BRETHREN OUTSIDE IN UPGRADED DERBY

With Eclipse Award winner Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) ticketed for Saturday's Timely Writer overnight stakes over Gulfstream's one-turn mile, WinStar Farm's Brethren (Distorted Humor) is the star attraction in Saturday's Tampa Bay Derby, upgraded to Grade II for the first time in its history. As he did in his GIII Sam F. Davis S. success, the half-brother to reigning GI Kentucky Derby hero Super Saver (Maria's Mon) will leave from the outside post in what is expected to be a field of nine at post time. Super Saver made his three-year-old debut in last year's Tampa Bay Derby, finishing a half-length back in third as the 3-2 favorite. "I'm glad we won't be faced with making a decision that would ultimately have fallen on WinStar if both horses went to Tampa," Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "I needed to get Uncle Mo started this weekend for everything to fall in place. I have to do what's best for both individual horses, and in this case everything has worked out best for both of them."

Brethren

EquiSport

Saturday, Tampa Bay Downs, post time: 5:20 p.m. EDT

OBS MARCH BREEZE SHOW POSTPONED

The first breeze show for the upcoming OBS March Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale has been postponed until Friday due to forecasted rain and high winds Thursday. Hips 1-244 will breeze Friday, Mar. 11 and Hips 245-490 will work Saturday, Mar. 12. Both breeze shows begin at 8:00 a.m. The March Sale is slated for Tuesday and Wednesday, March 15 & 16 with each session beginning at 11 a.m. "With ideal weather forecast for Friday and Saturday, we had time built in for the change," OBS General Manager Tom Ventura offered. "Buyers will be able to view the horses under similar conditions each day."

BLIND LUCK PASSES ON SANTA MARGARITA

Champion three-year-old filly Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) was not among the entries for Saturday's featured event and will instead make her next appearance in the $150,000 GIII Azeri S. at Oaklawn Park Mar. 19. "We want to point for the [GI] Apple Blossom [Apr. 15]," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer told Daily Racing Form. "They've added $50,000 to the purse for the Azeri. Our filly runs okay at Santa Anita, but she doesn't seem to particularly like it at this meeting." Santa Margarita field. p4

SALES NEWS

TATTERSALLS AMENDS SALE DATES

(edited press release)

Tattersalls is to make changes to the published dates for this year's October Yearling Sale with the three day Book 1 now set to begin Wednesday Oct. 5, followed by the three-day Book 2 commencing Tuesday Oct. 11. Book 3 will take place Friday Oct. 14 and, if numbers require, there will be a Book 4 which will take place Friday Oct. 28, the day after the conclusion of the Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale. Commenting on the changes, Tattersalls' chairman Edmond Mahony said, "The changes are made on the assumption that our October yearling numbers reflect the smaller British and Irish foal crop. We looked long and hard at making these changes last year but the huge numbers precluded any room for manoeuvre. The reduced foal crop and the reintroduction of a Book 4 if required, allow these minor changes which will make the two weeks of the October Yearling Sale tighter and easier to work for both purchasers and vendors. The new dates will also mean that Book 1 concludes on the eve of 'Future Champions Day' at Newmarket which will allow people to attend what promises to be an outstanding day of racing at Newmarket before beginning to inspect the Book 2 yearlings in earnest on the Sunday. The two weeks surrounding Books 1, 2 and 3 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale should prove to be a wonderful climax to the European racing calendar. Oct. 1 is Tattersalls Millions day at Newmarket, the [G1 Prix de l'] Arc [de Triomphe] takes place the next day and Europe's premier yearling sale begins three days later. 'Future Champions Day' then leads neatly into Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale and this golden fortnight culminates at Ascot with 'British Champions Day.'"

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale (revised dates):

Oct. 5-7 - Book 1 (featuring the Tattersalls Millions)

Oct. 11-13 - Book 2

Oct. 14 - Book 3

Oct. 28 - Book 4

JONES RESIGNS AS KEEP CHAIRMAN Former Kentucky Governor and Airdrie Stud owner Brereton Jones has left his post as chairman of the Kentucky Equine Education Project. Jones helped form the lobbying organization, which is committed to educating the public to the economic importance of all breeds of the horse industry, seven years ago. "Quite frankly, there comes a time when most people have had about as much political involvement as they care to have, and I believe that I've reached that point," Jones told TDN. "But make no mistake, I deeply love the horse industry at every level and will always stand willingly to help work and fight for its success. I think after seven years, it would be helpful to have some new thoughts and ideas from a new chairman." Jones still sees room for growth in KEEP, which has expanded to 15,000-plus members since its inception. "I think it's an exceptionally strong growth cycle, but we're a state of roughly four million people," Jones continued. "It's still in the process of growing. We've got a ways to go to reach our goal of totally educating the entire state and the political structure as to what needs to be done, but we're making very good progress." It will be left to the 36-member KEEP board to find Jones's replacement; Bill Casner currently serves as vice chairman. "He's extremely committed to finding the right person," Jones concluded.

NINA FEVER (f, 3, Borrego--Impact Now, by Major Impact) finished fifth in a pair of graded stakes last year before winning by daylight when thrown in for a $40,000 tag at Monmouth in September. The winner of her next three starts--most recently a Keeneland allowance Oct. 16--she returned to finish a close-up second in the seven-furlong Glorious Song S. over Woodbine's Polytrack Nov. 14. Seventh in her seasonal finale in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 11, the filly kicked off her current campaign with a distant third over the yielding turf in the Jan. 27 Sweetest Chant S. Up to mix things up with favorite Classical Chant (War Chant) in the opening quarter, Nina Fever settled back in third after a half in :43.35. On the heels of the leader turning for home, she battled past that foe late and had enough in the tank to hand closer War for Gus (War Front) a 3/4-length defeat over the boys. Classical Chant held on for third. Nina Fever is expected to contest Woodbine's Apr. 9 Star Shoot S. Sales history: $40,000 wlng '08 KEENOV; $32,000 yrl '09 KEESEP. Lawsuit Challenging NJ Sports Betting Ban Thrown Out:

A federal district judge has thrown out a lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of a 1992 law banning most states from offering betting on sports, reports Northjersey.com. The suit was filed by New Jersey state senator Ray Lesniak, among others, but Judge Garrett Brown Jr. found under New Jersey law that Lesniak and the other parties have no standing to bring such a lawsuit. "The proper party to bring such a claim would be New Jersey's attorney general, but the governor and attorney general have not intervened in this lawsuit," Brown wrote. Lesniak, himself an attorney, told Northjersey.com that in his mind the "door was left open" for a new suit should New Jersey bettors approve a November referendum to permit sports betting at Atlantic City casinos and the state's racetracks. Owing to a grandfather clause to the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act of 1992, only Nevada, Delaware, Oregon and Montana are allowed to offer betting on sports.

Arienza Possible for Prima Donna:

Robert and Lawana Low's Arienza (Giant's Causeway), an impressive maiden winner at first asking at Oaklawn Park Mar. 6, was "kicking and playing" Wednesday and could make the jump into stakes company for the Mar. 26 Prima Donna S. at the Hot Springs oval, trainer Dan Peitz confirmed. "I am unsure what her next start will be," said Peitz. "If a non-winners of two would fill against her, that would likely be the right spot. However, we haven't dismissed the Prima Donna. Running a filly who has just broken her maiden back in a stakes is asking a lot, but Arienza is a special filly." The daughter of four-time champion Azeri (Jade Hunter) cost the Lows $800,000 as a KEESEP yearling in 2009. In Sunday's debut, she attended a strong pace and stayed on very well for a 2 1/2-length victory. She earned a Beyer Speed Figure of 83.

INDUSTRY INFO

Equibase Racing Yearbook Available on iPhone, Android:
(Edited Press Release) Equibase Company unveiled the 2011 edition of the Equibase Racing Yearbook application (app), which is now available for iPhones as well as smartphones running the Android operating system, it was announced yesterday by Equibase President and COO Hank Zeitlin. "The 2010 iPhone Yearbook app was enthusiastically embraced after its introduction in September last year, consistently ranking among the top 10% of all free sports apps in the iTunes store," said Zeitlin. "In fact, at one point it rose to number 11 and was rated one of the 100 Essential Apps of 2010 (out of more than 300,000 apps) by iLounge, an independent reviewer of Apple products. We are confident that both iPhone and Android users will look upon the 2011 Yearbook with equal or more enthusiasm, enhancing their enjoyment of our sport." The 2011 Equibase Racing Yearbook app can be downloaded free at itunes.com and the Android Marketplace. It features video replays provided by Post Time Technologies (posttimetech.com), results, pari-mutuel payoffs, and full charts of all 2011 graded stakes races as well as ungraded prep races for the Triple Crown and Breeders' Cup. Users can search the app by race name, horse, jockey, trainer or racetrack. "Post Time Technologies is dedicated to working with Equibase on projects that promote racing, such as the Equibase Racing Yearbook," said Hardave Gill, president of Post Time Technologies. "The app presents racing's best races and biggest stars in an attractive package to all iPhone and Android users." A web version of the Equibase Racing Yearbook is available at equibase.com. The Equibase Racing Yearbook app was developed by The Jockey Club Technology Services Inc., which also developed Equibase's mobile website, where fans can access entries, results, carryovers, scratches and changes that have been optimized for smartphone use.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

INDUSTRY INVESTMENT INCENTIVES

Congress passed legislation that offers members of the Thoroughbred industry significant investment incentives for 2010 and 2011:

Increased Bonus Depreciation

- 100% bonus depreciation in place
- Applies to horses, farm equipment and most other depreciable property
- Property must be placed in service after 9/8/2010 and through 12/31/2011
- Property must be new - its original use must commence with taxpayer
- Rate reverts to 50% for 2012

Small-Business Expense Allowance

- Expense allowance for horses, farm equipment and most other depreciable property is $500,000 for 2011 (and 2010)
- Property must be placed in service in year purchased
- Applies to new or used property
- Expense allowance is reduced by one dollar for each dollar of eligible property purchased that exceeds $2 million

AUSTRALASIA

NSW PREMIER PLEDGES FUNDS FOR RACING

New South Wales Premier Kristina Keneally may be up against it in the upcoming state elections Mar. 26, but the Labor Party representative was at Sydney's Royal Randwick Tuesday to pledge A$5 million to promote local racing, according to published reports. Keneally was accompanied by trainer Gai Waterhouse during her appearance during trackwork. "There's no doubt that Australians love a good race," she told Australia Associated Press. "And there's no doubt that racegoers love a good event...this is about giving those communities access to funding for infrastructure, as well as for promoting their events." The boost is in addition to the A$174-million government investment in racecourse facilities, which is expected to include a renovation of Randwick and Rosehill. Keneally asserted that her state's racing industry employs approximately 50,000 people, and has a A$1-billion impact on the economy.

MIKE PEGRAM:

An Uncommon
Common Man

February 2011

As he walks around the casino floor at the Carson Valley Inn, Mike Pegram looks and acts like just another customer -- someone ready to play a few hands at the tables, hoping his luck and his money hold out long enough so that he can enjoy a couple of Coors Lights on the house. Or maybe he's heading to the coffee shop, where you can get an awfully good meal for $7.99. He's dressed as he's always dressed, in jeans and a comfortable shirt off the rack at Sears, or some place like that. A couple of times he stops to chat with someone. Always with a smile on his face, he seems to know everyone in the place and everyone knows him. Never is he Mr. Pegram. Always just Mike. That's what you see on the outside, the cover to the book on Pegram. Don't let him fool you....
