PLENTY OF APPEAL IN SUNLAND DERBY

Twice the Appeal (Successful Appeal) was let go at generous odds of 25-1 to record his first win at the graded level. However, despite the lack of backing by the betting public, the Edward J Brown Jr, Victor Flores and Henry Hernandez representative put forth his career best effort to land Sunday's $800,000 GIII Sunland Derby at Sunland Park. Installed the 2-1 favorite, SP Sinai (Rockport Harbor) moved to the front early and set opening splits of :22.61, :45.03 and 1:10.89, while Twice the Appeal was allowed to settle in a stalking sixth. George and Lori Hall's Nacho Saint (Yes It's True) mounted a brief bid approaching the stretch, but soon gave way as Astrology (A.P. Indy) closed from behind. In the final sixteenth, Astrology gave it all he had but had to yield to the oncoming Twice the Appeal, who drew clear to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler), the second half of the Kelly Breen/Hall entry, closed well and just missed gaining the runner-up spot. Favored Sinai faded to last.

Coady Photo

Twice the Appeal, who had hit the board in his sole attempt on the dirt at Fairplex last September, needed seven tries to get the monkey off his back, but finally recorded the feat when pitted against $30,000 maidens at Santa Anita Dec. 29. Brought back in open company at the Arcadia oval Jan. 14, the dark bay ran off to a 4 3/4-length victory. Well backed in his most recent start in his first swing at black-type in the Turf Paradise Derby Feb. 26, the $35,000 Barretts May juvenile purchase crossed the wire in second, but was later demoted to fourth for interference in the stretch.

'DUNBOYNE' ROLLS IN 2000 GUINEAS TRIAL

Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) suffered his only defeat when fifth in the Oct. 23 G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster last time, but bounced back in style to take his sophomore debut in Sunday's G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial S. Settled last of the three runners until turning for home, he quickened to the fore approaching the final eighth and ran on strongly in the closing stages to resume winning ways in comfortable fashion over Coolmore representative Exodus (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). PLETCHER TROUPE WORK SUNDAY Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie), winner of the Mar. 12 Timely Writer S. at Gulfstream, went to the track Sunday morning at Palm Meadows as trainer Todd Pletcher continues to prepare the Repole Stable sophomore for his upcoming engagement in the Apr. 9 GI Wood Memorial. The 2010 juvenile champion and likely Kentucky Derby favorite, who was accompanied by a couple of workmates, completed a half-mile in :49 2/5. The time was the 26th fastest of 55 recorded at the distance yesterday. "I thought he worked extremely well," said Pletcher. "He was full of run throughout. We were just putting him behind a couple of horses, getting him used to a little dirt, which we did once with him as a 2-year-old. It was just a maintenance move, outside of that." Also with Classic aspirations, E. Paul Robsham Stable's 3-year-old filly R Heat Lightning (Trippi) drilled a 'bullet' half-mile in :47 3/4. The winner of last season's GI Spinaway S., who triumphed most recently in the GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 26, is expected to be the likely favorite in Saturday's GII Gulfstream Park Oaks.

Trainer Kevin Prendergast had indicated beforehand that his charge would benefit for the race and explained to irishracing.com, "That was a satisfactory performance and he did it well. It would have been nice if the other horse [Cocozza] had run, but that wasn't to be though. The run should bring him on a good bit, and the run of Master of Hounds yesterday was no harm."

Soon into the lead here, she dug in as the pack threatened in the straight to keep stable companion Wild Wind and the eye-catching closer History Note at bay. "Joseph [O'Brien] always loved her and had confidence in her, and she always worked like a really good filly at home," Aidan O'Brien said. "She had been working lovely throughout the spring, and he gave her a lovely ride, as he knew what she was able to do. She is a filly to look forward to and is in the G1 1000 Guineas [at Newmarket May 1]--she gets a mile real well."

SOLDAT & 'THIRSTY' READY FOR FLA DERBY

Soldat (War Front) made a strong impression during a five-furlong workout at Palm Meadows Sunday morning. The GII Fountain of Youth S. winner negotiated the distance in 1:00 4/5, the fifth fastest of 26 at the distance. "He worked great," said trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "He worked excellent and galloped out strong. We're happy with the work. It was perfect. He's just doing well." Also on yesterday's worktab, Stay Thirsty (Bernardini), victorious in the Mar. 5 GIII Gotham S., breezed five furlongs in 1:01 3/5 in company Sunday. Stay Thirsty's workout was the sixth fastest of 26 recorded at the distance. Trainer Todd Pletcher indicated he will likely make an equipment change for next Sunday's GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream. "He was a little green on the inside of another horse, and we're thinking of putting blinkers on him for the Florida Derby," Pletcher offered. "He was just a little intimidated with another horse kind of eyeballing him from the outside."

RACETRACK Round-Up

Life At Ten to Oaklawn?

Candy DeBartolo's Life At Ten (Malibu Moon), who breezed six furlongs in 1:16 2/5 at Palm Meadows Sunday, may make her next appearance in the $500,000 GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 15, according to trainer Todd Pletcher yesterday. It was the seventh workout for last year's winner of the GI Ogden Phipps H. and GI Beldame S. since being eased shortly after starting in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic Nov. 5.

O'Brien Outlines Plans; 'Hounds' to Ky Derby?

Aidan O'Brien yesterday issued a report on his leading charges who are set to reappear in the coming weeks, with Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) being pointed at the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup. Following his return fourth in Saturday's G1 Dubai World Cup, Jim and Fitri Hay and Coolmore's four-year-old could run in the 10-furlong contest at Kranji May 22. "[Travelling Head Lad] Pat [Keating] said that Cape Blanco had come out of the race well and he could go to Singapore. Although, if he misses that, he could run in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. [at Royal Ascot June 15]," the Ballydoyle conditioner said before revealing the rest of his thoughts on his squad. "Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) could go for the Listed Vintage Crop S. [at Navan Apr. 17], while St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) is a possible for the Listed Alleged S. [at The Curragh Apr. 3]," he said. "If we have a Kentucky Derby horse, Master of Hounds (Kingmambo) is it, and Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) goes straight to Newmarket for the [Apr. 30] G1 2000 Guineas."

Shoeless 'Man' Fine After LA Derby Defeat...

Reeves Thoroughbred Racing and Dream Team One Racing's Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), who threw a shoe at the start of Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby (video) en route to a solid third behind Pants on Fire (Jump Start), exited the race in good order. "We can't win every time," said his upbeat trainer Kathy Ritvo. "We'd like to, but we can't. We'll just put what happened yesterday down as a learning experience, but you would think that when a horse loses a shoe right out of the gate, it probably costs him two lengths, or at least one length. When I was watching the race, 'Macho' just didn't seem to be getting a good hold of the track the last part of it, and I couldn't figure out why. But then when one of the gate guys came up to me and gave me the shoe right after the race, it made a lot more sense to me. I didn't know about the shoe until then." Ritvo added, "The horse is doing fine this morning. I'm not discouraged at all. I don't see any reason right now that we can't go on and shoot for the Kentucky Derby with him."

DWC MEETING

Meydan Racecourse

Mar. 26, 2011

RECORD NUMBERS FOR DUBAI WORLD CUP

Edited press release

Meydan yesterday announced unprecedented record-breaking attendance numbers at the 16th Dubai World Cup held Saturday. As many as 81,164 guests thronged the Meydan Grandstand, eager to catch a glimpse of world-class racing, VIPs, celebrities and to enjoy a day filled with fashion, food, music and entertainment as the festivities lasted well past 2 a.m. Event highlights included nine mobile stages featuring over 150 performers, aerialists, a theatrical and fireworks spectacular and a world's first with three 100-tonne megastructures featuring the three bloodlines of the Darley Arabian, Godolphin Arabian, and Byerly Turk, of whom all modern Thoroughbreds descend from. Fashion took center stage, with guests dressed to the nines, and the hotly contested Jaguar Style Stakes fielded over 200 contestants vying for the best dressed honours including, for the very first time, the Best Dressed Man. Guests filled the apron views, grandstand suites, lounges and restaurants to capacity with fine dining and hospitality served in five-star style courtesy of The Meydan Hotel. Rounding up the evening were performances by international recording artist Jessie J and superstar DJ Seb Fontaine that kept partygoers on their feet till well into the early hours.

"[Saturday] proved more than ever, that Dubai World Cup is undoubtedly the Event of the Year in Dubai," said Saeed Humaid Al Tayer, chairman of the board and CEO of Meydan. "It unites a world that shares a common thread: the love of racing, sportsmanship and of championing humanity as we have seen [Saturday] night. The record attendance figures serves to re-affirm that Dubai World Cup is more than just a sporting event, but one with global stature and brand cache that continues to grow in international reputation. "We are lucky to have an excellent team in place who continue to share the same passion and vision in wanting to build upon what we have launched successfully last year. Meydan City will continue to deliver, not just as a centre of excellence for sports, business and lifestyle, but to continue its race in becoming a brand synonymous with architectural and property development excellence, and being a conduit of how the United Arab Emirates is increasingly being recognised as a global destination for investments, business, and leisure. As His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum has mentioned many times, success does not have a finishing line, and neither do we."

SANTA ANITA RETURNS TO FOUR-DAY WEEK

Santa Anita Park will return to a four-day race week beginning this Thursday, Mar. 31. The Arcadia oval will operate on a Thursday through Sunday schedule for the remainder of its winter/spring meeting, which concludes Apr. 17. "Our horse inventory here in Southern California is well below what it has been in recent years," said Santa Anita President George Haines. "Accordingly, we believe it is in everyone's best interest to return to a four-day week for the rest of the meet. We want to ensure that we're offering our fans a quality product and at this time, this is the best way to meet that objective. We're very confident that by running four days a week, we can offer the horseman plenty of opportunities to run and offer our fans fuller fields which provide more betting opportunities." First post time on all weekdays will be at 1 p.m. and weekend post time will be 12:30 p.m., with the exception of Santa Anita Derby Day Apr. 9, when first post will be at 12 noon.

El Kingdom had taken a few off-the-turf stakes races and hit the board in the GIII Spend a Buck H. at Calder last season, but had struggled this term, finishing 7th in an identical spot to this Jan. 22 and 9th last out on the sod Feb. 26. The 2009 OBSMAR topper set the pace through a half in :47.44 and refused to give up his edge. Heavily favored MGSP Convocation tried to sneak through inside of the eventual winner in the stretch, but could not fit through the seam and was forced to check hard. Pletcher and Dominguez Top Aqueduct's Inner Meet:

Edited Press Release

Jockey Ramon Dominguez and trainer Todd Pletcher repeated as the leaders of their respective divisions for Aqueduct's inner track meet, with Mike Repole's Repole Stable and Carl Lizza's Flying Zee Stables dead-heating as the meet's top owners. It was the fourth straight inner track crown for Dominguez, who won 112 races. Named the 2010 Eclipse Award winner for outstanding jockey, Dominguez has now captured 13 NYRA meet titles, including 12 of the last 13. David Cohen closed out the meet in strong fashion, winning nine races over the final three days and 82 races overall to be runner-up for the second straight year, with Cornelio Velasquez coming in third with 58 triumphs.

Pletcher, who received his fifth outstanding trainer trophy at the 2010 Eclipse Awards, won 37 races, en route to garnering his 24th NYRA meet title. "It's a great accomplishment and it shows what a great job [assistant] Jonathan [Thomas] and the whole staff has done," said Pletcher. "The other important thing is how we have an owner who wants to emphasize racing in New York year-round. Mike [Repole] has given us a lot of quality starts in the wintertime." Rudy Rodriguez was second with 31 victories, with third-place trainer Bruce Brown taking 27 races.

In the owners' race, Repole Stable maintained a 15-14 advantage following Overcommunication (Unbridled's Song)'s victory in Saturday's eighth race before Smooth Transition (Giant's Causeway) scored the equalizer for Flying Zee Stables in Sunday's opening event. Dominguez, Pletcher and Repole teamed up to win three of the meet's four graded stakes, annexing the GIII Toboggan H. and GIII Tom Fool H. with Calibrachoa (Southern Image) and the GIII Gotham S. with Stay Thirsty.

Oaklawn Park Approved for 56 Days in 2012:

Edited Press Release

The Arkansas Racing Commission voted unanimously Saturday to approve Oaklawn Park's request to race 56 days in 2012. The Hot Springs track, which concludes the 2011 meet Apr. 16, will open Friday, Jan. 13 and close Saturday, Apr. 14, 2012. As part of the 2012 schedule, Oaklawn will continue to run Thursdays through Sundays with a few exceptions. It will also run Monday, Jan. 16, Martin Luther King Day; Monday, Feb. 20, Presidents Day, and Wednesday, Apr. 11 as part of the Racing Festival of the South. The track will be dark Sunday, Apr. 8 in observance of Easter. Oaklawn had also been awarded 56 days in 2011, but was forced to cancel a record eight days early in the meet due to winter weather. To help make up some of the lost races, Oaklawn added Wednesday, Apr. 13 to this year's schedule.

Mar. 6. She was 1-2 for her much-anticipated return and initial route attempt. The $800,000 KEESEP yearling bounded to the lead and made all the running with little pressure from her closest foe through splits of :23.72 and :48.05. She was challenged briefly turning for home, but reclaimed her edge while racing a bit greenly into the lane and was ridden out under almost no encouragement to score by 2 1/2 lengths. Hidatsa (Proud Citizen) was second. "I told [rider Gabriel Saez] that if she runs like I hope she does to try and save a little in the tank in case we want to come back in two weeks [for the GII Fantasy S.],” said conditioner Danny Peitz. “He didn’t have to hit her and it looks like he tried to do that--to leave something in the tank.” Owner Lawana Low added, “We love her so much. Former claimer Church Camp was stretched to two turns for the first time here and came up with an initial black-type win. Runner-up in a pair of allowance events at Santa Anita in November and January, she entered the Santa Lucia off a victory in a seven-furlong optional claimer Feb. 18. Adding ground as part of a contentious seven-filly field, the four-year-old tucked in behind the pacesetting outsider Jax El and tracked through fast :22.48 and :45.50 splits. Jockey Corey Nakatani moved Church Camp wide heading into the far turn to ensure he didn't get boxed in, and his mount strode into contention two furlongs out. She collared favored Briecat (Adcat) soon after and inched away under a drive. Burg Berg came on well for place honors, while Jax El re-rallied gamely to complete the trifecta. "It worked out good," trainer Brian Koriner said from the winner's circle. "She was a little aggressive early, but it wasn't too quick. It looked like she relaxed a little down the backside where she took back. She finally went into a nice stride." Added Nakatani, "I was trying not to move too soon because she was at such a high cruising speed. When Martin [Pedroza] came running with Burg Berg, she got focused and went to running again." She drew clear under a hand ride and won by 2 3/4 lengths. GRAND LODGE MARE TOPS PERTH SALE

The seven-year-old mare Finishing School (GB) (Grand Lodge--Bright Finish, by Zilzal) (lot 95) topped the two-day Magic Millions Perth Autumn Thoroughbred Sale at Belmont yesterday. A half-sister to Singing Poet (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), a stakes winner and group placed in Dubai, Finishing School was one of a select group of mares offered at the auction by Mogumber Park as agent for local breeder Paul Fitzpatrick. Perth-based bloodstock agent John Chalmers provided the winning bid at A$205,000 (US$210,038 / €149,577 / £131,228 / ¥17,100,047). Finishing School sold in foal to sprint star Wanted (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

Another mare from the consignment in foal to Wanted, the winner of the G1 Newmarket H. at four, was the third-highest-priced lot of the sale. The six-year-old G2 WA Guineas heroine Moccasin Bend (Aus) (Eternity Range--True Surrender {Aus}, by Poliuto {Ire}) (lot 99) was snapped up for A$180,000 by Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock Agency.

Boosted by Saturday's evening's Oakland Park Stud broodmare dispersal, which yielded 10 lots that sold for A$100,000 or more, the average of the sale skyrocketed from A$4,034 last year to A$20,247, while the clearance rate was a superb 88.2%.

"A number of more top breeding prospects went under the hammer at Belmont [Sunday], and those lots were popular," Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester reported. "The dispersals for Oakland Park Stud and Paul Fitzpatrick were, as expected, the highlights of the auction."

Chester said the focus of Magic Millions would now turn to upcoming sales in Adelaide and the Gold Coast. "We have a Mixed Thoroughbred Sale in Adelaide next Sunday, followed by next month's QTIS 600 Yearling Sale at the Gold Coast. And of course the attention will turn back to the Gold Coast through late May and June for the National Sale--with an outstanding catalogue of weanlings, broodmares, race fillies, stallions, yearlings and racehorses to go under the hammer." HAY IS FOR HORSES!

The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation cares for 1,200 ex-racehorses. During the winter months we feed over 600 bales of hay daily!

Please join the TRF 2011 HAYDRIVE. By April 1, 2011, we need 40,000 bales.

Every $5 you donate to the HAY DRIVE buys a bale. Please give as many bales as you can and let's see how fast we can stack it up!
