifted restrictions that had prevented NYCOTB from offering those signals. The NYSRWB began implementing the restrictions several weeks ago, because the bankrupt NYCOTB was delinquent on some of the payments it was required to make to the tracks, and because the Board had not signed off on all of the contracts involved. According to Daily Racing Form, NYCOTB sent a letter to the Board Wednesday in which they guaranteed they would make good on the money owed. "[The letter] provided a mechanism for the Board to have assurances that we would be in a position to make the payments that are required," NYCOTB General Counsel Ira Block told DRF. John Sabini, the chairman of the NYSRWB, added, "They're making a good-faith effort to put the money in the escrow account, and we can watch it from there. That gives us some comfort. I think we made our point." NYCOTB only offered wagering from Belmont Park and Finger Lakes last weekend. After the restrictions were lifted, they added the Thoroughbred tracks Arlington Park, Calder, Churchill Downs, Colonial Downs, Delaware Park, Fort Erie, Hollywood Park, Indiana Downs, Monmouth Park, Prairie Meadows, Presque Isle, River Downs, Suffolk Downs, Thistledown and Woodbine, as well as several harness tracks, to the menu.

CORRECTION: The TDN write-up of the sixth race at Belmont Park Thursday stated that winner Shrewd One (Smarty Jones) was third in his career opener at Belmont Park last October. The dark bay returned a winner in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 15, and made it two straight tallies when stretched to a mile at the Hallandale oval last time Feb. 14. Backed as the second choice here, Qualia pressed La Concerto on the outside through fractions of :22.38 and :45.39. With Rajiv Maragh aboard, she reached even terms at the top of the straight and drew clear to take it in style. Platinum (Mineshaft), favored at even-money, tired badly to finish last, 17 lengths behind the fourth-place finisher. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.
