ESPRIT D'ESCALIER

Espirita (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}) stepped up to the plate to take her pattern-race bow, yesterday's G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville, in decisive fashion. Runner-up in a July 16 newcomers' event at Chantilly, the dark bay broke through in a hot conditions heat going 7 1/2 furlongs here last time Aug. 8, and continued her progression here. Positioned in a handy third from the outset, she eased into third soon after turning for home and was ridden clear inside the final furlong to impose authority with aplomb. Trainer Elie Lellouche has always held the filly in high regard. "I was hoping to run her in the [G3] Prix d'Aumale, but she had a minor setback, which meant I had to abandon plans to aim her at the [G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac," Lellouche told Racing Post. "Espirita acts on all grounds, and the likely programme now is to leave her alone till 2011, when we will be looking at races like the [G3] Prix de la Grotte and the [G1 Poule d'Essai des] Pouliches." RICHARD'S KID SKIPPING CLASSIC

Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), winner of the G1 Pacific Classic and G1 Goodwood S. in his last two appearances, will forego the Breeders' Cup and will instead head to Dubai this winter, according to Daily Racing Form. The five-year-old breezed six furlongs in 1:13 at Hollywood yesterday morning. "He wants him home," Baffert told DRF. "He wants to get him ready for the winter. I got the word today. He's going to go into quarantine this week." Richard's Kid ran seventh in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan this past March.

"They're passing up a chance to be champion older horse, and maybe Horse of the Year," Baffert added. The bay also captured the 2009 Pacific Classic, and kicked off this year with a win in the GII San Antonio H.

Wise Move...

Gill Phoenix S. winner Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) worked at Churchill yesterday, covering five panels in 1:00.60 before galloping out in 1:14.40. The sophomore is slated to go next in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Nov. 6. "He did that real easy," said trainer Charlie Lopresti. "I never work my horses real fast. I'm not a big believer in those fast works anyway. As long as they come home good and finish up good, that's all that matters to me." At the championship event, Lopresti will also saddle Grade I winner Here Comes Ben (Street Cry {Ire}) in the GI BC Dirt Mile. Both horses are expected to van over to Louisville Oct. 27.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER 2010

Among all the really valuable, and scary, discussions of yearling prices, profitability and impending 2011 stud fees, it's important to remember when we're talking about "the market," we're actually talking about one market with several distinct tiers. There is a commercial category, which I have called 'The World Top 12' for some time, that exists in a different commercial atmosphere than the rest of the racing and breeding world. Whoever the World Top 12 consists of at any given time, they are responsible for a disproportionately high percentage of the industry's wealth, because of the high fees they command (cheapest of the 12 in 2010, aside from new entry Dubawi, was Smart Strike, at $75,000). They may or may not be trendsetters: what happens to the stud fees of these horses in 2011 may or may not have much to do with what happens to the fees of all other stallions in the racing universe.

Over the last 20 years, it has surprised me that the tier that separates itself right away from the rest of the stallion population is not 10, or 15, but almost always 12. The point is to be inductive about it--not to say, there must be 12, but to say, who are the top, top sires, and then count how many you've selected.

The criterion is that they stand out from the crowd. It's a judgment call, and subjective. It's not just about the numbers, such as the APEX stallion ratings; the main note to make about them is that the top sires these days aren't as far ahead of their contemporaries as the top sires used to be. But, to a certain extent, that has to be the result of the dilution of quality as stallions' book sizes doubled. So, it's not strictly the numbers, it's a combination of the numbers and how I guess you, the professionals, actually rate them. But this World Top 12--are they really supposed to behave by the same rules, as far as 2011 stud fee declines go, as the rest of the stallion population?

One very striking and dramatic development in the compilation of this very rich list is that the addition of its newest member, Dubawi, swings the balance of power to Europe for the first time in at least 40 years. As of now, in my view, seven of the World Top 12 are European stallions, just five are American. Twenty years ago, it was probably one and 11. It doesn't mean it's always going to stay this way, but, subjective though this list may be, it certainly confirms the swing of the top stallions to Europe that began with Sadler's Wells, whose first foals raced in 1988, 22 years ago.

Interestingly, then, if you start to look at the second tier--say, pick the next 18 to fill out the top 30--that would be at least two-thirds American sires, and perhaps it is in that group that 2011 stud fees will be more vulnerable.

Dubawi's rise to inclusion among a list of the world's most elite stallions has been both sudden and decisive.

Dubawi
www.darleystallions.com

He began 2010 having been the second-best freshman sire in Europe in 2009, behind Darley stablemate Shamardal. And, though Shamardal himself is proving a very good sire indeed--he's among the second-tier sires in the World Top 30--Dubawi has racked up one top-class performance after another and, notably, at all distances from five furlongs (Astrophysical Jet) to a mile and a half (Monterosso at Royal Ascot, and Prince Bishop, last weekend at Longchamp in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris, against 'olders').

Having won Ireland's G1 National S. over seven furlongs at two, Dubawi's two Group 1 wins at three were at a mile (Irish 2000 Guineas, Prix Jacques le Marois), though he did stay well enough to finish third in the G1 Epsom Derby, and his dam, Zomaradah, was a Group 1 winner over 10-11 furlongs. So there are elements in his pedigree and race record that suggest he could sire horses that stay further than he did himself; well, look at Oasis Dream, he's a much more extreme example of it.

In his first Northern Hemisphere crop of about 115 foals, Dubawi has sired at least 11 black-type winners (10 percent), of which eight are group winners (seven percent), percentages that straightaway place him in the top rung of sires. He struck early in the year with G3 Premio Paroli (Italian 2000 Guineas) winner Worthadd--who later added the G2 Italian Derby--and then announced himself in the big time with Makfi's shock win in the G1 2000 Guineas. After a poor run behind Canford Cliffs in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, Makfi returned in August to upset Goldikova and Paco Boy in the G1 Prix Jaques le Marois at Deauville, a race won by both his sire, Dubawi, and his grandsire, Dubai Millennium. Then, when Makfi ran badly for a second and final time at Ascot in September, another colt by Dubawi, previous Group 2 winner Poet's Voice, jumped up to win the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., defeating Rip Van Winkle (Galileo).

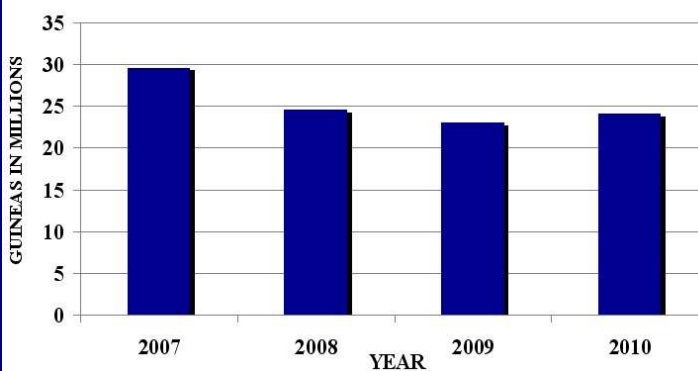

As if this weren't enough, Dubawi already has at least 11 black-type two-year-olds in his second crop of 113 Northern Hemisphere foals of 2008, of which six are already black-type winners. I could be out of date at any minute, but at the moment I count 17 black-type winners for Dubawi in his first two Northern Hemisphere crops, of which nine are colts and eight are fillies. Cont. p5

Weekly Sales Ticker by Bill Oppenheim

"Tattersalls' October Sale's last week just about absorbed a 20 percent surge in the number catalogued -- principally in Book 2, which averaged 32,470 gns., whereas Book 3 averaged just 6,487 gns. In fact, a little bit like Keeneland did in September, Tattersalls 'shoehorned' a few more into Book 2 -- 13 percent more horses sold in October Book 2 than last year, eight percent rise in gross for that Book (3 1/2 days). Book 3, with nearly the same number sold as last year, was down 22 percent on average. It was weakest at the bottom, but it was very steady otherwise overall."

Data compiled by Brianne Stanley

I'd say there's rather a wide distribution of pedigrees he seems to be working with, though it's hard not to be impressed that both Makfi (Green Desert) and Poet's Voice (Chief's Crown) are out of mares by Danzig-line sires. Also, although he is a Mr. Prospector-line stallion, being by Dubai Millennium, by Seeking the Gold, Dubawi is definitely going 'off piste' for most Mr. Prospector-line stallions, in that he already has two group winners out of mares by other Mr. Prospector-line sires. These are: last weekend's aforementioned Prince Bishop, out of a mare by Prospect Bay (he was by Crafty Prospector out of, interestingly, a Danzig mare); and the recent French two-year-old G3 Prix Eclipse winner Split Trois, who is out of a Zafonic mare.

Even stranger: one of Dubawi's two Group 1 winners from his first Southern Hemisphere crop (now three-year-olds) is out of a mare by Secret Savings--a son of Seeking the Gold, meaning Dubawi's Australian Group 1 winner Secret Admirer isn't just Mr. Prospector over Mr. Prospector, she is 3x3 to Seeking the Gold! That kind of off-piste behavior, combined with the sort of class percentages Dubawi has been racking up, often heralds a really important new star sire rising.

Dubai Millennium, who Sheikh Mohammed patently thought was the best horse he ever owned, was cut down after just one season at stud; I think it's ironic that now one of Dubai Millennium's sons looks like being the best sire Sheikh Mohammed has ever bred and owned. It is really reminiscent of Seattle Slew, himself one of only 60 foals sired by Bold Reasoning in 1974-75, all over again...30 years later.

NEWS TODAY

AL QUOZ SPRINT SHORTENED The G3 Al Quoz Sprint, part of the Dubai World Cup card for the first time at Meydan in 2010, will be shortened from 1200 meters to 1000 meters on the turf. The change was made to avoid a conflict with the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, which is run at 1200 meters over the synthetic track. "As we saw with the move to the all-weather surface, a number of the world's best turf sprinters opted to run in the Dubai Golden Shaheen and, rather than have the two races compete for the same runners, we decided to bring the Al Quoz Sprint on turf back to 1000 meters," explained Frank Gabriel, CEO of the Dubai Racing Club. "World racing has several top-class sprint races over 1000 meters, and we are confident that the Al Quoz Sprint will join them now that it is over that distance. The move to the Dubai World Cup programme was well-received by international trainers, with Joy and Fun (NZ) (Cullen {Aus}) from Hong Kong beating horses from six other countries, and we are confident that the reduction in the race's distance to 1000 meters will be as equally well-received." The 2011 World Cup meeting will be held Mar. 26.

NJ DEMOCRATS ADDRESS RACING ISSUES

Democrats from the New Jersey Senate released a framework for future legislation Monday that included proposals to aid the horse racing industry in the state. While the state Democrats did not support VLTs at the tracks or a continuation of the subsidy that Atlantic City casinos have paid to supplement purses since 2004, they did offer a plan to make it easier to obtain licenses for off-track betting facilities, and backed the legalization of exchange wagering. Under a bill currently in place, New Jersey can license 15 OTBs, but only three have opened since that legislation passed in 2001, and the first facility didn't begin operation until 2007. Senator Jim Whelan, co-chair of the Legislative Gaming Summit that studied the issues over the summer, said in a press release, "From the outset, this process has always been about rejecting the conventional wisdom that Atlantic City, the Meadowlands and the horseracing industry could not be brought together. This is a comprehensive approach will protect the jobs our casinos and racetracks support, and prove that solutions do not have to come with winners and losers. If we act quickly to get this plan in place, everyone will win." Added Senate President Stephen M. Sweeney, "Because of the thousands of jobs that hang in the balance, failure to act was never an option. This agenda will protect the Meadowlands Racetrack and Monmouth Park and allow racing to survive in the world's biggest market. We will reengineer Atlantic City to put it head-and-shoulders above the competition, and protect the tens of thousands of jobs the resort supports." New Jersey's horsemen were guarded in their reaction. "In concept...it sounds good, with the exception of the fact that there are no immediate solutions for 2011," Barbara DeMarco, a spokeswoman for the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association Inc., told The Philadelphia Inquirer. "Racing can't have a dip next year and then be expected to rebound in subsequent years when these things are implemented and operational. We need both long-term and short-term solutions. We applaud the efforts being made, but, as with everything, the devil is in the details."

Sen. Jim Whelan www.njsendems.com

WESTBURY MARES STAR AT OBS The complete dispersal of Westbury Stables was the biggest draw at Tuesday's opening session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Fall Mixed Sale. Five-year-old Zehoor (Storm Cat), consigned by Summerfield on Westbury's behalf, attracted a bid of $250,000 from George and Karen Russell's Rustlewood Farm to top the day. The unraced mare is out of Grade I winner Nany's Sweep (End Sweep), making her a half-sister to GSW She's Indy Money (A.P. Indy). She is in foal to Tiznow. Zehoor's yearling Bernardini filly sold for $60,000 to agent Steve Young at KEESEP. Her weanling filly by Indian Charlie, offered yesterday as hip 292, failed to sell at $120,000. The only other horse to break the six-figure barrier yesterday was Westbury's Chasenthebluesaway (Real Quiet), a half-sister to the ill-fated Gibson County (In Excess {Ire}), who was purchased for $100,000 by Baccari Bloodstock. The nine-year-old mare is in foal to Indian Charlie. The highest-priced weanling yesterday was hip 223, a $90,000 colt from the first crop of Cowntown Cat (Distorted Humor). Offered by Summerfield as agent, the February-foaled chestnut is a half-brother to SW & GSP Thank U Philippe (Proud Accolade). A total of 163 horses changed hands during the opening session, grossing $2,572,600 and averaging $15,783. The sale's second and final session gets underway today at 10:30 a.m. Complete results are available on www.obssales.com. Cont. p2

Runner-up behind reigning Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) in the nine-furlong Lady's Secret S. July 24, the bay came home fourth in her two latest starts, including the GI Beldame S. at Belmont Oct. 2. Lee Lewis' MYSTIC MIRACLE (Unbridled's Song), a winner trying a mile at Monmouth in May, had been running well without hitting the board facing stiff competition through the summer. Fourth behind Chad Brown's star turf filly Maram (Sahm) in the July 4 Ms Liberty S., the grey was a close-up sixth in the GIII Matchmaker S. Aug. 1. Most recently, the Lewis homebred was fifth--beaten three lengths--by another Brown trainee Tottie (Fantastic Light) in the 1 3/8-mile Omnibus S. Aug. 21. brisset.com PPs

OASIS DREAM COLT STARS AT DEAUVILLE

Oasis Dream (GB) has been a major presence at all the European Sales in 2010, and the Juddmonte stallion was well represented again yesterday when his colt from Ecurie des Monceaux topped the second session of Arqana's October Yearling Sale at €300,000. Consigned as hip 222, the May-foaled bay is out of the dual listed-placed Rose Melody (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose immediate family features Gold and Steel (Fr) (Highest Honor {GB}), winner of three Grade II contests including the 1995 American Derby and third in the following year's GI Eddie Read H. His half-brother by Smart Strike, now named Target Point (GB), was bought for €500,000 by John Ferguson at last year's August Sale. It was Marc-Antoine Berghgracht's MAB Agency, who purchased the two top-priced fillies on day one, who won the battle with Alex Cole to buy the colt for Anthony Forde and Ahmed Mouknass. With Angus Gold absent, Shadwell called on domestic trainers to do its bidding and late in the session, Francois Rohaut outlasted the Qatar-based Alban de Mieulle and agent Guy Armengol at €170,000 to sign for the day's top-priced filly on behalf of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation. By American Post (GB), hip 258 is from the Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard consignment. She is a half-sister to the talented Cashelgar (Ire) (Anabaa), whose page is highlighted by the sire Kutub (Ire) and top-class distaffer Shake the Yoke (GB) (Caerleon). Two other purchases by Shadwell were hip 225, Haras d'Etreham's half-sister to the listed-winning Sabasha (Fr) (Xaar {GB}), who capped a successful session for Oasis Dream when selling to Rohaut for €100,000; and hip 205, Haras du Mezeray's son of Shamardal who fetched €95,000. He is out of a half to the Group 3 and five-times listed winner Lady Deauville (Fr) (Fasliyev) and the 1996 Japan Cup runner-up and G1 Shuka Sho heroine Fabulous La Fouine (Fr) (Fabulous Dancer). It was John Hammond who was on hand to sign the docket.

Also by Shadwell's stalwart Muhtathir was hip 240, a son of the listed winner Squaw Dance (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) from the extended family of Spinning World, Denon, Aldebaran and now Pathfork (Distorted Humor). From the draft of Andreas Putsch's Haras de Saint Pair, who had done so well on day one, he was also on Decrion's wish-list and the agent was not to be denied with a successful bid of €140,000. Early in the session, trainer David Smaga paid €102,000 for hip 143, a filly from the first crop of Teofilo (Ire), also from Haras d'Etream. She is a half-sister to the high-class Little Treasure (Fr) (Night Shift), whose victories included the 2002 GII San Clemente H.

Now split into two sections, Part 1 of the October Yearling Sale was welcomed as a success by Arqana's President Eric Hoyeau. "I am very pleased that the change in format is already proving a successful move," he said. "Part 1 has seen a very deep market, as shown by the excellent clearance rate and a very consistent catalogue, a fact reflected in the median being close to the average. Such a combination of factors has generated a positive and dynamic atmosphere throughout the two afternoons. I am particularly happy to see that vendors who have supported us in this move by offering good individuals in October are being rewarded and I wish to thank them on behalf of all at Arqana." Selling continues at 11am today. Full results are available on www.arqana.com.

SIYOUNI TO BONNEVAL His Highness The Aga Khan's Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}--Sichilla {Ire}, by Danehill) will stand alongside Sinndar (Ire) at Bonneval Stud in Normandy for the 2011 breeding season, it was announced yesterday. Successful in last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, Siyouni was also second in both the 2009 G2 Prix Robert Papin and G3 Prix la Rochette and this term had filled third spot in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp as well as finishing runner-up in the G1 Prix Jean Prat. Out of a half-sister to leading sire Slickly (Fr), he drew praise from trainer Alain de Royer Dupre yesterday. "He was a very serious two-year-old with a lot of natural speed, which encouraged me to give him an early start in his career," he said. "He confirmed that with regular performances at the highest level this year." Georges Rimaud, Director of the Aga Khan Studs in France, added, "A good-looking individual, Siyouni offers an opportunity for French breeders and we are delighted to welcome him at Bonneval, where he will be available to see in the next few weeks." Henri Bozo, Manager of Haras des Monceaux, said, "The access to the Pivotal and Danehill blood presents a real interest for French breeders, and we are very happy that he is staying in France." In total, Siyouni won four of 12 starts and over €500,000 in prizemoney. His fee will be announced shortly.

SHOWCASING TO WHITSBURY MANOR

Showcasing (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}--Arabesque {GB}, by Zafonic) has been secured by Whitsbury Manor Stud, it was announced yesterday. Successful in last year's G2 Gimcrack S. and third in the G1 Middle Park S., the Juddmonte-bred and John Gosden-trained three-year-old was last seen finishing unplaced in the July 9 G1 July Cup. Second in the May 12 G2 Duke of York S., he retires as the winner of two of seven starts and nearly £130,000 in earnings. "Showcasing is a striking individual, being a very strong attractive dark bay with an excellent walk and clean limbs," a statement from the Hampshire-based Stud read. "With the look of his sire Oasis Dream and as a half brother to Camacho, who has already proved himself as a commercial sire of two-year-olds, we are extremely excited to stand Showcasing at Whitsbury. His fee will be announced shortly."

Clear when eased in the final yards, the 100,000gns TATDEC weanling who later RNA'd as a 170,000gns TATOCT yearling had 3 1/2 lengths to spare over Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Arizona Jewel (GB) (Dansili {GB}), the three-parts sister to Frankel's dam Kind (Ire) (Danehill) and half to Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells), raced prominently early and lost the silver medal by a short head after the winner had flown. Committed before the final quarter, the 240,000gns TATOCT yearling was in front soon after and was kept up to her work to record a 2 1/2-length success from Moonsail (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), the daughter of Kazzia (Ger) (Zinaad {GB}), who stayed on late after racing freely initially. AUSTRALASIA

STATHI KATSIDIS DIES Leading Australian jockey Stathi Katsidis was found dead at the Brisbane home he shared with partner Melissa Jackson Tuesday morning.

The cause of death is unknown, but police have ruled out foul play and suicide and results of an autopsy are pending. Katsidis won a total of six Group 1 races, including two this year aboard Shoot Out (Aus) (High Chaparral {Ire}). The 31-year-old was scheduled to renew that partnership in Saturday's G1 Cox Plate. "What a waste of a life," Shoot Out's trainer John Wallace told aapracing. "He was a nice guy. I had a cup of coffee with Stathi after the last at Caloundra on Sunday and he was all go. He told me he couldn't wait to get to Melbourne and that he'd be down on Thursday. A lot of people don't realise it, but he helped a lot of people, including apprentices, and did a lot of good things. It's a total shock."
