SUNNY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN

Santa Anita opens its doors again Sunday with a solid card, headlined by the GI La Brea S. and GI Malibu S., both of which will be contested on the newly installed natural dirt surface. The track opened for training earlier this month, but was forced to endure torrential rainfall, including 13 1/2 inches since last Friday.

"We've been very cautious through all of this rain, and we want to thank the horsemen for being so patient," said Ted Malloy, who oversaw the installation of the new surface. "Although the training track was open, we had to keep everyone off the main track until we got through this. I think the payoff is in the condition of the track [Thursday] morning. We'll take the cones down [Friday], and people can work down on the rail if they choose. The weather forecast is good for the next few days, and we'll work with the surface to air it out as best we can right up until opening day on Sunday."

There have been mudslides in the nearby foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains, and there has been surface flooding in the city of Arcadia, California.

"We first opened for training on Dec. 6, and we got off to a great start, but beginning last Friday, we had to make adjustments and just try to be as conservative as we could possibly be," Malloy added. "This was one heck of a baptism, but I'm glad we got it when we did, as opposed to a few days later."

REMINDER

Due to the Christmas holiday, the TDN office will be closed Friday, Dec. 24 and Saturday, Dec. 25. THERE WILL BE NO NEWSLETTER FOR SAT. DEC. 25 OR SUN. DEC. 26. All news and results from Dec. 24-25 will appear in the Dec. 27 issue. Have a wonderful holiday!

Everybody's Working for the Weekend...

Over at Hollywood Park, trainer John Sadler sent out a threesome of graded-stakes entrants for workouts.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Twirling Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}), who sustained his first career defeat when fourth as the 3-5 chalk in the GI Goodwood S. at Oak Tree Oct. 2, went a half-mile in :48.20 around the dogs. "[He] galloped out in a minute flat with his ears pricked and full of run," said assistant trainer Larry Benevidez. The dark bay colt is the 3-1 morning-line favorite in the GI Malibu S. Fellow ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Sidney's Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) tuned up for the GIII Sir Beaufort S. by going a half in :48.40. "[He] galloped out in a minute and two-fifths," Benevidez noted. "It was beautiful to watch."

The chestnut, winner of the GI Santa Anita Derby last April and the GII La Jolla H. at Del Mar, is coming off a sixth-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Nov. 6. Switch (Quiet American) goes back to her own age group in the GI La Brea S. after a pair of bang-up efforts against her elders. Second to Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) in the GI Lady's Secret S. Oct. 2, the bay filly was most recently runner-up in the GI BC F/M Sprint at Churchill Nov. 5. She breezed four panels in :49.60 yesterday.

Buena Vista could bury the disappointment of her controversial disqualification from victory in the Nov. 28 G1 Japan Cup with a win here. The four-year-old filly could become just the fifth horse in JRA history to win six Group 1 races and the first female to earn more than ¥600 million ($7.2 million) in a single season. Rose Kingdom inherited the Japan Cup win and will attempt to prove he deserved the victory here. The sophomore colt, Japan's champion two-year-old last year, was runner-up in this year's G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) and G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger). "The Japan Cup is in the past for me," said Rose Kingdom's trainer Kojiro Hashiguchi. "Our sole concern right now is to have him in the best shape possible for the Arima Kinen for our fans. Buena Vista is strong without question, but I just hope we can cross the line in front this time. He ran one heck of a race, but he hasn't looked tired at all since returning to Ritto [Training Center]." Cont. p3

"[Rose Kingdom] looks great at the moment, and I can't say enough about how tough he's become," Hashiguchi added. "He's got superb racing instincts and he can adjust to any type of race." Dream Journey, defending Arima Kinen champion, is still looking for his first win of 2010. "This year, he hasn't run one single race that we can look back on and say we're happy with," said trainer Yasutoshi Ikee. "I'm hoping to have him fit enough so he can run to the best of his ability." Dream Journey has been sidelined a runner-up effort in the Sept. 26 G2 Sankei Sho All Comers.

Switch and multiple Grade I winner Champagne d'Oro will be the worthy favorites, but they'll have to be at their best to prevail in this competitive renewal. "She might need another work, but she's fit," Champagne d'Oro's trainer, Eric Guillot, told Daily Racing Form. "I think she'll fly over this track. It should be a little speed-biased, which will be good for me opening day." Trainer Bob Baffert will field GII Indiana Oaks heroine Always a Princess and Bonnie Blue Flag, runner-up to Champagne d'Oro in the GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 7. Pica Slew, the GIII Azalea S. winner, makes her first appearance since faltering as the favorite in the Test. She is now trained by John Shirreffs. B. Wayne Hughes' homebred Malibu Pier has shown serious potential in winning three of her first four starts. After kicking off her career with a pair of turf victories this summer, the chestnut rallied for third in the GIII Harold C. Ramser H. on the Hollywood lawn Oct. 17. She then posted a handy 4 3/4-length tally in an optional claimer rained onto the Cushion Track Nov. 21 (video) and, breaking from the seven hole here, should be able to sit a perfect trip under Garrett Gomez.

NO EASY LAY-UP

Thoroughbred Legends shelled out $1.15 million for Alcindor (Unbridled's Song) as a yearling at KEESEP in 2008, and waited over two years for the rangy colt to hit the races. He graduated by a nose at Oak Tree Oct. 23 (video), but hit the sky hook next time going seven panels at Hollywood Nov. 28, when he drew off by 7 1/2 lengths in a first-level allowance (video) in a "TDN Rising Star" performance. Trainer Bob Baffert immediately had this contest as the colt's next target, and was able to get a breeze into him yesterday morning. Alcindor went a half in :50 2/5, dogs up.

Alcindor breezing Thursday
 Michael J Marten

"I just gave him a light little stroll around there," said Baffert.

There's no question that Alcindor has talent, but he's meeting a salty group for his stakes bow. In addition to Smiling Tiger (Hold That Tiger)--twice a Grade I winner against his elders--the starting gate will also have the swift Twirling Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}), Caracortado (Cat Dreams), the GII Robert B. Lewis S. hero who made a sharp return from a six-month break in an allowance on the Hollywood weeds Nov. 11 (video); Noble's Promise (Cuvee), the 2009 GI Breeders' Futurity victor who came back from five months off to annex the Jimmy V. S. at Churchill Nov. 5 (video); and Thiskyhasnolimit (Sky Mesa), the GII Indiana Derby runner-up who was most recently seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

The Wertheimers' homebred Setsuko (Pleasantly Perfect), second in the GI Santa Anita Derby, will be making his first appearance since finishing fourth in the GII American Turf S. at Churchill Apr. 30.

"He sored up a little bit in his ankles when we took him to Kentucky," said Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella, who has saddled four Malibu winners. "So I gave him a couple months rest and let him grow up. He's done very well, and is training so good I want to try him in the Malibu. I wasn't really thinking of doing that until he worked so good [six furlongs at Santa Anita Wednesday in 1:14.20]. I think it's time to see what we've got."

Look for the  throughout the TDN graded stakes entries, denoting Keeneland sales graduates.

SECOND ANNUAL TDN READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

The TDN is proud to present the 2010 Readers' Choice Awards. We at the TDN have come up with our favorite performances on the year and beyond, but we want your input, too. So from now until Dec. 26, we will be accepting your votes for additional nominees. Then, from Dec. 27 through Jan. 16, we will be accepting votes for the award winners, to be announced in the Jan. 23 edition of the TDN. All voters will be entered in a drawing, with five winners getting to choose a framed 11x14 photo by Sarah K. Andrew, or a free full-page ad in the TDN.

A list of categories and nominees follows today's TDN, or you can view them by clicking here.

‘11 LONE STAR STAKES TOP $2.1 MILLION Lone Star Park will offer 19 stakes races worth more than $2.1 million during its 2011 Spring Thoroughbred Season. The highlight of the season will be Lone Star Million Day. Held on Memorial Day, the $1-million card features the $300,000 GIII Lone Star Park H. and the $200,000 GIII Ouija Board Distaff. New to Lone Star Million day is the $200,000 Lone Star Derby, which this year switches to the turf for the first time. “Lone Star Million Day has been a very popular day of racing for us over the years and we are pleased to add the Lone Star Derby to the holiday card,” said track President and General Manager Drew Shubeck. “We believe the switch to the grass will help with stables who are already bringing horses here for the weekend to consider additional turf horses for the Lone Star Derby.” Lone Star Million Preview Day will be held on Apr. 23 and features the $200,000 GIII Texas Mile S. Lone Star Park will cut back from 60 days to 52 days of live racing next year. The reduction will lead to an increase in average total purses, from $150,000 to $175,000. Individual purses will average $20,000. Lone Star’s spring season runs from Apr. 14 through July 10.

RETIRED

TIJDEJAVU TO CRESTWOOD MGSW Tizdejavu (Tiznow--Remember When, by Dixie Brass) has been retired and will entered stud in 2011 at Crestwood Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. The five-year-old will stand for $5,000, live foal. “He is by a true classic sire in Tiznow,” said Pope McLean. “Milers make the best sires, and Tizdejavu was a force at the one-mile distance.” Trained by Greg Fox and campaigned by co-breeder Pamela C. Ziebarth, the bay rattled off victories in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S., GII Jefferson Cup and GII American Derby during his three-year-old season, and also finished third in the GI Secretariat S. Tizdejavu captured all three of his outings this year, including the GII Firecracker H. at Churchill July 4 in what would be his career finale. He heads to stud with a record of 16-8-3-2 and earnings of $693,153.

COLONIALISM (c, 3, Empire Maker--Didina {GB} {GSW & GISP-US, SW-Eng, $201,368}, by Nashwan) rallied belatedly to finish fourth on debut over the Gulfstream turf Feb. 10, then missed by a half-length when runner-up over the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 8. The bay was the 9-10 favorite going a mile on the Aqueduct main track Nov. 21, and saved ground to no avail in a fifth-place effort. Back to the infield for his first Florida foray, the half-brother to Trekking (Gone West), GSP-US, $104,769; and to Tantina (Distant View), MSW & GSP-Eng, was rated along near the back of the field to the far turn. He advanced on the turn, came wide into the lane and drove clear to a 1 1/2-length victory as the 3-2 chalk. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, $22,980.

SUNDAY'S INSIGHTS

Yesterday's Results:

7th-FGX, $37,000, Msw, 2yo, a5 1/2fT, 1:04 1/5, fm. GREAT MILLS (c, 2, War Front--Oriental Glitter, by Glitterman) attended a moderate pace in his one-mile debut over the Stall-Wilson turf course Nov. 28 and remained in contention well into the final quarter-mile before drifting back through the field to finish 10th of 11. Shortening up to one turn in an attempt to become the 19th first-crop winner for his sire (by Danzig), the Ro Parra homebred was dismissed at a juicy 9-1 on the tote. Outsprinted and second to the debuting 3-2 favorite Yankee Gone South (Yankee Gentleman), Great Mills collared that one at the quarter pole, dueled to midstretch and edged clear in the final stages to score by 2 3/4 lengths. Great Mills was acquired in utero for $40,000 at KEENOV in 2007. Oriental Glitter has a yearling colt by Millennium Kentucky stallion Will He Shine (Silver Deputy) and a weanling filly by the farm's Student Council (Kingmambo). The mare was bred in 2010 to Chatain (Forest Wildcat), who stands at Millennium's Moon Lake division in Louisiana. Sales history: $2,500 RNA yr1 '09 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $22,200. Alysweep to Indiana Stallion Station:

Alysweep (End Sweep--Chronicler, by Alysheba), winner of the 2003 GIII Gotham S., will stand the 2011 breeding season at Indiana Stallion Station in Anderson, IN. The 10-year-old will be available for $1,000, live foal, and is the property of RisenStorm Thoroughbreds. There will be an Alysweep Incentive Program for breeders of his offspring.

IT'S ME MOM (Put It Back) is easily the most accomplished member of this group as she tries a conventional dirt surface for the first time in her career. The chestnut made five starts this summer and fall at Presque Isle Downs, winning her last three by a combined 16 1/2 lengths, including a front-running score in the PID Debutante S. Sept. 25. Any fears over the surface switch must have been allayed by a bullet half in :47 (1/42) Dec. 27. brisnet.com pps

South Florida raider MANICERO (Mass Media) looks to run his winning streak to three Sunday afternoon. Owned by Leo Azpurua Sr. and trained by his son Leo Jr., the dark bay drilled Calder maidens by 7 3/4 lengths Oct. 30 and came back on two weeks' rest to dismantle the field by 8 1/4 lengths in the Jack Price Juvenile S. for Florida-breds Nov. 13. Bert B Don (Harlan's Holiday) looks dangerous off his New York form, including a dominating 6 1/4-length win in starter-allowance company Nov. 26. Joe Bravo, who broke the colt's maiden at Monmouth Oct. 23, has the return call. brisnet.com pps

This race shapes up as a pointer to the future, with several promising firsters signed on, but George Bolton and Fog City Stable's THE FACTOR (War Front) is strictly the one to down. The $250k sales-topper at Barretts' May Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training was bet down to 70 cents on the dollar for his 6 1/2-furlong debut at Hollywood Nov. 28, but found himself in front of just one rival entering the final furlong and stayed on into fourth. The grey worked a bullet three-eighths in :36 1/5 Thursday morning. Of the debuters, Jay Em Ess Stable's homebred Hope and Believe (Forestry) seems primed for a strong effort. A half-brother to GISP Believe in Hope (Thunder Gulch) from a productive female family, the bay capped his tab with a bullet five-eighths from the gate in :58 2/5 at Hollypark Dec. 13. Cook Inlet (Candy Ride {Arg}) goes postward for John Sadler, who is well-stocked with this sire's progeny. The Wygod runner went six panels in a race-like 1:12 3/5 Dec. 13 and blew out a half in :48 Thursday, best of 10 at the distance and better than stablemates Twirling Candy and Sidney's Candy. PRATESI (Unbridled's Song) gets her career started for Don Adam's Courtlandt Farms, which acquired the filly's dam, MGSW Saudi Poetry (Storm Cat), for $2 million at KEENOV in 2005. Her works have been steady for the Neil Howard barn, which doesn't excel with first-time starters, but is off to a fast start at this meet. brisnet.com pps

TDN: Fully functional on your iPad

Reading the TDN on your iPad, but can't get the links to connect? We can help! Because Apple does not support Adobe products (PDF, Flash, etc.) you will need an App that allows for full functionality of your PDF. While the paper will open in Safari, the hyperlinks will not work. To ensure that they do, please follow the steps below.

Let's Get Started...

Go to the App Store, and purchase iAnnotate PDF ($9.99)

Open the program by clicking the down arrow in the upper left corner, and choose Web Downloads. →

The program automatically opens Google. In the browser line, X that out, and type in www.thetdn.com.

Enter your user ID and password*

Wait for the paper to download. It will not open automatically, but will be stored in your iAnnotate filing cabinet.

Once the paper has downloaded, click the X in the upper right corner to close the TDN home page and return to the main iAnnotate screen.

Your new TDN will be the last item in there.

Click on it and it will open. To use the links, double click (not single) and they will link correctly.
