

LIVING THE DREAM AT KEENOV

Dreamtheimpossible (Giant's Causeway), a stakes-winning daughter of multi-millionaire Spain (Thunder Gulch), was the highlight of a solid second session at Keeneland November, bringing a sale-topping $2.55 million from Frank Stronach's Adena Springs. Selling just before the two o'clock hour as hip 378 from Eaton Sales, the four-year-old met all the criteria of top prospect--youth, a stellar pedigree, Group 1 talent and in foal to a top sire. In foal to Europe's top sire Galileo (Ire), the mare touched off a spirited bidding duel that boiled down to Adena representative Eric Hamelback, on the phone with Stronach and sitting front and center in the sales pavilion, and Mt.

Brilliant Farm's Greg Goodman, stationed under the press box. Hamelback won the war for the 3/4-sister to Group 3 winner Plan (Storm Cat), and said Stronach never wavered as the bidding progressed. "She was a very nice mare," Hamelback stated after signing the ticket. "Part of it is that Frank acquired Plan, who'll we'll stand in 2011. But Spain was a tremendous mare--obviously one of the best racemares in history. Being in foal to Galileo was a huge plus, and she's said to be carrying a colt. We're very excited to get this colt and put him in our racing stable and, hopefully, do very well with him in the States." While Stronach was determined, Hamelback said the price was a little higher than they expected. "But with that pedigree, in this day and age, it's tough to put a figure on a horse," he reasoned. "We feel honored to have her." Hamelback added, "At this time, Frank hasn't made any decisions on mating."

Goodman was gracious in defeat. "The best of the best are always going to bring a lot of money," he told the press afterward. "It just got to be a little pricey for her--that was enough. But I loved the mare--she's beautiful. I loved the way she looked and the way she carried herself. She's well-balanced for her size. Everything about her we loved." Goodman said he rated the filly along with Society Selection (Coronado's Quest), who sold Monday for $1.85 million, as his picks of the sale. "We actually passed on her and were hoping we could get this one," he said. "But good horses in foal to great sires with long lives ahead of them..." Goodman said he was bidding on behalf of himself and partner Orrin Ingram, who would have taken a 30-percent interest in the mare. Consignor Eaton Sales' Reiley McDonald echoed Goodman's remarks. "She had it all," said McDonald, who added of the action in general, "I think the sale has been very good both days. But it's spotty in places. At the top, it's strong. Yesterday was very good; today started off slow, but gathered momentum."

Breeding Stock Sale

Dreamweaver...

Yesterday's topper Dreamtheimpossible was the fourth foal from Spain, the 2000 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine who banked over $3.5 million during her career. Spain was sent through Keeneland November back in 2003, where she sold to Dromoland Farm for $5.3 million while in foal to Storm Cat. As a racehorse, Dreamtheimpossible proved an effective sort during an abbreviated career. Racing for Coolmore associates Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor, she was second to the colt Black Bear Island (Ire) (Sadler's Wells)--subsequent winner of the G2 Dante S.--in her juvenile debut, then shed her maiden tag in the Listed Flame of Tara S. at The Curragh. She closed out her season with a third to champion Rainbow View (Dynaformer) and GSW Fantasia (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the G1 Meon Valley Stud Fillies Mile, but would not race again. Should Dreamtheimpossible's price tag remain the highest at Keeneland November, she'll be the lowest-priced topper since Storm Song sold for $1.4 million in 1997.

Dreamtheimpossible is one of several mares to sell over the last few days who carried the colors of the Coolmore partners, and is a testament to the success of the international operation. At Sunday's Fasig-Tipton Sale, the five-year-old Love to Dance (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who raced for Tabor, was hammered down to Reynolds Bell--agent for Alpha Delta--for $1.05 million. Love to Dance, who was owned by S. F. Bloodstock at the time of her sale, was offered by Bedouin Bloodstock. Yesterday at Keeneland, Dreamtheimpossible was followed into the ring by Heart Shaped (Storm Cat), who also sold out of the Eaton Sales draft. She brought a bid of $1.55 million from Blandford Bloodstock (see below). Heart Shaped wore Tabor's orange-and-blue silks when she ran second in the inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2008.

All You Need is Heart...

Heart Shaped (Storm Cat--Twenty Eight Carat, by Alydar), the Irish highweighted two-year-old filly of 2008 who came within a nose of annexing the inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita, brought $1,550,000 from Blandford Bloodstock at Keeneland November's Tuesday's session. She was covered by Lane's End leading stallion A.P. Indy on May 12. Blandford's Tom Goff declined to disclose the buyer after signing the ticket out back.

"She's a lovely big mare," Goff offered. "Storm Cat mares in foal to A.P. Indy don't grow on trees." The half-sister to GI Champagne S. hero and GI Preakness S. and GI Belmont S. runner-up A P Valentine (A.P. Indy) won Ireland's Marble Hill S. and placed second in the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S. Bred in Kentucky by Brushwood Stable, the four-year-old was consigned by Eaton Sales as hip 404. The Morans purchased Twenty Eight Carat for $4-million at this venue in 2001. "She was owned by Coolmore and Betty Moran," Eaton's Reiley McDonald confirmed. "She was beautiful and really had it all. I think she sold well." Asked if she was sold to dissolve the partnership, McDonald said, "Well, it wasn't really to dissolve the partnership, necessarily. They're very happy partners. The just decided to put her in and take some cash off the table." -SS

Luck Squared for Fairlawn Team...

Fairlawn Farm's Lucky One (Best of Luck--Twilight Spectre, by Imp Society) (hip 429), the dam of pro-tem champion three-year-old filly Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision), was yesterday hammered down to Shadai Farm for $1.85 million, the second-highest price of the session and co-highest of the sale.

Lucky One

The eight-year-old is believed to be carrying a full brother to Blind Luck. The battle for the strapping mare boiled down to Yoshida v. Yoshida. Representatives of Terry Yoshida's Shadai lined the back wall to the left of the rear bid spotter out back, while mirroring them across the lead-in chutes on the other side was Katsumi Yoshida's Northern Farm team. Both sides seemed bemused by the scrum, and it was Dr. Mitsuru Ikeda, a veterinarian for Shadai, who outlasted his countrymen through a protracted duel.

"We're very happy," said Fairlawn's Dr. William Baker while choking back tears. "We were expecting a million, but we weren't expecting that much."

Baker, who owns and operates the Woodford Veterinary Clinic in Versailles and who has been a staple at the racetrack and sales scene in Kentucky since 1968, watched the proceedings out back with his wife Terry and their daughter, McEwan.

"I'm so overwhelmed--when she went to a million, I started to cry," said Terry. McEwan, asked to sum up the experience, said simply, "It's awesome."

Lucky One's weanling filly by Successful Appeal, who slated to follow her into the ring as hip 430, was a late out. The pair comprised the entirety of Fairlawn's Book 1 consignment, and closed the book on a brilliant run of luck for the Bakers that began on a cold December night at Turfway Park in 2005. That was when the couple, three days after Christmas, won a reported six-way shake for Lucky One, who was in a $15,000 claiming race at the northern Kentucky track. Lucky One, a $77,000 FTKOCT yearling who was racing for Richard, Bert and Elaine Klein and trainer Steve Flint, had been on the Bakers' radar for a few months.

"They had her in a race for $25,000, and we were actually running against them," Terry Baker explained yesterday from the Keeneland sales grounds. "We were heading back to the barn to see our filly, and my husband saw Lucky One walking past. He said, 'Golly, who's that beautiful mare? She's gorgeous.' So we tried to purchase her [privately] then, but they wanted the $25,000 for her. So we decided to wait and see if they would drop, and they did." Cont. p5

The Bakers were interested in the filly not only because of her physical presence--she cuts an imposing figure at 17.1 hands--but because of her pedigree. Lucky One is a half-sister to very fast Ethan Man (Glitterman), who won the GIII Swale S. back in March of 2002, and a patient of Dr. Baker's for a time.

"Had it not been for that ankle--Ethan Man had an ankle chip that became chronic--I think he would have gone on and been an excellent horse," he said. "As it is, he was a good racehorse in his own right."

Baker added that Lucky One and Ethan Man--and, for that matter, Blind Luck--had similar personalities. "He had a very strong will," said Dr. Baker. "He was a tough one to work on. He had a lot of energy, but you could manage it. He had a lot of heart, too."

Lucky One raced twice more for the Bakers before being retired to the their Lexington-area farm in the spring of 2006. The Bakers selected the Carson City stallion Five Star Day as Lucky One's first date.

"We decided we wanted to get some Carson City to her, because she's such a big horse, and with the Broad Brush, we wanted to get a little bit of speed in her," Terry Baker explained.

One date with Five Star Day became three, but by mid-June and with the breeding season fast coming to a close, Lucky One had yet to scan in foal.

"We thought, 'Boy, who are we going to go to?'" said Terry. "Jamie Hill, who was working with [Wintergreen owner] John Greely at the time, suggested Pollard's Vision, because he was by Carson City, too. So we ran the cross, and it was an A + + +. So we brought her over there, and she got in foal on the first cover."

The result was a tall, leggy chestnut with a defiant streak later named Blind Luck. The Bakers brought Blind Luck to the 2008 Fasig-Tipton July Yearling Sale, where she received a lukewarm reception.

"Pollard's Vision was a freshman sire at the time, and people didn't expect them to be very early," said Terry. "But Juvenal Diaz saw her and fell in love with her, and bought her for $11,000."

Asked if they considered buying Blind Luck back, Terry said, "No, we like to get them into the system just to support the mare, and to let someone else pay the bills for awhile."

Despite selling her for a modest sum, the Bakers considered her a good prospect and saw in her the makings of, if nothing else, a fighter.

"If you go back, there's a video of her walking before the sale, and if you walked beside and just started to walk a little faster, she would always put her head down and try to beat you," Terry smiled. "She was always very competitive. She was very tough."

Diaz, who signed the ticket as Omega Farm, sent Blind Luck back through the OBS April Sale, but bidding stalled at $10,000, and he decided to take her home and race her himself.

She won her first start by 13 1/4 lengths at Calder facing $40,000 claimers in June of her two-year-old year, at which point Diaz sold her to trainer Jerry Hollendorfer and an ownership group that included Mark DeDomenico, John Carver and Peter Abruzzo for a low six-figure sum. Three starts later, Blind Luck won her first Grade I in the Oak Leaf S. She'd go on to win four more, including the Kentucky Oaks and Alabama S. Last weekend, she ran a game second to Unrivaled Belle (Unbridled's Song) in the GI BC Ladies' Classic.

"I thought the race was very exciting," said Dr. Baker. "I thought we'd have been better off if we hung a little closer to the lead. Every time's she's gotten beat, it was because there was no pace in the race, and there was no pace in that race. I think Life at Ten [not firing] probably didn't help us. But she ran her race. The good thing is that she's going to run as a four-year-old. Hopefully, she'll continue to be a star. That's what we need in racing--these horses that are running that go on."

Yesterday morning, the Bakers sat in directors chairs outside Barn 15 at Keeneland and enjoyed the sunshine in anticipation of Lucky One selling.

"It's the story of a lifetime," Terry Baker said. "You just never know. It's something you try to achieve and dream to get to that goal, and to get there is amazing. What's great for the public is that it shows that you don't have to have a whole lot of money to get into the business. You can go and claim a mare for $15,000, send her to an inexpensive stallion, and get lucky." -LM

Aussies Win the 'War' for Street Sense's Half-Sister...

Paul Fudge's Australian-based Waratah Thoroughbreds extended to $1.2 million to secure Elusive Sparkle (Elusive Quality--Bedazzle, by Dixieland Band), a half-sister to GI Kentucky Derby and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}). The five-year-old--from the family of leading sire Mr. Greeley (Gone West)--is believed to be pregnant on a Feb. 20 cover by Street Cry. Waratah, a commercial breeding operation, has also made its presence felt on this side of the pond, campaigning $160,000 KEESep yearling graduate Miss World (Bernstein) to a win in last term's GI Garden City S. at Belmont. "For us Australians, Keeneland is a great source for quality stock," Fudge, who is ranked 38th on Forbes's Australian Top 40 wealthiest list, told reporters after signing the docket. "I think she was the top mare in the sale. This is all part of a big broodmare build-up. If you saw the mare, she's worth every penny of it." Elusive Sparkle, a James Tafel homebred, recorded a career-high in the Prairie Rose S. at Prairie Meadows last season. The bay hit the board in nine of 18 career starts. Like champion Street Sense, Elusive Sparkle was trained by Carl Nafzger. "I thought it was great," the conditioner said of the sale. "She's a nice mare with a lot of potential. She has a good seven years ahead of her. She's the kind of mare that can produce. They all can run in that family." Elusive Sparkle was consigned by Mill Ridge Sales as hip 383. -SS

Fits Right In a Home Run for Thomas...

Fit Right In (Out of Place--Gaye's Blossom, by Thirty Six Red) has been a success for Becky Thomas right from the start and their relationship ended with a seven-figure exclamation point yesterday when the eight-year-old mare sold to Katsumi Yoshida for $1,050,000. "It was a home run," Thomas said yesterday while still celebrating the sale. Thomas actually started the celebration well before the final bid. When the bidding reached $800,000, she was on the phone offering congratulations and her exuberance only grew with each subsequent bid. "She has a Grade I winner in her first foal," Thomas said of Fit Right In. "She's an eight-year-old mare, so she still has her whole life. She is stunningly beautiful and her babies are stunningly beautiful."

Thomas and partner Lewis Lakin purchased Fit Right In's dam, Gaye's Blossom, for $29,000 out of the 2002 Keeneland January sale. "Her mother was one of our original New York mares for our farm in New York," Thomas explained.

While Fit Right In never made it to the races, she proved an instant hit in the breeding shed. Her first foal, a filly by Read the Footnotes, sold for $220,000 to Zayat Stables and went on to become Grade I winner Rightly So. That mare sold for $600,000 during Sunday's Fasig-Tipton November sale. Cont. p7

When Thomas and Lakin dissolved their partnership, Fit Right In was sent through the sales ring at the 2006 New York October sale. Thomas and new partner Dennis Narlinger purchased the then four-year-old filly, in foal to Freud, for just $3,000.

Buyer Katsumi Yoshida

"She's been bred to our regional stallions," Thomas continued. "So [by having a Grade I winner] there was the opportunity to go to Curlin to, I hate to say upgrade, because our stallions are phenomenal, but to get better opportunities."

By producing a Grade I winner, Fit Right In also earned a trip through the sales ring.

"I try to make them and everything I have is for sale, except for the kids," Thomas explained.

Coolmore Lands Dynaformer Weanling...

Coolmore made an early splash to land an attractive weanling filly by Dynaformer for $450,000 at Keeneland November's Tuesday session. The bay, out of the unraced Royal Academy mare Sometime (Ire), is a half-sister to G3 Dee S. victor Art Deco (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) and English stakes winner Manyana (Ire) (Alzao). "All the lads really liked her; she's from a great family," M.V. Magnier said out back after signing the ticket. "We'll bring her back to Ashford and decide what to do with her after that." From the family of champions Taipan (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and Ali-Royal (Ire) (Royal Academy), as well as Group 1 winner Sleepytime (Ire) (Royal Academy) and MGSW Oonagh Maccool (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), hip 277 was bred by Ben Walden Jr. and partners Pat Madden and G McDonald. "It's hard to raise a really good Dynaformer for sale purposes," Walden commented. "She was a really good filly in any light. I had aspirations for a little more money for her, but when I get back to the farm and think about it, I'll be pleased." Walden acquired the 14-year-old mare privately from Charles Wacker. "She's back in foal to Dynaformer--carrying a colt," Walden continued. "Charlie Wacker built that whole family." -SS

Zayat Bats Eight-for-Eight at November Sales...

Prominent owner Ahmed Zayat offered seven horses yesterday at November, and following a private transaction before day's end, boasted a 100-percent strike rate for the group. Leading the charge--officially, at least--was the four-year-old dual Grade III winner Heart Ashley (Lion Heart--Pretty 'n Smart, by Beau Genius). Selling as a broodmare prospect, the 3/4-sister to GSW Ashley's Kitty (Tale of the Cat) was knocked down to Australia's James Bester, agent, for $500,000. Eaton Sales, handling consigning duties, offered the filly as hip 403. Zayat had purchased Heart Ashley for $370,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling. Also selling yesterday was Zayat's three-year-old Ash Zee (Exchange Rate--Wickedly Wise, by Tactical Cat), a $375,000 Saratoga purchase in 2008. Put through here as hip 336, the half-sister to this year's GI Darley Alcibiades heroine Wickedly Perfect (Congrats) was initially led out of the ring unsold at $775,000, but later sold privately to R.S. Evans. Eaton's Reiley McDonald wouldn't confirm the purchase price, but said it was, "around the reserve." Cont. p9

A winner of three of six lifetime starts, Ash Zee finished second in the GII Indiana Oaks since the catalogue. At Sunday's Fasig-Tipton November Sale, Zayat and Eaton teamed to sell Grade I winner Rightly So (Read the Footnotes) for $600,000. Patinack Farm was the winning bidder. "We've been very happy with the results so far," said McDonald, who added that Betty Moran's Brushwood Stable, for whom he consigns, was also batting a perfect 1.000, with eight sold from eight offered. Moran's horse's included Heart Shaped (Storm Cat), who sold for $1.55 million.

Nice Score for John Weber's Winquest...

Miss Audrey (Grand Slam) was an unraced two-year-old when Winquest Thoroughbreds' John Weber bought her for a modest $25,000 at the 2004 Keeneland January Sale. A daughter of the Nureyev mare Ivy Leaf (Ire) and thus a half-sister to GSW & MG1SP Distinction (Danehill) and to MSW & MGSP Ivy Creek (Gulch), Miss Audrey was a useful racehorse. Put in training with H. Graham Motion, she won at first asking late in her three-year-old season, came back to take allowance races on the turf at Tampa Bay and Keeneland at four, and was beaten only 4 3/4 lengths when unplaced in her only black-type try, the 2006 renewal of the GIII Gallorette S. on the Preakness S. undercard at Pimlico. Perhaps Weber remembered the winner of the Preakness that day when it came time to selecting a stallion for Miss Audrey in 2009, as he sent her to Darley's brilliant champion Bernardini (A.P. Indy), who has now gotten off to a fast start at stud with the likes of Grade/Group 1 winners Biondetti and A. Z. Warrior, as well as last weekend's impressive GII Nashua S. hero To Honor and Serve. Miss Audrey's resulting foal, a filly, was offered yesterday by Jim and Pam's Brandywine Farm as hip 477, and sold for $270,000 to Ben McElroy's Twin Peaks Racing. "I thought she'd bring at least $250,000, so that was in the ballpark," said Pam Robinson. "We're happy. This was an absolutely superb, lovely filly. She had a long, fluid stride and had a nice top-line. She's one we foaled and raised her, so she was on the farm until she appeared on the sale's doorsteps." Robinson added of Weber, "He's been in the business for quite a few years and he's been a very good client of ours. He'll breed some, he'll sell some and he'll race some. He was actually one of the very first clients we had." -LM

Baroness Thatcher Heading East...

Graded stakes winner Baroness Thatcher (Johannesburg--Natkeeta, by Gulch) joined the migration of broodmares from the U.S to Japan yesterday when the six-year-old was purchased by Katsumi

Baroness Thatcher

Yoshida for $625,000. Baroness Thatcher was purchased by trainer Patrick Biancone for $1.8 million out of the 2008 Keeneland November sale and made three starts for Tom VanMeter before being retired and bred to Tapit in 2009. Consigned by Eaton Sales, she sold yesterday in foal to Tiznow. "We saw her two years ago here and we liked her, but she brought above our budget," explained Shunsuke Yoshida, who handled the bidding yesterday. "But this was a good price for us, this was a bargain. So we're very happy."

Eaton's Reiley McDonald was satisfied with the result. "I thought it was a good sale and a good buy," McDonald said. "She was a great racemare. I think if she had been another hand taller, she would have been $1.25 million. But, as it is, she was a smallish mare who had huge heart and was tough as nails. The buyer made a very wise purchase."

Of the overall market, McDonald said, "I think the market has been better than it might have been. It could have been worse. The demand has been pretty good, I think, but instead of buying five mares, guys are buying one or two. So they are working harder and they are holding money in their pockets and waiting for other mares. Overall, I think it's been as good or better than we expected."

Presented in foal to champion Big Brown, hip 286 brought $320,000 from Dennis Yokum, agent for Mercedes Stable LLC. The granddaughter of GI Breeders' Cup Sprint heroine Very Subtle (Hoist the Silver) was a sharp five-length debut winner at Churchill Downs in her only other trip to post. Her weanling filly by the 2008

GI Kentucky Derby hero, hip 287, was next into the ring, realizing $135,000 from Yushun Company. The pair, owned in partnership with Subtle Aly's original owner Alan Pesch, was consigned by Four Star Sales, Agent II. "So far, from just a small sample, we have to be encouraged from what we've heard and seen of Big Brown's offspring," IEAH President Mike Iavarone said from the company's New York office. "I'd like to think the market has received him nicely, and we will stay hopeful it will continue. We are obviously proud of what he accomplished as a racehorse, and he looks to be on the right path as a stallion thus far." -SS

Keeneland Results Remain Solid...

Through two sessions of the Keeneland November sale, 326 horses sold for $70,345,000. The book one average of $215,782 fell 11.16 percent from a year ago, while the median was down 15.63 percent to $135,000. Year-to-year comparisons are complicated by the Overbrook consignment, which dominated the 2009 second session with 38 horses selling for nearly $21 million. For yesterday's second session, there were five horses to sell for over $1 million, while last year's second session saw four seven-figure sales. In this year's Book 1, there were eight total million-dollar sales, compared to five last year. "I think the market is very solid," Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell said after the close of business yesterday. "I think the sale topper today shows again that people are looking for live female families, beautiful individuals and covered very well, and they are willing to give premiums for them."

Through two sessions, the buy-back rate stood at 19.31 percent, a figure Russell termed "very healthy." He added, "I give credit to the consignors and their appraisal of the market and getting these horses moved. One of the things we talked about earlier in 2010 was that the most important thing was trade. It happened at the yearling sale in September and it's happening here again in November, which is a very positive thing for everybody."

Russell was also satisfied with the strength of the buying bench, particularly the international buyers. "As we expected, there is a strong international presence again today among the buyers," he said. "We've worked hard to build a strong, international bench of buyers for the industry and we're glad to see those efforts are paying off. It is encouraging, too, that the top bidder and underbidder on the sale topper are both North American-based breeders."

The Keeneland November sale resumes this morning at 10 a.m.

Hip	Name	Covering Sire	Price ($)
285	STORM TIDE	Tiznow	500,000

Purchased by R S Evans*

Austin and Brenda Paul were the names on the docket when this mare, in foal to Tiznow, brought $155,000 at KEENOV 2008. The colt that resulted from that mating brought just $40,000 as a KEESEP yearling, but the success of her 2007 foal, GSW American Lion (Tiznow), gave the page a serious boost. The connections reaped the rewards here.

Darrell Brown's Stonereath Farm acquired Miss Abita (Dixie Union), a $400K KEENOV weanling whose lone win was a maiden special weight at Ellis Park, for $185K at KEEJAN 2008. Her 2009 foal by Hard Spun, a colt, brought $300,000 as a FTKNOV weanling, but it was the exploits of the ill-fated GSW & GISP Eight Belles (Unbridled's Song), out of a 3/4-sister to Miss Abita, that put the page on the map, and connections enjoyed the benefits here.

Bradley Thoroughbred Brokerage signed the ticket on unraced Sometime (Ire) (Royal Academy), in foal to Fusaichi Pegasus, at KEENOV 2005, going to $300,000 to get the then eight-year-old. The resulting colt brought $300,000 as a KEESEP yearling, and her next foal, a colt by Gone West, was a $230K KEESEP sale. This filly put an exclamation point of the wisdom of that initial buy.

CONGRATS TO VINERY KENTUCKY Congrats

(A.P. Indy--Praise, by Mr. Prospector), the current leading freshman sire in North America, will stand at Vinery Kentucky in 2011 for a stud fee of $15,000, stands and nurses, majority owner John Sykes revealed yesterday. The 10-year-old stallion had previously been covering mares at Vinery's Summerfield, Florida, station. He has been represented by 20 winners from his first crop to date, headlined by GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner Wickedly Perfect. "We are excited to be adding Congratsongrats to our Kentucky roster," said Vinery President Tom Ludt. "He's at the head of his class by winners, repeat winners and earnings and, as Wickedly Perfect made apparent, he's certainly capable of siring quality."

DRAMATIC RISE FOR BREEDERS' CUP RATINGS

Ratings for Saturday's broadcast of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, shown during the final segment of ESPN's 3 1/2 hours of programming, jumped nearly 300 percent over the 2009 telecast of the race. The 6:15-7:15 p.m. time slot earned a rating of 3.1 points (each point equals approximately 1 million households), up from a 1.1 in 2009. The ratings for the first 2 1/2 hours of the broadcast also enjoyed a significant increase, garnering a 2.4, up from a 1 in 2009. ABC's program, aired 1:30-3:30 p.m., earned a rating of 1.7, also up from 1 a year ago. ESPN's telecast was delayed about 20 minutes by the college football game between Michigan and Illinois, which went into triple overtime. The rating for Friday's Breeders' Cup races, televised on ESPN from 4-8 p.m., was a 0.4, up from 0.3 last year.

CHRB APPROVES SANTA ANITA SURFACE

Officials at the California Horse Racing Board have given their official stamp of approval to a waiver that will allow for the installation of a conventional dirt surface at the Arcadia oval. The waiver was considered a formality going into the meeting. The project to replace the synthetic surface, plagued by drainage issues, began last month, with the goal of having the new installation completed by Dec. 5, some three weeks ahead of the track's winter-meet opening Dec. 26. CHRB members received an update from Scott Daruty, chief operating officer of MI Developments before rendering their decision.

STRONACH, PENN NATIONAL GAMING AT

ODDS One day after Frank Stronach denied that racing in the state of Maryland would be reduced to a 40-day meeting surrounding the Preakness S., officials at Penn National Gaming yesterday came out in support of the Maryland Jockey Club's plan for the curtailed schedule. Penn National entered into a joint venture earlier this year to own and operate Laurel and Pimlico with MI Developments in an effort to successfully lobby for the installation of slots at Laurel. That measure was defeated by a margin of 56-44 at the elections Nov. 2. "Without slot machines, unfortunately, the status quo can't work from a business perspective, which is what Mr. Stronach was talking about at least for the time being," Penn's vice president for public affairs Eric Schippers said in an interview with the Baltimore Sun. "We simply disagree with that approach. We're a public company with responsibilities to our shareholders. Continuing to endure the level of losses, post-election, without making any necessary cuts is difficult to justify." Schippers told the Sun that MID and Penn had agreed to the plan announced by the MJC last week. "That's why we were a bit surprised and take off guard by Mr. Stronach's comments," he said.

TRUSTEE TOM (c, 2, With Distinction--Don't Be Blue, by Henbane) was well-backed in each of his two previous appearances, but couldn't quite seal the deal, finishing second on debut Sept. 12 and completing the exacta in a similar spot Oct. 19. Sent off at 2-5 and adding blinkers for this third attempt, the dark bay forced the pace from three wide early on and took command entering the turn. He repulsed a mild bid at the quarter pole, opened up and was 6 1/2 lengths clear at the wire. Agenda for 2010 Symposium on Racing & Gaming:
Edited Press Release

The Race Track Industry Program (RTIP) released the final agenda for the 2010 Symposium on Racing & Gaming. The keynote address, "Why I'm Still Breeding Racehorses: Five Reasons to be Optimistic about Thoroughbred Racing's Long-Term Future," will be presented by Churchill Downs president and CEO Robert Evans. Evans, an active Thoroughbred owner and commercial breeder since 1980, founded Tenlane Farm in Versailles, KY. This year, he is the owner/breeder of Prior to joining Churchill Downs, Evans developed a diverse management experience as co-founder and managing director of the private equity firm Symphony Technology Group; president and chief operating officer of the enterprise software firm Aspect Development, Inc.; managing partner of the Americas Supply Chain Practice for Accenture Ltd.; vice president of customer support for Mazda Motor of America, Inc.; and co-founder and president of the outsourcing services subsidiary Caterpillar Logistics Services Inc. "I couldn't think of a better topic to start the Symposium off with," said Doug Reed, director of the RTIP. "We're delighted to have Mr. Evans here to kick off the program with reasons to be optimistic." Race Track Industry Program's annual Symposium on Racing & Gaming this year becomes the permanent home for a number of industry events, including the Harness Tracks of America's Annual Meeting, the NTRA Annual Meeting and the NTRA Marketing Summit. The Symposium will be held Dec. 6-9, 2010 in Tucson, Arizona. Find the complete details of the program at http://www.ua-rtip.org/symposium/2010/panels_2010.html. The Symposium attracts leaders from all aspects of the racing industry with its cutting-edge panel topics and round-table discussions. Attendees from all over the world get a first look at new products as well as the latest in student research. Additional meetings and events scheduled during the Symposium include: The Turf Publicists of America's Mark Kaufman Workshop and Big Sport of Turfdom Award luncheon; The International Tote Protocol Group- a group that works to create proactive solutions to issues regarding the protocol for merging international pools; The Jockeys' Guild Annual Assembly; the RCI Model Rules Committee; and ARCI Board of Directors and a roundtable discussion with ARCI and Jockeys' Guild members.

COUNTESS LEMONADE (f, 3, Storm Cat--Love Me True {GSP-Ire}, by Kingmambo), a last-out fifth in the Oct. 13 Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr at Maisons-Laffitte, broke well and led from the outset of this lesser spot. Stoked up off the home turn, the 7-10 favorite came under a forceful drive in the closing stages to repel the strong challenge of My Juju (Fr) (Blackdoun [Fr]) by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half to Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), Ch.
