LOVE RULES THE DAY AT TATTERSALLS

Local agent Hugo Lascelles, bidding on behalf of an undisclosed American buyer, headed trading at a lively first breeding session of the Tattersalls December Sale in Newmarket yesterday afternoon. Lascelles went to 950,000gns for

Soinlovewithyou tattersalls

Soinlovewithyou (Sadler's Wells--Love Me True, by Kingmambo), a five-year-old in foal to champion Sea The Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Bidders on the Highclere Stud offering, who was owned by William de Burgh and John Sikura, included Ibrhaim Araci of Turkey, Charlie Gordon-Watson, Ted Voute and Irish breeder Seamus Burns. The underbidder was Australian agent Tim Stakemire.

"I'm acting for an American owner-breeder based in Kentucky and there's every chance the Sea The Stars foal will return to Europe to sell," Lascelles commented. "She was a lovely Sadler's Wells mare and she could go to Smart Strike or one of the top American stallions."

Soinlovewithyou is a half-sister to champion Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) from the extended family of Summer Squall and A.P. Indy. Cont. p2

Asking someone to name the son of Gone West with the most Group 1/Grade I winners to his credit is something of a trick question. The answer is that the clear leader, with a total of 15, is Western Winter, a three-time champion sire in South Africa. But if we restrict ourselves to the Northern Hemisphere, the answer is that 18-year-old Mr. Greeley leads the way with a total of seven winners at the highest level, two more than the 17-year-old Elusive Quality.

There are challengers on the horizon, though. Zamindar, an English-based 16-year-old, is on a score of four, with the prospect of more to come from his sizeable 2009 and 2010 crops.

But the son most likely to build an impressive total is surely Speightstown.

Highclere On Top Again

The name Highclere has become a byword for excellence in recent years, certainly as far as the Tattersalls sales go, with the Highclere Stud draft having topped the October Yearling Sale for the last four years. At the end of the first day of the mares' sale at Park Paddocks yesterday, the Berkshire-based stud was once again on top, with eight of its 11-strong draft selling for a total of 1,339,000gns. That healthy aggregate was boosted largely by the sale of the top lot of the day, Soinlovewithyou, who, as a winning daughter of Sadler's Wells in foal to the six-time Group 1 winner Sea The Stars (Ire), has just about everything one could wish for in a potential broodmare.

"It's been a very exciting day and a lovely way to end the season," said a delighted Lady Carolyn Warren, who runs Highclere Stud with her husband John. "It feels like the end of term and it's great."

Soinlovewithyou was consigned on behalf of the Warrens' long-time friend William de Burgh--the brother of bloodstock agent Hubie de Burgh--and John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Farms in Kentucky.

"We're delighted that she sold so well for them," Lady Carolyn continued. "She's a beautiful mare and she had the page and the covering. I think what's really encouraging for the business is that there were five or six people in there trying to buy her--so many bidders. The market is still incredibly selective, as we've seen throughout the year, but the quality goods sell exceptionally well and the market is very predictable. This mare had been incredibly popular, and she'd handled it all so well. She has a lovely Distorted Humor foal that I'm very much hoping might come to us a yearling, but we'll have to see."

Americans and Japanese Busy in Newmarket

There was no shortage of Americans in buying action yesterday. Leading the way was Reiley McDonald, who paid 280,000gns for Bob McCreery's homebred Group 3-winning three-year-old filly Middle Club (GB) (Fantastic Light--Anna Oleanda {Ire}, by Old Vic), sold from Richard Hannon's stable. "She was a very well-balanced filly and, to my eye, she was as clean as a whistle and vetted that way as well," McDonald said. "I liked her form, and was looking for something to race on the grass in California for a client and then be bred from one day."

Reiley McDonald

Also heading to the West Coast is Group 1-placed juvenile Singapore Lilly (Ire) (Mujadil--Swallow Falls {Ire}, by Lake Coniston {Ire}) (lot 1479), who was knocked down to trainer Jim Cassidy for 210,000gns.

Japanese buyers were noticeably strong, and brothers Katsumi and Teyuya Yoshida each made significant purchases. Katsumi Yoshida, bidding through veterinarian Fumihiko Nakajima, spent 375,000gns on Belle Allure (Ire) (Numerous--Mare Aux Fees {GB}, by Kenmare {Fr}), winner of the GIII Athenia S. at Belmont, and offered from Cian and Sue Ann Foley's Islanmore Stud. The five-year-old mare, in foal to Giant's Causeway, is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Jukebox Jury (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Patrick Cooper of BBA Ireland was underbidder on the mare, for whom Teruya Yoshida's Shadai Farm and New Zealand agent Guy Mulcaster also competed. "She will foal in Japan and we have plenty of choices about which stallion to use [next year]," Nakajima said. "She had a lovely pedigree."

Mulcaster was underbidder at 300,000gns to Teruya Yoshida's team for Limelight (Dalakhani {Ire}--Last Second {Ire}, by Alzao), a half-sister to Group 1 winner Aussie Rules (Danehill), sold from Prince Faisal Salman's Denford Stud in Oxfordshire. Faite Isteach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Affianced {Ire}, by Erins Isle), a full-sister to G1 Irish Derby winner Soldier Of Fortune (Ire) sold from the Bolger family's Redmondstown Stud, and was knocked down to Eamonn Reilly of BBA Ireland with a 340,000gns price tag. "She's been bought for a new client in the United Kingdom and is the first filly out of the mare. She has a great back page and is from a family that Jim Bolger has had great success with," said Reilly. The mare was offered with an Intense Focus covering.

Friends for Lope De Vega

The retirement of Lope De Vega (Ire) (Shamardal) to Ireland's Ballylinch Stud was only announced on Sunday, but one of the syndicate members has wasted no time in snapping up mares to send to the dual French Classic winner. U.S.-based Tom Ryan of SF Bloodstock, which owns shares in Lope De Vega, along with the horse's breeder Dietrich von Boetticher of

Tom Ryan

Gestut Ammerland, Ballylinch Stud and Patinack Farm in Australia, signed for three mares who are intended to form part of his first book, including Buffalo Berry (Ire) (Sri Pekan--Palm Dove, by Storm Bird) (lot 1432), bought in foal to Sea The Stars (Ire) for 150,000gns. Also on the list was GII Providencia S. winner Missit (Ire) (Orpen--High Spot {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}) (lot 1439), from the Three Chimneys consignment; and Eliza Acton (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}--Sing Softly, by Luthier) (lot 1406), sold in foal to Lope De Vega's sire Shamardal, from the dispersal of Peter Harris's Pendley Farm Stud.

"We're really looking forward to Lope De Vega's first season," said Ryan, enjoying a cup of tea with Ballylinch manager John O'Connor after he had completed his shopping for the day. "The horse is a machine and Shamardal has been so successful. Lope De Vega looks a good bet at €15,000."

Having initially been announced as staying in training next year, Lope De Vega was a surprise late addition to the stallion ranks for 2011, but O'Connor reports that throughout the first day of the December mares' sale at Tattersalls, he already had plenty of interest in the horse from breeders.

"Dietrich [von Boetticher] had thought about keeping him in training, and I know Andre Fabre was keen for him to do so, but Dietrich was very happy with the syndicate that has been put together for him to go to stud," O'Connor said.

John O'Connor
ballylinchstud.com

Lope De Vega will stand the Southern Hemisphere season in Australia at Nathan Tinkler's Patinack Farm, which has enjoyed success with the offspring of Shamardal via the Group 2 winner No Evidence Needed (Aus) and Listed winner Marquardt (Aus).

O'Connor continued, "Patinack have bought into him, and they have a big and very high-class broodmare band, so he will have plenty of support in Australia, where Shamardal has been very successful, too."

The addition of a new stallion is not the only excitement for Ballylinch Stud. Of their current residents, the first yearlings of another French Classic winner, Lawman (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), have been well-received this autumn, while Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway), who retired to the stud this year, has had four members of what will be his first crop pass through the ring in utero. All from Jim Bolger's Redmonstown Stud, the sold for an average of 172,500gns. Top price of the quartet at 340,000gns was the Galileo (Ire) mare Faite Isteach (Ire), who was bought by BBA Ireland, while Australian agent John Foote, acting on behalf of a client in Sydney, spent 100,000gns on another daughter of Galileo (Ire), Sky Mystic (Ire), who will head down under once her Intense Focus foal is born.

Foote Stands Up

"I've been coming to this sale for 30 years," John Foote, who is acting for Australian and Hong Kong-based purchasers, said after signing the ticket on Sky Mystic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Raghida {Ire}, by Nordico) (lot 1429) for 100,000gns. "It's a very selective market. There are some mares selling really well and the ones they don't want they don't want, but the nicer ones are hard to buy. A lot of Australians went to the Keeneland sales this year and I've been going over for a few years; some Australian breeders prefer the grass horses, some like the dirt horses."

John Foote
johnfootebloodstock.com

Foote, who is based in Brisbane, admitted he was on the lookout for mares from stout families.

"We've had a lot of success with staying-bred mares and there's a bit of a move afoot in Australia," he said. "We've been breeding sprinters for years, but a lot of the good races are staying races, and more people are trying to buy that type of yearling."

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER TUESDAY

1650, Diary (Ire), m, 11, Green Desert--Darrery (GB), by Darshaan (GB)

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

Having already produced last year's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye hero Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}) and G1 Ascot Fillies' Mile victress Lady Darshaan (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), this representative from Bill Dwan's draft was also responsible for last Saturday's foal session topper (by Tamayuz {GB}), who realised 200,000gns. She sells in foal to Galileo (Ire).

1691, First (GB), m, 12, Highest Honor (Fr)--Pushy (GB), by Sharpen Up (GB)

Consigned by Bloomsbury Stud

This granddaughter of Bloomsbury Stud's foundation mare Mrs Moss (GB) (Reform {GB}) forms part of the Duchess of Bedford's dispersal, and sells with a Cape Cross (Ire) covering. The dam of listed winners Law Lord (GB) (Diktat {GB}) and Perfect Stride (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), she earned stars last week as the producer of the overall foal sale topper, a 320,000gns Singspiel (Ire) colt.

1715, Elusive Wave (Ire), f, 4, Elusive City--Multicolour Wave (Ire), by Rainbow Quest

Consigned by European Sales Management

Herself a €660,000 graduate of Arqana's Arc Sale two years ago, this four-year-old filly is set to attract the keenest of interest of all the horses in training on offer. A three-time Group 3 winner, she registered her best day on the track when successful in last term's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches for owner Martin Schwartz, and also hit the board in three other Group 1 contests.

1753, Lady Darshaan (Ire), f, 3, High Chaparral (Ire)--Diary (Ire), by Green Desert

Consigned by Berkeley House Stables

This is another filly in training likely to attract a share of admirers. She is a half-sister to last season's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye victor Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}), and enjoyed a commendable juvenile campaign herself last term, hitting the board in both the G1 Ascot Fillies' Mile and the G2 Cherry Hinton S.. Her half-brother (by Tamayuz {GB}) topped the sheets--at 200,000gns--on Saturday's closing session of the foal sale at this venue, and her dam Diary sells earlier in this session.

Thanks to Jersey Town's narrow victory over his paternal half-brother Haynesfield in the Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H., Speightstown now also has a total of four. The WinStar resident is 12 years old, but the fact that he raced until he was six means that he currently has only three crops on the track, compared to Mr. Greeley's 12 and Elusive Quality's nine.

Of course, he wasn't the only son of Gone West in the spotlight three days ago, as Canadian Frontier also hit the Grade I target when No Such Word confirmed her toughness and her talent by winning the Gazelle S. Canadian Frontier's services have been priced at only $3,500 for 2011, which surely makes him attractive. His three-year-old daughters from his comparatively small second crop also include Hilda's Passion, winner of the GII Raven Run S. a month ago. Canadian Frontier stands at Airdrie, alongside another of Gone West's sons, Proud Citizen. This sire of the champion filly Proud Spell made a bright start in 2007, so his 2009 foal crop should be worth watching next year.

Speightstown's four Grade I/Group 1 winners--Lord Shanakill, Mona de Momma, Haynesfield and Jersey Town--are all members of his first crop, which also features the newly retired Munnings (three times a winner at the Grade II level) and the Grade III winners Gemswick Park and Despite The Odds. That's seven graded winners from a crop of 99 named foals, and that's not all. This crop also contains the graded-placed performers Reynaldothewizard, Mullins Beach and Cinderella's Wish, plus the stakes winners Mother Ruth, Country Day, Congor Bay, Fufty Too and French Dip. This adds up to a very eye-catching start by 2004's champion sprinter, and fulfils the promise of his bloodlines, which helped him make $2,000,000 as a yearling.

At present, it looks as though Speightstown's second crop is going to fall short of this very high standard, as it has so far produced only one graded winner, the Grade III-scorer Bridgetown. It is worth mentioning, though, that, in an injury-hit career, Speightstown didn't become a stakes winner until he was six, and three of his four Grade I winners didn't achieve that status until they were four.

I think many young American stallions can be forgiven if they experience diminishing returns with their first four crops, as their book size and fee often fall as breeders await proof of their ability. Although Speightstown's fee held steady at $40,000 in his first four years, the broodmare sires of this year's yearlings from his fourth crop include quite a few that couldn't be described as fashionable.

It is only now that his fee has been raised, to $50,000 in 2011, after two years at $35,000.

I pointed out last week the number of good winners with inbreeding to Mr. Prospector, but this hasn't been a widespread feature among Speightstown's stakes performers, though Congor Bay is inbred 3x3, while Mullins Beach and the 2010 two-year-old Roayh are inbred 3x4. Expect to see more examples, as Mr. Greeley and Elusive Quality have Grade I winners inbred 3x4 and Grand Slam, Western Winter and Elusive Quality all have Grade II winners inbred 3x3.

Two of Speightstown's Grade I winners are out of non-winning mares, Lord Shanakill being out of an unraced daughter of Theatrical, and Mona de Momma from a Linkage mare that was unplaced. Haynesfield, though, is out of a graded-stakes mare, and there can be no complaints about the bottom half of Jersey Town's pedigree. His dam is that fine performer Jersey Girl, who helped earn her sire

Jersey Girl went on to become a triple Grade I winner, taking the Acorn, Mother Goose and Test S., and she comes from a family that has also enjoyed Grade I success with Purge, winner of the Cigar Mile H. five years before Jersey Town. Purge is out of a half-sister to Jersey Town's second dam.

The quality of the family is underlined by the fact that Jersey Town's fourth dam, Nowmepache, was a half-sister to Foolish Pleasure, the champion two-year-old of 1974 and winner of the Kentucky Derby before finishing second in the remaining legs of the Triple Crown. Nowmepache's daughters Bid Gal and Mepache both enjoyed success with Valid Appeal, with Bid Gal producing the Grade II winner Valid Wager in addition to Jersey Town's second dam Miss Bold Appeal, and Mepache numbering Valid Expectations among her four stakes winners.

OUR 2010 "IN UTERO" DERBY-DOUBLE

Eishin Flash (King's Best), sold in utero of his dam Moonlady at Tattersalls Dec. in 2006 by Loughbrown Stud for 315 000 GNS to Shadai Farm, wins the Group 1 Japanese Derby.

Ocean and Beyond wins the 2010 Pune Derby in India. His dam Sayuri was also sold in 2006 by Loughbrown Stud, this time at Goffs for 78 000 € to Brian Grassick, carrying this son of Kingsalsa.

Dear Breeder,

Selling two International Derby winners in one year marks a wonderful milestone for a programme that I have been successfully pursuing for the last decade: buying and selling quality broodmares and broodmare-prospects.

With time, the list of their stakes winning offspring is getting longer. Apart from EISHIN FLASH and OCEAN AND BEYOND, the following Stakes Winners emerged after I sold their dams – more often than not for very reasonable prices:

TAWQEET (3rd in Group 1 UK St Leger, 2x Group 1 winner in Australia), KIP DEVILLE (4x Group 1 winner in USA, Netjets Breeder's Cup Mile), SRI PUTRA (Group 2 winner of 3 stakes races in FR and UK), CORSICA (Group 3 winner UK), VIA MEDICI (Group 3 winner in FR), L'ÎLE D'AVAIL (SW in JAP, 3rd Group 1 NHK Mile Cup, TOKYO), ART MARTIAL (SW in FR), GREY SOLDIER (SW in FR), RISING SHADOW (SW in UK), FESTIVALE (SW, Group 3 placed in UK), NANS JOY (SW in GER), POMPEYANO (SW in FR) and ALSACE LORRAINE (SW in UK).

Business being now conducted through the Haras de Saint Pair, we have plenty of interesting horses on offer at the upcoming Arqana December sales - broodmares, fillies out of training, foals and even one yearling filly, some of them on behalf of our valued clients.

Please, come and have a look. Maybe you can find your next producer of stakes winners with us...

Sincerely, Andreas Putsch

NYCOTB TOPS SPECIAL SESSION AGENDA The New York State legislature held a special session Monday at the request of New York Gov. David Paterson, in part to address the fate of bankrupt New York City OTB. In a proclamation released last week, Paterson announced that, "Enacting a plan to provide for adequate savings and implementation of other measures to allow for the continued operation of the New York City Off-Track Betting Corporation," was first on the agenda.

Gov. Paterson NY.gov

The NYCOTB legislation proposed several controversial measures, including a reduction in the percentage of revenue NYCOTB would be required to pay the state's tracks. It also would grant NYCOTB the ability to transfer the corporation's account wagering services to its creditors (including NYRA, Churchill Downs, Finger Lakes Gaming and Racing, Yonkers Raceway and Monticello Raceway). The reorganization plan would eliminate 400 jobs. Paterson, who will leave office Dec. 31, has warned that if legislation is not passed, NYCOTB will be forced to shut down. In a letter from New York State Racing and Wagering Board Director of Audits and Investigations Thomas Casaregola to NYCOTB President Gregory Rayburn, released by the Governor's office Sunday, Casaregola explained that the board's review of recent NYCOTB financial reports indicated that NYCOTB will run out of money to operate sometime in December. The letter continued, "Given the current desperate position of NYCOTB, it is imperative that NYCOTB notify the board how it plans to meet its statutory obligations and the date it will cease operations prior to running out of available funds." The special session was scheduled to begin at 3 p.m., and it was unclear whether there would be a vote on the NYCOTB bill. "We just don't know at this point," Scott Reif, a spokesperson for the Senate Republicans, told Daily Racing Form Monday. "We haven't seen any specific bills yet. A lot of different things have been talked about, but nothing concrete."

The NYCOTB legislation proposed several controversial measures, including a reduction in the percentage of revenue NYCOTB would be required to pay the state's tracks. It also would grant NYCOTB the ability to transfer the corporation's account wagering services to its creditors (including NYRA, Churchill Downs, Finger Lakes Gaming and Racing, Yonkers Raceway and Monticello Raceway). The reorganization plan would eliminate 400 jobs. Paterson, who will leave office Dec. 31, has warned that if legislation is not passed, NYCOTB will be forced to shut down. In a letter from New York State Racing and Wagering Board Director of Audits and Investigations Thomas Casaregola to NYCOTB President Gregory Rayburn, released by the Governor's office Sunday, Casaregola explained that the board's review of recent NYCOTB financial reports indicated that NYCOTB will run out of money to operate sometime in December. The letter continued, "Given the current desperate position of NYCOTB, it is imperative that NYCOTB notify the board how it plans to meet its statutory obligations and the date it will cease operations prior to running out of available funds." The special session was scheduled to begin at 3 p.m., and it was unclear whether there would be a vote on the NYCOTB bill. "We just don't know at this point," Scott Reif, a spokesperson for the Senate Republicans, told Daily Racing Form Monday. "We haven't seen any specific bills yet. A lot of different things have been talked about, but nothing concrete."

HOT SUMMER (f, 2, Malibu Moon--Summer Delight {SP}, by Quiet American), third in her career opener at Monmouth Park Sept. 25, came back to break her maiden at that track Oct. 17. Let go at 5-1 in her first allowance try, the dark bay hesitated briefly at the start and was at the back of the pack early. She edged closer as they raced down the backstretch, picking off rivals one by one from the outside, and went after the leader on the far turn. Hot Summer hit the front just after they'd straightened for home, opened up after a couple of left-handed reminders and was in hand late as she rolled under the wire seven lengths clear. The winner is a 1/2 to Southwest (Cozzene), MSP, $217,946. Sales history: $180,000 yrl '09 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $60,700. Eurosilver to Penn Ridge:

(Edited press release) Eurosilver (Unbridled's Song--Russian Tango, by Nijinsky II), sire of Sunday's GIII Miesque S. winner Neversaidiwassweet, has moved from Dromoland Farm in Kentucky to Pennsylvania's Penn Ridge Farms LLC for the 2011 breeding season.

General Manager Tom Reigle commented, "We couldn't be happier. The horse is just settling in here at Penn Ridge, and he has already sired two stakes winners the second half of November." A Grade II winner, Eurosilver entered stud at Gerry Dilger's Dromoland Farm in Lexington in 2006. Dilger and his partners will retain ownership in Eurosilver, who is out of stakes-winning Russian Tango. His second dam, Brave Raj, was champion two-year-old filly and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner. Dilger commented, "We want to thank Patrick Morell for putting this together. Eurosilver already ranks among Pennsylvania's top 10 leading sires, and is the number two second-crop sire in the state. We are very excited about his prospects there." Eurosilver will stand for $3,500, live foal.
