LEGISLATORS APPROVE NY CASINO OP

Both New York State Senate Majority Leader John Sampson and Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver have signed off on the State Lottery's recommendation that Malaysian-based Genting New York LLC be awarded the contract to operate the racino at Aqueduct Racetrack. Gov. David Paterson has already given his go-ahead to Genting, and all that remains now is for the government approval to be finalized. Sampson announced his decision Tuesday, and Sheldon gave the nod yesterday. "Speaker Silver spoke with the Governor today and informed him that, after consulting with chair of the Assembly's Committee on Racing and Wagering [J. Gary Pretlow], and the member from the district, he agrees with the recommendation," said Silver's Press Officer, Sisa Moyo. Rick Violette Jr., president of the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, was delighted at the news. "To be honest, I'm a little bit dazed," Violette said.

"This has been a long time coming. I want to thank the leadership for their quick approval. Hopefully now we can move on full-speed ahead." Genting will pay the state an up-front fee of $380 million for the right to run the racino, and plans to have a 1,600-VLT facility up and running six months after the contract is signed. When it is completed, there will be 4,500 VLTs in operation at the track.

Roan Inish Injured...

Woodbine Oaks winner Roan Inish (Elusive Quality) has suffered a tendon injury, and could be retired. Describing the injury, Carolyn Costigan, who trains the bay for her father, Bob Costigan, said on her website at arravalancing.com, "A very subtle amount of swelling could be felt over the superficial digital flexor tendon. An ultrasound image revealed a small hole within the tendon. Naturally, we will proceed with extreme caution and, as always, with the best interests of the horse in mind." Roan Inish was shipped to Lexington's Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital yesterday, where a course of treatment will be determined. As for the filly's future, Costigan said, "This type of injury is not to be taken lightly, and the odds are stacked against us with respect to returning to competition. Technology has advanced a great deal, and there are various forms of treatment, which we will explore and discuss with the veterinarians in Kentucky." She added, "The filly has accomplished some wonderful things throughout her short career and, thus, she owes us nothing." After finishing off the board in two of three starts on the turf in Ireland to kick off her career, Roan Inish was shipped to her native Canada. She tried two turns and the Woodbine Poly for the first time in the Princess Elizabeth S. last October, posting the 11-1 upset in her maiden-breaking performance. Second in the Glorious Song S. to end her juvenile campaign, and in her 2010 opener in the May 1 Fury S., she was again 11-1 when she captured the June 13 Oaks by a head. Given a shot against the boys in the July 4 Queen's Plate, the homebred was a well-backed 7-2 and was not disgraced, running third by 2 3/4 lengths. She has a record of 8-2-3-1 and earnings of $598,857. Racetrack Round-Up cont. p2

Take the Points Out of Sword Dancer...

MGISW Take the Points (Even the Score) will miss Saturday's GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. at Saratoga after suffering a minor injury. The four-year-old, most recently second in the July 4 GI United Nations S. at Monmouth Park, was scheduled to work Monday morning, but the breeze had to be postponed when it was discovered he had wrenched an ankle. Trainer Todd Pletcher had hoped the Starlight Partners runner would be able to get the work in Wednesday, but that was not the case, and plans for the Sword Dancer had to be scrapped. "Basically, we ran out of time," Pletcher said. Take the Points is expected to be back on track today, but, looking ahead, his conditioner said, "We are going to play it day-by-day." The grey, winner of the GI Secretariat S. and GI Jamaica H. last year, finished first in the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. in February, but was DQ'd and placed fifth. He finished fifth in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. in March and fourth in the GI Manhattan S. in June before the U.N. Overall, his record stands at 16-4-3-1, with a bankroll of $943,590.

Stoute Hails Harbinger...

Sir Michael Stoute yesterday spoke of his disappointment following the career-ending injury suffered by Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) at the weekend. Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. winner was retired Monday as a result of the fracture to his near-fore cannon bone. In an interview at a press gathering at the Jockey Club Rooms in Newmarket, Stoute said, "It was a big blow for all concerned with the horse. He was a nice character, and he proved in the King George how good he had become. If he had kept at that plateau, we'd have a world champion. You've just got to keep cool and remember there are people suffering more than you, like the girl who looks after him and the girl who rides him." Ryan Moore added his own tribute when saying at Windsor racecourse on Monday night, "He achieved a great deal and it is a massive loss, but unfortunately, that's racing. We were looking forward to the end of the year, but these things happen. We'll never really know how good he was, but he was exceptional on King George day. He was a very straightforward horse, and even from his maiden, he was always very professional--he would travel and quicken when you asked him, and you could put him where you wanted in a race."

Dick Turpin to Be Tried at York...

The infamous highwayman Dick Turpin met his end at York nearly 300 years ago; Dick Turpin (Ire) (Arakan), his equine namesake, will stand trial at the Knavesmire track next week following his supplementary entry for the G1 Juddmonte International yesterday. John Manley's sophomore opened his account at the highest level in the July 4 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly last time. Next Tuesday's contest will be his first attempt beyond a mile, and he will line up there, at a cost of £50,000, instead of diverting to Sunday's G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville. "John Manley, who owns him, has decided that the horse owes him nothing and wanted to have a crack, so here we go," trainer Richard Hannon told PA Sport. "He's been a tremendous little horse so far, and we are keeping him on for next year, so it will be very interesting to see if he gets the mile and a quarter. As long as the ground is something like good, it will be fine." The sophomore will be sternly tested, with likely rivals including heavyweights such as Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Twice Over (GB) (Observatory), Cavalryman (GB) (Halling) and Cutlass Bay (UAE) (Halling). Jockey Richard Hughes is confident Dick Turpin will stay the extended 10-furlong route. "It's a very brave decision from John, and it's really made the race," offered Hughes. "He asked me if he'd stay...I can't put my hand on my heart and say he definitely will. [But] I'm of the belief he'll stay, and he's given me all the vibes by sitting on him that he will. At the same time, I'll ride him to get the trip--there's no point going there and kicking on three out. If he has a turn of foot over a mile-and-two, he's going to be a serious horse." The rider added, "We were thinking about running him in a Group 2 in France on Sunday, over 10 furlongs with a seven-pound penalty, and my thought was, if you're not going to stay over a mile-and-two, it may as well be against the big boys."

Three Chimneys President Case Clay is in France for the Arqana August Yearling Sale, and will be sending a daily report to the TDN about his experiences.

Lorin and I arrived in Deauville today and--after getting the kids situated with her parents--just as we sat down to relax in the O'Hare Air France lounge, we were reminded too quickly why many non-Americans either do not like us or make fun of us. Let me explain: A woman seated next to us in the lounge noticed that the package-of-two crackers, individually wrapped cheese slices, other snacks, soft drinks and bottled waters were free of charge. Her eyes lit up as if she'd won a sweepstakes, and the prize was she could keep as many snacks/drinks as she could fit into her purse/pockets/socks/bra/mouth as she could hold. We cringed as she made no less than EIGHT trips back and forth between her chair to the snack/drink counter, each time returning like a hoarding squirrel preparing for winter.

To make matters worse, we overheard her tell her embarrassed teenaged daughter that she better get some for herself before it was too late. The daughter replied that she 'felt badly,' but eventually caved and moped her way to some fistfulls of snacks to stuff into her bag. I had thoughts of ways to make her miss her flight, such as telling security it was narcotics she had in her bag instead of crackers, but I was certain that, in each international lounge of each airport in the U.S., there was at least one American with white athletic shoes and a passport holder around his or her neck hoarding food at that moment, so I decided against it. They will each go on misrepresenting the rest of us overseas, and all we can do is cringe.

I will say, however, I was slightly envious of this woman in the lounge once I was served my 'beef' on the flight--briefcase crackers sounded pretty good about then!

Once we arrived and checked in, we joined Jean-Marie Callier to go to Christophe Germain of Le Centaure's cocktail party at Les 3 Mages, which was a beautiful setting right on the beach. It was a great atmosphere, with many of the top French agents, trainers, owners, etc. From there, we went to dinner at Cafe Herve with Carter Carnegie of the Breeders' Cup, as well as Team Hong Kong Jockey Club, Mark Player, Mark Richards and Nick Littmoden, who breaks the European two-year-olds in Newmarket before they go to Hong Kong. Cafe Herve was a bit like being in Saratoga in that there were many friends enjoying dinner there as well, just better food.

The View from Les 3 Mages

One quick note about the sales catalog: When I was in Newmarket for the July Cup meeting, I can't tell you how many European agents, trainers and owners I spoke with who told me that there are fewer and fewer appealing stallions in Kentucky for Europeans. This being said, I was encouraged going through the Deauville Sale catalog on the plane over and seeing that, of the 118 sires represented, 25 are Kentucky sires. For those of you who are better at English than math, about one out of every five yearlings set to go through the ring are by Kentucky sires. That is good exposure. The hope is they are not only well received in the ring, but more importantly, go on to do well at the races in Europe, which will bring those European buyers to Kentucky to buy more from the same Kentucky sires.

Kudos and thank you to Eric Hoyeau, Olivier Delloye and Arqana's U.S. representative Tony Lacy.

Off to Omaha Beach and the American Cemetery for a little touring tomorrow morning. Visiting the sales in the afternoon, followed by dinner at The Aga Khan Studs' Haras de Bonneval. Will report more tomorrow!

The regally bred Tranquil Manner endured a tough stretch of luck over the Aqueduct inner track this past winter, finishing runner-up going an extended mile Dec. 26, Jan. 13 and Feb. 20 before being put up the victory in the stewards' room Mar. 14. The homebred earned an outright win by a nose in Delaware allowance company May 1, and was last seen finishing an even fifth, beaten 7 3/4 lengths, in the 12-furlong GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont Park June 4. The third choice in this softer spot with the scratch of Moon Town (Speightstown), Tranquil Manner bided his time at the tail of this five-pack as even-money Birdrun was allowed an easy time of it on the front end. The pacesetter still held a daylight advantage after three-quarters in a pedestrian 1:14.33, but Tranquil Manner rallied three wide into the lane and came with a stinging finish to score comfortably in the end. Robby Albarado Injured at Spa:

Jockey Robby Albarado was injured at Saratoga yesterday when he was unseated from his mount shortly after the conclusion of the first race. Albarado was reportedly diagnosed with a fractured clavicle and left index finger and was taken to Albany Medical Center. The journeyman was aboard Hunt for Candie (Northern Afleet), a three-year-old filly trained by Merrill Scherer, who finished sixth in the 5 1/2-furlong turf sprint for $25,000 claimers. Albarado had four wins from 53 mounts at the Saratoga meet.

Breeders' Cup Launches BreedersCup360.com:

(Edited Press Release) The Breeders' Cup yesterday launched the 2010 version of BreedersCup360.com, a specialized website focused on all aspects related to handicapping the 2010 Breeders' Cup at Churchill Downs. In the coming months, the site, www.breederscup360.com, will place particular focus on the international competitors who are not as well known to many U.S.-based horseplayers. In addition to providing the most up-to-date betting information on the Breeders' Cup, users will have access to the latest interactive video races through a corresponding Breeders' Cup YouTube page. The site will also include complete historical stats, providing the user with trends on trainers, jockeys, sires and dams compiled from the first 26 runnings of the Championships. Peter Rotondo, Breeders' Cup vice president of media and entertainment, said, "Breederscup360.com is an interactive platform for bettors looking for the latest handicapping content to specifically prepare them to wager on Championship weekend. This well-respected team of international and domestic contributors will provide expert commentary and analysis, making it a valuable source for handicapping information and tips for novices and pros."

2010 Russell-Rice Scholarship Awarded:

The Thoroughbred Racing Associations announced Wednesday that Jack Kuhlenschmidt and Jackson "Jake" Martin have been named the 2010 co-recipients of the 52nd Fred Russell-Grantland Rice TRA Scholarship for sports writing. The scholarship, which had 102 applicants this year, grants the two full tuition for four years at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. Oaklawn Park President Charles J. Cella chaired the panel that chose the winners. Kuhlenschmidt is a Los Angeles native, and Martin is from Atlanta, Georgia. The scholarship, established in 1956, is named in honor of Vanderbilt alumni and noted sportswriters Grantland Rice and Fred Russell. It is co-sponsored by Vanderbilt and the TRA.

GOFFS ORBY SALE CATALOG ONLINE The catalog for the Goffs Orby Sale, which will be conducted Sept. 28-30, is now available online at www.goffs.com. Part 1 features 430 yearlings catalogued over initial two days, with an additional 236 head offered on day three. Among them are 118 siblings to stakes winners, including 60 group winners. "We are thrilled with the excellent support from Irish breeders for this year's Orby Sale, including several new and returning vendors, which has resulted in such a strong catalogue of really good looking athletic types," Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby commented. "The overwhelming feedback from buyers last year was the high standard of individuals on offer. Goffs yearlings have demonstrated the success of our focus is the horse policy throughout the season, led by two Classic winners in Cape Blanco and Bethrah, backed up by some exciting two year olds. We believe buyers will find even more of the same quality at Goffs this September as our vendors have worked with us to produce a catalogue of real strength, depth, quality and diversity that will appeal to a wide range of buyers."

TATTS OCTOBER BOOK 1 CATALOG ONLINE

A total of 689 lots have been catalogued for the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. Book 1 of the October sale, which takes place Oct. 5-7, is currently online and can be viewed at www.tattersalls.com. As an added incentive to buyers, graduates of the sale are eligible for the eight-race, £1,750,000 Tattersalls Millions. Included among graduates from Book 1 is recently retired MG1SW Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}). This year's catalog also features full or half siblings to 297 group/listed winners, and 44 Classic and Group 1 winners. "Every year Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale attracts the cream of the European yearling crop and 2010 is no exception," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "This looks to be a catalogue of real quality and the major added attraction is that all 689 yearlings catalogued are eligible for the eight races and £1,750,000 of prize money on offer in the Tattersalls Millions. We launched the all new Tattersalls Millions last year and the huge number of race entries showed that the series had immediately caught the imagination of owners and trainers. A world class catalogue, combined with the Tattersalls Millions and the Racing Post Yearling Bonus Scheme, provides all the ingredients to attract buyers at all levels of the market from all over the world to Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale."

YORK DOUBT FOR MOORE

Ryan Moore may miss next week's Ebor Festival at York after hurting his wrist in a fall at Windsor on Monday evening. Initially believed to be a minor injury, the bad bruising has ruled the three-times champion jockey out of action until Sunday at the earliest according to his agent Tony Hind, who told PA Sport, "Ryan has bruised his wrist, but there is no break. He won't be back before Saturday, but he will probably ride-out tomorrow and see how it is."

CONSTANT CHARMER (Rahy) is a half sister to Nasheej (Swain {Ire}), who hit the board in the 2005 G1 Fillies' Mile and the following year's G1 Coronation S. and G1 1000 Guineas. Tracey Collins' trainee faces 11 opponents, which include the twice-raced Ballydoyle representative Why (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is the first foal of the 2005 G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) (Danehill), and who will bid to improve on a fourth at Galway last month.

6.00 Leopardstown, Mdn, €17,500, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
EAGLE CANYON (IRE) (Montjeu {Ire}) is a half brother to the 2002 G1 1000 Guineas and GI E.P. Taylor S. placegetter Alasha (Ire) (Baratheia {Ire}), and is the choice of Ballydoyle jockey Johnny Murtagh. His eight rivals include two stablemates, one of which is Auguste Renoir (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), who is a son of the 2001 GI Ramona H. and GI Yellow Ribbon S. victress Janet (GB) (Emperor Jones).
