SEPOY SAILS HOME IN THE SLIPPER

Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's homebred Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality) parlayed a perfect trip into victory in Saturday's G1 AAMI Golden Slipper S. at Rosehill. The race lost some of its luster when Smart Missile (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was scratched after rearing and kicking his leg up over the outside of the side of the barrier. Winner of a pair of listed stakes to kick off his career, Sepoy tacked on an easy win in the G3 Blue Diamond Prelude S. at Caulfield Feb. 12. His rousing success in the G1 Blue Diamond S. a fortnight later earned him an odds-on quote for the Slipper, but Smart Missile beat him on the square in the G2 Todman S., the Mar. 19 course-and-distance Slipper prep. Settled just off the heels of Karuta Queen (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}) early on, the chestnut was pointed at daylight off the final corner, struck the front at the 200-meter mark and stretched away from his rivals for an easy victory. He became just the fifth horse to complete the Blue Diamond--Slipper double, and the first in over two decades. "It is a tremendous feeling," winning trainer Peter Snowden told AAP. "It is the best feeling I have ever had in my life. I still had doubts after he got beaten in the Todman, but he worked well on Tuesday and my son Paul told me to back my judgment." Smart Missile will train in front of the stewards Monday and could run back in the G1 Sires' Produce S. at Randwick Apr. 9. REPOLE REP IN FLA DERBY

Champion Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) won't make another appearance at Gulfstream Park this year, but Repole Stable still will have a representative in today's G1 Florida Derby. With the Eclipse winner headed to the Apr. 9 G1 Wood Memorial S., Mike Repole and trainer Todd Pletcher will instead cheer on GIII Gotham S. hero Stay Thirsty (Bernardini) in the $1-million event. Runner-up in the G1 Three Chimneys Hopeful S. last season, the $500,000 FTFFEB purchase was making his sophomore bow in the Gotham. Bet down to 9-10, he pulled away to win by 3 1/4 lengths. The colt gets blinkers for the first time this afternoon. Cont. p2

BIOFUEL BEST IN CANADA

She had to share honors as Canada's co-champion juvenile filly for 2009, but Biofuel (Stormin Fever--Ms.

Cornstalk, by Indian Charlie) stood alone when the 2010 Sovereign Awards were announced in Toronto Friday night. Brereton Jones's homebred was named Canada's Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old filly. Winner of Woodbine's Star Shoot S. and La Lorgnette S. to start 2010, she travelled to New York to run third in the G1 Mother Goose S. and second in the G1 CCA Oaks. Biofuel returned to Canada to annex the Belle Mahone S. and GIII Selene S. for trainer Reade Baker, and bank-rolled $453,057 for the year. "From the start of the year, our goal was to have the best horse in Canada," Baker told Daily Racing Form. "I thought she deserved it." Regular rider Eurico Rosa da Silva also captured the Sovereign Award as Canada's top jockey. Sovereign Awards cont. p10-11

A Road Less Traveled...

Untried in stakes company of any kind, Arch Traveler (Sky Mesa) will go right to the top as he makes his black-type bow in the GI Florida Derby. The bay bids for his third straight victory after taking a maiden test going seven panels at Gulfstream Feb. 6 and an allowance at nine panels 20 days later. His connections are comfortable with the giant step up the ranks.

"When you break it down, it's not as big a difference as it used to be," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "Horses come to hand quicker. The breed's different. They don't seem to need the amount of seasoning that they used to. They do, but not to the same degree." Jerkens saw enough in his charge's game 3/4-length allowance tally to give him confidence in this plan of action. "If you have a horse that goes up in distance and class and wins, you're pretty sure you've got a nice horse," he remarked. Arch Traveler is the only member of the field lacking stakes experience. Owner Centennial Farms held a minority interest in Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff), who finished first by a nose as the odds-on chalk in the 1998 Florida Derby, but was disqualified and placed second.

They don't get much more consistent than R Heat Lightning. The bay captured the GI Spinaway S. by four lengths at the Spa last summer, and came back to be second in the GI Frizette S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Fourth after getting bumped at the break in her 2011 bow, the Jan. 30 GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream, she cruised to a 7 1/4-length triumph in the Feb. 26 GII Davona Dale S. at a mile, and proved she could handle the extra furlong here. Jockey John Velazquez had the filly parked on the wide outside while sitting in third down the backstretch. He let her out a notch to gain the lead as they neared the stretch, sat chilly at the top of the lane, then went to a hand ride. The duo drew away to win with authority. Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Taking Gulfstream by Storm...

The Gulfstream Park Oaks gave owner Robsham Stables its second graded win of the afternoon. It was also the fourth victory on the day for Velazquez and the fifth for trainer Todd Pletcher. Pletcher was pleased with the effort of R Heat Lightning. "She's starting to relax more in her races," he said. "She's not an easy filly to ride, but Johnny has gotten to know her and he knows what to do. I wasn't surprised that she ran that kind of race today, after the way she ran the last time, and she ran almost as fast as [GIII Rampart S. winner] Awesome Maria. I didn't think she got quite the respect she deserved after winning the Spinaway and finishing second in the Breeders' Cup last year, but now I think she'll be recognized at the head of the class. If she comes out of the race all right, then we'll point her for the [GI Kentucky Oaks May 6]."

Taking the Heat...

The late Paul Robsham acquired Yellow Heat (Gold Fever) for $145,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile in 2003. The bay made five starts as a 3-year-old, winning her last three--a maiden special weight and an allowance at Belmont Park and an allowance test at Aqueduct--and retired with that record. The mare's first foal was SP Hot Trip (Trippi), and R Heat Lightning is her second. Barren to Trippi in 2009, she has a yearling colt by High Cotton, and was bred to that stallion again for 2011.

"The 2010 sophomore sire phenomenon Wildcat Heir had an amazing 30 3yo ABC Runners in his first crop, 9 more than Giant's Causeway and Distorted Humor. Nobody else was even close. Very impressive."

Stepping up from the New York-bred ranks in quest of his fifth straight victory, Inherit the Gold inherited the lead at the top of the lane and sailed away to an easy score. The snowy gelding took a restricted optional claimer at the Big A Dec. 16, came back to beat open optional-claiming company Jan. 13, and made it three in a row in the state-bred Mr. International S. 13 days later. Two lengths to the good at the finish of the Kings Point S. for fellow Empire-breds Mar. 12, he was 7-5 to get it done in his graded bow. Inherit the Gold tracked Understatement through moderate splits, took over as they tipped off the turn and opened up willingly to win as much the best. As for what's next, trainer and co-owner/breeder James Hooper said, "We just listen to what [the horse] tells us. He's a very, very smart horse, way smarter than we are. I'm just going to enjoy this one; who knows where we'll go next? As long as this horse is happy, we'll have a lot of fun."

Golden Opportunity...

Inherit the Gold was bred by James and Susanne Hooper and their partners, Saratoga natives Edmond and Mary Murray, who race as Glas-Tipp Stable. The Hoopers operate Haven Oaks Farm in upstate New York, and James took out his trainer's license last fall. He earned his first victory with this gelding in an allowance race at Belmont in October. Hooper acquired dam Melissa's Sunshine for just $3,000 at a mixed sale in Minnesota in 2003. Bred and raced by Sugar Maple Farm, the mare had RNA'd for $9,000 while in foal to A. P Jet at KEENOV 2002.

Let go at 10-1 in the Jan. 30 GI Santa Monica S., she closed some ground late to be second by 3 1/2 lengths behind Switch (Quiet American), then missed by a head in an allowance test Feb. 25. Gilded Gem was eased back to last in the five-horse field as favored Mother Ruth (Speightstown) clicked off splits of :21.97 and :44.45. The crowd's choice was still in front when they hit the eighth pole, but she weakened late and Gilded Gem, geared up on the outside, came running, taking the lead in deep stretch before drawing clear. 1	Black N Beauty Ⓚ	Devil His Due	Lopez	Romans	5-1
2	Razmataz Ⓚ	Forest Wildcat	Castellano	Pletcher	12-1
3	Little Drama	Burning Roma	Bravo	Fawkes	8-1

6	Travelin Man	Trippi	Velazquez	Pletcher	4-5

The Robsham operation, successful with homebreds in the GIII Rampart S. (Awesome Maria {Marai's Mon}) and GII Gulfstream Park Oaks (R Heat Lightning {Trippi}) Saturday, look to do it again with homebred Travelin Man. The colt, who was making only his second career start when he ran a distant second behind GI Florida Derby hopeful Flashpoint (Pomeroy), has been installed the odds-on morning-line favorite here. The bay, a 7 1/4-length debut maiden winner at Gulfstream Park Jan. 6, should be alone on the lead this afternoon, but he could have company down the lane. Panamanian sensation Indiano won his five Central American outings by daylight, capping the campaign with a 6 3/4-length score in local stakes company going seven-eighths Jan. 23. The Stud El Aguila colorbearer made his U.S. bow in a six-furlong allowance at Gulfstream Mar. 20 and came running late to be second, beaten a half-length. He gets the jockey switch to Julien Leparoux today.

10	Bet On Victor Ⓚ	Yankee Victor	Valenzuela	Cerin	20-1

All carry 118 pounds, bar Atta Boy Roy & Ventana, 120.

Spendthrift Farm's lightly raced 6-year-old Crown of Thorns makes his first start since running second in the nine-furlong GI Goodwood S. at Oak Tree at Hollywood Oct. 2, where he finished ahead of subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Dakota Phone (Zavata) and GI Malibu S. hero Twirling Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}). Crown of Thorns, who was scratched a day before the BC Dirt Mile with a knee injury, bounced back faster from surgery than his conditioner anticipated. "He trains like he's ready to run," Richard Mandella told Daily Racing Form. "I haven't over-trained him. We operated on him, and boom, he was ready to run. It was quicker than I expected. He seems to be in good shape." The bay should have no trouble sprinting, as he also filled the runner-up slot in his previous three tries prior to the Goodwood--the GI Ancient Title S. and GI Breeders' Cup Sprint in 2009 and the GI Pat O'Brien at Del Mar last August. Amazombie's 11-1 upset of the Sunshine Millions Sprint here Jan. 29 was flattered when Apriority (Grand Slam), who was just a head short in second, returned to take a Gulfstream optional claimer in impressive fashion by 4 1/2 lengths, earning a gaudy 113 Beyer Speed Figure. The Bill Spawr trainee was second last out in the Feb. 27 Sensational Star H. down the hill. Enigmatic Atta Boy Roy, two-for-two at this distance and a winner of the seven-furlong GII Churchill Downs S. last year on Derby Day, resurfaces after a 10th-place finish in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders Cup Sprint, in which he was vanned off after pulling up on the gallop-out with a minor suspensory injury. The ridgeling appears to be doing much better, as he enters this event with a blazing-fast string of works at Turf Paradise.

MORRIS BAILEY TO GET MONMOUTH LEASE?

Star-Ledger reported Friday that, according to anonymous sources familiar with the bidding process, New York real estate developer Morris Bailey has submitted the winning bid for a five-year lease of Monmouth Park. New Jersey Governor Chris Christie must approve Bailey's bid before it can be made official, however. While eight parties expressed interest by making $25,000 deposits last month, the source indicated that only three final bids were received by the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority by Thursday's 5 p.m. deadline. John Brunetti, who owns Hialeah Park, and the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association were reportedly the other two parties to submit final bids. Bailey, who lives in nearby Deal, New Jersey, and purchased Resorts Casino in Atlantic City for $35 million last fall, would also take control of the Woodbridge OTB facility, and would be granted licensing for four other off-track wagering sites as part of his winning bid. Approval from Gov. Christie is expected to come in the next week to 10 days, as the number of race days Monmouth will run must still be determined. Recent legislation mandates a 141-day meet, but the meet's duration is expected to be renegotiated. The Oceanport oval is currently expected to open May 14, and is scheduled to be turned over to the winning bidder no later than June 1.

Triple Threats

Premier Pegasus Sizzles at Santa Anita...

Owner/trainer/breeder Myung Kwon Cho's Premier Pegasus (Fusaichi Pegasus), runaway winner of the Mar. 12 GII San Felipe S., prepped for the Apr. 9 GI Santa Anita Derby with a bullet five furlongs in :59 2/5 at Santa Anita Saturday. Regular rider Alonso Quinonez was in the irons. "We talked to Alonso before the work and told him to get a nice, easy work," said Raxon Cho, the 17-year-old son of the O/B/T. "We wanted a slower work, but I don't think we could get anything slower than that." Added his father, "I'm very happy with the horse. I liked the horse from his first race, but I didn't expect him to accomplish as much as he's had so far. I love him now."

Possible for the Santa Anita Derby, Zayat Stables's Jaycito (Victory Gallop) went six panels in 1:13 4/5 yesterday. "He worked nice," trainer Bob Baffert said, adding, "We'll know tomorrow [where he's going next]." The colt could be shipped east for the Apr. 9 GI Wood Memorial S.

Alternation Possible for Arkansas Derby...

Pin Oak homebred Alternation (Distorted Humor), who had to be scratched from the Mar. 19 GII Rebel S. after acting up in the starting gate, worked out of the gate Saturday morning at Oaklawn. The colt was timed going five-eighths in 1:01 2/5. If the signs are right, he could go next in the Apr. 16 GI Arkansas Derby. "I was very happy with it," trainer Donnie Von Hemel said of the move. "He broke a little slow in the first part of it, but thereafter, each quarter seemed to get a little better. I was happy, especially with the way he moved down the lane." Alternation was timed galloping out six furlongs in 1:14 1/5, and got his final quarter in :23 4/5. As to his status for the Arkansas Derby, Von Hemel said, "There are factors on top of this work that will help us make a decision. We also have the factor of who comes for the race, and how he comes out of this workout, but I like what I saw today from him."

Alternation heads to the pole

Tapitsfly defeated a stakes-quality field for her first victory since landing the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2009. The Frank Jones homebred was sidelined off her score at Santa Anita and was forced to miss her entire 3-year-old season with a variety of maladies associated with an ankle chip. She finally made it back to action this past Jan. 12, but the results were nothing short of disastrous, as she retreated through the field to finish last of 11. The grey showed renewed signs of life last time, finishing an unlucky runner-up Feb. 27. Quickest into stride here, Tapitsfly enjoyed herself on the front end as Julien Leparoux put the field to sleep through six furlongs in 1:11.96. She pinched a break in upper stretch and reported home an easy winner. Tapitsfly could make her next start in the GIII Churchill Distaff Turf Mile on Kentucky Derby day May 7. Settled slightly worse than centerfield with little pace up front to close into, Gitchee Goomie rallied three deep on the turn, took command inside the eighth pole and got home a neck better than Blue Angel (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}). Sent off as the favorite in her Feb. 20 career opener going 6 1/2 panels over this strip, the bay set the pace, but succumbed late to In Step (Unbridled's Song) and wound up second by a half-length. Savvy Supreme was available at 2-1 this time, and emerged with the lead by the time the opening quarter read :22.18. Gulfstream Event Raises $20K:

(Edited press release) Gulfstream Park Racing and Casino raised nearly $20,000 Friday night during its 'Pink Cocktail Reception,' which kicked off Florida Derby Weekend. The event was held in Gulfstream's walking ring, where the water from the famous shooting fountains was turned pink in honor of Saturday's Ladies Day events. Several items were auctioned off by Gulfstream handicapper Ron Nicoletti, including a bat signed by Major League Baseball's three-time MVP Albert Pujols, four prints by Fred Stone, a Dan Marino jersey, a diamond ring, a Soldat halter and a photograph by Bob Coglianese. Proceeds from the reception and auction will be donated to jockey Eibar Coa, who continues to recover from a spill Feb. 18, and the Florida Thoroughbred Retirement & Adoptive Care Program (TRAC). "The pink cocktail reception was another wonderful Florida Derby event," said Gulfstream President and GM Steve Calabro. "Our owners, trainers, jockeys and fans once again stepped up to help support two worthy causes."

Glor Na Mara looks to lose the tag of the best maiden in training following a string of high-class efforts in 2010 culminating with a third in Newmarket's G1 Dewhurst S. on Champions' Day. Aidan O'Brien is represented by the filly Sing Softly, who got off the mark in a six-furlong maiden here a fortnight ago.

NOTABLE GRADUATE (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) bids to build on a promising debut second to subsequent listed winner Tiz the Shot (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) in a Leopardstown maiden in late October. Dermot Weld saddles the Moyglare homebred, who is a 3/4-brother to Refuse To Bend (Sadler's Wells) and a half to Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}). He meets a Ballydoyle newcomer in Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Marksmanship (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose dam Maroochydore (Ire) (Danehill) is a listed-winning half to the Hong Kong star Bowman's Crossing (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}).

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ St Nicholas Abbey makes his eagerly awaited return following an 11-month absence, having been injured on the eve of the Epsom Derby. Highly impressive at two in the G2 Beresford S. here and G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster, he should be back in the winner's spot if anywhere near his peak, despite the presence of the recent Triumph Hurdle runner-up Unaccompanied. As her trainer Dermot Weld showed last year with the G1 Ascot Gold Cup hero Rite of Passage (GB) (Giant's Causeway), he is adept at mixing the codes.

Run down late by Courchevel (Ire) (Whipper) on her first attempt at black-type in Saint-Cloud's seven-furlong Listed Prix Ceres on her last outing in November, Agony and Ecstasy had just enough gas left in the tank to reward similarly positive tactics here. Sent straight to the lead, the chestnut stole a decisive advantage at the top of the straight to kill the chance of the closer Night Lily. "The [May 2] G3 Athasi S. at The Curragh would be the race for her, if the ground has some give in it," trainer Ralph Beckett said. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Successful in two 10-furlong handicaps at Ascot in 2009, Shamali was restricted to only two outings last year and went missing after a fourth at Ffos Las in May. Making up for lost time here, the chestnut made his way into a stalking second and, after passing the long-time leader Resentful Angel on the approach to the furlong marker, asserted for a first black-type win.

With the late withdrawal of favored Taqleed (Ire) (Shamardal) due to the "good" ground, this prestigious contest had a wide-open feel to it and Sweet Lightning duly took advantage under the visiting Johnny Murtagh. Successful in competitive handicaps at Chester and York last term, the bay raced four times at Meydan with his best effort coming when second to Golden Sword (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in a handicap over 1 3/16 miles Feb. 10. Settled in the middle of the group racing on the stand's side here, he was sent in pursuit of Brae Hill and gathered in that rival passing the furlong pole en route to a convincing success. "I thought he'd win one race in Dubai and he was unlucky the day he was second," Murtagh said. "[Owner] Andrew [Tinkler] said a strong-run mile would be perfect for him, as he was running a bit free over a mile and a quarter, and the fast pace today helped him to switch off." Turning the screw late on, the 8-1 shot was firmly on top of his arch-rival at the line, where he had a 3/4-of-a-length margin to spare. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £6,885.
