ZARKAVA PRODUCES SEA THE STARS COLT

The Aga Khan's Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar--Zarkasha {Ire}, by Kahyasi {Ire}), unbeaten winner of the 2008 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, produced a colt by 2009 Arc winner Sea the Stars (Ire) last Friday at Haras de Bonneval. "He is a strong colt who looks like his sire and is very correct," reported Georges Rimaud, French manager of the Aga Khan Studs. "It was a straightforward foaling and both the mare and foal are fine." Zarkava produced a filly by another Arc winner, Dalakhani (Ire), last year.

THE FACTOR DRILLS FOR SAN VICENTE

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ The Factor (War Front), who zipped to a track-record setting maiden win at Santa Anita Dec. 26, will likely make his next start in Sunday's GII San Vicente S. after working seven furlongs at Hollywood Park yesterday in 1:24.40. "Right now, he looks good," trainer Bob Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "The way he looks right now, he'd run unless something changes my mind." Also expected to start in the San Vicente are Zayat Stable's Jaycito (Victory Gallop), Indian Winter (Indian Charlie), City Cool (City Zip), Metropolitan Man (Hook and Ladder), Premier Pegasus (Fusaichi Pegasus), Oakcrest Drive (Arch), Surrey Star (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Sway Away (Afleet Alex).

10 ENTERED IN RISEN STAR

A field of 10 was entered yesterday for Saturday's GII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds. Trainer Neil Howard will saddle the intriguing Machen (Distorted Humor). The Courtlandt Farm homebred and ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ is making his stakes debut after a pair of romping victories over the local oval in January. The chestnut colt worked five furlongs yesterday in 1:01.80 and breaks from post six Saturday. Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) ships in from Florida off a fourth-place effort in the Jan. 30 GIII Holy Bull S. With blinkers off for the Risen Star, the bay colt will break from post five. Catesby Clay's Rogue Romance (Smarty Jones) drew the rail in the 1 1/16-mile event. The chestnut captured last year's GIII Bourbon S. over the Keeneland lawn and makes his first start since running third in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in his first dirt try.

SOUTHWEST HOPEFULS WORK Grade I winner J P's Gusto (Successful Appeal) turned in his first work for new trainer Joe Petalino yesterday at Oaklawn Park, going six furlongs in 1:15.60. The bay colt is expected to make his sophomore debut in next Monday's GIII Southwest S. "I think he handled the surface very well," Petalino told Daily Racing Form. "We didn't ask him to do much." Also possible for the Southwest, Elite Alex (Afleet Alex) worked seven furlongs from the gate Monday at Oaklawn in 1:27. Calvin Borel was aboard for the work. "It was pretty impressive," trainer Tim Ritchey told DRF after the drill. "He did everything we wanted him to do." Elite Alex, a debut winner at Delaware last July, was a narrowly beaten runner-up in his return to action in a Jan. 15 one-mile allowance last time out.

RACETRACK Round-Up

KINSALE KING RETURNS THURSDAY Kinsale King (Yankee Victor) will prep for a defense of his G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen title in Thursday's third race at Golden Gate. The six-year-old was last seen finishing seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Nov. 6. "Kinsale King is doing great," trainer Carl O'Callaghan reported yesterday. "I opted to run him rather than work him between races like last year as he needs a race to get back to where he was this time last year. Last year, he weighed 1180 pounds and right now he is 1220, so we're not doing too bad."

Thursday's race, a six-furlong allowance over the Tapeta surface, attracted a field of five older horses.

Kinsale King M Marten

"It's a small field, but they are all runners," O'Callaghan continued. "We missed some works due to bad weather in January, so I'm playing catch-up a little bit, but we're still safe with six weeks away from Dubai. Does he have to win? No, but it would be nice. I just need a good race under his belt before we leave on Mar. 15." Mike Smith will be aboard for the first time. Also entered for Thursday's race is MGSP Paul's Hope (Lake Austin), and stakes winners Posse Power (Posse), Dream Nettie (Dixie Union) and Shudacudawudya (Marino Marini). The Golden Shaheen will be run at Meydan Mar. 26.

Just over three years ago, I commented in these pages that "it was surely never going to be easy for Airdrie Stud to find a horse capable of filling the shoes of Silver Hawk, so long the stalwart of the stud's stallion team. After all, 2007 saw this son of Roberto represented by his 15th individual Grade I winner..."

"However, Airdrie has every reason for hoping that its difficult mission has been accomplished. Thanks to Into Mischief's victory in the Cashcall Futurity, Harlan's Holiday has a Grade I-winning juvenile among his first runners....Into Mischief's efforts--along with those of such as Bear Holiday (Colin S.), Tasha's Miracle (Gill Sorrento S.), P.S.U. Grad, Harlan's Song and Riley Tucker--have propelled Harlan's Holiday into second place on a freshman sires' list which features three Airdrie stallions among the top 12."

Nothing in the intervening years has suggested that this was a false dawn for Harlan's Holiday. Indeed, he has proved so successful and so popular that WinStar Farm stepped in to acquire a significant interest in the then-11-year-old stallion towards the end of 2010. As a result, Harlan's Holiday has moved a few miles down the road to Pisgah Pike, leaving Airdrie to attempt to work the magic once again with Harlan's Holiday's son Majesticperfection. This blazingly fast performer is currently starting his stallion career at a fee of $10,000--a similar level, I suppose, to the $17,500 at which Harlan's Holiday started out in a more buoyant market in 2004.

Although Harlan's Holiday is no longer at Airdrie, Airdrie supremo Brereton C. Jones is still reaping the benefits, as his colors are carried by Silver Reunion. This mare became the ninth graded winner from Harlan's Holiday's first three crops when she won the Gill Endeavour S. three days ago and--appropriately--she is out of a daughter of Silver Hawk. Also out of a Silver Hawk mare is Badge of Silver, another young member of the Airdrie stallion team who was represented by his first graded winner when Silver Medallion recently won the Gill El Camino Real Derby.

Silver Reunion's dam Silver Comic wasn't any old daughter of Silver Hawk. She won the GII Mrs. Revere S. over 1 1/16 miles on turf for owner-breeder Brere Jones in 1999, a year after Jones had enjoyed one of the biggest coups of his career with Silver Comic's dam Now That's Funny.

This winning daughter of Saratoga Six went through the sales ring three times during the 1990s. On the first occasion, she sold for $27,000 as a five-year-old in 1991, in foal to Tejabo. Twenty-two months later she changed hands for only $19,500 and the Fast Play colt she was carrying was bred by the Airdrie Partnership. The mare produced foals by Red Ransom, Silver Hawk and Blush Rambler for Jones before he decided to cash in his chips at Keeneland's 1998 November Sale, when Now That's Funny--this time in foal to none other than Storm Cat--sold for $2,650,000, the year's third-highest price for a broodmare.

The explanation for this extraordinary rise in Now That's Funny's fortunes is that her first three foals had all become stakes winners. Her Fast Play colt, Lucayan Prince, was good enough to win the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot in 1996, before excelling himself in finishing second to the champion sprinter Anabaa in the G1 July Cup. Now That's Funny's Red Ransom colt, Comic Strip, also won at group/graded level, including the GIII Louisiana Derby in 1998.

Silver Comic therefore became her dam's third consecutive graded winner when she took the Mrs. Revere S. in 1999. Although Now That's Funny's purchasers recouped much of their outlay with her next three foals, Jones undoubtedly sold at the right time, as none of Now That's Funny's subsequent foals has earned black type.

Silver Comic's broodmare career underlines the extent to which Jones is prepared to support his stallions. Although she has ventured away from Airdrie to visit Maria's Mon and Mr. Greeley, her other foals have been by Siphon, Forest Camp (two), Harlan's Holiday (two) and Istan. Her second Harlan's Holiday sold for $290,000 as a weanling at Fasig-Tipton last year.

NEW FOR 2011 • Fee: $10,000

Silver Reunion's Grade III success means that her first four dams have all produced at least one group/graded winner. Now That's Funny's half-sister Tropicaro won the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at two in France, their dam being Tropical Cream, a winner of the G3 Prix Cleopatre over 1 5/16 miles. Silver Reunion's fourth dam Tropic Star won the Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh and the Cheshire Oaks, so her female line is certainly good enough to justify Jones's hopes that she could eventually develop into a Breeders' Cup contender.

Tropic Star also bred Dusk, an unraced Olden Times mare who became the dam of Johnny D (GI Washington D.C. International) and second dam of Urgent Request (GI Santa Anita H.).

To return to Harlan's Holiday, he has made a bright start to 2011. In addition to Silver Reunion's win over the weekend, his three-year-old daughter Dynamic Holiday followed up her Tropical Park Oaks success with another in the Florida Oaks. We have also seen the smart four-year-old Mendip take his record to four wins from his first five starts with a victory in the G3 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1. There have also been stakes wins for Twinspired and Wicked Deed, and--as the Feb. 11 TDN detailed--there are high hopes for his three-year-old son Willcox Inn. Cont. p6

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Despite this string of success, there's good reason for thinking that the best is yet to come for Harlan's Holiday. His 2011 juveniles are from his fifth crop, which was sired at an increased fee of $25,000 following the eye-catching success of his first crop in 2007. His fee rose again in 2009, despite the falling market, this time to $30,000. He has covered more than 160 mares in each of the last two years, but it hasn't been a case of quantity at the expense of quality.

According to Robert Hammond, director of bloodstock and stallion seasons at WinStar "when we studied his recent books of mares, we not only found him to be very popular with the breeders, but the quality of mares was the best he has ever had."

Jockeys Uninjured in Aqueduct Spill:

(Edited press release) Initial X-rays were negative on apprentice jockeys Charlie Amaro and Brian Pedroza after a spill in the ninth race Sunday at Aqueduct Race-track, according to NYRA's jockey advocate. Following the incident, both riders were taken by ambulance to Jamaica Hospital for further evaluation. According to the advocate, the X-rays would be reviewed again Monday. Neither jockey remained in the hospital overnight, and the advocate said Amaro hoped to be riding again by Wednesday, while Pedroza planned to take at least two weeks off. Jockeys Abel Lezcano and Nazario Alvarado, also involved in the spill, walked off the track and were not hospitalized. In the race, a six-furlong maiden claiming event, Honor Ernesto fell while leading the field on the far turn, unseating Amaro. Trinity Warrior, ridden by Lezcano, Soft Parade, ridden by Alvarado, and Rightuplynn'salley, ridden by Pedroza, unseated their jockeys while trying to avoid the fallen horse. Trinity Warrior, Rightuplynn'salley and Soft Parade appeared to be uninjured. Honor Ernesto suffered fractures in both front legs and had to be euthanized.

Oaklawn Announces Purse Increase:

Oaklawn Park, in conjunction with the Arkansas Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the Arkansas Racing Commission, has announced an immediate purse increase of approximately $10,000 per day and the addition of a race day on Apr. 13. "We are very pleased that Oaklawn has taken these steps," said Bill Walmsley, president of the Arkansas HBPA. "The horsemen recognized the difficulties Oaklawn has faced because of the inclement weather. We think they have taken significant steps in giving the horsemen additional opportunities to race and we commend them for that." The purse increase is for overnight races only. Purses will be increased a minimum of $500 for claiming races and a minimum of $2,000 for non-claiming races.

The bay was switched to the sod for an optional claimer Jan. 24, and was a decent third behind well-regarded Great Mills (War Front). Getaway Guy did just that this time while adding the hood. The 7-2 shot quickly assumed command and set uncontested splits of :22.53 and :46.89, built up an insurmountable edge turning for home and cruised to the line a 4 3/4-length victor over odds-on Close Ally (Giant's Causeway). ALBERGATTI (Unbridled's Song)

Word on the Street...

Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stable has a credible Triple Crown prospect in last year's GIII Iroquois S. hero Astrology (A.P. Indy), but added another dimension to its three-year-old roster when Albergatti (Unbridled's Song) registered a stylish maiden victory at Santa Anita over the weekend. In his debut Jan. 16, Albergatti attended fierce opening splits of :21 3/5 and :43 3/5 and fought gamely to the wire, only to fall 3/4 lengths short of the well-regarded Da Ruler (Roman Ruler). Sent off the 1-2 choice in a seven-furlong maiden Saturday, Albergatti came through with a nice effort. He raced up to assume control through :22 1/5 and :44 2/5 splits, then turned back the game challenge of firster Chico d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) to win by 1 1/2 lengths under Garrett Gomez. Stonestreet owns Albergatti--named after a friend of Jackson's--with Natrona Racing Stable. Steve Asmussen trains.

That Albergatti is as fleet as he is should be no surprise, given the fact that he's the first foal from My Miss Storm Cat (Sea of Secrets), who had as much natural speed as any Californian filly in recent memory. Owned by the late Ed Friendly and trained by Bob Baffert, My Miss Storm Cat aired by 10 lengths in a five-furlong maiden special at Hollywood Park in June of 2004 in her two-year-old debut. Third as the 2-5 choice in the GIII Landaluce S. a month later, My Miss Storm Cat then went to the sidelines for an extended 13-month absence. She beat five-time stakes winner Selvatica (Forestry) by six lengths in her return to the races in August of 2006, but then was badly beaten herself over a wet-fast track as a 5-1 chance in Pussy-cat Doll (Real Quiet)'s GI La Brea S. cont. p4

My Miss Storm Cat made three more starts at four, winning each easily. Optional claiming victories bookended a comprehensive victory over subsequent sprint champion Maryfield (Elusive Quality) in the '06 Desert Stormer H., and she was retired at the end of the season with a record of 7-5-0-1, $190,026.

Put through the 2007 Keeneland November Sale carrying Albergatti, My Miss Storm Cat attracted uncommon interest for a mare whose biggest accomplishment was a listed stakes win and who possessed a modest pedigree. Among her suitors was Stonestreet representative John Moynihan, who was plenty familiar with the filly--he'd purchased her as a yearling for Friendly for $70,000. Moynihan would have to do better than that this time around, and he did--securing My Miss Storm Cat for Jackson for $925,000.

"I thought maybe she wouldn't bring that much, but even though she didn't have a graded stakes on her resume, people who had seen her run knew how fast she was," Moynihan said Sunday. "I think she garnered a lot of attention because of that. But she's a gorgeous mare, and one who probably never realized her racing potential because she was plagued by some quarter crack issues and things like that. But every time we got her to the racetrack, she always performed extremely well. I want to say she ran a 100 Beyer Speed Figure in June of her two-year-old year. Horses just don't do that in June. She was amazingly talented."

My Miss Storm Cat's second foal is a filly by Smart Strike who sold to George Bolton last year at September for $550,000. She produced a Mr. Greeley colt last spring, is due to foal to Distorted Humor presently and is booked to Tiznow for 2011.

Stonestreet has built up a formidable broodmare band in recent years and typically offers its yearlings at auction. Albergatti, however, is one who didn't go under the hammer.

"He had a setback right before the yearling sale, and we were unable to sell him," Moynihan explained. "We usually offer all our horses, but we just couldn't take him to sale."

The blessing isn't wearing much of a disguise these days. Fast track or not, Albergatti's winning time on Saturday, 1:20 3/5, was impressive, and he earned a solid 90 Beyer, matching the figure he received in his debut.

"We really thought he was a horse who'd win first time out, but it was a little short that day," Moynihan said of Albergatti's 6 1/2-furlong opener. "But he ran great. [Saturday's] race was seven-eighths, and that's probably not going to be his game, and that he can win doing that is extremely impressive." cont. p5

Moynihan said he expects Albergatti, despite being out of such a fast mare, to excel around two turns.

"That's what he looks like, and that's certainly what we're hoping for," he said. "He looks a lot like Unbridled's Song himself, much more so than the dam's sire line of Storm Cat. I remember Unbridled's Song as a two-year-old, and this horse looks a lot like him."

Moynihan added that he was unsure if the colt would jump directly into stakes competition or instead go the allowance route. "That's up to Jess and Barbara [Banke, Jackson's wife] and Steve, but we have high hopes for the horse. We're looking for bigger and better things."

Stonestreet's other big gun, Astrology, is expected to race in the next month or so. That nicely bred colt, another Stonestreet homebred, had To Honor And Serve (Bernardini) and Saturday's GII Robert B. Lewis S. winner Anthony's Cross (Indian Charlie) behind him in a two-length maiden win a Saratoga in August before winning the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill two starts later. He concluded his season with a close-up second in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. in late November. Now part of Asmussen's West Coast string, he has a pair of easy four-furlong moves at Santa Anita under him.

"Astrology will probably make his first start back in 30 to 45 days," said Moynihan. "We're hopeful he can get to the big race. It won't take him long to get back going because he's got such a great foundation under him as a two-year-old."

Unlike Albergatti, Astrology was offered as a yearling, but Stonestreet bought the colt back for $285,000. "We believe in what we produce," said Moynihan. "Horses like Astrology, we'll put what we think our fair reserves on them. We hope they sell and other people can have some fun with them. But if it gets to the point where a horse we raised and love doesn't meet the expectations of the market, we're happy to race what we produce."

One colt that Stonestreet didn't breed, but who wears the stable's yellow and maroon colors, is Brock (Distorted Humor), the top-priced two-year-old in training last year as a $2.3 million FTFFEB grad. Brock debuted at Saratoga last August, but never really factored and came home eighth to Stay Thirsty (Bernardini).

"He's doing well. He's just taken a while to come around," said Moynihan. "Horses by Distorted Humor don't usually run early, and some of the horses in front of him have turned out to be okay." Brock is also part of Asmussen's California stable.

Moynihan confirmed that he'll be attending this year's two-year-old sales, too. "We'll always look for horses we feel are special horses, and we'll shop around and see what we can find," he said. -LM
