FULL-FIGURED MAMAS

There were fireworks from start to finish at Tattersalls yesterday for the featured session of the December Breeding Stock Sale, where two seven-figure transactions headed a furious day's trade. The

11-year-old mare Diary (Ire) (Green Desert), covered by Galileo (Ire) and dam of last year's G1 winner Prix de l'Abbaye winner Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}) and G1 Fillies' Mile second Lady Darshaan (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), was the star of the show when hammered down to David Redvers Bloodstock for 1.3-million guineas (US$2,123,944). The Castlebridge Consignment sold the current sale topper as hip 1650. Seamus Burns of Lodge Park Stud in Ireland's County Kilkenny struck with an opening offer of 500,000gns, Hong Kong-based Australian Paul Makin got in on the action at 1-million guineas, and Hugo Merry upped the ante to 1.2-million guineas, but Redvers struck the winning blow with one successful salvo. Redvers was accompanied by his client, Sheikh Fahad Al-Thani of Qatar, who bought Total Gallery privately this year. The mare will now head to Redvers' Tweenhills Stud in Gloucestershire.

"The plan is to send her to Dubawi (GB)," said Redvers. "You can go anywhere with a mare like that, except for Makfi (GB) [who was bought as a stallion prospect by Sheikh Fahad], who is out of a mare by Green Desert. Sheikh Fahad considers this is a fantastic time to invest in a mare of this sort. We valued her at this level."

MR. GREELEY DIES

Mr. Greeley (Gone West--Long Legend, by Reviewer), the sire of eight Group/Grade I winners worldwide including champion Finsceal Beo (Ire), died Tuesday after a bout with laminitis. He was 18 years old. "All of us at Gainesway are saddened at the loss of a great stallion," commented Gainesway's Antony Beck. "He was not only a great stallion, but a great horse." Bred in Kentucky by Herman Sarkowsky, Mr. Greeley trained by Nick Zito for Bill Condren and Joseph Cornacchia and was a leading sprinter/miler of his generation, with wins in the GIII Spectacular Bid S., the GIII Swale S. and the GIII Lafayette S. in the winter and spring of 1995. He closed his career with a gritty runner-up effort in the G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint, and retired to stud with five wins from 16 starts and earnings of $474,452. From the sire family of G1 Kentucky Derby hero Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) and the outstanding European sire Danehill Dancer (Ire), Mr. Greeley got off to a tremendous start at stud at Dixiana Farm, siring at least one Grade/Group 1 winner from each of his first four crops to race, including G1 Cigar Mile hero El Corredor in the United States, G1 Oakleigh Plate victress Miss Kournakova (Aus) in Australia and Reel Buddy, the G1 Sussex S. victor in England. Cont. p9

First and Foremost...

Charlie Gordon-Watson, acting for an undisclosed big new investor in British bloodstock, bid 1.1-million guineas for the standout lot in Bloomsbury Stud's dispersal, First (GB) (Highest Honor {Fr}) (hip 1691), the dam of last week's 320,000gns sale-topping Singspiel (Ire) foal and listed winner Perfect Stride (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). "The Singspiel was as good a colt foal as I'd seen in a long time, and Perfect Stride was the best-looking yearling I ever bought. She's a fantastic mare for a new stud owner, and it was a compliment that the Aga Khan's team were underbidders," said Gordon-Watson, referring to the fact that he outbid the Aga's Irish manager Pat Downes.

Diary's Daughter Lady Darshaan to Newsells...

Lady Darshaan (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), a daughter of the sale-topping Diary (Ire), sold later in the day for 600,000gns to John Warren, acting for Andreas Jacobs and family's Newsells Park Stud. The underbidder was Tom Goff, accompanied by Paul Shanahan, with New Zealand agent Guy Mulcaster coming off third best. "Andreas Jacobs, [stud manager] Julian Dollar and [racing manager] Gary Coffey felt she was effectively a moral Group 1 winning two-year-old, because she was beaten a short-head when hit in the face with the whip in the G1 Fillies' Mile, and I thought she was probably the best physical specimen in the sale," said Warren. "Newsells is a commercial organization, and to go to market, it is important to have quality, correct mares. She won't stay in training, and the plan is to send her to America to go to one of the top stallions there, then bring her home in a couple of years." Berkeley House Stables consigned Lady Darshaan as hip 1753.

My O'Malley...

Kuwaiti owners Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar, who campaigned G1 Derby winner Authorized (Ire), paid 850,000gns for G3 Noblesse S. winner Grace O'Malley (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}), offered in foal to Sharmardal from the Castlebridge Consignment. She was the third-highest-priced mare on the day. Parties from Japan's Eishin Farm and Shadai Farm both bid on the four-year-old, with Hugo Lascelles, standing with Caliborne Bernie Sams, the underbidder. "She was a beautiful mare with a good pedigree," said Tony Nerses, advisor to Al Homaizi and Al Sagar. "She'll be visiting Oasis Dream (GB)." Grace O'Malley was produced by Lionne (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), an unraced half-sister to G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). She sold as hip 1743.

The 2009 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City) is joining the Coolmore bloodstock band after M.V. Magnier fought off Haras de Saint-Pair's Andreas Putsch at 800,000gns for the four-year-old. European Sales Management consigned the Classic heroine as hip 1715.

Five-year-old Lesson In Humility (Ire) (Mujadil), covered by Oasis Dream (GB), realised 675,000gns when selling from James Hanly's Ballyhimikin Stud. Hugo Merry, standing with Paul Shanahan, fought off Richard Frisby for the mare, who was offered as hip 1710.

Flay Makes Lemonade After Loss...

Celebrity grubsmith Bobby Flay was unable to make it to the Tattersalls sales grounds due to a pressing engagement: he was filming an episode of Throwdown, a Food Network show in which the renowned chef challenges other chefs to a cook-off of their signature dish. Sadly, Flay lost the battle, but may have won the war later in the afternoon when, bidding by telephone via agent James Delahooke, he saw off Charlie Gordon-Watson for Countess Lemonade (Storm Cat--Love Me True, by Kingmambo), a three-year-old listed-placed half-sister to European champion Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), at 700,000gns. "She's going to race in America," said Delahooke. "I don't know who is going to train her, but Bobby is building up a broodmare band, and I hope she will be a worthy member of it." Consigned by European Sales Management as hip 1717, Countess Lemonade hails from the family of A.P. Indy, Summer Squall, Lemon Drop Kid, et al. Flay's More Than Real (More Than Ready) captured the GII BC Juvenile Fillies Turf at Churchill Nov. 5.

Bloomsbury Dispersal Stirs Emotions...

There was a ripple of applause as Henrietta, Duchess of Bedford, led in hip 1694, the 11-year-old mare Oval Office (GB) (Pursuit of Love {GB}), one of the last of

Henrietta, Duchess of Bedford

the 18 mares that comprised the dispersal of her Bloomsbury Stud, which she started at Woburn in 1965. As it was, Oval Office proved to be one of the lowlier offerings, selling for 18,000gns to Lanwades Stud. But her half-sister First (GB) (Highest Honor {Fr}), in foal to Cape Cross (Ire) and selling just three lots earlier as hip 1691 (Sirecam video), had already provided the fireworks of the draft when she was knocked down to Charlie Gordon-Watson for 1.1 million guineas. Her colt foal by Singspiel (Ire) had topped the trade at last week's foal sale, purchased by M.V. Magnier at 320,000gns, while another Coolmore operative, Demi O'Byrne, signed for First's Oasis Dream (GB) yearling colt at Book 1 of Tattersalls' October Sale for the same amount.

Speaking directly after the final mare of the Bloomsbury dispersal had exited the ring, the understandably emotional founder of the stud said, "What's been lovely is that people have thought the horses looked wonderful. When someone like Paul Shanahan says that First's foal is one of the most beautiful foals he's ever seen in his life, and that he hopes we see him in the winner's enclosure at Epsom, it's really makes you feel very proud."

She added, "The Aga Khan was the underbidder on First. I would have adored him to have her. To be in his green book would have been fantastic, and I would really have felt like I'd made it. But that he wanted her was wonderful."

Other highlights from the Bloomsbury Stud draft included hip 1695, the 13-year-old mare Danceabout (GB) (Shareef Dancer) (Sirecam video). In foal to Oasis Dream (GB), she joins the sale's top lot Diary (Ire) (Green Desert) on the journey to Tweenhills Stud in Gloucestershire, having been bought for 460,000gns by David Redvers to join Sheikh Fahad Al-Thani's burgeoning broodmare band. Danceabout's daughter, the listed winner Rainbow Dancing (GB) (Rainbow Quest), was sold in foal to Sinndar for 360,000gns as hip 1696 (Sirecam video).

The Duchess admitted to a sense of disbelief that her dispersal of more than 30 mares and young stock was now complete. "I'm just not really here at the moment--it doesn't seem real," she said. "Tomorrow it will all seem real. I just wish my husband had been here to see this, he wouldn't have believed it."

Referring to her foundation mare Mrs Moss, the granddam of First whom she purchased in 1975 and who is commemorated in bronze at the stud, she continued, "It's not bad, 2,100gns to 1.1 million in 35 years, is it? I was very lucky to buy her, and I've got a lot of her family in Australia and New Zealand still--I couldn't live without BBA Investment Scheme Makes an Impact...

Just as Mrs Moss formed the cornerstone of a long-standing and successful operation, Richard Frisby and Kirsten Rausing will be hoping that her great-granddaughter First Turn (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), a daughter of First, can bring similar luck to the their fledgling BBA Investment Scheme. The duo announced their purchase of the historic British Bloodstock Agency, of which they were both former directors, in September and, while their immediate plans do not involve restoring the once flagship Newmarket-based operation to its former glory, they are adamant in their wish to keep the name alive and associated with excellence. "We're delighted to be buying for the BBA, and were thrilled with the reception that we got when we sent out the prospectus. We're fully subscribed and now in action," said Frisby, who went to 200,000gns for First Turn, who sold as hip 1692 (Sirecam video).

Frisby also signed for Flora Trevelyan (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), hip 1682, from another major dispersal. The dual-winning half-sister to MGSW Leporello (Ire) (Danehill) was bought for 270,000gns to top the sale of stock from Peter Harris's Pendley Farm in Hertfordshire. Late in the day Frisby also secured Chirkova (Sadler's Wells) (hip 1740) for 360,000gns. "It's not by accident that we have mares from dispersals of two such successful studs," said Frisby. "I'm sure that Henrietta Bedford has very mixed emotions right now, but we're very pleased to be re-homing one of her mares."

The BBA team includes Michael Goodbody as a consultant and Guy Heald, a former investor in Ptarmigan Bloodstock, which was run by Frisby and David Loder and which teamed up with Kirsten Rausing to breed Irish Derby winner Fame And Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Representing the BBA investors, Frisby was also underbidder Tuesday on Group 3 winner Lesson In Humility (Ire) (Mujadil) (hip 1710), who eventually went the way of Hugo Merry for 675,000gns.

"When you're working in the top end of the market, value becomes unpredictable, and we have a finite budget, so our numbers will fit accordingly," said Frisby, who confirmed that the offspring of the mares from the inaugural BBA scheme are likely to be sold as foals. "But I hope that, in the long run, we end up with half a dozen nice mares."

Frisby added of the marketplace, "It's always hard to buy at any level, regardless of what your budget is, but I think the problem here is that there have been so many withdrawals of the better mares and fillies on paper, and that has been disappointing. For me, it was quite a short list even before we got here, and by the time you've looked at some of the individuals, the list gets shorter."

Antipodean Power...

Antipodean visitors to Tattersalls may have been ruing the arctic temperatures in what would be mid-summer back at home, but they have continued to make their presence felt. Australian Paul Fudge of Waratah Thoroughbreds, acting through Michael Goodbody, was another to benefit from the Bloomsbury Stud dispersal, adding the listed winner Rainbow Danc-ing (GB) (Rainbow Quest) to his select band of British broodmares for 360,000gns. The five-year-old mare, in foal to Sinddar (Ire), sold as hip 1696 (Sirecam video). Tim Stakemire, meanwhile, bought Anna Pallida (GB) (Sadler's Wells) (hip 1678) for 220,000gns from the Pendley Farm dispersal, and later saw off Ric Wylie and Neil Jenkinson for the Australian-bred Silent Heir (Aus) (Sunday Silence) (hip 1706), who topped the Breeding Capital dispersal when selling for 320,000gns.

John Foote also continued his pursuit of stamina-laden European lines when stretching to 260,000gns for Waltz (Ire) (hip 1575), a daughter of Sadler's Wells out of the former European champion three-year-old filly L'Anresse (Ire), by Darshaan (GB). Cont. p7

New Zealand was represented by Bruce Sherwin, a shareholder in Raffles Farm in Cambridge with principal partner Dato Yap, a Malaysian businessman. Buying through agent Guy Mulcaster, they have secured four mares, including El Laoob (Red Ransom) for 100,000gns, and were involved in a spirited tussle for Lady Darshaan (Ire) (hip 1648), who eventually went the way of John Warren for 600,000gns. "When we first started, we came over here and bought six mares," said Sherwin, a former race commentator in Macau whose father trained racehorses. "They have produced three Group 1 winners, including Brazilian Pulse (NZ), who won the G1 VRC Oaks this year. We probably should come back more often." Brazilian Pulse, a daughter of Ballyhane Stud's shuttle stallion Captain Rio (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), is out of the Aga Khan-bred Tenby (GB) mare Sharazad (Ire), who was sold at the 1999 December sale for 11,500gns.

 (12, Spectrum {Ire}--Wedding Bouquet {GB}, by Kings Lake)
 Consigned by European Sales Mgmt, property of Scuderia Bulgheri
 Purchased by David Redvers Bloodstock

Stakes-placed at three, Ventura made a promising start at stud, producing SW & GSP Cedar Mountain (Ire) to Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in 2003. She was sent through this sales ring 12 months ago in foal to Manduro, the half-sister to G1 Epsom Derby hero Generous (Ire) realized a final bid of 58,000gns from Cormac McCormack Bloodstock for these Italian interests. Carrying a foal bred very much like Cedar Mountain, Ventura proved a popular commodity at Tatts.

 (f, 3, High Chaparral {Ire}--Diary {Ire}, by Green Desert)
 Consigned by Berkley House Stables (J S Moore), property of Coleman Bloodstock Ltd
 Purchased by John Warren Bloodstock

Bidding on behalf of Coleman Bloodstock Ltd., trainer Stan Moore had to fork over just £24,000 for Lady Darshaan at the 2009 Doncaster Breeze-Up Sale, and the filly outran that pricetag, going down by a short head in last year's G1 Fillies' Mile despite getting struck in the face by a rival's whip. The half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Abbaye hero Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}) was purchased to join Newsells Park Stud and it was Christmas come early for Coleman Bloodstock.

MULTIPLE GRADED STAKES-WINNING and multiple G1-placed son of Giant's Causeway, the Leading Sire in 2010.

WEDNESDAY - TATTS DECEMBER

1848, Vermicelli (Ire), m, 5, Mujadil--Lady Express (Ire), by Soviet Star

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

Another offering from Bill Dwan's draft, this unraced mare is out of a daughter of Park Express (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}), the dam of European champion and dual Classic hero New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Irish Champion S. placegetter Dazzling Park (Ire) (Warning {GB}). She sells in foal to the popular young stallion Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef).

1861, Centime (GB), f, 3, Royal Applause (GB)--Argent du Bois, by Silver Hawk

Consigned by Car Colston Hall Stud

Successful once this term, this filly out of training is a full-sister to the 2004 G1 American Oaks and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup heroine Ticker Tape (GB). She is also from the immediate family of the 2008 G1 Racing Post Trophy victor Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest).

1973, Shamwari Lodge (Ire), f, 4, Hawk Wing--Ripalong (Ire), by Revoque (Ire)

Consigned by Barnane Stud

Offered as a filly out of training, this four-year-old enjoyed a landmark season this year with victories in the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S., the Listed Snowdrop Fillies' S. and the Listed Conqueror S. She is out of a half-sister to the European champion and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup victress Pipalong (Ire) (Pips Pride {GB}), herself the dam of Walk On Bye (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who realised 280,000gns during Monday's opening session of this sale.

1985, Atyaab (GB), f, 3, Green Desert--Aspen Leaves, by Woodman

Consigned by Shadwell Stud

The first offering under the Shadwell Stud banner at this year's sale, this bay sophomore, who sells as a filly out of training, is out of the winner Aspen Leaves (Woodman), herself a daughter of blue hen Fall Aspen (Pretense). She is therefore from the immediate family of Group/Grade I winners Timber Country (Woodman), Hamas (Ire) (Danzig), Northern Aspen (Northern Dancer), Fort Wood (Sadler's Wells), et al.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

In 2001, Mr. Greeley was moved to Spendthrift Farm before being purchased by Gainesway Farm to stand the 2006 breeding season. He had progeny earnings of at least $3.9 million for eight straight seasons, and exploded as a true international stallion in 2006 with his daughter Finsceal Beo (Ire). A €340,000 GOFORB yearling, the daughter of Musical Treat (Ire) (Royal Academy) was the champion two-year-old filly in Europe in 2006, with victories in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in France and in the G2 Rockfel S. in England. She carried her outstanding juvenile form into her three-year-old season, registering wins in the G1 English 1000

Finsceal Beo

Guineas and in the Irish equivalent in the span of 21 days sandwiched around a head defeat in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. Multiple Group 1-placed at four, she was retired with earnings in excess of $1.5 million. Overall, Mr. Greeley has been represented by 53 black-type winners and 107 black-type horses to date. His progeny have earned in excess of $50 million. In 2010 alone, he is the sire of seven worldwide black-type winners, including GSW & G1SP Laughing Lashes (Ire) and the recent GII Mrs. Revere S. winner Aruna. Not only have his progeny performed at the track, but they have also been exceedingly well-received at public auction. A son of the stallion out of G1 Preis der Diana winner Silvester Lady (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) made headlines at KEESEP in 2006, selling for $5.7 million, the fourth-highest price at the sale. His popularity continued into the next year, when his son out of Win My Heart (King of Kings {Ire}) sold for $2.2 million to top the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. In 2008, Saoirse Abu, a dual Group 1 winner for trainer Jim Bolger, topped a session of the Tattersalls December sale on a bid of 1.95-million guineas (approx. $3.1 million). Mr. Greeley will be buried at the farm.

NO ACTION ON NYCOTB LEGISLATION New York state legislators failed to take any action on a bill to implement reorganization of the bankrupt New York City Off-Track Betting Corporation during a special session Monday, according to Daily Racing Form. The reorganization plan has already received the approval of the NYCOTB's creditors, and is supported by out-going New York Governor David Paterson. The company has threatened to shut down in mid-December if a reorganization plan is not approved. Austin Shafran, a spokesman for Senate Democrats, said legislators took no action on the bill because there were still several versions in circulation Monday night. "Details matter, and legislation that cannot be adequately examined can have profound implications for taxpayers," Shafran told DRF. "If the Senate is to act, there must be a thorough and deliberative process, which allows members and the public to review and provide input regarding this important piece of legislation. The Senate stands ready to be a partner in this process." Legislators may return for another special session in late December.

MARYLAND RACING COMMISSION REJECTS DATE REQUESTS The Maryland Racing Commission unanimously rejected a proposed plan to drastically cut live race dates at Pimlico and Laurel next year during three-hour meeting Monday, according to Baltimore Sun. In a plan opposed by the state's horsemen, track officials had proposed running a total of 47 racing days, about one-third of the days run this year. "It's a very, very sad day for us to be effectively shutting down racing at all," commission chairman Louis J. Ulman, told the Sun before Monday's vote. "But 17 days at Laurel and 30 days at Pimlico is not racing in Maryland." MI Developments and Penn National Gaming, which jointly own the Maryland Jockey Club, could submit a new proposal or could appeal the commission's decision in court.

'Safety Summit' Highlights 2010 Annual Assembly of the Jockeys' Guild: (Edited press release)
A Safety Summit headlines the 2010 Annual Assembly of the Jockeys' Guild to be held Dec. 6-7. The Annual Assembly will be held in conjunction with the University of Arizona's 2010 Symposium on Racing and Gaming, at the Westin La Paloma Resort in Tucson, Arizona. The assembly begins on Monday, Dec. 6 with closed sessions in the morning and early afternoon. The remainder of the sessions will be part of the symposium and are open to all symposium attendees. The Rider Safety Summit, a joint seminar presented by the Guild, The Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI) and The Race Track Industry Program, will kick off the Symposium's open sessions from 3:30-5:30 p.m. The session will address safety issues involving jockeys. Participating in the panel are Dr. Ed Hall, director of the Spinal Cord and Brain Injury Research Center at the University of Kentucky; Dr. Oswald Steward, director, Reeve-Irvine Research Center, Anatomy & Neurology School of Medicine at UC Irvine; Dr. Dalton Dietrich, the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis; Mike Zeigler, executive director of the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance; and Brad Kimbrell, vice president of sales at InCompass. The panel participants will be discussing medical research on spinal cord and brain injuries, as well as suggest minimum standards for facilities, ambulances, and on-track and hospital treatment. Zeigler will discuss the NTRA Code of Standards, as well as minimum standards on medical personnel, facilities, ambulances and hospital care while Kimbrell will speak about Jockey Health Information Systems and an update on the development of a National Rider Injury Database. On Tuesday, Dec. 7, Robert L. Evans, president and CEO of Churchill Downs Incorporated, will address the Symposium from 8-9:30 a.m. At 10-11 a.m., former NBC newsman, Richard Valeriani, will address the Assembly on the topic of jockeys and enhancing their public image. Nancy LaSala, executive director of the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund, will discuss the efforts of the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund at 11 a.m. Jockey Mike Smith will be honored by The Turf Publicists of America with Big Sport of Turfdom Award. It will be presented along with the Race Track Industry Program Awards Luncheon Dec. at noon. Following lunch, business will conclude with the Rider Safety Workshop featuring the panelists from the previous day's Rider Safety Summit with more in depth discussion of the topic. EUROPE
