new sire prospects. They include Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee). Adverts for this auction in recent times are not difficult to come by, with the stellar trio of Richard Hannon trainees Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}), Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and Dick Turpin (Ire) (Arakan) costing just €76,000 between them. Others to fly the flag include the dual Group 1 winners Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) and Bushranger (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) and the top-class distaffer Lahaleeb (Ire) (Redback {GB}). Relatives of some of 2010's high-class performers catalogued include a Nayef half-brother to the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Bethrah (Ire) (Marju {Ire})--whose close relative Reve d'Essor (Jpn) (Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}) captured last month's G2 Daily Hai Nisai S.--consigned by Jockey Hall Stud on behalf of Tullpark Ltd as hip 666; an Invincible Spirit (Ire) half-brother to the G2 Norfolk S. and G2 Gimcrack S. winner and Goffs November graduate Approve (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), offered as hip 501 from the draft of Abbeville & Meadow Court Studs; and the Castlebridge Consignment's hip 564, an Authorized (Ire) colt with an exciting connection as a half-brother to the much-vaunted G3 Killavullan S. scorer Dubai Prince (Ire) (Shamardal). That potentially top-flight runner also features in the pedigree of hip 197, a daughter of Clodovil (Ire) who highlights a relatively low-key opening session today, with the choice lots offered later in the week. Out of a half-sister to Sheikh Mohammed's unbeaten colt, she is also related to the sire Storming Home (GB), and is consigned by Rathasker Stud on behalf of Eithne Hamilton. cont. p2

MORE THAN READY MARE TOPS DAY 8

Black-type winner Get Ready Bertie (More Than Ready--De Bertie, by De Niro) elicited the day's highest price during yesterday's eighth session of the Keeneland November Sale in Lexington. The six-year-old mare, offered as hip 2789 by Taylor Made Sales Agency while in foal to Majestic Warrior (A.P. Indy), sold to Vin Cox Bloodstock for $170,000. Get Ready Bertie, a daughter of MGSW De Bertie, counts as a half-sister GSW Whirlie Bertie (Stormin Fever). She was an accomplished racehorse in her own right. At two, she was second in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct and third in the Anna M. Fisher Debutante S. at Ellis Park. In her three-year-old year, she won the Tiffany Lass S. at Fair Grounds and was third in the GIII Silverbulletday S. in New Orleans. She raced for her breeders, Richard, Bert and Elaine Klein. The top-priced weanling on the day was hip 2920, a gray filly from the third crop of Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}). Offered by Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Ramsey Farm, she was hammered down to Hill 'n' Dale Bloodstock for $60,000. KEENOV coverage cont. p2

Another who could be in demand at Goffs today is Boulic Stables' hip 238, a daughter of High Chaparral (Ire) whose triple group-winning half-brother Sehzrad (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}) was recently runner-up in the G2 Premio Ribot. The three days of the foals are followed by another two of breeding stock. "Goffs November Foal Sale is a great example of our 'focus is the horse' ethos, as we have targeted the best-bred foals in Ireland, and Irish breeders have worked with us to provide buyers with a more concise yet superior catalogue of top quality foals with some of Ireland's finest bloodlines on offer," commented Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby. "This sale is unmissable for pinhookers. An excellent source of success at all levels of the market, there is the added incentive of the Goffs/DBS Customer Loyalty Scheme, whereby no vendor commission is paid at a Goffs or DBS yearling sale if these foals return for sale in 2011." Runners on Tap...

Breed to the best and hope for the best? Sure, that works for some. Others, however, prefer simply to buy from the best and go from there. They'll get their chance during today's ninth session of Keeneland November, which includes a bevy of intriguing stallion and/or racing prospects. Previous sessions have offered horses in those categories, of course, but today features a large concentration of horses being sold by some of the most successful operations in the business. Sheikh Mohammed's Darley has 17 horses catalogued through Meg and Mike Levy's Bluewater Sales, while his brother Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell has 15 catalogued. The largest group is from WinStar Farm, which boasts a whopping 49 horses catalogued as racing prospects, broodmare or racing prospects, or stallion or racing prospects.

"There has been tremendous interest in these horses, and we had a tremendous amount of shows," said James Keogh, who is overseeing the WinStar consignment and who spent much of the afternoon directing traffic between Barns 12 and 14 yesterday. "We had people today from Canada, Western Canada, New Mexico, Louisiana--it seemed just about every racing jurisdiction in the Union was represented."

Highlights of the WinStar consignment include:

- Hip 3147, Funny Sunny, c, 2, Sharp Humor--Sunny Laugh, by Relaunch. Listed as unraced on the catalogue page, Funny Sunny made his debut at Hoosier Park Oct. 13 and drew clear to a 2 1/4-length score;
- Hip 3307, Crystal Moment, c, 3, Distorted Humor--Crystal Music, by Nureyev. "He's the sleeper of the bunch," said Keogh. "He was beaten just over a length by a horse name Eskenderaya last year at Saratoga, and was just second by a nose in a Churchill maiden special weight on the dirt [Nov. 7]. He's just sitting on a win. He also used to be the work horse for Drosselmeyer [winner of the GI Belmont S. in June]."

- Hip 3326, Glint, c, 2, Sharp Humor--Glimmer, by Deputy Minister. From his sire's first crop, he dominated by 9 1/4 lengths at Hooiser Sept. 1, then shipped to Presque Isle to win the Fitz Dixon Jr. Memorial Juvenile by three lengths Sept. 25;
- Hip 3340, Keep Me Informed, c, 3, A.P. Indy--Awesome Humor, by Distorted Humor. Homebred aired by 2 1/4 lengths in his second career outing at Saratoga Aug. 24. Since the catalogue, he ran third to the highly regarded Admiral Alex (Afleet Alex) in the Arts and Letters S. at Belmont Oct. 24.
- Hip 3359, Percussion, g, 2, Bluegrass Cat--Cradlesong, by Pine Bluff. In his first start on conventional dirt, he ran third to the highly regarded Dialed In (Mineshaft) in a Churchill MSW Nov. 12.

Keogh went on to say that the WinStar horses have helped their own cause in recent months. "Since the catalogue, there have been 12 individual winners and two stakes horses [from the consignment]," said Keogh. "Plus, horses we've sold here in the past have gone on and done very well--horses like Will He Shine and Spring at Last. I was talking to Dale Romans today, and he said that this was just the perfect place to buy a horse. You can literally buy one, enter him, put your silks on him and be standing in a winner's circle in 10 days."

For the first time, WinStar held its own breeze show for its horses in training at its Lexington farm Nov. 2, and Keogh said the response was positive.

"I think there were probably 25 or 30 people there," he said. "Plus we've posted videos from the show on our website (www.winstarfarm.com), and we've gotten over 2,000 individual hits."

Like WinStar, Shadwell is consigning its own horses. The operation's Kent Barnes, stallion manager of Shadwell's Lexington farm, was on hand yesterday to help oversee the consignment, and explained the draft filled two purposes: to reduce numbers, and to put horses into the right hands and into the spots where they'll be competitive.

"We obviously try to race at the top level--if you look at the sales prices on these things, you'll see horses that we bought for $400,000 or $500,000, and from the very best sire lines," he explained. "We race at Gulfstream in the winter and at Belmont and sometimes Arlington in the summer, and some of these horses aren't quite getting it done--they're running fourth or fifth. But we've sold a number of horses here who have dropped down a notch or two and done very well."

Among the standouts of the Shadwell draft:

- Hip 3267, Tawaared, c, 4, Unbridled's Song--Thara, by Hennessy. Colt blossomed once moved to the sod full time over the summer with Danny Peitz at Arlington. "He won three straight for us [in maiden special weight, then two allowance races]," said Barnes. "Then, since the catalogue, he ran third in a Grade III [Robert B. Carey Memorial at Hawthorne Oct. 2]."
- Hip 3348, Moojab, c, Smarty Jones--Rebridled Dreams, by Unbridled's Song. Beat subsequent "TDN Rising Star" ♂ Odysseus (Malibu Moon) by four lengths in his debut sprinting six panels at Aqueduct in October of 2009, and placed in optional claimers at Oaklawn Jan. 23 and at Arlington Park in July. "He got a big update recently--his brother is J. B.'s Thunder [Thunder Gulch], who won the GI Breeders' Futurity," Barnes said.

Eldafer (A.P. Indy) wasn't a horse sold by Shadwell--they lost him at the claim box--but is an example of a runner who once carried Sheikh Hamden's royal blue who went on to success. The five-year-old recently took the GIII Breeders' Cup Marathon. Barnes said they don't begrudge his new connections' success. "Not at all," he remarked. "We still own the mare and we're glad to see him do well. He was gelded, and that seemed to really make a big difference for him; that and they stretched him out, of course."

Darley's horses, depleted somewhat by scratches, included hip 3291, the five-year-old Barrier Reef (Mizzen Mast--Partyship, by Premiership), an inner-track specialist who has taken all three of his black-type wins at Aqueduct. He is currently residing with Bluewater's consignment in Barn 10.

Over at Lane's End, no less than an American Classic winner is available to the highest bidder. The 2008 GI Belmont S. upsetter Da' Tara (Tiznow--Torchera, by Pirate's Bounty), who has earned over $740,000 for owner Robert LaPenta and trainer Nick Zito, sells as a racing or stallion prospect as hip 3308. -LM

From $1,300 to $367K: A 'Wild' Ride for Forrester...

Marking another in a line of profitable transactions from the colt's dam, hip 2652, a colt from the first crop of MGSW Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow) sold to Indian Creek, agent, for $50,000 yesterday. Susan M. Forrester, agent, consigned the half-brother to SW and GSP R Loyal Man (More Than Ready). The dam, 13-year-old Wildwife (Wild Gale), is owned by Forrester and 4M Ranch. Including yesterday's sale, Forrester has now sold $367,000 worth of weanlings out of the mare.

Susan Forrester

"The mare throws nice foals," Forrester confirmed after watching the last of her Book 4 consignment sell yesterday. "Everything she's had has been extremely nice, and we've done extremely well with her foals. He was a nice colt, and he's going to grow up to be a nice yearling."

Wildwife's produce record is especially impressive given her purchase price: Forrester acquired her for only $1,300 right off the track shortly after the mare concluded her racing career at Charles Town in December of 2001.

"I bought her with the intention of putting her in the January Sale and selling her real quick," said Forrester. "At the time, I wanted $10,000 for her, and we RNA'd her for $9,500. It was probably the best RNA I ever had. If you breed her to something and bring them up here, they're always nice and pretty, and they always vet."

Wildwife, a half to SP Gran's Halo (Jolie's Halo) and produced by a half-sister to successful Florida sire Halo's Image, proved her worth as a broodmare right from the start. Her first foal was R Loyal Man, who Forrester sold for $45,000 as a weanling. He'd go on to sell for $80,000 as an FTKJUL yearling and for $125,000 as an OBSFEB juvenile. At the track, he finished second by a half-length in the Gill Bashford Manor S. in his second start, won the Inaugural S. and Pasco S. at Tampa in back-to-back starts, and finished third behind Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) in the Sam F. Davis S. in 2006.

Wildwife's second foal, the winning Never Think Twice (Yonaguska), did not sell, but her third foal, Knox County (Posse), brought $110,000 as a KEENOV weanling in 2005, and her fourth, Wild Wild Posse (Posse), made $150,000 as a KEENOV weanling. Last year, her weanling colt by GISW Latent Heat (Maria's Mon) brought $62,000.

"We had the third-highest-priced Posse weanling the first year, then had the highest-priced Posse the next," said Forrester. "Last year, we were the third-highest-priced Latent Heat. The past few years have been tough, but Wildwife's always pulled me through."

With the exception of More Than Ready, who was standing his second season; and the return trip to Posse, Forrester has selected only sires covering their first books of mares for Wildwife. "We've always done well with freshman sires with her," Forrester explained. "We did go to more More Than Ready that first year--it seemed like a good nick, and we got a good deal on him at the time. It's a little spotty right now with the freshman, but Tiz Wonderful's a big, pretty horse, and Tiznow's having a good year."

Weanlings by Tiz Wonderful have been popular this November, selling for up to $200,000 and averaging (before yesterday's session) a very respectful $57,083 (six of seven sold). Tiz Wonderful stands at Spendthrift for a 2011 fee of $12,500.

Forrester said her colt didn't necessarily remind her of the other Tiz Wonderfals she has seen. "He was pretty much just a plain brown wrapper," she said. "I mean, he's very pretty like the other Tiz Wonderfals are, but he basically had 10 white hairs on his forehead, and that's it. The rest of them I've seen have a lot of color on them. And Wildwife typically throws a lot of color. She's a plain brown wrapper herself, but if you breed her to a stallion with color, she'll get color, too. I was surprised when he came out. But he made up for it by being so handsome."

Forrester is originally from Atlanta, Georgia. She came up to Kentucky to work with Saddlebreds, not Thoroughbreds, but wound up making the switch.

"The money was a little bit better with the Thoroughbreds, and I started to get weaned off the Saddlebreds," she explained. "I started out at the bottom grooming and worked my way up. In 1989, I went out on my own. I was leasing more and more land, and it got to the point where I just bought a farm. The Thoroughbred business is great, but, boy, you work 24-7."

Forrester now owns Glenridge, which sits on 85 acres just outside of Midway. She owns a few mares alone or in partnership, and also boards for 'select' outside clients. As a consignor, she registered one of her biggest successes in 2007 when she sold the subsequent MGISW Take the Points (Even the Score) to Barry Berkelhammer for $150,000.

But while she does consign yearlings, she generally prefers offering her own stock as weanlings.

"I just like it--and I usually need the money," she laughed. "And it's usually been pretty good money. And it's easier for me--I think I do weanlings pretty good. Plus, if the weanlings don't sell, then you have the option to go to the yearling sales. If the yearlings don't sell, then you have to either race them or go to the two-year-old sales, and other people are a lot better at that than me."

Forrester brought a total of eight horses to November, including several weanlings to keep an eye out for later in the week, she said. She made note of hip 4188, a filly by Horse Greeley (Mr. Greeley); hip 4376, a colt by Ready's Image (More Than Ready); and hip 4399, another filly by Horse Greeley.

"I can honestly say they're all really nice horses, and I know they're selling toward the end, but the end was good to me last year," said Forrester. "Hopefully, there will be someone there, and they'll be plucking all the good ones."

Asked about keys to success selling weanlings, Forrester said, "Well, you can't come up here with a skunk. If you want to make it, you have to bring the best of the best. Hopefully, we've got some good ones." -LM

Duke of Mischief Still Possible for Clark...

JoAnn and Alex Leiblong, et. al.'s Duke of Mischief (Graeme Hall) loomed large at odds-on in Saturday's Carl G. Rose Classic H. at Calder, but could do no better than second, beaten 4 1/2 lengths by Birdrun (Birdstone). Despite the mild disappointment, however, conditioner David Fawkes has not yet decided to waver from his plans for the GII Oaklawn H. hero. "He came back fine," said the trainer. "I don't know whether it was the track that afternoon or what, but he just didn't go on. Otherwise, he's fine, and going to Churchill for the [Nov. 26 GI] Clark H. is still a possibility. We haven't ruled it out." Fawkes also said that the four-year-old will remain in training next year, explaining that while his connections view him as a stallion prospect, "in today's market, you would like to have more credentials." Fawkes's biggest barn star, Harold Queen's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Big Drama (Montbrook), will also run in 2011. The $2.6M earner could begin his five-year-old season in the Sunshine Millions Sprint at Gulfstream Jan. 29, with the $2M G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Meydan Mar. 26 an early season target.

NEWS TODAY

BC TV RATINGS UP SIGNIFICANTLY FROM LAST YEAR Edited Press Release According to Nielsen, coverage of this year's Breeders' Cup on ESPN, ESPN2 and ABC saw large audience increases. Over 24.3 million people tuned in to telecasts on the three networks over the two days (Nov. 5-6), with the nine hours of live coverage averaging a 1.1 U.S. rating, up 83 percent from last year. The average of 1,247,000 households represented an increase of 74 percent. The Nov. 5 coverage on ESPN2 earned a 0.4 rating, up a third from 2009's 0.3, and reached 416,000 households, up from 283,000 last season. ABC's broadcast Saturday Nov. 6 rose from 0.9 last year to 1.3 this year (also up 33 percent), and ESPN's coverage received a 2.2 rating, representing a significant spike (144 percent) from last year. Coverage of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic on ESPN (6:30-7:15 p.m. ET) made the largest leap on the back of Zenyatta's quest for perfection, posting a 2.9 rating, up 163 percent from coverage of the supermare's 2009 victory at Santa Anita. The stirring renewal reached an average 2,940,000 households, almost three times the 1,084,000 homes reached last year, good for a 171-percent uptick.

When Ouija Board left Ed Dunlop's stables at the end of 2006, the genial Englishman must have thought he would never see one like her again, even though he was then still only in his late thirties. After all, how often do fillies of Ouija Board's accomplishments come along?

The daughter of Cape Cross had won the Oaks in England and Ireland, plus two editions of the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. Her efforts against the males included victories in the Prince of Wales's S. and Hong Kong Vase, as well as a narrow defeat to Dylan Thomas in the Irish Champion S., and thirds in the Arc and Japan Cup.

When Dunlop received a young Intikhab filly from Cristina Patino, who had bred her and races her under the banner of Anamoine Ltd, I doubt whether it even crossed his mind that the filly could possibly develop into another Ouija Board. When the youngster had been offered as a yearling at Tattersalls Ireland's December Flat Sale, the bidding had stopped at 1,800 euros, well short of the 8,000 euros it had cost to breed to Intikhab in 2006. It transpired that the filly had been bought back.

The filly, of course, was Snow Fairy, who has established herself as Britain's leading middle-distance filly by emulating Ouija Board's Oaks double and by travelling to Asia to win a very hot Group 1.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Snow Fairy's outstanding ability may have been unexpected, but it certainly isn't inexplicable. Take a look at the International Classifications of 1998, and you'll find that her sire Intikhab was the highest-rated European horse of any age, with his rating of 130 placing him one pound below Skip Away and level with Awesome Again. Timeform was even more impressed with him, rating him Horse of the Year with a figure of 135, one pound above Skip Away.

This accolade reflected his dazzling eight-length victory in the Queen Anne S. Intikhab appeared to have the 1998 miling division at his mercy, but a troublesome splint kept him off the track for 11 months, and he fractured his pelvis on his return.

Although Intikhab's fee for 2011 is no higher than €5,500, he has also shown the occasional flash of brilliance as a sire. Snow Fairy is his third Group 1 winner, one of her predecessors being Red Evie, who was also up to beating the males at the top level, as she showed in the 2007 Lockinge S.

An interesting aspect of Intikhab's career is that he owes much of his success to his daughters. They account for all three of his Group 1 winners, for five of his seven group winners and for 10 of his 16 stakes winners, with none of his sons having won anything above G3 level. His sire Red Ransom also had plenty of high-class daughters, two of the latest examples being the E.P. Taylor S. winner Reggane and the Australian phenomenon Typhoon Tracy.

The clue as to why Snow Fairy's dam, the seven-furlong winner Woodland Dream, was sent to Intikhab lies with Red Ransom and his sire Roberto.

Her female line goes back to that good mare Annie Oakley, who produced Snow Fairy's sixth dam, the Coronation S. winner Aiming High, and the Ribblesdale S. winner Tender Annie. One of Tender Annie's daughters visited Roberto's son Robellino to produce the 1994 2000 Guineas winner Mister Baileys.

Snow Fairy's third dam Persian Fantasy, a 1 1/2-mile winner who was listed-placed over two miles, visited Red Ransom's son Sri Pekan with success. Their son Persian Lightning was a smart and durable performer at around a mile and a quarter. Incidentally, Sri Pekan's record was similar to Intikhab's in that he, too, had more fillies than colts among his stakes winners.

Woodland Dream's dam Fantasy Girl visited Roberto's son Bob Back with success. Their son Big Bad Bob developed into a very useful juvenile in 2002, winning the last four of his six starts, and he also thrived at three, when he won a Listed race in France and a Group 3 in Germany over a mile and a quarter. Although Big Bad Bob seemed to have the odds stacked against him at the start of his stallion career (his sire Bob Back was best known as a sire of jumpers), he has made an eye-catching start, mainly with progeny carrying the colours of Anamoine Ltd. He had done so well that he has now joined the stallion team at the Irish National Stud.

Snow Fairy's achievements must be all the more satisfying for her owner, who also races under the name of Windflower Overseas Holdings, because she has owned several generations of the family. Snow Fairy's fourth dam, Gay Fantasy, first made her mark through her much-travelled son Lucky Guest, who won stakes races in Germany and Turkey for Ed Dunlop's father John. Gay Fantasy's Sadler's Wells filly Cara Fantasy has also been doing sterling work, producing the Group 3 winner Palavicini to Giant's Causeway and the 2010 2000 Guineas fifth Elusive Pimpernel to Elusive Quality.

As a daughter of the Derby winner Troy, Gay Fantasy was a sister to Sheer Audacity, an outstanding broodmare who numbered the 1999 Derby winner Oath and the Prix Ganay winner Pelder among her stakes winners. Gay Fantasy was also a half-sister to the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Miss Petard, who numbers the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp winners Avonbridge and Patavellian among her descendants.

I'm sure you'll agree, this is hardly the pedigree of a horse worth less than €2,000 as a yearling.

MURTAGH TO RIDE FOR THE AGA KHAN NEXT YEAR

Jockey Johnny Murtagh, who resigned from his post as number one retained rider for Coolmore last week, will ride all Irish-trained horses for His Highness The Aga Khan, it was announced yesterday. Having ridden 18 Group 1 winners for the Aga Khan in a non-contracted 12-year partnership when stable jockey for John Oxx from 1992 to 2003, including dual Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe successes aboard Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge) in 2000, Murtagh will renew that association, as well as forging a new one with trainer Michael Halford. "I am delighted to have secured a world-class jockey like Johnny Murtagh as my retained rider in Ireland," said His Highness the Aga Khan. "I believe it is vital to the continued success of my bloodstock operation to have a retained jockey in the countries where my horses are trained." Murtagh added, "I am thrilled to be renewing my association with His Highness' horses. We have shared some fantastic moments, and I have always enjoyed riding in the green and red colors." Christophe Lemaire will continue as retained rider for the Aga Khan's French-trained horses, having recently signed a two-year contract.

Heard About The Daily Deal? Ready for more details?

Here's how it works...

Based on the popular Groupon model (www.groupon.com), the TDN will email its audience of 7,800 daily subscribers one coupon from a farm each day, allowing them to:

- Get a discount to farms on stallion fees; i.e., $60,000 in fees for $40,000.
- Breed to a particular stallion at a significant discount.
- Breed to two 'linked' at a discount; i.e., one very popular and one who might need a boost.

Users have that day and that day only to accept the offer and must pay that day.

Seasons will be live-foal guaranteed, but payable on the day of purchase, not when the foal stands and nurses. This allows the farm to generate valuable working capital through the leveraging of their assets, and the buyer to get a great deal.

In effect, the buyer is simply getting a significant discount for up-front payment. The stallion's fee is not reduced for anyone paying on the normal s/n terms. Each deal is good that day only.

Each day's featured farm has the discretion to choose what the discount is, and each offer may be tailored to suit the farm's needs. The farm may limit the number of seasons available, or specify that a certain number of seasons have to be sold in order to make the deal 'go.'

For questions, or to sign up to offer a deal for your farm, call Sue Finley at 732-747-8060 (suefinley@thoroughbreddailynews.com) or Gary King at (732) 320-7964 (garyking@thoroughbreddailynews.com)

MIXED FORTUNES AT AUTUMN

Arqana's Autumn Sale, which has always had a marked national hunt bias, proved a mixed bag yesterday, with a clearance rate of only 62 percent and a drop in the median contrasting with a slight increase in average. While the future of the majority of the top lots lies over fences, hip 81, His Highness The Aga Khan's Birzali (Fr) (Kalanisi {Ire}), is a colt who still has potential on the flat. Out of GSW Bernimixa (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), the Alain de Royer-Dupre-trained three-year-old won a conditions race at Saint-Cloud and finished third in the Listed Grand Prix du Nord since the publication of the catalogue. He was purchased by Margaret O'Toole for €100,000. Another Aga Khan-consigned sophomore colt to make an impact was hip 92, the fellow de Royer-Dupre trainee Shalanger (Ire) (Red Ransom). A winning half to last year's G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine and recent GI E.P. Taylor S. third Shalanaya (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}), he was knocked down to the California-based bloodstock agent Hubert Guy for €47,000. Eoghan O'Neil's hip 1, the juvenile Angel of Harlem (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), ended up being sold privately to Guy Petit for €50,000. The filly was recently third in the G3 Prix Miesque. Full results can be viewed on www.arqana.com.
