FIREWORKS LAUNCH F-T TUESDAY

At the conclusion of the first day of selling at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Sale, spirits were understandably low after gross and average fell, while the buyback rate rose over 2009 figures. But all that seemed to wash away with the day's rains after Hip 101, a colt by A.P. Indy out of champion Maryfield (Elusive Quality), strode out of the ring after the hammer fell at $1.2 million. Bidding kicked off quickly as trainer Todd Pletcher --who was posted out back while on the phone near the bidspotters' stand--jumped into the fray early. Increasing quickly by $50,000 increments, bidding hit the $1-million mark, and when all was said and done, it was Pletcher, acting on behalf of Benjamin Leon's Besilu Farm, who signed the ticket on the handsome bay.

"I thought he was the complete package," said Pletcher. "Conformationally, he is a beautiful horse. He handled himself well and is a good-sized first foal. He has a good walk, and is obviously out of champion mare. He checked off off the boxes in what we were looking for." Cont. p2

Second Day Lift For Saratoga...

After a lackluster opening session Monday, activity picked up noticeably during yesterday's finale to the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Selected Yearling. "Tonight just felt better--there was more energy, more consistent bidding activity on horses and more action," commented Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning. "It was kind of reflective of the feedback that we got from buyers who said there were better horses on Tuesday than there were on Monday. It was just the way the catalogue fell. As a result, the sale had a better feel to it and the numbers are a little better tonight." Fasig Chairman Walt Robertson added, "For my money, tonight was a better sale than last night. We broke the $1-million barrier tonight, and we were over $500,000 several times. I thought it was a pretty solid sale throughout." During yesterday's session, 59 yearlings grossed $17,665,000, compared to Monday's session, when 58 horses sold for $14,750,000. Through the two-day sale, 117 head grossed $32,415,000. The cumulative average of $277,051 fell 15.6 percent from the 2009 figure, while the median remained unchanged at $250,000. The buy-back rate was 30 percent. While Monday's RNA rate was 35 percent at the close of business, that figure improved to under 30 percent after private sales, according to Robertson. Cont. p2

Offered by Bluewater Sales LLC, the Feb. 3 foal is the first produce from champion distaff sprinter Maryfield, winner of the GI Ballerina S., GI Distaff Breeders' Cup H. and the inaugural Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint in 2007. The nine-year-old mare is a half-sister to GSP Quiet (Roar), who herself is the dam of GSP Quietly Mine (Belong to Me). The colt's consignor was duly pleased with the outcome.

"How could you not be happy with that price?" asked Bluewater sales Meg Levy. "We're even happier with the buyer. If anyone knows what to do with a quality horse like that, it's Todd Pletcher."

Mike Moreno's Southern Equine purchased Maryfield for $1.25 million out of the Fasig-Tipton November Sale in 2007. Bred under the banner of Southern Equine Stables, the colt is the first foal produced by the millionairess.

And did the fact that the colt was the first horse through the ring yesterday help Pletcher's cause?

"I think at any given sale it can be an advantage for the buyer," said Pletcher. And with his characteristic sharp wit, Pletcher deadpanned, "We knew we liked the colt, so we knew we weren't going to show up late to the sale."

Despite the sale's struggles Monday, Levy headed into yesterday's session with cautious optimism, bolstered by her belief in her pupil's quality.

Bluewater's Meg Levy

"You're always concerned whether things will go your way, but luckily all the stars collided and he brought the value of a horse of his stature," said Levy. "We are very happy with that." She added with a laugh, "At least that's over."

Besilu marked its debut at the Saratoga Sale in 2009 with a $650,000 purchase of a Storm Cat colt. On behalf of Besilu, Pletcher currently trains Unbridled Ocean--an Unbridled's Song colt out of MGSW Ocean Drive (Belong to Me)--purchased by agent Chris Baccari for $875,000 at Keeneland last September. -CB

Browning thinks the overall sales market is on par with where the industry was last year. "I think if you look at it in a big-picture scenario, in a sense of the overall market, the reality is the market is pretty similar to last year," he explained. "I think there might be less activity or a little more constraint at the top of the market. Statistically, if you go from a sales top-per of $2.8 million [at Saratoga in 2009] to $1.2 million [this year] there is a $1.6-million swing in the gross over 117 horses sold--that's $15,000 in and of itself in the difference in the salestopper. But I think, horse for horse, walking through the sales ring in July and in Saratoga, and what we saw through most of the two-year-old season, is that the market is fairly similar in 2010 and 2009."

Ferguson Stays Busy...

Bloodstock agent John Ferguson kept busy again during Tuesday's second session of the Saratoga sale, signing the tickets for six yearlings, including a pair of individuals attracting final price tags of $750,000. The first was hip 142, an Afleet Alex half-brother to champion

John Ferguson
Horsephotos

Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike). "He was a really outstanding individual, really athletic," Ferguson said. "He's got a great body on him and a great pedigree. We're delighted to have him." The yearling is out of Private Feeling (Belong to Me), who, in addition to Lookin At Lucky, has also produced multiple graded stakes winner Kensei (Mr. Greeley). Gulf Coast Farm sold Private Feeling, in foal to Mr. Greeley, for $2 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton November sale. "She is a great mare," Ferguson said of Private Feeling. "It's very hard to produce a horse that looks as good as him--he would be one of the outstanding individuals of the year. He was very athletic, with great shape. He just looks like a racehorse." The colt, who was owned in partnership between Gulf Coast and Gainesway, was consigned by Gainesway. "$750,000 is a lot of money in this economy," reflected Gainesway's Michael Hennon. "I thought it was a tremendous result in light of the current market. The colt was bought by the leading buyer in the world, and it's a great endorsement for Afleet Alex, who is now the leading second-crop sire in the nation."

Ferguson also signed the ticket at $750,000 for hip 178, a colt by Smart Strike out of Sluice (Seeking the Gold). The bay yearling is a half-brother to Grade I winner Mushka (Empire Maker). "He's a real nice horse," said Craig Bendoroff, whose Denali Stud consigned the yearling. "Everybody was on him. We knew the market would value him, and we let the market value him. John has bought a lot of nice horses from us over the years, and that's as nice a horse as a guy could race. You always like them to go to be in good hands, so we're very happy." Bendoroff acknowledged the colt would likely have been worth more in years past. "It's not a few years ago," he said. "Real estate is not worth what it was, and horses aren't worth as much as they were. She's a wonderful mare, it was good return on the stud fee, and we're going to go out for a nice dinner and be grateful."

In addition to the two $750,000 yearlings, Ferguson also paid $650,000 for a colt by Street Cry (Ire) (hip 119) and for a colt by Distorted Humor (hip 187); $290,000 for an A.P. Indy colt (hip 161); and $200,000 for a Bernardini colt (hip 127). Over two days, Ferguson signed the ticket on 14 yearlings.

Still Firing Late...

With only a handful of horses left to go through the ring, many were already solidly settled in the various pavilion bars. However, Tom McCrocklin--representing Robert and Lawana Low--was still hard at work and signed the ticket on hip 194, a filly by Distorted Humor. Offered by Woodford Thoroughbreds, agent, on behalf of its breeding-stock arm Woodford Foals, the chestnut brought a final bid of $875,000, the second highest price--and the highest-priced filly--of the evening.

Tom McCrocklin
Horsephotos

"We really loved her," said McCrocklin. "She was our favorite horse in the sale. She is just a beautiful filly with a beautiful pedigree."

The May 7 foal is out of Turko's Turn (Turkoman) and is a half-sister to Horse of the Year Point Given (Thunder Gulch), victorious in six Grade I stakes, including the Preakness S., Belmont S. and Haskell Invitational H. Turko's Turn, who herself sold for $2 million at Keeneland November in 2003, has already produced three horses that sold for more than $800,000 as a weanling or yearling, including Perfect Story (Tale of the Cat), dam of MGSP Medjool (Monarchos).

"Mr. Low has a racing and breeding operation and he has very high quality racing and broodmare stock," McCrocklin added. "She is by the right stallion, jumped through all the hoops and passed all of our tests, so we are very excited to have her."

In addition to the top filly, the Lows also secured hip 162, a Street Cry (Ire) colt out of Salty Farma, for $350,000. The youngster was consigned by Gainesway on behalf of Stonestreet. -CB

Situation Graves...

Brian Graves was an active buyer at the Keeneland January sale and his diligence was rewarded handsomely yesterday in Saratoga. Graves bought an Indian Charlie short yearling at the January sale for $140,000. The colt returned to the sales ring yesterday as hip 186 and attracted a final bid of $500,000 from bloodstock agent Donato Lanni. The yearling is out of Strike Rate (Smart Strike) and from the family of multiple group winner Phantom Breeze (Ire) and group-placed Misty Wind (Ire). "I think the horse really grew up well," said Michael Hernon of Gainesway, which consigned the youngster yesterday. "He was pretty nice in January, but he became exceptional. He was right on the moment--just a great physical, who went over very well. He stayed on lists after numerous inspections and re-inspections. The final price speaks for itself. That was a great return on a horse well-bought by a guy who saw the opportunity." Lanni, bidding alongside trainer Bob Baffert, bought the yearling for an undisclosed client. "Bobby has trained so many Indian Charlies, and this one was one of the best we've ever seen," Lanni commented. "He is so well-made and is a very nice individual. I just loved the horse."

Business as Usual for Zayat Stables...

With its highly publicized bankruptcy behind it, Ahmed Zayat's Zayat Stables got back to the business of buying racehorses yesterday in Saratoga. The stable purchased two yearlings at Fasig-Tipton Tuesday, first going to $350,000 to secure a handsome gray son of Awesome Again (hip 105) and then spending $200,000 for hip 150, a colt by Unbridled's Song. Zayat Stables emerged from bankruptcy in June after a New Jersey court approved its Chapter 11 reorganization plan. "We filed the reorganization with the court, the bank voted on behalf of our plan and the plan was approved," commented Zayat Stables' finance and racing manager Brad Weisbord, who signed the tickets for the two yearlings. "We are paying all of our secured and unsecured creditors 100 percent. It is very rare in a bankruptcy for everybody to be paid in full, but that is what Mr. Zayat stated from the beginning." The stable's emergence from bankruptcy helps pave the way for an active buying season. "The bankruptcy agreement just means we don't have to go fighting to the court and the bank--it gives us the leeway to run our business as usual," Weisbord continued. "We bought two today and we're going to be buying in September." Of the two yearlings, Weisbord added, "We really loved the Awesome Again colt. We stretched our budget a little bit to get him."

Weisbord continued, "We had a bunch of our trainers out looking at horses, and I know that Bob Baffert loved the colt. Mr. Zayat is vacationing in Del Mar with his family, but he watched the Unbridled's Song colt on Fasig-Tipton's website and loved him." Zayat is aiming to maintain a stable of about 100 horses in training, according to Weisbord. "Mr. Zayat, like everybody would like to win the Derby, but he focuses on graded stakes horses," he said. "He wants to have a portfolio of graded stakes horses--colts or fillies. His goal is to own graded stakes horses and to compete at the highest level. He always has about 100 horses in training, so he's not expanding, it's just getting back to his business, which is buying horses and winning graded stakes."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING
...AT THE SALES

Buzz Chace, on the overall sale

"I think it was a good sale. There were some really nice horses and I think there are people there to buy them. I think the stock is here, and people want to buy them. I can tell you I was trying to buy horses [Monday] and couldn't buy them, so people were definitely buying. I thought it was good all the way around."

A Half-Million Pair for Lanni...

It took practically the duration to get going, but once agent Donato Lanni got rolling, he certainly came out swinging. The first score for the Montreal native was hip 171, a colt by Tiznow out of the unraced Sensual Moment (Deposit Ticket) who realized a $500,000 final bid. Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, the dark bay is from the family of GI Futurity S. winner Bevo (Prospector's Gamble) and GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie S. heroine Moonlight Sonata (Carson City), who is herself the dam of GSW Beethoven (Sky Mesa)

"He was a very nice, well-made horse," said Lanni. "He's very sound and solid-looking horse. I thought he was a good representation of the sire."

Bred by Sea Song Farms, the Kentucky-bred is a half-brother to to Puerto Rican stakes winner Tasmanian Moment (Grand Slam).

"He was on my short list and [trainer] Bob [Baffert] loved him, too," admitted Lanni. "Bob gave me the green light and we got him."

It wasn't much later when Lanni struck again with another $500,000 coup, this time for a bay colt by Indian Charlie who was catalogued as hip 186. Offered by Gainesway, acting as agent, the Mar. 4 foal is out of stakes winner Strike Rate (Smart Strike) and is from the family of dual group winning Phantom Breeze (Ire) (Vision). Bred by Gulf Coast Farms, the bay was purchased for $140,000 by Brian Graves's BG Stables at the Keeneland January Sale.

Baffert, who was with Lanni during yesterday's proceedings, trained the current Airdie Stud stallion Indian Charlie. During his short racing career, Indian Charlie won four of five starts, including the 1998 GI Santa Anita Derby, and was third in that season's GI Kentucky Derby.

"He looks a lot like his sire Indian Charlie, but you can see the Smart Strike in him, too," Baffert noted.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ...AT THE SALES

Bob Baffert

(when asked if Day 2 horses were better than Day 1)

"There were some nice horses yesterday, too. It's just that everyone's on the same horse, that's the deal."

Michael Hernon

"The market is good for the horse who ticks all the boxes and who is realistically reserved."

Candian Connection Collects Giant's Causeway Filly...

Getting on the docket early yesterday was Patrick Lawley-Wakelin--acting on behalf of Robert S. Evans--who secured Hip 110, a filly by Giant's Causeway, for $375,000. Representing her breeder Sam-Son Farm, the Candian-bred filly is out of Misty Mission (Miswaki), also campaigned by Sam-Son.

"She was a very classy, scopey type of filly and she has a great pedigree, which I am very familiar with, because she was bred and sold by Sam-Son Farms in Canada" explained Lawley-Wakelin. "I just loved the way she looked and the way she acted. I thought for that kind of money she was a great buy."

Winner of the 10-furlong Wonder Where S., the 13-year-old mare is the dam of Grade III winner French Beret (Broad Brush) and is a daughter of Breeder's S. heroine Hangin on a Star (Vice Regent), who is a half-sister to Canadian champion and Broodmare of the Year Rainbow Connection (Halo).

Trainer Mark Frostad has trained a number of horses in the chestnut's fillies' immediate pedigree, including her dam Misty Mission and half-brother French Beret, and currently has horses in training for Evans at Woodbine in Toronto.

"Conformation wise, she is a very well-made filly and what I really liked about her was her attitude," Mark Frostad, explaining the appeal. "She has a very good mind on her and hopefully she will run well."

The unraced Sensual Moment, dam of hip 171, was acquired by Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds on behalf of client Sea Song Farms for $170,000 at the 2005 Keeneland November Sale while in foal to Medaglia d'Oro. Sensual Moment's second foal, a yearling at that point, would go on to be a black-type winner named Tasmanian Moment (Grand Slam). The Medaglia d'Oro isn't listed on the page and the mare didn't produce anything in 2007, but in 2008 had an El Corredor colt that brought $60,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale. The fireworks came last night when Sensual Moment's fifth foal, by Tiznow, stepped into the ring, touching off a bidding duel that ended with agent Donato Lanni's $500,000 offer. Donato Lanni was involved with the purchase of Lookin at Lucky and recent 🏆 "TDN Rising Star" 🏆 Smash, both by Smart Strike, and proved gamest to land this colt, produced by a stakes-winning daughter of the Lane's End stallion. The transaction was another home-run for the pinhooking partnership that includes Gainesway's Brian Graves. This fellow was knocked down to BG Stables for $140,000 at this year's Keeneland January Sale.

NY LOTTERY RECOMMENDS GENTING FOR BIG A VLT FACILITY

New York Lottery has selected Genting New York LLC--a wholly-owned subsidiary of Genting Malaysia Berhad--as the developer and operator of the video gaming facility at Aqueduct Race-track. In a letter to Governor David A. Paterson, the New York Lottery Evaluation Committee stated, "Our strong recommendation, based on the merits of the proposal, was vastly reinforced by Genting's financial offer of $380 million as an upfront licensing fee. Genting's proposal was impressive on many levels. They are a vastly experienced and professional gaming company and their proposal reflects a deep and insightful understanding of the opportunity and challenges of Aqueduct." In a statement, Genting spokesman Stefan Friedman said, "Genting New York is pleased with the Lottery's recommendation of our proposal which would mean an enormous economic boost to New York's economy. Our plan would instantly deliver $380 million to New York and create more than 2,000 jobs in construction and operations of the Aqueduct casino. In addition, the casino is expected to generate more than $500 million per year in state revenue, a large portion of which will go towards education funding, which would help save thousands of teaching jobs; and to NYRA, which will help preserve 1,500 jobs that are threatened with layoffs." NYRA President and CEO Charles Hayward offered, "The New York Racing Association Inc. is encouraged by the New York State Division of the Lottery's timely selection of Genting New York LLC to develop and operate the VLT facility at Aqueduct Race Track. The community surrounding Aqueduct has expressed support for Genting's plans, and we trust that the leaders of the State Assembly and Senate will approve the Lottery's recommendation at their earliest opportunity."

Katy the 'Now' Horse in the Test?

The task of facing Fanny Freud (Freud) in Saturday's GI Test S. at Saratoga is a daunting one, to say the least, but that is not deterring the connections of Katy Now (Tiznow). Trained by Todd Pletcher on behalf of James Brady's Mill House, the dark bay most recently had a three-race winning streak snapped when fourth to stablemate Devil May Care (Malibu Moon) in the GI Mother Goose S. June 26. She has won three of her four starts at distances up to a mile, and her trainer thinks she could be effective at Saturday's seven-furlong journey. "Back to seven furlongs is to her liking, but I do think she gets a distance of ground," Pletcher told an NTRA national media teleconference Tuesday. "In the Mother Goose, she was keen on the day and didn't settle the way she needed to." Katy Now debuted with an unplaced effort behind subsequent MGSW Sassy Image (Broken Vow) at Churchill last June, then was runner-up to Devil May Care in a sloppy Saratoga maiden last August. After graduating by two lengths over the Keeneland Poly Oct. 17 (video), she tacked on a four-length allowance win going Churchill's one-turn mile Nov. 28 (video). She opened 2010 with a popular score going six panels at Belmont May 28 (video).

RACETRACK Round-Up

GLORIA DE CAMPEAO HURT, RETIRED Stefan Friberg's G1 Dubai World Cup hero Gloria de Campeao (Brz) (Impression {Arg}--Audacity {Brz}, by Clackson {Brz}) sustained a tendon injury in his left foreleg while training at Chantilly last week and has been retired, according to published reports. "It happened last Tuesday," trainer Pascal Bary told Racing Post. "He wasn't doing anything special, so maybe it is due to accumulated tiredness, as he has been travelling a lot." After edging Lizard's Desire (SAf) (Lizard Island {Aus}) in the $10-million feature at Meydan Mar. 27, the bay settled for second to that rival when attempting to defend his title in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji May 16. "We've asked a lot of him with the travelling and he's always replied yes," Bary added. "He is a super horse." A Group 2 winner in his native Brazil, Gloria de Campeao competed in three straight Dubai World Cups for Bary, finishing eighth behind Curlin in 2008 and taking the runner-up spot in 2009 at Nad al Sheba before prevailing in this year's thriller. His career record stands at 25-9-6-3 with earnings of $9,258,355.

Harbinger Ground Warning...

Highclere's Harry Herbert yesterday stated that Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) would miss the G1 Juddmonte International if the ground is too quick. After Sunday's announcement that the highly impressive G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. winner would be supplemented to York's Aug. 17 contest, the syndicate manager told PA Sport, "I've been talking to Sir Michael [Stoute] and we just thought it was important to let everybody know that Harbinger would not be supplemented for York unless ground conditions were suitable for the horse. If it was very fast ground he wouldn't run, and if it was fast ground come supplementary day and it looked like it would be too quick for him, then obviously that would be a non-starter. The horse seems in great form, Sir Michael is very pleased with him and the plan is very much to run there, but the ground must be suitable."

High Quality...

In his days as an assistant to Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas and in the 15 years since he's been on his own, Todd Pletcher has had his hands on a lot of nice horses. In Quality Road (Elusive Quality), the 126-pound highweight and odds-on favorite for Saturday's

Quality Road
Sarah K Andrew

GI Whitney H., he may have the best he's ever seen. In a word, the four-year-old is a horse that does "everything," says the conditioner. "He's such a gifted animal with a high cruising speed who can sprint and can route," Pletcher told media assembled for a Tuesday afternoon teleconference. "I don't think we know what his best distance is." Winner of last year's GI Amsterdam S., Quality Road had a well-documented meltdown which saw him scratched from the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, but Pletcher said those antics were an aberration. "I think he gets a bad rap for that one isolated incident," he offered. It was his victory in this year's GI Donn H. which cemented the colt's brilliance in the eyes of his trainer. "There is a certain performance that stands out in your mind where you think that you don't know if any horse could run any better than he did," he explained. "He's as good as a horse could be. The way he ran that day was unbelievable." According to Pletcher, Quality Road is scheduled to have just one additional start between the Whitney and the Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 7. "If the Whitney goes according to plan, we'd like to go to the [GI] Woodward [Sept. 4] and go from there to the Breeders' Cup Classic to race him fresh there. We have him on a schedule we're committed to, we like the way it's spaced and everything's gone according to plan so far," he added.

Stall Not Lacking for Confidence in Blame...

"We've set this horse up for this race for a long, long time. It's up to him and we think he's ready for it." Those were the comments of Al Stall Jr., trainer of Adele Dilschneider and Claiborne Farm's Blame (Arch) as he enters his Whitney match-up with Quality Road. "He has made a nice progression from three to four, and with a proper freshening this winter, he's become a better horse," Stall said during the NTRA teleconference. The son of Liable (Seeking the Gold) overcame a wide trip to take the GI Stephen Foster H. in his most recent appearance, even if he wasn't fully cranked. "He was not 100 percent going into the Foster, because we didn't want to be that way," Stall Jr. admitted.

Stall added, "I was a bit surprised how well he ran in the Foster, given the circumstances. I anticipate another step forward, and I think we have a chance to beat [Quality Road]." Blame, who will get five pounds from the favorite, has the added benefit of a victory over the course and distance, having used the restricted Curlin S. last summer as a springboard to wins versus older in the GI Fayette S. and GI Clark H. To complement his talent, Blame brings good looks to the table, says his trainer. "He's an absolute Brad Pitt," Stall Jr. states. "He's correct as he could be, he's an absolute eye-ful. Everywhere I go, people just drop their jaw. He's very manageable and comfortable and easy to train. He's really just a good horse, does everything we want. He's kind of a perfect horse." A win in the Whitney would be meaningful enough, but would be that much sweeter, given the owners. "I go back a long ways with Claiborne," the trainer explained. "My grandfather and father did business with Bull Hancock. We used to take tours of the farm when Secretariat was a stallion. We've been friends, and then my relationship with Frankie Brothers got me in the door. If you look at this horse's pedigree, it's very deep, and it's all Claiborne. It does make this a little more special."

Questions Remain Over Force...

Connections of ♣ "TDN Rising Star" ♣ Workforce (GB) (King's Best) have failed to uncover a reason for his below-par showing in last Saturday's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. Despite stringent investigations carried out after his fifth placing as the 8-11 favorite, Khalid Abdullah's Epsom Derby hero has shown no ill effects and the Sir Michael Stoute stable are exercising patience regarding his immediate plans. "We're pretty sure he didn't give his true running at Ascot, and it was very perplexing and disappointing," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said yesterday. "He has been checked out thoroughly with a fine tooth comb and nothing significant has been revealed, so we are just going to have to see how he is and let him tell us when he's ready to go back to the races. We're not going to put a programme on him and realistically the one remaining race for him in Europe is the Arc, but the most important factor is that the horse is back on song and giving everyone the vibes that we're looking for. We want to be convinced that he's going to do himself justice--all the signs were that he would at Ascot, but he didn't. He won the Derby by seven lengths, and you can never take that outstanding performance away from him, but perhaps he just needed a bit more time, and perhaps had a much harder race there than we thought. People want to condemn him too quickly, but Ascot was only his fourth race, and he's a big, scopey horse who may just need a bit more time to strengthen up and get into gear again. Staying in training is certainly a possibility, but we haven't really got there yet and that will be Prince Khalid's decision."

Looking Over 'Lucky...

Trainer Bob Baffert posted on his Facebook page yesterday that champion Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) had a 102 fever, but later updated that the temperature had subsided, although bloodwork showed that the colt has some illness brewing. In his first start since a win in the GI Preakness S. May 15, the bay colt trounced his foes in the GI IZOD Haskell Invitational at Monmouth this past Sunday. Baffert indicated that his charge would remain at the Oceanport oval for a few days.

Juddmonte York Team Shaping Up...

Khalid Abdullah's leading lights for the York Ebor meeting will include a two-pronged assault from Byword (GB) (Peintre Celebre) and Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) on the G1 Juddmonte International, Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe announced yesterday. First and second for the Andre Fabre and Henry Cecil stables respectively in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 16, Twice Over has since annexed the July 3 G1 Eclipse at Sandown and both will take on Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the Aug. 17 feature. "Both are intended for the Juddmonte and I think they are both top-notchers," he said. "I think Byword will need to have a little bit more improvement in him if he's going to go on, whereas Twice Over is pretty well-exposed now. Ideally he wouldn't have been in front for quite so long in the Eclipse, but he had to do it the hard way given the nature of the race. We would hope and expect that Twice Over and Byword would be good enough to beat Harbinger." Lord Grimthorpe also confirmed that Saturday's G1 Nassau S. heroine Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was on course for the G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks Aug. 19. "I think at the moment Henry [Cecil] would like to go for the Yorkshire Oaks, which is really the natural progression, and from there we will look towards the Breeders' Cup F/M Turf again at Churchill Downs," he added. "What she did in between would depend on what happens at York."

Suit Heads Phoenix Thirteen...

Julie Wood's G2 Coventry S. winner Strong Suit (Rahy) yesterday featured among 13 confirmations for Sunday's G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at The Curragh. Trainer Richard Hannon's son and assistant Richard Jr confirmed the June 15 Royal Ascot scorer on target for the six-furlong test when telling PA Sport, "Strong Suit is in great form, he's probably the best two-year-old seen out so far this season so he'll go very well." Aidan O'Brien, who has saddled 10 of the last 12 winners, has seven remaining headed by the July 22 G3 Tyros S. winner Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), while Kevin Prendergast could be represented by the impressive July 18 G3 Anglesey S. winner Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal), and Saeed bin Suroor has a sole representative in the July 16 Listed Rose Bowl S. victor Al Aasifh (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

142nd Season, July 23-Sept. 6; 40 days, 35 graded stakes
Post time: 1 p.m. EDT

THE WEEK AHEAD...

Graded Stakes:

Aug. 7 - GI Whitney H., 3yo/up, 1 1/18m History

There are few horses in training as exciting as Quality Road (Elusive Quality), and this year's GI Donn H. and GI Met Mile hero returns to the site of one of his most electric runs, a track-record-setting performance in last year's GII Amsterdam S. He has a serious challenger in the form of Blame (Arch), who is riding a four-race winning skein into the Whitney. Blame was able to rally into slow fractions to take the GI Stephen Foster H. in his latest June 12.

GI Test S., 3yo, f, 7f History

Paul Pompa Jr., Stephen Yarbrough and Winter Park's Franny Freud (Freud) goes for her ninth win in 12 starts. The tough-as-nails New York-bred is coming off an initial Grade I tally in the six-furlong GI Prioress S. at Belmont July 4, where she defeated GI Acorn S. upsetter Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro). The added distance shouldn't be a problem, as she previously won the GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland in April, going a bit longer than seven furlongs over the Beard course. Those who could oppose include Champagne d'Oro, Prioress third Bonnie Blue Flag (Mineshaft), and the undefeated Belle of the Hall (Graeme Hall).

Aug. 8 - GI A.G. Vanderbilt H., 3yo/up, 6f History

A competitive field could line up for the Vanderbilt, won last year by Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike). Possibles for the race include GII Smile Sprint winner Big Drama (Montbrook), GII True North H. winner Bribon (Fr) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), and last year's GI Ancient Title winner Gayego (Gilded Time), who returned from a four-month break to be third in the GI Triple Bend H. at Hollywood July 10.

GI Honorable Miss H., 3yo/up, f/m, 6f History

Godolphin enjoyed a huge 2009 meet at Saratoga, and looks to be gearing up once again. Among the nominees for this is the operation's MGSW Sara Louise (Malibu Moon), who hasn't raced since winning the GII Top Flight H. last November.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Warbling (Unbridled's Song), runner-up in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 10 in her latest, is also nominated.

Sales:

Fasig-Tipton New York-Bred Preferred Yearlings, Saturday, Aug. 7 & Sunday, Aug. 8. Starts at 7 p.m. both nights.

WOULD A CENTRAL VISION FOR RACING BE SO BAD?

Just imagine a National Football League where every state had slightly different rules, perhaps nine-yard first downs when you play in Illinois and 11-yard first downs for games in Ohio. Imagine the NCAA basketball tournament if each of the eight "sweet 16" games were played on randomly different dates because the four host arenas could not agree on a coordinated schedule. And what if we could not watch all of those games on nationwide TV, because each arena had negotiated its own unique TV contract?

Imagine the consequences if each of the 23 NASCAR tracks had different car and safety specifications, based on the wisdom of state laws. Could they ever find enough qualified cars to fill out the 40-car field?

Imagine the N.Y. Yankees flying into Detroit to play the Tigers, but needing to arrive several hours early, so the players could be fingerprinted and photographed, and then pay a fee for a Michigan baseball player's license.

Imagine if you needed a local driver's license for every state when you traveled, or visualize using your cell phone if its technology was unique to only that "state" system. What foolishness would justify 50 unique state cell phone systems? Would that impede our nation's business efficiency?

Imagine using electricity if every state had different current specs, some 110 volts, some 220, some AC some DC, some three-plug some two-plug. We would have no national power grid, no sharing of generation sources, and no common manufacturing of appliances. Calculate the cost and inconvenience if every state required locally specific coffee pots and toasters and TV's. The famous inventor Thomas Edison lobbied hard for a DC electrical system, but lost the battle to George Westinghouse, who advocated AC power. Thank goodness visionary leaders rose above the pettiness and stepped in to install one system of standardization.

My point is that we all take standardization and coordination for granted in our everyday life. But we often fail to recognize that our standard of living, cost of goods and services and the convenience of everyday living would be severely impeded were it not for these simple common standards of commerce. However, those rules and standards were not always in place, and many came only after brutal standardization battles fought years ago in every industry, often forced by legislation and the foresight of the federal government.

The battle for national standards and governance in the horse racing industry is no less important. It is a battle that I believe must be fought if the industry hopes to have a future. Most owners and trainers race in multiple states and the complexity is needlessly expensive for horse owners and the states. Most of the differences result only in pointless frustration. What does our sport gain from every state having its own medication, betting integrity and horse and rider safety rules? This is especially true at a time when many states are cutting the budgets of their racing commissions, leaving them understaffed and ill equipped to properly do all facets of their job. Michigan is down to two days of racing per week mainly because the state budget is too strapped to pay salaries for racing officials.

How much expense does this 34-state redundancy add to a sport where the owners are already struggling to survive financially? What do we get in return for this heavy expense, besides a few local patronage jobs and a lot of mini-fiefdoms?

How much fan base do we lose in the many states and cities where there is no local racing? How do you build a fan base without promotion and TV exposure?

Meanwhile, America's growing and thriving sports all have these factors in common:

- One set of consistently followed game rules
- Coordinated dates, schedules and playoffs
- An overarching national TV contract
- Coordinated promotion and customer communication
- Common and consistent rules of conduct for players, officials and owners

If these decisions were hashed out and agreed upon nationally, then the local officials could do their real job of ensuring compliance, policing the sport and running a good and honest race meet. Why is that so onerous and threatening to the leaders of our sport? Would they choose to keep the sport of horseracing in a steep 40-year decline rather than have basic commonsense national standards, coordination and promotion?

Make a rule, and I'll play by it, but please don't burden me with three or four conflicting or overlapping rules of no real significance to the horse's performance or the safety or integrity of our sport.

Mrs Regalado-Gonzalez's $1.25-million daughter of Alidiva (Ire) (Chief Singer {Ire}) has a long way to go to begin to match the exploits of her full-sister Oonagh Maccool (Ire) and half-siblings Ali-Royal (Ire) (Royal Academy), Sleepytime (Ire) (Royal Academy) and Taipan (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and has been switched from Matthew Salaman's stable to that of Nick Littmoden since Newbury's debacle. She encounters another blueblood in the footballers Joey Barton and Claudio Pizarro's Saint Pierre (Speightstown), a half-brother to none other than Spain (Thunder Gulch) who debuts for the Luca Cumani stable but who, unlike Alioonagh, refused to find a buyer at 35,000 guineas at last year's Tattersalls Breeze-Up. Both will probably play second fiddle to Princess Haya of Jordan's experienced Calipatria (GB) (Shamardal), a John Gosden-trained daughter of the Classic and Group 1-placed Golden Silca (GB) (Inchinor {GB}).

O'BRIEN HEARING ADJOURNED The British Horseracing Authority yesterday announced that the disciplinary hearing involving Aidan O'Brien has been adjourned. Relating to the incidents following the win of Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Dante S. at York in May, the Ballydoyle conditioner was on hand to admit to breaking the rules regarding the trotting up of the colt for the vets present and the subsequent instruction to attend a stewards' inquiry. He denied being in breach of the rule concerning acting in a manner prejudicial to the conduct and/or good reputation of horseracing in Great Britain, after which the panel adjourned the hearing for consideration of that charge.

EXCUSE FOUND FOR DUTY FLOP

Khalid Abdullah's Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy) was found to have suffered a muscle injury following her uncharacteristic below-par effort in Newmarket's G1 Falmouth S. Trailing him in seventh in the July 7 contest, the Criquelette Head-Maarek-trained G1 Cheveley Park S. winner and promoted G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine has been checked over, and the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said, "When she came out of the stalls in the Falmouth, she might just have gone back on her hocks a little bit and stretched across the pelvic area. There is no damage to the pelvis structurally, but Criquelette feels that the pelvic area was at least stretched in terms of muscles. After the race you could tell that all wasn't completely well. Criquelette had a chiropractor visit her, and he felt that there was quite a bit of movement, which would explain a poor run like that. He's treated her a few times and all being well she will come back. She could go for something like the G1 Prix de la Foret [at Longchamp Oct. 3] if she was ready, but the important thing with her is that she was a champion two-year-old and has won two Classics, so obviously we must be respectful of her. She will have to show that she's in really good form before she goes back to the racecourse."
