Now that Indian Charlie has firmly established himself among the upper echelon of American stallions, with his fee set at $70,000+ for the third consecutive year, it is easy to forget that he was available for as little as $10,000 and $12,500 in his early years at Airdrie.

One of the first to set his fee climbing was his son Bwana Charlie, who became Indian Charlie's first American graded stakes winner when he comfortably took the GIII Lafayette S. over seven furlongs at Keeneland in April 2004.

That was the third straight success in three second-season starts for the Heiligbrodts' color-bearer, who had failed to win, despite running creditably, in five juvenile starts.

"He's just like a big kid," Bill Heiligbrodt said afterwards. "He's growing up. When he became three, he became a different horse. He had little problems to get over, but it was always self-induced."

GITANO HERNANDO ARRIVES IN DUBAI

Multiple graded stakes winner Gitano Hernando (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) has shipped from England to Dubai to begin preparations for next year's G1 Dubai World Cup.

The four-year-old, winner of the 2009 GI Goodwood Breeders' Cup S., is expected to have two prep races leading up to the Mar. 26 World Cup at Meydan, according to a Team Valor release. He will make his 2011 debut in the Feb. 3 G3 Maktoum Challenge (Round Two) and follow up in the Mar. 3 G2 Maktoum Challenge (Round Three). Gitano Hernando finished sixth in the 2010 World Cup after preparing for the 10-furlong race in England. "We had experienced some difficulties with the air pollution the year before when construction of the new track became a problem for one of our horses that developed a respiratory problem, which is why we kept Gitano Hernando in England," explained Team Valor CEO Barry Irwin. "Well, we zigged when we should have zagged, because it was evident by the performances that the horses trained and raced in Dubai had an edge over the invaders. So next year, we will train and race in Dubai during the entire Carnival." Hong Kong-based Weichong Marwing is expected to partner the Team Valor International and Gary Barber-owned chestnut, who is trained by Marco Botti.

Corinne Heiligbrodt added, "I think Bwana Charlie didn't know how to handle himself. He was as fast as the wind when we bought him [for $240,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Texas March sale of two-year-olds in training], but he had a hard time adjusting to his size and his speed."

Another graded victory came Bwana Charlie's way when he came from last to first to defeat Pomeroy (Boundary) in the GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga. Unfortunately, his four-year-old season proved a bit of a disaster, with only $7,500 earned from four starts, and he retired to stud in Florida, first at Sequel Stallions before moving on to Journeyman Stud.

He covered 70 mares for 46 live foals in his first season and 66 mares for 40 live foals in his second. His figures fell to 15 mares earlier this year, but you can be sure he will bounce back in 2011, thanks to the emergence of his tough and talented son Comma To The Top. Now a winner of six of his 10 starts, including the GI CashCall Futurity, Comma To The Top has proven himself one of the best members of a crop dominated by Uncle Mo, a colt from Indian Charlie's $40,000 coverings in 2007.

Before anyone is tempted to dismiss Comma To The Top as a cheaply bought gelding who is unproven on dirt, it would be as well to remind them that it usually takes a very smart performer to take Hollywood's Futurity. The 2009 winner was none other than Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike), future winner of the GI Preakness S. His predecessor, Pioneerof The Nile (Empire Maker), won the GI Santa Anita Derby, as did the 2005 winner Brother Derek (Benchmark). Pioneerof The Nile was also second in the GI Kentucky Derby, as was the 2003 winner Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), who also took the GI Haskell Invitational. The runners-up in recent years include such as Giacomo (Holy Bull), Colonel John (Tiznow) and I Want Revenge (Stephen Got Even).

Bwana Charlie's pedigree bears the Florida hallmark, through and through. His first three dams are all Florida-breds by Florida-based stallions.

His dam Maggie's Storm, who managed only one second from four starts, is by Stormy Atlantic, the stallion responsible for the 2006 GI Hollywood Futurity winner Stormello.

Everyone nowadays thinks of Stormy Atlantic as a Hill 'n' Dale stallion, where his fee has been as high as $45,000, but this very well-bred horse started out at $3,000 at Bridlewood Farm, where he spent four seasons.

The next dam, Maggie's Pistol, was a tough veteran of 28 starts, including 15 as a three-year-old. That

Comma To The Top

demanding second season didn't prevent Maggie's Pistol from developing into a Grade III winner at four, when she took the Virginia H. over seven furlongs at Calder. Maggie's Pistol's sire, Big Pistol, was good enough to win the Haskell Invitational in 1984, but his pedigree--he was by Romeo out of a Whitesburg mare--was hardly fashionable and Maggie's Pistol was one of only 47 foals in his first four crops.

Comma To The Top's third dam, Miss Magistrate, was by Tanthem, whose finest moment came when he won the Forego H. over seven furlongs towards the end of a 55-race career. The next dam, the Maryland-bred Order In Court, was another who stood up well to a demanding career, racing 59 times in five years. A stakes winner at six, Order In Court was much tougher than her royally-bred sire Banderilla, who failed to win in four starts despite being a son of the champions Native Dancer and Quill.

I have given details of Comma To The Top's female line so that you can judge whether the gelding has realistic prospects of developing into a Kentucky Derby contender. My interpretation is that, with a sprinter as his sire, there probably isn't enough stamina in the bottom half of his pedigree to think that he will be suited for a mile and a quarter, but fortunately his even temperament will give him the best chance of doing so.

RACETRACK Round-Up

Big Drama; Manicero Work at Calder...

Harold Queen's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Big Drama (Montbrook) drilled four furlongs at Calder Monday morning in :48.20, good for the fastest time of 50 works at the distance. The four-year-old got his final quarter in :23.41 and galloped out five furlongs in 1:00.91 with exercise rider Madeline Sciametta aboard. "He was just galloping," trainer David Fawkes told Daily Racing Form. "It was a nice breeze. I was very, very happy." Big Drama could make his 2011 return in either the Gill Mr. Prospector S. at Gulfstream Jan. 15 or the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Sprint at Santa Anita.

Manicero (Mass Media), owned by Leo Azpurua, Sr. and trained by his son, Leo Azpurua, Jr., also worked at Calder Monday. The Jack Price Juvenile S. winner broke from the gate and quickly disposed of his two workmates, carved out splits of :23.20, :34.08 and :47.15, and stopped the timer in 1:01.40 for five furlongs. "I wanted to sharpen him up a little bit this morning because he hasn't run in six weeks," Azpurua, Jr. told DRF. "This was the most serious work he's had since the stakes and I was very pleased." The juvenile will run Sunday in the Inaugural S. at Tampa Bay, with a step up to graded company in the works after that. "When we stretched him out for his last race to seven furlongs it was on two weeks' rest and he had no problem," Azpurua, Jr. explained to DRF. "The good thing about him is that he's well natured and rateable. He's fast but not a speed freak, which is to my advantage. I think the [Jan. 30 Gill] Holy Bull S. [at Gulfstream] is well within his reach."

Santa Anita Main Track Back Open After Heavy Rain:

Santa Anita's recently installed conventional dirt main track has withstood a deluge of rain since late last week and, after being closed for training over the weekend, was back open Monday. "The track was open this morning," said track superintendent Richard Tedesco yesterday. "We got six inches of rain so far (since last Friday afternoon) and have two more coming this afternoon. It should taper off after that, but a big one is scheduled on Tuesday or Wednesday. We had the dogs up this morning and there were gallopers over the track." Track President George Haines added, "Right now, we're very surprised the track is as good as it is, after six inches of rain. We're happy. We're going to prepare it again for a big rain tonight. It looks like we're going to get another two inches. I think generally the horsemen have been able to use the main track and exercise their horses and they're happy." The Arcadia oval opens this Sunday, Dec. 26 for racing, with a card headlined by the GI Malibu S. for sophomore sprinters.
