LOVE SHACK, BABY

He got caught in the final jump of the GI Florida Derby and was in front a lot longer than many expected before running fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby, but Shackleford (Forestry) held on all the way to take Saturday's GI Preakness S. at Pimlico by a half-length. GI Kentucky Derby hero Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) closed ground in the stretch to be second, but the weary yet determined Shackleford fought on gamely to give his connections their first Classic success. ## FROM FATHER TO SON

It was a family affair at The Curragh yesterday as Joseph O'Brien steered Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to an all-the-way success in the G1 Abu Dhabi Irish 2000 Guineas, providing his father Aidan's Ballydoyle stable with a seventh edition in the process. Unplaced in the Newmarket equivalent, where he paid the price for trying to chase Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) early on, last year's G1 Criterium International hero had nothing of that caliber to contend with here. Shaking off the 7-4 favorite Dubawi Gold (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) late on, the 7-2 shot scored by 3/4 of a length for owners Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and the Sangster Family. "He jumped smart and traveled easily, so I let him stride along," the apprentice, who is 18 tomorrow, said following his textbook ride. "He is very genuine, quickened up well and stayed going all the way to the line. I'm not really sure what happened last time, but the ground was very fast at Newmarket, and he was taken off his feet. Today, this stiff mile suited him well, and he was meeting the ground well." Cont. p4; Irish 1000 Guineas Preview, p12-13

Shaky Start...

Shackleford (Forestry), 17-1 in his career opener at Keeneland last October, ran to his odds, finishing ninth after showing brief speed on the Polytrack. The flashy chestnut was 25-1 when unveiled on the Churchill main track the following month, but the result was much different, as he battled to a 3/4-length victory. He opened 2011 with a decisive two-turn allowance score at Gulfstream Park Feb. 5, earning himself a ticket to the GII Fountain of Youth S. 23 days later, but his first foray into the graded ranks did not go well. Finding himself off the pace, the homebred showed little down the lane and finished a distant fifth. The handicappers had little faith in the colt after that performance, and Shackleford was 68-1 in the Apr. 3 GI Florida Derby, but he outran his odds by a mile. In front through a half in :46 1/5 and six furlongs in 1:10 3/5, he had two lengths on the field at the eighth pole, but just couldn't quite hold off Dialed In (Mineshaft), losing by a head. The fractions were decidedly softer in the May 7 GI Kentucky Derby; the 3-year-old got away with a half in :48 3/5 and six panels in 1:13 2/5, and it looked like he might go all the way. But that last furlong proved his undoing, and Shackleford faded to fourth on the first Saturday in May.

Dale Romans Horsephotos

TAYLOR MADE STALLIONS

It was a different story two weeks later. Off at 12-1-- his lowest odds since his allowance score at 9-2-- Shackleford broke sharply, but allowed Flashpoint (Pomeroy) to take a narrow lead into the first turn. The two ripped off an opening quarter in :22.69, but slowed it down after that, going the second quarter in :24.18 and the third in :25.14. Flashpoint gave in before they'd completed a mile in 1:37.22, and it was Shackleford in front as they hit the lane. Astrology tried to make a run at him from the rail, but could only get to his heels. The effort was taking its toll, and Shackleford was laboring as Animal Kingdom came at him, shifting back to his left lead as they approached the wire. But he found one last gasp of energy to hold off the Kentucky Derby winner at the wire. "I've won some big races, but none as exciting as that one," trainer Dale Romans said. "He was a little hot, but he wasn't acting that bad, and it's a hot day. It didn't take much out of him. I was more concerned if he was going to hang on. [The pace] was fast, but he kind of pulled everyone else out of the race. He has a high cruising speed. We weren't worried about slowing it down as much as getting him into a good rhythmic pace and let him keep on going." Added jockey Jesus Castanon, also enjoying his first taste of Classic champagne, "I felt somebody coming at the sixteenth pole. I knew that Animal Kingdom was the only horse who was able to come get me." Shackleford will be pointed for the June 11 GI Belmont S.

Feeling Their Oats...

Bill Cubbedge and Mike Lauffer, in partnership with Marty Takacs' Belvedere Farm, picked up SP Oatsee (Unbridled), in foal to Langfuhr, for just $135,000 as a KEEJAN broodmare in 2006. That same year, the

Lady Joanne Horsephotos

mare's Baghdaria (Royal Academy) captured three Grade III events--the Silverbulletday S., Iowa Oak and Indiana BC Oaks--and then-2-year-old daughter Lady Joanne (Orientate) captured the GII Golden Rod S. But the best was yet to come. Lady Joanne was four-for-seven in 2007, and became a Grade I winner with a neck tally in the 10-panel Alabama S. at Saratoga. Cubbedge and Lauffer decided to strike while the iron was hot. They sent Oatsee to A.P. Indy in 2008, after Shackleford was foaled, then entered her at Keeneland November, where she brought $1.55 million from My Meadowview LLC. "We bought Oatsee on a Thursday," Takacs told TDN back in 2008. "We paid $135,000 for her, which, to be honest with you, I thought was about $10,000 too much. Then, on Saturday, her 3-year-old at the time, Baghdaria, won her first stakes race, the GIII Silverbulletday S. [at Fair Grounds]. I never will forget sitting in my kitchen on Sunday and telling those guys that this may be as good as it ever gets." Not by a long shot, as it turned out.

Mike Lauffer

BILL CUBBEDGE & MIKE LAUFFER

Friends for more than 30 years, Kentucky natives Lauffer and Cubbedge met through their work in the natural gas industry. Lauffer, the majority owner, followed his father and grandfather into the oil and gas business and now runs the family company, JML Oil and Gas, in Paintsville, Ky. Cubbedge hails from Catlettsburg, Ky.

No Triple for Animal Kingdom...

GI Kentucky Derby winner Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), the 2-1 Preakness chalk, broke at the back of the pack and raced in the rearguard for six furlongs. He was only about six lengths off it as they finished up the six furlongs in 1:12.01, but the soft middle splits gave Shackleford just enough leeway to stymie Animal Kingdom's Triple Crown hopes. "We were just too far back," jockey John Velazquez said. "When I wanted him to go, he got dirt kicked in his face, so I had to pull him farther back than I wanted him to be." Added trainer Graham Motion, "It's tough to come that close, but he ran a huge race. I kind of thought for an instant that he might get there, but I wasn't sure. It's ironic because Dale [Romans] led me down to the winner's circle after the Derby." Motion added, "Shoot, we won the Derby and we just got beat in the Preakness. I would love to win a Triple Crown... there is so much pressure to do that because it would be so good for the game. But it wasn't meant to be." Animal Kingdom will be pointed for the third leg of the Crown. "[The Belmont] definitely will be a possibility, as long as he's OK," the conditioner offered.

Roderic O'Connor was third on debut behind today's opponent Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) and

Caroline Norris/Racing Post

Master of Hounds (Kingmambo) in a seven-furlong maiden at Leopardstown in June, but reversed form with that runner-up under a positive ride from the front over the same trip here later that month. Off until October, the bay was 25-1 for the G1 Dewhurst S., with most punters assuming his inclusion was an afterthought in a much-hyped renewal of the Newmarket feature. Aggressive tactics saw him finish a highly creditable 2 1/4-length runner-up to Frankel, and he was clearly best at the end of the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud at the end of that month. Only two finished behind him in the 2000 Guineas, but connections retained the faith, and the booking of Joseph O'Brien signposted a positive effort to come. Allowed to stride on from the outset, he had Dunboyne Express in close attendance, but looked to have that rival's measure as early as the quarter pole. Oracle emerged from the pack working hard under Seamie Heffernan, while Richard Hughes was creeping nearer on the patiently ridden Dubawi Gold.

Despite the latter's progress late on, Roderic O'Connor had already inflicted the damage and kept finding in the final yards. "I can't say how much we appreciate being given this chance--it is something you can't dream about," a humble Aidan O'Brien said after revealing that the jockey decision had received the unanimous blessing of all owners. "Everyone has been so supportive, and we are lucky to be in this position. This is for all the people who have worked so hard to make days like this happen. Joseph rides him all the time in his work and knows him better than anyone, so he was going to play it by ear. He won in France last year being ridden handily, so he wasn't worried about going on and he got the pace right." Turning his attention to the winner, the Ballydoyle conditioner added, "I think he got stage fright at Newmarket on his first run, with Frankel jumping and going so hard. The plan was either to go to either the [June 4] G1 Epsom Derby or G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [at Chantilly June 5] after today, and that will be discussed now." Dam Secret Garden, bred by Swettenham Stud, was hammered down for 450,000gns with the Irish Guineas winner in utero at TATDEC 2007. Cormac McCormack Bloodstock signed the ticket. She had a Galileo colt in 2009, and a filly by that sire in 2010.

Awesome Maria, winner of the GII Matron S. and second by a head in the GI Frizette S. at two, was coming off a 4 3/4-length score in the Feb. 19 GIII Sabin S. and an eight-length romp in the GIII Rampart S., both at Gulfstream. She didn't get off so easy this time. The grey made only four starts last season, winning the Riskaverse S. on the turf at Saratoga in September, but she ended the year with a second in the GI Gazelle S. at Aqueduct Nov. 27. She underlined her authority on the East Coast with this game effort. The odds-on chalk chased Absinthe Minded through a quarter in :23.64 and was at her girth as they galloped through a half in :47.38. The crowd's choice looked ready to inhale the pacesetter at the top of the lane, but Absinthe Minded wasn't done and battled on gamely from the inside. It was only in the final stride that she managed to get her head in front. "She's a game filly," winning jockey Javier Castellano said. "She responded very well...it was a great performance. I could feel I had a lot of horse, and I think she wanted to be competitive with the other horse [runner-up Absinthe Minded]."

She needed the help of the stewards, but Ultra Blend picked up her third consecutive victory here, and her fifth in her last six starts. The bay annexed the Cal Cup Matron in October and the Cat's Cradle S. in December, both at Hollywood, but missed by a half-length when third behind Evening Jewel (Northern Afleet) in the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Distaff S. at Santa Anita. Shaking off the narrow loss, she came back to take the Feb. 29 Valentine Dancer H. and Apr. 23 B Thoughtful S., and was 8-1 as she ventured into the graded ranks for the first time. Ultra Blend trailed the field around the clubhouse turn, but gained some ground while tucked in at the fence down the backstretch and on the final bend. Jockey David Flores eased her off the fence when they straightened for home, and she took aim on the leaders as St Trinians swept up on her outside. It looked like St Trinians had it in the bag, but she drifted in as she took the lead, forcing the second, third and fourth finishers to steady. The stewards posted the inquiry sign and, after a review, disqualified her and placed her fourth, giving Ultra Blend the win.

Paddy O'Prado established himself as last year's leading sophomore turfer with wins in the GI Secretariat S., GII Virginia Derby and GII Colonial Turf Cup to go with a third in the GI Kentucky Derby and second in the GI Bluegrass S. Last seen finishing fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic under the Twin Spires Nov. 6, he loomed an imposing presence making his 2011 debut here. Reserved in last while Baryshnikov carved out splits of :24.76, :49.07 and 1:14.21, the big grey swung five wide turning for home and inhaled the field to run to his odds. But trainer Dale Romans, who would shortly be celebrating his first Classic victory, wasn't sure of the result until the last jump. "I wasn't comfortable until they hit the wire," Romans admitted, but added, "He's amazing. It makes no difference--Grade I race on Poly, the Classic on dirt, multiple-stakes wins on turf--he's just a phenomenal horse. We just wanted him to run his race, relax early and follow Kent's commands and that's what he did. This is the start of a great year, I hope."

Looking for his first victory since taking the GII Potrero Grande H. on the Santa Anita Pro-Ride more than 13 months ago, Ventana overcame a stewards' objection and a claim of foul to return to the winner's circle. The bay was on the DL after running fourth in the 2010 GII Churchill Downs H. in May, returning to fill out the superfecta in the Jan. 22 GII Palos Verdes S. He was fourth again in the Feb. 19 GII San Carlos H., then stepped it up a notch to be third in the Apr. 3 Potrero Grande. He was co-favored to regain the winning thread. Ventana was up to force the issue through fractions of :22.84 and :45.75, and had a narrow lead as they hit the lane. Immortal Eyes was at his flank and gaining when Ventana came out slightly under the left-handed whip, brushing with his rival. Immortal Eyes hesitated a stride, then came on again, missing by a head. The stewards took a look at the tape, but allowed the order of finish to stand.

Super Espresso made it three straight in the Sky Beauty S. at Aqueduct Feb. 6. Third in the Am Capable S. at the Big A Mar. 4, she was eased last out when trying 12 panels and turf in the Gill Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 28, but rebounded in this shorter dirt event. The 11-1 shot bided her time well off the pace and came with a sweeping move to race into contention turning for home. Payton d'Oro did her best to slow Super Espresso's rally by lugging out in the lane, but the longshot would not be denied. Super Espresso was hammered down to British oral surgeon Dr. Karen Sanderson at KEESEP 2008, but Sanderson's credit check could not be completed and the sale was voided. Bobby Flay bought the filly privately shortly thereafter for an undisclosed sum.

A maiden winner during her brief British campaign, No Explaining had been first or third in all six starts since crossing the Atlantic. The bay capped 2010 by completing the triple in the Gill Lake George S. at the Spa in July, Ontario Colleen S. at Woodbine in August and Gill Valley View S. at Keeneland in October. She had been out once previously this term, taking an allowance on a yielding Keeneland sod Apr. 16, and handled this rain-soaked surface as well. Rated in third as she rode the rail around the first turn, No Explaining eased outside the leaders at the top of the lane and set sail for home. The diminutive filly powered to the front before they hit the eighth pole and strode out strongly to the wire. Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect), making her first start since taking the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf Nov. 5, was an even fourth. "She was giving everybody 10 pounds, so we knew we were up against it," trainer Graham Motion said. "We were worried, but unfortunately we didn't have another option." Next up is the Gill New York S. at Belmont June 25.

Apart took the GII Super Derby last September and added the GIII Ack Ack H. at Churchill Nov. 5, but was disappointing when finishing at the back of the pack in the GI Clark H. three weeks later. He had hit the board in his three prior starts this term, all at Fair Grounds, and was last seen running second in the Mar. 26 New Orleans H. On the outside while sitting just off the pace set by Colizeo, the dark bay went after the leader when they hit the lane, but had a donnybrook on his hands, finally getting past his determined rival inside the eighth pole and holding sway to the wire. Adele Dilschneider acquired second dam Lovat's Lady, in foal to Phone Trick, for $265,000 at KEENOV '94. The mare was sold for $22,000, in foal to Aljabr, at KEENOV '03. Workin For Hops was off the board just once in seven appearances last season, with wins in the GII American Derby and Arlington Classic and a third to Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}) in the GI Secretariat S. The gelding rolled a pair of fours at the Fair Grounds this winter, chasing home Expansion (Maria's Mon) in the GIII Fair Grounds H. Feb. 19 and Smart Bid (Smart Strike) in the GII Mervin Muniz Memorial H. Mar. 26. The chestnut gave a good account of himself in the GI Maker's Mark Mile S. Apr. 15, chasing Get Stormy (Stormy Atlantic) all the way around in a runner-up effort. Favored in just his third start on the all-weather, Workin For Hops settled in midfield as Cool Bullet (Red Bullet) did the dirty work up front. He took closer order on the turn, responded to pinch a break when asked by James Graham and stayed on gamely for the victory.

Winner of the 1 1/6-mile GIII Santa Ysabel S. at Santa Anita in January, May Day Rose failed to last in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 5 after setting rapid fractions, tiring to a well-beaten fourth behind Zazu (Tapit). She again faltered in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 5, finishing well off in fifth, and trainer Bob Baffert shipped her to Oaklawn Park for a confidence-boosting score in the one-mile Instant Racing S. Apr. 16. Sent off the second choice in her return to California to the highly regarded allowance winner Pedalthemedal, May Day Rose proved her 5-2 odds a generous price. She stalked in third off Advantage Player (Bernstein)'s :22 2/5 and :45 3/5 pace, took over when asked in the stretch and drew clear with authority. The chalk looked poised a quarter mile out, but couldn't match strides with the top two. "She can do anything," said winning rider Joel Rosario. "She can go to the lead or come from behind. Turning for home, she was traveling real nice, and I had her on a long hold. I hadn't even asked her to run yet. I knew I had a good chance from there. She was nice and relaxed and when I asked her to go, she drew away." Adding wining owner Kaleem Shah, "She's been a good one. At the Grade I level, she didn't run her best races, but one level below that she seems to be firing. It's up to Bob what to do with her next. All I ask him is to tell me where and when."

Emulous opened her black-type account in Tipperary's G3 Concorde S. over an extended seven furlongs in early October before adding to her tally in the Listed Garnet S. at Naas a fortnight later. Only sixth on her return behind Lolly For Dolly in the seven-furlong G3 Gladness S. at this venue last time Apr. 3, the bay delivered an improved effort to reverse that form here. Stalking her arch-rival as the pair settled off the early pace, the Juddmonte homebred was traveling better of the two as they began to dominate approaching the final furlong and gradually asserted in the run to the line. "She's very consistent and is entered in the [June 15] G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot, so I'll speak to Lord Grimthorpe," trainer Dermot Weld explained. With Overdose (GB) (Starborough {GB}) meeting his match on his first visit to these shores, it was left to Sole Power to prove his success in last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. was no fluke. His comprehensive defeat of the stellar dragster Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) as a 100-1 shot in that five-furlong York contest was scarcely believable coming on the back of some less-than-inspiring efforts in the Irish sprints. The jury remained out after a comeback unplaced effort in Meydan's G2 Al Quoz Sprint over this trip Mar. 26, but he showed more last time when dead-heating for third behind Tangerine Trees (GB) (Mind Games {GB}) in Newmarket's G3 Palace House S. again over five Apr. 30. Switched off behind the early speed duel which took place here between that winner, Hamish McGonagall (GB) (Namid {GB}) and the "Budapest Bullet" Overdose, the bay started to pick up the pieces as that pace collapsed approaching the final furlong. In front soon after, he was ridden out with hands and heels to keep the fellow closer Kingsgate Native at bay. "They were always going to go very quick early on, with the Budapest Bullet in there for everyone to try and chase," jockey Keagan Latham said. "I got a slight knock out of the gates, but I wasn't too worried as we had talked about it beforehand and decided to give him a bit of a chance. They went very hard early on and it worked in our favor. He picked up very nicely and won impressively."

Winning trainer Edward Lynam added, "He'll go to the posh place for the [June 14] G1 King's Stand S., but the race we want to win again is the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 19]." Overdose's rider Andreas Suborics discarded his mount's hood during the race, which temporarily blinded the eventual fourth Borderlescott (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) and he later told PA Sport, "He just moved too high on the ground and I think he would prefer it softer now after his problems. The ground felt very fast and at halfway I was worried as his action was getting higher and higher. It is not the horse's fault he has had problems, but he has not been able to show his best today. I think he deserves another chance on softer ground."

THE SAME OLD TUNE?

Since 2001, Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells), Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) have rebounded from unplaced efforts at Newmarket to claim glory in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, setting a clear precedent for a return to form for Michael Tabor's Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in today's Etihad Airways-sponsored renewal of The Curragh Classic. While stable companion Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) fared better when second in the May 1 G1 1000 Guineas, Misty For Me had inflicted two defeats on that stable companion during a juvenile campaign, at the end of which she was crowned Europe's champion. Her two wins at this venue came in the G2 Debutante S. and G1 Moyglare Stud S. over seven furlongs in August, where Laughing Lashes (Mr. Greeley) filled the runner's-up spot and Together was third and fourth, respectively.

Misty For Me was only 11th at Newmarket, her first true below-par effort, and she deserves some forgiveness here. Together was denied by 3/4 lengths by Blue Bunting (Dynaformer) when runner-up in the Guineas and, along with last Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Wild Wind (Ger) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), makes up a potent challenge from Rosegreen.

John Oxx saddled Ridgewood Pearl (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) to success here in 1995, and has a live contender to follow up in His Highness The Aga Khan's Emiyna (Maria's Mon). She stepped up markedly off a Dundalk maiden win to best the year-older Lolly For Dolly (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) with something to spare in this venue's G3 Athasi S. over a panel shorter May 2. "She is proven to an extent, in that she's won a Group 3 and has shown a good turn of foot," Oxx told PA Sport. "She's fairly adaptable ground-wise, and should go the extra furlong. She needs to come on another seven pounds to be fighting out the finish, but we're happy with her."

Emiyna

Oxx also puts forward his wife's promising History Note (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}), who was an eye-catching third in the Mar. 27 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial. Oxx commented, "Our other runner there probably has to come on a bit more--about a stone from her last run--but it was a good run at Leopardstown, where she was unlucky and learned a lot on the day. We've given her a nice break since then. She's working well and seems to be on the upgrade. We'll just to have find out how much she has improved by." One trainer unaccustomed to being represented in the Classics is Pat Fahy, but in Ballybacka Lady (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) he has a deserving candidate for honors. There did not appear to be any fluke in her game defeat of Sapphire Pendant (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) in the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial at Leopardstown last time May 8, and she has the kind of aggressively tough running style that is so often suited to this track. "We were a bit surprised she won the last day, to be honest," her trainer told PA Sport. "We'd have been happy if she'd been third and picked up some black type. To win it like she did was a bit of a shock, but we were delighted all the same and, off the back of that, she deserves to take her chance on Sunday. She had plenty in the tank the last day and was just idling in front at the finish. Hopefully, there is a bit more to come."

Presvis, winner two back of the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. over nine furlongs, stretches back out to 10 furlongs for this event in which he was narrowly beaten in 2009. Connections opted to try him over 1600 meters in the G1 Champions Mile last time, and he rallied well, but could do no better than sixth, beaten less than two lengths. Wigmore Hall, victorious in the G2 Jebel Hatta S. prior to his third behind Presvis in the Duty Free, never got untracked in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin May 1 and was beaten a half-dozen lengths into 11th behind the progressive Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}). He has the license to do better with a more honest pace tonight. If Ambitious Dragon is an emerging superstar, then California Dragon must not be far behind. Winner of the Hong Kong Gold Cup over this, his pet distance, he exits a runner-up effort in the QE II, where he was beaten just 3/4 of a length.

Rocket Man will need to overcome the nine hole in a race that has narrowly eluded him in each of the last two years. The gelding enters the KrisFlyer in career-best form, having followed his win in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen with an easy five-length success over Better Be the One the Lion City Cup over course and distance May 1. Hong Kong horses pillaged the prize at the expense of today's race favorite for the last two seasons. Sacred Kingdom took the race in 2009 and Green Birdie was an upset winner 12 months back, but each looks to have a tough task ahead of them this evening.

All carry 128 pounds bar Flash Dance & Goldikova, 125.

Goldikova faces stiff opposition as she chases a 13th Group 1 in the race in which she was successfully re-introduced 12 months ago. While all roads lead to a fourth GI Breeders' Cup Mile, France's regina has some important staging posts en route, and there will be inevitable disappointment if she fails to deliver here. "I think she is just as good as she was last year," trainer Freddy Head told PA Sport. "I like this race for her. It is a good place to start. We would absolutely like to go back to Royal Ascot. We will see what she does on Sunday and decide that with the owners." The Wertheimers' Racing Manager Pierre-Yves Bureau added, "Everything is okay for the moment and, of course, we look forward to seeing her again. She is going to run against plenty of horses who have already run this year, and she is having her first run, but I saw her last week and she is in good form and in good shape. It is over nine furlongs, which is her maximum distance."

Head also saddles Rajsaman and pacemaker Flash Dance, with the former representing some important form lines. He had last year's d'Ispahan runner-up and G1 Prince of Wales's S. scorer Byword a length back in second when in receipt of seven pounds in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1. "Rajsaman is a very nice horse," Head added. "He deserves to step up to a Group 1 and I like him a lot, but it is going to be hard for him to beat Goldikova. He would also like the ground a bit softer than it will be, but we will see." Last year's G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Dick Turpin posted a very smart win on his return in the Apr. 23 G2 Sandown Mile before throwing in a rare disappointing effort last Saturday when only fourth in Newbury's G1 Lockinge S. He was stepped up in trip here, and trainer Richard Hannon is expecting a bold show. "It was a shame that he did not run better at Newbury, but he would not let himself down on the fast ground, and Ryan [Moore] sensibly looked after him," Hannon said. "This race comes plenty quick enough and, though you never know how they will react until you run them, he seems well at home, and the ground at Longchamp is good-to-soft, which will suit us much better."

All carry 126 pounds.

Glorious Sight will give an early indication as to the worth of the form of last Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, having been the closest to Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in that mile Classic. "Glorious Sight has recovered well after running second in the Pouliches and was in excellent form when I left France [for Singapore] on Thursday," trainer Robert Collet told the Racing Post. "Rather than take on fillies like Golden Lilac again...in the Diane, I thought this was a better opportunity, and the race looks open. I think she will stay the distance, as the filly has already won a Listed race over 1,800 metres. She has stamina on her sire's side and speed from her dam." Helped by a low draw and positive tactics last time, as she had been when winning the Listed Prix Finlande over nine furlongs here Apr. 10, she has stamina to prove against some promising middle-distance types.

The Prix Saint-Alary competition includes the Apr. 21 G3 Prix Penelope winner Don't Hurry Me, who hails from the Jean-Claude Rouget barn successful in four of the last seven runnings, and Epic Love. The latter beat La Pernelle by a head in the G3 Prix Vanteaux over an extended nine furlongs here last time Apr. 30, and is a leading player. Six-time winning trainer Andre Fabre relies on Wavering, who was staying on well when third in Saint-Cloud's G3 Prix Cleopatre May 7.

All carry 127 pounds bar Mid Mon Lady, 124.

So You Think bids to follow in the steps of Ballydoyle's Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in garnering this prize, which has sometimes had an uncompetitive look to it. If that is the case again this year, it is only due to the fact that the ex-Australian five-time Group 1 winner has such a grip on the imagination at present. While his Irish intro in the G3 Mooresbridge S. over this track and trip May 2 was no Cox Plate, his facile 10-length success gave notice of his sheer quality. Famous Name is a worthy adversary as he chases an elusive first top-level success, having proven himself time and time again in Listed, Group 3 and Group 2 company. Runner-up to stable companion Casual Conquest (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) in this two years ago, the Juddmonte stalwart has won six of his last eight black-type starts, albeit mostly against the usual suspects that have grown accustomed to chasing his tail. With confidence high after a latest seven-length win in Leopardstown's G3 Amethyst S. over a mile May 8, he will expose any cracks in the armor of the mighty dark bay. Unlike Famous Name, Godolphin's Campanologist has achieved Group 1 glory, but he had to travel to Germany to achieve that. He will need vast improvement on his wins in Hamburg's G1 Deutschland Preis in July and G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne in August to upset the front two, and hardly advertised his wares on his return when fourth in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket Apr. 30. "Campanologist is in good form at the moment, but the ground is very important for him," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "It was too fast for him when he ran at Newmarket, and I am hoping that there is some rain in Ireland ahead of Sunday so that he can take his chance. He came back from his latest start sound and is ready to run again."

All carry 123 pounds, bar Marinous & Opinion Poll, 126.

Despite being out of the frame on his last five outings, Marinous sets the standard on last year's defeat of Redwood (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville, and he was only beaten just over three lengths when saddled with a penalty in the G3 Prix de Barbeville over this track and trip last time Apr. 30. He is up against Dunaden, Mashoor and Brigantin, who were the winner, runner-up and fourth, respectively, in that contest, but he may have most to fear from Godolphin's Opinion Poll. Last year's G2 Lonsdale Cup scorer was a latest third in Meydan's G3 DRC Gold Cup over two miles Mar. 10, and will appreciate any rain. "Opinion Poll is well, but he is likely to need the run on Sunday," trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni explained. "He was unlucky not to win out in Dubai, and he also ran very well over the course and distance at the end of last season."

Excelebration was the only rival to get anywhere near Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) when beaten four lengths in the G3 Greenham S. over seven furlongs at Newbury Apr. 16 and warrants respect on that evidence, despite the form of that race having taken a few knocks. He meets the unbeaten pick of the home team Gereon, who looked a force to be reckoned with in Krefeld's G3 Herzog Von Ratibor-Rennen in November. Acadius, who was last in that contest, rebounded on his sophomore bow with a gutsy defeat of the admirably consistent Rose Danon and Stark Danon in the Listed Preis der Dreijahrigen over 7 1/2 furlongs at Dusseldorf last time Apr. 10.

Earl of Tinsdal defends his perfect record in this important Deutsches Derby prep, having shown a willing attitude as well as class when making all to annex Frankfurt's G3 Albert Von Metzler-Rennen last time May 1. He had the re-opposing Mawingo back in third on that occasion, and should uphold the form. Last year's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten winner Silvaner is a more likely threat if he can put a latest lifeless display behind him when fourth as favorite for the G3 Dr Busch Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 17.

Chinglish earned his diploma in start number four at Gulfstream Mar. 26, and was sixth last time in his first attempt against winners back in Hallandale Beach Apr. 23. The mild longshot broke well from his inside draw and enjoyed a ground-saving journey in the second flight behind splits of :24.89, :49.79 and 1:14.19. Presser Humble and Hungry wore down pacesetter Joe's Blazing Aaron (Graeme Hall) in upper stretch, but had no response for the eventual winner, who tipped out and drove clear. Vengeful Wildcat won his first two starts out of the box, including the July 25 Tyro S. at Monmouth Park, before ending the season with a half-length defeat in the GIII Sapling S. after a bad stumble at the start. Eby Novak's homebred returned with a solid third-place effort in the Fred "Cappy" Capossela S. over the Aqueduct inner track Mar. 5 and was the unluckiest kind of loser of Aqueduct's GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 9 when he was tagged late by JJs Lucky Train (Silver Train). Vengeful Wildcat jumped well and led for a few strides between rivals before settling in third to chase Chipshot. The dark bay came to tackle the pacesetter at the head of the lane, pressed by at the eighth pole and just held on for the win. "He's a pretty honest little sucker," said winning trainer Ben Perkins Jr. "[Jockey] Carlos [Marquez] fits him well. He knows the horse completely. He broke well and ran well. He's a very tractable horse. It looks like he likes the outside." Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

BOLD WARRIOR (c, 3, Bernardini--Hollywood Wildcat {Ch. 3yo Filly, MGISW, $1,432,160}, by Kris S.) was the subject of solid pari-mutuel support at 5-2 in his Apr. 30 debut at Belmont Park and led narrowly into the final furlong before yielding grudgingly to finish second by 3/4 of a length. The Cowan homebred was pounded down to 40 cents on the dollar here and made no mistake. Allowed to sit just outside of front-running and debuting August Osage (Indian Charlie), Bold Warrior had that rival when the rider pleased and drew off late for a three-length victory.  Successful Mission, a winner of three of five for trainer Bill Mott last year, as moved to Eddie Plesa Jr. for the 2011 season and opened his year with a smart wire-to-wire win on Gulfstream's sod in a grassy mid-March allowance. He tired to fifth in the Gill Appleton S. in Hallandale Apr. 3, then put up a career effort when taking the Gill Miami H. at Calder Apr. 30. Left in when this race was taken off the turf, the gelding cut out :23 1/5 and :46 flat splits and just kept on motoring, cruising home a dominant winner. "He was very comfortable," said winning jockey Chuck Lopez. "I worked him the other day and he handled the dirt great for a turf horse. I wasn't sure I was going to be able to beat Get Serious to the lead but I worked on my horse and was able to get the jump. Gill Palm Beach S. Mar. 12. Exiting a seventh in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 16, he was the odds-on selection in this prep for the race which bears his name. The Mill House runner won the break, but was eased back into fifth into the first turn by Eurico Rosa da Silva. Shuffled back to last, but in touch, at the five-eighths, he was given his cue on the final turn and looped the field four or five wide. After striking the front in upper stretch, he accelerated away and stamped himself the one to beat in the Queen's Plate June 26. "He gives you such a nice feeling," said da Silva, who was also aboard for the initial lifetime triumph. "He's a very relaxed horse. I just pressed him a little bit in the turn for him to catch up with them. He ran a very wonderful race."

The bay colt was unprepared for the start of his seven-furlong debut on the Tampa main track Mar. 23, added blinkers for his turf and two-turn bow in Oldsmar Apr. 15 and came from near the tail of the field to finish third. Dead last early behind a half in :49.03 while glued to the hedge, the bay wheeled out seven wide in search of a clear path in the lane and flashed an impressive late kick to run down Correspondent (Rock Hard Ten) and earn her diploma by a half-length. Earning ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status on debut over six furlongs of this circuit May 2, Power got away with a drop back to the minimum trip here to edge out the aptly-named Tough As Nails in a thriller. Having shown an admirable attitude when getting the better of Remember Alexander (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) last time, the bay was well-supported despite that runner's flop in the first race on the card and the presence of some similarly precocious talent in this line-up. Breaking quickly, he led to halfway where he was pressed and passed by the eventual runner-up but dug in gamely under Seamie Heffernan's drive to regain the advantage in the shade of the post. "Five furlongs wouldn't be his trip, but he has class and this fitted in nicely for him," his rider said, before Aidan O'Brien revealed that Royal Ascot is his target now. "We were thinking of Ascot and this was a good sharpener," the Ballydoyle conditioner added. "Hopefully, he'll run in the [June 14] G2 Coventry S." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Switched wide for her effort passing halfway, the 11-1 shot quickened impressively to cut down Belle Passe (Van Nistelrooy) in the final stride and score by a head. "She's a very smart filly and we thought a bit of her," jockey Kevin Manning commented. Runner-up in the 2007 G1 Racing Post Trophy, City Leader failed in 10 starts—including three further tries at the highest level—since landing the 2008 Listed Cocked Hat S. here and prepared for this with a fifth--coming back from injury--in the Listed Paradise S. at Ascot Apr. 27. Settled in rear until angled to the outside on the bridle for his bid at the three pole here, he kept on strongly under final-furlong urging to assert superiority nearing the line. "It's great to see him back," conditioner Brian Meehan told PA Sport. "He had a complicated injury and a lot of people worked very hard on him--both the vets and my staff. He has a heart the size of a house and he'll get a mile and a half now. We'll have to find him something at Royal Ascot if we can." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Second in the Feb. 26 Listed Cleves S. at Lingfield, Anne of Kiev garnered a belated first stakes win in the Listed Hever Sprint S. back there one month later, but slipped to fourth in the Apr. 14 Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket. She then ran eighth in the May 7 Listed Kilvington Fillies' S. at Nottingham last time, but bounced back in style under a welter burden to double her black-type tally in this. Racing last of the 16 runners until inching into contention at halfway, Anne of Kiev quickened to challenge the front rank passing the eighth pole and was ridden out to comfortably prevail. "We had thought about running her in the [G2] Temple S. [earlier on the card], but she disappointed at Nottingham last time when I think the ground was a bit loose," trainer Jeremy Gask told PA Sport. "She has done it well today, and we'll play it by ear as to where we go next." Video, courtesy Racing UK.
