GOOD TO BE THE KING

While 11 of the 14 sophomores entered for today's GI Preakness S. at Old Hilltop have shipped in from Kentucky (8) and New York (3), Team Valor International's Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) has been basking in the afterglow of his victory in the GI Kentucky Derby in the comparatively serene surroundings of his home base at the Fair Hill Training

Animal Kingdom

Center, some 60 miles north of Pimlico. The striking chestnut is scheduled to catch a ride this morning at 5 a.m., as he looks to become the eighth horse since 1997 to score the first two legs of the Triple Crown. While the Run for the Roses exacts a toll on its participants, don't try to tell that to the seven previous Derby winners to double up in the Preakness. Only two of those horses (Silver Charm and War Emblem) scored by less than a length, while the average margin of victory is nearly 4 1/2 lengths. Trainer

Graham Motion has taken his Derby success in stride and enters today's race full of confidence, though he will leave handicapping to the punters. "I just couldn't be happier with how he's doing," Motion said. "I can't dictate the pace and I really can't predict if he's going to bounce, but he's giving me no indication of any of those things happening. I think sometimes when a horse bounces you don't get any indication. I think it's pretty hard to boldly say he's not going to, but he hasn't given me any indication that he's not doing as well or better than he was going into the Derby."

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

He may have been 33-1 for the G1 English 2000 Guineas, but without Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Dubawi Gold (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) likely would have been an impressive winner of that Newmarket Classic. With that goliath heading elsewhere, Andrew Tinkler's bay bids to take full advantage in a weak-looking renewal of the G1 Abu Dhabi Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh.

Having finished out the back in three tries in pattern company for Michael Dods at two, he returned for the Richard Hannon stable with two wins on the Polytrack in Lingfield's Listed Spring Cup

Dubawi Gold racingbetter.co.uk

Mar. 26 and Listed International Trial S. Apr. 9 prior to his Guineas effort. "Dubawi Gold has worked well since Newmarket, and his final scope was good," commented Hannon, who has saddled a trio of scorers here. "We did not have him last year, so you can't compare him with my other three winners, but, though he has taken time to relax, he switched off beautifully in the Guineas. When you go to Ireland, you never know what sort of pace you are going to get, but Hughesie got off at Newmarket and said, 'Without Frankel we would have come home alone,' so if he can reproduce that form he'll be hard to beat." Cont. p6

Mulligan for Dialed In?...

The back markers in the Derby were set a near-impossible task when Shackleford (Forestry) reached the half-mile pole in a pedestrian 1:13.40. Dialed In (Mineshaft) was dead last after getting pinched back at the break, and his eighth-place finish as the 5-1 favorite is one of the most up-gradeable of the Derby participants. He'll look to give Nick Zito his second Preakness (Louis Quatorze, 1996). It'll be business as usual for the colt the conditioner calls 'the best 3-year-old' as far as his running style is concerned. "I still want [jockey] Julien [Leparoux] to let him run his race," Zito explained. "That's his style. He's a wonderful horse. What really has he done wrong? He got beat by Equestrio (Elusive Quality), who just got beat two noses in the [GIII] Alysheba by First Dude (Stephen Got Even) against some of the best older horses in the country. In the Derby, he still came home with his run, which has been documented. Why should he do anything different?" Cont. p3

Only longshot Isn't He Perfect (Plesantly Perfect) has made more trips to the races than Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), who will be making his 10th career appearance and fifth of the season. A maiden winner and twice Grade II-placed at two, the bay colt has held up remarkably well this season, with a win in the GII Risen Star S. and third-place efforts in the GII Louisiana Derby and GI Kentucky Derby, where he was beaten three lengths last time out. "I think he'll be sharper, more aggressive," said trainer Kathy Ritvo when asked of her Preakness expectations. "He seems to get along at any racetrack, any surface. Bring it on. He's ready. Animal Kingdom's a very nice horse. I like him, but I love the way my horse is training. I'm confident." On the negative side, Mucho Macho Man's best game is to race prominently, and if he intends on doing that this afternoon--where the pace should be considerably more demanding than that of the Derby--he'll have to be at his very best to stave off the come-from-behinders.

Mucho Macho Man

Emotions Running High for Asmussen...

When trainer Steve Asmussen last visited Pimlico for the Preakness, he was saddling Stonestreet Stable and Hal McCormick's Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) to an historic victory. That was the conditioner's second win in the race in the span of three years, having sent out Curlin (Smart Strike) to a narrow success over Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) in 2007. Connections are harboring no delusions of grandeur this time around as they prepare Astrology (A. P. Indy) for a start this afternoon. "It's a completely different scenario in the fact that Curlin had the potential to win one of these and now we're trying to win one for a third time," Asmussen said. "It's a completely different feel." With the recent passing of Stonestreet's Jess Jackson, and given that Astrology was bred at home, Asmussen has been overcome by emotion this week. He appeared to get choked up when asked by Pimlico publicity what it would mean to win the 2011 Preakness. "I don't even want to think about it, not even now," he said. "Overwhelming."

Friday's Pimlico Report: Backstretch Buzz...

Even as stall number 40 remained vacant for the Derby winner at Pimlico's stakes barn, there was plenty of action on the backstretch at Old Hilltop the morning before the main event.

Retired Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey stopped to chat with a large group of children who were receiving a tour of the backstretch just after 7:30 a.m. "Do you know why I like you guys and girls?" Bailey asked the youngsters.

"Because you're my size," he joked. The moving crowd caught the attention of trainer Kathy Ritvo while Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) began to walk undertack. "That's a lot of people," she quipped to a nearby security guard.

Stonestreet advisor John Moynihan took a good look at Astrology (A.P. Indy) upon his arrival to the shedrow, then caught up with assistant trainer Scott Blasi. Steve Asmussen, represented by recent Preakness winners Curlin (Smart Strike) and Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), was yards away by the adjacent parking lot discussing the GIII Iroquois S. winner's chances in the second jewel of the Triple Crown with reporters.

HRTV's Zoe Cadman pointed out Isn't He Perfect (Pleasantly Perfect) to a group of photographers as he made his way back from his first visit to the track. The 30-1 morning-line outsider, not sporting a Preakness saddlecloth, shipped in from Belmont Park Thursday.

Midnight Interlude (War Chant)'s ears perked right up to the sound of camera shutters when he made his return to the backstretch. Trainer Bob Baffert was disappointed that Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) still wasn't on the grounds yet. "It takes away from the buzz here," he said. "Even I want to see the Derby winner up close and personal."

Trainer Wesley Ward met Peachtree Stable's Flashpoint (Pomeroy) and exercise rider Alex Razo on the track and walked his new charge all the way back to the barn while the sun made a rare appearance during a very soggy week in Maryland. Trainer John Shirreffs and wife Dottie Ingordo-Shirreffs kindly posed for a picture with an adoring couple after watching Mr. Commons (Artie Schiller) turn in his morning exercise. Dale Romans also made a fan's day, signing a DRF hat for a gentleman during his walk back to the barn.

Media swarmed around trainer Nick Zito near the stakes barn entrance, catching the eye of Shackleford (Forestry)'s exercise rider as the flashy chestnut walked the shedrow. Mucho Macho Man enjoyed a long grazing session out back while co-owner Patti Reeves snapped photos of her husband Dean and the rest of the team relishing the moment.

West Point Thoroughbred's Jeff Lifson stopped by to wish Wesley Ward luck with Flashpoint in the Preakness as the handsome gray was getting cleaned up. The ownership group headed by Terry Finley will be represented in the big one by King Congie (Badge of Silver), who completed his Preakness preparations galloping 1 1/4 miles at Belmont earlier in the morning. Mr. Commons immediately took a break from nibbling on some grass, popping his head up as a photographer came by to take his picture.

Black-Eyed Susan day, also featuring a jockey autograph signing, handicapping seminar and book signing, was officially underway shortly thereafter as the gates opened for business at 9:30 a.m. Tabbed as the People's Pink Party, Friday's card also included the Legends for the Cure Race, benefitting Susan G. Komen for the Cure. -SS

PREAKNESS BREEDERS

King Congie

BOB AUSTIN - King Congie Austin, a 70-year-old Ohio native, held a variety of jobs before moving to Oklahoma to become a ranch hand at the age of 28. After running his own ranch in the Sooner State for 13 years, he moved to Versailles, KY, and bought the 32-acre Little River Farm. In his first year, future G1 Dubai World Cup hero Captain Steve was foaled on Little River. Austin has just four mares on the farm. He bought Wise Ending (End Sweep), dam of King Congie, privately off the racetrack for $20,000.

Pat Chapman

BOWMAN & HIGGINS STABLE & PATRICIA CHAPMAN - Concealed Identity Co-founder of Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake Bay, MD, veterinarian Thomas Bowman currently stands eight stallions with partner Richard Golden. A second division of Northview Stallion Station was set up in Peach Bottom, PA, and currently stands four stallions. Bowman also owns Roland Farm and Dance Forth Farm with his wife, Chris. A Worcester, MA, native, Milton P. Higgins III grew up on ranches in Wyoming and Colorado, where he bred his first Quarter Horse. Higgins shifted to the Thoroughbred industry in the late '70s, and has been partners with Bowman for over 25 years. Higgins currently resides in Olney, MD, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Maryland Breeder's Association Inc. Patricia Chapman campaigned homebred Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero Smarty Jones, sire of Concealed Identity, with late husband Roy Chapman. The Eclipse champion was raised at their Someday Farm in Chester County, PA.

Mike Lauffer

BILL CUBBEDGE & MIKE LAUFFER - Shackleford Friends for more than 30 years, Kentucky natives Lauffer and Cubbedge met through their work in the natural gas industry. Lauffer, the majority owner, followed his father and grandfather into the oil and gas business and now runs the family company, JML Oil and Gas, in Paintsville, Ky. Cubbedge hails from Catlettsburg, Ky.

 Evans, a Virginia businessman, passed away Dec. 31, 2010. He was 68. A graduate of Yale University and the Harvard Business School, he was the son of Thomas Mellon Evans, who owned Kentucky Derby and Belmont S. winner Pleasant Colony. Evans worked for his father until the 1980s, when he bought a majority interest in MacMillan Inc and served as the chairman of the publishing firm until selling to Maxwell Communications for $2.8 billion in late 1988. Thereafter, he concentrated on his Thoroughbred breeding and racing operation at Spring Hill Farm, a 3,000-acre facility in Casanova, VA, established in 1969. Evans bred more than 100 stakes winners, including 2005 Horse of the Year Saint Liam.

Madeleine Pickens

W.S. FARISH, MADELEINE PICKENS & SKARA GLEN STABLES - Dialed In Farish, a native of Houston, TX, operates a trust company in his home state, and served as the U.S. ambassador to the UK from 2001-04. He founded Lane's End Farm in Versailles, KY, in 1979. Farish was co-owner of 1972 Preakness winner Bee Bee Bee, who foiled Riva Ridge's Triple Crown attempt. Pickens, born in Lebanon, owns the Del Mar Country Club. She met Allen Paulson while a flight attendant, and they married in 1988. Paulson, who passed away in 2000, introduced her to racing. Pickens married Texas oilman T. Boone Pickens in 2005. She has homes in Del Ray, CA, and Dallas, TX. Skara Glen, a small property in Greensburg, PA, is operated by Marcia Gumberg and her sons Andrew, Ira and Lawrence. Ira Gumberg is president and CEO

‘Roderic’ Reasons...

There is little doubt that this represents one of the softest editions of this Classic in recent times, but one who has serious form claims is Ballydoyle’s Roderic O’Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and the Sangster Family’s colt was runner-up to Frankel in the G1 Dewhurst S. on Newmarket’s Champions’ Day card before going one better in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud at the end of October. While the form of that contest has been subsequently let down by those who finished closest to him, he is certain to be better than his latest unplaced effort in the 2000 Guineas.

Roderic O’Connor answers.bettor.com

Kevin Prendergast last saddled a winner of this in 1976 and is looking to John Connaughton’s Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) to end the long drought. Highly impressive when the eight-length winner of this track’s G3 Anglesey S. over an extended six furlongs in July, he was an eye-catching fifth behind Casamento (Ire) (Shamardal) in Doncaster’s G1 Racing Post Trophy on his only other juvenile start in October. Back with a workmanlike win in the Mar. 27 G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial S. last time, he is worthy of respect. “We ran him at Doncaster and the ground was very firm,” Prendergast commented. “He hadn’t been well before then, but we felt it was worth taking our chance even though he wasn’t 100% that day. He quickened well last time, and I think he’ll come on for that race.” His Highness The Aga Khan’s Zabarajad (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is still a maiden, but was only beaten a head by Imperial Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) after finishing with a flourish in the seven-furlong Listed Tetrarch S. here and the winner of that May 2 contest has since run with credit in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains. Phil Cunningham’s colors were carried to glory by Cockney Rebel (Ire) here four years ago and Slim Shadey (GB) (Val Royal {Fr}) shares his sire with that past runner. Fourth in the 2000 Guineas, he has 11 1/2 lengths to find with Dubawi Gold on that effort but trainer Stan Moore is hopeful he can narrow the gap. “He’s in great form and travelled over on Thursday night,” he told PA Sport. “A Guineas is a Guineas, but if he performs the way he did, we’ll see and he will have improved from Newmarket.”

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Royal Delta made the most of a single start last season, picking her way through traffic before streaking away to graduate by a dozen lengths, earning ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status in the process. Sent to the Sunshine State for the winter, the homebred filly resurfaced in the Suncoast S. at Tampa Mar. 12, but nothing went her way, as she raced wide and dropped out tamely to trail under the wire. Her supporters were willing to draw a line through the effort and sent her off at 9-5 for a Polytrack allowance at Keeneland Apr. 15, and she responded in kind with an eye-catching sweep while wide to record a three-length victory. Despite stepping up in class off that effort, she was dispatched the very narrow favorite and proved her backers right yet again. A bit slow to begin from the inside gate, Royal Delta was content to sit in the pocket in fourth as Hot Summer, GI Ashland S. runner-up Wyomia (Vindication) and Buster's Ready assured a decent pace up front. Jose Lezcano guided Royal Delta out into about the four path for the backstretch run, but guided her back down to the fence at the three-eighths pole. Lezcano gambled for an inside run, a move which nearly backfired, as he narrowly squeezed through underneath a tiring Wyomia. Royal Delta was guided to the two path at the quarter pole and stayed on well the remainder to defeat a game Buster's Ready. "Today we got pace," Lezcano offered. "She broke good and relaxed. With the pace up front, when I asked her, she gave me the run I needed to go. I was surprised at the pace, and knew we had a good shot." Donegal Racing's Paddy O'Prado will face little opposition in his 4-year-old debut. Despite Grade I-placings on synthetic and dirt last semester, the grey established himself as the best American turfer of his generation. He took both the GII Colonial Turf Cup June 19 and the GII Virginia Derby July 17, and annexed the GI Secretariat S. in Chicago Aug. 21. He was second over yielding ground--which is expected today at Pimlico--in the GI Turf Classic Invitational S. against older foes at Belmont Oct. 2, but was lured back to the dirt for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and finished sixth. Conditioner Dale Romans had intended to bring back Paddy O'Prado earlier in the year in South Florida, but the $1.6-million earner suffered a minor setback. "[It was] nothing major, he was a little body sore, a little stiff when we first started and had to back off on him to give him a little time to come out of it," Romans told Daily Racing Form. "When he did, he's moved forward every day." He added, "If he comes back to the way he was running last year, he's going to be tough to beat." Baryshnikov, a reformed claimer, might be the main danger. He has scored five times in six attempts since being taken over by Mike Maker in December, and landed his first stakes event on the Turfway Polytrack in the Tejano Run S. Mar. 19--that was his 32nd lifetime start. The 5-year-old scored over "good" ground in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 17. One race before Graham Motion saddles the Preakness favorite, he'll send out Slews Answer, a half-brother to MGSW grasser Dynaslew (Dynaformer). He's two-for-three lifetime, but Graham Motion acknowledged to DRF that "it's going to be a lot to ask."

A short field contests the 36th running of this event, a race where the top two finishers seem clear on paper. Robsham Stable's Awesome Maria is undefeated in two starts this year, with dominating performances in the Feb. 19 GIII Sabin S. at one mile and the Apr. 2 GIII Rampart at 1 1/8 miles, both at Gulfstream Park. Her primary competition comes in the form of the resilient Absinthe Minded, who faced off with superstars Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) and Unrivaled Belle (Unbridled's Song) in the May 6 GII La Troienne S. going 1 1/16 miles at Churchill Downs, where she was fourth; and with Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) and Switch (Quiet American) in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 16, also at 1 1/16 miles at Oaklawn Park, where she filled out the trifecta. D. Wayne Lukas drops the filly in class and distance, which should suit the Quiet American mare. With her speed, she'll challenge Awesome Maria to catch her, or risk a runaway performance.

8	Makoma	Malibu Moon	Sutherland	Shirreffs	15-1

The 60th running of the Milady brings St Trinians back to synthetics in hopes of returning to her winning ways. She put up disappointing performances on the dirt in her last two starts, most recently in the Mar. 12 GI Santa Margarita Invitational S. at Santa Anita, where she finished fourth. In her last try on Hollywood's synthetic, she fell short only to the great Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) in the 2010 GI Vanity H. Ultra Blend has yet to be off the board this year and is very familiar with the Hollywood track, taking the Apr. 23 B. Thoughtful S. at 7 1/2 panels, but the added distance could prove a challenge here. American Story is looking for a repeat performance after her latest, an optional-claiming victory here at the same distance Apr. 22. If Washington Bridge can return to her 2010 form, she will be the one to beat. The 4-year-old has two stakes victories at Hollywood at the same distance as the Milady, in the Nov. 12 Life is Sweet S. and Dec. 5 GII Bayakoa H. Her four-furlong move in :47.20 May 18 over the Hollywood oval proves she just might be back on track.

All eyes will be on Overdose here as the "Budapest Bullet" bids to make a splash in Britain, having dominated the Hungarian racing scene and the main German sprinting contests for so long. The winner of all bar one of his 16 starts, with the sole upset coming when he was seventh attempting to defend his 2008 crown in Baden-Baden's G2 Goldene Peitsche in August, he showed all his familiar zest on his only subsequent start in a five-furlong conditions event at Hoppegarten Apr. 17. "We can't be sure he is as good as he was when he 'won' the Prix de l'Abbaye in 2008, but who knows, he may even be better now," commented part-owner Zoltan Mikoczy when referring to the incident when Overdose wired that year's Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp only for the race to be declared void as one of the stalls failed to open. Kingsgate Native bids to land back-to-back renewals and was beaten less than three lengths when sixth in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint when last seen in December. Owner Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport, "He had a good time back at the stud after going to Hong Kong, and Sir Michael has been happy with him since he's gone back to work. Preparation for his return has been pretty straightforward. Obviously, he's another year older and six this year, and one never quite knows how a horse will perform, but he runs well fresh and has been successful at Haydock, so we'll give it a whirl." Last year's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Nunthorpe S. winners Markab and Sole Power are looking to warm up for Royal Ascot, with the latter escaping the full penalty. "It's a very good race, but he's in very good form and he's ready to roll," Sole Power's trainer Edward Lynam told PA Sport.

Sagamore Farms's Shared Account makes her first afternoon appearance since upending the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf as a 46-1 outsider at Churchill Downs Nov. 5. Conditioned by Graham Motion, a 21% trainer in graded grass routes according to DRF Formulator, Shared Account was fourth, beaten just 3/4 of a length in this event last term. "She's plenty fit," the Derby-winning trainer told Daily Racing Form. "She's matured, she's mellowed, I think, which is good because this time last year she wanted to be so sharp. A lot of those races, she was quite sharp, she wanted to be very close. She gradually started settling more as the year went on." Julian Richmond-Watson's homebred Desert Sage--just one-for-six in Britain and Ireland--won like a good thing in her stateside unveiling for Chad Brown in a Gulfstream allowance Mar. 18. Dead last early, the 4-year-old looped the field, getting her final 5/16ths in a lightning-quick :27.74 en route to a 2 1/4-length success over a runner who has scored twice since. The chestnut ran a very similar race back in Hallandale Beach Apr. 24, and gets the class test today. "I love this filly, she's really nice," Brown told DRF. "This will be a good test for her."

Ackerman Stables's Pedalthemedal looks to string three wins together as she takes a deserved climb up the class ladder. Beaten a nose by subsequently GISP Alternation (Rock Hard Ten) in a turf sprint debut here July 5, the Art Sherman trainee donned cap and gown on the Del Mar Polytrack July 25. That field included three next-out winners, including GI Darley Debutante heroine Tell a Kelly (Tapit). The bay returned in a stacked first-level allowance here going a half-furlong shorter Apr. 24, and swept by to defeat Big Tiz by 1 1/2 lengths while earning the field's best 95 Beyer. Hout Bay, who garnered the TDN Rising Star tag when she made a smart late run to graduate on debut at Santa Anita Jan. 22, was fifth in that heat. She was a solid second in the sloppy Santa Paula S. in Arcadia Mar. 20 in front of two subsequent stakes winners. May Day Rose, winner of the GIII Santa Ysabel S. Jan. 9, will turn back off a score in the one-mile Instant Racing S. at Oaklawn Apr. 16. She'll carry the colors of Kaleem Shah for Bob Baffert, who hits at 14% with his turn-backs in graded stakes according to DRF Formulator.

There will be some surprised faces if this Classic does not fall to a domestically trained runner, with most of the powerhouse yards represented including Jim Bolger's Coolcullen operation. His Banimpire (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) has thrived on a busy campaign so far and comes into this on the back of a trio of wins over further in the G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown Apr. 10, Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park May 1 and G3 Blue Wind S. at Naas 10 days later. "She's in good form and has been running well," Bolger told PA Sport. "I'm happy with her, and she doesn't lack toe, so I'd hope she'll be all right back over a mile."

Also in the line-up is stable companion Claiohm Solais (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who opened her account on the Blue Wind undercard when last seen. "She is stepping up, but she won well at Naas and is a good filly," her trainer added. "Hopefully, she has a chance." Also successful on that same evening was Lady O'Reilly's Rose Bonheur (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who took a six-furlong handicap and steps up in trip as part of a three-pronged attack from the Kevin Prendergast barn. "She's been running over five and six furlongs, but her dam won over a mile, and this filly only got beat a short head over seven furlongs last year, so we're hoping for a big run from her," Prendergast told PA Sport. "It's a step up for her, but she deserves to take her chance."

His other contenders are Norman Ormiston's Seeharn (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who was third behind Emiyna (Maria's Mon) in the G3 Athasi S. here last time May 2; and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Handassa (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was fourth in Leopardstown's G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial on her sophomore bow May 8. "She did everything wrong last time, and you wouldn't have to be Einstein to see that," Prendergast said of the latter. "She got left at the start and jumped the road and did everything queer. She gave herself no chance on the day. Declan [McDonogh] had the choice of the three fillies, and he picked her. Seeharn was third in the Athasi when we probably made a bit too much use of her. We'll ride her with a little bit more restraint this weekend and see if she can come home. We'd be disappointed if one of them doesn't reach the three."

RACETRACK Round-Up

The Factor has Fracture...

Trainer Bob Baffert has revealed that George Bolton and Fog City Stables Inc's The Factor (War Front) will miss about a month due to a minor fracture of a hind ankle. The injury was discovered by Dr. Larry Bramlage at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital in Lexington, KY, after Baffert ordered a nuclear bone scan. He told Daily Racing Form that he ordered the test because the GII San Vicente S. and GII Rebel S. winner had been "try[ing] to get out once in a while" in his morning works. "It must have happened a month ago," Baffert told the trade daily, referring to the Apr. 16 GI Arkansas Derby, where The Factor was seventh as the 4-5 favorite. "It's halfway healed up," he continued. "He was never off on it, but it was biting him." The ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ will ship back to California soon, and will be pointed to the GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga Aug. 27.

2011 MONMOUTH DATES APPROVED Monmouth Park has received approval from the state for its 2011 race dates. The 71-day meeting, which kicked off Saturday, May 14, will offer Saturday and Sunday cards, with a special holiday program on Monday, May 30, for Memorial Day. From June through August, Monmouth will host live racing Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, with a holiday program on Monday, July 4. There will be racing for four days over Labor Day weekend (Sept. 2 through Sept. 5), then the track will revert to a Saturday-Sunday schedule in September and October. A Columbus Day holiday card is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 10. The season will conclude with three November programs on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4 through Nov. 6. First post time is set for 12:50 p.m. daily, with gates to open at 11:30 a.m. There will be an early first post on Sunday, July 31, for the program highlighted by the $1-million Haskell Invitational S. Post time on Haskell day is 12 noon, with gates opening at 10:00 a.m. The New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association is still in negotiations with Monmouth lessee Morris Bailey over a long-term dates agreement.

Ben's Cat won the first eight starts of his career, climbing the ladder from the $25,000 claiming ranks to take three straight Maryland-bred stakes on the turf last fall, including the Oct. 2 Maryland Million Turf Sprint H. at 5 1/2 furlongs and the Oct. 30 Find H. at 1 1/8 miles. He capped the streak in an open optional claimer going a mile on the Laurel main track Nov. 24, but lost his perfect record when second in the Forty Niner S. on the Big A inner track Dec. 19. Off the board in his next two outings, the dark bay came back after six-plus weeks on the sidelines to take the state-bred off-the-turf Mister Diz S. at Pimlico Apr. 9, and was shortening up after fading to fifth in the one-mile Henry Clark S. on the local lawn Apr. 30. Reserved at the back of the five-horse field early, he angled wide at the top of the lane and hit the gas, taking over inside the final furlong to win going away. Fourth after setting the pace in the Gill Comely S. on the outer strip at the Big A Apr. 9, she dropped back to a sprint with good effect here. Up to press 4-5 Final Mesa (Sky Mesa) through a half in :46.12, she forged to the front near midstretch and gained a little daylight as they passed the sixteenth pole. Strike the Moon came flying in the red zone, but she left it too late, and R Holiday Mood hit the wire in front. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

BHA NAME NAMES IN CORRUPTION CHARGES

The British Horseracing Authority yesterday revealed that jockeys Paul Doe, Greg Fairley, Kirsty Milczarek and Jimmy Quinn and former rider Paul Fitzsimons have been charged as a result of its investigation into Britain's latest corruption scandal. A statement on the BHA website read, "It is alleged they conspired to commit a corrupt or fraudulent practice following a British Horseracing Authority investigation into suspicious betting activity on a number of races." Also charged are owners Maurice Sines and James Crickmore along with six others, who are alleged to have caused the aforementioned jockeys to "act by communicating to him directly or indirectly, at his request and for material reward, gift, favour or benefit in kind, inside information in relation to the named horse." All 10 races in question span between Jan. 17 and Aug. 15 2009 and a 10-day independent disciplinary panel hearing has been scheduled to begin Oct. 20. Chris Brand, acting chief executive of the BHA, said yesterday, "Protecting the integrity of racing is a key priority for the Authority. In recent years we have invested heavily into a wide ranging infrastructure of investigatory services designed to monitor and combat integrity threats to our sport. British racing is rightly recognised worldwide for its expertise in this area and the high standards we set for both ourselves and those participating."

Famed for being the home to stallions Archive (GB), Red God, Larkspur (GB), Raise You Ten (GB) and Ballad Rock (Ire), the 171-acre operation was also the birth place of the Irish Derby and St Leger winner Ragusa and is set to go to auctions June 29 with a guide price of €4.5 million.

NOBLE CAUSEWAY 2YO TOPS GOESBRIDGE SALE

Yesterday's Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale saw BBA Ireland pay €130,000 for the session's topper from the locally based Powerstown Stud. Hip 77, a son of Crestwood Farm's Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway), is from the immediate family of the stakes winner Cunningham Road (Relaunch). The March-foaled bay had been bought by BBA Ireland for $4,000 at Keeneland last January before being led out unsold at 7,500 guineas at Tattersalls last fall. That exceeded the €90,000 earlier paid by Gary Moore Racing for hip 62, a son of Royal Applause (GB) and the smart sprinter Tychy (GB) (Suave Dancer) from Torard House Stud. John Hanlon purchased a pair of sought-after colts in Grove Stud's hip 51, a Sleeping Indian (GB) half-brother to last year's G2 Mill Reef S. winner Temple Meads (GB) (Avonbridge {GB}) and listed-placed Sneak Preview (GB) (Monsieur Bond {Ire}) for €63,000; and Yeomanstown Stud's hip 108, a member of the first crop of Red Clubs (GB) (Red Ransom) who went for €40,000. His page includes the group winner and 1999 G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica third Barbola (Diesis {GB}). Late in the session, Ross Manhall paid €57,000 for Horse Park Stud's Jeremy colt, from the family of the sire Ifrac. Full results are available on www.irishhorse.com.

RUBY'S DAY (GB) (f, 2, Vital Equine {Ire}--Isabella's Best {Ire}, by King's Best), who ran a neck second to Wesley Ward's Royal Ascot-bound Judy the Beauty (Ghostzapper) in a course-and-distance conditions heat on debut May 2, was quickly into stride and set a modest tone in this return. Strongly pressed on both sides entering the final quarter mile, the 2-1 second choice knuckled down well and was pushed out in the closing stages to comfortably best Family One (Fr) (Dubai Destination) by a neck. Ruby's Day becomes the second winner for her freshman sire (by Danetime {GB}). Ward trainee Holdin Bullets (Ghostzapper) was scratched. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €25,300.

SHOCKING TO RICH HILL STUD Dual Group 1

winner Shocking (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}--Maria di Castiglia {gb}, by Danehill) has been retired and will stand at Rich Hill Stud in New Zealand in 2011. A group winner from 1600 to 3200 meters and a champion stayer in Australia, the 6-year-old recorded his biggest victory in the G1 Melbourne Cup in 2009. He also annexed the G1 Australian Cup over 2000 meters and the G2 Makybe Diva S. over a mile. He retires with seven wins in 24 starts and earnings of A$4,981,275. "Shocking is a superb type with a unique race record and a global pedigree," Rich Hill studmaster John Thompson said. "We're confident he will be a highly successful commercial addition to the New Zealand breeding industry. His progeny will have also great appeal to our overseas buyers who come here to buy tough, sound horses who can perform at the elite level." Trainer Mark Kavanagh said, "The turn of foot he showed in the Australian Cup was nothing short of amazing, and when he won the Melbourne Cup, he sat three deep all the way, and not many horses would be able to do that. He got better with age, and he was the quietest and most relaxed horse around the stable--he was right up there with the best of them. He's going to a quality stud where he will get the very best opportunities." Shocking was raced by Laurence and Prue Eales, of Eales Racing, who will retain a stake in the horse who is currently being syndicated among a number of leading New Zealand breeders. His stud fee has been set at NZ$12,000, plus GST.

sire. On election night, the bay overcame the Brazilian Xin Xu Lin (Brz) (Wondertross) and Anaerobio (Arg) (Catcher In The Rye {Ire}), supported by his unforgettable victories in the G1 Gran Premio republica Argentina, G1 Estrellas Classic and G1 Gran Premio de Honor. "It's a big push for all the people of Santa Fe, my province, and I share this award with the people around Lingote de Oro and around Santa Fe," said an exulted Carlos Felice, owner of Keyser Soze Stud. Not to be outdone, Catch the Mad (Arg) (Catcher In the Rye {Ire}) dominated her respected divisions, and was named Mare of the Year, champion 2-year old filly and champion 3-year-old filly. Paulinho (Arg) (Equal Stripes {Arg}) lived up to his heavy favoritism and came away with champion 2-year-old colt honors. Anaerobio gained some retribution with recognition as champion 3-year-old colt, Ollagua (Arg) (Pure Prize) was tabbed champion older mare, and Claro Oscuro (Arg) (Mutakddim) and Inter Red (Arg) (Rincon Red {Arg}) dominated the sprinter and miler divisions, respectively. In the human categories, Pablo Falero was named Jockey of the Year, while Juan C. Etchechoury (h) was elected champion trainer. Rubio B. returned to win the prize for the Owner of the Year; the leading breeder title going to the prominent Haras Firmamen.
