CHAMPAGNE D'ORO ACES TEST

Trainer Eric Guillot told TDN Thursday that Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) was training "like a boogie bear lost in the forest." Apparently that's a good thing.

Horsephotos

Let go at 5-1 in yesterday's G1 Test S. at Saratoga, the bay inhaled the leader at the top of the lane and galloped away to take her second Grade I event by 4 1/2 lengths. "In her last race, I got her into a little trouble before the quarter-pole, and she wound up second," jockey

Miguel Mena confessed. "I am very happy the connections gave me the chance to ride her back. Today, I had a great trip. She broke sharply, was right there on the lead, switched leads around the turn and came through in the end. Today, there were no problems, and she got the money." THE BLAME GAME

He needed every inch of the stretch to get there, but Blame (Arch) collared 1-2 chalk Quality Road (Elusive Quality) in the very last jump to take the G1 Whitney H. at the Spa by a head. "We were super confident," jockey Garrett Gomez remarked. "It's just one of those things--you don't want to say too much, so you can let the horse do the talking. He's been trained magnifi-

cantly for this race, and every other race I've ridden him in. He's a magnificent older horse, and I can't wait until we go farther." The colt will be pointed for the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at 1 1/4 miles. Cont. p3

ZENYATTA DOES IT AGAIN

The margin of victory was only a neck, but champion Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) ran her record to a perfect 18-for-18 in the G1 Clement L. Hirsch S. at Del Mar. The massive mare strolled along near the back of the pack despite the glacial early fractions, with a half in :50 3/5 and six panels in 1:15. Jockey Mike Smith made his move earlier than expected, and found himself fanned out wide at the top of the stretch, but, with ears flicking back and forth, Zenyatta motored past Rinterval (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), then toyed with that overmatched rival in the final yards. "She was literally playing," Smith said. Cont. p3

HARBINGER INJURED

near-fore cannon bone on Newmarket's gallops yesterday morning. The 11-length G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. winner was working seven furlongs on the Limekilns gallop with Ask (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in preparation for York's G1 Juddmonte International Aug. 17. The director of Highclere Thoroughbred Racing, John Warren, who purchased Harbinger as a yearling, yesterday told Racing Post, "The burning question is whether he will race again. It's a longshot, but he is just about to go into surgery, and I'll have more ideas in the next hour or so. It will require two screws. It's not life-threatening and he's comfortable." In a later statement on the syndicate's website, Highclere's Managing Director Harry Herbert said, "This is a bitter blow for all 12 of Harbinger's owners, and indeed all who are closely concerned with the horse, as well as his many fans for whom he has become an icon following his amazing King George victory. A decision as to Harbinger's future will be taken imminently." The Sir Michael Stoute-trained four-year-old is currently the world's highest-rated horse.

Champagne moment!

Champagne d'Oro runs away with the G1 Test at Saratoga.

Champagne d'Oro picked up checks in a pair of stakes at Hollywood before she'd broken her maiden, then hit the line 2 1/4 lengths to the good in a special weight test at Del Mar last August. She had that win taken away from her, however, after testing positive for steroids. Connections decided to go for the gold in her next start, sending her up against subsequent champion Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) in the GI Del Mar Futurity, but that plan did not pan out, and the filly finished eighth. The bay then trailed the field in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, and was done for the year. Her sophomore campaign has been a bit more consistent. A nose winner in a maiden test at Fair Grounds Feb. 20, she came back to be second by just a half length in the Mar. 26 GII Fair Grounds Oaks. A troubled 11th in the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks, Champagne d'Oro rebounded with a gate-to-wire win in the June 5 GI Acorn S. going a mile. She backed up to six furlongs for the GI Prioress S. July 4 and came from just off the pace to be second to Franny Freud (Freud). The two were to reoppose here, but Franny Freud was injured earlier in the week and had to be retired, and Champagne d'Oro reaped the rewards. Showing good speed, she pressed Pica Slew (Pico Central {Brz}) through a salty half in :44.50, put that rival away when they hit the lane and opened up under a drive. Looking ahead, trainer Eric Guillot said, "With the way she won, she could come back [in the GI Ballerina S. Aug. 28]."

Blame rode a five-race winning streak into this event, and extended it to six with this last-gasp effort. The winner of the Curlin S. at this track when making his black-type bow last August, the bay had to settle for second behind Regal Ransom (Distorted Humor) in the GII Super Derby Sept. 19. It's the last time he was beaten. The homebred ended 2009 with wins in the Oct. 31 GII Fayette S. on the Keeneland Poly and the Nov. 27 GII Clark H. at Churchill, then came back after nearly six months off to make it three in a row in the GIII W. D. Schaefer S. on the GI Preakness undercard May 15. Blame was rolling late in the June 12 GI Stephen Foster H., getting to Battle Plan (Empire Maker) in the shadow of the wire, and he used those tactics in quest of a second Grade I success. Settled in fourth as 1-2 Quality Road led them along through seemingly easy fractions of :48.06 and 1:11.92, Blame swung to the outside at the top of the lane. He still had three lengths to make up at the eighth pole, but kept on coming, and got to the favorite a stride before the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. The only race Zenyatta has ever contested at Del Mar has been the Clement L. Hirsch and, as she did the last two years, the sublime Miss Z sauntered past her rivals in the stretch to win as she pleased. Rinterval tried to make a race of it, but the result was never in doubt. The Hirsch has produced the two closest finishes in the great mare's career--she won by just a head last year. But win she did. "Oh, she was looking good today," jockey Mike Smith said. "This was Zenyatta. I wanted everyone to see her, and she showed up. That mare that hooked her today was game--good for her. But we got it done. She was Zenyatta. She's something to believe in." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Concord Point broke his maiden at first asking at Santa Anita in December, but disappointed as the 1-2 chalk in an optional claimer Feb. 12, finishing fourth. The grey put that effort behind him with a front-running tally in an allowance Apr. 14. Favored once again in the May 22 Gill Laz Barrera Memorial S. at Hollywood, he ran second by a half length. Connections opted to send him on the road for the June 26 Gill Iowa Derby, and the colt responded in style, taking his first try on natural dirt by 8 1/2 resounding lengths. Favored at 4-5 to repeat, he was sent right to the front. Exhi, bidding for his fifth straight in his first non-synthetic experience, pressed the pace throughout and made a run at the lead when they hit the lane, but Concord Point answered the call, and edged clear late. Something in Dubai was not to Poet's liking this winter. The five-year-old was far back in two unplaced efforts at Meydan--a far cry from his 2009 exploits for Ballydoyle when capturing the Listed Vincent O'Brien Memorial Ruby S., Irish Cambridgeshire H. and \G3 Kilternan S. He hinted at a return to his best when third in Newbury's Listed Steventon S. July 17, and rolled back the clock with a game effort in this contest. In second early, the imposing bay took over before the three-furlong marker and, despite the efforts of his sole threat, Class Is Class, was always in control in the slow-motion run to the line. Having ploughed a lone furrow when recording a winning debut over six furlongs at Ascot July 23, White Moonstone entered this race with a question mark against her, but with no shortage of expectations from connections and the bettors. Held up last of all by Frankie Dettori off soft early fractions, the bay quickened impressively out wide to swoop on Crying Lightning at the furlong pole, and was not fully extended for the win. The quality of the effort was underlined by the fact that the other market leader and Listed Empress S. scorer Khor Sheed was well adrift in third. "She's very sweet and I thought I was in trouble three out, but that's her attitude, as she's very laid-back," Dettori said. "When I asked her, she picked up really well and gave me a really good feel." Racing manager Simon Crisford added, "She's beautiful to look at with tons of class, so we're hoping she will go all the way to the top. The G1 Fillies' Mile [at Ascot Sept. 25] is on her program. Six furlongs was a little bit sharp for her at Ascot, and when she won there it was a little bit confusing, as she had the stand's rail to help, and we weren't sure whether she was the best filly in the race. She's proved the point here and has done it the right way." Click for the Racing Post chart. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Alverta, bidding to add to the Australian honor roll in the major European sprints, holds the aces on her latest third in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket 30 days ago. The game and consistent mare lifted the G1 Coolmore Classic at Rosehill Mar. 20 before a rare off-the-board effort in Royal Ascot's G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 19. But only a neck and 3/4 of a length separated her from Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) and Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) at the July Festival. Trainer Paul Messara expects another bold show here. "There was a huge physical improvement from Ascot to Newmarket, so we expected her to run better there," Messara said. "I think she's in peak form at the moment and has really blossomed in the last month. Going into this race, I think she's at about 100 percent." Joanna heads the three-year-old brigade, successful five times against their elders since 1990, and reverts in distance after game wins in the seven-furlong G3 Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 8, G2 Prix de Sandringham over a mile at Chantilly June 6 and G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot back over seven at Longchamp last time July 3. Owner Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Racing Manager Angus Gold told the Racing Post, "We've always thought a lot of her, and have been talking about this race since she won the Sandringham. She has so much speed, and Christophe [Soumillon] feels this is a perfect trip. She settled well before winning the Porte Maillot and is now a very professional filly." Jeremy Noseda puts forward last year's G2 Challenge S. winner Arabian Gleam, who has been restricted to one start so far this term when sixth in the G3 Minstrel S. at The Curragh July 17. "He needed his first run of the year and has definitely moved since that start," Noseda said. "As long as he gets ground conditions in his favour, he is capable of running well in this type of race." Alain de Royer-Dupre has a strong hand in the July 17 G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis winner War Artist and last year's G1 Prix de la Foret hero Varenar, who was sixth in the July Cup last time.

winner Strong Suit, from the talent-blessed Richard Hannon yard. After a smooth debut win in the same six-furlong Newbury maiden May 14 in which Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) was launched 12 months earlier, Strong Suit went on to further emulate his stable's star when overcoming a troubled trip to deny Elzaam (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) by a nose at Royal Ascot June 15. He had the Ballydoyle pair of Samuel Morse and Zoffany well back in fourth and sixth, respectively, and carries a mighty reputation into this first major juvenile test of the season. "He worked fantastic up at Everleigh on Tuesday, and he goes to Ireland spot on," Hannon said. "He has a bomb-proof temperament, which is a big plus on these big occasions, and nothing fazes him. We gave him an easy week after Royal Ascot, as he had a hardish race in the Coventry following all the scrimmaging. He performed wonders to get up to win and, though inevitably some people have knocked the form, as the four who finished immediately behind us have all been beaten since, we know what our fellow can do." O'Brien's Zoffany was suffering his sole reversal in five starts at the Royal meeting, and has since annexed the Listed Golden Fleece S. at Leopardstown July 1 and G3 Tyros S. back there three weeks later. Both those wins came over seven furlongs, but he has always shown an exuberance in his races, and is rated a better prospect by Johnny Murtagh than the solid Samuel Morse. Runner-up in the G2 Railway S. over this track and trip June 27, he was firmly put in his place by Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) when eight lengths the runner-up to that rival in the G3 Anglesey S. when last seen July 18. Jim Bolger's Glor Na Mara was last of four on that occasion, but was having his first start and is entitled to any amount of improvement.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ♣ Majesticperfection turned in the sprint performance of the year last time in the Iowa Sprint H. at Prairie Meadows June 25. The lightly raced four-year-old wrestled the lead away from Grade II winner Atta Boy Roy (Tribunal) and well-regarded multiple stakes winner Cash Refund (Petionville), set a blistering half-mile in :43.48, and opened up on his rivals with ease for a 4 3/4-length success. The 117 Beyer Speed Figure he earned for that effort is the highest by a sprinter this year, and the step up to Grade I company should prove inconsequential for this up-and-comer. Bribon, last year's GI Met Mile winner, showed last time that he's a pretty good sprinter, too, when he unleashed a powerful late rally to take the GII True North H. going away by 1 1/2 lengths on the Belmont S. undercard. The seven-year-old will come running late again today, so it's a question of whether or not the speed in front of him will have anything left in the lane. Big Drama was an excellent sprinter at two and three, but route tries in the GI Preakness S., when he was dueled into defeat by victress Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), and the GII West Virginia Derby, where he hung on for second after running off by up to 10 lengths in the early going, seemed to take something out of the speedster by the end of the year. He was up the track in the GI King's Bishop S. to finish off his sophomore campaign, but has returned with a vengeance in 2010, taking two sprints at Calder, most recently the GII Smile Sprint H. July 10, with relative ease.

The potential for a hot early pace should favor the two come-from-behind types, Pretty Prolific and Hour Glass. Pretty Prolific got up by a head over Warbling in the Jan. 9 GIII Sugar Swirl S. at Gulfstream, but then failed to recreate that effort in her next two tries in the GIII Hurricane Bertie S. a month later and the GII Inside Information S. a month after that, finishing fourth both times. She came back at Churchill Downs May 1 and was a close-up second in the GI Humana Distaff. Her good races share two things in common--fast paces and sloppy tracks. She'll get the first, but it's unclear if she needs the second to be at her best. Hour Glass seems to prefer a similar set-up, which she got two back when taking the GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont May 29. She never did much running in the July 10 GI Princess Rooney H. last time, but Calder can be a quirky surface. Warbling, winner of the GII Inside Information S, and runner-up in the Princess Rooney, and GSW Secret Gypsy, successful in the Saylorville S. at Prairie Meadows June 25, are quality speed horses, and the latter was extremely impressive when she debuted here in 2007, but there is a good chance they'll hook up early.

J P's Gusto was last seen touching off Western Mood by a neck in the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship July 5. The WinStar Farm-bred ridgling, prohibitive in the betting that day after his stroll in the Willard Proctor Memorial S. at Hollywood May 31, has worked solidly since, and will be difficult to beat. Pat Valenzuela will be on board, replacing the injured Joe Talamo. Western Mood, slightly unlucky after breaking from the eight hole in the Hollywood Juvenile, will hope to go one better for conditioner Jerry Holendorfer. The Jeff Bonde trained Sway Away, an impressive winner at first asking at Pleasanton June 27, will be facing a huge step-up in class, but could prove that this year's renewal is not a two-horse race.

Fame and Glory returns to the fray after a midsummer break, having garnered the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup here May 23 and Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup just 12 days later. One of Aidan O'Brien's five winners of this in the last decade was High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {Ire}), and connections will be hoping that Fame and Glory can follow in that former luminary's footsteps, using this as a springboard to glory in the G1 Irish Champion S. in a month's time. Of the rivals assembled today, the Dermot Weld-trained distaffer Precious Gem is on the upgrade and dangerous following wins in the Listed Martin Molony S. at Limerick June 18 and G3 International S. here eight days later.

Aidan O'Brien has won this four times since 2003 and puts forward a quartet this year. The group is headed by the recent July 15 G3 Silver Flash S. winner Together, who had the re-opposing Laughing Lashes a length back in second in that seven-furlong Leopardstown contest. She meets Seeharn, who bids to extend her unbeaten record following a latest comfortable defeat of Gatamalata in the Listed Balanchine S. over six furlongs at this venue June 25. "She's won her first two races and this is another step up, but she deserves to have a go," trainer Kevin Prendergast told PA Sport. "We probably have Aidan O'Brien's filly Together to beat. We were beaten about a length by her [in a July 10 conditions race at Leopardstown] with a horse called Puttore (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), and I hope this filly might be a little bit better, but we'll see. Good ground should be fine for her, but she is by Pivotal, so maybe ideally she would like some ease." Lily Again comes here on the back of a first black-type success in Sandown's Listed Star S. July 2. "The way she took her Sandown Listed event fills us with hope that she'll improve for it, and she shouldn't be dismissed," trainer Paul Cole commented.

RACETRACK Round-Up

Dunboyne Express out of Phoenix...

John Connaughton's Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) misses today's G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at The Curragh after meeting with a setback. Trainer Kevin Prendergast revealed the news regarding the impressive July 18 G3 Anglesey S. winner to the Racing Post yesterday. "Unfortunately, Dunboyne Express has given himself a knock and won't be running in the Phoenix S.," Prendergast told the trade daily. "He is going to be on the easy list for about two weeks. He worked beautifully on Thursday, but he gave himself a knock in his box and has a sprained ankle. It's a shame, as we were really looking forward to running him, but at least it is nothing very serious."

NEWS TODAY

MOTT SADDLES WINNER 4,000 Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott, who celebrated his 57th birthday on July 29, had more reason to celebrate yesterday, as he recorded his 4,000th career win in the seventh race at Saratoga. Mott reached the milestone with Mystic (Unbridled's Song) to take the $53,000 allowance test by 3/4 of a length. "Four thousand is a big number, and I guess, to some extent, it's an elite club and I'm happy to do it," said Mott. "I thought we might have to wait until the end of the month, the way you get hung up on these things. You get to the last one and sometimes you have to wait--I've seen it happen with numerous jockeys and ballplayers. It's nice to have it today--it's a nice, sunny day in Saratoga, and I'm glad it happened here. This is a very special place to have it happen. I'll always remember it." A two-time Eclipse Award champion, Mott saddled his first winner at the age of 15 at a bush track in South Dakota. He has since campaigned five champions, including Horse of the Year Cigar. "There have been such a multitude of people that have really helped," Mott added. "It's not me that got 4,000 winners, it's the entire crew--past assistants and grooms and hotwalkers and riders, and such a multitude of owners. I've had so much help along the way, so much backing and moral support, and there's been a lot of hard work involved."

Shelved off an improved third while backing up to seven panels at the Hallandale oval Feb. 20, the bay returned with a useful fourth-place effort in a six-furlong maiden at this venue July 24. Part of an entry here at 7-1, Craven Caden was carried out after the break by entymate Cafe des Artistes (Distorted Humor) and dropped well off the early pace. Four wide while advancing into the stretch, he dug in gamely in the waning strides and drove past pacesetter Bank Heist (Maria's Mon), a half-brother to champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) by 1 1/2 lengths. + TIZ BLESSED (c, 2, Tiznow--Starboard Stinger, by Hennessy) was his sire's top-priced weanling of 2008, fetching $285,000 at KEENOV from these connections. The bay amassed an imposing worktab over the Oklahoma training surface and was looking to take his conditioner to a remarkable 10 wins from his first 21 runners. Steadied a bit right after the start, Tiz Blessed settled just in behind the early pacesetters, including Punster (Distorted Humor). That frontrunner pinched a 1 1/2-length break entering the final furlong and looked on his way to a 13-1 upset, but Tiz Blessed kept plugging away and got his nose down on the wire as the 2-1 second favorite. Comedero is a perfect eight-for-eight in sprint races over his career, suffering his only defeat going a mile at River Downs last term. The speedster got his first graded stakes victory two-back in the Gill Chick Lang S., but trainer Michael Stidham is on record saying that he is out for purse money--not prestige--with this gelding. That explains why Comedero ran in--and captured with ease--the June 19 $400,000 Red Legend S. at Charles Town, and while this may be used as a springboard to the GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga Aug. 28, Stidham could opt for a softer spot with better earning potential. The main reason to avoid the King's Bishop is the imposing Discreetly Mine (Mineshaft), who took the Gill Amsterdam S. at Saratoga last Monday by 8 3/4 lengths. Out of Respect was second behind Discreetly Mine in the Gill Jersey Shore S. here last out July 4, and will be Comedero's stiffest competition.

Mr. Proud Allen was certainly no secret to the Charles Town faithful on hand for his June 27 bow, and he made no mistake, drilling a field of state-bred maidens by 9 1/4 lengths. Given his fair share of respect for this open-company test, Mr. Proud Allen raced slightly worse than centerfield, then was angled over to the inside approaching the lane. Congo, a first-out maiden winner for Todd Pletcher at Delaware July 19, worked his way to a narrow advantage inside the final furlong, but Mr. Proud Allen came with a rail rally and got the better of the photo. Sheriff Cogburn could not have been any more impressive when breaking his maiden by seven lengths at Arlington Park on debut going five furlongs July 1, and came right back with another romp in this added money event while making his first start for Donnie Von Hemel after being unveiled by the conditioner's father, Don. The bay rated kindly from the inside behind a pace of :24.56, :48.74 and 1:13.25, and then angled outside for his late run. He quickly inhaled the leaders, and kicked clear the easiest of winners without any need for encouragement from Tanner Riggs. Problems Continue with Santa Anita Surface:

According to Daily Racing Form, the current renovation of the Pro-Ride surface at Santa Anita has run into a snag. The track lost five days during the winter/spring meet due to problems with drainage, and had begun work to address the issue. DRF, citing unnamed sources, reported that holes have been discovered in the mesh membrane that lies between a layer of rocks and gravel and the upper surface of the track, allowing the rocks and gravel to sift up toward the top. Santa Anita officials met with members of the California Thoroughbred Trainers Friday. Arnold Zetcher, president of the Thoroughbred Owners of California, was unable to attend the meeting, but, after getting a report from horsemen on the scene, told DRF, "I think the bottom line is that we are uncomfortable with what we saw. We have to take a look and see if they will have surface ready for the Oak Tree meeting." Zetcher added, "The concern is always the safety. Because of the work they have been doing there, there have been some questions. We thought the best way to send a group of experts and others to look at it. We will have meetings in the next several days. This was the first important step to see where we are." Santa Anita has not yet issued an official statement. The Oak Tree meet at Santa Anita is slated to begin Sept. 29.

TEAM IRELAND RETAIN SHERGAR CUP Regular placings throughout the six-race card, rather than a plethora of wins, carried Ireland to a second straight Shergar Cup success at Ascot yesterday. Ireland, represented by Richard Hughes, Pat Smullen and Fran Berry, amassed a total of 80 points to defeat team Europe by eight as the Dubai Duty Free-sponsored contest went down to the final leg before final placings were confirmed. Berry, making his Shergar Cup debut, registered a personal haul of 35 points, from one win and two seconds, to garner the Silver Saddle which is awarded to the leading jockey. "It's a personal highlight to be here and a dream come true," Berry told PA Sport. "I was lucky to get a very good ride [Bernie the Bolt (Ire) (Milan {GB})] from Andrew Balding, and several of my other rides had very good chances." Trainer Mark Johnston, who saddled two winners from 14 runners, offered mixed views on the competition. "The owners don't run for a free lunch and there is decent prize money on offer for a limited field, so that's why we're here," he said. "The team competition doesn't appeal to me and I struggled to tell the colors apart. While the [crowd] turnout is wonderful, I'm wondering why they are here, whether it is for the racing or the post-racing [music] concert."

HOT PROSPECT (GB) (c, 3, Motivator {GB}--Model Queen, by Kingmambo), who was tried in the June 5 G1 Epsom Derby to no avail following his third in the May 8 G3 Lingfield Derby Trial, was sent off the 5-1 second choice on the back of a latest fifth in a 10-furlong heritage handicap at Newmarket last time July 8. Always traveling easily in mid-division, the 230,000gns TATOCT yearling glided to the fore approaching the quarter pole and, after being shaken up soon after, settled the result in a matter of strides before being geared down to flatter Magaling (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) with a 1 3/4-length margin. "It was an impressive performance and he's taken a long time to grow up," jockey Neil Callan explained. "He's run in the top-end of the grade this season and has only just started to relax. He was always a bit of a free-going sort and I just had a question about whether he would handle this testing ground, but he went through it easily and he's a group horse in a handicap. This will give him a bit of confidence, as I was looking at the big screen one-and-a-half down with that much horse underneath me."
