'BOYS' OF SUMMER

With the retirement of Kantharos (Lion Heart) earlier this week, a new leader of the two-year-old division is likely to emerge in Monday's G1 Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at the Spa. Boys At Tosconova (Officer), a valiant second in the GIII Kentucky Juvenile S. Apr. 30 at first asking, earned a juvenile-best 102 Beyer in a "TDN Rising Star" ♀ maiden-breaking performance at Belmont July 2 (video). He has been assigned post five with Ramon Dominguez in the irons. Breaking one to his outside is Repole Stable's Stay Thirsty (Bernardini), who graduated with authority in his second career start at the Spa Aug. 14 (video). Stay Thirsty, a $160,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Robert Lapenta's Whitehorse Stables, was acquired by Mike Repole for $500,000 at this year's FTFFEB sale. "We were bidding against Nick Zito and Robert LaPenta," Repole, currently atop the Saratoga standings, offered. "I was so naive, I didn't know they owned him. I joked with Todd [Pletcher], if I'd known that, I would have stopped at $300,000. Now, I'm glad I didn't." J. Kirk and Judy Robison's Wine Police (Speightstown), tabbed as a "TDN Rising Star" ♀ following an eye-catching debut maiden victory at Saratoga July 24 (video), will exit from stall seven with Shaun Bridgmohan aboard.

A BALLYDOYLE BONANZA?

Most of the build-up to today's G1 Tattersalls Millions Irish Champion S. has revolved around which of the Ballydoyle legions will be chosen to attempt to extend the stable's record of five renewals since the turn of the millennium. In the end, the decision to relieve Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) of duties has not weakened the assault, with the trio of Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Beethoven (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) responsible for five Group 1 wins between them. Johnny Murtagh had no hesitation of staying loyal to his beloved Rip Van Winkle, who staged a return to the big leagues last time when besting Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) in York's G1 Juddmonte International Aug. 17. "We've been letting him progress at his own pace and we've been happy with him since York," trainer Aidan O'Brien said of the four-year-old, who will bid to add to a resume that includes successes in the 2009 G1 Sussex S. and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. Murtagh also told PA Sport, "He probably has to improve from York, but we think he has, and he should be very tough to beat. He won 'round Leopardstown as a two-year-old and he loved it, so you have to be confident." Cont. p2

Three-year-olds have an edge over the older brigade of late, with six having collected in the last decade. Cape Blanco, who dealt such a body blow to the subsequent Epsom hero Workforce (GB) (King's Best) when last tried over this distance in the G2 Dante S. at York May 13, now also has an Irish Derby on his record, and beat all bar Harbinger (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the July 24 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. "He's a very tough, genuine and classy horse, and is in very good form," Aidan O'Brien said. "He has been progressing well, and we always felt a mile and a quarter was his best trip, but we'll learn more [Saturday]. Fast ground should suit him very well." Henry Cecil, who saddled the great Indian Skimmer (Storm Bird) to upstage the colts in this race when it was run at Phoenix Park in 1988, relies on Warren Place favorite Twice Over in a rare Irish raid. Khalid Abdullah's five-year-old has responded to his trainer's patient approach by reaching a current peak, and his wins in last year's G1 Champion S. at Newmarket and Sandown's G1 Eclipse July 3 sit alongside a clutch of placings at the highest level. "Twice Over seems so well that I feel he should take his chance," Cecil said. "Originally I felt that he would just have one more race this season in the English Champion S., which he won last year, but I now feel he should run in both. It obviously will be a tough race and we would like a little rain, which would be an advantage to him. Still, we are hopeful of his chance." The owner/breeder also has the similarly consistent Famous Name (GB), who, despite not yet breaking through at this level, has a strong preference for the track, with five black-type wins here. Three of those have come this term, and the latest was an easy dismissal of the smart Steinbeck (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) in the July 22 G3 Meld S. Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said of him, "He would not want it firm, but he's in very good nick, and Dermot [Weld] seems pretty pleased with him. He's becoming a bit of a cult hero in Ireland."

Quality Road had a three-race winning streak snapped when he got tagged late by Blame (Arch) in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 7 (video). "We were a half-a-head short of [being unbeaten] this year," trainer Todd Pletcher said of the Edward P. Evans homebred, who previously annexed Gulfstream's GIII Hal's Hope S. Jan. 3 and GI Donn H. Feb. 6 as well as the prestigious GI Metropolitan H. May 31. "Every race is paramount; they're all important. If you lose, you regroup and try again, to regain his confidence, and regain our confidence." Kentucky Derby hero Mine That Bird tries to switch his luck around with new jockey Rajiv Maragh and the addition of blinkers. The bay was a well-beaten fifth in the Whitney. Convocation, fourth in the Met Mile, enters off a narrow and workmanlike optional claiming victory at the Spa Aug. 4.

Godolphin send a powerhouse entry of Vineyard Haven and Girolamo. The former, DQ'd from first and placed second in last year's GI King's Bishop S., kicked off his four-year-old campaign on the right foot with a sharp victory in Saratoga's James Marvin S. July 23. "We got the comeback race we wanted, and he's had a few good workouts since that race," Rick Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor, said. Girolamo made it three straight trips to the winner's circle in Belmont's GII Jerome H. last October before concluding the year with a lackluster 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic

Wickedly Perfect followed a sharp maiden win at Hollywood June 27 with a solid score in the Gill Sorren-to S. over this strip Aug. 6. A Z Warrior was second best that day, a head in front of Izshelegal. Starspangledbanner is back for a fourth consecutive Group 1 sprint, and the tough and resilient campaigner needs only to reproduce the form of his successes in the June 19 Golden Jubilee and July 9 July Cup to ring up an historic treble. There was a dip in fortunes when he was upset by 100-1 shot Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) in the G1 Nunthorpe S. 15 days ago, but that came over York's flat and fast five furlongs, and this extra panel will help. His regular rider at home, Colm O'Donoghue, deputizes for the Leopardstown-bound Johnny Murtagh. "Colm [O'Donoghue] was always going to be a good substitute for Johnny," trainer Aidan O'Brien commented. "He ran a great race at York, but was in limbo between the bunch and the rails, and that proved costly. This race comes up nicely for him and over this six you have a bit more time if everything doesn't go according to plan. He hasn't done a whole lot since and, although we are happy with him, you are never sure until they run. His season started in Australia and so is well over his season at this point, but he's so tough and hardy he keeps bouncing back."

He is only flesh-and-blood, though, and sometimes races can come a bit quick." Regal Parade, who made his mark at this level for the first time when registering a slight upset 12 months ago, showed that he was here to stay when annexing Deauville's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest last time Aug. 8. He bids to become only the second dual winner after Be Friendly (GB) recorded back-to-back wins in the inaugural runnings in 1966-67. Borderlescott, who may have been short of his best when sixth after a troubled preparation for a third consecutive Nunthorpe, is looking for a first win at this trip since the 2006 Stewards' Cup at Goodwood. "There are two good horses in there, but I'm drawn near them and the good-to-firm ground will suit," said jockey Neil Callan. "He ran well in the Nunthorpe, as he was lame after his previous race, and you'd like to think that run will put him spot-on." Three-year-olds are thin on the ground this year, but ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Lady of the Desert is an interesting contender dropping back from a mile after a luckless run in Longchamp's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches May 16 and sixth in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. Music Show burst into life with a clear-cut defeat of Spacious in Newmarket's G1 Falmouth S. July 7 before facing the unenviable task of tackling Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in Deauville's G1 Prix Rothschild. Beaten three lengths in that Aug. 1 contest, she had subsequent G3 Prix Quincey winner Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City) back in third there, and trainer Mick Channon is confident she can add to her tally. "Fran Berry is a top jockey, but I don't think it matters too much who's on top of her, because she's so easy to get on with," the West Ilsley conditioner said. "She's hopefully the best I've trained, and we'll find out in time. As far as I'm concerned, as long as they go a decent pace, I expect to be there or thereabouts at the finish." Before her Falmouth turnaround, Music Show languished behind Lillie Langtry when fourth in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 18 and Bethrah when third in The Curragh's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas May 23. Lillie Langtry has to rebound from a latest fifth in the Falmouth, but trainer Aidan O'Brien believes she was below-par that day. "Her spring was a bit interrupted, and maybe her two backed-up runs in the Irish Guineas and Ascot caught up with her a little bit last time," O'Brien commented.

"We gave her a break after Newmarket and she's just ready to start again, but she's in good form." Bethrah returns from a layoff after her Classic victory. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport, "It's great to see her back on the track. [Trainer] Dermot [Weld] originally hoped to run her in the Coronation at Royal Ascot, but she worked a bit flat, so we had no option and gave her a break. Dermot kept her for an autumn campaign. The mile will be plenty sharp enough for her now. It's really a starting point, and it will tell us where we are going from here. It's a strong-looking race, but we have to start back somewhere."

9	Maybesomaybenot	Sunday Break (Jpn)	Trujillo	Maker	3-1

Vengeful Wildcat scored at 20-1 when unveiled at the Jersey Shore July 5, defeating Nacho Saint by a neck. The New Farm homebred defeated Brothers in Arms decisively in the Tyro S. 20 days later, and looks to maintain his perfect record here. "It's amazing how much he's matured in just two races," trainer Ben Perkins Jr. remarked. "Young horses get different after they race. Before he started, he acted like a goofy kid. But he's experienced now, knows what the game is about. Just different than before." Maybesomaybenot graduated by six lengths at Churchill July 3 before upending a talented group in the GII Sanford S. at Saratoga July 25. The second- and third-place finishers that day, Nacho Saint and Another Silver Oak, are slated to reoppose here.

American Lion Retired...

WinStar Farm's American Lion (Tiznow--Storm Tide, by Storm Cat), winner of the GIII Hollywood Prevue S. and GIII Illinois Derby, has been retired, it was announced. The handsome bay, bred by WinStar Farm and Dr. William Lockridge, failed to fire in the GI Kentucky Derby in his career finale. "American Lion had a setback after the Derby that has prevented him from getting back to his best form and fulfilling his great potential, so we felt it was best to allow him to move on to his second career," explained WinStar Farm Vice President and Racing Manager Elliott Walden said. American Lion won three of seven career starts and bankrolled $413,600 in earnings. "American Lion is a magnificent specimen with remarkable speed for such a big horse," trainer Eoin Harty commented. "His considerable talent was always apparent, and his potential was never fully realized. He could have easily been a Travers horse had he not been sidelined. His promise as a sire is equally exciting, and will hopefully be fulfilled." Stud plans weren't announced.

Ask's Career Over...

Patrick Fahey's Ask (GB) (Sadler's Wells--Request {GB}, by Rainbow Quest) is set to be retired after suffering a tendon injury on the Newmarket gallops, Racing Post revealed yesterday. Last year's G1 Coronation Cup and G1 Prix Royal-Oak winner, who also captured the G2 Yorkshire Cup, was training up to next Saturday's G1 Irish St Leger when he sustained the injury Wednesday. The Sir Michael Stoute-trained seven-year-old's owner told the trade daily, "He had small damage on a tendon--it was nothing too serious, but this is the second time it has happened in recent times, and we decided against taking any more risks with him. On Monday, he goes to Elms Stud to recover, and where he goes to stand has yet to be decided."

Keeneland Expands September Sale Coverage...

Edited Press Release

Keeneland will offer multimedia coverage via broadcast, social media, web and print of its 2010 September Yearling Sale, to be held Sunday, Sept. 12 through Sunday, Sept. 26. Keeneland Broadcast Services and HRTV will partner to provide live coverage of the opening two evening sessions of the sale, Sept. 12-13, beginning at 7 p.m. ET. Those days, horsemen and fans can also follow the sale via www.keeneland.com, and social media outlets as Keeneland expands its coverage to offer live streaming on Facebook coupled with updates and video links on Twitter. Another new feature this September will be sales barn notes, which Keeneland will issue daily from Friday, Sept. 10 through Friday, Sept. 17, and post on its social media sites. As usual, Keeneland will stream the entire 14-day sale on www.keeneland.com. Jill Byrne and Caton Bredar will track all the action of the opening nights for HRTV--breaking news as top horses sell, previewing prominent hips, interviewing buyers and consignors, analyzing the market with industry experts, and offering color commentary. HRTV also will air Keeneland's 2010 September Sale Preview Show, a 30-minute program featuring several outstanding sale prospects, on Saturday, Sept. 4, at 9:30 p.m. ET.

All horses in TDN Headline News and TDN American edition are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Soldat, second behind impressive maiden winners Bail Out the Cat (Tale of the Cat) at Belmont June 10 and Wine Police (Speightstown) at Saratoga July 24, switched to grass with a sharp performance here. Tracking Typhoon Slew in second through fractions of :23.09 and :47.97, Soldat challenged for the lead at the head of affairs, hit the gas in the stretch and drew off to win for fun. "He's run two excellent seconds on the dirt and we thought if he liked the turf, he'd be able to win a race like this," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said of Soldat, who worked a smart four furlongs over the Oklahoma grass in :47 2/5 Aug. 13. "There's only a couple of graded stakes for two-year-olds to go to the Breeders' Cup, so now he's probably in [there]. It's a great connection and War Front is a very nice freshman sire that I trained for awhile, so I'm happy that he has his first graded stakes winner." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Highly tried when sixth in the Listed Oppenheim-Rennen at Cologne on debut July 25, Nice Danon broke through in a Dusseldorf maiden last time Aug. 22 and earned a crack at Germany's most prestigious juvenile event after surviving an objection here. Taking advantage of his inside box to lead under a tight hold along the rail after a sharp exit, he was stoked up off the home turn and ran on strongly under urging inside the final eighth--where he made fleeting contact with Salona--to garner a personal best in game fashion.

Jean-Pierre Carvalho, trainer of the runner-up Salona, stated, "We made our point [to the stewards] because Nice Danon did not keep a straight line and touched our filly. OAK TREE MEET AT HOLLYWOOD IN 2011 An agreement between the Oak Tree Racing Association and Hollywood Park was finalized late Friday evening to contest a second straight fall meeting in 2011. The California Horse Racing Board still must approve the dates. "We're very glad to have this done," Hollywood Park President Jack Liebau said. "Hollywood Park looks forward to a long and successful relationship with the Oak Tree Racing Association." Sherwood C. Chillingworth, the executive vice president of the Oak Tree Racing Association, added, "Oak Tree is very appreciative of the cooperation we have received and the spirit in which Hollywood Park has offered its facility for the next two years. We understand that the California Horse Racing Board has to approve our dates and licenses, but we are hopeful that the Board will respond positively to our request." The 2010 Oak Tree at Hollywood Park meeting kicks off Sept. 30.

TOM BRALY DIES Tom Braly, who campaigned this year's multiple Grade I winner Evening Jewel (Northern Afleet) with his wife Marilyn and daughter Marianne, passed away yesterday morning at his home in Palm Desert, California after a long battle with cancer. He was 72. A native of Long Beach, Braly earned a journalism degree from the University of Southern California, and worked for the Los Angeles Mirror. He later became the owner of Mills Insurance. An $8,000 KEESSEP yearling before being purchased privately by the Bralys, Evening Jewel broke through with her game win in the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland in April, and later ran second by a whisker in the GI Kentucky Oaks. The bay filly, trained by Jim Cassidy, most recently captured the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 21 with Braly in attendance. "He'll be missed, not only as an owner, but as a good friend and good adviser," said Cassidy. Braly previously campaigned graded winner Nijinsky's Passion (Nijinsky's Table). Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

the GI Kentucky Oaks. The bay filly, trained by Jim Cassidy, most recently captured the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 21 with Braly in attendance. "He'll be missed, not only as an owner, but as a good friend and good adviser," said Cassidy. Braly previously campaigned graded winner Nijinsky's Passion (Nijinsky's Table). Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

Lisa's Booby Trap OK:

Lisa's Booby Trap (Drewman), who suffered her first career defeat when last of 10 in her grass debut in the second division of Saratoga's Riskaverse S. Thursday, has exited the race in good order, according to owner/trainer Tim Snyder. The popular filly won her first four career starts by more than 40 lengths, including the Loudonville S. at the Spa Aug. 6. "She's doing very well, she just galloped around there [Thursday]," Snyder said. "We're definitely not going to run back on the grass! Even if she started talking and said, 'Please put me on the grass again,' I wouldn't do it. I'm going to take her to my mother-in-law's farm in Syracuse on Monday. I want to take her away from the track. She needs to relax and she has a stall there where she can be inside or outside eating grass." Snyder added that Lisa's Booby Trap may return over the main track at Belmont this fall.

PRINCE WILL I AM (r, 3, Victory Gallop--Dyna's Dynamo, by Dynaformer) ran creditably, but still off-the-board in several graded stakes on the dirt and synth earlier this term before trying the turf last out Aug. 7. He was a fast-closing third in that grass debut, and was the 7-2 second-choice to improve two slots here. Well out of it early again, the ridgling overcame a bevy of traffic trouble through much of the race and, when he finally found a seam, went on to 3/4-length score over Slambino (Grand Slam). OVERSEAS MARKET (f, 2, Stormy Atlantic--Early Glow, by Easy Goer) was just a neck away from graduation first out at Monmouth June 19, and was given a 2-1 shot to get it done in start number two for juvenile specialist Rick Violette. The chestnut was well-placed behind the dueling pair of Palooza (Hennessy) and Simply Delightful through splits of :22.06 and :45.82. The former, a well-bet Tom Albertrani firster, disposed of her company and opened up a clear advantage in mid-stretch while failing to maintain a straight path as Overseas Market closed smartly as the only threat. Overseas Market was forced to steady nearing the line, and while Palooza struck the wire 1 1/4 lengths in front, the one-two order of finish was reversed after a stewards' inquiry. The grey bided her time from off the pace and outside while the leaders set swift splits of :22.90 and :47.13. She swung to the rail after weaving in between her slower rivals coming around the bend and closed resolutely to sneak by Town Flirt (Speightstown) on the inside and win going away by 1 1/2 lengths. TODAY'S INSIGHTS

3:37p 6th-SAR, $50K, Msw, 2yo, 7f HR/TVG GALLANT DREAMS (Bernardini), who hopes to get in off the also-eligible list, is out of Dreams Gallore (Silver Ghost), a Grade I-winning router who earned almost $600,000. Trainer Tom Albertrani's debutante Palooza (Hennessy) finished first in yesterday's fifth race, but was disqualified. Astrology (A.P. Indy) was well-bet for his July 31 debut and hung on for third after dueling through average early splits. The extra furlong he has to work with here should prove beneficial for the Steve Asmussen-trained half-brother to MGSW juvenile Lunarpal (Successful Appeal). Anthony's Cross (Indian Charlie) broke slowly, but rallied well to finish right behind Astrology last time in his unveiling and has every right to improve with the experience. To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) went for $250,000 as a weanling at KEENOV and was pinhooked for $575,000 as a yearling at KEESEP. His dam, Pilfer (Deputy Minister), was a minor stakes winner, and the colt sports a bullet 1:00.66 five-furlong gate work Aug. 30 for Bill Mott, who is not known for having his stock prepped for their best at first asking. brisnet.com pps

6:00p TVG 3rd-DMR, $50K, Msw, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f (AW) DAZZLING DISPLAY (Dehere) was a $250,000 two-year-old purchase at FTFEB, fetching over $150,000 more than the next most expensive American-purchased juvenile this year by her since-exported sire. The Baffert trainee was a solid second in her track-and-trip debut July 25, and two foes who finished behind her have exited that race to take maiden special weights "where the turf meets the surf." Under Wraps (Dixie Union) is a half-sister to Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake), who annexed the GI Matron S. at Belmont as a baby. Hall of Fame conditioner Richard Mandella has won with two of 11 juvenile debuters in sprints at Del Mar since Polytrack was installed in 2007. Zazu (Tapit) was a $100,000 FTKNOV weanling turned $285,000 KEESEP yearling. John Sadler is winning at a 25-percent clip with his two-year-old firsters this meet. brisnet.com pps

Equibase Launches iPhone Application:

Equibase President and COO Hank Zeitlin announced the launch of a free iPhone application that allows users to watch video replays and view results of all graded stakes races from 2010. Ungraded prep races for the Triple Crown and Breeders' Cup are also available.

"The Equibase Racing Yearbook is the latest innovation developed by Equibase to serve the rapidly growing mobile web market," Zeitlin said. "By repackaging race day information that is presently available at equibase.com, incorporating full search capability and adding video race replays provided by Post Time Technologies, this app will not only serve the needs of existing fans, but help the sport to reach out and develop new fans as well." The Equibase Racing Yearbook application can be downloaded for free at itunes.com.

Jack Good Scholarship Recipients Announced:

Edited Press Release

David Allen and Heather Shatz, animal science majors in the University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program, have been awarded The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarships for the 2010-11 academic year, it was announced. Allen is a senior from Detroit, Michigan, and Shatz is a junior from Benson, Arizona. "Heather and David epitomize the spirit of The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarship and are most-deserving recipients," Matt Iuliano of The Jockey Club said. "We look forward to their future contributions to the Thoroughbred industry." The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarship was created in 2007 and is awarded annually to RTIP students based on their academic achievement, proposed career path in the Thoroughbred racing industry and previous industry involvement.

Transferred to Steve's father Art Sherman, the longest shot on the board was settled at the back as unbeaten Goggles McCoy (In Excess {Ire}) set the early pace, came charging down the center of the course in deep stretch and just got up. "He had a hairline fracture after the El Camino Real Derby," the elder Sherman said. "They told us not to turn him out, but to jog and that would help it heal. So Steve's been doing that. GALILEO STAR TURN DOMINATES AT BADEN-BADEN

Galileo (Ire) is a permanent feature at the elite end of Europe's auctions at present, and it was no exception at Baden-Baden yesterday when a son of the Coolmore giant topped the opening session of the BBAG Yearling Sale at €170,000. Out of the outstanding domestic champion Elle Danzig (Ger) (Roi Danzig), the Gestut Wittekindshof-consigned hip 40 is a full-brother to the listed scorer Elle Gala (Ire) and half to Elle Shadow (Ire) (Shamardal), who went from bridesmaid in the G1 Preis der Diana last month to bride in Wednesday's G3 Belmondo-Preis here. It was Dirk Eisele's BBA Germany who won the day acting on behalf of Stall Salzburg, whose Night Magic (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}) runs in Sunday's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden. Seven lots earlier, Eisele paid €110,000 for Gestut Karlshof's Oratorio (Ire) half-brother to 2008 G1 Preis von Europa and G2 Diana-Trial winner Baila Me (Ger) (Samum {Ger}) and the useful stakes performer Bailamos (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). That matched the amount paid by French agent Sylvain Vidal for the preceding lot, a daughter of Pivotal (GB) from the draft of Gestut Gorldorf. She is from the immediate family of Pivotal's 2008 G3 Nell Gwyn S. scorer and G1 Coronation S. and G1 Falmouth S. runner-up Infallible (GB). Vidal also secured Count and Countess von Stauffenberg's hip 27, a filly from the first crop of Three Valleys who is a half-sister to the afternoon's Listed Coolmore Stud Baden-Baden Cup winner Golden Whip (Ger) (Seattle Dancer) for €52,000, as well as Gestut Rottgen's hip 41, a Kallisto (Ger) half-brother to the top-class Egerton (Ger) (Groom Dancer) and this year's Preis der Diana heroine Enora (Ger) (Noverre) for €90,000. Gestut Fahrhof's hip 20 also caused a stir when selling for €100,000.

By Darley's Manduro (Ger), he is a half-brother to last year's G3 Furstenberg-Rennen hero Toughness Danon (GB) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) and was knocked down to Margot Herbert. Ronald Rauscher's draft featured an in-demand filly, as hip 65, a daughter of Clodovil (Ire) related to the 2002 G1 1000 Guineas and Epsom Oaks heroine Kazzia (Ger) (Zinaad {GB}). She was snapped up by Dr Christophe Berglar for €95,000. At the end of the first session, 62 of the 72 yearlings offered sold for €1,861,000 averaging €30,016. BBAG's Managing Director Carola Ortlieb simply said, "This was a great start, and we hope it will keep up tomorrow." Selling continues today at 10 a.m. Full results can be viewed at www.bbag-sales.de.

BBAG SEPTEMBER YEARLINGS

Hip 114, f, Samum (Ger)--Kapitol (Ger), by Winged Love (Ire)

Consigned by Gestut Karlshof

This filly's full-brother was the highly talented Kamsin (Ger), the outright winner of the 2008 G1 Deutsches Derby and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden who was also promoted to first in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal.

Hip 119, c, Zamindar--La Felicita (GB),
by Shareef Dancer

Consigned by Graf & Gräfin von Stauffenberg

Count and Countess von Stauffenberg offer this half-brother to the 2008 G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine and G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef) and is a 3/4-brother to the Group-winning Lucidor (Ger) (Zafonic). This is the family of the remarkable Lomitas (GB), who was euthanized this week.

Hip 127, f, Montjeu (Ire)--Majorata (Ger), by Acatenango (Ger)

Consigned by Gestut Etzean

This sole Montjeu representative in the catalogue named Motion of Power (Ger) is a half-sister to the 2007 G1 Preis der Diana winner Mystic Lips (Ger) (Generous {Ire}), whose second dam is the champion Majoritat (Ger) (Königsstuhl {Ger}), herself the dam of the 2004 G1 Deutsches Derby runner-up Malinas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}).

Hip 130, c, Smarty Jones--Miss Union Avenue,
by Steinlen (GB)

Consigned by Roland Rauscher, agent

This rare all-American offering is closely related to the 2006 GII American Derby hero Union Avenue (Gone West) and shares his page with the smart Changeisgonnacome (Cherokee Run) and Golden Post (Golden Act).

Hip 231, f, Dylan Thomas (Ire)--Rosengeste (Ger), by Be My Guest

Consigned by Gestut Wittekindshof

This April-foaled filly shares her triple Listed-winning Rosengeste with the top-class Rosenreihe (Ire) (Catcher In the Rye {Ire}), who was successful in the 2008 G1 Preis der Diana.

Hip 236, c, Manduro (Ger)--Sacarina (GB),
by Old Vic (GB)

Consigned by Gestut Karlshof

From the first crop of the world-class Andre Fabre trainee, this May-foaled bay named Seven Summits (Ger) is the pick of the catalogue as a three-parts brother to Monsun's crack performers Samum (Ger), Schiaparelli (Ger) and Salve Regina (Ger) whose three-year-old half-brother Seventh Sky (Ger) (King's Best) recently added further luster in Hannover's Listed Derby Trial.

🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Awzaan takes the first step back after his first disappointing effort when trailing in the May1 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. He still needs to prove he stays this trip after his two-year-old highs over six furlongs in the G1 Middle Park S. and G2 Mill Reef S. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Racing Manager Angus Gold revealed that connections are also in the dark over that matter. "Obviously, he ran no sort of race in the Guineas," Gold told PA Sport. Cont. p9

BIONDETTI (Bernardini) arrives here after being scratched from York's G3 Acomb S. with a minor setback, and bids to build on a debut win over this trip at Newmarket last month. Godolphin's Mahmood Al Zarooni-trained 3/4-brother to the 2003 GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. winner Indy Five Hundred (A.P. Indy) encounters Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Yarmouth maiden winner Darej (Speightstown), a William Haggas-trained grandson of the GI Cotillion H. scorer Snit (Fit To Fight).

"He wasn't great when he got back and then they found he had tweaked a suspensory, so he's had plenty of time off for it to settle down," Gold continued. "He's been back in work quite a while now, and Mark [Johnston] feels this is the right place to start him back. We don't know what his trip is yet. The only time we've run him over a mile he ran no sort of a race, so we didn't learn anything. It's a learning curve. I know it's a bit late in the year for that, but that was nobody's fault." There are plenty of solid yardsticks to measure his performance against, including Secrecy, who recorded a latest win on the Polytrack in a mile conditions race at Kempton Aug. 23.

BOYLESPORTS SPONSOR THE NATIONAL STAKES

Boylesports were yesterday unveiled as the sponsors of next Saturday's G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. at The Curragh. The track's General Manager Paul Hensey said, "We are delighted to welcome back Boylesports to the Curragh, having previously enjoyed an excellent partnership with them when they sponsored the Irish Guineas Festival. We now look forward to working with them to help maximise their new association with what is undoubtedly one of the most prestigious races for juveniles in Europe."

GOLDNEYEV DIES

Goldneyev (Nureyev--Gold River {Fr}, by Riverman), the sire of Gold Away (Ire), has died aged 24, the Racing Post reported. The 1989 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up, who was a son of the Arc heroine Gold River, had stood at Haras de Mirande at a fee of €2,500 after moving from Haras de Saint Leonard Parks. As well as Gold Away, who was also placed at the highest level before going onto success at stud as the sire of Alexander Goldrun (Ire) among others, Goldneyev was also responsible for the smart performers Le Tintoret (Fr) and Dananeyev (Fr).
